We have contacted several doctors, but none know what to do. Thus far they have prescribed cortisone. With so little known here about Agent Orange, we wonder if it is possible if any of your subscribers know about treating the subject. It will greatly help in the treatment of Hans.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: What is the difference between "Christianity" and the "WORD". U.P. - Michigan

RKH: Most churches teach the edicts of the state embellished with a few bells and whistles and call it "Christianity". "The WORD" is the ancient, never changing Law of the Saxon nation.

THE PASSION: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: For months I listened to one vitriolic tirade after another by the Jews against Mel Gibson and his 'anti-Semitic' new film, The Passion.

"The Bible says, 'The Jews... killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us and they please not God and are contrary to all men.' M. L. - prisoner Texas

RKH: Come, come! Simmer down. Step back and look at things. Can't you recognize a Hollywood production when you see one? Not just the picture - but the whole thing?

This movie grossed a third of a billion in the first few weeks. BIG! These kind of bucks don't just drop from the sky - they are the result of careful promotion. The best promotion is controversy. People went to the movie to see the controversy.

What caused the controversy? Jews killing God! However, Jews are sacrosanct - everybody knows you can't touch Jews. Curse God if you want, but say something against the Jews - in the USSR you were shot. In the West - you might as well be shot.

When the Jews do something despicable and get blamed for it - it's usually "showtime". In the case of The PASSION, their shrill bigoted objections resulted in a third of a billion dollar box-office the first few weeks. That much money would be impossible without Hollywood using Jews bashing Christ. So what's new?

Exactly what do you expect from Hollywood? Hollywood is deception. Acting is deception. Actors are deceivers. It's what they do. Good deceivers make a lot of money. Some are even elected president. Others are elected governors and congressmen. Even B-rated hacks can sometimes get employment and pull off a first rate performance. Take Castro. He was once a Hollywood actor. Still doing his schtick.

All actors eventually lose their true identity in a make-believe individual they once pretended to be. This is why Hollywood actors really believe they are someone other than what they are - like the king or princess - parts they once acted. Kings and princesses are above the law and can do as they like. They don't think of themselves as overpaid two-bit whores and whoremongers but great personages of the land - the envy of all. This is why Hollywood actors are often crazy as hoot-owls. They are perfect material to act the part of politicians, preachers, presidents of international corporations and God. For the pay and the glory they will act ANY part and continue acting it for the rest of their lives.

A third of a billion dollars! Big Bucks! Showtime controversy! The whole performance should win at least a billion or two plus one of those nickel and dime "Oscars"!

The Emmett Till Case Reopened

The "Justice" Department is re-opening the half-a-century-old Emmett Till case.

Emmett Till, a fresh young black, came South, made advances to a Saxon's wife in violation of the WORD prohibiting sexual relations with strangers and was shot. Those accused of shooting Till were acquitted. There were no blacks on the jury because the WORD says that unLawful strangers are not to rule over the sons of Isaac who are made in the image of the WORD.

Ignoring the WORD, Esau's media took the anti-Saxonite position to open the door for Esau's puppet government agents to harass Jacob.

Esau still refuses to acknowledge that the 1920s government arrest and imprisonment of the black nationalist leader Marcus Garvey, was done to destroy his "Back To Africa" organization. This prevented millions of blacks from returning to Africa and is probably the reason Emmett Till was even here. Alien races rubbing up against each other is like pouring salt in an open wound. Government intends to punish the strife the government is responsible for causing. It goes beyond hypocrisy - it reeks of conspiracy.

UNFILTERED NEWS

MONOPOLY: Citigroup was the only $1 trillion bank in the US. Now, there are two more - Bank of America has merged with FleetBoston, and J.P.Morgan Chase is merging with Bank One. (Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, p.1, June 18, 2004)

RKH: Readers will remember that in 1985, War Cycles/Peace Cycles predicted that, like Rome, bank mergers would continue and in time leave few. The largest would rule the world. Older readers will also remember HR #202 which stated, "A recent report filed with the SEC, Apr 22, 1991, reveals that the Saudis now hold over 5% of Chase Manhattan Bank. This is the second largest Saudi investment made since the war. The largest was a $590 million "investment" in Citibank. Many believe that this gives the Saudis effective control over both banks." The recent mergers give them vastly increased power. Who owns America? The WORD tells us; "They will be the head ..."

ENHANCED: "Enhanced interrogation techniques", which had been approved by the White House and used on al-Qaeda suspects, have been suspended by the CIA pending review. These techniques included "sleep deprivation", "feigning drowning and suffocation" and "stress positions". (Story in FT, p.3, June 28, 2004)

VIGILANTES: La Razon reports that the native residents of Ayo Ayo, Bolivia, lynched their mayor after beating, hanging, and setting him on fire. They were enraged that the state Supreme Court had acquitted him on charges of corruption. The article said, "Collective violence is a reaction to the lack of credibility of the official justice system." It ended,

"Unless the government starts listening to the natives, it won't be the last."

RKH: The Cartel has long blacked out grievances of captive nations. We Saxons see our own problems and forget that alien nations who dislike us hate the Banker's Cartel and its agents even more.

EURO FIZZLE: The Daily Telegraph of London says that the European dream has fizzled. Voters see a bloated bureaucracy issuing nit- picking regulations and downgrading their national governments. They were never given a choice. The political caste simply adopted it, never having to justify their case. This is giving rise to right-wing radicals like Jean-Marie Le Pen of France and Jorg Haider of Austria.

CHECHEN ATTACK: Some 200 Chechen fighters attacked police stations in the neighboring Nazran, Russia and killed at least 75 people and seized hundreds of weapons. They escaped in trucks loaded with munitions indicating that they have new recruits to arm.

DROUGHT: The west is suffering it worst drought in 400 years, with no relief in sight ... The flow in the Colorado River is barely half what it was in the 1930s, during the Dust Bowl .... Governors from 18 states met in Santa Fe to discuss how to confront the threat of wildfires, dwindling water supplies, and scorched crops. (The Week, p. 7, July 9, 2004)

RKH: Old readers will remember that this was in HR, The Weather, Nov 1985. It was based on a book predicting the beginning of an "Ice Age" - not the opposite. It predicted the dislocation of farming populations in the northern and southern hemispheres and where the deserts are expanding. All of this to take place worldwide. Forest fires, influx of immigrants escaping famine, a coming food shortage, recycling wood products due to diminished tree growing areas; If the 1985 story continues to unfold, we could have one interesting world ahead.

LYING: In a Josephon Institute survey, students at religious schools proved more likely to cheat and lie to parents and teachers than the national average. (Story in Christian Science Monitor, p.16, June 23, 2004)

RKH: Which is why "Jesus Christ... made us ... priests unto God." Rev 1:5-6 Without the baggage of establishment priests who are allegedly more likely to cheat and lie - your equal access to the WORD is more likely to produce truth for the remnant.

CRIME SCENE: A military judge declared Abu Ghraib prison a crime scene and ordered that it not be destroyed. President Bush had offered to tear down the Iraqi prison and build a new one to eliminate the legacy of torture and abuse developed under Saddam Hussein and his own administration. We remember that the government earlier rushed to dispose of the ruins of The Towers, Oklahoma City and Waco before they could be inspected. The government's eagerness to destroy un-inspected evidence points to Government involvement in all of them.

BUSH LEADERSHIP: "'Because of President Bush's leadership, an enemy of all Jews and an enemy of Israel was finally vanquished.' Noam Neusner, White House liaison, in an e-mail to Jewish community leaders, promoting a speech delivered by Bush in which he declared the world safer since Saddam Hussein's fall from power." (From Time, p.21, June 28, 2004)

RKH: The Republican party is the flip side of the Cartel coin. The Cartel's media were all in favor of Bush's invasion of Iraq. Now, that Iraq has been destroyed, the Cartel's media is against Bush and his atrocities. That leaves the Democrat candidate, Kerry - a Catholic Jew. What's not to like?

EXCEPTION: US fear of prosecution by the Int'l Criminal Court of US officials and soldiers involved in atrocities against Iraqi prisoners caused the US to ask the UN to renew their exemption. Security Council members voted down the exemption. The earlier exemption against prosecution expires June 30th. (IBD, p.1, June 24, 2004)

COUNTER INSURGENCY: Counter-insurgency experts are advising the Pentagon that revised Iraq policies may have come too late for the US to avoid either defeat, or, a long-term, unpopular, protracted, military commitment. The present situation is described as being like "eating soup with a fork." (FT, June 23, 2004)

RKH: More than that. US forces are under siege in the cities and can be supplied only by powerful convoys.. The countryside belongs to the Iraqis.

INDIAN TREATIES: California Gov. Schwarzenegger unveiled several treaties with Indian tribes granting them casino-building rights in exchange for waiving some of their sovereign status as independent governments. The deal is worth $1 billion to California. Five of 61 California tribes are expected to sign.

RKH: There are all sorts of ways to override anti-gambling laws and make illegal things legal. Hollywood actors are quick studies.

What do you suppose will happen when Saxons ask for the same sovereign rights enjoyed by Indians? As it stands now, tax-tribute takes half their income and they do most of the work. They feed the world, and are blamed and penalized for everything that goes wrong.

TIES TO AL-QAEDA: The Algerian military has killed the leader of an Islamic rebel organization whom they say has ties to "al- Qaeda." Saudi Arabia is hunting possible "al-Qaeda" members suspected of using a car bomb to kill Europeans. Indonesia is still rounding up Islamic "al-Qaeda" terrorists who bombed a nightclub. Spain is hunting "al-Qaeda" sympathizers said to have blown up a train.

RKH: Does anyone see a straw man?

AL-QAEDA: It is the author's belief that Al-Qaeda has become a Cartel Code word for any Islamic peoples anywhere who support Islamic Law rather than the puppet-governments appointed to rule them. Being branded al-Qaeda is a license to hunt down separatists as "terrorists."

That's the way it once was in the South. In spite of the KKK being disbanded in 1868, the media continued to treat those who opposed black Republican rulers as being KKK members or sympathizers. Yankee occupation forces fielded a bogus KKK whose real atrocities made the media stories believable, and we paid the price - over, and over, and over - and they are still on our backs. We've had it done to us and we know something Islamics will learn the hard way.

CLINTON BACKS BUSH: Bill Clinton, former US president said President Bush was correct to pursue Saddam Hussein but wrong in timing his attack on Iraq. (Story FT, p.3, June 21, 2004)

RKH: The ITC used its media to put both of these people in office to advance its agenda. The ITC agenda at this time is to use the US to crush Islamic nationalism.

ADULTERY: 5000 female twins were tested. It was found that 23% of them had committed adultery. If one of these twins had committed adultery there was a 55% chance that the other twin had also. This suggests a common genetic inheritance - a strong link between genes and a tendency to commit adultery. (Story in The WEEK, p.22, June 25, 2004)

RKH: The WORD commands the "death penalty" for the Lawless among those made in the image of the WORD. Groups to whom Lawlessness is the norm are understandably vocal in opposition.

BLOCKED CELL PHONES: Cheating by mobile phone-using students is being thwarted at Italy's Enrico Tosi Technical Institute where the school is testing C-guard - a box that blocks signals in a 262-foot radius in enclosed places. (IBD p.2, June 21, 2004)

NAMBIBIA: Nambibia is following Zimbabwe's lead in confiscating White farms. (Story in FT June 18, 2004)

RKH: Persecution of Whites doesn't seem to bother Western puppet leaders. I for one would like to have my family farm back again - it was confiscated for next to nothing after the war. Saxon nationalism just might bring it to pass. What's sauce for the goose should be sauce for the gander.

IRELAND: Irish voters overwhelmingly approved a referendum to end the practice of granting citizenship to any baby born on Irish soil. The Week, p.8, June 25, 2004

RUSH LIMBAUGH is divorcing his third wife to whom he has been married for 10 years.

JOBS: Almost one-third of new jobs in the US are going to immigrants, according to a report by the nonpartisan Pew Hispanic Century. (CSM, p.20, June 17, 2004)

CLINTON: Former president Clinton told CBS "60 Minutes" regarding his affair with Monica Lewinsky, "I don't see it as a stain."

Chapter 359

CONSTRUCTIVE FRICTION

Background

Circumstances have thrown me with Indians in the armed services and civilian life. Overall, these relationships have been correct. One must admire their bravery and their fortitude. But, their ways are not our ways. I saw little else to admire. They feel the same about me and my nation. They said so. This is natural and is what makes us different nations.

One thing our separate nations can agree on - we can refuse to allow our government masters to instigate conflict between our two peoples. What my people want - and what Indians want - is to be left alone. We must break free from our overseer-masters - the international merchant. We must control our natural dislike for each other and work together to separate from each other to have peace.

First Contact

When I was a boy of ten or twelve, Daddy took me in his 14 ft motorboat up the James. We would land at the old fort across the creek from the Issue Settlement. "Issue" is the name given the local Indians a couple of hundred years ago. The new politically correct name is "Monacans".

The fort was built to protect settlers crossing the river on their way west. In time, Indians came to the fort to trade. Present day "Monicans" are their descendants.

Old man McBride lived in the fort during the summer. He was Daddy's friend. He knew the Issues across the creek. Daddy knew them, too. Some were his patients. I learned about Indians from Mr. McBride and my Dad - and personal experience later confirmed that what they taught me was true.

One of the first things native Virginians learned about Indians is that they are strange. They have a pain and blood fixation.

In the old days Indians would take someone, preferably an enemy, and extract pain and blood from him. If an enemy was not available, a member of their own tribe or even a member of their own family was tortured; sometimes an animal. This was done to elicit pain.

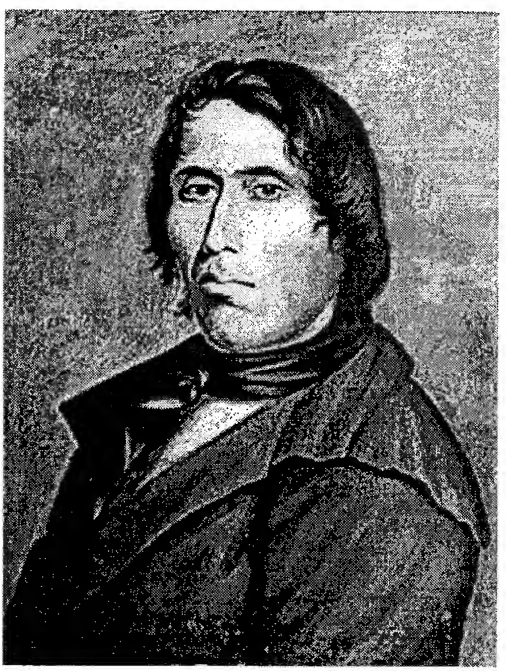
Anglo-Saxons in Virginia have always had strong opinions about this Indian practice - especially if they or their family were the ones chosen by the Indians to contribute this pain.

Indians themselves didn't necessarily like pain - they needed "pain" for their god Okee. Okee fed on pain; he had to have pain. If the individual Indian didn't produce pain from someone else, Okee got it from the individual Indian. To avoid this unhappy turn of events, Indians would go to extremes to secure substitutes. That's what the constant Indian warfare was about. That's why you didn't want an Indian behind you who had a touch of paint on him. Paint meant he was on the warpath to prove his bravery or to get a source of pain for



Tecumseh

Shawnee leader Tecumseh and his brother Tenskwatawa, "The Prophet", organized an Indian confederacy that extended from Nebraska to NY and Canada to Florida. His intent was to decide the victor in the approaching war between the American Saxon nation and the British Empire. He was killed in 1813 and his confederacy collapsed.

The Cartel is empowering Indian tribes today for use against America's Saxon nation. History reminds us that the independent Cherokee nation in Oklahoma chose to ally with the independent Southern Saxon confederacy against the aggressive Union Cartel Empire.

AP PICTURE

Okee. The paint might be behind his ear where you couldn't see it. This caused the white man to treat all Indians alike - very carefully. They were all suspect.

Near Lynchburg, in Bedford County within view of Poplar Forest, Tom Jefferson's home, are the Peaks Of Otter. Around these peaks the Algonquin, Cherokee and Iroquois nations met every year to wage war and take prisoners to offer to Okee. I have been told that more Indians have died in sight of these two peaks than any other place in the country. Liberals today scoff at the reasons for Indians having sometimes as many as seven females to each male on their reservations. They explain the discrepancy by saying that the males are away working somewhere. Perhaps, but Captain John Smith noted in 1608 that there were seven females for each male. Away working somewhere? - in 1608? Indians keep their secrets - and the great Dismal Swamp and other such places help them do it.

My Service Experiences

For a time during the Korean War I was stationed at the Camp Seven Mile gunnery range near Spokane in Washington state. The camp was close to an Indian reservation. College professors told me that Western Indians don't look or act like Eastern Indians. Maybe some don't - the ones I saw did.

I was told that in their native society they have only beer - which made them quietly inebriated. I can't imagine an Indian drinking anything and remaining quiet and docile and able to walk a straight path. Most of those I dealt with had access to a stimulant that made them drunk, and when drunk, the ones I saw were unruly and dangerous. It was an eye-opener to drive on an isolated dirt road near the edge of the military reservation out in the middle of nowhere and find an Indian lying in the middle of the road dead drunk. All one could do was to drag him out of the dirt road and drive on, and it wasn't that unusual.

I've told this next story before; The day before I arrived at Lowry AFB in Denver, two Indians in the next barracks got into it with pocket knives. They fought from one end of the barracks to the other. The clean-up detail was still working the next day when I arrived to clean the blood from the walls, the ceilings - everywhere. They killed each other. They had been drinking. When something like this happens one remembers the ancient Indian thing about "pain and blood."

I drove through one Western town early one Sunday morning, and it hasn't been that long ago. I never saw anything like it. It looked like a massacre had taken place. It was unbelievable. Indians sprawled spread-eagle in the streets, on the sidewalks, over benches, everywhere. Thirty, forty, fifty of them - and it was a tiny town. We had to drive slowly - just creep along, zig- zagging to avoid the prostrate bodies. The authorities just let them lay. What else could a little town do?

Indian society honored thieves. The Spokane jails were full of Indians - drunks and thieves. The civilian authorities sent us work parties made up of these Indian prisoners to help clean up gunnery ranges that had not been used since WWII.

The effort was a disaster. I learned that in Indian society most work is a "woman thing". The men hunt and only "pretended" to work. The Spanish noted this trait when they first arrived and tried to make slaves out of them to mine gold. They wouldn't work then, either. But, the Spokane authorities insisted on sending us Indian "work parties" and we had to deal with them. They were prisoners and had to be guarded every minute even when they wouldn't work.

Indian society admires a "risk-taker." Those who are daring are called "braves." To guard the prisoners we established the customary "deadline." Cross the deadline and you were shot.

Indians walked up, looked at you, toed the deadline and slowly inched over to test you and see if you would actually shoot them. They dared you. When you reached for your pistol - they inched back. But just far enough. They remained at the edge of the "dead-line." Frankly, you couldn't help but admire them but it really wasn't funny. This type of conduct wasn't logical. Gambling with one's life to see if someone would shoot you? to make a "reputation?" Really!

The Indians near Spokane called their god by the same name or a name that sounded like Okee. I was told that the Sioux name for this same "great spirit" was Okee-re. This western Okee-re ate pain just like the eastern Okee did. Is it any wonder the settlers saved the last bullet for themselves rather than be taken prisoner.

Ten years later I served in the 100th Airborne at Fort Chaffee in Arkansas. My family lived off-post. Next door lived a pilot for an oil company. A real nice guy. He said his grandmother was an Indian. He didn't look Indian. I didn't believe him.

He managed to change my mind. He would fly in from company business every Friday evening, get drunk, beat up his wife and kids, break furniture, pass out in the back yard, and fly out Monday morning. He did this every weekend during the year I was there.

I kept my scout-dog Thor in the back yard when I wasn't using him in training. The neighbor's son tormented Thor with a slingshot and homemade spears. He wouldn't stop. One day Thor jumped the fence, went up to the 10 year old and bit him on the chest. He then jumped back over the fence into his yard and lay down. Left a nice bruise. My neighbor found out and came over. He walked up to me - I expected the worst. He leaned over and petted Thor and commented on what a great dog he was. He said his son had been asking for it and had it coming; that it was a good lesson for him and he was glad that Thor took up for himself.

You had to like the guy!

Hispanics

I remember a nice looking young fellow in Lynchburg. He was a couple of years older than I was. On hot days he came into the old drugstore at 12th & Main for a Coke - always with a couple of pretty girls. Always treated them nice.

He was a body builder - either Mr. America, Mr. Universe, or a runner up - something like that. He joined the Air Force and went to San Antonio, Texas. He went on weekend pass. He was sitting in a drugstore just like the one in Lynchburg, and a Mexican walked up and knifed him. Just like that. Killed him. No reason.

The Aztland nation claims that the birthplace of their Aztecs ancestors was in the American southwest. They believe that many Indian tribes are part of their nation. They claim that Mexican mixed-breeds - Mestezio/Hispanics are part of their nation.

History books say that the Aztecs were bloody and cruel by our standards. The archaeology magazine I subscribe to says that their rulers punched holes through their tongues and pulled strings back and forth until blood gushed. It was a religious rite. It must have been agonizing - and it was self-inflicted. What they did to prisoners was more drastic. They sacrificed captives by the thousands to their gods and elicited pain in the most gruesome ways. It was a variation of the same "blood and pain" that we learned about in Virginia 400 years ago. Aztec gods appear to be Okee by another name.

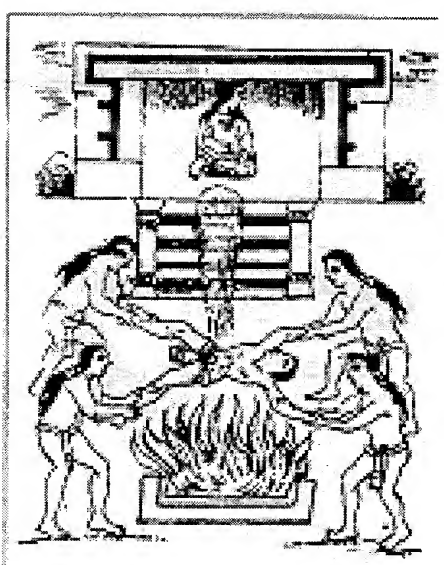
The Aztecs mixed their bloodline with Black slaves, White Spanish Hildagos, and with the Arab-Turk mixed-race Spanish soldiers from southern Spain. This is today's Mestezos - today's Hispanics. These are the ones flooding America. From what I have seen in my lifetime - the acorn doesn't fall far from the oak.



What happened to the white Mexicans whose ancestors came from Spain?

Saxon historian, Col. Earnest Sevier Cox, told me that when he went over the border with Black Jack Pershing before WWI - there were entire families of white Mexicans, men, women and children, who had been slaughtered and were lying in the streets. There are extremely few descendants of white Spaniards in Mexico today because the Mestizo/Hispanic Mexicans killed them all - like they tried to do to us in Virginia in 1624.

Indian Givers

Indians trade for what they want. I suppose there are as many different rules as there are Indians, but a good general rule in dealing with these people is - trade if you must - and leave. Why hurry? The Indian might change his mind and want his trade-article back. He might just take it and forget to return your money. Or, you might have to fight him for it. These Indians, and Whites who acted like Indians, were called "Indian-givers."

Protesting Violence

The Christian Science Monitor of June 29, 2004, notes that in Mexico City 250,000 marchers staged a protest demanding government action against violent crime and kidnapings. Kidnapings for ransom alone are estimated at 3,000 a year.

The same thing happened on Virginia's frontiers. Whole settlements were taken into captive slavery. Men, women and children - by hundreds and by thousands. They were held for ransom. When the kidnapers were driven away the kidnapings stopped.

The Alamo & Goliad Lesson

Texas was claimed by the Frenchman La Salle in 1685, reclaimed by the Spanish in 1692, bought by the Americans who renounced its ownership in 1819. Stephen Austin obtained a grant from Mexico and colonized there in 1821.

The white population grew to 20,000 by 1830. In 1835, Santa Anna's government arbitrarily abolished self-government[1] in the Texas lands that it had taken from the Catholic Church government in 1807 and redistributed them among his friends and followers.[2]

This caused Mexican rule to switch from Catholic Canon law to Mexican Admiralty Law and then to the personal law of those receiving the grants. The new owners made their own demands on the Anglo-Saxon settlers who had been living under the old agreements.

Anglo-Saxons in Texas revolted. Santa Anna led an army to Texas to suppress the revolt. He besieged the Alamo, killed many of the Alamo defenders in his final attack March 6, 1836 and then massacred those who surrendered. On March 20th, a bloody battle was fought at Goliad. Col Fanning surrendered with 520 men. After their surrender they too were massacred. Hispanic justice - just like the justice dispensed by victorious Indians in Virginia 200 years earlier.

1 Deut 17:15, Jer 30:21

2 "This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you ... (he will take) your vineyards, and your oliveyards ... and give them to his servants. And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards (taxes), and give to his officers, and to his servants." I Sam 8:11-18; "(The ruler) placed officers over them from amongst the children of Israel, and over these officers he placed taskmasters (overnight billionaires) from amongst his servants." Jasher 77:10

King Bill Clinton

Nations are made in the image of their gods. Matters become catastrophic if descendants of those who love blood and pain are selected by Esau's media to be Cartel kings - rulers of descendants of the WORD who is their God. Let's look at this next story I have in my files.

The New York Times, on August 13, 1992, p. C1, carried an article by Todd S. Purdum, stating that president Bill Clinton is a descendant of Irish farmers and Cherokee Indians on his mother's side. Speaking of Clinton's mother the article said:

> "At the age of 69, this descendant of Irish farmers and Cherokee Indians has survived a mastectomy and controversies over the death of two patients in her care, and has seen her younger son, Roger, go to prison for a year and half on drug charges ... ."

Ring any bells here? Every follower of the WORD knows that The Law says:

> "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deu 23:2; "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15: "The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low." Deu 28:43.

In spite of God's Command to his Watchmen to speak out to warn the people - Clinton was welcomed into today's excuse for a Baptist church just as in early days Indians were welcomed into England's established Episcopal Church at Jamestown.

At Jamestown, they did these things right up to the day these "good Christian children of the forest" put on war paint. Then, all the way from Richmond's "fall-line" to Virginia's Eastern Shore, the Indians went on their long planned warpath - on the same day and the same hour - hundreds of miles apart from each other. Their objective - to put to death every White man, woman, and child in the Colony. They almost destroyed Virginia - and the king and his state church permitted them to try all over again in 1644.[3]

Clinton, a descendant of Indians made in the image of Okee, was in charge and responsible for the Ruby Ridge murders and the killing and burning of Waco men, women and children. He ordered the American Air Force to slaughter the Orthodox Christian Serbs of Yugoslavia and burn their cities and smash their bridges, hospitals and neighborhoods. Blood and pain. "They shall be the head and thou shalt be the tail."

Isn't the brother of our present Commander-in-Chief, George Bush, married to a Hispanic? Doesn't Bush speak Spanish at Hispanic rallies? Hasn't he loaded his administration with Esau strangers? Hasn't Bush gone to Iraq and smashed and burned their cities, slaughtered their people, and tortured those taken prisoner? Where did all this come from? Who taught Bush the ways of Okee?

3 Powhatan was chief in 1624. His brother, Oppecannocanoe was his religious leader. His Algonquin empire was "national" encompassing a vast area. The British Empire was international. The preparation for the massacre was kept secret for years. Oppecannacanoe was old when they tried the 2nd time in 1644. He had to be carried on a stretcher and have someone hold his eyelids open to see the person he was talking to. The 1644 defeat fragmentized the Algonquin nation. It was only later that continued British Empire abuse brought into existence a Saxon political nation in America that ruled itself.

When I see those who call themselves American Indian or Hispanic - I see the face seen by my ancestors - the face of Okee.

Constructive Friction

None of us - Saxons, Blacks, Whites, Jews or Hispanics like each other. This is natural and it is why we are different. Our ways are different, our laws are different, our Gods are different. Hispanics want to rule themselves. Blacks do, too. So do Jews and the American Indians. Saxons want their nation separate so that they can worship their own God and live under His Law. There will never be peace until we are permitted to separate.

Today's state cannot allow nations to separate. The government needs the strife that results from forcing alien peoples together. The government uses the strife to justify suppressing the strife. No strife - no need for a king to suppress it. No need for high taxes for defense that allow favorites to get contracts and get rich and who generate kick- backs. The threat of strife is used to justify today's pass system, road blocks, censorship, treason trials, warrentless searches, stifling taxes and the coming draft. It is called "Constructive Friction." Kings owe their existence to carefully planned "Constructive Friction."

It would be stupid to forget 1624, 1644, the Alamo and Goliad while courting an ally to help bring down the Tower of Babel. But, offering the prized olive branch of separation to the children of Okee may be the bribe that could cause us to work together to accomplish more than we can win by working alone.

"Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins; We, the children of the Loerie children's home in Bronkhorstspruit, would like to thank you and all the other people from America, from the bottom of our hearts, for all the support you give to us.

"Uncle Willie and Aunt Rina Hoffmann told us about the wonderful people who support our home with some money. It is a wonderful feeling to know that the people, living in a country so far from S. Africa, know about our Loeries.

"Although we are not staying with our parents, we are really very happy in this large family and we have quite a lot of rules, but we know it is very important for the order and discipline in our house. We are also very happy in school and really try our best. We also like doing sport like rugby, netball, cricket and football. We are now preparing for our winter holiday, but it is wonderful to know that we can return to our Loerie home after three weeks.

"Once again we want to say thank you for your help, because we realize that the trustees really need the support, to be able to give us all the good food, clothes and everything else we need.

"Although we will never be able to visit you in your country, we want to invite you to come and visit us here in Bronkhorstspruit whenever you are able to come to S. Africa.

"All our love and best wishes, The Loeries.

JEWS & JUDEANS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Jews have been condemned for killing Jesus for a long time, but the Bible doesn't say they killed him because the word 'Jew' is mis-translated from 'Judean'. It says that Judeans killed Jesus. The Scripture says that this people, whatever they are, 'killed Jesus and their prophets'. Obviously, it couldn't be Jews because neither Jesus or the prophets were sent to Jews. The phrase 'Their own prophets' identifies who the culpable people are: IT'S US! Our own Israelite people killed Jesus. The powers-that-were or that-be will always kill anyone who poses such a dangerous threat to their system."

Randy Duey, The Order

RKH: The powerful Herodian party of that day was started by King Herod the Edomite who killed the Israelite children. At the time of Jesus the Herodians were still powerful, but it was the Israelite priests who caused Jesus, "the WORD made flesh", to be crucified. Edomite-Jews do what they do because they are what they are. But false priests of our own nation are enemies of God because they have modified the WORD so that they can continue worshiping heathen gods who bless kings, usury, sodomy, pedofilia, miscegenation, monopoly, gambling and the rest. The preacher who does not preach against these evils is one of those whose fathers crucified Jesus. The Jews are powerful, and easy targets since they are the Cartel's civil service, but our greatest enemy is among us. Randy Duey speaks truth.

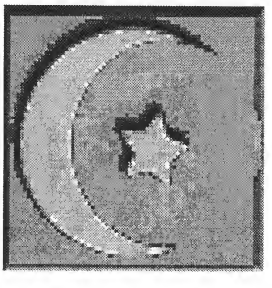
Chapter 360



NIGER RIVER BASIN

Within the great Niger River basin lived 250-400 ethnic groups. The most powerful were the Hausa in the north, Yoruba in the west and the Igbo in the east. Over all loosely ruled the Aro who were sacrosanct. They provided relatively unbiased judges who ruled on trade disputes. For this service their own trade and trade goods were untouchable by all others.

Hausa

The Hausa originally came from NW Africa where they were known as Tauregs. These "Taureg-Arabs" freely intermarried with the native blacks until the Hausas were known as black-Hausa and white- Hausa.[1]

Hausa-Arabs were Mohammedan. Blacks were among the first converts to Islam. Mohammed's servant' "Bilal" was a former Black slave who was the first "caller to prayer" in all Islam. Today, today more than half of all blacks in the Niger Basin are Mohammedan.

Niger River Basin

The Niger River is the largest river in W. Africa. The river basin was home to three major groups whose constant warfare produced captives which were sold by their captors to the highest bidder into the Cartel's world slave trade.

Note that the nationwide abolitionist African Colonization Movement bought slaves in America and returned them to Africa where they were settled in Liberia in the very Niger region where they originated.

Perpetual warfare between the Hausa, Yoruba and Igbo produced an abundance of slaves. These slaves were a staple of commerce. They were first traded to the ubiguitous Arab traders who took them everywhere in Africa and the Near-east for resale. Later, most were sold to nearby coastal natives for gold which gave this adjoining coastline its name of "Gold Coast." An estimated 3.5 million were sold into the slave trade of the European empires.[2]

1 The Arab brought the blood of Esau into the black tribes of Africa. Because of this intermixture, African blacks became blood kin to the Arab-Turk-Khazars of the Mideast, Mogul-Indians of India, Mongol-Chinese, and the Hispanic-Indians of the Americas. The peoples of the world are either Jacob or the mixed nations of Esau.

The first of the large European slave traders were Portuguese Catholics. Next, were the British Protestants.[3] In spite of the trade violating the WORD[4] both countries and their respective state religions rejected the slave trade only when it became unprofitable.

Black History In Africa

Blacks have no history of their own - only legends concealed in a fog of gods, god-like chiefs and witchdoctors. Every tree, rock, brook, animal, and person has its god. Along with other peoples of the world, many African blacks eat other blacks to to be one with their spirits - especially in India. Most of our knowledge of their history comes from other peoples who have recorded the history of their contacts.

In our eyes black history is a trail of blood, violence and mayhem. However, blacks are made in the image of their gods and they feel that neither they nor their gods are answerable to us or the judgment of our God.

The following is the history of one contact between blacks and whites. It is copied from Hoskins Report #164, May 1988.

2 States are created by the Cartel to organize trade in a specific market area. An Empire is an expanded state. Their rulers are Cartel puppets.

3 America's Nation of Islam's, "Secret Relationship Between Blacks & Jews", maintains that the largest American slave traders were Jews.

4 "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24

Difagane

"When the Voortrekkers, from 1836 on, moved into the Free State and Transvaal, the country was desolate and empty.

"This was the period after the difagane, where the Zulus began attacking neighboring tribes. These tribes in turn again attacked their neighbors and drove them away. So the slaughter of the war started, till entire black tribes nearby wiped each other out. Thereafter the Matabele came and literally cleared the area. When the Voortrekkers moved into this area, only the Matabeles were still living there. The Voortrekkers fought battles lasting 9 days against them and they were driven over the Limpopo River, where they still live today in the west of Zimbabwe, called Matabeleland. The country was clean of blacks as far as the Voortrekkers were concerned. The Matabeles were also Zulus but Mzilikozio a chief had disobeyed Dingaan to return cattle, so he fled.

"The only other blacks the Voortrekkers came upon were the Basutos safely ensconced in the Moluti Mountains, where the Zulus could not get them, and the Vendadas in far Northern Transvaal and some Pedis in the Steelpooit Valley. Some still fleeing asked the Voortrekkers for protection, as Moroka did in the Free State. The rest formed a horseshoe shape around Transvaal, where they lived and were seen to by missionaries, like Moffat and others.

"In the Free State and Transvaal it was so bad that the Voortrekkers only found burned out kraal (villages) and white skeletons all over, as the black tribes wiped each other out on the plains. It was a clean open world. Some of the fleeing blacks were hiding in the mountains where they became cannibals to stay alive.

> "These were the two territories into which the Voortrekkers moved. The towns in Northern Transvaal carry the names of the Voortrekkers, because they were the ones that lay out these towns and established civilization. Not one town in Northern Transvaal was established by blacks or by black tribes."

This is an example of "black on black" extermination warfare. Incidentally, it is also the real story of the Boers in S. Africa. Whites settled virtually vacant land. Protected by British bayonets, hundreds of thousands of blacks were later imported by Jewish mine operators to furnish cheap black labor. In time, the black flood outnumbered the native whites. Puppet British and US interests intervened to force native whites to hand over rule to blacks in 1994. Since then almost everything of value in S. Africa has been stolen - or "privatized." This is the same thing that is being done to white America today.

Whites having close contact with blacks have an entirely different opinion of them than those who have not. Esau's media has created a deceptive image of blacks. They treat all nations as being alike. This is the same as saying that dogs and wolves are the same. Dogs and wolves are not the same.

Schweitzer On Black Africans

Dr. Albert Schweitzer has long been honored and widely acclaimed for his service to the blacks of Africa. This is what he had to say:

> "I have given my life to alleviate the sufferings of Africa. There is something that all White men who have lived here like I have must learn and know: that these individuals are a sub-race. They have neither the mental or emotional abilities to equate or share equally with > White men in any functions of our civilization. I have given my life to try to bring unto them the advantages which our civilization must offer, but I have become well aware that we must retain this status: White the superior, and they the inferior. For whenever a White man seeks to live among them as their equals, they will destroy and devour him, and they will destroy all his work. And so for any existing relationship or any benefit to this people, let White men, from anywhere in the world, who would come to help Africa, remember that you must maintain this status: you the master and they the inferior, like children whom you would help or teach. Never fraternize with them as equals. Never accept them as your social equals or they will devour you. They will destroy you." Dr. Albert Schweitzer

Our worldview is not their worldview. Things irritating to us are not so to them. Separation would end friction.

Some of the kindest, gentle, giving people I have ever known are blacks. They are also among the most violent, murderous, crime ridden people on the planet. I wouldn't dream of one of my black friends harming me or mine, but my black friends aren't your black friends. On a street where I frequently drive, a mob of blacks recently stomped a white boy to death. In the Englishman's cabin on No-Business Mountain, a black cut off a white boy's head. At a dozen places where I drive every day blacks have at one time or another raped white women. Whites consider rape a reprehensible crime. Blacks consider rape a form of warfare.

Eldridge Cleaver, former Black Panther leader was asked why he raped white women; He replied,

> "Rape was an insurrectionary act. It delighted me that I was defying and trampling upon the white man's law, upon his system of values, and that I was defiling his women ... ." [Eldridge Cleaver, Soul on Ice, McGraw-Hill, 1968, p.14.[5]

I'm fully appreciative of the debt my family owes blacks during the period of our forced association in Virginia. However; their presence has been a destructive influence on my people and my culture. If they, Hispanics, and other aliens would instantly go away - crime would drop more than 90%. Jungle music would be replaced with our own music. Passing cars would no longer go "Boom"-"Boom"!; lovely two- hundred year neighborhoods would no longer be trashed in two years; boisterous, profane talk; rife illegitimacy; sexually transmitted diseases would all disappear. We would have our lives back.

The New World

I didn't bring blacks to America - you didn't bring them. The puppet ruler of the British Empire brought them. He ignored the wishes of both American whites and the wishes of the blacks who were slaves and brought them anyway. Blacks and whites are basically different. They don't see the world the same way. This causes them not to like what they see the other do. They never have. They don't want to be around each other, but they are forced to. They would rather be treated badly by their own kind than treated well by us. It's the normal reaction to unwanted interference. They want to go home. We want them to go home. The Empire demands that they stay.

Deut: 22:25; "Ye shall not ... defile a daughter of Israel ... the men of Shechem ... committed a shame on a daughter of Israel ... the Lord turned them over into the hands of the sons of Jacob, that they should root them out with the sword ... never again shall it be thus in Israel, that a daughter of Israel be defiled." Jubilees 30:6-13*

Early Black Revolts In Haiti

In 1679, a Spanish Negro formed a conspiracy to massacre the French. He fled to the mountains and was put down only after a regular campaign.

In 1691, two other Black leaders were hunted down and executed for having planned to massacre all the Whites in the district of Port-de-Paix.

In 1703, an able Black leader arose. For seven years, he spread terror by sacking plantations and raping White women. In 1750, there appeared the famous Macandal. For six years he abstained from active warfare. A witch doctor, he announced that he was the Black Messiah sent to drive the Whites from the island.

Macandal joined poisoning to maroonage. On a certain day all the water of Le Cap was to be poisoned. Poison had always been the chief slave method of revenge. Poisoning the master, his children, his cattle, his slaves, even self-inflicted poisoning to harm his master's property. Only by the merest chance was the conspiracy discovered. Macandal was hunted down and executed.

The colony was never free of poisonings, or of Macandal. Just before his execution he announced that he would return and drive the Whites from the island. From that time, the Blacks spoke in whispers and waited for his return. They still do.

The later revolt of 1791 under Toussant L'Overteur destroyed the white population of Haiti - killed them all. A handful of pitiful survivors arrived in Virginia with stories of burning, murder and rape. This was before media dis-information re-interpretation and re-education was able to make it look like an "ice-cream and soda" social party. Because of stories the survivors told plus the sporadic ongoing slave-revolts, Virginians responded two ways; they reinforced militia anti- slave-revolt patrols and they created Liberia near the Niger Basin and worked to return the slaves to Africa though a nationwide organization called the American Colonization Society.

Toussant L'Overteur 1743 - 1803

The War

Esau's media says the War Between The States was fought to free the slaves. This is Cartel propaganda. The WBTS was fought for four reasons:

1. Loot
2. Creating an empire-state.
3. Destruction of the self-sufficient farm.

And,

4. Retain cheap black labor.

Pronouncing Niger

To be polite, blacks should be called whatever they want to be called, but confusion reigns - and for good reason. A person who doesn't know who he is and doesn't know his traditions is more easily governed that one who knows. The media has gone to great lengths to mislead blacks and make them forget their heritage and where they came from.

Most American blacks came from the Niger Basin of Western Africa and belong to one of three tribes. Niger Basin blacks are different from other African blacks. This difference is why, for hundreds of years, they called themselves by the name of the Niger Basin region they came from. "Niger" blacks.

Westerners think of one black being the same as another black. This is another fault of the public schools. Nothing can be further from the truth. In S. Africa alone there are seven black races. Whites make an eighth.

I have seen and can identify the tall skinny basketball type. There is a whole race of these people back in Africa. They are all like that. Hundreds of thousands of them. They don't come from the Niger Basin. Then, there are the blacks with big behinds. They look deformed, but they aren't. They are a separate race. I was told that these come from north of the Serengeti Desert and their big behinds store food and water like camels.

Then there are Pygmies from the Congo, northwest of the Niger. There are Angolan blacks to the south of the Niger - the ones who stink. They sold cheap in Virginia because no one could stand to be near them - not even other blacks. They smell awful.

I was working in Richmond in the state Unemployment Compensation department where unemployed workers come to sign up for unemployment compensation. The first floor was big. I was working in the far back signing up black workers laid off from seasonal work in the cigarette factories.

All of a sudden I got a whiff of an odor I'll never forget. I was told that it was one of those "Angolans" who had come in up front! It was my first experience - an experience I'll never forget. It almost made me sick. This race is not from the Niger either.

Then, there are blacks who look like six-foot tall barrels. They look fat, but aren't. They are pure muscle - and fast! Fast as lightning. How blacks shaped like barrels can move that fast I'll never know. They furnish players for football teams across America. They are a distinctive black race. I don't know where they come from.

And, there is the warrior race. They were worse than the Angolians who stank, but for a different reason. Individuals of the warrior race always made trouble. They constantly picked fights with other blacks. There was almost nothing you could do with them. They were troublemakers wherever they went. I was told that Chaka Zulu was one of these. You remember, they made a movie about him. Niger Basin blacks are different from all other blacks in most of Africa.

It used to be that everyone knew this. Niger Basin blacks considered themselves the aristocracy of the black world. They were considered better workers and more intelligent. To make sure that everyone knew who they were the Niger Basin blacks called themselves "Nigers." The 1828 Webster Dictionary gives the following pronunciation.

> NEGRO, [It. Sp. negro, black from L. niger, It is remarkable that our common people retain the exact Latin pronunciation of this word, neger.] A native or descendant of the black race of men in Africa. (Noah Webster Dictionary 1828)

Niger blacks were also more comfortable being called by the Latin pronunciation than the Portuguese or English pronunciation of "black." But, the media turned the name upside down. What was once good and a source of pride is now bad - and many blacks have forgotten the pride of their Niger Basin homeland.

Marcus Garvey 1877 - 1940

There was one black who did not forget who he was and where he came from. He was Marcus Garvey.

Garvey The Poet

Say! Africa for the Africans,
Like America for the Americans:
This the rallying cry for a nation,
Be it in peace or revolution.

Europe cries to Europeans, ho!
Asiatics claim Asia, so
Australia for Australians,
And Africa for the Africans.

Hurrah! Hurrah! Better times are near;
Let us front the conflict and prepare;
Greet the world as soldiers, bravely true:
"Sunder not," Africa shouts to you.
Marcus Garvey

Marcus Garvey The Nationalist

Marcus Garvey and his organization, the Universal Negro Improvement Association (UNIA), represent the largest mass movement in African-American history. It was a black nationalist "Back to Africa" message. Garvey and the UNIA established 700 branches in thirty-eight states by the early 1920s.

Garvey was born in Jamaica. He spent time in England before coming to the US. Between 1917 and 1919 race riots erupted in East St. Louis, Chicago, Tulsa, and other cities. he established the headquarters of the UNIA in New York in 1917 and from there spread a message of black nationalism and the eventual return to Africa of all people of African descent. His brand of black nationalism had three components - unity, pride in the African heritage, and complete autonomy.

In 1919, Garvey purchased an auditorium in Harlem and named it Liberty Hall. Nightly meetings sometimes had an audience of six thousand. In 1918 he began a newspaper, Negro World. By 1920 it had a circulation somewhere between 50,000 and 200,000.

Garvey claimed to have six million members in the UNIA. White nationalist historian, Col. Earnest Sevier Cox, told me that Garvey had six million dues paying members in S. America, the Caribbean, and N. America. It is beyond dispute that millions were involved.

He hammered home the idea of racial pride. He celebrated the African past and encouraged African Americans to be proud of their heritage and the way they looked. Garvey proclaimed "black is beautiful" long before it became popular in the 60s. "We must canonize our own saints, create our own martyrs, and elevate to positions of fame and honor black men and women who have made their distinct contributions to our racial history." He encouraged parents to give their children "dolls that look like them to play with."

"Until you produce what the white man has produced," he claimed, "you will not be his equal." In 1919, he established the Negro Factories Corporation. He wanted to produce everything so that African Americans could completely rely on their own efforts. At one point the corporation operated grocery stores, restaurants, a printing plant, a steam laundry, and owned buildings and trucks in New York City alone. His most famous economic venture was a shipping company known as the Black Star Line. Garvey started the shipping company in 1919 as a way to transport blacks to Africa.

Within the African-American community churches serve as the arena in which African Americans exercised full control. They serve as houses of worship and as meeting places that dealt with social, economic, and political issues.

Pastors are the most powerful people in the community. They influence and control the black community's most important institution. Garvey worked to recruit pastors into his organization and enjoyed tremendous success at winning over leaders from almost every denomination.

Garvey's message of black nationalism and a free black Africa met the expected resistance from Cartel supported African-American leaders. W.E.B. DuBois and James Weldon Johnson of the NAACP, and Chandler Owen and A. Philip Randolph of the publication Messenger, viciously attacked Garvey's "back to Africa movement."

By 1922, his emphasis shifted away from a confrontational stance against white America to a position of separatism mixed with cooperation. He applauded whites who promoted the idea of sending African Americans back to Africa. He met with prominent leaders of the Ku Klux Klan in Atlanta in 1922 to discuss miscegenation and social equality. This black-white alliance brought both groups into conflict with America's Cartel goverment.

After having fought a war only a half-century earlier to keep black labor in America, the federal government naturally took steps to suppress Garvey. In 1922, the feds indicted and sentenced him to prison on a mail-fraud charge. He was then deported to Jamaica. With his imprisonment and deportation, his organization in the United States was deprived of his driving spirit and lost its momentum.

Garvey's UNIA was bigger than the Civil Rights Movement. His influence extended over the United States to the Caribbean, Canada, and Africa. His message had a tremendous influence on the Nation of Islam. Much of what he said concerning racial pride can be heard in later figures such as Malcolm X and Stokely Carmichael, leader of SNCC (Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee). There is a world of information on the internet relating to Marcus Garvey.

Incidentally, Garvey insisted that African Americans should see God, Jesus, and Mary as black. After all, races are made in the image of their gods.

Black Islam

The late Elijah Muhammad, spiritual leader of Black Islam in America, gave the following as their basic objectives. They have been abbreviated by the editor to save space. They can be found un-edited in The Final Call .<finalcall.com.>

Elijah Muhammad
1897 -1975
Father of Black Islam in America.

What Muslims Want

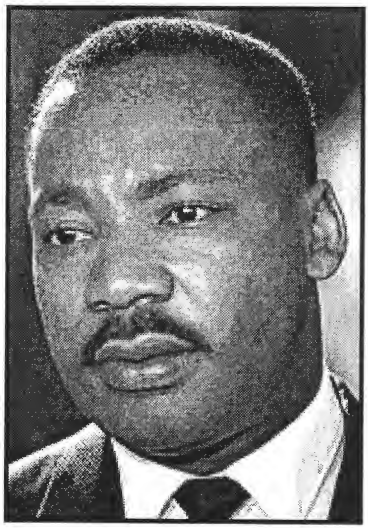
1. Full Freedom.
2. Equal justice.
3. Opportunity.
4. We want a separate state, either on this continent or elsewhere, with our basic needs supplied until self-sufficient.
5. Freedom for Islamic prisoners sentenced under non-Islamic law. Freedom to choose not to associate with whites. Separation is the best solution to white/black conflict.
6. Justice for blacks in courts.
7. Until separated - equal employment opportunity.
8. Tax-exemption until allowed justice.
9. Separate schools. Black children educated, taught and trained by their own teachers. Muslim teachers free to teach righteousness, decency and self respect.
10. Intermarriage or race mixing prohibited.

Conclusion

The age old Cartel plan is to force nations together to create strife. By suppressing the strife Empire rulers justify their rule and the Cartel can more easily merge the survivors into its Hindu open-society mold of oneness.

None of America's five nations like each other - Saxon, American- Indian, Hispanic, Zionist or Black - they are forced together while they want to be separate in their own lands, living under the laws of their own gods and ruled by their own people.

The Empire opposes separation because it would destroy Hindu integration. But all nationalists realize that there is no chance of ever being free until they separate.



Martin Luther King 1929 - 1968

Financed by Cartel corporations and foundations, MLK is considered by many black nationalists to have been a Cartel agent financed to misdirect and mislead blacks.

The door stands open for the nations of America to follow the Cartel plan and fight each other - or they can work together to separate. Once separated, they can afford to squabble over where they will live and who will get what.

The basic choice is - separation or extermination.

That's it! - Integration IS extermination.

Hans Schmidt Suffers Stroke

Hans Schmidt, editor of GANPAC, suffered a major stroke and will not be writing GANPAC for the foreseeable future. One of a handfull of unbowed survivors of 1st SS Division Adolph Hitler; editor of the truth-brigade newsletter GANPAC written primarily to inform fellow Germans living in Gulag Deutchland of events beyond the watchtowers. Events have proved the correctness of his predictions. Soldier, scholar, an honorable man and gentleman. Orders for his books and donations can be sent to H. Schmidt, POB 1739, Brevard, NC 28712.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Blacks have cut down the telephone poles for their own use and the wires are now close to the ground where a veld-fire can destroy them. In the last few months power-outages have become the rule. Factories, shops and homeowners suffer.

Hans hands are slowly getting better with homopathatic treatment from Dr. Brom. During the Bushwar in Rhodesia Dr. Brom met a black herbalist who cured cancer with the juice from the sausage tree. The tree is a wild tree and has foot-long sausages and only grows in a few warm areas. Everyone who is traveling to warm parts of the country have been asked to be on the lookout for them.

Mbeki said he will not use the same way Mugabe did to get rid of whites. Instead, he will tax them to death so that they have no option but to depart. With taxes from whites, a few blacks on top have become millionaires.

In the first years of black rule the decline was slow, but no longer. Most whites have been removed from the civil service and the infrastructure and everything is falling apart.

We are told that Afrikaans books are being removed from schools and libraries.

We went down to Bronkhorstspruit. The Loeries had a near break-in but their big dog warned them when the intruders broke the glass. They have had to improve security. It seems no place is safe. The last issue of Die Afrikaner carried an article which stated that 30,000 whites have been murdered since 1994.

Thank your subscribers again for all they are doing.

With our best wishes, K.J.

Federal bank and media-installed puppet governments continue to rule and exploit the region after more than a hundred years. This, too, is taught that it is how things should be.

CHINA PRIVATIZATION: In 1947, Esau's International Trade Cartel banks financed China's Communist revolution. China's new puppet government confiscated both land and industry from China's private owners. Esau's media has just announced that China is now preparing to privatize up to 11 of its power plants. Wealth transfer - Global Capitalism at work. It goes on and on.

CARTEL TOLERANCE: "We are striving to create zero tolerance towards all manifestations of intolerance." -- OSCE Chairman Solomon Passy, Berlin 2004.

Can you imagine someone saying a thing like that?

ONE MILLION: Puppet religious, political and business leaders of Europe acquiesce quietly to the transfer of 1 million jobs offshore over the next 10 years. (Story of the 1mm jobs in Financial Times, p.6, Aug 16, 2004)

FINLAND: Recruiters say they are dismissing more and more young conscripts because they'd grown up addicted to the Internet. They are physically weak and mentally unprepared to deal with people, said a military official.

ANTS: A super ant colony of mutant Argentine ants covering 62 miles has been found under the city of Melbourne, Australia.

KURDS: Turkey pinned the blame for recent deadly bomb attacks in Istanbul on Kurdish separatists. Turkish insistance on ruling Kurds causes friction. The friction resulted in the bombings. The bombings provide the Turkish government an excuse to rule - which is why the Turkish government will not allow the Kurds to separate so that there will be peace. Peace would take away the government's job of "keeping the peace."

NICHOLS: Alleged Oklahoma City bombing conspirator Terry Nichols was imprisoned for life without parole. The professional placement of the explosives that took down the building caused some explosives experts to believe that Oklahoma City was an inside job. Because the FBI provided help to the bombers of the NY Towers in the first bombing incident it is easy to believe that Oklahoma City was a repeat. The fed's refusal to allow an independent inspection of the wreckage fuels this suspicion.

CHINA: China's Communist party expelled a senior roads official in Beijing for taking "enormous" bribes. Endemic lawlessness is why China forever remains a "China" frozen in time.

SHARIA: Muslims in Toronto, Canada, supported by a 1991 provincial law, use Islamic sharia law to mediate legal disputes.

The WORD was Law in early Canada and used to settle most disputes. This was modified by British Empire Admiralty law to ignore the ban on kings, taxes, monopolies, strangers, usury, war with one's own kind, and the requirement that Canadian land be divided.

To expedite trade, international Admiralty law requires that everyone love everyone else without regard to race, creed, or national origin. American Indian law was recognized along with Islamic Sharia law and other law systems. Sharia law now shows promise of possibly excluding the Cartel's Admiralty Law some day. The cartel can no more allow this than they can allow the WORD to exclude their Admiralty law. The war of the gods is heating up.

HOMEMADE: Illusive squads of Iraqi militia are firing makeshift rockets at Israelis. Palestinian militants portray Israel's withdrawal from Gaza as victory for the 4-year uprising.

JAPAN POST OFFICE: Prime Minister Junichira Koizumi of Japan has made post office privatization the centerpiece of his final term. (Financial Times)

AIR TO AIR: The US and Indian air forces met in practice aerial combat over central India. The US used its F-15 and the Indians used the Russian built Su-30 Flanker. The Indian AF won 90% of the time. (Story in Financial Times, P.14, Aug 6, 2004)

PUPPET SPEAKS: Iraq's puppet government vowed no quarter to those fighting its rule. Strong talk for collaborators who will have to take care of themselves after the Americans leave.

CHINA: Bill Clinton's best-selling book is on sale in China for $1.20 - in violation of Admiralty recognized copyright law. China has some of the most brilliant minds, some of the most lawless people and is one of the most lawless societies in the world. The Lawlessness is endemic. This is the reason why business with China is difficult on anything but the most basic level.

HACKERS UNLIMITED: Singapore said it will organize a computer hacker contest. Six two-man teams will compete. Asia has had some of the worst hacker attacks. Israel has hacker clubs. In time international competitive hacking could become an Olympic sport. Just think - destruction for the sake of destruction. It has a religious basis - Hinduism!

EMPLOYMENT IN US: Government 17%; Education & health services 13%; Retail trade 12%; Professional & business services 12%; Manufacturing 11%; Leisure & hospitality 9%; Finance, insurance & real estate 6%; Construction 5%; Wholesale trade 4%; Transportation, warehousing & utilities 4%; Other services 4%; Information 3%.

COLUMBIA: It has just been announced that Columbia's puppet- leaders are planning to privatize as much as $10Bn worth of Columbia's state-owned companies. This gives Columbia's state- owned companies to the ITC and it gives Columbia's puppet-leaders $10B to award to supporters in exchange for the usual kick-backs. Very democratic. Columbia's state-owned companies should be given to Columbia's workers rather than to foreigners.

Chapter 361

THE PROTOCOLS
Seen by An Eagle Eye

In Tappahannock about 40 years ago I was called "The man who got eyes like a eagle!" It happened this way.

I used to take my family to Tappahannock in the summer for a week or so. We stayed in the old Riverside Hotel. The old part used to be a private home and dated back to sometime in the 1600s. It was where Mom and Dad spent their honeymoon back in 1917. Ann and I spent our honeymoon there, too, in 1957.

The Rappahannock narrows at Tappahannock. It's only a mile or so wide. The old bridge went across there - built on wooden pilings and straight as an arrow. Long time ago dad and I used to tie our skiff fast to the pilings and fish.

While visiting many years later I got a hankering for "croakers". Rather than fish for them, I was told that I could go over the bridge and turn left on a side road and go up the river about a mile where I would find a landing. Fishermen brought their catches there for re-sale and I could buy what I wanted fresh off a boat.

I hopped in the car and drove across the bridge. When I got across I looked around for the road that was supposed to turn left. All I could find was a white state traffic sign, about two by two that read "NO U TURN". You know the kind. I couldn't find the side road, so I made a "U-turn" and drove back across the bridge.

When I reached the other side where I had started I saw a colored fellow[1] who had been crabbing. He was walking away from the river with his catch. I pulled over, got out, and asked him how I could find the road to the fisherman's landing.

He set his catch down and pointed back across the bridge - it was a long long way back across the river - and said;

"See that little white dot on the other side of the bridge?"

1 When I was growing up you couldn't say "black man". Nothing personal. To say "black man" meant that you were ignorant. Educated people knew that "man" means Adam in Hebrew. "Adam" in Hebrew means "To blush red." (Strong's Concordance). "Black-man" is an oxymoron - a public confession that the speaker was stupid, ignorant - or both. Nothing's changed.

At this distance the sign was just a little white dot;

I said,

"You mean that road sign that reads "No U-TURN?"

He said,

"Man, you got eyes like a eagle!"

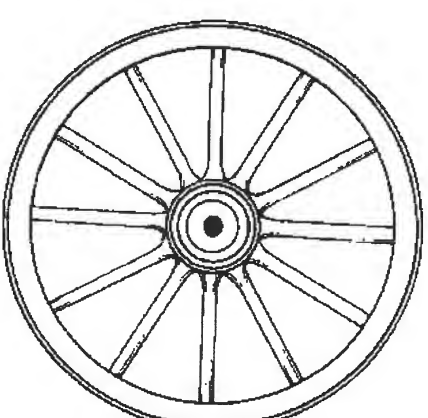
He thought I could read a sign with letters maybe a couple of inches high from a mile away. Only an eagle can do that. That's why I got known as "The man who got eyes like a eagle" down in Essex County. People who don't know the whole story often make mistakes like that.

The Serpent

It's nothing like having been some place before to notice things that others who haven't been there wouldn't notice.

A thoughtful reader sent me the arms of India (front page) under which is the first verse of India's national anthem -

"Thou rulest the minds of all people."



"Thou rulest the minds of all people"

The Hindu worldwide media-monopoly has long been able to conceal the universal Hindu organization from the entire world.

The "Serpent of Deception" is everywhere! India's sex-god Siva dances with a serpent in his hand; Kali, goddess of death, has one wrapped about her neck; Vishnu, Siva's brother, god of preservation, wealth and gambling, reclines on a giant many-headed serpent. Magic, illusion, deceit, deception. That's the meaning of the serpent. Nothing is as it seems. Nothing! Politics, religion, commerce, wars, news, events, economics, personalities; Everything is re-interpreted to control our minds and is presented to us on a silver platter - Hollywood style - manufactured to create the world-view needed to keep sheep docile - a world of illusion where green pastures only appear green. Deception.

Scriptures say that this same "Serpent of Deception" deceived Eve - and God the WORD caused a wind to blow that carried the Serpent out of the garden where it fell into the sea and landed in India.[2] The serpent ruined the garden - OUR Garden - the garden that God The WORD made for "us".

Hinduism's Serpent

Hinduism's beginning is the "Serpent" - deception - and its end is destruction - obliteration by fire - nirvana - nothingness. This belief is held by millions worldwide. It is difficult for us who are created in the image of the Law to believe that Lawless people exist who work, strive and scheme - even sacrifice their lives to bring about strife and destruction that in turn will result in nirvana - the death and obliteration of themselves along with all cultures, traditions, peoples - all things on the face of the earth - in fire - reduced to ashes into nothing.

Between the time the Deception-Serpent was born and its demise by being obliterated by fire - its darmamatra-teachers strive to deceive the thoughts and beliefs of the world's nations by re-interpretating them - to lead them gently, or forcibly if necessary, to do things that will bring about their own destruction and the end of all things. These priestly re-interpretations constitute a religion whose acts and beliefs can change from day to day as needed - that manifests itself as a form of Islam that is not Islam; a form of Christianity that is not Christianity; forms of Judaism, Buddhism, Shintoism, Taoism, Shamanism, Atheism and the rest.

Hinduism re-interpretates every religion causing two versions of almost every belief to exist - a true religion that will preserve that nation and the counterfeit that will destroy it.

Jews

Jews are the Hindu cartel's "civil servants". They are a composite people - governed by the laws of an ancient, separate Hindu caste. Besides acting as the International Trade Cartel's "civil service", they are also their "Dharmamatras". The philosophy of their "rabbis" is rooted in the "Serpent of India" - deception. Their own history states that their rank and file are mostly 14th century Khazarian Turk-Mongol converts. These converts are bound to their rabbi-rulers by an ancient agreement among themselves to accept foreigners to be their leaders to stop their endemic internecine warfare.[3]

3 "All the children of Esau swore, saying that none of their brethren should ever reign over them, but a strange man who is not of their brethren, for the souls of all the children of Esau were embittered every man against his son, brother and friend." Jasher 14:39

Obedience to their rabbis is mandatory, un-questioned and absolute. Appearing wealthy, they are actually penniless nomadic merchant-warriors whose wealth, gathered from those they live among - or given to them to manage (overnight billionaires) - belongs to their rulers, and along with media access may be considered perks that are theirs because of their caste.

The Protocols

In the time period 1920-1922, Henry Ford's The Dearborn Independent published a series on "The Protocols Of The Learned Elders of Zion". As far back as I can remember I have known about "The Protocols" - the so-called "Jewish plot to conquer the world". It is interesting reading, but hard. Choppy statements with little collaborating evidence demanded by the Western mind.

The thing that makes it believable is that we can see that the things it talks about are happening at this very moment - therefore, regardless of disclaimers, events prove the Protocols to be true.

Protocols' Origin

We are told that in 1884 a Russian agent in Paris, Justine Glinka obtained a document from a Jew, one Joseph Schorst (alias Schapiro) for 2,500 francs. Schorst fled to Egypt where he reportedly was murdered. The document was sent to General Orgevskii, Russian intelligence, who handed it to his chief, General Cherevin to be given to the Tzar but who refused to give it to the Tzar because he was under some sort of obligation to the Jews. Justine Glinka then fell into disgrace and was banished to her estate in the country. From her estate she gave a copy of these same Protocols to Alexis Sukhotin who showed the document to two friends, Stepanov and Nilus. The former printed it and circulated it privately while the second, Professor Sergius A. Nilus, published it in 1901. Meanwhile, Jewish members of the Russian secret police obtained minutes of the Jewish Basile congress held in 1897 which are said to correspond to the Glinka copy of the Protocols. In 1924, Professor Nilus was imprisoned by the communists. Before then, a few copies were sent to Germany in 1919, and England, France and the US in 1920. Later editions appeared in Italian, Russian, Arabic and even Japanese. Alerted to this world crisis - the Jewish media bashed the Protocols causing the book to become a best seller. With all this controversy, just about everyone in the world was alerted to the existence of a world conquering Jewish conspiracy.

Sergius A. Nilus
First Publisher of "The Protocols" 1901

The English edition was translated by Mr. Victor E. Marsden, former Russian Correspondent of The Morning Post who was also accused of being anti-semitic. In spite this Mr. Marsden continued to work for the Cartel's Morning Post and was even rewarded by being assigned to the suite of H.R.H. "The Prince of Wales" on his Empire tour. On his return he was suddenly taken ill and died - giving rise to more talk of Jewish plots.

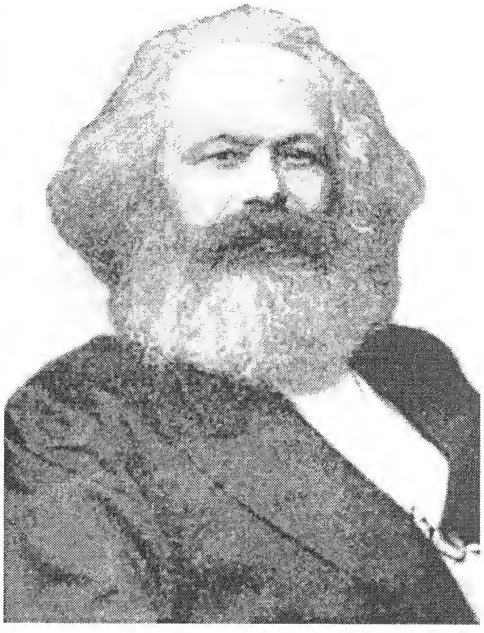
If you can follow all this and keep a clear head you are better at this sort of thing than I am. But, there are two things I am quite sure of: 1) The Protocols have been brought to my attention, and 2) the events mentioned in the Protocols are actually taking place right now. This last is a fact. Even foggy-bottom self-haters must admit this - if you can find one who will dare differ from his mentors.



Karl Marx

This is a picture of Karl Marx, the Jew who wrote the Communist Manifesto. He is the boogy-man of anti-communists. Note the close resemblance to the picture of Prof. Nilus on the previous page. If one had a suspicious mind he might even think the two pictures were of the same person. He might even believe that Nilus's pictkure was an early 20th century media effort of "guilt by association". If the publisher looks like a bad communist - the book he published must really be bad - "get it and read it!" The media plays this game all the time.

Table of Contents

Most Protocols copies I've read have no index. Most of the individual protocols briefly touch several subjects and go on to the next. The following is from a penciled index I made in the back of my copy.

Protocol III) Snake of Judaism, castes, need to create own opposition;

V) Conquest, movement invincible, rule of money, gun confiscation, art of re-interpretation, NWO, importance of land ownership, promoting gambling;

VII) World police, overnight billionaires, disposing of Napoleon/ Hitler type rebels; VIII) Anti-racism, money, needing politicians w/criminal records; anti-semitism necessary, dictatorship, opinion monopoly, elections & education;

X) Universal vote, destroying family values, blacking out rebel viewpoints, ultimate government from one brain, liberalism/blood pollution, puppets having pasts, need for executive orders, NWO, torture, starvation, inoculations;

XI) Wolves ruling sheep;

XII) Vishnu, intelligence, state secrets, church confessionals, denying media access, year 2000, D.C., media, journalists w/pasts; XIII) Using distractions, events stage-managed;

XIV) One world religion;

XV) Wacos needed, teaching people to double-think, anti-cartel plots;

XVI) Rewriting history;

XVIII) The Ruler, arrest on suspicion;

XIX) Sedition suppressing rebels, taxes;

XX)-XXIV) etc. etc. This gives an idea.

Land

The Dearborn Independent chose to highlight "land" more than almost any other subject. Here are some of their excerpts pertaining to Protocol #VI:

"The aristocracy of the Gentiles as a political force had passed away. We need not take them into consideration. But, as owners of the land, they are harmful to us in that they are independent in their sources of livelihood. Therefore, at all costs, we must deprive them of their land.

"The best means to attain this is to increase the taxes and mortgage indebtedness. These measures will keep land ownership in a state of unconditional subordination. ...

"Land ownership makes the owners 'independent in their sources of livelihood'. And any form of independence is fatal to the success of the World Program ...

"Not 'tillers' of the land, not 'dwellers' on the land, not 'tenants', not an 'agricultural peasantry', but 'owners of the land'.

"It is necessary for industry to deplete the Land both of laborers and capital." ...

"Money is harder for the farmer to get than it is for any other man; and as for labor, he cannot get it on any terms...

"The farmer's strong advantage is that, owning the land, he is independent in his sources of livelihood. The land will feed him whether he pleases International Jewish Financiers or not. His position is impregnable as long as the sun shines and the seasons roll. ..."

Remember, all this was written in the late 1800s.

The 1985 Farm Rally

Southerners understand this land thing better than most other Saxons. We remember our grandfathers who were independent on their own land that had been in their families often times for more than 200 years. Now, hardly any of us have inherited their farms. Most were taken out of our hands by high taxes and low commodity prices.[4]

In 1985, the government encouraged America's farmers to expand their acreage and produce more to survive. Heeding the "Great White Father in Washington", most farmers went deeply into debt. Again, high interest rates and low commodity prices from imports caused them to bankrupt by the tens of thousands. A great protest rally was held in Nebraska. Thousands came from all over America.

I was a speaker. The Cartel media was vicious. They called the farmers "terrorists". Before the rally, radio dis-information announced that the rally had been called off - thousands of farmers turned around and went home. Still, thousands came anyway. Then, the scheduled meeting place was canceled at the last moment and the meeting had to be moved to a freezing cold steel barn out in the country having few seats and no bathroom facilities.

The thing that caught my attention was that the Jewish B'nai B'rith was the most active outspoken opponent. They made charge after charge, attack after attack against the farmers - they were the ones most quoted by their local newspapers, radio and TV. Their attacks were vicious. The attending farmers cringed. They had never heard anything like that before. I know I hadn't.

Nothing the rally speakers said was quoted in context by the media. Film snips were taken of me speaking - my lips were moving but the TV announcer was telling his listening audience what I saying - which wasn't what I was saying. You know the drill. A real education.

Media

Protocols II talks about the media.

> "There is a great force that creates the movement of thought in the people, and that is the press ... Through the press we have gained the power to influence..."

Protocol XII continues this thought.

> "The press ... serves to excite and inflame those passions which are needed for our purpose ... We shall saddle and bridle it with a tight curb: we shall do the same also with all productions of the printing press, for where would be the sense of getting rid of the attacks of the press if we remain targets for pamphlets and books? ...
> "The pretext for stopping any publication will be the alleged plea that it is agitating the public mind without occasion or justification. I beg you to note that among those making attacks upon us will also be organs established by us ... Not a single announcement will reach the public without our control ... all news items are received by a few agencies in whose offices they are focused from all parts of the world. These agencies will then be already ours and will give publicity only to what we dictate to them. ... What we shall publish ourselves ... will be cheap and will be read voraciously[5] ... And if there should be any found who are desirous of writing against us, they will not find any person eager to print their productions. ... sition ... Our real opponents at heart will accept this simulated opposition as their own and will show us their cards. ..."[7]

A Critical Look

What purpose is served by The Protocols?

It is a document bearing an explanation of origin that is so convoluted and complicated that it makes the whole thing appear to be a fraud and deceit from the start - a thing to be rejected out-of-hand.

Jews call it a "forgery" and "anti-semitic". Those whom the Protocols attack control the very media responsible for the attack on themselves. What gives?

Henry Ford

Let's take a quick look at Henry Ford, the great right-wing hero and anti-semite - a Catholic who built an auto company which was the biggest of its kind in the world at the time; and whose Dearborn Independent was largely responsible for the dissemination of these anti-semitic Protocols - and, whose flip-side - his Ford Fund For The Republic has financed generations of the world's left-wing. Contradiction? Maybe not.

Let's use an example.

The "Piedmont" automobile was produced in Lynchburg. I've been told that the "Piedmont" was every bit as good as the "Ford", perhaps better. Ford's company prospered - Pied-

7 Any right-wing publication which conceals, doesn't know, or is unable to simply and clearly state the Saxon Law involved in the subject it talks about must be considered an enemy posing as a friend. Except for Hindu Dharmamatra re-interpreters alone whose intent is to deceive, the Cartel forbids its assets to repeat the Law of the WORD. Rituals and parables - yes. Laws restricting Cartel activity - no.

mont bankrupted. Ford got bank loans - Piedmont didn't. Money was the key and usury-loans are a Cartel monopoly.

Protocol VIII touches on money. Interest banking is a monopoly. Banks create money out of nothing and lend it at interest. If you can get this money you can do things in business - big things. If you don't, you can't. If banks like you and your operation you get money - but from then on you do what they say or they will call the loans and you bankrupt.

This is why billionaires seldom own a billion dollars. They "manage" a billion dollars - a big difference. A "Ford" showing business talent gets loans - conditionally. Possibly, a lot of money. Perhaps 2% of the profit (contracts vary) goes to a Henry Ford and 98% goes to a tax-free Cartel foundation on his death. This way, promising businesses are taken over by Cartel banks or their agents while the owner-manager works to produce the lion's share of the profit for the Cartel. Still, the 2% the manager keeps (or whatever the loan calls for) could equal to tens or even hundreds of millions. Or, he might let the whole thing pass and bankrupt like Piedmont Motor Car Company. How do you like that choice?

Symbolic Snake

With this as a background, think about this: Henry Ford, an automotive genius, has a newspaper - at least in name - which prints a Jew-bashing version of the Protocols, and still gets virtually unlimited bank-credit from Jew-managed banks, and whose lion's share of the profits goes into a tax-exempt, anti-white, anti-free enterprise foundation - Ford Fund For

The Republic. His church, supposedly anti-anti-Semitic, could have stopped him at anytime through spiritual leverage - or economic leverage since the Catholic Church owns banks all over the world - which are mostly managed by Jews.[8]

The Protocols hullabaloo seems to fit the Mel Gibson scenario. The great outcry by the Cartel media condemning the book guaranteed its worldwide distribution. Unknown millions copies of the book were sold. Very possibly, adjusted for inflation, the Protocols may have made far more money than even Mel made. The world learned for the 1000th time that Joos are bad guys trying to take over the world.

The Code Key

The key that unlocks the Protocols might be found in "Protocol III" - the "Symbolic Snake". "Attention!" "Code Word!" Snake! Serpent! "Deception!"

In case there are some dense readers - Henry Ford's newspaper reminds us that this Symbolic Snake holding its tail in its mouth represents the planned conquest of the world by Jews.

Now alerted - we also see that in both Protocol XII and Protocol XVII - Vishnu is mentioned. Well now! "Vishnu" - the god who reclines on the great serpent - Deception with a big "D".

Let's use the old "eagle eye" and guess that the attack on the Jews was done just to misdirect. Sure, the Jews are guilty as sin, but they are only a part of the Serpent. If one doesn't look beyond them they will never see the rest of the Serpent. Those writing about serpents are writing to the rest, who, for various reasons, are subjects of the Serpent. They understand that they must be obedient or lose everything they have - even their lives. Its the price they pay for the perks they receive.

The Purpose

It is my personal belief that the Protocols were released with such fan-fare for three reasons:

1) Since its contents are common knowledge and have been for a long time, it hurt nothing to say again what everyone knows. Its publication brought out the dissidents who agreed with the obvious since others were discussing the subject.

2) As stated before, the build-up and outcry guaranteed books sales - MONEY. It was an early version of Mel Gibson's The Passion where the Jewish media damned the movie as anti-semitic and then showed their real feelings in the matter when not a single Jewish movie chain that I know of refused to show the movie. It brought in almost half a billion in the first few weeks. I'm guessing that The Protocols did much better than that - adjusted for inflation - of course.

3) The Protocols are the Cartel's ever-present rules of engagement. They are periodically media-bashed to bring them to the public's attention. Again, there's no reason to be secret about something that everyone can see going on around them. The Protocols constantly remind of the age-old operational procedures required of the Cartel castes - not the people - the "castes". The people can get upset all they want - it doesn't matter - but the Kings, Priests, and Great Merchant Overnight Billionaires whom the Serpent elevated to rule his dominions - these had better pay attention:

"Merchants" like the Henry Fords of the world - the "overnight billionaires" will support the events listed in the Protocols or be bankrupted and thrown back into the sea where they came from.

Priests must abandon separatist religions - keep the rituals but teach only Admiralty Trade Law of the Hindu - or lose support from their wealthy Henry Ford type church members and lose all hope of ever becoming wealthy "televangelists" or bishops, or ministers of thousand member churches who must use Cartel TV, radio, and receive newspaper recognition to operate. They can choose "obedience" or choose to be poor ministers of backwater congregations in the middle of no-where - the equivalent of being thrown back into the sea.

Kings must do exactly as they are told by their "civil service" or the media will eat them alive the next day. Obey, or lose cushy jobs and kickbacks. Like it on not - the Protocols say "This is what you must do - Obey!"

Conclusion

The Protocols* are important. They are instructions to the castes of the Serpent - worldwide. This includes Serpent-created Western ruling castes of Priest, King, and Great Merchant; those who must obey or lose access to the serpent's usury-banking and media.

However the day is late. People daily leave Christian churches that have become fronts for the Hindu in droves - disgusted because their Christian-Hindu priests refuse to teach God's Law. Even the Serpent's own Esau-Islam is in full revolt. China, N. Korea and others have banned all religions that re-interpret their gods into destructive Hindu religions - and it gets worse:

A 16 year old hacker in Austria shut down the entire Eastern European internet throwing millions out of work; George Soros tampered with derivatives and brought down a dozen countries causing as much destruction as could be caused by war. Today, a single soldier can launch a cheap missile and destroy a multi-million dollar plane or tank. Armies declare victory and fight on endlessly in the ruins. Force has lost its effectiveness. Songs are written decrying the rot - causing thousands to sear damning words of rebellion into their minds replacing mind-rotting cartel slut-songs. An alternate media has come into existence - self-published newsletters like HR are here which can can be copied and passed on. This is as much war as carrying a gun. People like you and me daily hand out fliers containing the WORD to girl bank tellers and grocery store clerks showing them that integration is Hinduism. This is fighting a war the enemy had thought he had won. We nibble at the foundations - day in and day out.

Making it still easier - the Cartel government is requiring its governing castes to become involved - requiring them to denounce the WORD - denounce their own God! This makes them detested by their kinsmen to whom the WORD continues to be their God!

These Hindu-collaborators - media, economic, religious and government - along with every deviate - tens of thousands of them - have been moved up into the front lines - and the cartel has no way to protect them - except to try to suppress all who oppose their Hindu-Admiralty Law. Good luck! Half the world is already in revolt. Everything is poised for the spark that will ignite the other half. Soon, the Tower of Babel will become a torch of freedom. The world will be either Nirvana - or a world governed by the WORD which is God.

We look across the bridge over the waters and can clearly see the writing.

DIED, RICHARD BUTLER

Richard Girnt Butler, 86, Pastor of the Church of Jesus Christ Christian, worked for almost 40 years to turn the Pacific North West into the Aryan Nations - a country for the beleaguered Saxon Nation.

Butler was educated at Los Angeles City College and worked with Lockheed Aircraft where he invented or co-invented a process for the rapid repair of tubeless tires.

During WWII he was a flight engineer and a pilot. His wartime experiences caused him to become concerned for the future of his Saxon people.

He was the National Director of the Christian Defense League from 1962 to 1965. On the death of Dr. Wesley A. Smith, he continued holding services. It was then Pastor Butler "Continued the ongoing work of Jesus the Christ gathering His people" and establishing His Kingdom.

The Church of the former aerospace engineer was located at Hayden Lake, Idaho. It housed a spectrum of right-wing patriots at one time or other. One of them was The Order, the most famous of the pro-Saxon groups which gained notoriety by copying the efforts of Polish Jewish revolutionaries who earlier in Poland financed their activities by taking money from armored cars and banks. This brought down the wrath of Esau on their heads.

Butler's efforts in keeping the Saxon light burning were rewarded by his Church becoming the lightning-rod for unrelenting anti-Saxon media attacks.

He was personally brave. When his Church grounds were invaded by "law enforcement" shouting for church members to "lie down flat" - he commanded his church members to "Stand up! It is better to die on your feet than crawl on your stomachs."

In 1998, an American Indian woman drove by the Hayden Lake Church. There were noises variously identified as gunfire by the Church guards and firecrackers or backfires by the media. The incited Aryan Nation's guards pursued the speeding vehicle and shot out the tires forcing it to stop.

The case came before a mixed-race jury and in 2001 they awarded the Indian $6.3 million dollars which bankrupted the church and forced it to move. Quickly relocating, they continued church meetings and annual parades nearby.

Pastor Butler's church was a gathering place for Saxons of widely diverse beliefs including Skinheads, KKK and American Nazi Party members - Saxons having no home.

I met Pastor Butler once at a Church meeting in Spokane, Washington in 1985 and spoke to him several times on the telephone. He was mild speaking, fearless, a man of his word, and was punctual in paying for things he purchased. In my dealings with Richard Butler I found him truthful and a gentleman.

His pioneering goal of establishing a homeland for Saxons ruled by the WORD which is God will be remembered and will one day be realized.

AMERICA
Through Chinese Eyes

"The ultimate success is victory gained without fighting."
Sun Zi

An HR reader sent me a copy of a 1999 Chinese Intelligence report projecting their opinion of American military capability through the year 2020. This sort of game-planning is done by all countries. This one was particularly interesting since it is a peek into the Chinese mind guessing how American military thinking will, or will not, affect them.[1]

Background

The Chinese view Americans as a simplistic people who view warfare in a simplistic sense - sort of a frontiersman and his rifle taking a bead on an enemy - with today's guided missile, radar, air strikes, naval bombardment, news propaganda, etc. taking the place of the rifle. They try to guess how this American thinking will react to outside stimuli and to their own more subtle deceptive approach which has countless facets and combinations. The following is the list of "five heroes" two of China's military thinkers consider to be leader types of tomorrow's wars.

The Chinese intelligence report, "Unrestricted Warfare", states that the Jan 17, 1991, Desert Storm's 42-day-war obliterated traditional thinking about war. Theories, techniques, and methods of conquest used for the last 500 years have been erased. Those refusing to recognize this fact will be hopelessly outdistanced in the days ahead.

They believe that the world is presently still sifting through the intellectual rubble left by the Gulf War. It is trying to piece together a coherent vision of "what happened"? Was this war a one time accomplishment? Did the Americans stumble on a revolutionary new war concept or was that desert war really the doorway to future war?

They conclude that is is now obvious that the helicopter and the "obsolete" prop-driven plane armed with "smart missiles" have become new weapons and now dominate the battlefield by removing the tank. They now see tanks as expensive moving death traps or political toys. They even conclude that it is possible the helicopter and prop anti-tank planes are themselves possibly outdated by the introduction of a lone soldier armed with a cheap missile launcher launching smart missiles.

The thing that really seems to impress them are the more devious plots - and plots within plots. The analysts barely disguised their admiration for the Saddam Hussein affair - a friend, surrogate and confidant of the US - destroyed by the very US who brought him up from obscurity, the ones who made him leader of a country, paid him, armed him, used him and destroyed him!

They see the US as busily moving about the world pulling down leaders and setting up puppets. Are these new leaders be used like Hessein? Will this work again and again? To what purpose?

Then there was the skillful use of media atrocity disinformation to form public opinion in America's favor - the downside of which has been the destruction of American believability. The list continues with this just scratching the surface.

There is this thing they note as a very visible fact: "In the aftermath of 'Desert Storm', the US has not been able to again achieve a single commendable victory. Whether in Somalia or Bosnia- Herzegovina." The on-going Iraq affair seems to confirm this observation.

The Chinese report refers to the American National Defense Report for 1996, 1997, 1998 which shows America's concern that areas like Iraq, Iran, the Middle East, and the Korean Peninsula being possibly able to stage threats of another nature - like spreading nuclear, biological and chemical technology; sponsoring terrorist warfare, engaging in drug warfare and promoting out-of- control immigration, and creating threats of large-scale anti-personnel weapons of various sorts.

They conclude, however, that while countries able to rival the US in the conventional military sense will not appear prior to the year 2015, American military and civilian leaders are more anxious and fearful of the "unknown." This makes American "reaction" unknowable, and possibly dangerous to everyone in the world.

Five Heros

It is agreed that America is light years ahead in space and military battlefield technology but, Chinese Intelligence sees new and different kinds of battlefields in the future. They point to five individuals whom they consider hero types of the new age, each representing a new type that becomes many variations when combined with others. These hero types may be harbingers of this new age warfare.

These five are: George Soros - financial speculator, Bin Laden - Islamic terrorist, Escobar - drug dealer, Matsumoto - founder of "Aum Shinrikyo", and Kevin Mitnick - computer hacker.

1 - George Soros - Economic War

George Soros, a financial speculator, brought down the economies of a dozen countries. In the opinion of the Chinese, he created more damage and destruction than could be caused by conventional warfare.

What happened was this: "Overnight billionaire" Soros used the money-media monopoly and his own ability to hire expert financial manipulators and politicians. This opened the door to collapse the economies of a dozen or so Asian countries. Their collapse reduced the assets of these countries to pennies on the dollar allowing Soros agents to sweep the depreciated assets into Cartel corporations for a pittance. Soros is very good at what he does. They consider him a "dangerous pirate," one of the five most dangerous people in the world.

2 - Bin Laden - Terror

Bin Laden is a household name,war;IBin Laden - terror the well known shadowy ubiquitous warrior for Islam. China sees him as tomorrow's example of a "terrorist" that illustrates the potentials of this type of operation.

Assuming that bin Laden actually exists, the next concern among thinking elements of the Saxon nation is whether or not this warrior for Islam is actually an Islamic nationalist and savior or another Cartel created Saddam Husssin strawman?

If he is a true Islamic nationalist - his religion is enough to cause the West to stay alert. If a Cartel media-creation - and if Islam accepts him as their leader - he will attempt to lead Islam back into the Cartel box from which it is trying to escape.

The Chinese intelligence concern is whether or not "terrorism" in its countless forms will become the weapon of choice by the world's many enslaved nations. If this becomes a reality - there is presently no defense against it in spite of government eyewash and a possible age-of-chaos that lies ahead.

3 - Escobar - Drugs

Escobar - a notorious international drug smuggler. His political contacts give him the connections needed to create drug chaos.

Westerners tend to look on Escobar as if he were just a corner drug-dealer. He represents more than that in the eyes of Chinese. Escobar stirs memories of China's 1800s Opium Wars and British opium dealings in China - both of which are why China believes nothing the West has to say about anything.

Opium Wars

British-India produced opium. British merchants controlling India's opium production needed a market. They selected China. At that time Europe looked on China as they looked on black Africa - "A melon to be sliced", and slice it they did - again and again. David Sassoon was Britain's agent.

According to the "Jewish Universal Ency. 1904 edition, Sassoon is the name of a family of merchants, industrialists and bankers who originated in Baghdad and lived in Bombay, India. The Indian Sassoon company had branches and interests in Calcutta, Shanghai, Canton, Hong Kong, Yokohama, Nagasaki, and other cities in Japan. The British gave this company a monopoly of the opium-trade in addition to trade monopolies in Indian yarn, and Lancastershire cotton goods.

For security reasons the Sassoon company employed only Jews in its business. To keep them focused and conditioned, synagogues and schools were built for them. Whole families were imported from Baghdad. The synagogues served the same purpose that government public schools and corporation-financed colleges and seminaries serve the in the West.

David Sassoon, head of the Sassoon Company, placed his eight sons in charge of the various major opium exchanges in China. Probably, the lion's share of the profits went to Queen Victoria's British government. By 1836, the drug trade had caused widespread addiction in China's coastal cities.

The Manchu Emperor ordered it stopped. A campaign was launched against opium and chests of Sassoon opium were seized and destroyed. David Sassoon called for British protection which triggered the Opium Wars. The British Army attacked China's cities and blockaded her ports. The war ended in 1839 with "The treaty of Nanking" guaranteeing protection to the Sassoon opium- monopoly.

Freed from restraint, opium addiction in China again spread like a plague, again forcing the emperor to intervene. Sassoon called for British Army protection a second time. This caused the "Second Opium War," 1858-1860. Peking was besieged. The British sacked and burned the temples and other sacred shrines in the city. The "peace treaty" of 1860 gave the British even more trade rights for its opium trade. It now encompassed seven-eighths of China and produced unbelievable wealth for its operatiors. The opium trade resulted in many British politicians and opium operators becoming unbelievably wealthy - we can still see their family yachts anchored off Monaco.

China was also forced to cede to England Hong Kong along with large sections of Amony, Canton, Foochow, Ningpo and Shanghai. However, to avoid a revolt by Europe's Saxon nation, the British government Cartel leaders forbade its opium dealers introducing the product into Europe![2]

Incidentally, Franklin D. Roosevelt's fortune was inherited from his maternal grandfather Warren Delano, who, in 2 Queen Victoria knighted Albert Sassoon in 1872. Edward Albert Sassoon married Aline Caroline de Rothschild in 1887 linking the Sassoon mercantile franchise with Rothschild's banking franchise.

1830, was a senior partner of Russell & Company. It was their merchant fleet which carried Sassoon Company opium to China and returned with tea. In 1851, his daughter Sara married James Roosevelt - the father of Franklin Delano Roosevelt - American ITC administrator.

The Chinese see the drug trade as a devastating type of warfare and its owners and operators as belligerents.

4 - Matsumoto - Aum Shinrikyo

The 2004 Council on Foreign Relations publication had an article on the Japanese Aum Shinrikyo which HR touched on in earlier issues:

> "Aum Shinrikyo is a doomsday cult whose teachings are based on tenets borrowed from Hinduism and Buddhism. Its more benign activities include yoga, meditation, and breathing exercises. But at the center of the group's belief is reverence for Shoko Asahara, Aum's founder, who teaches that the end of the world is near. The police say that their nerve gas attack against the general population is the cult's way to hasten the apocalypse."

Aum Shinrikyo became known in 1995 when its members released deadly sarin nerve gas into the Tokyo subway system killing a dozen people and sending more than 5,000 to hospitals. The attack showed how easy it is for a small groups with limited means to wage chemical warfare.

The agent used was sarin. Sarin, both liquid and gas, is a highly toxic nerve agent 500 times more toxic than cyanide gas. Dangerous to make, the gas can still be produced by a trained chemist with publicly available chemicals.

Aum recruited young university graduate scientists and put them to work developing biological and chemical weapons.

One of their first attacks was in 1994 which killed 7 people. After the larger 1995 subway attack it was discovered that Aum had stockpiled hundreds of tons of chemicals destined to be made into enough sarin gas to kill millions. The cult had even procured a helicopter to distribute the gas.

Members took the sarin gas in liquid form in lunch boxes and drink bottles and placed the containers in the subway. They punctured the containers with sharpened umbrellas and walked away. The results were spectacular.

Aum also experimented with biological agents, including anthrax and botulism. These biological attacks failed because the germs used were not sufficiently virulent.

We remember that in WWII Japanese willingly stepped into Bakka rocket bombs, were bolted into human torpedoes, and flew Kamikazi planes on one-way trips to destroy their enemy along with themselves. We remember that when hope of victory was lost on the battlefield the survivors committed suicide by the thousands. Many Westerners can't comprehend this mindset.

The Japanese are not alone in this. There are stories about Chinese acting in a similar manner, and daily headlines chronicle ongoing Iraqi and Palestinian human bombs that destroy both the bombers and their enemies. This self-destructive aspect is found in many cultures, and many individuals of these cultures have been brought to live in Western lands.[3]

3 This revives the discussion that man brings life and creativeness and humans bring death and destruction.

5 - Kevin Mitnick - Hacker

Kevin Mitnick is the renowned computer hacker used as an example of tomorrow's hero. He is the one who played the mischief with American business computers and found no difficulty breaking into government computers. This top spot no doubt might be occupied today by the 16 year old Austrian hacker who more recently shut down the computers of eastern Europe - and in so doing largely shut down eastern Europe itself.

The government has hired many of the best hackers and has used them to break into the systems of Islamic militants to destroy, change, or plant bugs. However, the number of computer viruses created by the private sector are expanding at an unbelievable rate and can be used against the state and the Cartel by any number of malcontents.

It is the belief of some computer experts that in the future entire finance, manufacturing, or transport of a country will come under computer attack. Entire countries could become immobilized by hackers and their computer viruses. In essence, an individual, or a handful of people, can conceivably hold entire countries, or even groups of countries, for ransom.

The Weak's Last Ditch Defense

In the Chinese opinion, America, in the process of conditioning its people for constant war, instilled in them the erroneous belief that its worldwide military escapades would take place without casualties. This, the Chinese believe, is its weak point.

The counter to this strategy one must do whatever is necessary to kill as many American soldiers as possible. War must be waged - not to gain strongpoints, strategic positions, or tactical advantage - but simply to kill individual American soldiers. This will turn American public opinion against the war.

It may be necessary to suffer many casualties to inflict one single American casualty, but if it will cause the Americans to withdraw - its worth the expenditure. The Vietnamese suffered more than two million casualties while inflicting 58,000 American casualties. As this rate of "wastage" the war could continue indefinitely because Vietnamese births were still greater than their deaths.

The strategy worked and resulted in Vietnam's victory.

The casuality ratio in Iraq at this writing is 1,000 American soldiers and 100,000 Iraqi men, women and children. Of course, the later figure includes executed puppet collaborators whom the U.S. has been unable to protect from Iraqi vengence.

Psychological Warfare - Deception

No one person was given the hero status for media psychological warfare used by one state against another, against individuals, and against entire populations. Such warfare is pervasive and takes place all the time.

Programming Captive Populations

Since the writers of the Chinese intelligence report are themselves members of a captive population they did not delve deeply into the programming of captive populations.

Saxons remember that the media icon Walter Cronkite once said;

> "My job is not to tell the truth, I am an opinion molder."[4]

4 Crusade for Christ, Special Message For 2002. Col Jack Mohr.

The reason Cronkite said this is because people can think only in terms of the information they have in their heads. There is no way to think any other way. The information one receives determines one's reaction.

To provide Cartel-approved information, it is logical that their media "redefine" existing information and current events. Attitudes can be changed by merely changing definitions.

Non politically-correct words may be re-interpreted and branded as "pre-judging", or, "prejudice". The media defines "prejudice as bad - which can lead to the ridiculous: Pre-judging the danger of one's children playing in traffic is guilty of prejudice.

The Cartel's media redefines a sodomite, first as a homosexual, then redefines the homosexual as someone who is gay, and at the last a "gay" is redefined as being just another normal person with a "different lifestyle".

Sodomite to "normal" in three steps.

Changing the language of captive populations causes them to lose the ability to communicate with each other. They know that they are being "dumbed-down" but that does not stop the process.

Remember the TV sitcom about 3 white women living in the city, one with a pronounced Southern accent, and there was a black male. The black was just there. The reason for his being there was never given. He had no job. He didn't make sexual advances against the white women - he was just hanging around making an occasional wise-crack. He was always around. One became conditioned to seeing him. He wasn't doing any harm. Why was he there?

The Cartel was conditioning its captive Saxon nation to see blacks in the company of white women as being a thing acceptable - something considered very much against the WORD in days' past.[5]

Whites were taught traditionally that white women in the company of blacks were simply Lawless whores. The program was meant to change this attitude. It worked.

Now, the conditioning has progressed to the point that almost every TV advertisement and program has a white woman in company with a black male. TV judges and police chiefs are black - a great many of them black women.[6]

Even casual documentaries that show white women speaking have a shadowy black male lurking in the background. Conditioning. It works! The result is that we now see white women with mulatto children.[7]

This is psychological warfare. "Conditioning warfare". Everybit as deadly to a nation as atomic warfare. It is warfare being waged against a nation the Cartel has marked for destruction.

But, it has a downside - a downside which we will soon touch on.

5 "When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3; "Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up." Matt 15:13; "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4

6 "Thou mayest not set a stranger over thee." De 17:15; "As for my people ... women rule over them." Isaiah 3:12

7 "Let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come ... till we turn away the wrath of the Lord from us for this matter. ... All these had taken strange wives they put them away with their children." I Esdras 12-13, 36: "Thus ye shall not do from now on and to eternity to defile a daughter of Israel." Jubilees 30:5

Combination Warfare

In addition to the weapons and techniques mentioned, Chinese intelligence points out that by combining weapons the number of types of warfare that can be used are without number.

Combination warfare uses electronic warfare, space age, conventional, propaganda, hacker, smart weaponry, air, sea, economic, assassination, psychological, terror, alliances, betrayal - all combined against one or more targets. Events have shown that the magnitude and diversity of such attacks can paralyze a country.

The Downside

The downside is that almost all of these techniques of destruction are also available to the public, including miniature nuclear devices, biological agents, internet propaganda, newsletters, religion, assassination, terror, betrayal, hacking, etc. All formerly state monopolies can be obtained "over-the- counter".

Now, any disgrundled group regardless of its size can use most of these same methods and can inflict damage far beyond what one would expect from its numbers.

The Cartel has spread over the world like a great blanket and is now overextended without knowing how to extradite itself. The weapons it used in this conquest have been miniaturized, simplified, and are available to injured nations longing to avenge themselves and escape Cartel captivity.

Islam is now fighting to extracate itself. The daily news reports their successes. American soldiers are assassinated, as are puppet politicians and religious leaders. Pro-American media figures - from owners to writers and ordinary newspaper boys, puppet TV and radio announcers, station owners and operators - all are targets. The available targets also include puppet police and military, oil lines, allies, and trucks. The U.S. has assumed rule over Iraq but is unable to protect its hired help who are suppose to make it all work. It can't protect them because there are too many targets.

Each time one of these targets is hit it is seen as a victory for Islamic "freedom-fighters". Fighting in the midst of their destroyed cities and surrounded by heaps of their dead they see victory after victory. One hundred throusand Iraqis are dead but they have killed more than 1,000 American soldiers - and have punished thousands of Iraqis who have aided America. Targets are everywhere - and the invaders can't defend them! There are too many.

Other captive nations are beginning to stir. They see who the victors are in Iraq and Palestine today. The Chechenians, Basque and Kurds have picked up their tempo. The Cartel has inadvertantly given the nations of the world the weapons - how long will it be before they use them?

Conclusion

The Sons of Esau strive to build their ancient Tower, brick by brick, one that will rise to heaven and rule the world.

Serpents who rule Esau see beyond this. They have quietly imported hostile nations from far lands and mingled them together and incited them, one against the other, preparing for that day - that final day.

The Serpent sees beyond Esau's Tower to a place where everything is smoking ruin - all is burned - leaving only Nirvana. Nothing! The destruction and end of all things.

We who follow the WORD see things differently. We see the nations of the world - instead of destroying each other in a mad orgy of blood and self-destruction - agreeing to part from each other. We see the fulfillment of prophecy:

> "They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16

The WORD says that in the days to come - one's only safety will be with his own people. Each nation must separate from all other alien nations around him. This is the day God promised.

> "Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:28

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: A white farmer next door heard cattle bellowing and it upset him. He went to find out what was wrong and found the cattle thirsty and the dam empty of water. He asked the blacks the reason and was informed that the water pump was broken and their cattle were thirsty. He went home and got tools and returned to mend it. To his surprise the blacks wanted payment for their work holding the tools while he fixed their pump. Such is life in the new S. Africa.

Saturday, most of our farm pastures were burnt down. We protected the part around the homestead. We never discovered who set the fires.

The newest Black-on-white violence is to jab an AIDS infected needle into the arms of white drivers when they stop for traffic lights.

It appears that the Cartel had done it again - the split within the right-wing HP party appears to be permanent. The liberals within the party seized the newspaper and now S. Africa's right- wing is without a voice. However, the true situation in S. Africa is beginning to get out on the internet. Thank goodness - it's about time!

The story making the rounds is that farm murderers are directed from the ANC head office and that President Mbeki receives money to fund his anti-white war from Brazil and Haiti.

Sincerely, K.J.

SODOMITES IN LYNCHBURG

Starting in 1999, Lynchburg's News & Advance ran glowing front page articles in support of Rev. Mel White's sodomite activites in Lynchburg and his acceptance by various churches and groups. His "Gay Pride" rallies at Riverside Park were well advertised by favorable newspaper coverage. The first sodomite rally was covered in HR #336.

On October 7, 2004, hidden back on page C2, is the smiling picture of Rev. White with the announcement that there would be no sodomite rally this year on being "Out and About in Lynchburg". The right honorable Reverend Melvin White complained "Unfortunately our attempts to assemble peacefully were seriously interrupted by religious protesters carrying signs and shouting threats, frightening our sisters and brothers back into their closets."

Rev Mel White

He also complained that sodomite groups from local colleges couldn't believe the treatment they received. "They were just shaken by those people screaming at them," he said.

"I had no idea how primitive this town was in terms of its acceptance," said White who moved here from California with his boyfriend. "There is not one open and affirming church in the city," White said.

The N&A on Oct 25, 2004, posted another letter signed by both White and his boyfriend. In this letter he thanked his allies from the First Christian Church on Rivermont and the Unitarian Church on Court Street and certain other "outed" integrationists.

But, Mel and his ilk just have to face it - they've had their day, and now it's over.

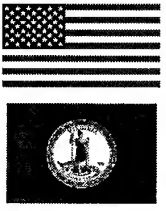
Chapter 363



RECONSTRUCTING CONQUERED STATES

ONE: Recently, before a major football game, a TV segment showed a beautiful naked blond standing before a big black football player asking him for sex. She jumped into his arms and he carried her off.

TWO: A newsreel showed the Japanese arriving on board the battleship Missouri to sign the surrender document ending WWII. Americans soldiers and sailors stood neatly on parade. The Japanese delegation came up the ladder onto the deck and American sailors surrounded each member of the Japanese delegation and doused them with delousing powder before allowing them to sit at the surrender table.

THREE: Saddam Hussein was captured. The news displayed a close-up of him - fatigued, disheveled and dirty. His mouth was being held open like that of a horse having its teeth inspected.

Each of these media events was staged. The object was to produce an attitude in the viewer. Study your response; imagine why the establishment wished you to have the emotional responses each event produced. If you have the ability to do this - you see the world as it is - a world at war!

Surrender Flags

History books show pictures of British ships captured by Americans during the Revolution. The victorious Americans flew their flag above the conquered British flag which showed that the vessel had been captured. Flying the victor's flag above that of the conquered enemy is an ancient symbol of conquest.

During "reconstruction" the only flag permitted was that of our conquerors. Gradually, the Virginia flag crept out of the closets and once again began to be seen again. Then, the chain stores of the international merchant began flying the conqueror's flag exclusively. Local merchants and local governments found that good things came to those who flew the conqueror's flag over the Virginia flag. Those flying the Virginia flag exclusively got nothing. It meant that if you were "unreconstructed" - a rebel.

To this day, in most places in Virginia, the US flag is flown above the Virginia flag on the same flag pole - the conqueror's sign of victory. Most Virginians have now been conditioned to seeing it this way.

Survivors See Things Differently

When I was a boy we played war in the Monkeyville trenches. They were real trenches. Our guns were wood. We had real ones at home. Our fathers took us out and let us practice shooting them. We boys who played war at Monkeyville had wooden guns.

The war had been over for a long time, but it seemed like yesterday. There were graves around. Government people came sometimes and dug up bones and carried them away.

English basements remained where houses once stood before the Yankees burned them. English basements are only half in the ground. We stood on the basement floor and shot Yankees from out of the basement windows with our wooden guns.

At night before bed, we sat staring into the fire for an hour or so and listened to Granddaddy, Grandmother, Great-uncle Roy, Uncle Alex and Uncle Thompson talk. There was only the flickering light from the fireplace and smell of burning wood. My job was to keep the woodbox full. Everybody worked. I brought in kindling, fed the chickens, helped slop the hogs - the buckets were real heavy - brought in the cows and pumped water for them, and was first up in the morning to light the water heater and kindle the wood stove. I was seven. I had been taught a lot of things by the time I was seven.

I heard Kellyville stories. The Kellys are refugees from Kellyville at Kelly's Ford. It's only a name now. The town itself was shot to pieces in the fighting, looted, and never rebuilt. There are lots of places like that.

There were stories about black bands roaming the countryside after the War was over raiding farms - burning, killing, raping, stealing; they were protected by Federal troops garrisoned at Culpeper. Black soldiers, sheriffs and deputies pushed us off the sidewalks and made us walk in the streets. Sidewalks were "black-only". It was all real to me. I thought they were talking about "now" or maybe "yesterday". The blacks I knew were nice. I was told to treat them nice - but to remember the rule: "My black friends aren't your black friends and your black friends aren't my black friends."

I remember.

There were stories about cavalry and infantry fights on the turnpike up above where we lived in Culpeper. This was Mosby's country.

A few years before, when Uncle Thompson was my age, the school teacher visited to ask Granddaddy to make Uncle Thompson stop beating up children at school. Uncle Thompson beat them up because they said bad things about Yankees. The reason that Uncle Thompson beat them up was that "everyone knew" that when the Yankees learned that someone had said something bad about them they came and burned your house down. Some of the basements in the neighborhood had been burned down long after we had been "liberated" and the fighting had ended. Uncle Thompson thought the Yankees still did things like that.

Something else: the war didn't last from 1861-1865 like the school books said. It lasted from 1861-1876. 1876 was when the last occupation troops left - after having stolen everything we had. That's what I was told.

There was a mass grave up the road. Hundreds of our boys are buried there in one big grave. The fight must have been considerable. The monument lists the regiments, some of the names, and lots of "unknowns", but there is no marker on the turnpike where the fight took place. So many fights, so many dead people, so much destruction. Other children played "cowboys and indians" - we played "Yankees and Rebels". We drew straws. The losers had to be the Yankees.

KKK

Around the fireplace, the KKK was discussed. None of my family in Culpeper belonged that I know of, although, being a secret organization, there is no way I could really know. Everyone else bragged that their fathers and grandfathers belonged - along with preachers, congressmen, senators, judges, everyone. I'm talking about the '20s Klan. The history of the Klan was confusing. Uncle Alex explained it to me.

The first KKK was Southern - about 1867. It was a local police force to maintain some kind of order. Then, the Union occupation army fielded SWAT-type teams disguised in KKK regalia who committed atrocities so the establishment media could blame Southerners. They did this to justify anti-Southern laws being passed by Congress. They still do.

To try and stop the deception, General Forrest, the KKK commander, ordered the organization disbanded in 1868 or '69 - a year or two after it was organized. From then on the KKK became an exclusive federal government operation. There were intermittent battles between Southern vigilance-committee police and the federal KKK. In the 1870s, a cease-fire agreement was reached between Southern leaders and the federal government.[1]

The 1920s revival of the KKK swept the entire country. There were about as many Klansmen in the North as there were in the South. To defeat this grassroots revolt, the government repeated what they had done in 1868 - they fielded a bogus KKK to commit crimes. The media worked this scam the same way they had worked it before. By the time WWII ended only a few die-hards still belonged to the KKK organization which had now been made disreputable. The establishment is a good "false witness". They've been doing what they do for a long time.[2]

FBI Dirty Tricks

Knowing the background one should have no difficulty believing that the government does the same today as it did yesterday.

> Feb 18, 2004 Washington, PA --- "The FBI set up a phony Ku Klux Klan group and encouraged them to build bombs and acquire automatic weapons, according to the former FBI informant and leader of the

1 The secret agreement between the South and the US government allowed Southern whites to remove blacks from public office. Black rulers had banned white European immigrants who were supposed to buy plantation land bought at tax sales. In return for being allowed to rid themselves of black rule, the carpetbaggers could keep the land they had stolen. The story is related in Vigilantes, Hoskins, 1991.

2 "If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him [that which is] wrong; Then both the men, between whom the controversy [is], shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, which shall be in those days; And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, [if] the witness [be] a false witness, [and] hath testified falsely against his brother; Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you. And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you." Deut 19:16-20. These priests and judges represent God the WORD - not the Admiralty-Law God of the Hindu merchant. All false witnesses will one day be tried by the WORD.

The above is nothing more than a continuation of the stories I heard as a boy - government policy manipulating public opinion to justify oppressive legislation.

The Andersonville Guilt Trip

In school I was taught about "Andersonville" - the Southern prison where so many Yankee POW's died. After the War thousands went on record saying how badly they had been treated. With so many people stepping forward to testify - the stories must be true.

3 The Cartel media is still using this bombing incident in which the feds were involved to generate anti-Saxon legilation and create racial strife.

Later I learned that Yankee POWs were given extra compensation if they could show that they suffered ill treatment while prisoners in the South. When the word went out that they were going to be paid - thousands lined up to qualify. Their perjured testimony went into the country's permanent record and I heard it regurgitated for the 10,000th time just last week on TV. Andersonville! I've had it rubbed in my face all my life. If I'm not mistaken Saxon-Germany was forced to pay each "Holocaust Survivor" who testified how awful he had been treated. When the word got out about the money, armies of "survivors" emerged to file claims. I have heard that there are more Jew claimants than Jews living in German occupied Europe.

Prisons

Prisons for POWs? Prisons are unLawful. It's a form of kidnaping.[4] Yankees and Southerners exchanged prisoners as required by the WORD - that is - before Mr. Lincoln stopped it.

Jackson captured 11,000 Yankees at Harpers Ferry and paroled them. As they marched past on their way home carrying their baggage and belongings with them, Jackson rode by on the way to his next battlefield - and they cheered him - again and again they cheered him.

There's something else. Because of Mr. Lincoln, the death-rate among Confederate prisoners in Northern prisons was greater by half than the death rate of Northern prisoners in Southern prisons. Mr. Stanton himself admitted in 1866 that of 270,000 Northern prisoners in Southern prisons, 22,576 died - a rate of 8.3%. There were only 220,000 Confederate prisoners in Northern prisons but 26,436 died - a rate of 12%.[5] There is an obvious reason the media relates only one side of the story.

4 "The children of Israel are men, and your brothers; you shall not reduce them to slavery." Leviticus 25:46 (Ferrar Fenton); "If a man (376) be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him; then that thief shall die." Deut 24:7; "Obed ... a prophet ... complained that they ... make captives out of their kinsmen ... to let them go home without doing them any harm ... So the ... men took the captives and let them go, and took care of them, and gave them provisions, and sent them away to their own country, without doing them any harm." Antiq 9:7:2

One's World View Influenced

My upbringing has influenced the way I think. I have no difficulty believing that almost 10% of the S. African Boer population - mostly women and children - died in British Concentration camps - and those who killed them are making the same excuses the Cartel apologists are making in America. The ITC media continue to "accuse" while the ITC continues doing what they did. Today, they continue killing S.African whites using their black agents. The same forces who conducted the war against us in the South, and are still doing it, also conducted war against our Saxon kinsmen in S. Africa - and are still doing it.

Neither do I have trouble believing James Bacque's documentation in his monumental "Other Losses" showing the American idol, General Dwight Eisenhower's policy of dealing with German POWs by killing more than a million of them after the war was over. It's easy to kill disarmed prisoners. They killed our people the same way. Nor do I have difficulty believing that Franklin Roosevelt joked with Stalin about exterminating these very same German-Saxon prisoners before it happened, AND, that Stalin - the Turk - whom liberals trained to be a Christian priest, slaughtered 30,000,000 prisoners - most of them Russian-Saxons. Again, it's easy! AND, that Mao slaughtered 70,000,000 of his own countrymen. Based on what happened to us I find it easy to believe that the leopard doesn't change his spots.

Here are other things I learned:

Shaking Hands

Shaking hands is really something new. Granddaddy was old fashioned - he was one of many who wouldn't shake hands. He said people shook hands to seal business deals and that his word did that - just as a kiss is supposed to seal a contract between a boy and a girl. Years ago, merchants shook hands to seal business contracts. Granddaddy didn't have to - his word was good enough.[6]

I remember one time that granddaddy shook hands and made a contract. A man who had once worked for him stole from him. For more than 30 years granddaddy didn't see or speak to the man when he passed him on the streets of Culpeper Court House. This must have affected the thief terribly over the years since Culpeper is a small town.

Granddaddy and the man grew old. One day granddaddy walked up to the man and held out his hand and said, "Jim, we are both getting old. Let's let bygones be bygones." They shook hands. A new contract was made.

6 "Be not one of them that strike hands (handshake, guaranteeing performance, make trade agreement), or one of them that are sureties (give a guarantees) for debt." Pr 22:26

Drinking

When he was young, granddaddy got into some bad company and drank.[7] Grandmother didn't approve but she understood. People were poor. Times were hard. Raising a big family, feeling responsible for his extended family and for neighbors were hard.

When I knew Granddaddy he didn't drink. Years later I saw a note in the family Bible that said "I promise not to take a drink for five years." signed, Richard Thomas Kelly. He had made a contract with God and never drank again. His word was his bond.

Church Going

Granddaddy wouldn't go to church. He respected the WORD but not preachers. I don't remember seeing him smile often. Of course he was old when I knew him, but he was approachable by everyone.

The town of Culpeper came to him with their needs and disputes. His advice was Lawful and just. I was nine when he died. There were so many people there that they all couldn't get in the house and it was a big frame house on the Sperryville Turnpike. The flowers had to be taken out into the yard to make room for people inside, and there they took up almost the whole front yard. I remember it was spring because the colored people who came all brought bunches of jonquils. Lots of them. The cavalcade to the cemetery was still leaving the house when the hearse reached the Masonic cemetery where grandmother's ancestors were buried and where he was to be buried.

7 "It is not for kings to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert judgment." Pr 31:4-5

My grandfather's life had little to do with church-going and everything to do with obedience to the WORD.[8]

The Conquered Southern Nation

From what I have seen the war did not end either in 1865 or 1876. The war has never ended. The federal occupation troops are still here - just less visible.

The government told us that they were going to provide us with with government payrolls which would bring prosperity to our stores, cities and towns - "a real blessing". That's what they told us.

This "blessing" was the result of having federal occupation troops, supposedly withdrawn in 1876, moved into permanent forts built at strategic places throughout the conquered Southland.

Military engineers, men who plan such things, bragged to me how admirably these forts were placed - placed to prevent uprisings by a captive Southern-Saxon-nation demanding the return of their governments, businesses, churches and farm-kingdoms.

Today, permanent forts guard the Southern-Saxon. They are even named for Southern heroes - Forts A.P. Hill, Lee, Pickett etc.: How thoughtful! How considerate! Even the rebellious "copperhead" part of Yankee-Saxon-Pennsylvania is honored by having Fort Indiantown Gap built in its midst - to furnish "prosperity" to this formerly "Copperhead" region with a military payroll - and it still isn't over. Over 500 government men with their families arrived and settled in Eric Rudolf's hometown to make sure that his discontent did not spread to his neighbors. Only now are some of these families being withdrawn. There is too much at stake for the Cartel to take unnecessary chances with malcontents.

Saxon-Heroes

Captive conditioning never ends. Schools in the South were once named to honor her heroes. I went to Robert E. Lee Junior High School. The building still stands but the name has been changed. The elementary school I went to was named for Lynchburg's two boy generals killed in the War - "Garland- Rodes". That name too has been changed.

Dixie

Once, every football game began with a prayer, the band played "Dixie", there were wild "rebel-yells", and the game was on. No more. Dixie has been banned. Children grow up not knowing "Dixie".

Singing

Before reaching the age of 16, I could field-strip a machine gun blindfolded at Fishburne Military School. Our Cadet Corps sang as it marched. Even before that, when I was 13, we drilled at Robert E. Lee Jr.-Hi. We sang there as well. A nation sings.

In my teens, double-dating was the thing. We would get a party together and go to the top of Tobacco Row Mountain where there is an ancient spring. We would eat hotdogs around a fire - tell stories and sing. New songs, old songs; songs that our fathers sang, war songs, funny songs. A nation sings.

Today, the Saxon doesn't sing. Our conquerors have imported alien nations and alien music. This has caused confusion. Destroying a nation's music destroys its soul. Our people no longer sing.

Placing Blame

I was raised in a suffering prostrate South and raised on family stories of injury, insults and murder. I have seen continuous unending hate directed against my people. Continuously, relentlessly I watch politicians attack us, preachers lie to us, and merchants who will do anything to wring another dime from us. Helplessly, before my very eyes I have watched the descent of and dismantlement of my beloved Southland. This very thing was done earlier to my ancestors back in Scotland, England and Ireland - and we are still here.

I can't blame Yankees - most Yankees lost their land before the war. Mr. Lincoln was unable to fill the ranks of his armies from a reluctant white population four times larger than that of the South. He received so little support that he was forced to recruit almost half a million men in Europe with promises of cash and land. This was almost as many as the South had in all its armies. He also recruited nearly 200,000 blacks.

Perhaps we could blame Mr. Lincoln. But, who put him in office? If he was someone's surrogate - the people he ruled were also surrogates - made that way by force. Their reluctance to support the war is revealed by Northern prisons being filled with Northern political prisoners.

Should we blame the British - the ones who invaded us twice and then S. Africa - the country that instigates wars? British merchants benefited - but not the English people, and certainly not the Scots and Irish who served in the British army to keep from starving back home . The British - perhaps they too are surrogates.

Like the South and S. Africa, Germany has also been treated worse than any Saxon nation in recent memory, besides the Saxons of Russia. But, all Saxons everywhere - from Scandinavia, Europe, S. Africa, America to Australia are receiving the same treatment - different in degree only.

Blame the Jews? It's easy. Lots of people do. Everything they do irritates someone. Is it possible that they too are surrogates - protected to do "their thing"?

If not Jews - who then is calling the plays?

I'm going to tell you another story that might help pull this together.

The New York Whipping

I went to NY on business and took two of my children with me to see the sights. I had worked on Wall Street years before. We were in the lobby of the Waldorf Astoria when my 12 year old red-headed daughter, 'Becca, began acting up. She figured that because people were all around she could get away with being disobedient.

The Law states:

> "He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes." Pr 13:24[9]

I took my belt off right there before God and everybody, and gave her a whipping. A lot of people stopped what they were doing and watched. When I finished, you could hear a pin drop. Then, one person clapped, and then everyone clapped, a real round of applause. My daughter was good as gold for the rest of the trip.

9 "Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying." Pr 19:18; "Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him." Pr 22:15; "Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die." Pr 23:13

If you do today what I did back then, the authorities will put you in jail. Why? Because there's another law being enforced in the land instead of God's Law;

> "Hindu children are always treated with great respect and awe, for one does not always know who they are. They may be incarnations of a grandmother, grandfather, aunt or uncle, dearly beloved mother, sister, brother, respected father, a yogi or rishi returned to flesh to help humankind spiritually. ..." Subramuniyaswami, Sivaya, (WWW.Hinduism Today)

The Hindu trade-religion rules the land. That's why you can't spank disobedient children. This is also the reason for the anti- "capital punishment" movement. Death is the punishment required by the WORD for murder and rape. If you put someone to death it might be your grandmother, grandfather, aunt or uncle, mother, brother or father.

Since Hindu law is the basis for the Admiralty law now enforced in the West - it is logical to assume that our masters are Hindus - and we, the Saxons of the world, while being told how free we are, are actually being digested in the belly of the beast.

The Cartel media-presentation of the blond and the black at the beginning was to humiliate, cause hopeless and to make us hate blacks; the Jap humiliation was to make Japs despise Saxons; the Hussein humiliation was to make Islam despise Saxons. All this is being done to separate us from potential allies who would have supported us in the coming war. The on-going suppression of the WORD, and its replacement with Hindu trade-law is done to separate us from God the WORD - thereby destroying our will to resist.

Unfortunately for our enemies, the WORD which is our God, has a plan for this also. The word "stubble" should ring a bell! If it doesn't - you've got homework to do.

S. African Observation

Dear Mr. Hoskins: Thank your for your interesting HR about "Constructive Friction". That is exactly what is happening in our country, and of course also in many other countries including the USA.

What is very interesting as far as our situation is concerned is that the white liberals who helped the ANC into power and deKlerk's supporters who surrendered shamelessly are now leaving the country unsatisfied with the result of their own doing. Many of them were very naive do-gooders and others had guilty consciences about apartheid as a result of total ignorance and left-wing propaganda against the Afrikaner people. All nations in S. Africa had freedom and many more benefits under apartheid than under our present totalitarian state which can be called a Xhosa-dictatorship controlled by internationalists.

Most of the hundreds of traitors everywhere in Afrikaner society are known to us. They are mostly well paid and protected by the authorities. Most of them have been identified by the HNP Afrikaner political party and many operate openly without fear. Although some like Prof Johan Heyns have been killed by unknown snipers it is to our benefit that they should not feel threatened at this stage of our struggle.

It is also important that our God fearing Christians and white nationalists have informers behind enemy lines. My family and I were saved from a police raid by such a patriot.

At present, I am writing about our struggle. It is quite a big task as you would know. I experienced a lot that will be published hopefully to the benefit of the struggle that lies ahead. New insights of the treacherous role of politicians but especially the Afrikaner churches will be highlighted in my writings. With best wishes, S.J.

RKH: S.J. from the beginning distrusted DeKlerk and saw that he was betraying S. Africa. He tried to warn others - to no avail. His book should be interesting .

Chapter 364

HOUNDS Of HELL

Hunting Horns, Siva & Gurus

On the mantle over the fire place is a commemorative fox horn. It's a trophy. Dad won it at the Appomattox Field Trials in the '30s. Those trials were the biggest gathering of packs of Walker Foxhound and master foxhunters in the country. You just didn't bring your pack to the event - you were invited. I can't tell you the prestige associated with being invited to bring one's dogs to compete.

Dad had the best pack. Probably the best pack in the country. It was a big pack and he ran maybe 15 or 20 hounds with another 10 pups always coming along. Year after year he won first, second and third. Nobody else ever did that. Poor as a church mouse during the depression, after feeding his four children he really had to scramble to feed his dogs. He had an agreement with local butchershops and once a week went around picking up barrels of scraps. Once, when Dad was really hard up, he turned down $1,000 from a man who wanted to buy one of his dogs - any one of them. The offer was refused "because it will break up the pack". A pup, maybe, but not a member of the pack. Each dog in the pack had a specific job and Dad's pack was a perfect team.

Etched on the horn are likenesses of his dogs. Each identified by his markings. They are shown in full cry after a "red". Dad said red foxes are bigger and smarter than greys. "Prince", "Queen", "Princess", "Duke" - I remember those names. People in Bedford and Amherst Counties knew them, too; at least they knew when they were running - they could hear the dogs and fox horns.

This presentation horn can be blown - if you know how, but the real hunting horns actually used in the field were smaller and shrill to get distance. Most hunters just used the same signals using their voices when calling their dogs - but many used hunting horns. The shrill sound of the fox horn echoing over the Virginia hills was like Gabriel's horn and the dogs understood and responded with increased baying and yelps.

Imagine Dad standing on a hill, eyes half-closed, a smile on his face; his dogs running so far away that you could barely hear them - but he could. There would be silence for a time. Dad would nod to Mr. Shepherd, Dad's hunting pal, and Mr.

Shepherd would blow a shrill message telling the dogs that the fox had doubled back and to hunt around for his new track. There was quiet for a bit longer and then one dog would bugle. Soon they all picked up and were in full cry once again - back on the right trail.

Dad told me which dog it was that first picked up the scent and told the rest of the pack about the new track. He told me what the rest would do - and they did. He said that any fox hunter worth his salt could do that. He learned that as a boy down at Hoskins Creek in Essex County. I couldn't. Never could. But I'm not the fox hunter my father was.

I did learn this much. The master uses his fox horn to talk to his pack. A master might have the best foxhounds in the country, but if thousand dollar dogs ignore their master's horn, if they turn aside to chase deer or raccoons - they are worthless. Dogs that eat but don't earn their keep force the pack-master to get rid of them and put together a new pack - a pack that is obedient.

Rebel Yell

You've heard of the "rebel-yell". Well, lots of our regiments didn't have buglers - they used the fox horn. Just about everyone already understood hunting horn talk. The sound of the "rebel-yell" coming from thousands of men repeating orders from the fox horn was magnificent - I've heard it many times when serving with the 116th Regiment of the 29th Division. Of course, it's not such a joyous sound if you are the one being hunted.

Early Morning

Early one morning, many years later, before anyone else came to work, I was sitting in my chair up on the 18th floor of the Central Fidelity building looking across the hills of Piedmont to the Blue Ridge. I was waiting for sunrise - my favorite part of the day. In my mind I could hear Dad's Walkers.

Then, I heard something else. There were other packs out running. I knew they were foxhounds from their bugling, but they were giving out a strange sound. They weren't hunting like foxhounds. It was like they were hunting something else.

Could it be that other pack-masters were teaching their dogs to hunt rabbit and deer? Foxhounds are not allowed to hunt rabbit and deer. A valuable foxhound that hunts rabbit or deer is worthless as a foxhound. A pack-master who encourages such conduct is worse - he is a traitor to the ancient and honorable craft of the fox hunt.

Reality

I snapped from my day dream and leaned back and contemplated.

The steeples of Lynchburg stood as tall as ever. At one time or another, in my own search for a pack-master whose call I could understand, I had attended a lot of them - most in fact. Often I was asked to speak from their pulpits or teach their Sunday Schools. I knew many of their pack-masters - nice chaps. They repeated the name of God the WORD constantly, and taught their congregations not to "lie, cheat or steal, to pay their taxes and come to church on Sunday." But they ignored the weightier things of the Law.[1]

Then it came to me; the words they were teaching were THEIR words. I was not interested in their words - I wanted to hear an authority greater than the speaker - I wanted to hear the clear cut concise orders from the Grand Master of the Hunt.[2]

I had much to learn about "organized religion". I knew about foxhounds. They are trained to obey the sharp clear commands of a fox horn. Those that don't are instantly cut from the packs lest they teach other dogs to disobey. But here, in church, these packmasters blew the horn just so the dogs would hear its pleasant sound and think that all was well.

But things weren't well. Anyone with eyes to see could see that wolf-packs were running and catching sheep - and these pack-masters were teaching their charges that all was well - that "all gods are one", that the Laws of God's WORD have been done away so that dogs can now do anything they like.

Well, not exactly - that would be chaos.

You see, if God's Laws are done away - WHO then tells the pack what is "good" and what is "bad"?

You got it! That's it!!

There is no one else except the local packmaster - the very one who denies that the WORD is God. He has made himself a "Guru".

1 "Woe unto you ... scribes and Pharisees ... for ye ... have omitted the weightier matters of the law ... these ought ye to have done." Matt 23:23

2 "Moses commanded ... Take this book of the Law ... that it may be there for a witness against thee." Deut 31: 25,26

The Guru

What is a "Guru"?

We are taught that "Guru" refers to someone who is smart. This description doesn't come within a mile of what goes through a Hindu's mind when he hears the word "Guru". Try the Hindu definition:

"In Hinduism, Guru means God Himself."[3]

Those six words can blow your mind if you take time to really think about it. "Guru means God Himself." It makes perfect sense from their standpoint.

Since "all gods are one", a Guru searches among Esau's incomprehensive mish mash of beliefs and puts together a belief system pleasing to his followers - a belief system both useful and pleasing. If one agrees with the Guru's selections - he becomes your contact with the gods - your only contact since he is the only one who knows the god he has created for you out of countless other gods. He is the one who understands. You have no choice. You must follow your chosen Guru as you would God himself because he is the only one who knows the way to "nirvana" - the restitution of all things - where good and bad at last come together. Where all is one.

The one who explains all this to you is equal to the gods. This is why, to the Hindu,

"Guru means God Himself."

As payment for turning people away from the Laws of God the WORD that would prevent the wolf from eating sheep, the "guru" is rewarded with "tax exemption", media "notoriety," large churches whose chief contributors are employed by wolf-cartels, access to "usury-bank loans", and use of the "media" itself - the road paved with unlimited riches.

You have seen the accompanying table before. You have studied and know the Law of God the WORD. When you see one who advertises himself as a teacher of the WORD, and instead, teaches the opposite - you are dealing with a Guru - a traitor to both God and man. He follows the god who has many names, the principal one which is "Siva" who is - fittingly - the god of sex, destruction and death.

It's not enough to teach people not to lie, cheat or steal. All religions teach that - including Christianity. Lord Siva teaches his followers not to lie, cheat, or steal. Lord Siva also teaches deception - so his followers CAN lie, cheat and steal. He teaches both. His followers don't lie, cheat or steal and they do lie, cheat and steal.

But, there is one thing Siva does not teach - he does not teach the thing the WORD teaches - that kings, usury, monopoly and strangers are banned. Those who follow the WORD teach that. These prohibitions ban Siva himself.

Any "goody-two-shoes" who does not actively support these prohibitions of God the WORD is suspect. If he tolerates teachings banned by the WORD, he is suspect. It indicates that the god he teaches is one he created himself and that he is its Guru - a "living god".

What people say reveals as much as what they don't say.

> The Hounds of God are known by their cry -
> The Hounds of Hell by theirs.

LETTERS

INDIA'S WEALTH: "Dick: If India is the source of our troubles - how did it accumulate so much wealth since the British left following WWII?" G.F. - Texas

RKH: Hindu and Jewish writings say that the world is ruled by seven living "Perfect Masters" in the East who move about as they like. It is an interesting observation.

Countries own and run nothing. They are corporations who manage and control captive populations worldwide.

India's population is mixed-breed. People are made in the image of their gods. Each god has laws. The contending laws of the many contending gods reduced India to a state of Lawless-chaos. The British were instructed to occupy India and restore order. They did. They were then ordered home. They went.

Usury is the world's gold chain. It is a monopoly practice. The big absorb the small and the survivor rules all. Countless attempts have been made to have our own Federal Reserve audited. All failed. This shows that ALL our political rulers "respect", "hold-in-awe", "are obedient" to the banks who own the media which elected them to office. The ultimate usurer practiced his ancient craft in India before history began. He owns the banks that rule the world.

The State of India is a captive state like other captive states. However, its god, Kali, is universal and sovereign because those who rule us obey her. Her practices and rituals permeate the world.

India didn't regain wealth after WWII - its rulers never lost it. The country is a sort of traditional ITC headquarters - whose wealth accumulates in worldwide corporations.

GOOD SAMARITAN: "Dear Richard; Question: If an alien came into a hobo territory would you welcome him or tell him to leave because your God says for strangers to stay away from Saxon people?" N.D. - California

ANS: Remember the Parable of the "Good Samaritan"? A man was waylaid, beaten, robbed and left for dead. A priest came by and passed on the other side. So also did a Levite ruler. Then came a Samaritan (mixed breed Arab-Turk from Samaria) who stopped and rendered aid. Now, who was neighbor? The Samaritan, of course. He obeyed the Law which was disobeyed by the others. He will be rewarded for his good deeds. Under the WORD, alien nations of the world can Lawfully help each other and us, or, unLawfully harm each other and us.

If, however, the same "good" Samaritan who had rendered the Lawful aid should venture to disobey the Law and murder, rape, or rob - or unLawfully enter a Saxon place of worship, or, attempt to eat with the children of Israel, or marry one of its daughters - the punishments written into the Law are activated. ! 4 ▒ TheLawissupremeoverbothJacobandEsau.It is supreme over everyone.

GOLD: Europe's central banks have raised the amount of gold reserves to be privatized from 400 tons to 500 over 5 years to the year 2009. Financial Times, March 9, 2004, p.25)

RKH: Merchants are granted trading rights in monopoly markets called "countries". Using their state police powers they exact tribute from their captive customers and then privatize it. The world behind Esau's Cloak is an illusion far removed from reality.

INDIAN GOLD RESERVES: New Delhi: Dec 17, 2004. "There is a total of 9000 tonnes of gold reserves in the country, and it is likely to go up to 15,000 soon, Commerce and Industry Minister Kamal Nath said today. (Http://www. we-bindia123. com/news/showdetails. asp?id=55389&cat...)

RKH: Let's think now. What will India use to pay for this incoming 6,000 tons of gold? Will it use the gold to offset debts from usury that it is owed? If the gold is exchanged for credit - where will they get this credit? From banks. Whose banks can give this much credit? Theirs! Hindu corporation usury-banks parading under hometown names but in fact owned by the Serpent. Gold for credit. Good exchange! Rome did it - and died a whimpering pauper.

CHINA COMBATS AIDS: China's government is offering rewards of $40-$240 to informers reporting Web porn. It is also installing 1,000 condom vending machines in hotels, bars, universities and construction sites in the capital as part of its anti-HIV campaign. The UN estimates China's infected population nears 10m.

INDIA'S AIDS: The Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria contends that the number of AIDS infections in India is much higher than 5.1 million. This may make India one of the world's AIDS leaders. Something not surprising considering India's most popular god is Siva - a sex god.

GOD BLESS AMERICA: According to the Human Rights Watch at least 11 Al-Qaida suspects have "disappeared" and are probably being held outside the US without access to the Red Cross or any oversight of their treatment.

people. A recent poll showed that Arizona voters favor the measure 63% to 23%. (Story in TIME, p.23, Oct 11, 2004)

RKH: HR has long pointed out that our enemy, in addition to aliens, are the three castes the ITC has placed in power to rule us.

INVASION: According to Delhi The Times Of India, Indians have quietly taken over the diamond industry. Antwerp, Belgium, the world's diamond capital, is teeming with Indians who own and staff top firms. At least 90% of the world's diamonds pass through Antwerp and 2/3s of those go through Indian hands. "Any Jewish, Belgian, or Lebanese diamantaire will tell you that the Indians have run away with the business." (The Week, Sep 24, 2004)

RKH: It should come as no surprise that alien owned corporations have started using their own people to manage and operate Cartel assets.

COLLECTIVISM: Zimbabwe will abolish private ownership of land, nationalize all white farms, and give 99-year leases on the land to blacks. (The WEEK, Aug, 2004) The International Crisis Group, A shadowy independent think tank, recommended that S. African blacks get on confiscating white-owned land and leasing it to blacks for 99 years - the same as is done in Palestine and Britain. The next step will be for the state to "privatize" the land into the hands of Cartel agents. The ITC is predictable and good at what it does.

The Cartel-ruled US demanded that Europeans be removed from ruling Africa at the end of WWII causing Africa to revert to its normal chaos. Every black starving child, every black massacre, every plague, every black fleeing to the West is the fault of America's puppet rulers. Note the silence of puppet priests, political rulers, and merchants. As long as they get theirs they could care less about who dies or who lives. The "stupidity" defense will no longer suffice at their judgment.

APOSTATE PREACHERS: Today's apostate preacher is either a traitor who follows other gods, a state priest who teaches admiralty law in place of Christian Law, or is the most stupid creature on the face of the earth - something hard to believe.

HE KNEW: A book by the journalist who first reported the Abu Ghraib scandal says that Donald Rumsfeld, US defense secretary, was told in 2002 that prisoners at Guantanamo Bay were being tortured but did nothing about it. (Story in Financial Times, Sept 13, 2004)

RKH: Charlemagne, Holy Roman Emperor, lord of the West and right arm and defender of Catholicism, is the grandfather of every pair of Saxon eyes reading these lines. This, our common ancestor, issued an invitation to Saxon kings and chiefs of Northern Europe, worshipers of Oden - to come to a great peace conference. They did and he beheaded all 5,000 of them. "Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel ... for this thing is from me." I Kings 12:24.[5]

Our own ancestor did this deed. Each of us has the ability and will to do the same evil, stupid things when deprived of knowledge. We are not better than our fathers. Our calling is to teach our kinsmen. It is easier to talk and teach than it is to fight and kill.

Muslims are aliens. However, the Scriptures teach that God made only man and beast. When dealing with "non-man"

(humans) the Scriptures teach; "Beasts will not perish, nor all souls of beasts which the Lord created, till the great judgment, and they will accuse man, if he feed them ill." Secrets Of Enoch 58:7. What Rumsfeld has done is neither honorable, Christian, or merciful. One would not do to dogs what has been done to them - unless the intent is to unleash a war between the Christian nation and the Muslim nation. It is the author's opinion that the ones responsible for these acts - all of them from the very top on down - should be brought forward and judged by the WORD.

TURKEY & EU: President Bush called on the European Union to admit Turkey. In essence, a Europe already overrun with Muslims is being asked to open the flood-gates to tens of millions more Muslims. This type of warfare is more deadly than armed conflict. It is meant to destroy Europe's Saxon-Christian nation.

Chapter 365

THIRTY-SIX STRATEGIES

To Wage War

China's "yantra"[1] is the dragon - their version of the "Serpent of Deception". Japan's "yantra" is the "Rising Sun" representing the "Center-of-all-Things".

1 YANTRA: Hindu symbol representing a complete idea. "Mantra" - speaking or chanting the idea; "Yantra" - a visual symbol of the idea that one can use for meditation; "Tranta" - doing the idea. The 3 concepts go together and are one. "Mantra", "Yantra", "Tantra".

The Korean yantra-sign is the divided circle of the ying-yang male-female "sex-symbol". Each represents part of the greater international Hindu-Buddhist world where there is no sin, no heaven and no hell - just reincarnation for now and a promised "nirvana" tomorrow.

Those of their own who live in other lands and who practice any one of a multitude of religions are forever considered their own.[2]

Chinese believe that they are superior to all peoples on the earth. The Japanese and Koreans believe the same about themselves. Each believes his own are superior because each has mastered the technique of war gained from the Thirty-Six Strategies.

These "36-Strategies" are studied by every Chinese, Japanese and Korean from the time he can walk. A housewife purchasing a loaf of bread or a child buying a stick of candy employs them. The electronics or auto manufacturer, or textile salesmen employs one or more of the 36 Techniques when dealing with a customer. The Shinto or Confucian priest employs these techniques; the soldier uses them. Everything - every trade, purchase, even in obedience to their gods - every contact with others is done striving for an advantage. One gains or loses an advantage in each transaction. All believe that "The greatest victory is the victory gained without battle." Great victories require a true "Master of Deception". The Orient has many such masters. The Orient constantly is perpetually at war with itself or with others - politically, religiously and economically.

2 This is confirmation that all people are made in the "image" of their gods and do not basically change even when putting on or taking off religions.

Selecting Leaders

Long ago, Chinese rulers selected their administrators from those who scored highest on national exams. The son of a poor peasant scoring high on these exams might rise from poverty to riches almost overnight. This causes the Oriental to be pre-occupied with the study of "history", "literature" and "philosophy" - a fact confirmed by their scores when taking Western exams. This results in most oriental leaders being highly intelligent and extremely dangerous to those ignorant of their ways.

When one mentions "Number 15" or "Number 28" of the "36-Strategies" - the educated Chinese conjures up examples from Chinese history to serve as his examples to follow. Unfortunately, I am not as well educated in Chinese history as I would like, and neither are my readers, and must therefore attempt to translate Chinese-Japanese examples into examples more easily understood by Westerners.

The typical Westerner, with his direct method of thinking things through, will find the following tedious but necessary. The fact is - because we have failed to use the safeguards provided by the WORD - we are a conquered race. We were conquered long ago by forces using these 36-Strategies who persuaded us that we ourselves were conquerors of others. We didn't know we were slaves. We were never taught "The greatest victory is the victory gained without battle."

Today, the puppet rulers placed over us to keep us docile use these same ancient "36- Strategies."

The Puppet Nation

The industrial, economic, and military might of the United States has been harnessed and is at the beck and call of our rulers. Puppet political, religious, and business rulers use our harnessed might to advance the agenda of our masters - which includes the subjection of other lands and peoples.

These puppet agents of the "Masters Of Deception" use combinations of these 36-Strategies. These combinations are called "bing-fa". A "bing-fa" is designed to achieve victory in a specific case. These "bing-fa" add to the 36-Strategies so that the total number available to be used is almost unlimited.

A Master Bing-Fa

The "First Gulf-War's" Bing-Fa, discussed in HR 2004-#362, is a perfect example. It used "deception", "media-propaganda", "political", "alliances", "electronic", "economic", "hacking" and other techniques together in perfect harmony. This, plus the fact that Esau uses the children of Jacob as his instrument to conquer his own and others, is looked upon by practitioners of the art as a masterful accomplishment.

Our puppet leaders did what they were told to do. The Saxons provide the "cannon-fodder", the prize belongs to Esau, and the "Bing-Fa" came from those who have mastered the "36-Strategies" - the Masters of Deception.

The 36-Strategies

1 - Hide important things in the open for all to see.

A) "USURY" - a fraudulent contract that from conception is impossible to fulfill.[3] The evil is concealed by calling it "interest". The public is told that "high interest is bad - low interest is good." ANY interest on a loan is usury and is equally bad. Today, signs on every street corner advertise usury loans and people have been trained not to take offense. Usury is hidden in the open for all to see.

B) The "yantra" of Vishnu, one of Hindu's favorite gods, is also a god of sex and death. His yantra is a female triangle pointed down - overlaid with a male triangle pointed up - signifying the union of the male and the female in the sex act. This symbol is employed by Hindu agents all over the world and people have been trained to blindly look on this sign of sexual intercourse and see nothing but a geometric design. It is hidden in the open for all to see.

2 - Help save a state from evil forces by invading them.

Many European countries have invaded much of the world to save them from their sins.

America alone has invaded Mexico, Cuba, Panama, Haiti, Kosovo, Germany, France, Vietnam, Korea, Japan, Yugoslavia, Afghanistan, Iraq and many other countries directly or by employing surrogates. The countries were invaded to save them from something worse.

3 - Use surrogates to do what you don't wish to be seen doing.

A) The ITC finances kings to organize the peoples of the world into manageable trade units called countries.

B) The ITC finances priesthoods to modify people's religious beliefs so that they will NOT use these religious beliefs against the ITC.

C) The ITC appoints great merchants to manage their corporations which hold the wealth extracted from the captive peoples of the world.[4] Examples of hiring surrogates to do what one does not wish to be seen doing are without number.

4 - Make impossible demands on potential victims.

Demand Kosovo relinquish traditional Christian lands to Islamic invaders. Britain demanded that S. Africa allow imported mine workers to vote and take over the country. The U.S. puppet government demands that strangers be admitted and allowed to vote to rule Saxons in violation of the WORD with the certain knowledge that strangers will constitute a majority by 2040.

5 - Start a house fire and salvage the contents.

A) Instigate revolutions and while helping suppress them rob the country of everything not nailed down.

Talk *detant*e with the Soviets - create an expensive Taliban to fight them; and an expensive space race to force them into bankruptcy. Privatize Russian wealth in the resulting chaos.

6 - Talk one thing - act something else.

A) King talked non-violence and left cities in flames.

B) Peace-talk with Southern emissaries with an invasion fleet already on the high seas sailing to capture their principal harbor.

C) Attack Iraq to detract attention from the on-going alien invasion and occupation of America.

4 The US and G. Britain enabled black S. Africa to conquer white S. Africa with the Cartel privatizing the pieces. The US created the Taliban to fight the USSR. It armed Iraq to fight Iran. The USSR appointed puppet rulers in Eastern Europe. Organized Christian religions install Jews to run their usury banks.

D) Advertise products for sale - using alien males with Saxon females - the real purpose is to sell "idealized integration" to the captive Saxon nation to destroy them.

*7 - Create something from nothing.

A) Stonewall Jackson left burning campfires to fix the enemy's attention while his army flanked them with a night march.

8 - Use an unknown technique.

A) Hannibal used an unknown route through impassable swamps to get behind and destroy a Roman army.

B) Greeks used "Greek-fire" to achieve mastery of the sea. Japs attacked Fortress Singapore from the rear. England used tanks, France - breech-loading rifles, America - Gatling-guns, Germany - subs & blitzkrieg, State of Israel - intelligence & hacking, and the Cartel - usury and media monopoly.

9 - Help the enemy destroy himself with internal dissensions.

A) The Russian Revolution that destroyed Tzarist rule was financed from the US.

B) Hispanic La Rasa, the NAACP, and the Communist Party USA were financed by American Corporations.

B) The Black government of S. Africa was headquartered in Britain and financed by both Britain and the U.S. White S. Africa was destroyed.

10 - Smile with knife in hand.

Pretend friendship while plotting an enemy's destruction.

Concerned by government brutalities at Ruby Ridge and Waco, citizen defense militias mushroomed. The FBI sent "goodwill" emissaries to "talk" while identifying militia vulnerabilities. Using this information, they destroyed America's militia movement.

11 - Sacrifice friends to win victory for a greater good."

A) Martin Luther King's excesses caused him to become a liability. He was executed, converting a liability into a martyr-asset.

B) Kennedy's excesses caused him to become an unelectable liability. He was executed, causing him to become a martyr-asset.

C) George Wallace's 3rd Party unexpectedly took on steamroller aspects. The Cartel had him shot - sacrificing one of their own to end a right-wing political revolt.

12 - Quietly pick up property belonging to another and take it home as your own.

Tens of thousands of farms were confiscated to build the Skyline Drive; again to make room for military bases; again to build the Tennessee Valley Authority. Most of the American west bought to be divided remains undivided and in government hands.

All, or any part of these assets, can be privatized at any time.

13 - Make an hidden enemy reveal himself by creating a disturbance.

To incite and bring into view the location and extent of the Christian-Patriot movement in America, the FBI sniper shot the Ruby Ridge mother in the face while she was holding her baby. They also shot her husband, their teen-age son, and a visitor - and the FBI named their base camp at the foot of the mountain after the dead mother. FBI operatives were reported to be laughing when they talked about it.

It worked.

14 - Pretend the worthless is valuable.

A Chinese company verging on bankruptcy merged with a Western company thereby giving itself value.

15 - Entice an enemy from his place of strength.

Make a conciliatory gesture. Talk peace. Make concessions. A friendly visit to the enemy's camp allows you to view his strengths and weaknesses - a loose word, a valued family member, an opinion or obstacle formerly unknown. Any or all can be used to make him leave his position and take him down.

16 - Never attack a desperate enemy.

Wait. When he tires of waiting and disperses - capture his forces one by one.

About 20 years ago, a black farmer in Georgia was threatened with foreclosure. Armed white farmers went to his aid. Car cavalcades constantly paraded past honking their support. The authorities waited. Days turned to weeks. Weeks into months. The farmers went home. The authorities moved in and foreclosed.

17 - Exchange a rock for a diamond.

Extend honors and compliments to a potential victim. He will feel that this is a preliminary to future advantageous offers and will himself offer things of value.

18 - Make every effort to capture the friendship of the leader of a powerful opposition.

Turn an enemy into a friend if possible. It may help you to your objective. If he cannot be made into a friend it may be necessary to kill him.

19 - If unable to answer problems or ideas - remove or discredit the author or authors of the problems.

A) Examples are many: Marcus Garvey - American Negro separatist; Hendrick Verwoerd - S. African white separatist; Hitler - German separatist; Coligny - French separatist; Wallace - Scot separatist; today's separatists - Basque, Kurd, Tamil, Berber, Islamic and Saxon separatists. All are Cartel enemies and branded "terrorists".

B) Demonize the KKK. Then pubically invite followers of the WORD to KKK gatherings.

20 - Replace an enemy's loss of direction with your own program.

The U.S. deprived Iraq of its leader and is now conducting the election of a puppet government. The same was done in Kosovo and Panama, etc.

21 - Pretend the cicada's empty shell is alive.

The cicada leaves a useless empty shell on the side of a tree. When one operation becomes inoperative - switch to another while pretending the old is still alive.

A) When BATF failed at Waco - the FBI took over.

B) When NATO bogged down - the UN was activated.

C) When the UN failed - the CIA and the World Bank took over.

D) When all failed - the US operated alone.

E) At home, when various agencies lose support - Homeland Security is activated.

22 - Denounce friends to establish believable "bona fides".

A) In Russia during WWII, Soviet NKVD state police operatives dressed in German uniforms shot loyal Communist party members to reverse pro-German attitudes.

B) Postwar government KKK attacked blacks and pro-unionists to pressure congress to pass anti-South legislation.

C) US creates, arms, and supported Iraq-Afghanistan resistance organizations - then called them "terrorist organizations" and attempted to destroy them to justify Iraqattack and justify dispensing war contracts that quickly followed.

Denounce or destroy a friend if the reward is worth it.

23 - Keep captive populations intimidated.

Ruby Ridge, Waco, Oklahoma City, Trade Towers I & II, Ongoing KKK trials, drumfire media, religious, business and government "anti-Saxonism" - all orchestrated to keep the Saxon nation intimidated.

24 - Promise one thing - deliver another.

A) NAFTA was said to promote trade and prosperity. It destroyed both.

B) Forced integration was advertised as necessary for peace. It delivered lawlessness and strife.

C) IRAQATTACK promised protection from terror and WMD. It delivered war contracts along with massive Islamic casualties and worldwide enmity.

25 - Attack enemies within reach - keep others neutral.

When Rome attacked in the West it made peace in the East. When it attacked in the East it made peace in the West.

Just because an enemy is active elsewhere and is at peace with you doesn't mean that your turn won't come.

26 - The hidden message.

Lambaste one party as a warning to others. Accuse an individual's or group's writings as inciting "terror".

The hidden message - beware opposing Cartel policy.

27 - Pretend not to notice the approach of an enemy.

He will think you are preparing dinner while you actually prepare an ambush.

28 - Destroy the bridge.

A) Dispose of strong friends who helped you gain power since their strength is no longer needed and they may become a future danger.

B) Allow the enemy to reach a false objective - then activate booby- traps to ruin him as he tries to escape.

C) The Arabs enticed a Crusader army to attack a distant oasis that had no water. They all died of thirst on the march back.

D) Napoleon reached Moscow which had been burned. There was no food. Neither was there food on the way back since the Cossacks had burned it. Napoleon's army starved and froze to death.

Require an unproven ally to do something that will forever alienate him from your enemy.

29 - Be wise by playing the fool.

Japan's military effort to win WWII failed. The Emperor ceased the unprofitable venture, humbly surrendered, and ordered his people to quietly rebuild Japan's industries in order to conquer from a different direction. The result is that most Japanese don't believe that they lost WWII. They believe that they are winning the present war.

30 - Provoke strong emotion.

A soldier must be willing to die for his country. Make him think the effort worthwhile by portraying the enemy as evil and his destruction as good.

Wise men are indifferent both to praise or abuse.

31 - The beauty trap.

Asians feel that their enemies lower defenses when plied with wine, women and song. Women are a natural gift and work wonderfully well as spies.

A) Samson died because of an Edomite woman.

B) Clinton was disgraced.

C) A prostitute betrayed Joseph Paul Franklin.

D) Attila the Hun captured a German princess and she killed him in bed.

E) Much of Congress is presently compromised by their illicit liaisons.

32 - If weak, appear weaker than you really are.

Deliberately display weakness. Displaying weakness may make your enemy suspect a trap and hesitate to attack you.

33 - Use double agents.

A) Spend a great deal of money to develop a product, or use a double agent to steal the product for a fraction of the cost.

B) Palestinians rarely execute spies. They turn them into double agents by instructing them in the Koran and by holding their families hostage. So many have become double-agents that the Israelis seldom trust information gained by their Arab spies even when the info is true.

34 - Self inflicted wounds.

Undercover agents burn or blind themselves, or amputate fingers or hands to appear as victims of their own people in order to win confidence of enemies.

35 - Create your own "Bing-fa".

Make combinations of the 36-Strategies that suit conditions. Have many irons in the fire. Use the ones heating up. Never oppose a more powerful enemy by force.

36 - Run.

If overwhelmed - don't fight to the death. Surrender, compromise or run. Flight is strategy - not defeat. Chinese wars often drag on for years and even decades. Each defeat resulting in a retreat saves the army for another day.

Conclusion

Orientals think, breathe, and use variations of these 36-Strategies every day of their lives. Old "friends" smile and shake hands while their minds race devising the best combination needed to reduce their friend to do their will for that day.

Their homelands have used these 36-Strategies for hundreds of years. In the Orient, each successful Bing-fa has been countered in time by an opponent producing a counter Bing-fa.

The result has been - stalemate!

No longer is the Orient stalemated!

The West carelessly invaded their lands and has broken their age-old stalemate of contending parties. This has allowed one party to overcome others and gather all power. Most Far East countries are now united under single governments. These governments, while eternally suspicious of each other, are uniting against the one they all identify as a common enemy.

The technologically superior, but naive, West has been a natural steed for ITC masters using these Strategies.

However, the technological superiority is fast evaporating. Our future will be determined by our ability to learn to defend against those using these 36-Strategies against us.[5]

News From Die Afrikaner

Translated from Die Afrikaner, Feb 27 - Mar 4, 2004

A letter in The Wolverhamton Express and Star pertaining to the treatment of Boer prisoners during the Anglo-Boer War (1899-1902) contained the following:

5 Recommended reading: The Asian Mind Game, Chin-Ning Chu, NY 1991: The Japanese Art Of War, Thomas Cleary, Boston 1991

> "We take no prisoners now ... There happened to be a few wounded Boers left. We put them through the mill. Every one was killed."

Walker Henderson-Thompson, a British soldier diarist, wrote as follows;

> "Guards over the Boers sometimes got very tired and treated the Boers very well? One example of the good treatment was that of the Mounted Fusiliers. After a long march they were tired and it was very wet and cold and they thought it would be easier to mind corpses than live men, so they bayoneted about 30 Boers and lay down and had a good sleep."

Lt. Lachlan Gordon-Duff of the Gordon Highlanders wrote what happened when his unit on Nov 27, 1900 was involved in a skirmish with Boer soldiers.

> "Forty Boers tried to surrender to us the other day and were not allowed to and a fight ensued in which they fought well but were wasted; it is rather extraordinary how they still go on."

These were only three incidents in which about 80 Boer soldiers were murdered. It gives a new perspective to missing Boers statistics in the Anglo-Boer War - plus the thousands of non-combatants (children, women and elder men) murdered by the British and their collaborators the same way - all these besides the tens of thousands murdered in the concentration camps.

The only one I know of who was brought to justice was Breaker Morant. He was an Australian and as cruel as can be. No convention kept the English from treating our people this way.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J

The children have had a good Christmas. Betzy arranged for them to visit their holiday families.

Willie has put a concrete fence around the home. Safety has become a vital necessity everywhere. The gate is electronic.

After 10 years of black democracy our country looks terrible. Hans has to replace two tyres after hitting a pot-hole. An important bridge in Randburg has loose plates, and on it goes. What upsets us most are the innocent ones; white parents without work, the elderly who lost most of their pension and medical aid, or young children stolen by mostly Nigerians who keep them on drugs and use them as prostitutes, or sell them abroad. The Chinese are also a great danger and police who raid their homes find them full of drugs.

On our small place old bread and fruit are put out for the birds and we now find wild animals turning up, like the meerkat, family of the mongoose. There's nothing out there to eat because of the drought. Farmers continue to have the faith to survive in spite of the terrible drought and all the laws the regime uses to force them off their family farms.

A family camped in Natal. The mother got sick afterwards with a problem in her nervous system. After 3 years of treatment she went to our local doctor who saw immediately that a green mambo snake had bitten her. Since that snake has only a small mouth she did not get so much poison as she might have. That snake is highly poisonous.

I resigned from the HNP because of their political shift, but still get "Die Afrikaner". The rich man who runs it owns about 20 companies. I have found it difficult to trust rich people.

Canada is buying big into goldmines and prospecting.

Do you still remember Kaalvoet "Barefoot" Thysie? - Just a shirt, pants and no shoes - one of the last to surrender to the black S. African government. A real soldier. He later left to live overseas. I hope these men will come back when the time comes - when we will need them to defend us against the black hordes.

The present black S. African Defense Force soldiers have behaved badly in the Congo. A shameful lot.

It was nearly impossible for white students to fail in this year's matric exams. The standard has dropped to third world levels and the facts in the text books can't be believed. White parents must teach their children our true history so that they will know who they are, or they will believe what the communists tell them and be blind to everything their forefathers and mothers worked for.

With best wishes, K.J.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: Words lack to express our deepest appreciation for the generous donation of R36,250 we received these last two months. Thank you also for the $500 donation we received to buy the children Christmas presents. They realize that many others won't be so lucky as to receive even one present this Christmas!

With the donated money we received during 2004 we were able to put up a concrete wall at the Children's home for protection and install a security system. The high crime level makes it a necessity.

All The Loeries

The Loeries are all healthy and happy. They had a busy and productive last semester at school and we are satisfied with their progress.

May you and your readers be blessed this festive Christmas season. Thank you for making a difference in the children's lives.

God Bless, Willie Hoffmann, Lorie Youth Centre

Chapter 366

APOCALYPSE

Appearances Can Deceive

During the Berlin Crisis I was called up as a filler for the 100th Airborne and assigned to be 2nd Aide to Gen Rash the Commanding General. I was the oldest 2nd Lt in the US Army. When the Visitors' Bureau was created to welcome visiting dignitaries, Gen Rash put me in charge since he didn't need two Aides. My desk was in Division G2 intelligence and I was detached and placed under command of Col. Kimball, Division G2.

Col Kimball thought it important that the officers under his command pal around. One Sunday he suggested that we go to a riding academy and rent horses for the afternoon. There were three of us and three horses to choose from. Col Kimball took the big horse, Capt Bastic took the middlesized horse, and 2nd Lt Hoskins got the littlest horse.

The little horse I had been given was mean as a snake. He wanted to take the bit and go! It was all I could do to keep him under control and seemingly quiet. When going to Lynchburg College 15 years earlier one of my three jobs was breaking horses for the M-Y Ranch. The owner had bought Texas barrel racers that hadn't been ridden in years - which was why he was able to buy them cheap. I gentle-broke them. Only twice did I have to do the bucking-bronco-rodeo thing. I could handle the little son-of-a-gun without appearing to, but it was a struggle of wills the entire time.

The big horse of Col Kimball had two gaits - a walk and a fast-walk. He never would go into a proper trot. After twenty minutes Col Kimball was disgusted and suggested we exchange horses. I got on the big horse and Col Kimball mounted the little horse - and that's the last we saw of him. Away he went hanging on for dear life. That part of Arkansas countryside was mostly flat with rolling hills. In an all-out run Col Kimball disappeared into a fold in the ground a quarter mile away and emerged a few minutes later to top the next hill, a distant figure, and then disappear behind the next fold in the ground where he disappeared.

We waited.

After half an hour we saw a faint figure in the distance that got closer and closer. It was Col Kimball racing toward us hanging on for dear life. He dashed up - skidded to a stop - calmly dismounted and informed us that he thought that "we have enough exercise for the afternoon."

Appearances can be deceiving. In addition to the riding exhibition, in private life Col Kimball was a bank teller and Captain Bastic, assistant G2, was a used car salesman. They were also both geniuses - more than qualified for their important jobs. Many's the time I watched them take bits and pieces of intelligence and put them together into a comprehensive and understandable picture of national importance. I remember the day when Captain Bastic suddenly stood up and exclaimed:

"Our next war will be in Indo-China - Vietnam!"

I was thunder-struck. Vietnam?

Where's Vietnam?

The Simple Pieces

I learned much from these men. They taught me that piece by piece, little by little, one gains understanding. One must look beyond appearances.

Religion Is A Law System

The Encyclopedia Britannica, 14th Edition, Vol 5, p. 635 says:

> "Very early, Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law, and faith was interpreted as obedience."

Religion is about law. The WORD created Adam-man and created him in the image of the WORD.[1] The Serpent taught

1 "God created man (adam) in the likeness of God." Gen 5:1; "God created man (adam) in his own image." Gen 1:27

man the way of alien gods. By the time of Jesus - the Serpent's "Cloak Of Esau" had concealed the WORD and it was all but forgotten.

Jesus returned the WORD to his people. Those who believed him were looked on as revolutionaries by the kings who had been established by the Serpent and whose followers obeyed different gods and different laws.

Jews

Jews killed Jesus. But which Jews? There are at least three kinds. Let's examine the most recent group of Jews. They are the Khazar-Turk "Jews".

Khazar-Turk Jews

The Khazar Empire was comprised mostly of Mongol-Turks who converted en masse to Judaism in the 9th century. The Jews themselves say that over 90% of today's "Jews" are descended from Khazars. These are mostly today's Zionists who are trying to re-establish their ancient Khazar Kingdom in Arab-Palestine which the Arabs took earlier from Christian-man.

These Jews, these refugees from the Khazar Empire that was destroyed about 1000 AD couldn't have put Jesus to death simply because they weren't there. The reason they are so disliked is because the ones who taught them to be Jews, the Hyrcanus Jews, taught them to lie. The Hyrcanus Jews were lying long before the Babylonian Talmud surfaced. As children of the Serpent it is part of their religion to lie. It is encouraged. Their religion forgives lying a year in advance.[2] Because of this Jews have been distrusted down through the centuries.

These "other Jews" we are talking about are Hyrcanus-Jews.

Hyrcanus-Jews

The Hyrcanus Jews brought Jesus before Pilate trying to get him condemned to death. Pilate wouldn't do it. The following is how we know these Jews were Hyrcanus Jews;

> "Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death." John 18:31

Everyone knows that this is absolute nonsense. Pilate had given them permission to judge after their law, and the WORD states time after time that murderers, sodomites, adulterers and such must be put to death - and the WORD is adam-man's Law system.

Those who deny the WORD follow different gods who have different laws. God the WORD is different from other gods in that he never changes. These Jews followed a different god.

2 Kol Nidre, prayer of the Judaic religious ritual, sung at evening service on the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur). Means "All Vows". "All vows, obligations, oaths, anathemas... which we may vow, or swear, or pledge, or whereby we may be bound, from this day of atonement unto the next... we do repent. May they be deemed absolved, forgiven, annulled, and void and made of no effect: They shall not bind us nor have power over us. The vows shall not be reckoned vows; the obligations shall not be obligatory; nor the oaths be oaths." Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol VIII, p. 539. Check your internet search engine for "Jew" and "Kol Nidre".

Hyrcanus Goes For Diversity

"Jews" aren't really Jews - that's a generic name. John Hyrcanus was responsible for introducing aliens into the land who took the name "Jew".

Hyrcanus was high priest 135-104 B.C. and also a war hero of the Maccabean wars.

> "John Hyrcanus conquered all of Edom and undertook the forceful conversion of its inhabitants to Judaism. Thenceforth the Edomites became a section of the Jewish people." Ency/Jud Vol 6, 1991 p.378

This was bad news because the people of Edom were cursed by God;

> "Jacob have I loved but Esau have I hated." Romans 9:13; "Esau (is) the father of the Edomites." Gen 36:43

The Book of Jasher 29:20 describes Esau.

> "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

Remember "designing and deceitful" - it's the hallmark of Esau- Edom and the Serpent.

It was the children of the hated Esau that Hyrcanus introduced into the land. Something bad was sure to result - and it did. These Edomites organized the atheist Sadducee Party and one of them became King Herod who killed the Israelite children. They spread their poison everywhere so that the land became completely Lawless by the time Jesus arrived with the WORD.

It was about "Hyrcanus-Jews" that Jesus spoke:

> "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan." Rev 2:9; "Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them ... to know that I have loved thee." Rev 3:9

He described them this way:

> "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is not truth in him." John 8:47

"Designing and deceitful". Different gods for different people.

The missionary effort of Hyrcanus-Jews much later converted the entire Khazar Empire to Judaism and taught the Khazar-Jews the Kol Nidre "designing and deceitful" thing. Khazar-Turk Jews and Hyrcanus Jews even have different DNA. Check the internet. It is the Hyrcanus Jews who are responsible for getting Khazar-Turk Jews into Palestine - where few if any are likely to emerge alive in the days ahead. We'll see the reason for this soon.

But - there is still another Jew - Aristotle's Indian Jew. Now we have three kinds of Jews. Let's try to keep them straight.

Aristotle's Indian-Jew

We mentioned Josephus earlier. Some of his writings are revealing. He recorded an observation by Aristotle found in his Flavius Josephus Against Apion, book 1:22 (p.615) in describing someone he had met:

> "This man then was by birth a Jew, and came from Celesyria; these Jews are derived from the Indian philosophers; they are named by the Indians Calami, and by the Syrians Judaei, and took their name from the country they inhabit, which is called Judea."

Aristotle lived 384-322 B.C. This was long before Hyrcanus (135- 104 B.C.) conquered Idumea and made the Idumeans into "Hyrcanus- Jews". So here we have Indians who called themselves "Jews" who were in the land long before Hyrcanus "converted" the Edomites.

Actually, Aristotle lived about the time that Alexander the Great invaded India. This was shortly before India's Asoka the Great boasted that he had conquered the Greeks with his "Dharma". The five Greek kings that Asoka boasted of having conquered with his dharma are identified as Antiochos II Syria (261-246 B.C.); Ptolemy II of Egypt (285- 247 B.C.); Antigonos Gonatas of Macedonia (278-239 B.C.); Magas of Cyrene (300-258 B.C.); and Alexander of Epirus (272-258 B.C.).[3] To be conquered by "Dharma" means that you have become a Hindu even while calling yourself by the name of another god. The Middle East had become Hindu several hundred years before Jesus arrived on the scene.

King Asoka went on to say:

> "My officers charged with the spread of Dharma are ... empowered to concern themselves with all sects. ... Different officials are thus assigned specifically to the affairs of different religions, but my officers for spreading Dharma are occupied with all sects."[4]

4 Ibid; p.34

These "officers" are the Dharmamatras - Hindu missionaries. They go by the name of whatever sect or religion they work with. Dharma is "toleration" - *"One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." (King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.)*xxx Hinduism is a religion of integration. The WORD is man's separatist religion. There are many separatist nations in the world - the Hindu is at war with all of them.

Generic Term

"Jew" is a generic term. There are Jewish Muslims, Buddhists, Shintoists, Christians and Taoists among others.

The Jewish Encyclopedia, China, p.33, 1893 states:

> "It is an unwarranted skepticism to doubt the correctness of the tradition of the Chinese Jews themselves, which traces the first immigration back to the Han dynasty between 206 B.C. and 221 CE. ... The Jews of K'ai-Fung-Foo themselves claim that they received their religion from India."

It would probably be safe to say that it was these same Aristotle Jew-type Indians who appeared in China, were operating at the time of Alexander the Great and all the way back to the time of I Samuel 8 in about 1000 B.C. It was they who persuaded the stupid elders of Israel to break the Law and get a Lawless king to rule them. The WORD has a lot to say about stupid preachers who refuse to obey the LAW, refuse to learn, and haven't learned a thing in 3000 years. It also has a lot to say about stupid sheep who listen to them. It took the writer of these lines 18 years in a Judeo-Christian Church to figure out that he was being snookered. Others figured it out in 20 minutes.

Some accept the assurance of Kol-Nidre Jews that they follow Biblical Old Testament, the Babylonian Talmud, Islam, Jain, Buddhism, Taoism, or whatever. A few understand that their words are the Cloak of Esau. Complex philosophies conceal simple beliefs. The Jewish caste exists to fulfull its assigned task.

Direction

The thing that helped years ago was reading I Adam & Eve 18:7-9, (Lost Books, p14).

> "The Word of God came to the serpent and said ... the ruin of my creatures happened through thee ... And a wind ... carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve ... and it landed in India."

Those who have learned Biblical parables know that Serpent means "deception". Adam & Eve - is "adam-man". India is the place to look. Further scriptures state:

> "God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam plainly, ...And God said to Adam ... look, O Adam, at him, who said of himself that he is God! Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman?" 2 A&E 4:1-4

Yes, as a matter of fact, the principal Indian god worshiped by more people than any other is black. He is a sex-crazed god named Siva. Siva is also god of death and destruction when manifested as Kali who is also black. Kali kills! She enjoys it. She likes her work. She is pictured with a tongue dripping blood she has been drinking, heads of her victims on a necklace about her neck, a freshly severed head dripping blood in one hand and a bloody sword in another, with serpents of deception wrapped around her arms and neck. She is standing on the prostrate body of a white demon - a demon who has opposed her through the millennia.

I got the following e-mail yesterday:

> "You are right, Siva is black, but you are so blind you can't see the destruction coming. It is obvious that all people that aren't hurt by the sun's rays belong here and those that can't take it don't belong. You are an alien race. The white race is doomed. White people cannot travel the world because they risk being beheaded by non-whites. Your time is near!! Your reign is over. Believe me there will be retribution. OM NAMAH SHIVAYA!!!!! - The coming night of Shiva."

Yes, followers of alien gods recognize that we are different.

Oppenheimer On Vishnu

There is a story about Robert Oppenheimer that the reader might find interesting. He has been called "the innovator behind the creation of the A-Bomb" by the media.

In an interview shortly before his death in 1967 Oppenheimer recalled the words of the Hindu god Vishnu;[5]

> "Now I am become Death", he told the human, "destroyer of worlds."

Oppenheimer compared the A-Bomb's power with that of Vishnu - "destroyer of worlds."

Vishnu's White Horse

Hindus believe that there have been many periods in history in which all life has been destroyed. The present period will also be destroyed and a new age will be brought in by Vishnu on a white winged horse.

It would be as foolish to dismiss this belief as the rantings of crazy people as it would be to laugh at someone holding a pistol to your head.

Kali Yuga

Hundreds of millions of Hindus believe that the world has gone through many cycles. The cycle we are presently in is called "Kali-Yuga" - the age of Kali. It is the worst of all Yugas starting in 3102 B.C.

The color of this age is black. Truth will cease in this age. Everything becomes sexual. Sodomy becomes rampant. Women rule. The scriptures are Tantras.[6] Hollywood whores and whoremongers endlessly act out "mantra", "yantra", and "tantra" and are rewarded with wealth and fame befitting high-priests of death and destruction who are preparing the world for the Apocalypse.

Lord Siva represents sex, his female manisfestation Kali - death. Disease, starvation, war, and catastrophe come fast one after another in greater rapidity than ever before. Conditions will get worse and worse until existence becomes unbearable; then, all will end in a great apocalypse where all living beings on earth will die. When all life ceases - Vishnu, Siva's brother, will bring in a new age - riding on a winged white horse.

6 Mantra, Yantra, Tantra: "Mantra" - hypnotic prayer recitation - "OM"; Yantra - visual concept of subjects worshiped or desired - pictures, TV; Tantra - acting out the thing spoken and seen.

Readers recognize the Hindu "winged" white horse in opposition to Revelation's "White Horse" of the WORD.

Aum Shinrikyo

Japan's Aum (Om) Shinrikyo is a Japanese Hindu religious cult obsessed with apocalypse. In 1995, its members released deadly sarin nerve gas into the Tokyo subway system, killing people and sending many thousands to hospitals. Witnesses said that subway entrances resembled battlefields as injured commuters lay gasping on the ground with blood gushing from their noses or mouths.

Aum Shinrikyo's other activities include yoga, meditation, and breathing exercises. But at the center is the Hindu belief that the only way to quickly stop today's misery and suffering is to end all life. In their eyes they were performing an act of mercy for the entire world by helping Kali.

Some believe that Aum Shinrikyo jumped the gun. To those who don't know the background, the above sounds like the rantings of a deranged mind. However, when one considers that the world's oldest banks originated in India and that usury banking becomes a monopoly because of the nature of lending 10 for 11 when only 10 exist - then - such things become possible.[7]

A banking monopoly provides unlimited wealth. Unlimited wealth permits the purchase of kings, priests and media.

7 USURY: 5391 nâshak, to strike with a sting (as a serpent) - lend upon usury. Strong's Concordance; Usury is lending 10 units when only 10 units of the thing lent are in existence - while requring the repayment of 11 of those same units - or forfeiture of assets. This cannot be done. If tolerated, Usury logically results in ALL property falling into the hands of one usurer with all others becoming his agents. Ezek 18:13; Deu 23:20.

When one owns kings and priests and also controls the minds of the world - many things are possible.

The White Devil

The opponent of the Apocalypse is the white devil on whose prostrate body Siva dances and Kali stands. The white devil has always opposed Siva and Vishnu and will be destroyed along with the rest of the world.

"For the Hindu, Apocalypse is the natural ending of the world in the fourth age, the Kali Age. In the Kali Age humankind will be utterly destroyed."

From the Hindu Puranas:

The Methodical Attack

Notice how today the WORD is being attacked by the media, politicians, and by religious leaders? The reason is given by Josephus:

> "If you ... gain a victory over them (the Israelites), ... persuade them to leave off their obedience to their own laws and the WORD of that God who established them ... for by this means God will be angry at them (and will destroy them)." Antiquities 4:6:6-13

If God the WORD, the Saxon's creator, can be made to destroy his own creation - then the Apocalypse is assured and events will proceed as Vishnu plans.

However, the WORD, the Saxon God points a path for Saxon-man that is different:

> "When thou are in tribulation ... even in the latter days, if thou turn to God and shall be obedient ... he will not forsake thee ... nor forget the covenant of thy fathers." Deut 4:30-31

"I will send my WORD and save thee and thy seed." II Adam & Eve 12:6

The Hindu talks about bringing his Apocalypse and DEATH. We talk of Armageddon - and LIFE. We know who wins the contest. We learned piece by piece, little by little. Understanding comes by looking beyond appearances.

We've read the book.

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA by K.J.

We went to Bronkhorstspruit yesterday as some children were arriving. One of them was a 6-year-old. His brother is at the centre. His brother arrived as dirty as can be and had to be taught how to behave, good manners and clean clothes. Today he is a neat helpful youngster - entirely different. They hope to have the same results with his younger brother.

A girl in her early teens also came with her grandma. I don't know if they determined whether or not she will fit in.

This year there will be a poor harvest and many farmers are desperate. The farmer's Co-Ops are now in the hands of Jews and they charge 26% on white farmers' outstanding debt and nothing on the debt of black farmers. Where it will all end is a mystery. Most of those living in the cities don't even see what is coming. They react like "Pavlov's Dog" to the TV stories of black poor. They give to them and give nothing to their own whose situation is as bad. They won't believe that the 6-year-old had no breakfast yesterday morning as there was nothing to feed him.

We had no electricity for 48 hours and that is a worry with refrigerators and alarm systems.

Please thank the kind gentleman who gave money for the children's Christmas party.

Your's faithfully, K. J.

CALL ON NAME: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I do wish you wouldn't mention the names of the other gods as the WORD commands. Still, I'm sure you have your reasons." S.J. - Vermont

RKH: "And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth." Ex 23:13

The Geneva Bible margin note adds, "By swearing by them." The WORD names other gods - "serpent", "devil" "baal" etc. - to identify them, not OBEY them. We have to identify enemies to fight them.

CHRISTMAS: "Mr Hoskins: I was shocked to see that some of the money sent to the orphans in S. Africa was for Christmas presents. I myself don't celebrate 'x-mass' or put up a 'x-mass' tree Idol or bow down to it." F.G. - California

RKH: Money was sent with instructions that it was to be used to buy presents for the children so that they would know that their far-away kinsmen cared about them. I think it was a great gesture!

As for "X-Mass"; If people want to celebrate the re-birth of the Word made flesh - pick a date, give it another name if the present one upsets you. Is that OK? If people want to worship a tree at the same time - I think they are somehow missing the point. We don't stop observing Groundhog Day because some worship groundhogs.

Let's keep our eye on the mark - restoring the WORD so that our Saxon nation will be saved - abolish usury, divide the land, banish monopolies, and separate from strangers "lest we learn their ways" and follow their gods. This should keep us busy for a while. Getting upset about small stuff will have to wait.

UNFILTERED NEWS

AIDS AMONG BLACKS: Blacks make up 14% of Florida's population, but account for about half of AIDS and HIV cases in the state. AIDS is the leading killer of African-American women ages 25 to 34 and African-American men ages 35 to 44. More than half of all new HIV diagnoses reported in the US in 2003 were black. Black men are seven times more likely than white men to be diagnosed with HIV. Black women represent 72% of all new HIV/AIDS cases and are 18 times more likely to be infected with HIV than white women. (News-Press, B12, Feb 6, 2005)

BLACK RULE: Security services must be hired to protect the police who can no longer perform the task. Crime got out hand long ago and no efforts of the ANC can keep it in check. Charles Ngakula, Minister of Safety and Security, brought this to light in parliament. He acknowledged that two contracts with security firms were entered into with 25 security firms. They are responsible for the guarding of 145 police stations and police installations. The police already began to use these services in 2001. The most amusing part of this affair is that the police protection unit for "Most Important Persons" must themselves also be protected by security guards. The question asked, "Why not abolish the police and let the security forces take over?" (Translated from Die Afrikaner, Dec 10-16, 2005)

Lawlessness In England

The message from the English courts was "Burglars are members of the public who must be protected from violent householders." Tony Martin confronted 3 men ransacking his home at night. Armed with an unregistered shotgun he wounded one burglar and killed another. The media treated the dead man as a "lovable rogue". His rap sheet included 29 offenses for burglary, theft and for assaulting police. The record of the other burglars were 35 and 52 times respectively. Martin, a 54 year old farmer had been burglarized at least two dozen times. For defending his home he was prosecuted and convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. The surviving wounded burglar received government funds to sue him. Years later Martin was released from prison. (Story in America's First Freedom, p.39, Feb 2005.)

RKH: This is complete Lawlessness. The LAW clearly states:

> "If a thief be found (entering the premises) and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him. If the sun be risen upon him, (don't kill him); for he should make full restitution." Ex 22:2-3

Britain has forgotten the WORD, the God of her fathers, and obeys the laws of another god.

> "If you will not obey the voice of the Lord, but rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall the hand of the Lord be against you, as it was against your fathers." I Sam 12:15; "If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... ye shall be plucked from off the land." Deut 58:66.

WOMEN & MATH: Harvard Univ pres Lawrence Summers questioned if discrimination explains fewer female engineers and scientists advancing at universities. American Free Press, p.2, Jan 31, 2005

RKH: It's basic. Women are created to manage many things; men are created to manage one thing at a time. Together they are a single unit called Adam-man.

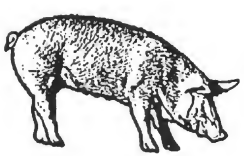
Chapter 367



TWO GODS
Mantrap Empires & A Pig

Mr. Jacob's Drinking

It was in the '50 depression after the Korean War. I was one of many who couldn't get a job. Studying law at William & Mary wasn't for me. "What do you mean the law is whatever the courts say it is? The Law is the LAW - the Law doesn't change!"[1]

1 LAW: "For I the Lord, do not change." Mal 3:6; "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever." Heb 13:8; "It is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the Law to fail." Lu 16:17.

My Uncle Alex offered me a job digging ditches for his construction company. The going wage was $1.00 an hour. I jumped at the opportunity.

Mr. Jacobs also worked for Uncle Alex. He was a good carpenter when sober but he was sober only when he ran out of money. He would work until he got paid on payday and then we wouldn't see him again until he was broke. He went to town, bought a bottle of 86¢ wine, took a drink, and was instantly drunk. I never saw anything like it. A metamorphosis instantly took place. He would stumble to a parking meter outside the liquor store, hold to it for a second, and navigate to the next one - all from one drink. There were all sorts of stories about him.

One time he got paid, got drunk and started home. He lived several miles out on the Sperryville Turnpike at Piney Woods. It was winter and he got tired and lay down on the side of the road and went to sleep. It snowed and covered him up. A snowplow came by and ploughed him up. The driver saw a body flying through the air and called in to say that he had plowed up a body. The police, lifesaving crew and everybody came out and there it was for everybody to see - a pair of legs standing up vertically in the snow-bank with the rest of the body covered up. The lifesaving crew grabbed Mr. Jacobs legs and pulled him out, whereupon Mr. Jacobs woke up and complained,

"What's a'matter, can't a man get a little sleep around here?"

Indignant with the rough treatment he had received, he carefully adjusted his hat, straightened his tie, and staggered on home.

I'll tell you another story about Mr. Jacobs.

Mr. Jacob's Pig

Mr. Yowell, lived on the other side of Yowell's Lake, behind the Kellys. He owned champion pigs. These weren't ordinary pigs, they were wrinkled faced pot- bellied, bushy-tailed pigs from China. Ugly things, but some people really liked them. Anyway, they were champions and won a lot of blue ribbons and things.

The potbellied sow had a litter. There were too many of them and the runt was going to starve so Mr. Yowell got ready to kill it.

Mr. Jacobs was standing there and he begged Mr. Yowell to give him the little pig. Mr. Yowell figured the little shoat was going to die anyway, so he went ahead and gave it to Mr. Jacobs.

Well, Mr. Jacobs took that little pig home and made a bed for it right in his house and fed him from a medicine dropper. The little pig didn't die - he thrived on this attention.

Soon, he outgrew living in the house so Mr. Jacobs fixed the nicest little house for him in the corner of his front yard with a fine mud wallow. And, miracles of miracles, Mr. Jacobs quit drinking and came to work regularly.

With that kind of care and attention that potbellied pig grew up to be the finest of its kind in all that part of Virginia. Mr. Jacobs took to entering him in competitions and he began to win blue ribbons - blue ribbons that Mr. Yowell used to win all the time. That pig was all Mr. Jacobs could talk about.

One day Mr. Jacobs didn't show up at work. That was unusual because he had become prompt and regular in his work habits. After a week of being absent, Uncle Alex told Therlow Dodson to take the pick-up and drive up to Piney Woods to see if there was anything wrong. After a couple of hours Therlow Dodson came back and said the Mr. Jacobs pig was dead and Mr. Jacobs was drunk.

Naturally, Uncle Alex was exasperated. He asked Therlow Dodson how all this happened, and this is what he was told.

It seems that in the hot weather, Mr. Jacob's potbellied pig took to spending time in the mud wallow like pigs do. He would come out and lie in the sun until the mud dried and he got hot. Then he would get back in the waller to cool off. He did this time after time.

The thing that happened was this: Each time the pig got out a little bit of mud clung to his bushy tail and dried. The next time he went in and got out again a little more mud accumulated. After a while the pig had a ball of mud hanging to his tail almost a foot in diameter.

Carrying this much weight around made what happened next inevitable. The weight of the mud ball pulled the skin back on the pig and held his eyes open and the pig died from lack of sleep.

The Rest Of The Story

The first "Mr. Jacob's story" is true. The last part of the second one stretches the truth a little toward the end. But it's done with a purpose. We hear how too much drinking causes problems and inconveniences. We never hear that strong drink is an act of war.

Strong drink often leaves absolute devastation in its wake. For this reason, it is media policy to present drinking in a favorable manner. The WORD sees Mr. Jacobs, not as an object of merriment, but as a tragedy.

There is a "God Of This World. He is the arch-enemy of the WORD which is the Saxon God. One of the other names of this arch-enemy is "The Destroyer".

> "The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not." 2 Cor 4:4

Drunkenness is promoted by "God of this World". What happened to Mr. Jacobs? It would be nice to believe that things worked out all right. But, lets face it, how often have you known things to work out right for drunks?

You already know what happened to Mr. Jacobs.

Strong Drink Law

The LAW of the WORD says who should drink strong drink - and who should not. First:

> "It is not for kings to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert judgment." Pr 31:4-5[2]

Second: The LAW says who IS to get strong drink:

> "Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish." Prov 31:4-6

Act Of War

WE are the appointed kings - "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests." Rev 1:5,6. If the kings who enforce God's Law, which is the WORD, are destroyed - the "God of this World" has lost an enemy.

2 Jesus made wine. It's a parable. Wine represents "Effervesce" 3196 energy - the kick - the SPIRIT! Bread represents the WORD. You have to have this kind of wine and this kind of bread or you are worthless. Our fathers told the Romans the "Jesus making wine" parable. The Romans knew all about making wine; nothing unusual about that - and left them alone.

This is why Saxon kings are encouraged to drink strong drink. It is #9 of Esau's "36-Strategies" - "Help your enemy destroy himself." It is an act of war. Destroying rulers destroys the kingdoms they have been appointed to rule.

Esau knows war: Destroy the enemy - encourage him to drink strong drink - while forbidding strong drink to your own. Neither Islam nor Buddhists permit their followers to drink strong drink. Who is Esau's enemy? He named him long ago.

"I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41.[3]

Aum Shinrikyo

HR 2005-#366 "Apocalypse" told the story about Aum Shinrikyo of Japan. Most people holding these Aum beliefs are intelligent and well educated. However, one part of their thought process worries Westerners. It is this - they want to kill everyone.

Not only do they think these thoughts - they act on them - they actually try to kill everyone. They manufactured and released deadly Sarin gas in Japan's subways to kill as many people as they could to help bring an end to the present "Age of Kali". This is only one example of many.

Damage Control

The Aum attempt at mass homicide presents a problem for the Cartel.[4] The Cartel doesn't disapprove of killing everyone - it is the Cartel's major objective; the problem is the way

3 "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of man and inveigled them." Jasher 28:20 (The literal meaning of the Hebrew is, "he stole their minds," a beautiful figure in the original to express deceit, falsehood and fraud.)

4 "Aum", also "OM". The name of Brahma.

they went about it. They made public this basic aim of the "God Of This World". Westerners now know that there are people in the world who want to kill everyone. This type of thinking is commonplace to the sons of Esau, but to the Sons of Jacob it is not only disturbing - but crazy!

To prevent a Saxon reaction, operators of The Cloak[5] have been instructed to cover up Japan's subway indiscretion - or explain it in terms that will put the blame on the Sons of Jacob - the usual tactic.

Westerners must not be allowed to get upset over this thing!

The Hindu belief that the world is now in the grip of the Age Of Kali is the reason for the Subway incident. Kali is the Hindu goddess of death. This age produces suffering, misery, death, destruction, lying and deception - an age that is getting worse and worse and will in time become unbearable. It ends only when all life on earth is extinguished. The end of life must take place before the god Vishnu can arrive in the form of a white-winged horse to bring a new age of peace and prosperity.

This belief is held by hundreds of millions and is thousands of years old. It is part of the basic make-up of the sons of Esau who are made in the image of their god - just as we are made in the image of ours.

Problem With The WORD

Kali, Esau's god, brings death. The WORD, man's God, brings "life". As long as the sons of Jacob and Isaac live - the life they bring prevents the destruction of the world and the birth of Esau's new age. Their mere existence means continued suffering for the sons of Esau. That is why Kali is pictured standing on the body of a white devil eating his flesh.

5 Cloak Of Esau (HR 2004-#161) is found in the book of Jasher and is key to understanding current events.

Cloaking Using Apocalypse Examples

The Cartel damage control strategy is to lump Aum Shinrikyo with other "apocalypse" cases from around the world and call the whole thing "Christian". The following is discussed in Cartel papers:

People's Temple: Everyone has heard of Jim Jones (James Warren Jones). He had a following of some 900. They committed suicide in the Central American jungles, or were killed by other sect members. He was a "Christian" believer of Apocalypse - according to the media.

Restoration of 10-Commandments" in Africa: A few hundred blacks committed suicide, or killed the others. They are said to have practiced "African-Christianity". Another "crazy bunch of Christians" - according to the media.

Uganda Kanungu doomsday cult, This too is a black "Christian" organization - according to the media.

Choma "burn" pseudo-Christian black African cult - perhaps several thousand died in their rituals.

Heaven's Gate led by Marshall Applegate - thirty- nine committed suicide. Another inter-racial "Christian" organization.

Readers who receive foreign newspapers find these incidents discussed over and over.

Incidentally - about the Jim Jones affair. Jones was really an ordained Disciples of Christ minister. The media said he was on drugs and alcohol. We discussed Mr. Jacob's problem earlier. Compounded with narcotics the judgment of kings is impaired, and one of the results is that you can have a "Jim Jones Affair".

(Another aside: This same "Disciples Of Christ" denomination, to which my father once belonged, includes "First Christian" on Rivermont Avenue where Sodomites and Integrationists meet to plan their activities. They don't have the "strong-drink" excuse. The end result of "sodomy", "integra-

KALI - "God Of This World" - God of death; Posing as Jesus

Kali's other name is Brahma - "God of this World" - manisfestation of all gods - God of integration. His law is universal "Admiralty Law".

His arch-enemy is the WORD; the God of Man; God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; God of Law and Lifee. "By their acts ye shall thow them."

"Choose whom you will serve" - for you WILL serve either Kali/Brahma or the WORD - Life or Death!

tion", and "drinking strong drink" is only that of degree. All these practices bring "death".)

The Cartel media intends to convince people that it is the Christians who are the ones killing people - not the followers of Kali.

A Black King

Dr. Martin Luther King, the black plagiarist and adulturer, left cities burning and people dead wherever he went. Ignoring this, the Cartel media made him into an American hero and has instructed every city and state they control to erect monuments in his memory. Lynchburg already has a glass enclosed MLK shrine in the local library with a light shining on the bust of their dusky god. In addition, a street and bridge have also been named after him. City streets and monuments all over the country honor Dr. King. The president set aside a national day of celebration in his honor.

Why?

It helps to know that Martin Luther King is worshiped as a "Perfect Master" by most Hindus. A Perfect Master is a god. In their ashrams, his picture is mounted next to that of Jesus Christ, who, along with Rev. King, is considered another Perfect Master.

Hindus consider both King and Jesus to be manifestations of Kali, and since both Kali and King are black (and many now say that Jesus was black) - and black is the color of this Age of Kali - the honors King receives also honor Kali - the "God Of This World".

The Deficane

Most Westerners have never heard of the Deficane.

In S. Africa, a young black girl prophesied that if everyone burned his crops and killed his animals - a wonderful new age would be born. The blacks obediently burned their crops and killed their animals - and starved. When Whites came into the Transvaal they found it vacant. Just skeletons lying around. The blacks were all dead. The white settlers re-settled a vacant land. "For Esau is the end of the world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth." II Esdras 6:9

Kali, by whatever name known, is in the nature of the children of Esau, but especially the Black. In S. India they predominate. There, the worship of Kali is universal and even excludes other gods.

Remember the Zulu? Everyone in the path of their homicidal march died. Look what is going on in Africa today. It continues. Over 4.5 millions have died since 1990. Massacre after massacre - too numerous to keep count. They kill each other. It's what the sons of Esau do. Look in America's prisons. As much as Esau's media tries to make us forget - we remember what they did to Whites in Haiti when they had the chance. Look at what Palestinians and Khazar-Jews are doing to each other right now. Look at Ghengis Khan and Atilla. They are equally Esau's sons.

Look Beyond The Hill

The WORD, the world's only logical belief system, compels its followers to use the information given them in a logical manner:

Is it coincidence that Joseph Stalin, a "Christian" son of Esau, killed nearly 20,000,000; Mao, another son of Esau, killed 60,000,000; abortion clinics mostly of Esau have killed 60,000,000? Is it coincidence that the governments installed by Esau's merchants and media led the countries they ruled against each other in WWI and WWII and killed over 100,000,000? For what? What was achieved? "Our" own Esau-selected Eisenhower killed over 1 million German Saxon POWs in death camps after WWII was over. What did that accomplish?

Could it be that the sole objective of all this slaughter was to help bring in a new age? After all, the sons of Esau control both our banks and media which caused the river of blood to flow.

Empire Questions

The mighty Mayan civilization left few records, but it seems suspicious that this mighty Empire - having countless cities filled with teeming millions - died overnight. It also seems strange that the great Inca and Aztec Empires suddenly imploded and vanished.

We note that the Cartel first swept Rome's countryside clean of its self-sufficient farmers - then Rome died. What happened to the millions who once lived in the vast vacant cities seen by Zenephon? What happened that caused Babylon to vanish? the Persian Empire? the Carthagean Empire? What happened to the vanished inhabitants of the ruined jungle cities of Siam?

Is it possible that EMPIRE causes DEATH?

Does the deliberate destruction of the farms of both the American South and South Africa and sweeping the refugees into cities have sinister implications? Was there a sinister purpose in moving 15,000,000 Germans from the farm regions of E. Germany into the overcrowded cities of W. Germany?

Is it logical that empires put together at such great cost in time, effort, and money should die in the twinkling of an eye?

We've been told that in Africa and India beaters line up with drums to drive game to a central place to be slaughtered. Empires appear to serve the same purpose. Could it be that EMPIRE is Kali's master creation - of which the U.S. is the latest?

Colonel Cox's Observation

Colonel Earnest Sevier Cox, author of White America and Teutonic Unity was my friend. He observed that the studies of the great ethnologists agreed that the world's great civilizations began with Teutonic peoples who were subsequently destroyed by integrating with the subjects of their conquests.

Colonel Cox's observation opens the door to further speculation.

If the death of our Nordic peoples can be blamed on empires that demand the empire's integration with the subjects conquered by the empire - the empire-system itself is guilty.

But, that's ridiculous. Why would an empire demand the destruction of its Saxon creators? It makes no sense.

Yet, let's face facts. From the time of the very first empire we see the following:

> "And king Nimrod reigned securely, and all the earth was under his control, and all the earth was of one tongue and words of union." Jasher 9:20

Is that integration - or what?

We also remember that King Asoka of India boasted that he had conquered the Greek with his Dharma. Let's see the result;

> "King Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, And every one should leave his laws ... that they should follow the strange laws of the land ... To the end they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances." I Maccabees 1:41-52."

This happens with each empire. None of it makes sense - Until one learns of Kali.

When Kali is revealed, things become clear. Empire is not Kali's enemy - it is her creation. It is run by her agents. Kali owns both the usury-banks and the Cloak of Esau. Using them as weapons she has placed her servants in all three empire ruling castes - "Priest", "king", and "great merchant". They were installed to obey their master.

To Kali, it makes no difference which side wins a conflict - as long as there IS conflict, and, as long as the survivors "integrate" and become one. If they remain separatists refusing to integrate - like Southern rebels - they are branded "KKK" and "racists"; Germans are "Nazis", and South Africans are "bitter enders" believing in "Apartheid".

Kali's servants led Saxons to build Empires as great man-traps. Empires have both the physical and mental ability to force Saxon "integration" with subjects of empire conquests. In this way the Saxon disappears along with the Empire he created which brings the Age of Kali ever nearer.

A 70 Year Observation

None of this gloom and doom is likely today.

Why?

Over the past seven decades I have watched the pulpits of America which, with few exceptions, have been silent. But, the ones who have been appointed priests - aren't. Like their fathers before them, thousands and tens of thousands have awakened. Where once there were few - now there are many. Thirty years ago it was rare that people would take time to listen to the Law. Today people will listen who would not listen only 24 months ago. Not only that, I have met people who have flown 10,000 miles to learn what the WORD requires of them.

Camps held to teach the WORD have attendees who have never seen each other before, but when they meet, they discover that all of them speak the same thing.

Choosing

Today the Saxon nation is being divided into two flocks: Those who follow the WORD and those who follow "The God Of This Land".

May God have mercy on the souls of those who have chosen to abandon the God of their fathers, for it is certain that those who follow the WORD will enforce the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of their God when they come into their promised kingdom.

ERNST ZUNDEL

Ernst Zundel was kidnapped by government officials under color of law and taken to Canada where he was accused of denying that 6 million Jews were gassed in a crime that produced no gassed bodies and no gassing weapon. Since Canada's censorship laws are not as harsh as those of Germany, he has been shipped to Germany where he faces lengthy inprisonment.

DENMARK'S SINS LIVE ON: "Dear Mr. Hoskins; An Australian brother sent me a copy of your newsletter where you commented on the joyful divorce between Danish Prince Joakim and 1/4 Chinese Princess Alexandra here in Denmark. Well, indeed it's good news. I've been praying for that a long time. But the bad news is that they succeeded in having two mongrel boys, Nikolaj and Felix. Fortunately, Joakim's older brother, Crown Prince Frederik, has married an Australian woman, but, so far they have no children. This means, at present, the next in line to the throne after Frederik is either the fornicator Joakim or his mongrel son Nikolaj." K.M. - Denmark

RKH: "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

HOMELAND SECURITY: "Dear Richard: Michael Chertoff is homeland security director. I was stunned by his name. Languages are a passion of mine and I am fluent in Russian. This man's last name Chertoff, means 'of the devil' in Russian. Chert means devil, and 'ov', or 'of' endings mean 'of the', like a possessive ending. For example, Hoskinsoff would mean 'of the Hoskins'. I could barely believe it. The pictures of this man are revealing." B. A. - Texas

RKH: America's "conservative president" appoints strangers to his cabinet in violation of the LAW like his father before him. He obeys Esau's god. "By their acts ..."

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

The HNP's new leadership wants the organization to take part in the next municipal election where blacks have an overwhelming majority. This would make the HNP a part of what is happening to White S. Africa. Since the new HNP leadership is moving to the political center - a new organization has been formed - the Afrikaner Nasionalistiese Bebewing. They have a Christian constitution.

The communist party has gotten blacks in squatter camps and black townships to drive their cattle onto white farms. They did this by having black town councils ban cattle on the town commons. These blacks chase their cattle through town streets and white gardens onto White farms. A clever move by the communists - forcing blacks and their cattle onto white farms.

Things could once be shipped safely and quickly by rail. Everything was on time. Now, the railroads are gone. The blacks destroyed them. Things once transported by rail are now shipped by truck. This truck traffic has destroyed long stretches of roads which were not built for such heavy use. Road travel is becoming difficult because in places roads have disappeared. It's worse when it rains.

Margaret Thatcher came here to help her son Mark. He and an Eton friend, Mann, planned to dispose of the president of Equatorial Guinea and replace him with someone who would give them access to oil and minerals. For this adventure they hired a number of the former SA 32 Battalion. Ma paid

Mark's bail and he left the country the next day. All the men he had with him now sit in two terrible prisons, and they will be found guilty. I do not think they will survive the black prisons. That type of Englishman is not welcome. He did not even try to help the men he led into trouble.

I still remember how the Anglican and Methodist churches used to cart blacks down to the Cape from their homelands to work for the English. Once, the Cape was reserved for Coloureds. The Coloureds got preference in work and had their own university.

When van Riebeeck landed at the Cape in the 17th century, there were almost no blacks there. They had died out from the smallpox brought by the Portuguese when they stopped at the Cape depot for supplies on the way to the East.

The Coloureds came into being as a result of the British Army discharging an entire British regiment in that region in 1822. Having no way home and no white women for wives, they found Black women. This is where the Coloureds come from. This resulted in three distinct racial groups on the Cape: Whites, Blacks and Coloureds.

For some reason, the Dutch East India Company did not allow large numbers of blacks to come to the Cape. Only English, but never in large numbers. They also prevented the 1820 British settlers from getting on with the Boere who could have helped them as they never farmed before in their lives. Now they found themselves in a country made difficult by Xhosa raids that took place often - plundering, murdering and burning. The worst part for them was that their own government never came to their aid. Commandos made up of mostly Afrikaners had to drive the Xhosa back over the Fish River leaving their farms and families unprotected while doing so. Then the English government came in and made peace agreements with the Xhosa, who looked on treaties as worthless pieces of paper.

These actions caused the Great Trek. The English government did all they could to hinder the Afrikaner exodus. Government officals even kept them from taking enough gun powder. They even searched the Voortrekkers in case they had too much.

The English missionaries were on the English government payroll. They sent word to every black tribe that the bad Voortrekkers were coming and that they must kill them. Vegkop was the first battle, but single families who left early were wiped out.

Well, the Communist town council of Pretoria has done it - they changed the name of Pretoria to Tshwane. The word Tshwane means "ape town".

We saw Betzy at the children's home and they have used the paint that had been given them. Two new youngsters came in last week and this week two more. The magistrate came with the mother of the last two to see where the children will stay and they are most satisfied.

We are having difficulty receiving HR. Numbers 362 and 364 disappeared. Please re-send in plain white envelopes. Thank you. Yours faithfully, K.J.

Chapter 368

MAKING MONEY UsingWitchcraft

Buying A Car

Becca was six or seven, I forget. She came to me and asked; "Daddy, can I buy your car?"

"Sure, if the price is right." I answered,
"How much?" She asked,
"A dollar seems fair."

"OK." she said and disappeared.

In ten minutes she reappeared with a brand new dollar that she had made with her crayon set and handed it to me. I reached in my pocket and handed her the keys to the car, and told her not to drive too fast.

Becca - Financial Genius: Creator of the Becca Buck

The Deal

Becca bought my car for a dollar that she made herself. That's how it's done. It's that simple. Now you understand all you need to know about modern finance.

The Usury Scam

We all know how to work the usury scam: We lend 10 of "something" when only 10 exist in the whole world and we persuade the borrower to repay 11. He can't do it because only 10 of the "something" exists. When he can't pay he loses his collateral - his farm or business - that he used to "guarantee" his repayment of a loan that was impossible to repay from the start. This is how usury works. It's crooked before it starts and the usurer knows it..

That's why God the WORD decreed "death" as punishment for engaging in this deception.[1]

The Midas Touch

Only God and "witches" can make something from nothing. God the WORD makes the real McCoy. Witches make a deception and pretend that the deception is something of value. It's "witchcraft". Just like usury - God decreed death as punishment for engaging in this deception.[2]

"Nothing" Has Value

Banks make magic money just like Becca did. Except, unlike Becca, banks aren't "play-acting. They mean it and they do it all the time.

The thing that gives "magic-money" value is that the banks used their political contacts to set up tax laws. People are now forced to use "magic money" to pay taxes. On April 15 - by decree of the king - magic money created from nothing has value. The government said so - and you go to jail if you don't pay. You have to have it to pay taxes.

Bank-Created Governments

In spite of media advertisements about "free elections", governments are bank property. They are the subsidiary political departments of the banking-monopoly. Governments do whatever banks tell them to do - or the managers are fired and replaced by others who will.

Public participation is limited to make-believe voting. Voters may choose whomever they wish for public office. However, the only ones they know about are the ones the media-monopoly tells them about. The only ones the media tell them about are Cartel agents.

2 "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live". Ex 22:18

The result is that "government officials", with few exceptions, are cartel agents. Making double sure, most of the agents are "officers of the court" - LAWYERS.

Lawyers

Lawyers spend their days eating, sleeping, and studying Cartel admiralty law.xx If they behave - the system sends good things their way. The few who are disloyal live a subsistence existence.

Newspapers raise certain "Cartel loyalists" to prominence by giving them free advertisement. Once in the public eye the public can vote for them. Today, a George Washington or Thomas Jefferson couldn't be elected dog-catchers; newspapers wouldn't mention their names and voters wouldn't know they existed.

Observe that public opinion is almost solid against the ongoing "wetback invasion". Now, count the politicians who support stopping the invasion. This tells who the politicians work for.

Newspapers

Our present religious, economic, political system is made possible because of "magic-money". Banks now have an unlimited supply of purchasing power that they can use anytime they like. They can buy anything they want in any amount they want at any any price they want to pay.

The first thing banks did with their unlimited supply of money was to finish buying newspapers - even the little ones. Now, by selective news release, they not only rule the people with cartel governments, they control their minds. "People are what they think." Pr 23:7. Control people's thinking and they belong to you.

Josiah Stamp's Confession

For years, my big plan was to write a sequel to War Cycles / Peace Cycles. I was going to talk about "Making Magic Money". Well, I've waited too long. I've run out of time. Besides, you probably knew about it before I wrote this.

But, just in case there is a reader who has doubts about my brilliant 7-year-old daughter Becca being a financial genius - one who is able to make money out of nothing; how about a second opinion. An opinion from one of usury's top dogs, Sir Josiah Stamp. He was the President of the Bank of England in the 1920s and the 2nd richest man in Great Britain.

Sir Josiah Stamp
President of the Bank of England.

> "The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight-of-hand that was ever invented. Banking was conceived in inequity and born in sin. ... But if you want to continue to be slaves of the bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let the bankers continue to create money and control credit."

Come on now. This is the thing that Esau's media and our worthless preachers and politicians are paid to cover-up and certify that all is OK. This is what goes on around us every day; The witchcraft of making money out of nothing.

Fair's Fair

Becca can do it; banks can do it - why can't we do it? What say we start a national letter writing campaign to our congressmen. Tell them that we have laws on the books against monopolies and it's not fair that banks should have a monopoly of making money out of nothing. If they can do it - each of us should be able to do the same thing. That way we can make as much money as we want out of nothing and buy whatever we want anytime we want. Banks do it - everyone should be able to do it, I could use a million or two and I know you could, too.

Also, they should be made to stop calling our efforts "counterfeiting". It gives people the wrong idea. Exactly how does one go about counterfeiting something that is already counterfeit?

Dodging Responsibilities

Josiah Stamp said something else that I thought was profound:

> "It is easy to dodge our responsibilities, but we cannot dodge the consequences of dodging our responsibilities."

Empires built of make-believe sooner or later step off cliffs. This is the verdict of history - all empires do. They confidently step out into the world of make-believe and illusion and die falling from a cliff they didn't know was there. Survivors see the world as it is. That's what the WORD is all about. "Reality vs Illusion".

Spotting The Con

Magic-money bought the media which tells us how to think. It tells us that there is no evil in monopoly, usury, strangers ruling over us, and undivided land. Common sense tells us that these practices are unjust.[3] Everything a liar says is suspect once he tells his first lie. For instance:

Homeland Security does not secure America from alien terrorists. The unopposed wetback invasion is massive, but Homeland Security spends its time intimidating travelers at airports..

Iraq: US cartel leaders said they invaded Iraq because of their weapons of mass destruction. No WMD were found. Therefore - the reason for the invasion and destruction of Iraq is something else.

The WORD Of God: Esau's media loses no opportunity to attack the WORD. It blames God fearing Christians for every terrorist attack or possibility of one. Since no Reform Christians have been found among the attackers - there must be another reason for Esau's attack on Bible believing Christians.

Black Rulers: It is generally known that blacks have the lowest IQs in the world.[4] Therefore, a concealed reason exists for suddenly replacing whites with blacks in top Western business and political positions.

3 "He that is unjust in the least is also unjust in much." Lu 16:10

4 Blacks, 75. White-black mixture; 85; Australian blacks 90, American Indians, 90; South Asians; 90, Europeans, 100; Orientals, 105., Scientific Study of Human Nature, NY, Elsevier, 1997.

More Perks

Cartel's bank-managers buy industry. They use one Cartel industry to buy another until monopolies reign supreme owning everything. The Cartel owns all large corporations. All were bought with magic-money created from nothing.

Cartel corporations endow colleges with magic-money. Large endowments by Cartel industry are conditional on their appointing members to governing boards. These new college boards appoint teachers who teach students the ways of gods-of-illusion.

Destroying The Competition

The Self-Sufficient Farm produced wealth from the land that could be exchanged for other wealth. The ITC waged wars of extermination against the American South and South Africa to destroy this competition. They destroyed their ability to bring real wealth into existence - thereby denying a choice to bank money.

Destruction Of Germany

Germany was destroyed because - if allowed to exist it would destroy the International Trade Cartel and its power to make magic-money. Nine planks of its suppressed 1920 NSWP's 25-Points platform tells the story:

1. Union of all German peoples
4. Only those of German blood may be citizens.
6. Voting limited to citizens.
8. Non-German immigration forbidden. Repatriation of non-Germans.
13. Nationalize multi-national corporations and privatize them to their workers.
17. Confiscate corporation and trust land monopolies.

18. Usurers punished with death.
22. Abolition of the standing army and formation of a national militia.
23. Abolition of the international press and creation of a national press. Editors must be Germans.

The most universally hated symbol in the world today is the Christian swastika cross imbedded in old churches all over Virginia. Before WWII the "Hitler Party" was praised for using this "Christian" symbol instead of the old Imperial Cross that Americans had been taught to hate during WWI. The media changed this perception by using the swastika with every atrocity story - just as they couple the Confederate battle flag with everything negative.

"People are what they think." Pr 23:7.

People can only think with information they are given, and the Cloak of Esau - the media, furnishes the information.

Conclusion

This is the "high finance" involved in Becca making her dollar. This is how banks make $10 million or $10 billion or $10 trillion dollars to pay for a newspaper, a GE, trade-route, drug monopoly or the 100,000 acres nearby. The "Becca Buck" and the $10 trillion both come from exactly the same place.

Remember what Josiah Stamp said;

> "The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight-of-hand that was ever invented. Banking was conceived in inequity and born in sin. ... But if you want to continue to be slaves of the bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let the bankers continue to create money and control credit."

Remember, Esau is a liar. His media is a liar. His is a world of deception. His Cloak of Esau hides truth. His words can control your mind. With reason his people boast, "We control the minds of the world" - and it all is a product of witchcraft's magic-money.

But, we have the WORD. The WORD tells us what to see. And what we see is this. The Tower of Bable is built on nothing - illusion. In time it will step off a cliff:

LYNCHBURG'S QUAKERS

We don't have any Quakers around here anymore - they are all gone. But once they were everywhere.

Old John Lynch who founded Lynchburg was a Quaker. He is buried across town in the north-west corner of the Old Quaker Church burying ground. Quakers established the early farms around here in the late 1600s and early 1700s and were energetic and prosperous.

History

The Quakers were just one more non-conformest sect along with the Baptists, Presbyterians, and others. They had a couple of things that distinguished them from other non-conformists.

The law system of Great Britain permitted kings, monopoly, usury, taxes, and trade with strangers. Great Britain existed because it was a legal monopoly - a combination of common law and ecclesiastical law with the king as its head. Competing law systems were suppressed.

To ensure that they remained suppressed the Test Act of 1673 was enacted.

> "The Test Act required every man appointed to an office in the army, navy or the Government, to be a member of the Church of England and to declare that he did not believe that the bread and wine of the sacrament became the actual body and blood of Christ when blessed by the priest. (TKC, p26, Feb 2003)

The first part of the Test Act requiring Church of England membership was directed against non-conformists. No Episcopal church membership - no government job. This was reinforced by fines for worship non-attendance.[5] The second part was directed against Catholics who believe that the bread and wine is the actual flesh and blood of Jesus.

In other words - "non-conformists" were pushed to the very edge of society.

The WORD prohibits oaths.[6] Quakers correctly refused to take oaths, especially an oath to be obedient to the head of the Anglican Church - who just happened to be the king. This

5 The second part was directed against Catholics who were taught that the bread and wine of the "Lord's Supper" became the actual flesh and blood of Christ. The Catholics were anathema because they followed the Vatican law system which in essence made every Catholic a citizen of Rome with his own religion, ruler, and laws. A country within a country.

6 "But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil." Matt 5:37; "Swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation." Jas 5:12

banned them from government service and the army. It also prevented them from joining the militia which was also subject to the king's orders. When exceptions were made to this oath so that they could join, the Quakers had recourse to the 6th commandment which the Church of England had translated to "Thou shalt not kill" - meaning pre-meditated murder.[7]

In a day when a man was forced to fight for his landlord as part of his enfiefment agreement - the Quaker refusal to fight was looked upon by many as the high road.

The Quakers had many admirable qualities. They helped all in need regardless of political differences. Their government was presbyterian. Their refusal to take oaths, to fight, their willingness to help, along with their speech and dress, all combined to set them apart.

Quaker Basic Error

Quakers were excellent businessmen. They made money where others failed by helping all needing help. When Virginia militia marched west to fight the French and Indians - Quakers sold supplies and weapons to them. When the French and Indians marched east to fight the British and the Virginians - the Quakers sold to them.

Campbell and Bedford Counties, just outside of Lynchburg, are where most of the Quaker settlements were. This region is also the home of Virginia militias organized in the 1750s to fight the French and Indians.[8] These people weren't about to tolerate Quakers selling to both sides - especially guns and powder.

7 There are numerous instances where the WORD commands killing people.

8 They in turn were ancestors of Stonewall Jackson's Laurel Brigade, which in turn, was the ancestor of the units of the 116th Infantry that landed in Normandy, suffering more casualties than any other army outfits during WWII.

The Timepiece

Man is made in the image of the WORD. The WORD tells them to build their world in which the wheels and springs work together to produce a society which is convenient and right. If any part is bent or destroyed - it affects the whole.

The Quakers were looked on as a broken wheel that delayed the arrival of the Kingdom in Virginia. After doing so many wonderful things, it was money that betrayed them. Their refusal to fight at the whim of a ruler was taken to the extreme of trading with the enemy.

The WORD does not permit trade with strangers, or even having strangers in the land.[9] Given the option of correcting the King's slavery system by supporting "African Colonization" repatriation, they chose to support "radical abolition".[10]

They modified the WORD to continue living their chosen life style. This terminated their presence in central Virginia because the people they lived among now felt betrayed and ceased to deal with them.

Gradually the Quakers drifted away or joined the ranks of the local Christian denominations. So far as I know there is not a single Quaker family in the Lynchburg area, which town was founded by the Quaker, John Lynch.

LETTERS

THANKS: "Mr. Hoskins: Please let your subscribers know that without their help there wouldn't be any orphanage for white children." K.D. - Africa

---

LETTER TO FRIENDS: "There was a shooting in Minnesota. One of the students killed his grandparents, made his way to school and killed 10, including himself, and wounded several others. He was into a death fixation. Young people into this wear black all the time, black clothes, black fingernail polish (even the guys) and many dye their hair black. It is more than just a style, it is the spirit of witchcraft." Rev Ken Kemble, POB 5204, Uvalde, TX 78802-5204.

UNFILTERED NEWS

OVERLOAD: Multitaskers distracted by incoming e-mail and phone calls logged a 10-point drop in their IQ - twice the drop marijuana smokers showed, according to UK's Institute of Psychiatry. (IBD, p.2, Apr 25, 2005)

RKH: "Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest." Ex 23:12. Overload can destroy. Proper rest allows more to be accomplished in less time.

BRAINWASHING: The Air Force Academy is facing charges that some Christian cadets have berated Jews and students of other religious backgrounds. Its solution is to require students - and all employees - to attend courses on religious tolerance.

Since Christian LAW requires its followers to be intolerant of evil - overriding these Christian teachings requires acceptance of a different religion. The only religion tolerant of all other religions is Hinduism. Those completing AF brainwashing courses should be required to wear the customary "third eye" signifying the "spiritual insight" of their new implanted god. Of course, the more simple solution would be to remove the aliens and their gods.

GERMANY'S POPULATION IMPLOSION: Esau's occupation has created an unfavorable habitat which has caused German birthrates to decline to 1.4 children per woman. 2.1 children are required to maintain a stable population. This is part of Esau's planned genocide against the sons of Jacob.

MEDIAMANAGERS: The LAW forbids gambling. Esau's Mediamanagers sponsor gambling shows. Monkey see - monkey do. Gamblers tend to take chances that are often Lawless.

MEDIAMANAGERS: Esau's media policy is to show a white female next to a black male. Monkey see, monkey do.

KANGAROO COURT: Matthew Hale, son of a police officer, was turned in by his security chief, an FBI asset placed there to "get him". He said Hale solicited him to kill Judge Joan Lefkow. Hale argued that he had no reason to have Lefkow killed since Lefkow had earlier ruled in Hale's favor in a trademark case.

Hale was the leader of what was formerly known as World Church of the Creator, now called Creativity. The media constantly called him a "white supremacist" and "racist". He was convicted in the media of murdering Judge Lefkow's husband and mother before it was discovered that the real killer was another litigant completely unconnected to Hale.

Still, based on evidence produced by the FBI informant - the Federal Judge sentenced Hale to 40 years.

Don't get the idea that I agree with Hale's religious ideas - I don't. But everyone is supposedly entitled to a fair trial. In this case the FBI was involved: Any case in which the FBI is involved is suspect and probably deserves to be thrown out even before it gets started. My files are full of incidents where agents and assets of this out-of-control government organization have incited people to violence, produced tampered evidence and accused innocent people of criminal activity. In the "'80s Sedition Trials" the testimony of all their witnesses was thrown out of court because even the judge found it completely unbelievable.

Remember their Ruby Ridge murders in which the FBI was sued and forced to pay millions? Remember what happened to the survivors of their Waco Holocaust? A jury looked kindly on their defense against the FBI murderous attack on them and gave them a slap on the wrist. The federal "hanging-judge" stepped in, threw out the jury judgments, and imposed draconian sentences.

The WORD warns us: "The dragon walks the earth seeking whom he can devour." Be warned - beware of people from out of town, people who just "love you to death"; who hang around for no reason; who are without visible means of support; who follow modified religions that permit violations of the WORD; who don't walk the walk; who repeat hackneyed religious observations over and over and never seem to learn anything new; who do not tithe; who drink. Chances are their god is the enemy of God the WORD. If you are about the Lord's LAWFUL business the lawless will try to stop you.

MILITIA: Since the border militia began their patrols, "wetback" traffic has dropped by 2/3s. Just two days before the Minutemen showed up for deployment, the Bureau of Customs and Border Protection suddenly announced that it would send 534 border agents and 23 spotter aircraft to Arizona. (Story in The Week, p. 19, Apr 13, 2005)

RKH: This begs the question: Why have the feds waited until now? The answer is equally simple - America's cartel government doesn't want aliens kept out. They send their strong-arm boys there only to make sure that the Minutemen don't treat the invaders so rough that they will stop coming.

VLAAMS BLOK: The nationalist Vlaams Blok was on the verge of significant political power in Belgium with 24.1% of the vote. So, the government abolished it citing "racist" links. Vlaams Belang (Flemish Interest) was immediately organized in its place to pick up at the point where ruling liberals killed the old party.

BLACK SLAVES: The Niger River basin is the ancient homeland of the majority of blacks in America. According to the Christian Science Monitor of March 18, 2005, the country of Niger still holds slaves by the tens of thousands.

Descendants of Niger blacks in America are campaigning for reparations for their slavery. The thought has crossed many minds that they would be better advised to approach the African blacks who owned and sold their ancestors into slavery in the beginning.

RED LAKE MASSACRE: According to police, as many as 20 teenagers may have known of the intended massacre that left 10 dead on the Red Lake Indian Reservation in Minnesota. (Story In The Week, p. 7, Apr 13, 2005)

INDIANS: American Indian teen-agers commit suicide at triple the national rate and die in alcohol-related incidents at 17 times the national average. AP

RKH: They are the same Indians Captain John Smith met in Virginia in 1607. The difference is that Esau's media now instructs us as to what to think about them.

BIBLE: The Colorado Supreme Court threw out a murderer's death sentence because jurors consulted the Bible. THE WEEK, p.9, April 8, 2005

RKH: Two gods - two law systems; Admiralty law of Brahma vs the WORD which is God.

BLACK GUIDES: White Afrikaner settlers survived the Blood River attack by black savages. They built the Voortrekker Monument commemorating the event. S. Africa's black puppet government established by the U.S. and Great Britain now has hired black guides at the monument to make sure visitors get the establishment story.

BLACK BEETHOVEN: Minister Louis Farrakhan's Final Call of March 29, 2005 carried a page long article explaining why Beethoven was black. According to recent articles in various black publications, Beethoven was black, Moses was black, Egypt was black, and Jesus was black.

UN Sec-Gen Kofi Annan's son received $300,000 after his company won a $60 million contract from the UN - almost double the amount previously reported. (Christian Science Monitor, p.20, March 25, 2005)

BISHOPS: U.S. Roman Catholic bishops this week launched a campaign to abolish the death penalty. (The Week, p. 3, Apr 3, 2005)

RKH: "Whoso sheddeth man's blood by man shall his blood be shed." Gen 9:6; "Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death." Num. 35:29-30.

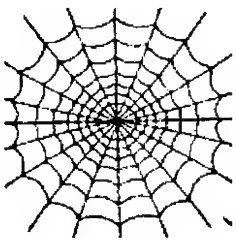
Chapter 369



HINDU MEDIA- WEB

Nationalism vs Internationalism

Nationalism" encompasses peoples having various religious, political and racial names. The enemy of Nationalism is "Internationalism". The latter crosses national boundaries to control the world's separate nations and make them one. Its names are - "empire", "international trade cartel", "one world", "NAFTA", "New World Order," "Hinduism".

Your newspaper is not yours. It is theirs. The newspaper rules the minds of its readers.. By ruling the minds of its readers it rules your town, your state, and your country. Its mission is to transform the "national" into the "international".

The Bouncing Ball

The path of the Serpent is easy to see - follow the bouncing ball:

USURY BANKING creates from "nothing" a thing called credit money: (HR 2005-#368)

CREDIT MONEY created from nothing is used by banks to buy - among other things - the media;

MEDIA - bank owned - controls the minds of the people, who are then allowed to choose one of several media-recommended cartel- agents to be their king.

KINGS - media-elected - appoint judges.

JUDGES - king appointed - rule that the acts of the king are "just", "legal", and must be obeyed.

How simple can you get?

Questions! Questions!

Because they do not understand this simple process, many in the Saxon world are asking - why is my nation being internationalized; why the flood of aliens? Why abortion? Why school integration? Why Iraq? Why do white girls lie down to aliens and bear alien children? Why are internationalist-integrationists in every public office?

The question has been answered many times through the ages. It can be summed up in a single simple statement:

> "Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I will slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41

Esau's war against Jacob is ancient and continuous. It includes deception, illusion, confusion, force and massacre. These techniques are so prevalent they have been formalized into Esau's 36-Strategies Of Deception (HR 2005-#365), memorized by many nations, and are used in every facet of their war of extermination against the Saxon.

One Saxon in S. Africa was shocked at the collapse of his country. He investigated to find out who was responsible and recorded his discoveries in a book called Volksverrad. He was dumbfounded when he discovered - "they were ALL guilty - ALL OF THEM!"

Rhodesia

Saxons colonized Rhodesia to develop farms and mines. Usury-banking created credit-money which bought the mines for "nothing".[1] Esau imported Blacks to work his mines. "Nothings" from Esau's usury-banking were used to establish Esau's media. Esau's media controlled the minds of the people. The people were directed to choose the Cartel's Ian Smith to be their leader. Esau led the Blacks in a war against the Saxons who were led by the turncoat Ian Smith. The Saxons won the war. Ian Smith negotiated and turned the country over to the sons of Esau. The Saxons who trusted the king that Esau had selected for them have paid the price for their ignorance. Rhodesian Saxons have now been banished, enslaved, or exterminated and their condition and misery has been blacked out by Esau's media so that their Saxon- kinsmen in the rest of the world cannot help. Mission accomplished.

South Africa

Saxons colonized South Africa and developed farms and mines. Almost no Blacks lived there. Esau's usury banks created credit-money to buy Saxon developed mines, industry and farms for "nothing". Blacks were imported to work the mines, farms and industry. Usury- banking established a media for Esau. The media controlled the minds of the people who were instructed to choose Esau's agent "deKlerk" to be their leader. Esau led the blacks in a war against the Saxons. The Saxons won the war. Then Esau's agent deKlerk negotiated and turned S. Africa over to the black sons of Esau. In S. Africa, the Saxons who trusted Esau's agent deKlerk are paying the price - they are being enslaved, murdered and banished. South Africa's black leader was named "Mandella", the same as "Mandella, the Hindu "God of change"

Europe

Isaac's Sons colonized Europe almost a thousand years before Christ.[2] They developed farms, mines and industry. Few aliens lived there. Usury banks created credit-money to buy Saxon developed mines, industry and farms for "nothing". Blacks and Orientals are imported to work the mines, farms and industry. Usury-banks established an Esau-media to control the minds of the people. This caused them to choose media-selected agents to be Saxon leaders. The Saxons who trusted Esau-selected kings are having their jobs sent off-shore, are being murdered and robbed by the aliens imported by Esau's kings.[3]

2 "And there shall be a highway for the remnant of my people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt." Isaiah 11:16; In the Apocrypha, 2 Esdras 13:39-46 is recorded their further journey to "Ar Sereth" (the valley of the River Sereth,). "And they entered into Euphrates by the narrow passages of the river ... For through that country there was a great way to go, namely of a year and a half; and the same region is called Arsareth. II Esdras 13:43-46 "Ar Sereth" - The valley of the River Sereth, a northern tributary of the Danube River, in modern Romania, which still bears the name "Sereth".

Their habitat destroyed, the Saxon birthrate has dropped to 1.3 per couple and Europe's Saxons are being destroyed before our eyes.

America

Saxons colonized America. They held at bay homicidal savages - savages who tortured to death ten of their own kind for each Saxon they murdered. Saxons, saved by their own efforts, proceeded to develop farms, mines, and industry. Usury-banking created credit-money to buy the farms, mines and industry for "nothing". Blacks were imported to work the land, mines, and industry. Usury-banking established an Esau-media. The media controlled the minds of the people who chose leaders Esau selected for them in order to enslave the country. Esau's puppet-leaders are now flooding the country with aliens to work the land, mines and industry and to attack America's Saxon people - just as they have done in Rhodesia, S. Africa and Europe. Esau's American industry, which was purchased with "nothing" money, is financing alien groups to attack America's Saxons.

We know what Esau is doing. We know what he has done in other Saxon lands. We know his master plan:

> "Esau said ... I will slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41

We know how he is going about it. He's done it before:

3 "Whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her, and her own children left her." I Maccabees 1: 11- 63.

USURY BANKING creates from "nothing" a thing called credit money: (HR 2005-#368)

CREDIT MONEY created from nothing is used to buy - among other things - the media;

MEDIA - controls the minds of the people who then choose one of several media recommended Esau-agents to be their king.

KINGS appoint judges.

JUDGES rule that what the Cartel is doing is "legal".

How simple can you get?

Defense

The WORD says;

"Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Matt 18:20

Those obedient to the WORD recognize that when two or three are gathered together with the WORD leading them - one can work - the others provide - or all can work while encouraging each other. That's all it takes. Ten would be nice. Their tithe would allow another to devote full time - but two or three are all that are needed.

"Two" almost took control of the political operation of the city of Lynchburg. Six formed a political party in Richmond. All things start with two or three.

We Learn From History

History teaches us to distrust anything Esau's media says unless verified. They are liars as one would expect from an agency of Esau.

History teaches us to beware of Esau's agents. One of their most over-used disguises is to pose as a flag-waving right-winger. It is my personal belief gained from observing for more than half a century that seven-eighths of the right-wing political-religious newsletters and organizations in the country are Esau fronts.

Their "red-flag" is usually their refusal to acknowledge the WORD as their leader. Proclaiming the WORD as leader alienates Esau. Those on Esau's payroll are reluctant to acknowledge God's WORD as their supreme leader because it stops Esau's bribe money and perks.

If we are wise - we learn from others. Some alien nations are as eager to rid themselves of the evil empire as we. The children of Esau fight among themselves constantly, and they are skilled warriors. They have developed interesting ways of solving the problem presented by Cartel appointed politicians, priests, and media.

Conclusion

The Scriptures say that someday there will be an Armageddon. Remember the WORD when preparing for that day:

> "He said unto them ... he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one." Luke 22:36-38

It is the nature of things that all men die. None leave this world alive. The One who gave us life in the beginning will take our life back again at its end. If He asks us to give it in His service - it is no loss to return what is already His.

> "Whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it." Matt 16:25 "If a man keep my sayings, he shall never see death." Jno 8:51

We know that Esau swore, "I will slay my brother Jacob." We also know that Esau talks a lot.

For our part, we are led by the WORD which is God, and the WORD says:

> "God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee ... Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:27-28

Sorry, Esau! Your media, your usury-banks, servant-kings and servant-priests will go with you. We shall then "dwell in safety alone."

It's right there in the WORD! So, that's the way its going to be! Better pack, and while packing - be careful that you don't take anything that doesn't belong to you. Remember, there is someone with a list and He is checking it twice.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Dear Mr. Hoskins; We got the parcel containing information pertaining to the treatment of "agent orange". You sent it to us four months ago. You would think it came on a sailing boat considering the time it took to get here, but this is ordinary mail service today. Thank you.

Luckily, the children's home has enough outside space for the children to romp because with the last arrivals the home is overcrowded.

Many such homes dependent on government support have had to close as no funds are forthcoming. This even includes some black homes. Many close because black administrators steal the food provided by the government for black children.

It is estimated that changing the name of Pretoria to "Ape Town" will end up costing a great deal and is done for no other reason than hatred of white Afrikaners.

Since Koos Vorster left - our Die Afrikaner newspaper has become just another newspaper. I believe my verdict is correct; beware of rich people. They are rich for a reason and they don't intend to disturb their wealth by rocking the boat.

The submarines the black government ordered built in Germany cannot be sailed to SA as there are no whites left who know how to operate them and blacks can't. It was planned to load them onto transport ships along with newly purchased aeroplanes which could not be flown for lack of skilled pilots. But, ridicule has made them put all transportation plans on hold. We have no idea how the new submarines and planes will get here.

Without a God-fearing white leader - our future in S. Africa looks dark. From a Christian country, we now live in a filthy heathen nest. People buy filthy magazines, videos, etc., and the sitcoms are all racially mixed.

Squatter camps are mushrooming as foreign blacks flood into the country.

Not far from here a promising young white policeman died after being shot in the head by robbers with a shotgun.

Three blacks entered a neighbor's barn. Two had pistols and one a knife. They wounded the farmer and shot his wife in the back. She drew her revolver and shot back killing one. The second one kept shooting but she seriously wounded him. The third was going after her wounded husband but fled when he saw what happened to his two companions. She was rushed to the hospital. They removed a kidney and part of her liver. Thank heavens for people with guts! It is really the only solution since the regime pardoned many dangerous criminals.

We have recently learned that China has taken over supplying our clothing. S. African firms closed down because they cannot comply with the multitude of rules and Chinese low prices. Other businesses are impacted since not even a one-man business is allowed to be run unless it has a black partner.

It hurts to see white Afrikaners begging, but many firms will not even consider hiring whites. Even in nursery schools the teachers give more attention to black children than white. Every black child, even foreign ones, get a subsidy of R550 a month while we now have 350,000 whites living under the breadline. In fact, one government hospital refuses to treat white people. No employment agency will even take their names. All this is bad for my blood- pressure.

Best wishes, K.J.

UNFILTERED NEWS

HACKWORTH: David Hackworth (1931-2005) is dead. Who was David Hackworth? He was America's most decorated Vietnam veteran. In Korea in one ferocious firefight he killed more than 100 enemy soldiers, and that is only one of his stories. Why haven't you heard of David Hackworth? The Cartel government has no intention of giving captive Saxons a hero whom might become their leader - especially a military leader. Esau's Hollywood actors are substituted to pretend to be statesmen and soldiers. They think Saxons don't know the difference.

WESTERN RACISM: Cartel governments are attempting to quell outbreaks of "racism" exhibited at soccer games. "Spain, Italy, and Eastern Europe are often singled out as the worst bastions of racist crowd behavior". Racism was examined in Slovakia against Roma, or gypsies. (CSM May 12, 2005)

RKH: Europe is presently trying to remove all public display of God. The reason is that God is a Racist - He made man; And, He made man in His image. He gave him his power-of-attorney which is racism. "O children of Israel... You only have I known of all the families of the earth." Amos 3:2; "There are many nations ... all are His, and over all has He appointed spirits to rule ... but over Israel ...He alone is their ruler." Jub 15:23; "These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not unto the way of the Gentiles, and unto any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6; "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 15:24; "He showed his word unto Jacob, His statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for His judgments, they have not known them." Ps 147:19-20; "I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me, for they are thine." John 17:9; "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." Ro 9:13. Racism! Racism!

Racism! Better behave yourself, Cartel. Guess who is making a list and checking it twice - you think it's Santa Claus? Think again.

A DIFFERENT GOD: The United Methodist Church reversed itself and decided to reinstate a sodomite female preacher who had been defrocked after revealing her sin. A church panel voted 8 to 1 to set aside an earlier decision to defrock the Philadelphia minister, Irene "Beth" Stroud, for violating the church's ban on clergy being openly sodomite. (Story in News & Advance, Apr 30, 2005)

RKH: Sodomy is OK. Just don't tell. Buddhism, the only religion permitting sodomy, is alive and well.

DAVID IRVING A JEW? David Irving is the conservative guru of Saxon WWII history. The German weekly newspaper Junge Freiheit published an interview with German playwriter Rolf Hochhuth who said "Irving is a half Jew, his mother was a Jewess!" Hochhuth was attacked by the German mainstream media. In defense against these attacks, Hochhuth was quoted by the German daily newspaper Berliner Morgenpost on Feb 22, 2005 as follows: "He (Irving) is a reputable historian who researches sources. He had a Jewish mother. ..." (http://morgenpost.berlin1.de/ content/2005/02/22/ feuilleton/736591.html) Hochhuth is said to have repeated this several times in public. Irving's reply to his friend's claim, "He (Hochhuth) is wrong." Sooner or later the truth will surface. It will be interesting if the premier conservative interpreter of Saxon WWII history is a Jew. If this is so, some may look on Irving's recent legal misfortunes as the use of #34 of the Chinese "36- Strategies" - HR #365, 2005.

VLAAMS BLOK: Belgium's highest court banned the Flemish Nationalist Party which won 1/4 of the last national vote. The reason - its objection to the continuing Muslim Invasion of that country. (Australian Resurgence, Jan 2005.)

ANTI-TERROR LAWS AGAINST US CITIZENS: The leader of a KKK group was sentenced to 12 years in prison in the nation's 1st conviction under a new anti-terror law. David Hull, 42, was convicted of teaching a government informant how pipe bombs are used. (Investors Business Daily, p. 2, Feb 28, 2005

RKH: This law was supposed to curtail foreign terrorists in our country. Instead, the first time this law is used is against American militiamen learning to fashion arms against possible alien invasion of their country. A so-called "pipe bomb" is another name for a cheap hand-grenade used by all soldiers on all sides in all wars. Homemade grenades are as much a necessary militia weapon as a First Amemndment rifle.

SECRET POLICE: A former Algerian government journalist has admitted that the role of the media there is to act as spies and informers for the government, not to report facts. Abdou Baya, a political refugee in Perth, said, "We were providing propaganda for a government killing machine. My colleagues were informers who collected political views of individuals and told the secret police who kept a list." Abdou said 57 journalists had been assassinated in three years for their role. (The Australian, reported in STORM, Feb 2005)

MICHAEL NEW: US District Judge Paul Friedman dismissed the case of former Army Specialist Michael New. In 1996, New was convicted by court-martial of disobeying an order to wear a UN uniform and serve under a general officer from a foreign country on a "peace- keeping" mission. New contends the uniform was unauthorized, the deployment illegal, and the chain of command unconstitutional. He was not allowed to present any evidence at his trial to support his arguments. SMOKING: An economist at Ohio State Univ found that the net worth of nonsmokers was almost 50% higher than light smokers (one pack a day) and double the wealth of heavy smokers (more than a pack a day). (Washington Post)

SMOKING DULLS MIND: "Smokers performed significantly worse than nonsmokers and former smokers on five different cognitive tests ... whether that's organizing their daily life, remembering what to buy at the shops, doing crossword puzzles, or playing bridge." FINANCING ANTI-SAXONISM: American Indian gambling raked in $18.5 billion in 2004, nearly double the take from Las Vegas casinos. (Associated Press)

RKH: The Islamic world is financed from the oil revenue from Western companies run by Arabs in the Mideast. China's buildup is financed from Western trade, Blacks and Hispanics are given job preference in Cartel corporations and government, and the ITC controled US government has turned the world against the Saxon. Esau's war against Jacob is alive and well.

AFRICAN IMMIGRANTS: More Africans have moved to the US since 1990 than arrived here in the preceeding 2-centuries - including those brought as slaves. (NY Times)

SINN FEIN: Often referred to as the "political wing" of the terrorist group, has long insisted that it has no control over the militants - until now. Irish Justice Minister Michael McDowell named Sinn Fein leader Gerry Adams, his deputy Martin McGinness, and a member of the Irish parliament Martin Ferris as part of the IRA's seven-man ruling Army Council. The IRA is blamed for the $50m Belfast bank robbery in December. (THE WEEK, p.6, March 4, 2005)

IRAQI ELECTIONS: The U.S. makes an unprovoked attack on Iraq, kills 100,000 of her citizens, destroys her cities, starves her people, elects a puppet government, and expects them to be enthralled with their new "democracy". Really!

FBI AGAIN: The Justice Dept Inspector Gen said the FBI did not take seriously linguist Sibel Edmonds who reported a co-worker and her AF officer husband of possible espionage for Turkey and fired her for reporting it. (Inves Bus Daily, p.2, Jan 18, 2005)

CHINA-INDIA, The US will remain the dominant economic and military power, but China-India, the world's most populous countries, will rival the U.S. for global economic supremacy by the year 2020, according to the National Intelligence Council 5- year-look at the global future. Chapter 370

MISSISSIPPI BURNING
The Key

Declaration Of War

The decision by the Supreme Court to outlaw the display of the WORD in courtrooms is Esau's public declaration of his ongoing war on God the WORD. Not even lip-service to God's LAW will be tolerated in his court-rooms in the future and what people think about it is of absolutely no importance. America's law system is now Esau's universal Admiralty trade law.

Headlines

"Former Klansman Found Guilty!"
"80-year-old Preacher Convicted Of Manslaughter!"
"Justice At Last!"

Background

The above headlines are a continuation of an old, old dispute between brothers.

It is explained in the story of Esau and Jacob. This story is of great interest to those who bear the name of Jacob's son - and the sons of Isaac who are known as Isaacsons - "Saxons".

Esau, Isaac's brother, took wives of the strangers about him and through their offspring spread his blood over the entire world. Thus, the world today is either Esau or Jacob.

If a son-of-man,[1] or an Isaac-son mates with a son or daughter of Esau - the offspring are NOT sons of Isaac and Jacob - they are "children-of- Esau".[2] The ongoing campaign to persuade Saxon women to mate with Sons-of-Esau is part of Esau's war against the Saxon.

Rules Of Engagement

The following lists the rules of engagement.

> "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

The WORD warns us to be on guard:

1 (Heb: adam - those that blush rosy, Strong's Concordance; Son-of-man - son of he who blushes rosy. With reason, Jesus constantly referred to himself as "Son-of-Man".

2 "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2

> "Son-of-man (son of "adam" - he who blushes red), set thy face against Esau-Edom ... and say ... I am against thee ... because thou hast ... shed the blood of the children of Israel." Ezek 35:2-5

In Hebrew, the name Israel means - "he will rule as God". Strong's Concordance. It is the same as saying "one who has been given God's power of attorney."

The WORD further warns the sons of Isaac and Jacob that Esau plans to kill them:

> Esau said, "I will kill my brother Jacob." Gen 27:41.

The WORD tells precisely who Esau is and how he plans to do this:

> "Thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." Rev 18:23

The WORD of God then pronounces judgment:

> "Jacob have I loved but Esau have I hated." Romans 9:13

Whenever sons-of-Jacob become weary and appear ready to falter, the WORD promises:

> "When thou are in tribulation ... if thou turn to God and shall be obedient ... he will not forsake thee ... nor forget the covenant of thy fathers." Deut 4:30-31

One can ask no more than that.

The War To Date

Using money produced by fraud (HR 2005-#368), Esau's agents purchased Jacob's media. This done, only Esau's voice is permitted in the land. Esau has no one to dispute him and he can be as deceptive as he likes. The WORD confirms this by reminding us that Esau is "designing and deceitful".

Esau's Media

That Esau is "designing and deceitful" is common knowledge. Our proper response to anything Esau's newspapers, radio, TV, or government announcements have to say about ANYTHING is to consider the information:

1) misleading.

2) setting the stage for another whopper, or,

3) an outright lie

This is how one must treat Esau's words which are "designing and deceitful".

Mississippi Burning

One of Esau's courts recently found a son of Isaac guilty of assaulting sons of Esau. The sons of Esau had been sent on a mission to abolish a Saxon voter-registration law that prevented the sons of Esau from ruling over Isaac-sons.[3]

Judge, Jury & Executioner

The collaborating judge in the case was appointed by a king which had been elected by Esau's media. The jury was a carefully selected kangaroo-jury containing sons-of-Esau who judged a Saxon - a thing unLawful.

The proceedings were held under Admiralty Law, the law of another God, rather than the WORD which is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

3 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

The legal arguments were made by scribes long practiced in Esau's Admiralty trade-law deception and who were forbidden to use the WORD which governs the Saxon. And,

The proceedings took place in an area saturated by Esau's media mind-control propaganda.

In this polluted atmosphere - an 80-year old Saxon teacher of the WORD, confined to a wheel chair, was convicted by Esau's legal system of opposing alien "voting rights" which would permit strangers to rule over sons of Jacob.

The so-called offense took place 41 years ago; there were no witnesses, the case had been tried and dismissed before, and the victim of Esau's persecution was not even present at the scene of the incident. This travesty not only violates the WORD; it violates the Admiralty trade-law that Esau's courts say they operate under.

In brief: Three sons of Esau sent to overthrow the voting statute that prohibited strangers from ruling over sons of Jacob were prevented from doing so. In great wrath, the Dragon sent armies of agents to punish anyone defying his decrees.

Esau's Admiralty-trade-law justice system found Edgar Ray Killen, an 80-year old pastor of the WORD - guilty - and imprisoned him for life.

The future of God the WORD and its people will become more and more interesting in the days ahead under the rule of Esau's law.

"No man can serve two masters." Matt. 6:24

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: I KNOW what communism is now. Its full weight is coming down on us. However the ANC is not without its own problems. They are making much of their 10 years democratic- communist rule but the blacks are beginning to riot because the promises the ANC made before gaining power are not being fulfilled. They are unable to deliver better living conditions in the Cape Province and Eastern Transvaal.

There are eleven races in S. Africa with eleven different languages. These eleven languages are supposed to be taught in the schools but there are no teachers to do that and no textbooks. The Sunday headlines in the "Rapport" says that most parents think the public education is bad. Even so, what there is is free for blacks while whites must pay. Even the Loerie youngsters must pay.

The number of whites out of work far exceed that of the great depression of the '30s.

The Dutch Reform Church leaders are slyly forcing the Belhar confession on church members. This revolutionary confession was drawn up by Allon Boesak, a criminal ANC communist.

It seems certain that the Dutch Reformed Church (DRC) will have another split. A few churches have already made it clear that they are resigning from the DRC. Their congregations are in full agreement. If there is a textbook on separation it is the Bible, and anyone who is sincere can easily understand what it says.

The University of Pretoria seminary receives R14 million from the state each year while church members provide only R1.3 million. Since the one who pays the piper calls the tune, DRC preachers teach whatever pleases the state.

A group led by Dr. Jan Grey will visit the seminary at Pasadena, California to see if they can train some S. African students. They distrust all three seminaries here in Stellenbasch, Pretoria and Bloemfontein.

The farmer who complained about the 40 thousand squatters on his farm now complains that they have grown to 70 thousand while the ANC continues to do nothing after promising to remove them.

The Flemish "Belang" Interest party is sympathetic with the Afrikaner problems. They lodged a complaint about the S. African farm murders with the Belgium federal Parliament asking them that all agreements between the EU and ANC must be suspended until the ANC does something about the farm murders. It was noted at the time that farming in S. Africa is the most dangerous occupation in the world. The torture that accompanies every murder was also discussed. It is very clear that the Afrikaner is the target of all these murders.

Flemish is very near to Afrikaans and easy to read. It is between Dutch and Afrikaans. The Flemish and the French part of the population don't get on well.

A little girl of 6 years joined the Lories. Her mother died of cancer and her father lost his job. The two have been roaming through the country while he looked for work. She has settled in well. People do not often see the poor whites as they are ashamed of their present situation.

A local female DRC preacher ignores white children in need and tells her listeners to adopt black AIDS babies. Black children get subsidized till 19 years old. They don't want farms but a house in town. This gives Mbeki three problems

- 1) rioting blacks, 2) Zulus becoming nationalist once again, and now 3) whites are waking up.

Yours faithfully, K.J.

CONTEMPT

Martin Luther King, adulterer, plagiarist, terrorist - has been chosen by America's puppet governments to receive special honor by having bridges, highways and buildings named after him. This shows that the most contemptible of the sons of Esau is preferred before the most honorable of the sons of Jacob.

WHY EVIL

Using credit money created from nothing, Esau bought America - its land, businesses, media, politicians, and preachers - and appointed great merchants to manage this wealth. We live in Esau's cities, beg his permission to practice our trades and drive on his highways. In his view WE are the parasites using HIS wealth and possessions. Esau flaunts his power by refusing to allow Jacob to audit his Federal Reserve banking system that graciously permits us to eat. Today, Jacob belongs to Esau, to do with as he likes. We are his property - he thinks.

There is a reason. The question was asked and answered long ago; "Why does God permit evil?" This was the answer:

> "I created man from the invisible and visible ... I appointed him ruler ... to have my wisdom ... I called his name Adam-man, and showed him the two ways, the light and the darkness, and I told him: 'This is good, and that bad,' that I should learn whether he has love towards me, or hatred, that it be clear which in his race love me." Secrets Of Enoch 30:13-14 (Lost Books)

This is the filter. God's selection is almost complete. Only a handful remain to be processed. Those who love God follow the WORD; those who hate God follow Esau. The obedient stand ready for their orders.

GE INTO RUSSIA

The Cold War was a new kind of war. It was fought between US led Global Usury Capitalism and imperial Soviet nationalism. Global Usury Capitalism advanced the US the credit to build rockets, nukes, atomic subs, mach-fighters and bombers and space stations - things that became obsolescent in 5 years and had to be replaced with new improved updates. Russia matched each new weapon and each new scientific advancement blow for blow - until she spent herself into bankruptcy and disintegrated. Her people now live in a poor 2nd rate nation materially and 2nd rate technologically - barely able to pay her workers.

Victory! The Soviet Union lost! Usury Capitalism won!

To the victor belong the spoils. The FBI opened an office in Moscow, international finance advanced money to the usual overnight billionaires to buy (privatize) Russia's industries, and General Electric announced its first significant investment in Russia by its purchase of Delta Bank, a consumer finance provider. Welcome aboard, Russia. You'll get used to it. We did.

Not long ago I never would have converted to any kind of religion, but page after page, Vigilantes of Christendom stated many of my beliefs, and then I read the Biblical references. MISMATCH: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: A couple near here adopted an alien child. Are there consequences?" S.U. - Michigan

RKH: Esau is a predator - Jacob is the prey. Jacob is a sheep - Esau a wolf. Wolves kill sheep. Bring a wolf into a sheepfold and train him to be like a sheep. The wolf is now in the sheepfold. Those who introduced the wolf are responsible should the wolf revert to the nature of a wolf. It's basic; "A kingdom divided against itself cannot stand." Mr 3:24

SABBATH OBSERVANCE: Mr. Hoskins: I agree that every day is the Sabbath, however, we must observe the 7th day rest." W. J.

RKH: Right! Your body is the temple of the Lord - it must have its 7th day rest to function at optimum efficiency the other 6 days. Ideally, it would be good if all activity came to a stand-still for the 7th day. But, blast furnaces can't shut down, ships at sea must be manned, hospitals must stay open. These must observe another 7th day. The Sabbath was made for man - not man for the Sabbath.

BOOKS: "Dear Hoskins: Thank you for the Apocrypha. I left it and the two Foxfire books in the study group's library for the others. I'm in the process of starting a new study group here. It should be up and running over the next six weeks.

"At my old prison we could get hardcover books if the hardcover was removed. Here, softback books only; no hardcovers or books with hardcovers removed." W.J. - prisoner California

RKH: Many prisons think up things to make it difficult for prisoners to receive Christian study material. A Koran or Jewish study material have never been sent back. Bibles and Christian study material often are.

LAWLESSNESS: The US Supreme Court is a racially mixed body appointed to their office by media-elected presidents. In 1968, they ruled against discrimination in jury selection because of race. RKH: This begs the question - if G-rated are more profitable, why R-rated? "Profit" isn't the reason R-rated are produced. The moral destruction of the Saxon race is worth the monetary cost!

DEBT FORGIVENESS: The ITC bankers may forgive 56 Billion dollars of 3rd world debt. How do they do that? They simply reverse the process they used to create the 56 billion dollar credit in the first place. They created the 56 billion loan from nothing. They certainly lose nothing by sending "nothing" back into the "nothing" from whense it was created.

The Vatican treatment of Cardinal Law is perceived by many to be a message to the Catholic Church's sodomite priests that they will not be abandoned. One rule for rulers - a different rule for the ruled.

NEW MODEL ARMY: America has a bellyfull of foreign adventures that cost money and the lives of foreigners and Americans alike. American discontent will probably express itself in a reduction of the armed services.

Be of good cheer - all is not lost. American Corporations plus the Pentagon and the CIA use highly trained former Green Berets, Navy SEALs, and other Special Forces veterans. The age-old "mercenary army" concept has come to life again. Private security personnel working in Iraq can make more than $250,000 a year. To hold down costs some companies hire highly trained soldiers from the British firm Global Risk International. They have sent Gurkha troops from Nepal and Fijian soldiers to help guard the Green Zone in Iraq.

CIA contractors are operating in Colombia and elsewhere in the world. Replacing US soldiers with paid contractors sidesteps the usual outcry about using US troops in foreign adventures. This cuts financial and psychological war costs; No medical upkeep and retirement benefits, and their deaths don't even cause a ripple in public opinion. (Story in The WEEK, p.15, June 3, 2005)

GERMANY: Support for German chancellor Gerhard Schroeder's Social Democrats plunged in the Saarland. The right-wing National Democratic Party (NDP) did well at the polls in the recent election after surviving Schroeder's attempt to have them banned.

All corporations claiming to hold property "for the people" are "socialist". The International Socialists - (communists, NWO, ITC, world-capitalist, etc.) represent one wing. Their media calls the NDP "neo-Nazi" - meaning - National Socialist. The Cartel media talls us that "National Socialist" is supposed to be bad and International Socialist is good. "Privatize" means transferring asset ownership from one corporation to another - which is usually a transfer from a national corporation to an international trade or religious corporation. Undesirable genetic changes are taking place in fish stocks as a result of commercial fishing. Fishing practices today are producing smaller fish that grow more slowly and reproduce less successfully than their ancestors did.

Prof Conover of the State University of NY studied Atlantic Silversides, a small fast maturing species, under laboratory conditions and found that selective harvesting of the largest fish had a big impact on average size after only four generations. It produced a population that was smaller and less fertile.

If fishing stops, there is no selective pressure to force the changes in the opposite direction, so the populations regain their previous character only very slowly. The scientist said a change in fisheries management could relieve the pressure. Instead of regulations specifying only a minimum size of catch, as today, there should also be maximum size limit to allow the biggest fish to survive and to breed. RKH: My father, Dr. John Hundley Hoskins, commented on this phenomenon in the late 40s. He noted that the "Colony" for the mentally impaired across the James in Amherst County sometimes had three generations of retarded people committed there while the recent wars - WWI & II - killed some of Lynchburg's best men. He also noted studies that showed that French soldiers in WWII were about 4 inches shorter than those in WWI.

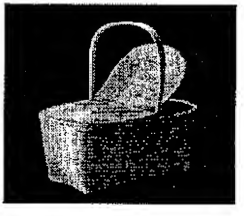
Chapter 371



JUDITH & Her Basket

The Book of Judith is one of the books in the censored Apocrypha. It tells the story of the invasion of Judah that took place after the return of Judah from captivity. At that time the Israelites were few in number and relatively weak. The story unfolds in the following manner.

Emperor Nabuchodonosor ruled a vast empire in that part of the world. One of his many provinces rebelled against his rule. He called on the rest of his loyal provinces to send troops to suppress the revolt. All sent troops except Judea and several adjoining provinces.

Nabuchodonosor was infuriated with those provinces who withheld troops when he needed them. He called his general Holofernes and ordered him to take a great army and punish them. History records his orders;

> "Holofernes ... decreed (that his army) destroy all the gods of the land, that all nations should worship Nabuchodonosor only, and that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as god." Judith 3:5,8.

Judah's Defenses

The skies were black with smoke as fields, farms and cities went up in flames. Men, women and children were slaughtered by the thousands. You remember the story. Reaching Palestine, he found the Israelites' defense of Judea organized into Scottish type "shieldrons".

To man a shieldron, defenders bring water and food and circle a mountain or hilltop. A great army can only form a circle about the few defenders on the top of the mountain, reducing the advantage of having a large army and making it a man- to-man contest. As defenders are killed, the survivors close ranks and back up the mountain thereby keeping the "shieldron's" front intact and making it a long, bloody affair. Wishing to avoid this type of contest, the invading army bypassed the mountain defenses and instead cut off the water to Jerusalem, leaving the city a five days' supply. The city faced draconian punishment from the invaders. Its leaders were in despair.

Judith

Judith, a beautiful widow of three years, told the elders that she would try to stop the invading army. She put on her finest clothes, her finest jewelry, and accompanied by her servant bearing a basket of food, she began walking toward the invading army.

A young officer saw her in the distance and judging by her beauty, fine dress and courteous manner thought that she must be an official sent to negotiate with his own General Holofernes. Accordingly, he gave her an escort of several hundred men who accompanied her to army headquarters.

General Holofernes' personal tent was magnificent. It was encrusted all over with precious jewels that sparkled in the sun and could be seen from far away. He heard the commotion and stood in front of the tent to welcome this "envoy" from the enemy. He was intrigued with her - a woman - a beautiful woman. Most unusual.

As was the custom, most of the day was passed in preliminary courtesies. At last they began serious talk. She told him about the God of Israel. How he always protected his people from their enemies unless they sinned against Him.

The general had his doubts about all this talk about the powers of a local God such as the one of whom Judith was speaking and questioned if it were possible that there could be another God besides his emperor.

> "Holofernes, the chief captain (said) ... who is God but Nabuchodonosor? Judith 6:1-2"

But Judith was insistent and her manner was persuasive. She informed the general that Judea had sinned mightily against the WORD which was her God, that her people were doomed, and that she would tell him exactly how to defeat her evil people without having to suffer the losses that result from the use of force.

The Banquet

Holofernes was eager to hear more about a possible bloodless victory, but first, courtesy demanded that he show his respect by feeding his guest. He commanded his people to bring the very best of victuals and wine for a feast in her honor.

It was then he received a shock. Judith declined. She said that the WORD of God would not permit Israelites to eat with strangers. That was why she had her servant bring food with them. In obedience to their God they would go into the wilderness and eat alone while she talked with her God. She said that she would return the next morning.

Negotiations Resume

True to her promise, Judith and her servant arrived the next morning at the magnificent jeweled headquarters tent of Holofernes to continue their meeting.

However, during Judith's absence conditions had changed. Holofernes had reflected on Judith's beauty and determined to make a double conquest - her people and her. Accordingly, he was in a party mood when Judith arrived, having consumed more wine than he was accustomed. As the day went on, Holofernes drank more and more and at last he passed out.

Judith then walked over to the tent wall where Holofernes' sword hung, drew it, and with two blows severed his head from his body.

She then picked up his head and placed it in the food basket and both she and her servant left the tent and proceeded to walk through the invading army into the desert as they had done the day before. The sentinels were accustomed to this strange behavior and let Judith and her servant go their way. She then continued down the road and on back to her people.

The elders of Judea saw her coming and stood at the gate to meet her - still having a flicker of desperate hope. This turned to elation when Judith opened her basket and held the head of Holofernes by the hair for their inspection.

The Invading Army

Back at the encampment of the invading army, Holofernes body was discovered without his head. The word quickly spread that a woman had killed the greatest general of the empire. This was a bad omen and the army broke into its respective contingents and melted into the hills.[1]

LESSONS FROM JUDETH

The Book of Judith teaches many lessons

Wine

WINE - Heb: yayin: "To effervesce", wine (as fermented), intoxicating, banqueting, wine (3196)

---

1 Many Celts and Germans knew the Scriptures and their examples. In 453, Attila the Hun took Ildico, the daughter of a Germanic chief to bed for the night. The next morning he was found dead in a pool of blood. It is said that Ildico, to revenge her shame of being taken by a stranger, killed him. When word was received that Attila was dead the coalition of Germanic tribes subject to the Huns revolted and threw off Hunnic rule.

There are two kinds of wine. One kind is intoxicating. The other kind is spiritual - "to effervesce", "sparkle", "give life".

In a parable to his people Jesus ordered the one and forbade the other. To be useful one must eat bread (the WORD) and drink the wine (the spirit), or, eat the "flesh" and drink the "blood" - which is the same. The WORD without the spirit is dead.

As for the intoxicating kind: Jesus Christ, the WORD made flesh, appointed us kings and priests.[2] These are the orders to his army:

> "It is not for kings to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. Pr 31:4-5

And the result of intoxicating drink: "Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish." Pr 31:6. Strong drink permitted Judith to kill Holofernes and save her people. Strong drink is a weapon of war.

And lastly, God the WORD curses those who give their own people strong drink: "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink." Habakkuk 2:15

Personally, if a person drinks it tells me all I need to know about him. He might be a nice fellow, but I will not base my opinions or actions on the word of such a person. There have been several times in the past when this has been my only indicator as to the reliability of the speaker. In each case it proved to be a reliable indicator.

2 "Jesus Christ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5-6

EATING WITH STRANGERS

The book of Judith teaches the benefits of obeying the Law and not eating with strangers. Enemies respect our Law if it benefits themselves - or at least does not hurt them. This respect allowed Judith to do God's will and escape unscathed.

Before eating, we ask God the WORD to bless the food. When food is "God-blessed" it is holy. You are not allowed to give this blessed holy food to strangers:

> "I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils (deceivers). Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord (Lawfulness), and the cup of devils (Lawlessness): Ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table (the WORD), and of the table of devils (deception)."I Cor 11:20-21

> "Thou shall no stranger (2114 racial alien) eat (398 'akal - to eat - lit or fig) of the holy thing." Lev 22:10

> "They shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the Lord. Or, suffer them to bear the iniquity of the trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the Lord do sanctify them." Le 22:15-16

Food blessed by God is holy. Holy food may not be given to strangers. Not even a servant - who is also assumed to be a zûwr stranger, may eat the food once it has been "blessed" and is holy.

Virginia farms once had outside kitchens where the "house help" could eat unblessed food separately. America, both North and South in the 1930s, met the problem of feeding strangers with separate eating facilities serving "un-blessed" food to the one, and "blessed" food to the other. This practice carried over into schools, public facilities, and the military. The scriptures dealing with "blessed-food" continue:

> "If the priests daughter be married unto a stranger she may not eat of the holy offerings,"(that which Israelites offer to God before they eat.) "Not withstanding, if the Priests daughter be divorced, and have no child, but is returned unto her father's house, she shall eat of her fathers bread, as she did in her youth: but there shall no stranger (zwer - racial alien) "eat thereof. ... So shall they not defile the holy things of Israel, which they offer unto the Lord." Lev 22:10-15

When the God of the Land replaced God the WORD in America, the God of the land declared this Law of God the WORD to be "illegal".

GODS

The Book of Judith tells that there are other Gods and it tells who they are.

> "Holofernes, the chief captain (said) ... who is God but Nabuchodonosor?" Judith 6:1-2

Did he mean that Nabuchodonosor was God? The WORD answers:

> "You are servants to whomever you obey" Rom 6:16*:

To make it even clearer; read the following again:

> "Holofernes ... decreed ... that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as god." Judith 3:5,8.

He meant that you do what Nabuchodonosor says do just like you do when calling upon your god! When you obey a king just as you obey God - he is a God to you.

This was clear to everyone only a few generation ago. The American Heritage Enclyclopedia definition #6 defines God as "a powerful ruler or despot. [Middle English, from Old English]."

Notice how today's preachers avoid reading God's Commandments from the WORD? Why? What are they afraid of? They are afraid of offending their God - the God of the land - the king's government.

They all saw the "Indianapolis Baptist Temple" being seized and sold when it refused to collect taxes for the "God of the land". They saw Bob Jones University lose its tax exemption because it refused to allow interracial dating. They see the God of the land forbid churches to endorse political candidates. They see that God of the land denies rebels access to its media riches. To them the God of the Land is greater than God the WORD and so - while they continue to call themselves "Christian" - their real God is the God of the Land.

"The Love of money is the root of all evil" is the carrot that tilts the scales: They have a choice: "Tax-exemption" in exchange for obedience, or persecution in exchange for disobediance. They choose the former. Churches that once taught the WORD are now dry deserts. Standing next to the pulpit is the emblem of the God of the land while the preacher drones on about a Jesus that is NOT the "WORD made flesh". Reading dry parables without God's Commandments to give meaning is a fruitless endeavor.

"In vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." Matthew 15:8-9

The "commandments of men" is the God of the Land.

The God Of The World

There is still another God - one greater than the "God of the land".

"The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not (the WORD)." 2 Co 4:4

In my opinion this is the one that the WORD calls the "Devil" - the one who took Jesus to the top of the temple and offered him the kingdoms of the world because both temples and kingdoms are his to offer.

"The God of This World" says that he rules all government Gods of the land. There are many government Gods of the land but there is a God above them - one who has made himself universal by joining himself to each separatist God, calling himself by that God's name; claiming that "all Gods are one" and that this one God of the world manifests himself as Brahma-Siva-Kali - God of integration, sex, and death - the Serpent that circles the earth.

It is noteworthy that this God speaks of "toleration" of all Gods and accepting all God as equals, but when in power only the "Edicts of Asoka," the Admiralty Law of the international merchant - the God of the world is allowed.

Every conflicting commandment of every separatist God is suppressed - look how the puppets of the God of the world are going after separatist Islam and replacing its interest-free banks with its own interest banks.

We who follow God the WORD, the God of Adam-man - the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob - watch in horror the suppression of the WORD because we know our God has promised a "day of revenge" - not only against those suppressing the WORD - but those who allowed it to be suppressed.

That's you and me!

OMEN

The Book of Judith tells us that when the army of Holofernes learned of the fate of their leader, the appointed servant of the God of the Land, they took it to be a "bad omen", and fled.

The belief in "omens" was enough to vanquish the great army of the one who was called "God of the world" and bring his policy crashing to earth. This may be one of the most important things in the entire book.

"Omens" bear the connotation of "magic". There are other descriptive words such as "bewitchment", "enchantment", "incantation", "occultism", "sorcery", "spell", "voodoo", "witchcraft", "wizardry", "medium - channel", "clairvoyant", "spiritualist", "psychic", "horoscopes". The world of Esau is made up of these things - a vast lawless world - a world of illusion.

To stop this, the Scriptures are full of prohibitions forbidding us to delve into these subjects. To us who are made in the image of the WORD which is Law - "two plus two equals to four". The world of Esau is the opposite. "Two plus two" can equal to three or five. Esau is a child of lawlessness - a world of deception, deceit, and misdirection. It is with reason that the WORD very carefully warns us:

> "There shall not be found among you any one ... that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer." Deut 18:10-11

If you are seduced - you pass from the Lawful world of Jacob into the Lawless world of Esau and become their slave. Only recently the wife of one of our presidents consulted familiar spirits and passed the information to her husband.

Law or Lawlessness - one or the other.

APOCRYPHA

The history of the children of Jacob from the time of their return from captivity to the coming of Jesus Christ is missing from today's Bible. It appears that it was universally censored from the Bible sometime in the 1830s.

The reason that the Apocrypha was censored, in my opinion, is that it reveals too much information about how to wage successful war against Esau.

It tells how Jacob survived captivity by moving into Europe - nearly a thousand years before Jesus; It tells of the successful Maccabean Wars of independence against overwhelming odds and it tells of the evils that come from the Children of Esau ruling over the Children of Jacob.

The single Book of Judith tells us that "Wine" destroys rulers; that the Law against "Eating With Strangers" protects our people; that the "Gods of the land" are governments whose laws violate the WORD; that "Omens" destroy; and that with God the WORD leading as their general, our nation's survival rests with its men who are obedient to the WORD.

And, it rests equally with our magnificient women - women like Judith.

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA from K.J.

Dear Mr. Hoskins:

A schoolbus painted white with a black driver came onto our property. When questioned as to why he was there he threatened to kill Hans. Hans phoned in the vehicle number to the police but was told that the black driver had lodged a complaint that Hans had threatened him with a firearm and had tried to kill him.

The next day a police van arrived full of black police looking for Hans. One of the black policemen who is my friend told me later that if Hans had been there they would have killed him and thrown his body down a mine shaft. We later learned that the black driver had stolen the bus and had been hiding it on our farm.

The latest is that a black used tools he got from an engineering shop and cut a hole in our security fence. Our Alsation started barking and kept him out. Blacks have become a curse and law enforcement and courts take their side. They act like they are invincible and can do what they like. Worse, they are supported by white renegades who hope their fawning attitude will save their lives, but are seen as soft touches by the blacks they help.

Blacks see dogs as the lowest form of life and maltreat them horribly. Not that they treat horses or other animals any better. In townships, horses used to cart coal get little food and water and are lashed and kicked and are bags of bones.

We now learn that Dan Roodt, who did so much to infiltrate and break up our nationalist HNP has a Jewish mother and grandmother. What he writes for "Die Afrikaner" is now very different.

The "Afrikaner Nasionalistiese Beweging" is growing slowly, but their meetings are well attended and their foundation is built on solid ground. I went to a meeting and hope to attend more.

The Dutch Reform Church is splitting. Some congregations have already moved away. A meeting of their church ministers took place in Bloemfontein a few weeks ago. The actions of the rest are despicable in times like this when Christianity has to fight to survive against the full might of communism.

Every day a new anti-White law is passed and anything which reminds them of Afrikaners is removed. Their masters teach them to hate us but at the same time they demand that we pay for their extravagant lifestyle.

As you know, Mbeki is a Xhosa. He is trying to install an all Xhosa government. He got the rumor started that Zuma, the deputy president, is corrupt. He did this to make him resign. It turns out that Zuma, a Zulu, is much more popular than ever before. The Zulus were livid the way their man has been treated and they think badly of the Xhosas. The person appointed in Zuma's position is a female Xhosa. It is only the Zulu king's weakness that keep them from having a go at the Xhosas. Siener van Rensbkurg saw a fight between black tribes in one of his visions.

All the blacks now openly worship demons and their forefather's spirits. Ambassadors from other African countries join them in these rituals. A funny thing is that they are like the Jews in some of their rituals. They let water drip from their hands and fingers after dipping them into a pool on the black hill in Pretoria, so that the demons can quietly depart from them in the drops of water.

We went down to see the Loeries yesterday and all is well with the children. Betzy took the two girls to see their mother. The new little 6 year old who came in last is adapting to a new way of life. Most of the children are away with volunteer holiday parents.

In answer to your question - the "Lorie" is a small bird in S. Africa. We call the children "our little Loeries" - "our little birds".

Most countries have electric pylons to transmit electricity. Here it is much more interesting. Blacks break off parts of the electric pylons to sell for scrap. Next, over goes the whole structure - and that too is soon gone. Telephone wires containing copper go the same way. They simply cut or burn off the insulation. No one thinks to stop the market by stopping the scrap metal dealers who buy the scrap.

Our country is being dismantled day by day.

Our best wishes, K.H.

Deut 23:2; "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; Gen 24:3,4;. Thurmond's mixed-breed daughter is attempting to join the United Daughters of the Confederacy "to explore her Southern heritage", and her son hopes to enter the Sons of the Confederate Veterans.

A beagle hunts, a border collie herds, the children of Esau cause dissension. You will find them on all sides of Lawless disputes. Esau creates strife to grind the rock of the Law to dust so that Jacob can be destroyed.

BARABBAS & Sons Of The Devil

Rome

Rome was a commercial hub of the International Trade Cartel. Everything revolved around trade, including buying and selling loot seized by her armies. Everything had a price and was for sale - if you had the money. You could buy a mine, a mining company, a mining monopoly, a trade monopoly, a manufacturing monopoly, a tax-collecting monopoly, a religious monopoly. You could even rent the Roman army to invade a foreign nation. You could rape, pillage and loot the invaded victim for a set time period. This was all right. When the time period expired both the army and nation that had been conquered reverted to the Empire. Everything was for sale. This was Rome.

Rome sent administrators to rule her provinces. It was a plum job much sought after. These Roman administrators supervised local administrators who were supposed to attend to local problems. Everything was cushy as long as the Roman administrator didn't do anything stupid causing strife that interfered with trade. Naturally, Roman administrators always tried to get along with local bosses. When local bosses asked the Roman governor for a favor - that wouldn't hurt Roman interests - they usually got what they wanted.

The local bosses were well aware that they could make a Roman governor look bad - a little civil disobedience could make him look bad to the authorities back home. Of course, too much civil disobedience brought down the Roman iron fist. No one wanted that. It had to be the right balance.

Pardoning Prisoners

One way the Roman governors used to win the approval of the people they ruled was to pardon a political prisoner each year.

In Palestine, there were two popular individuals in prison. One was named Barabbas, the other Jesus. The Roman governor was inclined to release Jesus. He seemed harmless enough.

The Jesus Affair

The local preachers didn't agree. They accused Jesus of blasphemy. Getting mixed up in religion was something that Romans really didn't like to do. Jesus' actual crime was teaching the old nationalistic Laws, Statutes and Judgments of the WORD - the separatist God of Israel. These Laws taught that the land is to be divided and never sold - monopolies, taxes, kings, and usury are forbidden - and no strangers are to rule over man. These Laws, which Jesus' followers had every intention of enforcing when they came into power, would put the preachers out of business. It would also put Rome out of business. But, the preachers were looking after their own interests first.

The Subversive Religion

Preachers, accused of violating the WORD, looked on those accusing them as incendiary, revolutionary, and subversive to local rule - as well as Roman rule. But, Jesus, the one accused, was tricky and hard to pin down. He taught in parables so that those who didn't know the LAW couldn't understand the true meaning and use it to accuse him.

> "Know ye not, brethren, for I speak to them that know the law." Ro 7:1

This parable business made it hard to legally charge Jesus with treason because the WORD in parable meant one thing to those who followed the WORD and something else to those who followed other Gods. And, if he were charged with blasphemy, it would raise eyebrows back in Rome because Rome was a univeral trade operation - for the sake of business it tolerated all religions - as long as they recognized that the Emperor and his courts were the final arbiter of catfights between separate Gods and their laws. Or, putting it differ-ently, the Emperor was "God of the Land", and that meant that he ruled "God the WORD" along with all the other Gods, and he changed their laws to help Rome's business.

The Barabbas Affair

The Barabbas affair seemed cut and dried. Barabbas had been caught red-handed making a short lived war against Rome in an effort to regain Israelite independence. In the process his followers had been killed and he sat in prison awaiting execution. There were all sorts of stories circulated about him - almost none of them true.

This is the official story:

> "The governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner. ... Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? For he knew that for envy they had delivered him. ... But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus." Matt 27:15-20

The above quote is loaded. There is more. The following comes from Philochristus, Chapter 13:pp.24, p.129.

> "Now Barabbas spake with something of austerity ... Therefore I asked him again where he had been of late, and why he had forsaken the disciples. But he answered with still more of passion than before, 'Because I am weary of these idle wanderings about Galilee, which bring forth no fruit. Not to sit on stools at the feet of a Scribe did I and my friends join ourselves to Jesus of Nazareth. Why tarrieth he so long idle? Why is his hand so backward to smite the oppressor? But I bade him be of good cheer, for the hour was not yet come, and Jesus would know better than we the season fit for our uprising."[1]

This puts a different light on things. Barabbas had listened to the nationalist talk of Jesus and had grown impatient. Jesus' strategy was to re-teach an entire people who had forgotten the WORD so that they could bring in the Kingdom. Barabbas plan was to do the same - but get results right NOW. He broke off learning how and did what he considered was his patriotic duty that had worked so often in Israel's past. But, his attempt resulted in inflicting a mosquito bite on the vast Roman Empire, getting his followers killed and himself in prison awaiting execution. Good intentions. Bad timing.

Who Condemned Jesus?

Rome's law system was pretty much helpless to deal with Jesus and his parables, but local law systems weren't. The Scripture told in advance who it would be that would condemn Jesus to death:

> "The Son of Man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death." Mark 10:33

All the weasel words in the world won't change the words of Jesus - it was the chief priests and scribes who persuaded the multitude that they should ask to free Barabbas, and kill Jesus.

1 "Scribes" means lawyers - they argue the law of their masters; "Pharisees" mean preachers. Some writers consider Jesus to be both.

Why Kill Jesus?

The preachers wanted Jesus dead. He was "The WORD made flesh", They wanted him dead for a very good reason.

> "Jesus ... found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money ... he drove them all out of the temple .... and poured out the changer's money, and overthrew the tables." John 2:13-17

The preachers had been using religion to conceal their other businesses, and Jesus, "The WORD made flesh", had gone in, blown their cover, and departed before they could kill him.[2]

He left, but he told everybody about the preachers who refused to follow The WORD - what sort they were:

> "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is not truth in him." John 8:47

Preachers don't like people talking about them like that. But, Jesus wasn't the first to point his finger at the professional preacher caste. Their secret operation had been uncovered long before the time of Jesus:

> "Moses commanded the Levites ... saying, Take this book of the Law, and put it in the side of the Ark of the Covenant of Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee. ... behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death." Deut 31: 25-27

2 "(And Jesus) went out of the temple, going through the midst of them." John 8:59

Moses set the standard to judge preachers. The WORD itself judges. Its Laws, Statutes and Judgments determine whether preachers are obedient to the WORD, the God of Israel, or obedient to other Gods.

Jesus' Strong Words

Jesus named those who pretended to follow the WORD but who actually followed other Gods. He called them "devils". He said "Ye are of your father the devil!" If their father was the "devil" - Lawless preachers are descended from the devil and are also "DEVILS". Jesus himself said it. He said that they would follow "The lusts of your father!"

It's my guess that the preachers of Jesus' day were doing the same things they are guilty of doing now - pedofilia, adultery, and sodomy. Let's throw in "usury" for good measure.

The papers are full of recent reports of Lawless preachers violating children, stealing parishioners' wives, sodomizing each other and everyone else they can get their hands on, and, who has forgotten the "Vatican Bank", or the '70s rash of Swiss bank defaults whose owner was the Vatican, or the Barings Bank debacle where the Queen, the head of the Anglican Church, was discovered to be an owner. Who can forget that churches all over America sell church bonds to their own parishioners - making them guilty of the crime of usury and subject to the penalty that accompanies the practice of usury.[3]

In case it hasn't registered yet:

3 "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13. Usury is a fraud. It is lending 10 units when only 10 units of the thing lent are in existence - and requiring the repayment of 11 of those same units, or forfeiture of pledged assets. Deu 23:20

> "The chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death ... Let him be crucified ... His blood be on us, and on our children." Matt. 27:1, 22-25

It was the Lawless preachers and the elders who accepted the blame for killing Jesus, the "Word made flesh". They even asked that the blame be placed on them, the preachers - "His blood be on us, and on our children."

"Our Children" refers to those who follow in their steps - today's preachers and elders - the ones who wink at pedofilia, sodomy and usury, or, with their silence, give their approval to these practices.[4] The descendants of the ones who persecuted Jesus in his day are the ones persecuting the "WORD made flesh" today. That's why the vast majority of today's preachers make no effort to get their congregations to study the Scriptures. And, when they themselves quote Scripture, they read pretty parables that are meaningless without the Laws, Statutes and Judgments to explain them - which creates a void that is quickly filled by the speakers own opinion - making his opinion equal to God's opinion.

Jesus Passes Judgment

Jesus said Lawless preachers were devils. This is what else he said:

> "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye ... have omitted the weightier [matters] of the law." Mt 23:23

4 "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17.

"Upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth." Mt 23:35

All the righteous blood? Does this mean that all the wars fought because man[5] didn't know that he was forbidden to raise his hands against man,[6] and all the wars that have been fought because the usury system destroyed the economies of countries, and all the people who have starved in the midst of plenty because they didn't know to divide the land on which to raise sustenance,[7] and all the lands and men lost because our people didn't know we are to have no strangers in our midst,[8] that all the tens and hundreds of millions of deaths and oceans of blood - all this will be laid on the heads of those that Jesus called "devils" - those preachers who absolutely, positively, adamantly REFUSE to teach the Commandments of the "WORD which is God" that would have prevented the world's on-going holocaust.

That's what it says.

God's WORD Speaks To Us

The "WORD made flesh" speaks directly to us and warns us - and all who follow the false teachings of Lawless priests who proclaim that the king is the "God of the land" instead of "God the WORD":

5 (MAN - Heb: adam - those that blush rosy, Strong's Concordance

6 "Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel." I Kings 12:24

7 "The land shall be divided." Num 26:53

8 "When they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3; "And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers (5236 ne^ka^r - strange, alien)." Neh 9:2; "So shall we be separated ... from all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Ex 33:16; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33.

"For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the Kingdom of Heaven." Matt 5:20; Matt 21:31; "The publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you." Matt 21:31

"Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?" Matt 23:33

True Priests

Jesus exposed Lawless priests as serpents and vipers. Jesus revealed who his true priests are and where His temple is:

"Jesus Christ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5-6; "The Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands." Acts 7:48; "Your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own." 1 Co 6:19.

Jesus the Christ said that YOU are to be his priests and his kings.

There remains today a handful of preachers who teach the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of the WORD, but they are remarkable in their rarity. In my opinion, nine out of ten of the professionals are sons of their father and Jesus said that their father was the "Devil".

Blame The Jews

These - whom Jesus calls "devils" - have long kept justice from falling on their heads by the simple process of pointing the finger of guilt at someone else. They pointed to the people who today call themselves Jews. Afraid that they themselves would be disbelieved, they instructed their followers to it for them. "Blame the Jews!"

There are several reason this won't fly. The Scriptures say "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1. Today's Jews themselves say that they aren't adam-man. They claim to be a mixture of adam-man and non-man, and the WORD says, "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2. The Book is either about adam- man or it isn't. It is either true or it isn't.

The Jewish Enclyclopedia says that the ancestors of most of today's Jews are 8th-Century Khazar-Turk converts to Judaism. Their ancestors never set foot in Judea until recently. Their ancestors couldn't have crucified Jesus because they weren't there. Scriptures aren't talking about them. The WORD says that these aliens aren't even supposed to be in our lands for us to talk about.

Beware Right-Wing Garbage

Beware being side-tracked by so-called "patriots" who do nothing but follow their master's instructions and do nothing but enumerate the evils committed by today's Jews. Jews don't follow God the WORD, they follow their own God, and this God uses Kol Nidre which permits them to do what they do. If you know a professional "Christian" preacher, ask him to explain Kol Nidre to you. If he refuses, or pleads stupidity, you've got him! Everyone knows what that is - it's all over the internet - and he's supposed to be the professional who knows these things - and teach us!

Notice how Jew-accusers never disclose their own "Law System" - the one they they themselves follow. This confirms the suspicion that they are following orders from a source other than the WORD. Since Genesis says "This is the book of the generations of adam", it seems probable that the "masters" who instruct their mindless followers are also among those that Jesus identified as "DEVILS":

> "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan." Re 2:9; "Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet." Re 3:9

If all those who call themselves "Jews" today were sent to Khazaria, Palestine, or Antarctica - the Western establishment's priesthood which advertises itself as "Christian", would quickly get someone else to operate their usury banks, their corporations, businesses and foundations - take the blame for the evils they are constantly doing. This done, things would continue as before with hardly a ripple.

Why do I say this? Because Jews at one time or another have been banished from almost every country in Europe and all the evils of the age that had been blamed on them continued without let-up during their absence.

Do I think today's Jews are dangerous? Of course. The WORD says that all strangers in our midst are dangerous. But the only reason they are here is because the ones Jesus calls Sons-of-Devils who stand in the pulpits of the nation conceal the WORD that banishes all strangers.

I don't think that "Jews" are nearly as dangerous as the ones both Moses and Jesus pointed to as "devils". They are the most dangerous ones because they have taught adam-man to look for the LITTLE anti-christ to keep man from discovering the BIG anti-christ - themselves.

The Devils

Down through the ages those whom Jesus called "devils" have behaved like chameleons. Exposed for what they are, they change into something else having another name, and continue to deceive.

First called "Pharisees", then "Paulicans"[9], next "Catholic", then "Protestant", and now Episcopal, Methodist, Baptist and all the rest - they have different names and different rituals, but all have one thing in common; while making the motions - they WILL NOT teach the "WORD which is God". If they did - it would result in "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on Earth."

Kingdom arriving on earth would be an unmitagated catastrophe for them. If the WORD that is already in men's hearts were confirmed by the WORD heard by their ears - those made in the image of the WORD would instantly destroy the children of the devil in their midst and end their age-old operation.

Man vs Kali-Age

In spite of the devils, the WORD lives. Because the WORD lives, the man the WORD created lives, and because the man lives, the Kaliyuga (Age of Kali) cannot destroy the world. But, they try continuously. There are hundreds of millions who pray daily for man's extinction.

9 See: "In The Beginning", Hoskins

KALI

Kali - Siva's black incarnation of death - stands aganst a background of fire as the world is being consumed; a necklace of bloody heads about her neck, a severed head in her hand, a sword in another hand and one hand pointing at the conquered White Devil she stands upon. Note the rosary prayer necklace, the musical drum of pleasure in the dead white devil's hand, and the serpents of deception that caused his death emerging from his vanquished corpse.

In ancient times white Siva was god of the Aryan north and black Kali was god of the blacks in the Dravidian south.

Kaliyuga

The Hindu Piranhas teach: Apocalypse for the Hindu is the natural ending of the world in the fourth age, the present Kali Age.

Kali is the central figure - the Destroyer God. Life on earth must be destroyed before Vishnu can bring in the new "Kalki Age" - the age of peace - the Kalkiyuga.

Kamikaze and Banzi attacks, Bataan Death Marches, suicide freedom- fighters, subway poison gas, the Jones mass suicides, the daily attacks by the colored races of the world on Whites - these aren't accidents. It's the instinctive attempts of followers of the death-god to destroy the creation of God the WORD - MAN.

The massive nuclear and germ warfare stockpiles wait for the right time. Before Kali can reach final victory and destroy all life on earth - the one devil left on earth that stands in her way to prevent it must be destroyed.

Kali is always pictured standing on the body of this - her greatest enemy - the body of the WHITE DEVIL. This White Devil is YOU! The son-of- Isaac, Isaacs-son, the Saxon. The WORD of the Saxon stands in the way of Kali's long-planned and desperately wished for Apocalypse. Both the WORD and its Saxon creation must be exterminated from the face of the Earth before this can happen.

When this obstacle is removed, the Age of Kali can come to an end with the destruction of all life on earth - then the Kalki Age of Peace can be born - but only when MAN is exterminated.

Why Barabbas?

Long ago the Chief Priests and Elders - the ones Jesus called "devils" - instructed their followers to ask for the release of Barabbas and to kill Jesus.

Barabbas fought Rome. Jesus also fought Rome but he openly fought the Priests whose activities he disclosed as being of the DEVIL and whom he identified as the devil's children whose activities would destroy man. The priests were responsible for nailing "The WORD made flesh" to the cross then. The priests are responsible for nailing "The WORD made flesh" to the cross now. Because Christ the WORD lives - Kaliyuga remains a dead-man's dream.

They will succeed no better today than they did then. There are too many of us whom the WORD appointed to be his priests.

"Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, On Earth!"

To them the above words are ritual. To us, they are a foregone conclusion. The WORD our God is being pried out of the cold dead hands of those who love death - the ones Jesus identified as the Children of the Devil - and when that happens, God's kingdom WILL come on earth!

LETTERS

OFFSHORE JOBS: I correspond regularly with family and friends from NY to California, and read research widely. I can state positively that those "hiring now" signs mean nothing except minimum wage, heavy labor, or extremely specialized work requiring extremely specialized advanced degrees.

Everything else - even vital work like medical transcription - is being outsourced to third-world countries. Even with an advanced degree I have spent three futile years seeking employment after finding I could not live on the fixed income of early retirement. No labor boom exits for the average US citizen. Chapter 373

THE UNFORGIVABLE SIN

Sin

What is "sin"?

"Sin is lawlessness." I John 3:4-5; "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law." 1 Jo 3:4

There are two kinds of sins.

You may be able to repent from one kind - a "nasty disposition", "telling a lie", or "kicking your dog", but you don't repent from the "Unforgivable Sin". The "Unforgivable Sin" is unforgivable because it kills you. You can't repent if you are dead.

The Unforgivable Sin

Following is a simple first century explanation of the "Unforgivable Sin":

> "Now if thou closeth thy mouth and thy nostrils against the winds of heaven and sayest, 'The air is as poison to me, I will not breathe it,' behold thou perishest." Philochristus 13:20-21

In plain English: Stop breathing and see what happens!

Try it. Regardless of your good intentions - if you stop breathing so you won't smell bad air that stinks - you die. It is an unforgivable sin. The result of being dead outweighs the benefit you get from not smelling bad air. You won't smell the bad air because you are dead.

Gravity

Another example is the Law of Gravity. It was in existence before the earth was created. It really doesn't matter whether or not you believe in gravity - step off an 18th story building and gravity will kill you. Think anything you want - you are dead. Your mistake of going to war with gravity is an "unforgivable sin".

God the WORD is long suffering. However, the Law is the Law. Break God's Law and there will be consequences. Even violating the minor Laws often turns out serious. The LAW is there for a reason! Better believe it.

Tests

Teachers prepare students for tests by reviewing the material they need to know.

Adam-Man prepares for life's tests by studying the answers to problems he will encounter. The answers to these problems are contained in the WORD which has been compiled over the ages by man's ancestors and has proved itself to answer the problems man is certain to encounter.

Scripture is man's record of past "dos" and "don'ts" with examples; What works and what doesn't. What benefits - and what kills.

The easiest solution to problem solving is to use answers history has proven to be right. By so doing, your chance of survival increases tremendously.

Simply: Obey and live; disobey and die.

Dikes & Levees

New Orleans is built below sea level. The Law allows this - as long as the other Laws involved are observed. Our kinsmen in the Netherlands do it and live on lands reclaimed from the sea. It works for them.

To add protection from storm-caused water-surges they subdivide the country with dikes so that if one part floods - other parts remain safe. Logical. Adam-man created in the image of the WORD properly using God's Laws contained in the WORD accomplish seeming miracles. They do it all the time and think nothing of it.

Strangers Ruling

New Orleans is different. It now has a stranger for mayor to rule the city. The WORD forbids strangers to rule over man. This stranger said that the lack of hurricane preparation wasn't his fault. Its was the state's fault and what wasn't their fault was the fault of the feds.

When the complaint was made to the police chief, who is also a stranger, that the police officers in his charge, who are strangers also, were looting along with everyone else and were all driving brand new cars they had looted - his angry retort was that his police officers had saved those new cars from the looters and that they should be praised for their help.

Strangers committed most of the rape, looting, burning. The excuses that we have heard are the usual ones that accompany the lawlessness of strangers. It is the same the world over. This conduct is one reason for the LAW which states;

> "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

It's the Law. When strangers rule man, sooner or later they will force man to worship (obey) the stranger's God. If he doesn't, they will kill him. If he does, his own God will kill him. There has never been an exception to this Law prohibiting a stranger from ruling over man. It is an Unforgivable Sin.

Contact With Strangers

Being ruled by strangers isn't the only unforgivable sin. Man doesn't have to be ruled by strangers. He merely has to be in contact with them.

> "They were mingled among the heathen and learned their works." Ps 106:35; "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31-33

The lands ruled by strangers exist in what to man is a state of complete, unmitigated, chaotic Lawlessness. What appears to be "order" is in fact ever-changing, arbitrary tyranny. Under their rule things that should be done are not. Things that shouldn't be done are.

The profitable "fun and games" of the "Big Easy" were promoted while her dikes stood neglected. Similar conditions exist whereever strangers rule.

Man-built American cities have now been taken over by large alien populations. All of them are cesspools of crime, rape, murder, filth and disease. The larger the alien population - the more the Lawlessness.

If strangers are permitted to destroy man's habitat so that man dies - it is a violation of the Law and is an "Unforgivable Sin.

Economic Necessity

Usury is when you lend $10 and require the repayment of $11 when only $10 is in existence. It can't be done. It is unLawful - and it causes problems:

> "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13.

Paying usury-money (interest) back to the banks siphons off the floating supply of money causing a shortage. If more money is not borrowed into existence - money disappears - as has happened several times in America's past. The result is mass bankruptcy because there is no money in circulation with which to pay one's debts. Without new money being borrowed into existence the economy collapses into a depression regardless of consumer demand, need, or pretty words. Because of "usury" - war is necessary to force borrowing money into existence.

The Vietnam war cost 50,000 American and some 2 million Vietnamese lives. The good part - $200 billion was borrowed into existence which gave people money to pay their mortgages and saved the American economy from falling into another deep depresssion. For those 50,000 American lives that were lost - the war caused by the violation of the Law against usury was an Unforgivable Sin.

The Invasion of Iraq has cost 2,000 American and unknown thousands of Iraqi casualties. The good part - it has forced Congress to borrow into existence another $200 billion dollars. This keeps America out of depression for another period. For those who died to produce this "blessing" - the violation of the Law against usury was an Unforgivable Sin.

The N. Orleans disaster is a double blessing. With the Iraq War winding down - and no good war on the horizon to take its place - we see Congress stumbling over itself promising money to rebuild "Sin City". Thus far the figure spoken of has reached still another $200 billion. It will be a temporary lifesaver to Americans needing money to pay their usury debts. To those crushed by the resulting taxes, and usury created mountains of debts, and to men, women and children who have died unnecessarily to force money to be borrowed into existence to pay usury contracts - usury is an unforgivable sin.

Farmer

The Saxon self-sufficient farmer has been destroyed by produce from alien corporate farms sold below production costs.

> "If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel." I Tim 5:

It is an unforgivable sin.

Depleted Uranium

Out of a total of 580,400 soldiers who served in Gulf War I, 325,000 of these troops are disabled by year 2000. Depleted Uranium (DU) distributed by shells, bullets and bombs is largely to blame. There is no known treatment for such casualties. (DU) is a permanent terrain contaminant. Estimates suggest that the damaged soil in Iraq, Yugoslavia and Afghanistan will need centuries to recover from contamination. God created man and appointed him to rule. He has ruled God's land badly.

> "But if ye will not... do all these commandments... I will... bring the land into desolation..." Lev 26:14-35.

This is an unforgivable sin.

Growth Hormones

Man allows animals to be fed growth hormones. They rapidly grow big and fat. Man eats hormone-fed animals grown big and fat and himself grows big and fat; many of his daughters start their periods at age nine. It couldn't be good or the enemy wouldn't provide it for us.

> "Your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own." 1 Co 6:19

It not an accident that man is fed growth hormones. He is being made abnormal in size and weight with side-effects yet to be measured. We do know that "man", the Hindu's "white devil", must die if the world is be destroyed so that their New Age of Goodness can be born. It is logical that Kali followers open "Organic Food Stores" for their own to avoid the chemical and hormone laced food their corporations have provided for man. For those men being destroyed it is an Unforgivable Sin.

Flood

Hindus believe that the present evil world will end in a massive flood and what life is left will be destroyed in an appoclypse. Non-Hindus believe that poor dikes and government delays in providing aid are accidental. For men who needlessly died it was an unforgivable sin.

Black Men / White Women

> "If you ... gain a victory over (Adam-man) ... Set out the handsomest ... of your (men) ... then ... send them to be near the Israelites ... and when (their women) are enamored of them. ... persuade them to leave off their obedience to their own laws ... for by this means their God will be angry. By making use of (this stratagem) our enemies had well-nigh corrupted the whole multitude of the Hebrews with their wiles." Antiquities 4:6:6-13.

Practically every ad on TV includes a black male with a white woman. This is to accustom viewers to seeing black males with white women. The intent is to make man forget the Law of the God who made him. It is nothing new. The intent is to destroy man which is an unforgivable sin.[1]

God's And Their Laws

There is a word that reveals nothing. That word is "GOD".

"GOD" is a generic name covering all Gods. Each God has his own specific law-system and beliefs.

This is why Gods have names. The names of these Gods signify the law system that the specific God spoken of demands that his followers obey.

When one says that he believes in "God" - he is saying that he believes in the law-system of a specific God which he has not named.

Until a person names the GOD he follows - one has no idea what law system that person follows - how he might act or what he might do.

When that person names his god - you had better know the laws of that god so that you will know what you are dealing with.

To choose to obey the wrong God in the mistaken belief that all Gods are the same is an unforgivable sin!

The Simple Fact

It is simple to understand that if one chooses to stop breathing he dies. The act is unforgivable - an "unforgivable sin". There is something else that is even more important because it can't be seen by just anyone.

1 This universal ad campaign reveals the single ownership of all corporations.

The violation of ANY of God's Laws can destroy man - it may take longer. In either case one is dead. "Enter in at the narrow gate, for wide is the way that leads to destruction."

Allow the *Unforgivable Sin" t*o occur and you may be included in the fallout. You will die because an Unforgivable Sin is Unforgivable.

REALITY

The ITC owns the world's great corporations or controls them through loans from its usury banks. The great corpor-tions rule the world and they do what they like with their property.

The ongoing Rhodesian and S. African conquest follows an age-old strategy. First, flood a country with aliens, Next, transfer rule to them, and Third, have them banish or kill Adam-man.

This is the reason for the U.S. "open borders". Next, they will replace Saxon employees with strangers. They can do that - they own the corporations. Finally, they intend to consign unemployed, penniless and degraded Saxons to the ash heap of world history.

It is a race between man's obedience to the WORD and death. Man is beginning to look in his operating manual to see what he is supposed to do. Corporate media says he can't do that. Scripture says that the WORD will win and man will be saved.

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA BY H.K.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: AIDS has now infected 1 of 3 blacks.

Spring in on the way but lack of rain remains a problem. The Limpopo River is dry and white farmers feed the starving hippopotami food which they have to buy. That area has had no rain for three years. These huge wild animals are so desperately hungry they come when farmers call them. Blacks on the farm behind us put up snares to catch them and then fasten them to boundary fences. Hans rescued a few. Blacks and the other races treat animals horribly.

In the Jewish industries, blacks are promoted and whites demoted. Whites are told to train blacks and then the white is dismissed and the black has his job.

Since blacks came to power they have neglected managing the economy of the country. The result is that we sit with constant power failures and not enough water in the cities although the nearby Orange River can provide both.

Our president Mbeki took much of the money we had and gave it to the nextdoor tyrant Mugabe, who has increased his personal fortune to be larger than that of the rest of his country. The abused Zimbabwe blacks are flooding into S. Africa. I feel nothing for them. They could have removed Mugabe long ago by force. Instead they run away and cross the border to become another burden to S. Africa. Of all the the foreign blacks the Zimbabwians and Mozambians are the worst. They will not work as long as they can get what they need handed to them. After that they resort to robbery and murder rather than work.

The Catholic presence is becoming visible as is their method of operation. I never remember seeing one before. All of a sudden we learn that Mugabe is a Catholic and Mandella was observed taking mass at a Catholic Church. He was visited by the leader of N. Ireland's Catholic revolutionary IRA. Black leaders are trained in their schools. The Jesuits are active.

The new HNP sold their old headquarters and moved to the former Italian Club. They say they got rid of the Afrikaner National Movement rubbish - meaning us. We are the rubbish.

The nearby Abraham Kriel-Maria Kloppers Orphanage is about to close. They thought the state would support them if they took in blacks. They did, but the state didn't help them. Those homes were started just after the Anglo-Boer War for white Afrikans orphans and they did well until the last few years. Now I see mostly dark faces and these black children already get a state subsidy which no white child receives.

Thank your readers again for all they are doing to help our children.

With our best wishes, Hans and Johanna

Bush Visits U.S. Occupied Germany

The following comes from a letter to Dave Barley's America's Promise Newsletter, POB 157, Sandpoint ID 83864, concerning President George Bush's visit to Frankfurt, Germany.

"Today we had President Bush's 8-hour visit ... it was sort of a martial law never before experienced.

Around the cities of Mainz, Wiesbaden and some parts of Frankfurt all autobahns and some roads were closed to traffic. Cars parked on streets and lots had to be moved or towed away. Underground and high-rise parking garages were locked and sealed. All private garages and storehouses had to be locked.

People were forbidden to leave their homes. Windows had to remain closed and one could not step out on balconies. Supermarkets, stores and workplaces had to remain closed because workers could not reach their place of business. Even the Riuesselheim, home of the Opel Manufacturing remained closed because 5000 workers found the roads to the plant blocked.

Our government guards are to announce the costs. A 'political meeting' of such magnitude is unusual.

Shipping on the Rhine and Main Rivers was prohibited - the loss of revenue on these two rivers alone is considerable. The flight traffic to and from Frankfurt was halted for several hours. Normally a plane lands or departs every minute. Sixteen-thousand police and CIA men from the US were posted. Trains were not permitted to run in the vicinity of Bush's motor routes, resulting in a 2-hour train-traffic delay all over Germany. Heavy trucks will reach their destination with a one day delay.

The costs of all this has yet to be calculated. All Germany will be happy and relieved when this is over. (Website:am-prom.org)

OTHER GODS: The premier of Ontario, Canada said he won't allow the Muslims in Ontario to use Islamic law to settle their disputes.

Ontario is the most populous province in Canada. Since 1991 it has allowed Catholic and Jewish faith-based tribunals to settle their affairs with their own law systems. The practice got little attention until Muslim leaders demanded the same right. Ontario officials had to allow this or abolish the existing religious law courts altogether.

They chose to abolish them. The premier said, "There will be one law for all Ontarians" - the "Law of the Land" - of which he and his judges are its priests and guardians. In this case, the "cat- fight" is between local Gods and the "God of the Land" who could see his authority slipping away.[2]

VATICAN CITY: Pope Benedict XVI's lawyers have asked President Bush to declare the pontiff immune from liability in a lawsuit that accuses him of conspiring to cover up the molestation of three boys by a seminarian in Texas in the 1990s. The reason? He is a head of state.

RKH: This article in the Lynchburg News & Advance about the Pope's immunity because he is "Head of State" raises several issues: 1) There is this ongoing reluctance by the Vatican to deal with sodomites among its clergy. This is doubtless one reason whites are leaving the Church en masse and are being quickly replaced by Hispanics who now number 40% and are estimated to soon be the majority. 2) The confirmation of Roberts as a Supreme Court justice will give the Pope, head of a foreign state, four Catholic subjects who look to him as their ultimate ruler on law since all law is based on religion. These four plus the Court's 3 Jews - a people traditionally surrogates of the Catholic Church who manage many Church assets including its banks - give a solid majority of seven. Only time will tell who will be the actual president of the US - Benedict or Bush - and which law system this court will force on the American people: a) Vatican Canon Law; b) Jewish Talmudic Law; c. ITC Universal Trade Law; or d) the usual combination resulting in the constantly evolving law of the God of the Land.

The Law of God the Word is not in the running since it has no one who is not already committed to another law system.

BRITAIN'S RULE: "British brought Indians to Sri Lanka. The British Empire practiced 'divide and rule'. Where there was no 'divide' they deliberately created one; Indians to Sri Lanka, Fiji, Malaya and Uganda. Chinese to Australia and Malaya. The British ruled Sudan. There has been a Muslim-Christian civil war for 35 years. Britain ruled Nigeria. There has been Muslim- Christian conflict since 1967. In British Cyprus they made the 15% Turk population the police, incurring wrath of the 85% Greek population seeking independence or unity with Greece. Cyprus split in 1974.

Britain ruled Palestine 1917-48. A direct result is 55 years of bloodshed. Many praise the British Empire. It survived 500 years through setting rival races, religions and classes at each others' throats. Both sides would appeal to the British as 'unbiased adjudicators'. A joke but it worked for 500 years." (Nationalist & InterNationalist News Service, POB 635, Strathpine Post Shop, Qld 4500, Australia)

RKH: There is black/white antagonism warfare in the US because Britain refused to allow the banning of the importation of black slaves. The last thing a ruling government wants is for contending races to agree peacefully to separate.

Chapter 374

WORSHIP WITH STRANGERS

Thomas Road Baptist Church

The NAACP sent agitators to "integrate" Thomas Road Baptist Church. No sooner had they set foot inside the sanctuary than the church elders grabbed them by the scruffs of their necks and seats of their pants and threw them down head over teacup down the front steps.

Thomas Road has since learned the error of its ways and now welcomes strangers. In fact, a contrite Thomas Road even sent buses into the inner city to bring hundreds of the strangers' children to its Sunday Schools. This stopped when the strangers urinated in the halls, wrote on the walls, and all but demolished the Sunday Schools. Still, there have been interracial weddings in the main sanctuary. Today, Thomas Road is acceptably "politically correct" .

The Quandary

By switching allegiance from the Law of the "God of Jacob" to the law of the "God of Esau" - Thomas Road was just following the leadership of the state. When a church rejects its God to follow state law - it becomes a "state church".

That aside, which of these two courses was the correct one - refusing admittance to strangers - or admitting them?

Magic In Egypt

Worship of strange Gods takes many forms. The WORD tells us with parables and examples.

Moses was confronted by Pharaoh's priests who used magic. Moses bested their magic and led the Children of Israel out of Egypt.

Egyptians and many of the captive children of Israel believed in the magic of the Egyptian priests. If one accepts one act of magic he may accept the next. If he accepts the next he will certainly accept the third and become a follower and servant of the magician.

Egyptian priests could throw their staffs down on the ground and they would turn into serpents. Israelite belief in Egyptian magic allowed Egyptians to capture their minds. This achieved, the magician-deceivers could make the captive Children of Israel believe whatever was in the Egyptian king's interest. Israelites were captives mentally as well as physically, just as the native Egyptians. Until Moses, Both worshiped the Gods of Egypt as revealed to them by Egypt's magicians.

The technique is the same today. Step by step it goes this way:

Scriptures say, "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of man and stole their minds." Jasher 28:20; We know Esau said; "I will kill my brother Jacob."

We know that the children of Esau control the media-monopoly. We know that Esau has hired sons of Jacob to work for them as announcers, actors, reporters and politicians. We know that servants obey their masters.

Since "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of man and stole their minds", we know that every news story, every sit-com, every word that comes from the mouths of those who work for the sons of Esau is meant to deceive and capture the mind of the viewer. Like Priests of Egypt who long ago made captives by changing their staffs into serpents - Esau today's steals the minds of the sons of Jacob and makes them captive.

If we believe their words to be true and act upon them, or follow their false teachings because we know nothing else - we unknowingly worship with them and return to Egyptian captivity.[1]

To prevent this, God the WORD Commands:

> "There shall not be found among you any one ... that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer." Deut 18:10-11

Esau "hunted after the hearts of man and stole their minds". He was a deceiver, illusionist and magician; his children are made in the image of their father. Those children of Jacob who work for, or have allied themselves with Esau's children, do the will of Esau. When one consults horoscopes, fortune tellers or believes media opinion-crafters, he worships Esau's Gods.

Esau's Values

An announcer, a child of Esau, was shot in Denver in 1985. Over 150 FBI agents arrived to search for and apprehend the assailant. This illustrates the importance Esau attaches to the work of his mind-conditioning magicians and the lengths he will go to to protect what they are doing.

It is no accident that Hollywood, Broadway, and the media are monopolies of Esau. It is no accident that its magician hirelings can work a Washington gig as easily as Hollywood.

Those seduced by Esau's illusions worship Esau's Gods.

BALAK

After leaving Egypt and while in the wilderness, the Israelites came in contact with friendly aliens who beguiled them by making their women available to them. These women used sex to teach the Israelites to worship their alien Gods.

To prevent this, God the WORD teaches:

> "Know ye not that he which is joined to a harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh." I Cor 7:15-16.; "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their Gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31- 33

The Law concerning worship with strangers was posted so all could see:

> "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7 and 1:51.

This Law shows the importance God attaches to such conduct. It separates the obedient from the disobedient.[2] To cohabit with strangers is to abandon God the WORD and worship the God of Esau.

KINGS

Arriving in the land of Palestine; "The elders of Israel gathered ... and came to Samuel ... and said ... Give us a king"

This was the answer:

> "The Lord said ... the people ... have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. ... The manner of the king that shall reign over them. ... will take your sons (for his

---

2 In spite of the daily prayer "Thy 'kingdom' (government) come, Thy 'will' (Laws) be done, on Earth", God's Laws will be enforced on earth when his followers come into power. Until this time we are forced to *"Render unto Caesar the things that are caesars,"*or Esau and his agents will kill us. Esau has no intention of stepping aside.

army) ... And he will take your daughters ... And he will take your fields ... and give them to his servants.[3] And he will (tax you) ... and give to his officers." I Sam 8:11-18

Nevertheless they insisted and got the best king the land had to offer - King Saul. Saul was a disaster. Next, "One after God's own heart" - David the giant slayer, who, once he obtained power - changed. He became an adulterer and murderer. After him the "wise" Solomon with his alien wives - he was another disaster going somewhere to happen.

This parable of Israel having kings teaches that there is not one man on earth who can be trusted with the power of a king. A temporary leader for a specific crisis - yes. A king - no! This is why God the WORD made every child of Israel a king; "Jesus Christ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5-6., Of course, this is only possible with God the WORD ruling as the "King of Kings".

Remember, the Romans sent emissaries to negotiate with the Goth invaders; the well-organized Goths didn't know what a king was. Their highest title was "judge".[4] Also, remember the Viking's reply when asked who his king was - "We have no king for we are all kings!" Man is made in the image of his God. Each of us is a king.

As expected, when on the throne, Israel's king was tyrannical and caused the land to divide into Israel and Judah. Both then were made captive by aliens. Israel and most of Judah went briefly into captivity near the Caspian Sea and soon escaped through the Caucasian Mountains into Europe. A small portion of Judah was allowed to return to Palestine to rebuild their temple.

3 Few of us own our grandfather's fields. The "king" has taken and given them to his followers.

4 History Of the Goths, Herweg Wolfram, Univ Cal Press, Berkeley, 1988, p.94

God frowns on kings because man cannot be trusted with unlimited power.

SAMARITANS

Readers have read the History of the Samaritans - that when Israel was taken into captivity the king of Assyria brought in settlers - whom today we would call Arab-Turks (II Ki 17:6) - to occupy the vacant lands. Vacant lands produce no income.

These Arab-Turk settlers asked for and received a teacher of the departed Israelites who taught them the "Laws, Statutes, and Judgments" of the WORD.

These "Samaritan-aliens" with their new adopted God were in business by the time "Judah" came back from Babylon to rebuild the temple. The Scriptures say:

> "Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel; Then they came to ... the chief of the fathers, and said unto them. Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assur, which brought us up thither." Ezra 4:1-2

However, the Israelites of Judah had learned their lesson. Instead of welcoming these aliens who proclaimed that they worshiped the WORD - the Israelite fathers refused to worship with aliens:

> "The fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel." Ezra 4:3

God approved the decision:

> "I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria (aliens); they prophesied in Baal, ... and caused my people Israel to err." Jer 23:13

This should be the defining example for the thick-headed, rebellious, anti-christ preachers of today. Here we have two different peoples living next to each other - the Children of Jacob and the Children of Esau. Both proclaim that they worshiped the God of Israel. But the children of Israel had been burned time after time by fraternizing with the sons of Esau. This time they refused to accept the strangers because it would violate the Law and they would be forced to seize the aliens by the scruffs of their necks and seats of their pants and throw them down the front steps of the temple they were building. They were well aware of the severity of the Law:

> "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." No 18:7, No 1:51.

WARS OF THE MACCABEES

The history of these wars is found in the Apocrypha. This book was removed from the Bible in the 1830s because it interfered with Esau's long-range plan to do what they are doing to us today. They didn't want the opposition to Esau to receive the instruction provided by this book.

In short, on Alexander the Great's death, his empire was divided among his generals. Palestine fell under the rule of Syrian-Greeks who flooded the cities of Palestine with aliens to destroy the Israelites by mixing them with strangers;

> "Whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her, and her own children left her. I Maccabees 1: 11-63.

Anything about this sound familiar?

The old Law excluding strangers from the temple was being violated, the Law which all had observed even from the days of the Persians.[5]

To make matters worse the Syrian-Greeks, who had by now mixed with the sons of Esau, issued a proclamation:

> "King Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, And every one should leave his laws ... that they should follow the strange laws of the land ... To the end they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances. Yea, many also of the Israelites consented to his religion," I Maccabees 1:41-52."

In today's jargon - "They banished the Bible!" The new "law of the land" was the "God of the land". Such laws constitute a religion.

As a publicity stunt, a priest of this "state-religion" tried to get the patriarch of the "Maccabee family" to stand before a crowd and violate the WORD by making a sacrifice to another God. Pretending to obey, the patriarch in the act of sacrificing suddenly turned on the infidel priest and killed him.

> "But these enemies of mine, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27

The line was drawn and the die cast. He and his five sons left all they owned and fled into the wilderness. Slowly they

5 "The general of Artazerxes army ... as he was aiming to go into the temple, they forbade him to do so. Anti 11:7:1

gathered followers and emerged from the hills to attack the Greek-Syrian sons of Esau and their Israelite puppets. The revolt spread. There were many acts of deceit by the enemy and acts of heroism by the Maccabees. At last the aliens were defeated. The defenders had been few and their losses heavy. Only one of the five Maccabee sons was left alive.

Those who survived were hard-core believers who called themselves Pharisees.

HYRCANUS

A hero of the Maccabean Wars was Hyrcanus. Trading on his hero status and the Pharisee-zealot spirit of the times, he was accepted as the strong, wise one. He became a ruler of his fellows who had already forgotten the warning against Israel having a king other than the King of Kings.

Since the country had used the WORD as its Constitution - Hyrcanus was looked on as "high-priest". His decrees were accepted as interpretations of God's Law - and he could enforce them since he was also defacto-king. His own edicts modified the WORD and created a new "state-religion". Faith-led Pharisees gradually left the WORD to became followers of Hyrcanus' new state-religion. Among the few faithful, "Pharisee" then became a name of derision.

War

Tyrants love war. War cancels contracts. Martial law allows the victor to seize wealth of the vanquished under color of law. "The love of money is the root of all evil". Tyrants love war.

Adding Esau To Jacob

One of the first things Hyrcanus did was to invade the land of Esau-Idumea. He seized their wealth. He didn't drive them out as the WORD demands. Instead, he circumcised them, forced them to accept the Law, and in violation of the Law which states; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2. He decreed that henceforth these children of Esau were "Israelites". This was "state-law" - Hycanus had spoken!.

Israel-Judah now had both a forbidden king and forbidden aliens in their midst renamed "Israelites"

Herod the Edomite

Trouble was almost instantaneous. These hybrid Esau-Idumean-Israelites soon had their own Sadducee religious sect who controlled finances. They formed a caste of the rich. It wasn't much longer before Israel had an Esau-Edomite king. His name was Herod. His Herodian Party was powerful. This is what American Heritage Dictionary says about him:

> "HEROD Known as the Great. 73?-4 B.C.. King of Judea (40-4) who, according to the New Testament, attempted to kill the infant Jesus by ordering the death of all children under the age of two in Bethlehem."

Read that again:

Herod, the Esau-Idumean, tried to kill Jesus the "WORD made flesh" by killing the Israelite children. Esau is doing the same thing today with "abortion" and "miscegenation".

The Bible warns against the unholy coalition of Esau and Jacob:

> "Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod." Mark 8:15; "The Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him." Mark 3:6

Esau and Jacob have again joined forces today to fight Jesus, the "WORD made flesh". They do it for the same reason that they once before joined together to kill him.

The Encyclopedia Britannica, 14th Edition, Vol 5, p. 635, tells why:

"Very early, Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law, and faith was interpreted as obedience."

Hey! Hey! What are we talking about here?

We are talking about the Esau-Pharisee fear that Christians will implement the Lord's Prayer - the thing that all Christians say they want with all their hearts - the thing they pray for every Sunday:

"Thy kingdom come (God's government)
"Thy will be done (God's LAW enforced)
"On Earth as it is in Heaven."

If this terrible event comes to pass - today's Pharisees and their allied Herodians will be judged.

Personal Observation

I've been to many church conferences which met to teach the WORD, and never ever have I seen a judge of "state-law" there, and only once have I seen a lawyer.

Many religious buildings across the country bear the names of rich benefactors. In spite of this, I have never ever seen a rich man at a conference which met to teach the WORD. Neither have I ever seen a politician, unless it was one invited to speak.

And, I have seen many attempts to attract preachers - but the only ones who returned have been the same handful.

Why don't the others come? It's obvious!

The others pay lip service to the WORD while fighting tooth and nail against its implementation. They know what will happen to them when the WORD brings in the Kingdom.

Tomorrow

There is nothing new under the sun. The following letter may well preview the days ahead. I ran across it in The Library of Historic Characters and Famous Events, Philadelphia, Art- Library Pub Co, 1897. Vol 9, p. 37:

> "The Governor of Syria sent to inform Trajan (the Roman emperor) that an aged man had been arraigned before him on the charge of professing the Christian faith. To force the prisoner to abjure it, tortures were tried; but in vain. Ordered to crucifixion, he died with such constancy that the governor himself was astonished at the fortitude of his victim. The martyr was Simeon, the successor of St. James at Jerusalem....
> "Nor was this all ... Numerous arrests of course ensued. 'Of those accused,' continues Pliny, 'some denied that they were, or that they had been Christians. All joined with me in invoking the Gods, and in sacrificing with incense and wine before your statue (Like the Gods, Roman emperors made laws so they too were Gods), besides blaspheming Christ, I ordered to be discharged, inasmuch as they who are really Christians cannot, it is said, be compelled to do any such things. Others confessing that they had been Christians, but denying that they were so at this time, ... declared that this was the sum of their guilt or their error, whichever it might be called. ... I thought it necessary, however, to make sure of the facts in the case by putting two of their maidens, called ministers, to torture. But I discovered nothing besides a wicked and extravagant superstition." ...

The dispatch closes with a reference to the great numbers "of every age, rank, and sex" adhering to the new faith, "from which," concludes Pliny, "a multitude may be reclaimed, provided an opportunity for repentance is allowed." ...

"Trajan ... was content with moderate measures. "You have done as you ought," he writes of Pliny, ... Yet there is no single rule that can at all times be observed. They must not be sought out. But if they are accused and convicted, they must be punished. Whoever, on the other hand, shall deny that he is a Christian, and make this manifest by his deeds, or, in other words, by sacrificing to our Gods, he, although previously suspected, shall by his repentance obtain pardon."

Limits Of Roman Tolerance

Rome could come to terms with the "offenses" listed above. But, to survive it must war with the teaching of the WORD that would destroy Rome - things like prohibition of usury, dividing the land, abolition of monopoly, banishing aliens, outlawing taxes and the rest. Tolerating the Law system of the WORD meant the death of the Roman Empire.

As the Encyclopedia Britannica says and as the Romans believed:

"Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law, and faith was interpreted as obedience."

Revolutionaries must be allowed to convert back to the law of Rome or be crucified. There was a time when one died for asking "God's will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

"Bona Fides"

Remember the Maccabee who was given the opportunity to sacrifice to the alien God? If he had bent his knee to the alien God, he would have received honors and wealth.

Today, every son of Jacob has the same choice. He may choose to go to work for Esau in exchange for the carrot. But to receive the reward he must first bend his knee to the alien God. This is called - presenting one's "bona fides".

Thomas Road Baptist Church once threw aliens down the front steps of their church, but now welcomes them. This is their "bona fide." They may now eat the carrot - access to Esau's media and favorable tax treatment.

Conclusion

The signs which first met the Romans in Jerusalem must come down to satisfy Esau and win his rewards. Signs like:

> "It shall be Lawful for no foreigner to come within the limits of the temple." Josephus 12:3:4

The Law prohibits strangers to worship with the sons-of-Isaac. Jesus, the "WORD made flesh" brought back the Law. That's why the Pharisees and Herodians conspired together to kill him. That's why they work together to kill him today.

Walk into a church; look around. A two-second glance will reveal who is being worshiped - "God the WORD" or Esau's "God of the land". Then, you may choose to stay or leave.

Whichever, God sees. All will receive their reward at the Judgment.

God hasten the day when -

"God's will be done on earth."

Letter From S. Africa

Dear Mr. Hoskins,

Stopped by the Lorrie Home. Betzy is very busy. First with the food, then with the children's school tasks that had to be in the next day. A furniture factory gave them 26 dining-room chairs, and sandals were given for each child. They are also scheduled to visit a game-farm over the weekend. There is so much involved.

White-owned farms have begun being confiscated at state-set prices. This is certain to result in food shortages as has happened in Zimbabwe, except in our case it will be all the worse with the flood of Black immigration.

Typhoid fever broke out in Delmas, it is the black township. They are not health conscious. These days one dare not put a foot in open water. We take our own bottles of water when we go out. Townspeople add a lot of chlorine to try to make their water drinkable.

Our Best, K.J.

LETTERS

BOOKS: "Dear Hoskins Report: I am writing to tell you what it is like here.

In regards to the book you sent, "When In The Course Of Human Events," the Administration refused to give the book to me. They always have an excuse for harassing us. I am left with two options: 1) Pay to have the book sent back. 2) Have it destroyed.

I am told that at other prisons inmates are punished for having your literature sent to them. They are placed on STG (Security Threat Group).

The Administration creates racial tensions with their blatant double standard. Blacks are allowed to receive Nation of Islam literature, including books by Mr. Farrican and Malcom X, which preach that "Whites are the devil", and promote violence against other races, especially Christians. However when anything is mailed to us which states that it is OK to be White and proud - instead of White and ashamed - we are punished. The Nation of Islam is allowed to meet and openly promote violence against Whites, However, NO Christian separatist service is permitted. No white organizations of ANY kind are allowed to gather.

Prison policy states that no more than 6 people can gather at one time. One day 8 of us were approached by an officer who told us to split up. Right next to us were several groups of 10, 13 even 15 blacks. Yet, nothing was said to them. When I asked the officer the reason, his response was that "All officers are required to take a year psychology. In this class, we are taught that when you get a group of blacks together, all they talk about is the 'hood', rims on cars, dope, 'ho's', and the latest music. When a crowd of Whites get together they are discussing much more sophisticated topics which makes them a 'threat'". This was told to me by a prison officer!

The greatest weapon used against Whites is STG. It's easy to be placed on this list. A friend of mine was placed on STG for merely having certain Biblical verses written down (Ezra 9-10, Ex 33:16, Numbers 25, etc). Just Bible Verses! No side notes, only word for word scripture.

Once placed on STG your mail is strictly regulated. Your cell is regularly torn apart by officers. You cannot participate in any group settings, jobs, or even Church! Other races are on this status for only a few months. Whites are on it for years. For me it has been seven long years.

Whenever a White comes in we try to let them know that they are welcome. If they need something we give it to them so they don't end up asking some black guy who has ulterior motives. They can end up with AIDS.

White guys just coming to prison believe the media-illusion that blacks are the same as whites, just different skin color. They quickly learn that this simply is not the case. Unfortunately, by the time they learn it is often too late. Most of the blacks in prison are sodomites. This is no exaggeration. Don't ask them though, they seriously believe that as long as they are acting the part of the male partner they aren't sodomites.

You mentioned that it would help if we could become allies with these people. You may be right. However, I don't see how it is possible.

All my respect, S. B. prisoner - Michigan

RKH: A federal law was recently passed to break the prison censorship log-jam. Religious material is now supposed to be allowed into prisons - except material the warden considers inflammatory. While the law was pending - literature was freely admitted. Since the law was passed, including the part giving the warden the power to judge what is and what is not inflammatory, things are back to where they were before the law was passed. We even had Bibles rejected. Prison censorship seems worse than before the anti-censorship legislation was passed.

Chapter 375

TWO LAW SYSTEMS & the Marcian Solution

Episcopal Church Priests

For many years I was a Gideon. Gideons raise money to buy Bibles containing God's Law to place in hotels and give to schoolchildren. They send speakers to churches to give 10 minute talks asking for donations to buy Bibles. Gideons are assigned to arrange meetings - others to speak. It was my turn to arrange meetings.

The first stop was an Episcopal Church here in Lynchburg. There were four or five preachers meeting there. They invited me in. They knew about the Gideons' work so I quickly related my mission and asked for a meeting date.

Something then happened that had never happened before. The meeting took on aspects of an interrogation and I was the one being interrogated. I didn't know what they wanted. I tried to answer the best I could. In the process of answering a question I mentioned "Marcian."

The questioning stopped. There was silence. Then one of them spoke, "What do you know about Marcian?"

"Nothing", I replied. "I just mentioned him."

The group relaxed.

Just what did these fellows know that I didn't? Who was Marcian? What was the problem?

The Problem

The problem noone talks about is simply this:

Two law-systems can't rule at the same time.

The World

There are two mutually exclusive law systems on earth - the law system of Jacob and the law systems of Esau.

Jacob's law system requires that the land be divided and never sold - no taxes, kings, usury or strangers in the land. Enforcing Jacob's law excludes Esau's law.

If Esau is to enter the lands of Jacob he must first exclude Jacob's law system that excludes him. The followers of Esau's law system have traditionally used "persecution", "extermination", and "deception", or a combination of the three to suppress Jacob's law system.

"Deception" is immortalized in the Garden of Eden story, and has proved to be the most successful method of suppression.

It is a basic fact that two mutually exclusive law systems can't rule in the same place at the same time.

Suppressing Competing Law Systems

The Serpent suppressed God's Law System in The Garden by telling Eve that God really didn't mean what He said - He meant the opposite.

India's ruler, King Asoka, got rid of competing law systems by issuing a decree:

> "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

This prime directive of Asoka, called religious "Dharma", got rid of the conflicting law systems of India's countless Gods by outlawing racial and religious differences imbedded in the laws of India's many Gods. King Asoka enforced obedience to his decree by punishing offenders.

King Asoka suppressed all law systems except his own. This sole remaining law system managed the country's racial, social and business affairs. People were encouraged to keep the bells, whistles and rituals of their own ancient and separate Gods - but the law system that ruled the land was Asoka's.

Anyone who caused strife by obeying the "old laws" of his God was branded a "terrorist", "rebel" and "revolutionist" by the state - and treated accordingly.

Asoka's solution is the standard used today to suppress other law systems. For instance, Esau ruled Europe passed a law against "racism". This has effectively banished the Christian WORD - the LAW of Jacob - from Europe. The reason - two law systems can't rule at the same time.

Hinduism Moves West

India's trade system and its Gods moved West and replaced the Gods and laws of Egypt, Greece and Rome. The names of the old Gods remained the same - Isis, Jupiter, Neptune, Hercules, Minerva, and Mercury - but their beliefs were reinterpreted to include "Dharma" of India's Gods which turned them into Hindu religions.

Even India's episcopal caste system of "Priest", "King" and "Merchant" - "rule from the top down" - all resting on the work and production of the "Worker caste" was exported west and operated the same as it did in India.

With its one law system, Rome had many Gods but one law ruled all. Its basic - only one law system can rule at a time.

Jesus

Jesus Christ, the "WORD made flesh", returned the ancient Law-system of Adam-man and chaos resulted. Roman trade was impacted as people left Rome's law to return to their ancestor's Law of the WORD.[1] Rome viewed the revival of this ancient, aggressive, unreasioning, uncompromising, destructive Law system as social-economic terrorism. Rome counterattacked with whippings, prison, lions and crucifixions. None worked. Rome then used the serpent of "deception" to fight this invading Law system.

1 "Very early, Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law." The Ency. Brit., 14sth Ed. Vol 5, p.635

Marcian

Rome's chamption was Marcian. He was Rome's "secret weapon"[2] - the Billy Graham of his age. Marcian taught that the God of the Old Testament along with his Law died when Jesus was born. A new era started with Jesus.

Since the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob no longer existed, Roman law remained the sole law system to arbitrate differences, and it ruled supreme. People were encouraged to worship the Christian God or any combination of Gods of their choice, as long as the law was left to Rome's rulers.

Marcian's "Christian" Religion

Marcian's new "Christian" religion consisted of a trinity that contained Jesus in the center, Paul on his right and Marcian on his left. Marcian-Christianity contained no sin. Since "Sin is the transgression of the Law" I John 3:4 and the Law no longer existed because God the WORD was dead. No law - no sin. How good can it get?

Stripped of the Law, Marcian was able to give Paul's teachings meanings they were never meant to have. Included in Marcian's canon were Marcian's own writings, that no longer exist, and those of one of the apostles.

Harnoch says "There is wide agreement that the first canon was Marcion ... Marcion is to be regarded as the creator of the Catholic canon." (Harnack)(J. Knox, Marcion & the N. Test., Chicago 1942, pp38) p.23. He also says "Harnach pro-

2 MARCIANISM: A Christian heresy of the second and third centuries A.D. that rejected the Old Testament. (Marcian died c. A.D. 160). Amer Heritage Dict nounced that Marcion was the founder of the Catholic Church." p.12,

The law system of Imperial Rome was universal. Stripped of the WORD, Marcian-Christianity was also universal - it accepted everyone. His "Christian" church was quickly flooded with Children of Esau. Marcian-Christianity eclipsed the persecuted Christian WORD in popularity - for a time. Marcian's insistance that the Law of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob was done away left Roman law as the one surviving legal system ruling Rome.

Marcianism Collapses

Marcianism collapsed after about 100 years. "Marcian & His Influence", AMS Press, NY, E.C. Blackman, BD, 1948, p.13 says that "Marcianism banned marriage". Shakers in America disappeared for the same reason - lack of replacements. All the while the WORD, surviving with the name "Christian", began to grow again as Adam-man returned to God-the-WORD. Growing in numbers they grew in power. There was a real danger that the Law system of the WORD under the name "Christian" would completely destroy the Esau-ruled Roman Empire by stripping it of its authority. Suppressed parts of the gospel brought by Jesus began to be heard once more:

> "I am not come to send peace on earth: I come not to send peace, but a sword." Matt 10:34

Installing the Law system of the WORD in place of another's law system is not peaceful - a fact of which Rome's rulers were well aware.

Rome's New State Religion

Marcian-Christianity that was supposed to surplant the WORD of Jesus was itself being surplanted with the Christian WORD, but Esau's serpent wasn't through.

The usury-money system of the International Trade Cartel controled the Roman caste system of priest, king, and merchant. Of course, as often happens, power struggles caused leadership to rotate within the system's three castes. The king-priest-merchant system at this time was controled in the person of the king-emperor. His police powers allowed him to take the next step to reclaim authority in himself.

Rome's Marcian-Christianity, weakened by its no-marriage blunder and defection of those returning to the WORD, still existed with an intact organization. Using this old organization to build on, Emperor Constantine pre-empted Christianity. He did this by issuing an executive order which proclaimed that henceforth Christianity was a "State Religion" of which he was its head.

The State appointed puppet Bishops to rule. Provinces changed their names to "dioceses". Marcian's canon was expanded to include other teachings of Jesus and also the Old Testament was added with its Laws, Statutes and Judgements. Sounds good!

This done, Rome claimed that it represented the entire Christian spectrum and then - they banned the Bible - it could be read only by Rome's priests.

Under these conditions, state-priests told people what Jesus said, and the priest learned from his puppet-bishop who was instructed by the king-Emperor who appointed him.

The authority of the Roman Empire was saved. There were no longer two law systems in the land - just one - the emperor's - and it contained Dharma and was imposed on all Empire subjects. The rebels had been defeated by absorbing them.

Controlling Both Sides

Understanding the way of the serpent requires that one understand his strategies. He makes sure the outcome of a conflct is resolved in his favor by controling both sides of a dispute. When one controls both sides of a fight, one avoids the risk of an opponent winning and overthrowing your operation.[3] There is no way to lose.

To do this, a ruler must create and finance his own opposition - an opposition in name only. Two genuinely different law systems cannot be allowed to exist side by side lest by chance the rebel law system wins and banishes the cartel's own law system. To continue ruling, the Cartel makes sure that the ruling party, its opposition, and any 3rd party that should arise - are all his creations. The same is true for business and religion.

Review

The Cartel operation has gone on for a long time. In India, the Cartel proclaimed "freedom of worship" for all its many religions but controled the single law system of the land. Its tool was Asoka's Dharma.[4] Enforcing Dharma allowed the state to remain the sole referee, judge, jury, and final authority.

3 This is why industry finances both Democratic and Republican parties; why banks finance both Capitalism and Communism, both East and West; this is why there is constant friction between Roman Catholic, Protestant, Orthodox, Jewish Zionism and Islam. The money financing the conflicts comes from the same source.

4 "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

The Cartel's Dharma-religion moved West and reinterpreted the Babylonian, Egyptian, Greek and Roman religions into Hindu trade-religions with the "law" resting in the hands of the Cartel appointed ruler.

Rome's trade-relgion was challenged by a return of the Christian WORD and its Law brought by Jesus. Rome counter-attacked with its own "Marcian-Christianity" which proclaimed that the disruptive Christian Law was dead - resulting in the Roman law remaining the sole ruler of the Empire.

Marcian-Christianity fell on hard times with its no-marriage and its disillusioned members who returned to the WORD. This caused the WORD to again become an Empire threat. The WORD again stood on the verge of toppling the Roman Empire.

Rome then preempted the Christian Law-system of God-the-WORD by making Christianity a state religion. This done, a single law system ruled Rome again and the Empire continued - ruled by a different caste.

Marcian-Christianity - now called Catholicism - ruled in spite of periodic revolts for more than 1000 years. State law and state religion were basically the same. The Empire appointed Kings and bishophrics could be bought by merchants. The priests preyed on their parishioners and demanded that they obey one code of conduct while they obeyed none. Canon law allowed trade with people worldwide. In time priestly excesses caused general revulsion in its followers. Many returned to the WORD - led by their own Catholic priests. This revolt was called the Reformation.

This Reformation revolt was briefly successful and was reined in by the Cartel's kings. The kings quickly discovered that while the WORD stripped authority from the Catholic Church, it also deprived them of their tax tribute, their monopoly of lands and businesses, and their treasured perks. They had formerly ruled by their own Church approved "state-law" and now this was being superceded by the WORD - as had happened to their predecessors in the Roman Empire.

Two law-systems can't rule at the same time. In short order the Protestant kings set up their own state-religion and appointed their own puppet bishops to control what was being taught to the people - just as the Catholic Church had done before. This effectively suppressed the Laws of God the WORD. Protestantism became Marcian-Protestism which was controlled by the kings. The resulting state-religion was whatever the king said it was.

The Law

> "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." Matt. 6:24

It is the Law:

> "No man can serve two masters." Matt 6:24

Two law-systems cannot rule at the same time. One must displace the other.

Summary

Today, the Supreme Court of the United States rules the world. Its members are appointed by a puppet president who is elected by the media which is owned by the banks.

It is no accident that the majority of the appointed court members are Roman Catholic - or Marcian-Catholic - whose law is Canon law. Add two Jews, [5] one Protestant Episcopal-Catholic - and one nondescript Protestant and this tell one all he needs to know. It is interesting that the pontiff of one state has its citizens governing another state - and all of them appointed by the leaders of the state that is being ruled.

Thus, the United States is ruled by agents of the oldest episcopal religious institution in Christendom; the wealthiest, and the dominant one. One who helps operate the media, banks and business corporations. Its law is enforced world-wide by the armed forces of the US. The UN is its toy.

In its long history it has alternated its government by being ruled by good men and by being riddled with Dharmamatras, [6] as are also the Protestant Marcian-Christian sects - including the "holier-than-thou" Saxon-Separatists - many who call themselves "Identity-Christians".

Stripped of the bells and whistles - the struggle is simply the Christian-WORD vs Marican-Christianity without the WORD. One must destroy the other.

In spite of all this seeming control - the WORD made Adam-man. The WORD made him in the image of Himself. Obedience to the WORD brings "life" - disobedience brings "death. Violation of the WORD is Lawlessness.

5 Jews are a "caste" - the cartel's "civil service". They advise cartel installed kings, operate banks and media with the help of subject peoples, and manage cartel corporations containing the wealth extracted from subject peoples.

6 DHARMAMATRAS: "In the past there were no officers charged with spreading Dharma. I created these posts in the 13th year of my reign. These officers are commissioned to work with all sects in establishing and promoting Dharma." The Edicts of Asoka, Rock Edict V, p.58, Edicts Of Asoka, Trans. by N.A. Nikam & Richard Mckeon, Univ Chicago, 1959

Saxons of all religious persuasions sense Lawlessness when they see it[7] and many times in the past have abandoned evil for good.

Today, evil is clearly seen in the land. Saxons can see that Marcian-Christians have sodomites and pedophiles for leaders. They tolerate usury, land and business monopoly, taxes, strangers in the land. They refuse to call on the WORD - and those who refuse to call on God-the-WORD cannot represent the WORD.

The result is that our Saxon people are leaving Egypt. Adam-man, made in the image of the WORD, is moving away from those whose leadership will destroy him.

He is abandoning Dharma-dominated establishment churches - all of them - leaving them virtually empty. My own church which had a thousand on a Sunday when I was a boy now has 30 attending. The Catholic Church is the same. In desperation it recruits Esau- Hispanics to fill pews vacated by Jacob-Saxons. Judeo-Christians resort to Marcian-type circuses to draw crowds - crowds who in time will tire of a Marcian God who obeys the Commandments of Esau.

The Secret Is Out

I now know the meaning of the secret glances those Episcopal priests gave each other so long ago. Their secret is out. They didn't want Bibles distributed because Bibles contain the WORD whose Law is the enemy of their Marcian-

7 SAXON: "God created man in his own image." Gen 1:27; "They shall no more be remembered by their name." Hos 2:17; "The Lord God shall ... call his servants by another name." Isaiah 65:15; "In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7; Isaac-sons, "Saxon".

Christian God - the one who teaches that God-the-WORD - the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob is dead.

Two law systems cannot rule at the same time.

ROSA PARKS

When Rosa Parks refused to give her seat to a white man, this nullified an agreement made more than a century ago between blacks and whites. The media hype makes one forget that the Rosa Parks' act was directed against BLACKS.

The War Between The States was fought to loot the accumulated wealth of Southern whites. There was no declaration of war. A presidential executive order launched the armed forces of the US to invade Charleston starting a war that cost the lives of a half a million men - and the deaths of God knows how many women and children.

Southern whites were disfranchised, blacks franchised. Southern governments were transferred to blacks. Carpetbaggers instructed them how to vote bond issues. The money raised went to Cartel contractors. Whites were taxed and impoverished. Bankruptcies blossomed. Cartel contractors used money raised by Southern bond sales to buy prime Southern plantation land at black induced tax sales for a few cents an acre - creating some of America's largest corporations.

In time, blacks grew ambitious and tried to take the entire South for themselves. Their treatment of whites was brutal causing many whites to migrate from the South to the West. The blacks planned to also confiscate that Southern wealth now owned by the Cartel. This was not part of the Cartel agreement with blacks.

To protect their newly gained loot,[9] Cartel representatives met with Southern white leaders. The two reached agreement that they would reverse media anti-Southern propaganda and Southern whites would be given a free hand to remove black rule. In exchange, the ITC could keep their loot.[10]

Media propaganda reversed overnight - whites were now the "misjudged" ones and blacks were the ones who were bad. Whites were able to take back political rule without federal intervention.

To prevent a black-white war - Southern white leaders also agreed to protect black economic interests. Whites passed Jim Crow Laws preventing white merchants from competing with black merchants. Whites were required to trade only with whites - allowing blacks a monopoly of trading with their own kind. Jobs in black education were protected by allowing them to have their own schools, principals and teachers.

Whites had their leaders - blacks had theirs. Overnight new black business districts mushroomed containing black drug-stores, motels and hotels, hardware, clothing, shoe stores and restaurants. By law, whites were allowed to sell to blacks only if no black businesses offered the product requested. A white could stop by a black drug-store on a hot day for a cold soft drink to carry out - the black owner would not allow him to sit. I know, I tried and was told to "move along".

9 LOOT: (Hindi) 1. Plunder; booty; esp. the booty taken in war, or the gains of corrupt officials. 2. The action of looting; as the loot of a bank. To plunder or sack, as a conquered city; to rob, esp. by corruption; as, to loot a city's funds. Websters New Collegiate Dict.

10 The Prostrate State, Pike. See "Vigilantes Of Christendom", Hoskins.

What was not separated was divided. Beaches were separated. Blacks had theirs with their own concession stands and whites had theirs. Neighborhoods were black or they were white. Movie theaters were black or they were white. If blacks wanted to see a movie not shown at a black theater, they entered black reserved sections of white theatres - and vice-versa. Railroad passenger cars were separated, as were buses, streetcars and churches.

After the Cartel had digested the white loot obtained from the war, they then wanted what the blacks had accumulated. Many white merchants also wanted their share of the black trade.

They used Rosa Parks. She sat in a section of a bus set aside for whites. This breached the black-white agreement - separate development collapsed. Black owned businesses vanished virtually overnight - unable to meet competition from discounted white merchandise.

The body of Rosa Parks lies in state in the Capitol Rotunda in DC. She was the one who destroyed her people's "self-development." Vacant storefronts - bankrupt black businesses - this is her legacy.

"We showed you, whitey!"

Yeah - sure you did!

The Cartel and the white merchants who profited love Rosa Parks - today's blacks don't even know that they've been had.

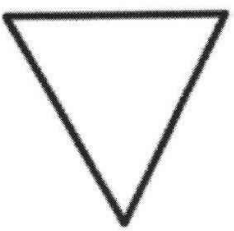
Chapter 376



MANTRA, YANTRA, TANTRA

Not Guilty!

The whole country should know by now that another son of Esau, this time Lynchburg's mayor, has joined the long list of America's city mayors accused of criminal conduct. A federal grand jury in Roanoke accused Lynchburg's mayor of seven counts including mail fraud, bank fraud, lying to investigators, misappropriation of other people's social security checks, and obstruction of justice.

The indictment says that he was "mired in severe financial difficulty" and turned to criminal conduct to pay down his debts.

The local paper has run front page stories almost daily. Picture after picture of Lynchburg's black mayor have been shown. His resignation from the pulpit of his church, his refusal to step down as mayor, and the comments of the mostly white media-elected city council who chose him to be mayor have also been noted.

Let's remember; this is the age of Kaliyuga. Black is the color of Kali and the Kaliyuga age of destruction. To honor black is to honor both. It's Cartel policy.

Complying with the policy, Lynchburg has obediently established a memorial room in the local library honoring black St. Martin.[1] Memorial Avenue, named in memory of Lynchburg's WWI dead, has been renamed for the same saint. The complaint was made that the new regulation-size street signs in King's honor should be replaced with large ones. This was done in an instant.

Now, the Lynchburg newspaper headline says - "Not guilty!" Of course, it comes out in the article that this is only the accused mayor's plea, but this information is hidden deep in the article.

Let us see how the media might go about controlling minds to get a "Not Guilty" verdict. A clue may rest in the lead prosecutor's statement;

"Picking a jury is going to be difficult at best," he told the judge, "Magically, it got transferred to Lynchburg without a hearing or anything."

1 Martin Luther King's portrait hangs between those of Buddha and Jesus Christ in the Ashram 50 miles below Lynchburg on the James River.

Really!

There is a standard way to manipulate men's minds. The International Trade Cartel has been doing it for a long time.

Just the Facts

A man can only think with the facts he is given. There is no way he can do differently. Control the facts a man receives and you control his mind. Control a man's mind and you control the man.

We rule the minds of the world - the first verse of India's national anthem.

Ruling Men's Minds

Ruling men's minds is simple. Read the following news item:

> A California research team from Sonoma State Univ. discovered that the boards of directors of the 10 media giant organizations in the US had only 118 people comprising their board of directors. These 118 people also sit on the corporate boards of 288 national and international corporations. Eight out of the 10 big media giants share common memberships on their boards of directors.

Directors who also sit on boards of corporations controlling the US mass media include Bechtel, Boeing, Carlyle Gr., Chevron/Texaco, Citigroup, Conoco Phillips, Dell, Eli Lilly, Estee Lauder, Ford, GE Investments, GM, Goldman Sachs, Halliburton, JP Morgan, Lehman Bros, Lockheed Martin, Microsoft, Motorola, Proctor & Gamble, and Rothschild Investments. Similar corporate ties are also found in National Public Radio.

Prof Peter Phillips, director of the Project Censored News said:

> "Mainstream media no longer produce news for the mainstream population - nor should we consider the media as plural. Instead it is more accurate to speak of big media in the US today as the corporate media and to use the term in the singular tense - as it refers to the singular monolithic top-down power structure of self-interested news giants." (Story in American Free Press, Nov 21, 2005)

Loaded

The above news article is loaded. Take your time. Fix it in your mind - just the basics:

1. It says that we have many thousands of media outlets in the country - but A SINGLE NEWS SOURCE.
2. Only 118 people control the thinking of the world.
3. These same 118 control corporations.

Thinking Alike

Corporations have deep money pockets. With advertising, grants, and jobs to disburse - deep money pockets control businesses, foundations, colleges, political parties, seminaries - AND - people. Those who benefit think what they are told to think - or pretend to. They say what they are paid to say. Deep pockets is the piper who calls the tune and rewards the obedient and punishes the disobedient.

This is how the children of Esau are able to "control the minds of the world".

For the sake of new readers we should explain how this came about.

Aryans Invade India

Our Aryan nation invaded India long ago. India was occupied by Blacks called Dravidians. The God of these Blacks is also black. His name is Siva (Shiva). Siva is a sex god. He dances the cosmic dance of sex. His every thought - his every act - is sex. His temples are full of idols of male and females in positions of sexual intercourse. His symbol is the "linga" and "yona" (male and female genitalia). Statues of these genitalia are found in front of his temples with the same frequency that crosses are found with Christian churches.

Siva is the God of SEX. His other self is Kali - the God of DEATH, destruction and chaos. She is the one who brings epidemics, disease, starvation and war. Kali can hurt you. She is the one that needs to be appeased. Everyone needs to be nice to Kali and build memorials to her followers and saints and name streets after them - the ones who leave flames, destruction and riots as they pass. The reason Kali exists is to destroy all life on earth so that this present evil age of Kaliyuga can end and the next good age can begin.

When you peel back the layers of the Esau onion you will find at the center - Siva "sex" - and Kali "death and destruction".

Siva's War Against Aryans

Aryan's were white - their god was white. His name was Vishnu. He was God of prosperity, gambling, business and good things.

Siva's priests insisted that white Vishnu and black Siva were now brothers living in the same land. Consequently, their followers should be tolerant of each other's differences. "Tolerance" was the opening shot in Siva's counterattack against the Aryan invaders. It was meant to disarm and deceive.[2]

The Hindu priests used India's Blacks to fight their war - without seeming to fight. Also, they used hand-picked puppet kings - the most famous of which was Asoka the Great.

Asoka issued the following edict:

"One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

In this manner, "tolerance" was decreed by law. Since Asoka was king he had an army to enforce his edict. This Dharma-peace edict was issued to promote racial intermarriage to destroy the Aryans.

The Aryans tried to protect themselves by installing a caste system to segregate the people. It only slowed the process. In time, racial interbreeding caused the white Aryan nation to vanish from India. Mixed-breed mulattoes were left to show that they had once been there.

Vishnu - Upper Caste

The Aryans had vanished, but their white god Vishnu remained. Some mixed-breed Indians claimed Vishnu as their God to let others know that they descended from one of the higher castes. However, this God was modified to serve the mixed-breed children of Kali. Kali is always striving to reach Nirvana.[3] Mixed breeds claiming high caste can proclaim Vishnu to be their God - but their real God leading them to Nirvana is Kali - the God of sex and destruction. Vishnu's "Yantra" reveals the merger with Kali.

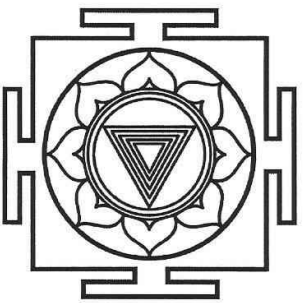
2 The "Serpent" is India's symbol of deception. It can substitute for the "Cloak of Esau", "Kol Nidre", "Hollywood", "Bollywood", "media" or the "lie".

3 Nirvana - nothingness. The only way to escape from this present evil age of Kaliyuga is to destroy all life. Then, the next new age of "goodness" can be born.

Yantra

Hindus make all this easy to understand by using a Yantra.

Go to your computer; on your Google search engine, under "images" type "Kali Yantra". You will find page after page of different "yantras". A Yantra is a Hindu form of "coat-of-arms". None are exactly alike since Hinduism accepts all opinions. However, most will show an inverted triangle - like the one at top of the first page and the one shown below. This is the Kali "female" symbol.

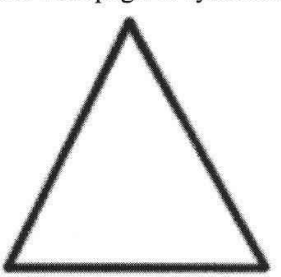


Kali Yantra Showing Inverted Triangle

The "Kali Yantra" above is a yantra with each part symbolizing something different. It is the full symbol of Kali, God of destruction, whose devastation will end all life and bring this present evil age to an end.

A regular upright triangle below symbolizes the male sex organ.

When the male triangle overlays the inverted triangle it results in the symbol shown on the next page. It symbolizes the sex-act - the union of Vishnu and Kali, or, the union of Siva and Kali.



Now, go to your computer Google search engine again and type in "Vishnu yantra". You will find that as a general rule, the Vishnu yantra (on next page) shows this union of overlaid triangles. Kali and Vishnu united in the Vishnu Yantra.

Displaying overlaid triangles is like a merchant or professional posting a sign to advertise his services. The symbol to the left is universal in meaning and is found worldwide.

Controlling The Mind

We remember the clever way the Hindu priests destroyed the Aryan invaders of India. They used the easy way - they helped their white enemy destroy himself.[4]

The children of Esau use the same method today to teach the sons of Jacob to destroy themselves. It is necessary that they die. It is the white sons of Jacob who stand in the way of world destruction and the birth of the new age that will result. This is why the sons of Esau identify the white man as "the White Devil".[5]

Mantra, Yantra and Tantra

MANTRA: The object being taught is repeated and repeated and repeated. The word "tolerance" is a powerful weapon since Adam- man prides himself on being fair-minded and fair-handed.[6] The word is repeated and repeated and repeated.

4 HR #365: 36-STATEGIES: #9 - Help the enemy destroy himself. "The greatest victory is the victory gained without battle."

5 "The white race is the cancer of human history." Susan Sontag - celebrated Jewish intellectual.

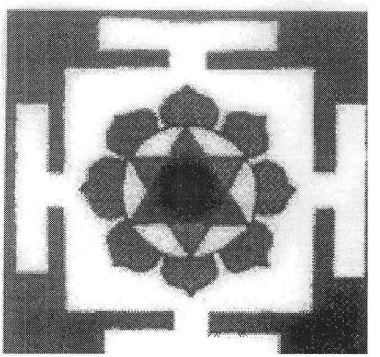
Then, variations are used expanding its scope; "Love everyone without regard to race, creed, or national origin." Again, and again and again it is repeated. Once the lesson is learned - the next step is:

YANTRA: "Yantra" is what we have just been studying and looking at - it is the VISIBLE rendition of the earlier spoken-mantra - the idea. Once you understand their meaning, you can see they visibly display "tolerance" and "love everyone" in picture form. These forms appear everywhere that Esau has control. "Feel-good" pictures of prosperous sons of Jacob helping deprived sons of Esau appear in magazines, TV and newspapers. These are "Yantras". So are picturesof racial intermarriage and pictures of daughters of Jacob merely standing next to sons of Esau. These "Yantras" accustom Jacob to seeing his women in the company of sons of Esau. Yantra pictures showing the joys of multi- culturalism abound.



Vishnu Yantra Showing Overlayed Triangles

Followers of Siva (Shiva) and Kali are compelled by their natures to present sex and violent destruction over and over and over in their media. It is an inner compulsion that they splash all over their media.[7]

Mantra - verbal repeating and having repeated to you; Yantra - the transition from verbal to visual. Last - Mantra and Yantra come together with its finished product - Tantra.

The successful conclusion of Esau's war against the sons of Jacob is the "Tantra" conclusion - where Jacob destroys himself by acting out racial intermarriage taught him by Esau's mantra and yantra..[8]

Mixed-breed children are Tantra proof of Esau Victory. They are like seeing dead bodies of an enemy piled on a battlefield! A successful war won by Esau without the use of force!

Mantra, Yantra, Tantra - The ancient weapon of the Hindu who boast eternally - "We control the minds of the world."

The Lynchburg Trial

If the media follows the usual "mantra", "yantra", "tantra" program their MANTRA will keep the subject before the public. It will repeat and repeat and repeat. YANTRA will show the subject in picture after picture after picture. It will give facts and pictures - loads of facts and loads of pictures. Then, at the last it will present the "facts" that it wants followed so that the TANTRA will result in "not guilty".

Already "Not Guilty" has been flashed before the readers. Already the media is printing letters from the Esau portion of the jury pool telling how tender-hearted, wonderful and good the accused is. Later we might expect heavy emphases placed on the statements of the "defense" that prove prosecution prejudice.

7 "Q: What kind of world do you want to leave to your children? A: A world in which there aren't any white poeple ..." Leonard Jeffries - (Chairman of African-American studies dept of the City College of NY), [Interviewed by T.L. Stanclu and Nishe-Mohammed, Rutherford Magazine, May 1995, p.13]

8 "Keep bashing the dead white males, and the live ones, and the females, too, until the social construct known as the white race is destroyed. Not deconstucted, but destroyed." - Noel Ignatiev, Harvard professor, editor of Race Traitor magazine [Washington Times, Sept 4, 2000]

If there is a conviction, it will not be far-fetched to hear about a "miscarriage of justice", discrimination or "Jim Crow". If there is a not guilty verdict - perhaps - "justice at last!"

And - the old "ace in the hole."

In Lynchburg one can count on having blacks on the jury. They will be asked to convict one of their own - one of their own accused by "white-man's" justice.[9]

By the time a decision is handed down - it should take no genius to guess how the local media will view the case.

Conclusion

Esau has grown bold. He boasts of his control of the media and corporate deep pockets which he uses to wage war against the sons of Jacob without their knowledge. The ancients called this concealment "The Cloak Of Esau".

This "Cloak" has fallen and now we see. Esau believes that he need hide his designs no longer. This is the age the Scriptures prophesied:

> "(God-The-WORD) will destroy ... the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations." Isaiah 25:7

9 A Son-of-Jacob finding himself judged by juries containing Sons-of-Esau - will be judged by the laws of Esau's Gods. If he demands a bench-trial from a judge instead - the judge will dispense the law of the God-of-the-land. Sons-of- Jacob can expect justice only when judged by other Sons-of-Jacob who are obedient to the WORD which is God.

As for Esau's boast, "I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41. It is laughable. The Scriptures relate God's promise;

> "Thus saith the Lord which giveth the sun ... and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars ... If those ordinances depart ... then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before Me." Jeremiah 31:35-36.[10]

Esau fights God-the-WORD - a war he cannot win.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Things are getting interesting here. There are major problems brewing between the Xhosas, Zulus and other tribes. Each lies to the other and tries to fill their own pockets at the others expense. The ruling Xhosas keep promises to no one.

It is said that 60% of the blacks have AIDS, but others say that the number is much higher. I believe the last statement.

British propaganda has done a good job keeping British settlers and Afrikaners at each others throats. I visited a friend whose mother was British and her father an Afrikaner. After the mother's death we learned from her daughter that the mother and all her English friends had always hated us with an implacable hatred.

She is by no means the only one. Every single story in English newspapers lets no opportunity pass without making a nasty remark about Afrikaners. This attitude does not carry over to pro-empire Afrikaners like Jan Smuts who is their hero in spite of his terrible English.

UNFILTERED NEWS

SMOKING MAKES YOU STUPID: A British study tested 465 people, half of whom smoked over their lifetime. By the time they were 65, smokers performed considerably worse than nonsmokers. Conclusion - smoking makes you stupid. (THE WEEK)

AUSTRALIAN RIOTS: The recent Australian race riots were triggered by a Lebanese gang mugging of two white lifeguards. Fighting escalated until over 5,000 whites were fighting mideast gangs over a period of several days. The government blamed lack of "tolerance" - not the government's unLawful introduction of aliens into Australia. The New South Wales government will possibly make criminal charges against pro-white video makers. No government restriction is planned against aliens.

AS OTHERS SEE US: A Chinese company is marketing condoms named after Bill Clinton and Monica Lewinsky. (THE WEEK)

CAUSE OF DEATHS: The causes of military deaths in Iraq are: Hostile fire 693; Improvised Explosive Devices 622; Non-hostile causes 390; Car bombs 111; Helicopter losses 126; Mortars & rockets 99; Rocket propelled grenades 72. (Source: the Brookings Institution)

RKH: Hostile fire 693, rocket grenades 72, Mortars & rockets 99 - total 864 - from conventional warfare. Improvised Explosive Devices and Car Bombs - total 733 from "unconventional warfare". This last almost equals the first. Esau's new tactics that counter technological superiority are worth study.

DEATH of RUSSIA

Death of Russia

The following was taken from Pravda.

"The birth rate of the Russian Federation ... is below the line of natural reproduction .... If this continues, the Russian population will be reduced to 74-76 million people by 2040.

"Taking the current death and birth rates into consideration, the Russian population can be expected to drop to 25 million people in 100 years." (Viktor Sysenko, Director, State Research Institute of Family and Upbringing)

"Approximately 44 million Russians are below the poverty line. They don't get enough to eat, are poorly dressed ... about eight million Russians are currently unemployed ...

"Sociologists say that this demographic decline is connected not only with mass poverty, but also with the destruction of the Russian family and declining morals.

"Regarding divorce, Russia is currently in second place to America. ... The number of illegitimate children made up 21% of the total amount of children born in 1995, and the level reached 28% in 2000. In some regions, the Far Eastern region ... illegitimate children make up 40%."<http://english.pravda.ru/main /2002/11/25/ 39935.html>

Lawless Russia

Russia has been Lawless for a long time. It was made even more lawless by its 70-odd-year experiment with atheist Communism. The result is an incomprehensible, almost unbelievable, crime wave that has enveloped the country making business, government, social and international activity extremely difficult. It is now a land where a man's word means nothing, contracts mean nothing - stealing, deception, lying, manipulation are the way people live to survive. "Mafias" replace government. There are hundreds and thousands of them. Russia's corporations have been privatized into their hands. They have branches in other lands. Murdered men lie in the streets. The country is almost ungovernable.

Russia is dying. Pravda's prediction is that in 100 years it will virtually cease to exist.

Same old - same old.

India Again

As we have noted before, long ago our Aryan kinsmen invaded India where they encountered black inhabitants called Dravidians. How they conducted themselves must be compared with how they should have conducted themselves.

The WORD is our operation manual. It instructs us how to act in any given situation. First, it establishes its authority:

> "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1

It tells us;

> "God created man in the likeness of God." Gen 1:27

Man who obeys the WORD his creator - lives. Those who disobey die. It's that simple.

> "He that sinneth against me loves death." Prov 8:36

The WORD gives the solution to every problem that man has or will ever have. When dealing with strangers man is commanded to act in the following manner:

> "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31- 33.

In India our kinsmen built magnificent cities. Archaeologists working today in the ruins of these cities wonder what happened to the builders. They can stop wondering. They disobeyed the WORD and God destroyed them.

> "They were mingled among the heathen and learned their works." Ps 106:35; "If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... ye will be left few in number." Deut 58:66

The Aryans disobeyed and the curse came. India became a pesthole of deception, disease and war - like Russia today.

In a desperate effort to retrain Russian citizens not to lie, cheat, or steal so that they can be governed, Russia's rulers have done the unthinkable, they have invited Western evangelicals to come and spread the "good news" - the news that Russians must not lie, cheat or steal - and they must obey their government.

Buddhism vs The WORD

To compare Buddhism with the ancient WORD - God of Adam-man - one must know the 10 Commandments.

Ten Commandments

1 - Only one God - Ex 20:3

2 - No substitutes or graven images - Ex 20:4

3 - Don't take His name in vain by asking for things unLawful - Ex 20:7 (Matt. 5:33)[1]

4 - Rest 7th day - (Ex 20:8-9; Ezek 20:12; Luke 13:14)

5 - Honor parents - (Ex 20:12; Lev 19:3; Deut 5:16; Eph 6:2)

6 - No Murder - (Ex 20:13; Rom 13:9)

1 The unLawful unforgivable sin: "Now if thou closeth thy mouth and thy nostrils against the winds of heaven and sayest, 'The air is as poison to me, I will not breathe it,' behold thou perishest. ... If he shall say knowing in his heart ... 'I will call good evil, and the Holy Spirit I will call unholy: then lo, his spirit dieth within him, and he can no more enter into the life of God.' ... (or) 'Lo, the truth is not pleasing to me, ... it is hateful, therefore I will call it evil.'" Philochristus 13:20-21.

7 - No Adultery - commercial, written, verbal, religious, racial - (Ex 20:14; Deut 5:18)

8 - No Theft - (Lev 19:11)

9 - No Lying - (Ex 20:16; 23:1; Deut 5:20)

10 - No Coveting another's possessions - (Ex 20:17)

These ten basic Laws with their examples comprise 1/3 of today's King James Bible and form a platform on which the other 2/3 of God's Commandments that establish God's government for Israel can be built.

The other 2/3s instruct Jacob not to have kings, monopolies, taxes, and that the land is to divided and never sold; they are not to war with their kinsmen - unless directed to do so by the WORD - and there are to be no strangers in their midst.

The above are just some of the statutes telling what the WORD requires to build a sound government. The following tells us not to worry about other nations and their Gods, or compare them and their Gods with us and our God:

> "There are many nations ... all are his, and over all has he appointed spirits (Gods) to rule ... but over Israel ... he alone is their ruler." Jub 15:23;

The Sons of Jacob are made in the image of their God. Other peoples are made in the image of their Gods. To avoid having strangers turn on us and rend us, we are ordered to take our "pearls" to our own people and be separate from strangers. Esau attacks us with guns, planes, explosives and media invented by our own kind.

> "Neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they ... turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6.

This Commandment is of such extreme importance that it is repeated again and again and again:

> "Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. For thou art not sent ...but to the house of Israel." Ez 3:4-5;
> "For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land." Ezekiel 36:24
> "For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, [to be] thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD." 1Ki 8:53
> "He showed his WORD ... his statues and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation." Ps 147:19-20.[2]

We learned earlier that after Jesus, "the WORD made flesh", an anti-christ named Marcian held sway and insisted that the God of the "Old Testament" was dead along with his Laws - and that he, Paul, and Jesus comprised the new trinity.

2 "You only have I known of all the families of the earth." Amos 3:2; "For thou didst separate them from all the people of the world to be thine inheritance." 1 Ki 8:51; "The Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth." Deut 7:6; "Ye shall be holy unto me: for I the Lord am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine." Lev 20:26; "Ye shall be a peculiar treasure to me above all people: for all the earth is mine." Ex 19:7; "So shall we be separated, I and all of Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Ex 33:16; "Separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives." Ezra 10:11; "Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitudes." Neh 13:3; "And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers (5236 nekar - strange, alien)." Neh 9:2

Marcian taught that God's Commandments were abolished and everyone should follow the laws of Rome.

Since "Marcianism" in its many forms is still around, a footnote below is provided to debunk this nonsense once and for all. God's Law - His Commandments - remain alive and well in the NEW Testament as well as the OLD. The New Testament is merely a continuation of the Old Testament.[3]

War Of The Gods

There is Jacob and there is Esau; Jacob is a nation - Esau is multi-national - a mixture of many nations. Jacob's God is God the WORD. Esau has many Gods - almost all containing the teachings of Buddha minus the Biblical Commandments on setting up a government.

BUDDHA

Buddha: Originally Siddhartha Gautama. 563-483 B.C.. Indian mystic and founder of Buddhism. He began preaching after achieving supreme enlightenment at the age of 35. (American Heritage Dict) It is supposed that his teachings were the salvaged remnants of the WORD that had arrived with the near-vanished Adam-man.

Buddhism

Buddhism as we know it today developed in three stages.

* First, there was Buddha.

3 "These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not unto the way of the Gentiles, and unto any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6; "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 15:24; "As my Father hath sent me even so I send you." John 20:21; "I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me, for they are thine." John 17:9; "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord." 2 Cor 6:17.

* Second, King Asoka, his disciple, added his opinions.

* Third, Brahmins of the Hindu religion absorbed Buddhism, and added Nirvana.[4]

Buddhist Precepts

Buddhism is often said to be the most moral religion in the world - after Christianity. Buddhist law is mostly a compilation of parables. In addition, Buddhist monks must promise to obey the following:

1. Not to destroy life.

2. Not to steal.

3. To abstain from impurity.

4. Not to lie.

5. To abstain from intoxicating drinks, which hinder pro-gress and virture.

6. Not to eat at forbidden times.

In Buddhism, personal indulgence, theft and murder would cause the one who committed them to be expelled from the company of other Buddhists. Buddhist monks are allowed to possess only eight articles: three robes, a girdle for the loins, a begging bowl, a razor, a needle and a water cup. However, his religious order was allowed to own property - a whole lot of property.

Asoka Adds To Buddhism

More people know the name "Asoka" than know the name "Jesus Christ". The official story is that Asoka converted to 4 NIRVANA: Oblivion, nothingness, death.

Buddhism, added his own opinions in the form of edicts, and then used his form of Buddhism to conquer the world.

Asoka's missionaries were highly trained and well looked after. With this sponcership their Buddhist message quickly spread to Tibet, China,[5] and Mongolia. It spread to Japan and parts of SE Asia and Ceylon. Asoka sent missionaries overland to China and by sea to South China.

Missionaries went to SE Asia - Burma, Siam (Thailand), Cambodia, Java, Borneo, and Malaya. It was taken by Chinese monks in middle 5th century to Korea and from there to Japan in middle 6th century.

For many centuries, this area surrounding the S. China Sea was a kind of 'Further India', ruled by Indian princes, filled with Indian traders, and instructed by Indian religions, mostly Buddhist.

Buddhism became the official religion of Japan. The emperors used it to spread their power. In Japan, most are Shintoist-Buddhist. In China, Buddhism-Confucianism/Taoism.

Buddhism and Asoka were both creations of India's Brahmin priesthood. Following are the stories of how these momentus events were brought about.

Temple Wealth

King Asoka long ago "privatized" the people's wealth by transferring 1000 million gold pieces to the Monastery of Kukkutarama and to missionary work.[6] One thousand million gold pieces was a lot of money in those days. It's the type of thing that the International Trade Cartel puts governments in power to do.

5 Buddhism changed to adapt itself to the customs of each country in which it established itself. The symbol on p.1 is the symbol of the Chinese Taoist Buddhists. Black - evil; white - good. The dots represent a bit of good in evil and a bit of evil in good.

How To Install A King

Before Asoka's time, the ruling king was named Dhana Nanda. This king seriously offended a Hindu priest, a brahmin named Kautalya. In India, to offend a Brahmin is worse than murder or high treason. The offended Hindu priest removed the ruling king who had offended him and replaced him with one more docile. This is how he went about it.

He found a boy of royal blood living in poverty whose name was Chandragupta Maurya. He used this boy as a figurehead leader of a revolt by claiming he was actually the true ruler who had been kidnaped when he was born. Tax protesters joined in and the revolt was successful. The year was 321 B.C.

Thus, we see that the founder of the powerful Maurya dynasty was created by the Hindu priesthood using the serpent of deception. This explains why his grandson, King Asoka, transferred 1000 million gold pieces to the Monastery of Kukkutarama. Kings then were agents of Hindu priests and did what they were told to do - just as they do today.

Asoka's Edicts

Asoka the Great, agent of the Hindu Brahmins, used Buddhism as a state religion to control his turbulent subjects by controlling their minds. He took Buddha's basic beliefs and modified them by adding his own edicts called "Rock Edicts". They were called "Rock Edicts" because he had them chiseled into rock monuments and placed at crossroads all over his kingdom.

Basic Buddhism combined with Asoka's edicts were exported over the world - changing to adapt to differing conditions - and conquering each nation it entered. Asoka's Buddhism requires its followers to be obedient to their government. Local rulers themselves could do as they liked while requiring their subjects to obey Buddhism that taught individuals not to lie, cheat or steal, and to obey authority. Once indoctrinated, people began to behave as sheep which are the kind of subjects that all rulers like. Chaos became a thing of the past - for a little while.[7]

Following is a one liner that synthesizes Asoka's Buddhism. It is the most quoted Buddhist mantra:

> "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

"Tolerance" was the basic theme. The following is an example:

> "Alone among the major world religions, Buddhism does not condemn homosexuality or premarital sex. The emphasis on Buddhism is on achieving a state of enlightenment, but the religion provides only guidelines, not strict commandments, as to how individuals should strive for this. Rape and adultery are considered misconduct, but an individual is free to engage in consenting sexual acts that do not violate marital monastic commitments." Church Policies on Gay Concerns, pp 234-239.

7 Buddha is worshiped as a god in many lands. King Asoka's wheel is India's symbol.

Since Esau is multi-national, his variations of the Buddhist religion are also multi-national. Following are other edicts Asoka added to Buddhism. They can be found in the book The Edicts Of Asoka, Translated by N.A. Nikam & Richard McKeon, Univ. Chicago Press, ©1959 by Univ. of Chicago.

* Integrated Housing - Rock Edict VII - p. 51

* Honor all faiths - Rock Edict XII - p51

* Toleration is alone commendable. - Rock Edict XII - p51

* Appointment of Dharmamatras - to teach and supervise Dharma in all provinces. - Kalinga Edict II - p54

* Dharmamatra enforcement: (anti-hate enforcement - informers, auricular confession to priests by converts). A state function - Rock Edict V (cont. from IV) - (see KEII).

Missionary Work

This following inscription reveals the technique used to spread Buddhism:

> "King (Asoka) says: My officers charged with the spread of Dharma are occupied with various kinds of services beneficial to ascetics and householders, and they are empowered to concern themselves with all sects. ... Different officials are thus assigned specifically to the affairs of different religions, but my officers for spreading Dharma are occupied with all sects."[8]

Adapted to today's conditions in Christendom, all Protestant and Catholic sects are infiltrated by Buddhist (or Hindu) Dharmamatras trained specifically to deal with the group to which assigned. Some pose as Protestant evangelists - others pose as Catholic Jesuits. Episcopal religions - rule from the top down - are especially targeted and vulnerable since controlling a few permits control of many. Think about it.

In Asoka's lifetime the charge was made that Asoka had changed Buddhism into something else. His propaganda machine responded this way:.

> "Brahmins began to appear in the guise of Buddhist monks. Asoka began to worry that they were trying to 'reinterpret' Buddha in line with their own interests."[9]

This makes it appear that Asoka was aware of the threat and was taking steps to prevent it. In fact, the entire Chandragupta dynasty including Asoka were cartel creations. There was no threat - the takeover of Buddhism was an accomplished fact.

9 Ibid, p.124

Proof Of Conquest

Engraved in stone for future generations to ponder was this statement as to the effectiveness of Asoka's Buddhist mind control.

> "King (Asoka) considers moral conquest (that is, conquest by Dharma), the most important conquest. He has achieved this moral conquest repeatedly both here and among the peoples living beyond the borders of his kingdom, even as far away as six hundred (yojanas) (about 3000 miles), where the yona (Greek) king Antiyoka rules, and even beyond Antiyoka in the realms of the four kings named Turamaya, Antikini, Maka, and Alikasudara, and to the south among the Cholas and Pandyas (in the southern tip of the Indian peninsula) as far as Ceylon."[10]

The above reveals the extent of Buddhist-Hindu religious-political conquests in far distant lands. The date 258 BC is the latest date at which all five Greek kings could be referred to simultaneously and therefore fixes the approximate date of the edict.

The Buddhist state-religion from India exported to the Greek and Roman classical world is why the WORD had virtually disappeared there. Jesus - "the WORD made flesh" - returned the WORD to save his people from Nirvana - the universal death desired by the Hindu and spread by the Buddhist missionary.

Hindu Merchants

While this was going on, Hindu-Brahmins, who controlled usury banking, sent their agents through the doors opened by Buddhism to lend borrowers ten for 11 when only 10 of the thing lent was in existance - thereby reducing the borrowers to slavery and in time - death.

Russia Revisited

Today, Russia's population is imploding. Her economy is in shambles and Lawlessness is rampant. Her wealth has been privatized to strangers. This is how it is supposed to be. It was planned this way.

Survivors of the conquering Khazarian Empire were allowed to remain in Russia and Poland after those lands had been reconquered by the Russians and Poles instead of being driven back where they came from in obedience to the WORD. They were allowed to remain and their usury practice allowed them to conquer the people who had conquered them.

Russia's king was head of the Eastern Orthodox Christian Church and he appointed nobles to help him rule the Russian people.[11] In a time of crisis, the aliens fomented a revolution, took over the country and killed more than 20,000,000 Russian- Saxons - most of them dying unspeakable deaths in gulags. To prevent a counter-revolution, the new rulers suppressed the entire Law system of the WORD and the country gradually descended into chaos. With nothing more to be gained, most of the aliens migrated to greener pastures.

11 Dharmatized populations and markets require a king to manage the merchant's wealth and servants. He enforces his employer's directives as the law of the land superseding the WORD.

Today, Russia's rulers want Dharma-trained "Christian" evangelists to come from other lands to Russia to teach Russians not to "lie", "cheat" or "steal" - just that - nothing more. They want nothing to do with the 2/3s of the Scriptures that teach how Christian "government" is to be run. They just want everyone not to "lie", "cheat" or "steal" and, of course, obey the king.

Christianity - Two Kinds

There is Christianity and there is Christian-Buddhism; One teaches people the Laws, Statutes and Judgments; the other teaches people not to lie, cheat or steal - and leaves government to the rulers.

* The first teaches; "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29

* The second teaches; "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed."

Conclusion

Many years ago, Esau said, "I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Gen 27:41. This was not an easy thing to do because Jacob was invincible when he obeyed the orders of his God, so Esau resorted to trickery, a thing he did naturally, for as the Scriptures say, "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20.

His plan was simple: he would create a counterfeit God and substitute his counterfeit for the real one. In this way he would steal their minds.

First he created a counterfeit money system called "usury"[12] Usury gave Esau an unlimited supply of money.

Next he created a counterfeit religion. He did this by taking the teachings of a religious scavenger named Buddha, combining them with Asoka's Edicts, and placing the concoction in the hands of Brahmin rulers. The result was a counterfeit religion whose true object was "nirvana".

Esau then used his wealth to train Dharmamatra agents. These were sent worldwide. They hired locals as agents to substitute Esau's counterfeit religion in the place of Jacob's - for a price. Esau knows Jacob's weak spot. Jacob's Scripture warns: "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Tim 6:10.

Dharmamatras hired Jacob's own children to be his agents and betray their own brothers for a few pieces of silver, simple tax exemption, larger salaries or pulpits, or, access to the riches of Esau's media; These hirelings agreed to turn their own people from the WORD to the counterfeit God of Esau, a counterfeit Jesus, who speaks the words of Buddha.

This is why the WORD curses them;

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves." Matt 23:15

In this manner, many of Jacob's sons have been persuaded to kiss the feet of Buddha thinking he is Christ. No longer are the words taught forbidding usury, monopoly, sodomy and strangers in the land.

12 Usury is lending 10 units when only 10 units of the thing lent is in existence - while requiring the repayment of 11 of those units, or forfeiture of assets. This creates an oxymoron. An "oxymoron" is an impossibility. Given time, Usury logically results in ALL property falling into the hands of one usurer. Ezek 18:13; Deu 23:20

No longer is Jacob taught "So shall we be separated, I and all of Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth;"

Instead he is taught "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed."

Russia is dying. The West is dying. We see God's promise being fulfilled before our eyes;

> "If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... ye will be left few in number ... ye shall be plucked from off the land." Deut 58:66

Jesus, the WORD made flesh said: "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." John 10:10.

He said, "The land is mine." Lev 25:23. He will enforce his WORD in his own land.

Unfortunately for the Children of Jacob who, for whatever reason, follow Buddha instead of the WORD - there is this command;

> "Mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring them hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27

Those who teach Jacob not to "lie", "cheat" or "steal" while allowing them to violate the rest of the Law - sin against God. It is written, "He that sinneth against me loves death." Prov 8:36

Buddha offers Nirvana - death. Jesus, "the WORD made flesh", offers life. Woe unto you who follow Buddha to your reward.

LETTERS

PROGRESS REPORT: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Positive news. I arrived 6 months ago and found our kind prey for the other tribes of Esau. Our people are few, scattered and vulnerable - the young ones were hard pressed to trade sex for favors - a death sentence because of AIDS. Since then we have grown to 20. We meet to discuss our religion, our history, and what our God expects from us. They are all younger with short sentences to do and want to make a difference.

"There is overwhelming sense of hope in the air. I can feel it! It's no longer a long and hard fought battle to get guys to see the light. Now, it only takes a few minutes, if that, and they're bought in into God's Covenant. I think it is due to the fact that everyone is becoming more and more aware that multiculturalism is a lie. They finally are realizing that they have a duty and a right to maintain their identity. Even the ones who don't know the true history behind "slavery" and "WWII". When I first meet them they have no guilt about it. It is a refreshing breath of crisp, clear air. In other words, people are beginning to see through the media nonsense on their own, without any guidance.

"There is a backlash to Esau's media. People in other facilities write and tell me the same thing. There is a refined sense of hope! While I still have to go through heated debates with some guys before they come around, more and more are already halfway there. And, if this is happening in here where a guy will be put at great risk for even mentioning that they believe the Biblical teachings, imagine what is going on out there! I think this is truly something to be thankful for. With that I will close. Merry Christmas and a joyous new year."

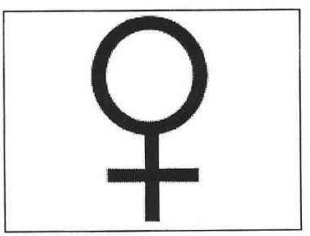
Chapter 378



MATRIARCHAL FAMILIES

Eastern Europe

The June 2005 National Geographic had an interesting article about a people called the Csángó (pronounced "Chahn-go") who live in the Romanian region of Moldavia in Eastern Europe near the Black Sea. These people are descended from followers of Arpad, Hungary's[1] founder, and according to them are lineal heirs of Attila the Hun some 700 odd years ago. Ethnologists say their belief systems are directly related to those of certain Kazakh tribes in northern Mongolia.

Most are Catholic-Christians who are often witches and fortune tellers. Many resemble Europeans with whom they have intermarried. But, after 7 centuries they still carry the hallmarks of the nomads of the Mongol-Turks of the east.

They are matriarchal.The woman is head of the family. This system seems strange to Europeans who are taught that the "family" is a husband and wife with the husband accountable to the WORD.

This Western world view is not shared by nomads where a man is seldom around the house. It is usual that the man is out food gathering or, in the case of the predator races, away trading, raiding and killing neighbors to obtain their wealth.

Hun men, the Csángó forebears, were warlike predators who often lived away from their women for extended periods - sometimes years. The women had no way of knowing whether their men were living or dead. This resulted in Hun women having to care for themselves and survive on their own.

"Marriage" among these people doesn't mean the same as it does to us. A raider might return with loot from raids and think nothing of finding his family increased by several little additions left by substitute "husbands" during his absence. The Hun male on the move had little in the way of worldly possessions and what he gathered he brought to his "wife". Once again, the "husband and wife" concept is not the same to Esau as it is to Jacob.

To manage her "family wealth" the wife of the nomad was aided by an uncle or some other family member. It was a complicated society. Families traced their ancestry through the mother - the only practical thing to do when it was possible that none of the children had the same father.[2]

Two Door Cabins

Many early Virginia families with large families had homes with two front doors. One entered the ground floor passing through the bedroom of the mother to reach the room where the daughters slept. The other front door led to the 2nd floor bedroom or "loft" where the boys slept. This system carried over into rooming houses, colleges, and hotels. Since it is unlawful for Saxon men to marry women who are not virgins, parents went to great lengths to ensure that their daughters were virgins otherwise a man would not take her as his wife.[3]

It was different with the Csángó. Their cabins also had two doors in front. One door was for family use, the other door was for the use of their teen-age daughter's lovers to come and go. When they talk to Westerners they say that this practice has long been discontinued - a statement one expects from Esau's people who practice the "36- Techniques of Deception" (see HR 365).

2 ITC installed governments usually introduce government forms requiring the "mother's name" - a normal requirement when the current "father" may have nothing to do with a person's biological existence.

3 "(A priest) shall take a virgin of his own people to wife." Lev 21:14; "And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife." Ex 22:16; "Let the Hebrews marry... virgins... and no... harlot, whose... prostitution of her body, God will not receive... If any one has been espoused... to a virgin, and does not afterward find her so to be, let him... accuse her... if the damsel be convicted, as having been corrupted... let her be stoned, because she did not preserve her virginity till she were lawfully married." Antiquities 4:8:23

Today's World

Not much has changed. Instead of being away raiding distant nations, most of the men today are away working, or doing their thing, in other parts of the world. They send their money back - as one might expect - and when they return often find their family grown by several little members.

Marriage customs are not that different elsewhere in the world of Esau. Many African tribes have a custom that forbids the "husband" to enter his own hut if he sees the spear of his wife's male visitor leaning against the doorway.

Certain American Indians felt slighted if whites did not "marry" one or more of their women for a few days while visiting.

Eskimos are said to hospitably offer their women to warm a visitor's cold nights.

One should note that in Tibet a woman may have several husbands, usually they are her husband's brothers, but not always.

Deva Dasi

In India there was a custom called Deva Dasi. This is how it is described in Am I A Hindu, Ed Viswanathan, Halo Books ©1992, San Francisco, p.234-235.

> "The Deva Dasi system was set up initially somewhat like the Christian nuns, where girls from good families were donated to God for taking care of temples. ...
> "They used these young girls as temple prostitutes. ... A girl was donated to the temple at the age of seven or eight. The girl was immediately married to the deity, which was usually Lord Krishna. Later the temple priest or someone in the royalty would make her lose her virginity. ...

"When a Deva Dasi girl became a woman .... she was allowed to wander around the country leading a life of prostitution. ..."

The article goes on to say that Deva Dasi is no longer practiced, but our eyes tell a different story. Esau's Hollywood practices a flagrant Deva Dasi system. Its painted trollops sporting new Saxon names, along with their boy-toys, often travel to India to study various forms of Hindu-Buddhism, or study the Kabbalah and Talmudism from rabbis to justify their lifestyle. At one time their rotating mates were given the title "husband". Now they don't bother with this hypocrisy. Their children have as many different fathers as their Csángó cousins to the East. The latest male in their lives is often expected to be just as temporary as those who went before.

Deva Dasi is the standard Esau's media wishes to make universal.

Jacob's Love

The love of Esau is a Hollywood "huggy-huggy, kissy-kissy" love - something entirely different from Jacob's love - which is dictated by love of God's LAW.

"For the Law ranks above affection for parents, so that a man may not for their sakes surrender his virtue, and it overrides love for a wife, so that if she transgress, a man should rebuke her, and it governs love for children, so that if they are naughty a man should punish them, and it controls the claims of friendship, so that a man should reprove his friends if they do evil.

"And do not think it a paradoxical thing when Reason through the Law is able to overcome even hatred, so that a man refrains from cutting down the enemy's orchards, and protects the property of the enemy from the spoilers, and gathers up their goods that have been scattered." 4 Maccabees 1:40-41 (Lost Books)

Back To Basics

The WORD is in two parts: One-third orders the individual, two-thirds orders the nation. To ignore the first is to destroy one's self. To ignore the second is to destroy the nation.Scripture;divided two parts

The WORD divides the world into the world of Jacob and the world of Esau.

In our world the sons of Jacob are to have no wives of the daughters of Esau. Just as Moses put away his alien wife - so must all others do the same. The Scriptures say:

"Let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come at the time appointed. And with them the rulers and judges of every place, till we turn away the wrath of the Lord from us for this matter. ... All these had taken strange wives, and they put them away with their children." I Esdras 12-13, 36

Just as Jacob is not to take Esau's women - Esau is not to take Jacob's women.

Dinah

One of the best known stories is the one about Dinah, the sister of Jacob's sons. She was raped by a stranger. Jacob's sons retaliated and destroyed both the rapist and his entire people because they made no effort to prevent the defiling of one of God's people.

"They brought by force Dinah, the daughter of Jacob ... the Hivite prince of the land slept with her and defiled her ... Jacob and his sons ... slew all the men ... because they had dishonored their sister Dinah. ... and never again shall it be thus in Israel, that a daughter of Israel be defiled. And if there is any man in Israel who desires to give his daughter or his sister to any man who is of the seed of the Gentiles, he shall surely die ... And to this law there is no limit of days and no ceasing and no forgiveness ... Moses, commanded the children of Israel ... that they shall not give any of daughters to the Gentiles and that they shall not take any of the daughters of the Gentiles ... and if they blind their eyes to those that commit uncleanness ... then shall the whole people together be punished." Jubilees 30:1-13

Whores

The WORD assumes that the reader knows the basic Law "Thou shalt be no whore of the daughters of Israel." Deut 23:17. This prohibition is reiterated time after time.

"Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? God forbid. What? know ye not that he which is joined to a harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh." I Cor 7:15-16[4]

And since a Saxon family is an undivided unit consisting of both a man and his wife - the prohibition against whoredom is directed at both man and woman:

4 "They shall bring out the damsel ... and the men ... shall stone her ... that she die: because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore." Deut 22:21.

"Whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." I Cor 6:9

The WORD organizes families of the children of Jacob - which consists consists of a man and his wife. The two are one - a unit - one body. It is patriarchal. The man leads - his wife helps and advises. The work and accomplishments of this unit is often phenomenal.

BETTY FRIEDAN
Credited with laying the groundwork of the modern feminist movement with her 1963 bestseller, "The Feminine Mystique."

Matriarchy & Women's Lib

Recently, Betty Friedan died. Esau's media mourned her passing. She was a daughter of Esau - one of several who skillfully taught the matriarchal system of her ancestors - today called "woman's lib" - to a whole generation of Saxon women. The results have been disastrous.

The number of matriarchal families in the West has mushroomed as woman's lib has destroyed traditional marriage and the resulting divorces have largely destroyed the "patriarchal" system. Saxon women with a child or two in tow find it difficult to secure a husband to take care of them and their offspring. The consequence is that they often tend to live near the poverty level. The number of Saxon children raised this way, without male influence and guidance, has soared. These children tend to accept matriarchy as normal.

Matriarchy has also encouraged birth control and abortion. Over 40,000,000 of our children have been slaughtered as offerings to Kali. "They sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils." Ps 106:37[5]

Esau's media promote women for election to public office to rule over the men - which the WORD considers a curse. "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them." Isaiah 3:12

Compounding the evil, Esau's women often seek temporary mates from among the children of Jacob while their own "husbands" are away.[6]

Communist Manifesto

Fifty years ago the Communist Manifesto was castigated in the Esau's media. While the public soaked up the Communist-bashing, the politicians elected by the same media busily enacted the Manifesto's ten planks into law. Now, criticism has become passé, it has become law.

Of interest is its 8th plank, section ii. It states that Communism requires "... an openly legalized community of women". This is its way of saying that Esau's women - the "wives" of often absent predator-warriors - will be looked on as a force in their own right - including recognition of a code of conduct that Western host nations consider abominable.

5 "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you; and before you came forth from the womb, I sanctified you, and I ordained you." Jer. 1:5; "Whosoever he be of the children of Israel that giveth any of his seed unto Molech, he shall surely be put to death" Lev 20:2

6 "We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange (zêwr) wives of the people of the land ... Make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them." Ezra 10:2-10

This results in sodomy taking place among Esau's distant warriors being tolerated as well as sodomy among their women who are left behind. It explains the ready acceptance of having the state care for their offspring who are often ignored, abandoned, or orphaned by distant sires.

This is a logical solution for people like the nomad Csángó, and when introduced into the lands of Jacob where a man and woman function as a team, the consequences are disastrous.

Saxon men - taught to be able to care for a wife before they marry and have sex - no longer have to wait; Esau's media says that whoredom is acceptable, Esau's controlled pulpit is silent, and Esau's political agents enforce acceptance and see to it that the state cares for accidental offspring.

"State aid" for illegitimate children places a heavy financial strain on traditional families forcing them to make personal financial sacrifices. This tends to limit the number of their own children.

The result - since Jacob permitted the stranger into his lands he grows fewer in numbers. Only 1.6 children are born per Western family instead of the minimum 2.1 required to maintain a constant population.

If this is allowed to progress to its logical end, the white devil will be removed and the door opens to nirvana.

Conclusion

Esau's women are different. In times of national emergency, Saxon women have stepped forward to do jobs that no one else could. Scripture acknowledges this fact; "O Woman, nobler to resist than men, and braver than warriors to endure." 4 Maccabees 7:22.

It was was Judith who took the head of General Holofernes and delivered the Israelites from the armies of Emperor Nabuchodonosor (HR 371). It was Ildico, the German princess taken by Attila the Hun to defile, who killed him - accomplishing a feat beyond the ability of the combined Goth-Roman armies (HR 215).

The accomplishments of our Israelite women are without number. However, their real glory is acting as help-mates and advisors to their husbands. Jacob's combined man-wife team makes fewer mistakes and accomplishes more than Esau's "women's-libers" have ever done.

Khazar cousins of the Csángó brought "woman's lib" to the lands of Jacob where it has created chaos. This is part of Esau's ongoing war with Jacob.

In history, Esau's apparent string of successes ended when their leaders were taken from them. In addition, Esau's worst enemy remains Esau. He eternally fights with himself. We watch his method of warfare and learn the techniques he employs against his brothers which he intends to use against us tomorrow. This will occur as the law systems of the many Gods who have accompanied Esau's people to our lands come into conflict with each other. When that happens, matriarchy will be burned away in the fiery furnace as a new-tested Saxon nation emerges with its man and wife family unit as its cornerstone.

Letter From S. Africa by K.H.

Blacks are flooding S. Africa from other places. The ones squatting on nearby river banks complain about conditions.

They expected VIP treatment when they crossed the border instead of being ignored.

There was a commotion in Diepsloot when a small monkey turned up. The blacks suddenly discovered that it was bewitched and had turned into a much larger baboon. They are a primitive and superstitious people.

They have now polluted the surrounding water sources so that we can expect cholera to appear anytime. It will have a devastating effect on them.

The black regime has issued a new decree. Trials are to be held for our soldiers accused of "crimes under apartheid". DeKlerk and his cabinet never saw to it that our soldiers who fought bravely against communism in lands outside S. Africa would get amnesty. In the forefront is the red Desmond Tutu and SACC.

Namibia accused our men of killing their SWAPO soldiers. But at that time the UN was in command under Marti Ahtisaari and our men had been disarmed and sent home to S. Africa. A few were left as border-guards. SWAPO saw this as their opportunity to invade S. Africa. The border soldiers warned the UN about the enemy build-up, but nothing was done. At last, a phone call was made to Perez de Cuellar, secretary-gen of the UN and he gave permission to repulse the invasion. As our men had been disarmed they were forced to use their own personal firearms to drive SWAPO back in a series of 63 encounters. Not possessing vehicles or helicopters, we lost many men unnecessarily, but the invaders were driven back over the borders in nine days.

Peter Stiff was our war correspondent and he made careful notes and published them in a book on the incident. SWAPO left their dead for our men to bury. The story of a mass grave was false. The men serving in that battalion were the best in the world in bush warfare.

With the black revenge campaign under way against whites, not a word is said about the daily on-going rapes. It is a low intensity war, but a war no less. It forces us to be on alert at all times.

Last Sunday, Hans saw a few blacks in the distance hiding in the long grass next to the road leading to our house. He used a large mirror to reflect sunlight on them as a way to distract them. While they tried to hide from the reflected sunlight, Maria turned the bend in the road and saw two large rocks they had placed where the road turns - a perfect ambush. Luckily, Hans kept the five blacks occupied long enough for Maria to roll the rocks away and drive into a neighbor's place. Hans then went and escorted her home. The English press is mostly silent about this new kind of warfare.

We only have 9 heart specialists left in the whole country. The rest have moved to greener fields. To think of all the successful transplants that were done here in the Groote Schuur hospital - . The same goes with other medical branches. Even family doctors are in short supply. More of us have to turn to homeopaths. Unfortunately, they are just as expensive. Strangely, the anesthetist, who only sees a patient for a few minutes, charges three times as much as the surgeons.

We went down to see the Loeries. Two of the children went home as their parents situation improved and I think two new children have come to take their place.

The TV E-news last night said that the regime will begin large scale confiscations of white farms starting next month. My heart bleeds for those who persevered through all those difficult years only to have this happen to them. The Jews and Indians behind all this will be most satisfied with the results of their labour of many years in getting rid of whites.

The hour is late but if our people would get rid of their false priests, and pray to God to deliver them from these enemies who covet their possessions, things will be different. When the blacks get the farms they are never eager to pay the price the state has determined they must pay. Some people have been waiting for two years or more for their money and have had to sell their few possessions to stay alive.

Blacks became rich overnight when given our property and appear in the English newspapers as important people at big events, while whites become poor. Jews simply give mines and partnerships in big companies to these savages because it will make them to serve their purposes in the future.

Black judges make no secret of their hatred of our Afrikaans language, calling it a disgusting language. I do not think one can get a fair trial from a black judge.

With our best wish, Hans and Johanna

BLACK WATCH: "The concept of mantra, yantra, tantra sheds a new light on an argument I had with a black some years ago. I was discussing the Scottish Black Watch with someone else when this black interrupted with 'I can't wait until there are no more white people.' He actually thought that the Scottish Black Watch was a black thing. When I laughed and said that was not going to happen, he replied 'it happened in India'". M.B. - California

LEARNING: "Dear Teacher; I spent 6 years flying in the Canadian Air Force in WW2 and believed the gassing story that the Jews were killed in Germany's 'death camps'. Then, AFTER the war, it was proved that NO 'death camps' were in Germany - a mistake had been made and they were in Poland - I started to research the matter. I finally realized the entire 'death camp' story was just a money making scheme. Surprise! Surprise!" H.A. - Tennessee

P.S. Your recent HR pointing out the rules for Israel to follow matched perfectly Germany's suppressed 1920 NSWP's 25 Points platform for government. It appears that Christian Germany had searched the scriptures when making rules for its government. No wonder they are hated.

CONDITIONS SA: "Greeting from S. Africa; I am also an Afrikaner. We are a small minority, fighting for our survival, just like our ancestors at Blood River. The battle now is just much more subtle. They are attempting to drive us off our farms by murdering and intimidating our farmers, keeping the prices of our farm products down, and discriminating with labor laws. They create unemployment by reserving employment (affirmative action) and contracts for blacks only. By enforcing mixed schools and then demanding that the teaching medium should be English (not Afrikaans). And so I could continue.

"Our churches reject the truth of God's everlasting Covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and their seed. So we need another miracle like Blood River. RKH: The Cartel is careful whom they allow to become multi-millionaires. Most are bought and paid for. The tax system puts the self-made exceptions back into the struggling crowd in a few short generations. The Cartel allow very few families to have wealth who follow the WORD. Anything that will be done for the orphans will be done with the combined tithes of our people - "the little ones."

JACOB vs ESAU: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I wonder at your constantly identifying with Jacob vs Esau. In the Bible, Jacob is a sneak, liar and thief." S. R. - New York

RKH: True, Jacob was a sneak, liar and a thief. The story is a parable. The moral is that a sneak, liar and thief is hands-down better than one who declares war on God the WORD by marriage to a stranger. God said, "I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau." Malachi 1:1. Why? "Esau ... came as far as the field of Seir, the same is Edom. ... And Esau there saw in the land of Seir the daughter of a man of Canaan, and her name was Jehudith ... And Esau took her for a wife." Jasher 29:20-23. Esau chose to divorce himself eternally from his brother Jacob whose God the WORD had Commanded: "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." Deut 23:2.

Chapter 379

CHETTIARS

British Empire Moneylenders

Success Vs Failure

It is an observable fact that Lawless people rise high in politics, religion, and finance. Lawful people don't.

You remember reading in War Cycles / Peace Cycles and Vigilantes Of Christendom[1] how Andy Jackson went to war with the "2nd Bank of the United States". He had discovered that Biddle, the head of the bank, was using bank credit to buy up newspapers and then turning their editorial policy against him. Biddle also used bank credit to buy up land and business.

Jackson had uncovered the plot to establish bank control over the people of America from top to bottom. The discovery took place in the 1830s. Andy Jackson's election was the last free election before bank-owned media totally captured the minds of the American people. This brought them war and the destruction of their self- sufficient farms that had created for them renewable wealth for over two and a half centuries. Its replacement was the usury-money system.

Jackson also discovered two other things; his long time "friends" who had promised help in his run for president were silent. They had become debt-slaves to The 2nd Bank of the U.S. - Jackson's enemy. If they supported Jackson, their loans might be called and they would be forced into bankruptcy.

The other thing that Jackson learned was that after he caused the collapse of the *2nd Bank of the United State*s, the list of the bank's stockholders became public revealing that most resided in Great Britain. This meant that after fighting two wars with Great Britain, America remained a captive colony by "other means".

Lynchburg Business

Every few weeks in Lynchburg's McDonald's, top managers from out-of-town arrive and hold business meetings with local store managers and staff. I see them when I visit. Most of these top managers are black.

In Lynchburg, bank branch managers and bank tellers increasingly are black; managers of multi-million dollar food stores are black;

TV stock market reports reveal that a surprising number of corporate Chief Executive Officers are black; The Investor's News Daily reveals that the presidents of some of America's largest companies are black.

This is interesting since the results of blacks managing South Africa are not impressive and here in the American South we also have had a first-hand experience of living under black government for an extended period. It was not an experience that excited confidence.

Only a fool ignores what his eyes see.

The Indian Story

We have just noted how Britain led the U.S. around by her financial nose in spite of being bested in two wars. There's more.

The other day I ran across an interesting story in Financial Times, W23, March 11-March 12, 2006. It was about Chettiars. It is the first time I had heard the name. The story had to do with their fantastic mansions in South India's Tamil Nadu region. These mansions were built at tremendous expense, and after building them the Chettiars just walked away. With few exceptions they stand deserted today. I've seen the pictures - they are really impressive and supposedly there are 75 villages full of them. Not many people in the world have that kind of money.

The article said that Chettiar merchants who once lived there were clannish, partial to marrying their first cousins, financially brilliant, and now "their vacant homes stand as memorials to a by-gone era."

Following is the part of the article that really caught my eye:

> "In the 1920s the Chettiars were appointed official moneylenders of the British Empire", and "after the Second World War the Chettiars ... recast themselves as pharmaceutical giants and business tycoons."

I didn't know that - did you? Britain is still in the usury business! Their agents can transform themselves into pharmaceutical giants and tycoons! It's nice to have enough money so that you can switch vocations from banker to pharmaceutical giant or business tycoon if you like. It beats working in a fast-food outlet.

Let's look back a bit.

Two Plus Two

When the Aryans invaded India, they pushed the black Dravidians into southern India and took over India's north. In time the Dravidians learned to use religion combined with the usury contract as a weapon.

This weapon culminated in "Dharma". Dharma taught the Aryans to "Love everyone without regard to race, creed or national origin." If you refused, the government came after you. The result was predictable - the Aryans destroying themselves through racial intermarriage - which of course was the plan.

It is the same today. One must "love everyone" to receive promotion at work, advancement in college, the pulpit, or to get a loan - a BIG loan. The old saw is still true: "The one who pays the piper calls the tune."

The Aryans in India had been more powerful militarily, architectually, culturally, and in almost every other way to the black Dravidians - but were absorbed by them and vanished from the world's stage leaving their monuments behind.[2]

Alexander The Great In India

What makes one talented leader a "winner" and another talented leader a "loser"? The answer I received at military school when I was 15 was "God is on the side of the big battalions." While the truth of this may be debated, another question must be answered;

What determines who has the "big battalions" and who doesn't?

Money! Money hires soldiers.

There is no doubt that Alexander was the most talented soldier of his age but, since the Law says "The borrower is slave to the lender", the real leader of Alexander's well paid empire-conquering battalions was the one who paid them.

Alexander invaded northern India, united the "separatist" states, turned them over to King Chandragupta, collected his pay - and marched away. Job completed.

Britain In India

Lawless India again fell into disarray having divided itself into countless ungovernable separatist states. Great Britain, cast as a modern day Alexander, was hired to straighten out the mess. She came, united India, suppressed dissidents and terrorists, policed it, organized a government so that it could be ruled as a unit, taught them "English" so that Indians would have a common language and then, collected their pay and marched away. Same old - same old.

2 Dravidians, wearing many religious guises, are made in the image of their God - Siva/Kali - God of death and destruction. They work tirelessly for their God bringing sexual perversion, death and destruction to all around them. The Garden will not support both Adam and the Serpent. Where the serpent appears - Adam disappears.

The article said that one of the things they did before leaving was to "appoint the Chettiars the official money-lenders of the British Empire."

The boast at that time was "the sun never sets on the British Empire". Thus, appointing the Chettiars as the official moneylenders of the British Empire was actually an announcement to the world that they had better pay their debts when due or the British Empire would step in and collect for them. Britian was their enforcer and collector.

This is what Britain was paid to do. This is why bankers pay to make their agents kings of subject states. There is no good lending "10 for 11" when only ten is in existence unless you have a powerful collector standing by to force victims to give up their collateral when forced into the inevitable default guaranteed by usury.

Researching Chettiars

When I first heard the name "Chettiars", I looked it up in the British Enclopedia 11th edition. Nothing. I looked it up in E/B 14th Ed. Nothing. I looked it up in the on-line American Heritage Encyclopedia; again nothing.

Then I looked it up on Google internet search engine and found tons of information all over the place. Here are some of my gleanings.

Chettiars have been around a long time in spite of being blacked out in the West. They trace their present evolution to an overthrow of Kalabhras in the late 6th Century. The Kalabhras were an early "government" who had the audacity to confiscate properties that had been gifted to the "Gods and the Brahmins" - meaning a temple and a priesthood, which we would call today a church organization[3] or more accurately - a temple corporation whose function includes banking - just like today. This just says that the "system" had been around a long time before the 6th century.

In India "temple worship" was and is the thing. The individual can't find his way to Nirvana without the help of priests. Gifts of land and money to the temples have always been looked upon as meritorious acts that encourage priests to work harder to get the giver to Nirvana.

This made the temples the richest landlords in India - owning through gifts and purchase practically everything of value in the country. The appearance of mercy and benevolence was maintained by having their premises house both hospitals and schools. The temple was the most important ancient credit institution of India.[4]

Many modern banking practices come from this group:

> "Chettiars are the Pioneers of Modern Banking. They introduced a new concept of 'Double Entry Bookkeeping." ... known to all of us as Debit & Credit in English." (Http://members.fortunecity.com/herkappai /origin.htm))

Pictures of "Chettiars" reveal what appear to be ordinary blacks except for their dress. Could it be that among all the various races of blacks there is a special super-black? Perhaps - perhaps not.

3 ((http://uni-koelai.delphil- fak/indologie/ kolam/kolam3/indira02.html

4 Appadurai, A., "Economic Condition in South India" 1936, pp288f & pp434f.

One might speculate that the Chettiars are a repeat of the Saudi Arabian experience where rulers often have a higher degree of black blood than the average Arab because of a history of bringing blacks into their harems. The offspring are actually mulattos who have greater power, wealth and privilege than other Arabians - not because they are smarter or more talented - but simply because they inherited them.

The same may be true in India. Esau's descendants have few inhibitions about sex and taking strangers for wives. Over time, strangers could replace the original banker families and inherit their profession and their wealth.[5] It is a fact that in black south India where Chettiars live, the per- capita income level is almost twice that in the lighter colored northern part. The Chettiar wealth "spill-over" could be the reason.

And, as we have learned, the "10 for 11" usury system once established only needs new borrowers to perpetuates itself indefinitely. It is a monopoly system having many branches but a single source.

Deductions

The discovery of the existence of Chettiar bankers may answer many questions.[6]

5 Usury is a weapon. The Children-of-Esau often employ Children-of-Jacob as agents, ones who are traitors to their God and their nation, to be their king-enforcers, priests to reinterpretate God's LAW, and managers of their vast corporate wealth. To show their good faith and to secure employment in these cushy jobs, many of these types mate with Children-of-Esau. This allows Esau to ease into the family of Jacob and change it into the family of Esau.. Sen. Strom Thurman sired a mulatto. President Bush's brother married a Hispanic, Gore's daughter married a Jew; Sen Phil Gramm, TX married an Oriental, Princess Ann married a Turk; President Reagan 's first wife was a Jew; and the treason continues.

6 It is logical that Kali followers support the "usury system" - the system that brings slavery, death and destruction; just as it is logical that followers of the WORD support "scrip" and the "renewable-wealth" system that comes with the self-sufficient farm.

It would answer why black managers come to Lynchburg to instruct McDonald's managers, why there is suddenly a rash of black bank- branch managers, and why there is a sudden rash of black CEOs and black corporate presidents. It would answer why Hindu castes suddenly appear managing motels and hotels.

If the Biddles of the world, agents of the Children -of-Esau, buy up newspapers, land and corporations for their masters, well, then Esau owns the big corporations of the world. They can do with their property as they wish.

Honors

As long as we are speculating about a subject that has been hidden for a long time, let's speculate further.

When someone makes a large donation to a college, a library, or a ball park, he is often honored by having a building, streeet, or bridge named for them. Powerful leaders are honored by having statues built and by receiving state funerals when they die.

Now suppose we have a people whose God is a God of Destruction and Death - who burns cities and revels in destruction, deception, lying and sex. It would be fitting to have a representative of that group honored by naming buildings, streets, bridges after him - even have a national holiday in his name. It would explain why his picture hangs between pictures of Buddha and Jesus Christ at the Hindu ashram down the James from Lynchburg.

Letter From S. Africa

Dear Mr. Hoskins: Winter is coming and the black government is scrambling to head off a massive electricity crisis.

The newspapers say that even greater crises lie ahead because of poor planning, the failure to replace aging equipment and the failure to anticipate growing demand has forced the electricity grid to operate at full capacity. The report is that a single breakdown at any power plant could plunge whole regions into cold and darkness.

The Sunday Times said that 1/6th of the power capacity was off-line already causing mass blackouts. An emergency at our Koeberg nuclear power station shut that one down. The other nuclear plant crashed last Saturday. This will cost the country more than R1- billion.

The government says to expect rolling blackouts when it gets cold. One director said "This is a nightmare beyond comprehension." Plants and mines operate for a while and stop, start up again for a while and stop again, as power goes off and on. Big firms have bought up every generator in the country, both gas and battery. They don't say that the real reason for the trouble is that they dismissed all the white engineers and replaced them with blacks. Now the government is trying to hire back 90 former white engineers, most of whom have probably left the country to find jobs.

These power outages will affect our own alarm system here and ability to pump water from wells. Either one would be serious by itself. Last night the electricity was out for hours and in this unseasonable cold weather it is serious. It is said the Eskom management company knew they would run short of power back in 1992 but did nothing about it.

While this is going on, the Herald newspaper reports that the government plans to spend millions to expand and upgrade power stations in Zimbabwe and billions on buying white farms on which nothing will be grown. What about the power crisis?

On to other subjects: They have passed a law limiting the number of cats and dogs people will be allowed to have. It is not impossible for the corrupt police to take the extra animals away and sell them to the Chinese - they eat dogs and cats. For the life of me I cannot see a difference between blacks and those of the east. We were told years ago that the Chinese have such a high civilization. To me that is a blatant lie. One factory after another closes down where they take over. They pay whites very low wages while blacks get paid very well.

A prison in the north had problems, so both prison wardens and criminals set the prison alight. They were on the way out but white farmers kept them there and none escaped. The black police did nothing as usual.

The lead-free petrol is another mess. No planning. As of Jan 1, 2006 all petrol must be without lead. The outcome is that many petrol stations are without fuel and many cars can't use unleaded petrol.

Visited the Loeries and they are all well.

Our best wishes, K.J.

MILOSEVIC DIES

A "separatist" is an enemy of the International Trade Cartel (ITC). The cartel wants integration - the world wants separation.

Rudolf Hess was held in prison decades after WWII. The charge was waging wars of aggression. The Russians said that they were going to release him. People waited to hear what he had to say about what had really transpired between Germany and the Allies. Unfortunately, he was strangled in prison. The US called it "suicide".

The US invaded Panama and jailed its president. Something to do with "drugs" we are told.

The US invaded Yugoslavia and put Slobodan Milosevic, her president on trial following his arrest five years ago. He was tried, and tried, and tried - and he demanded that his persecutors use the same rules on themselves they were using on him. World opinion leaned his way. Despairing of obtaining a conviction Milosevic conveniently dropped dead from a heart attack bringing an end to the show-trial. Independent forensic investigators made an inconvenient discovery - "Doctors said Milosevic had traces of a drug in his system that hadn't been prescribed and that could have induced his death." This is a roundabout way of saying that he was poisoned.

Even more strange was the announcement in The NEWS 3/17/06, p6, six days before the strange death of Milosevic that revealed that the former leader of Croatia's rebel Serbs, Milan Babic, and a strong ally of Slobodan Milosevic, also had killed himself in his jail cell in The Hague. "Dutch authorities refused to reveal his method of suicide". This wraps ups the Yugoslav affair.

Now, on to the trial of Saddam Hussein. The US media are pushing for his execution which would prove his guilt. But Saddam is another who insists on speaking out - inconveniently winning public support.

Complicating matters is the dispute that has come to the fore with the outbreak of Iraqi civil war as to whether or not to kill Saddam for mass murder or to reinstate him as Iraq's president to bring order out of the chaos caused by the US invasion of that country.

(Story in CSM, Aug 8, 2005)

RKH: Interesting argument. The feds told us that we couldn't leave the union, had never left the union, and that's what the war was all about. "Slavery" was thrown onto the scales when the legality of the invasion was questioned. The following should have been made required reading;

"There are things ... we ought to do in common to all men ... treat those that are esteemed our enemies with moderation; for he doth not allow us to set their country on fire, nor permit us to cut down those trees that bear fruit: ... He hath also provided for such as are taken captive that they may not be injured, and especially that the women may not be abused." Josephus, Against Apion 2:30.

North Carolina is lucky to get back this little bit that has been looted. Down in Tidewater, Virginia, the invaders sowed farmland near our farm with salt. The children of the owner went hungry for years because the land would not grow crops. Houses were looted of everything movable. Furniture left behind disappeared into fireplaces as troops quartered there used it for kindling. Women were treated like dirt. Five hundred year old silver engraved with family arms disappeared. Like few others, we Southerners understand and sympathize with the more recent tribulations of our South African and German kinsmen. We know what they have gone through - the same things were done to us. The Lawful insist on living under the LAW of "God the WORD rather than the "God of the world" trade law - the God that brands us "separatists", "extremists", and "trouble-makers". The WORD tells us what to expect from the liberals' God:

MAD COW: The brain-wasting mad cow-like disease in wild American deer, sheep and elk is caused by rogue proteins called prions, which also cause Creutzfelt-Jakob disease in humans and mad cow disease in cattle.

In Britain the cattle became infected when farmers gave them feed containing ground-up brain tissue from infected animals. According to a study, the infected animals release prions in their urine. So as they feed and migrate, the wild animals leave a trail of prions on grass. It is apparently an effective form of transmission. In some areas of the West 20% of the deer herd is afflicted. (THE WEEK, Nov 4, 2005, p.26)

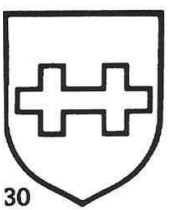
Chapter 380



TRANSFER AGREEMENT

German Chaos

In 1918, Germany agreed to an Armistice based on President Wilson's 14 points which included no territorial aggrandizement. In other words, everyone was to go back to where they were before the war started. This sounded reasonable since there was general war- weariness, millions had died, and the war was bogged down and going nowhere. Allied and German armies held their positions while politicians talked.

Back home revolution broke out and the Kaiser abdicated and went into exile. Government became virtually non-existent overnight. Lack of organization disrupted supplies to German armies at the front forcing the soldiers to make their way home as best they could.

The allies, finding no German army in front of them, trashed the Armistice, and imposed the infamous Versailles Treaty that stripped away German provinces, placed millions of Germans under foreign rule, took away her colonies and imposed impossible reparations.

The princes and leaders of the old German states that made up the German Reich took this opportunity to settle old scores and gain back the authority they had lost to the Kaisar's central government. Jewish Bolsheviks stepped out of the shadows and commenced the same atrocities in Germany they were doing in Russia.

It seemed that fighting was everywhere. Conflict enveloped cities and ruled the streets - a mirror picture of what was going on in Russia. Germany was breaking up into its component states. Soldiers of the returning German army were recruited by 50s and 100s into Freikorps units and thrown into the maelstrom as private armies to protect the property of special interests. They sometimes found themselves fighting not only communists, but former comrades.

The Allies couldn't fully harvest the fruit of their victory in the midst of chaos, so they helped set up a puppet Weimar Republic to restore order using elements of Freikorps. Most places gradually quieted down except where the Red Front was well organized and financed.

As the dust settled, Germany could be seen trying to return to the old days. Protestant parties were actively attempting to reintroduce the edicts of the deposed German Empire; Catholic parties attempted to impose their Canon Law; Bolsheviks attempted to impose revolutionary rule, and princes and nobles of the various states demanded special consideration from a central government that was broke, in debt, and without power to enforce its decrees.

There was also soaring inflation which brought out the international Jewish merchant who walked the streets waiting until starving Germans were forced to sell their properties for pennies on the dollar to buy bread. There were unbelievable numbers of people out of work, and this state of affairs continued on and on - throughout the 1920s.

Religion

Both Imperial Protestant State Lutheranism and universal Roman Catholicism were empire-religions. To justify their belief in universal-Christianity vs the first century separatist- Christianity - both had re-interpreted Scripture to deal with kings, monopolies, taxes, usury and strangers, and both suppressed those who would not accept their re-interpretations - driving them and their beliefs underground.

In spite of a history of long rule, the German chaos made it impossible for either of these state religions to enforce their revised law systems. When a semblance of order was restored, followers of Traditional Christianity emerged with their philosophy fully developed. They were instrumental in creating a document called the 25-Points.

NSWP 25-Points

The new National Socialist party used the 25-Points for its platform. Its leader wholeheartedly adopted its beliefs. He stated:

> "The Reich sees in Christianity the unshakeable foundation for the ethics and morality of the volk." German Chancellor Adolph Hitler 1934

The new party called itself the National Socialist Workers Party. Its motto regarding religion was:

> "Neither Protestant nor Catholic - but Positive Christianity!"

The "25-Points Platform appeared Feb 25, 1920 (HR #245). They brought hope and sanity to a Germany gone mad - and they worked!

Selected points in brief:

#4. * Only those of German blood may be citizens.[1]

#8. * Repatriation of non-Germans.[2]

This one had interesting repercussions which we will touch on later.

#17. * Confiscation of corporation and trust land monopolies.[3]

1 "The eternal God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; ... Israel than shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:27-28; "Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me." Ex 9:13; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deut 23:2

2 "I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land". Ex 23:31-33

3 "Ye shall dispossess the land and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it. And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families" Numbers 33:52-54

Most of Germany was owned by corporations and trust monopolies. Foreign corporations acted as great siphons sucking away the remaining wealth of the country. What land not held by the nobility was owned by the Protestant and Catholic Churches.

#18. * Usurers punished with death.[4]

#23. * Creation of a national press. Editors must be Germans.

#25. * Non-German media forbidden.

Alien-owned German media had long replaced the pulpit in disseminating morality and substituting Esau's Gods for the WORD. They controlled the minds and souls of the people.[5]

#23 & #25 of the Party's 25-Points above gave the enemies of Saxon Germany fair notice of what they were up against. The platform had been posted for all to see for more than a decade. But by then, misery had gone unchecked for so long that Germany appeared to be a shambles regardless who ran things. Since everything else had been tried and had failed - National Socialism's 25-Points appeared to be Germany's only hope.[6]

4 "Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

5 "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Numbers 18:7, No 1:51.

6 It's interesting that Germany's Finance Minister, Hjalmar Schacht, and Bank of England's, Sir Joshua Stamp, met and found they agreed about money. (Confessions of The Old Wizard, Hjalmar Schacht, ©1956, NY.) Readers will remember that HR 366 "Making Witchcraft Money", carried Stamp's profound comment about the world's money system.

Russian Bolshevism

The Red Terror in Russia greatly influenced German thinking. The Bolsheviks had murdered the Tzar and his family and were killing the Russian people by the millions. Leaders such as Lenin and Trotsky and others with few exceptions were Jews. The same was true in Germany. Germany's "red-front" was led by Jews.

The NSWP party came into power in January 1933. On March 23, 1933 the Chancellor was given power to implement the 25-Points. On March 27, just five days later and before they had a chance to take over government functions, international Jewish organizations initiated a world wide boycott of Germany beginning with a great rally held in Madison Square Garden that attracted tens of thousands. Among those attending were a number of churchmen including Catholic bishops.

Jewish leaders in America bragged that they had brought the Russian Czar down by denying him loans. They boasted that they gave the Japanese a $100m dollar loan to purchase weapons which allowed them to win its war with Russia.[7] This was the powerful Jewish group - the "Capitalist" Jews.

There was another group of Jews called "Zionists". The objectives of this group were often at cross purposes with the moneyed Capitalist Jews for reasons that will soon become apparent.

Germans tended to look on Jews as divided into three groups: "Bolsheviks", "Capitalists" and "Zionists".

The German Miracle

The implemention of the 25-Points resulted in what was called "The German Miracle". The NSWP came to power and did what they said they were going to do and Germany leapt out of the depression while the rest of the countries of the world remained mired in depression miseries until WWII. The world looked on in amazement.

SS

The SS was the apparatus to impliment the German National Socialist Party program. The key branches, whose duties often overlap, are listed below:[8]

ADMINISTRATIVE MAIN OFFICE - Economic, Police, Intelligence, and Security Service - Gestapo, Waffen SS - Military.

REPATRIATION - charged with helping Germans return from alien lands and repatriating alien populations to theirs. Later, when wartime conditions prevented repatriation of security-risk populations, security risks were sent to internment camps for the duration of hostilities as was done in the US.

SS Marriage Bureau - Authenticated genuine Western ancestry of would-be SS brides.

Waffen SS

In spite of the labor involved compiling genealogies that had to be authenticated proving German descent which allowed one to enlist - recruits poured in - particularly from the German aristocracy and former officers of the armed services.

Among the recruits was the Crown Prince of Germany accompanied by Prince von Waldeck - Pyrmont, Prince von Mecklenburg, Prince Lippe-Biesterfeld, Prince Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, and the Archbishops of Brunswick and Freiburg.[9]

In the days before racial aliens were admitted to special units of the SS - the twin collar lightning runes were themselves enough to open doors in most of Germany. Between January 1931 and January 1933 the SS grew from around 400 to over 50,000.

Foreign SS Divisions

The other peoples of Europe saw the German miracle and compared it with their own mismanaged countries. They wanted the miracle for their own people, but this would never happen if the Bolshevist juggernaut overran Germany and the rest of Europe.

To prevent this, many of Europe's young men volunteered to fight in the SS. Many came from Saxon countries, but many others were racial aliens. No one, neither Saxon nor alien, wanted to be ruled by Germany but all agreed that Germany must survive to help implement the 25-Point rebellion against Cartel rule.

9 Ibid, p.34. Many holders of ancient titles gladly enlisted as private soldiers. The SS is said to have contained the social register of Germany - it certainly contained the world's Saxon physical and mental elite.

To handle these new volunteers and to deal with their special situations, the Waffen SS organized additional divisions.

Non-German SS

Shown below are the insignia of the various foreign SS divisions. Division insignia for all SS divisions can be found in Waffen SS, p.138. There were also Islamic, Hindu, and Catholic contingents - all fighting for the ideal of separation from the International Trade Cartel.

In the last days when the Communists were fighting their way into Berlin - it was the 34th French "Charlemagne" (insignia p.83) that was the last division defending Berlin. In the ruins of the city 400 fresh recruits from the Netherlands, still in civilian clothes, were sworn in as new members of the SS, given rifles, and sent to their posts. Over half of this million man SS army became causalities defending the ideal of separation.

Today the ideal of separation from Hindu integration, in spite of nonstop persecution, is still very much alive in Russia, India, Islam, and even clandestinely in Europe, in spite of the risk of showing the odd-shaped Christian cross symbol. Right now a mention of its slogans can bring a 5-year prison sentence and there is talk of outlawing the Bible because it is a racist book. More than half a century after WWII, scarcely a day passes without media documentaries being shown to condition people against the NS 25-Points and indirectly the Scriptures on which most of the points are based.

Repatriation

As mentioned before, most Europeans looked on Jews as being one of three groups - Capitalist, Communist, or Zionist.

There are major disagreements between Jewish groups. Because of their wealth and media control, the "capitalist" Jew is the dominate one. Still, the Capitalist had to deal with their own Zionists who wished to reconstitute their ancient Empire of Khazaria.

Planning ahead, the "capitalists" had to visualize what the Zionists might do once they had their own state. If they went off on their own like their ancestors did and became "separatists", then the International Trade Cartel would have problems.

Unable to prevent the formation of a Jewish state because of the popularity of the Zionist idea - efforts were made to control the state once built. Instead of offering the lands of the ancient Khazareans in Southern Russia - the Zionists were directed to Palestine - a God forsaken land surrounded by millions of hostile Islamic peoples. This made the new Zionist state dependent on perpetual outside help from their brother Capitalist Jews for survival.

Problem Rise - Problem Solved

After finding a state, the next big problem for the Zionist was to secure colonists. European Jews didn't want to become colonists and go to Palestine. They didn't know how to farm to keep from starving and they were quite happy where they were. This problem was quickly solved with the arrival of the National Socialist Party's 25-Points.

Point #18 did away with usury. Banishing usury removed German assets beyond the reach of Jewish banks who were privatising defeated post-war Germany. A multi-billion dollar operation was slipping out of their fingers.

Point #8 required the repatriation of non-Germans. This applied to those operating the banks.

Point #17 required the confiscation of corporation and trust land monopolies[10] and pre-empted vast wealth that Jewish capitalists considered their own property.

10 "The Program of the National Socialist German Workers' Party.", HR #345.

The Boycott

Fifty-one days after the NS came into power, the massive rally was held at the Madison Square Garden that involved tens of thousands of Jews.[11] The boycott protested that the Germans were committing atrocities against Jews.

The Germans retaliated with the counter-threat that if the Jewish boycott was not quickly terminated, Germany would in turn boycott Jewish merchants in Germany. Since Germany had already stated that they were going to banish usury and seize corporations and trusts - the Capitalist Jews continued the boycott. As promised, the NS began their boycott of Jewish merchants. This is just what the Zionists wanted.

Ongoing Jewish atrocity propaganda from America combined with an actual German boycott of Jewish goods in Germany frightened many Jews. They changed their minds about emigrating to Palestine.

Working Together

The Zionists were estatic. They went to the German National Socialists and discussed Platform Point #8 - Repatriation of non-Germans and struck a deal with them.

The German Zionists rounded up Jewish settlers willing to go to Palestine and sent them to SS camps to be trained to become farmers on Palestinian kibbutzim.

> "On August 7, 1933, leaders of the Zionist movement concluded a secret pact with the NSWP which transferred some 60,000 Jews and $100 million to Jewish Palestine."[12]

11 The Transfer Agreement, Pact Between The Third Reich and Jewish Palestine, Edwin Black, p.34, ©2001. Carroll & Graf Publishers, NY

12 The Transfer Agreement, p.xi

Of course the actual figure is debated, some stating that the figure is many times larger than 60,000. Regardless, the fact remains, the Israeli state owes its existence to the Nationalist Socialist Party of Germany.

The President of the German Zionist Federation Kurt Blumenfeld summed it up: "After all, both Nazis and Zionists agreed that Jews did not belong in Germany."[13]

Both Jewish nationalists and German nationalists committed themselves to work together for the common goal of separating from each other.[14]

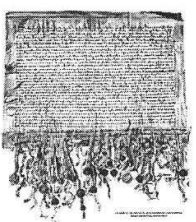
Chapter 381



SCOTLAND'S DECLARATION & STONE OF SCONE

There are two kinds of people: the Children of Jacob and the Children of Esau.

Esau swore he would kill his brother Jacob. Jacob can be killed only if he is separated from God the WORD who created him and protects him.

Esau's plan is to separate Jacob from his God so that he can be killed. To do this, Esau's children pretend to be Jacob's children. They then say that the WORD belongs to them - therefore the children of Jacob are not entitled to the promises of protection.

Saxons who believe Esau's lying words leave the shelter of the WORD and die. The strong grow stronger knowing the history of their people and the promises God made to their ancestors are theirs by right of descent.

My Situation

Knowing none of the above, I agreed to follow the WORD on 28 April 1965 at 4:00 in the afternoon while sitting in my green rocking chair on the front porch of my house.

The atheist law system taught to me by a college heavily endowed by Esau's corporations was not working out. Not knowing what to do next, I located an operation manual and studied how to act and live in the strange new world governed by the Law system of The WORD.

Almost the first thing I read was to get right with my enemies. That was tough. I got a yellow legal pad, drew a line down the middle, and filled two columns with the names of my enemies and went to see them. It took me a year and a half to see them all.

The WORD said that my body was not my own, that it was made in the image of the WORD. I had no idea what that meant - that it was holy and I had to take care of it. I made changes in my life-style and things began looking up.

Running Into The Big Problem

Part of the agreement I had made was that I would go to church on Sunday - it was my bona-fides. Church-going was a learning experience! I attended most of the churches in Lynchburg and found that no two taught the same thing, and none taught the simple cut and dried "Laws, Statutes and Judgments" that I was daily reading in the Bible.

We Aren't Under The Law

One by one I cornered the pastors and asked, "Why not teach and live by Biblical Laws?" Some replied that they didn't teach the Law because we were no longer under the Law, that it had been "nailed to the cross". I researched this argument and found that our grandfathers believed that this applied only to the many priestly ritual-laws, and that we were supposed to obey God's Laws.

These preachers said that the only laws we were obligated to follow were the ones given us by the government.

At Thomas Road Baptist Church, which I attended for 18 years, I raised the question about the Bible's prohibition of "usury" and was told that I would have to ask the local Jewish Rabbi because only Jews were under the Law. The Law did not apply to non-Jews.

War Cycles / Peace Cycles

I had assumed Christians obeyed the Laws written in the Bible because that's what Christians were supposed to do.

Things came to a head when writing War Cycles/ Peace Cycles that dealt with usury. If the Law was done away as the Judeo/Christian preachers said it was, I was wasting my time. The story might be interesting to the usual money-freaks always interested in stories about money, but didn't necessarily apply to Christians. People could follow their conscience and there was no Law to prevent them from practicing usury or not practicing usury. In fact, they could do just about anything they wanted to do that wasn't against government statutes and didn't offend the preachers' ideas of right and wrong.

My writing stopped until I could sort this out.

Finding A Path

My break came when I looked up an old story. It was a story I was told when I was seven years old while sitting before the fire and listening to my grandmother's talk about our ancestors long ago in Scotland.

I went to the history books - and there it was. Other people knew the story. A lot of other people knew. In fact, there is a picture of it on the first page of this report.

Scottish Background

Those having Scottish ancestry know, or should know, the story of the Scottish Declaration Of Independence. I've told it before. It's basic when trying to understand the differences between the old Scottish belief in Biblical Law for the people and England's state church law which teaches a Law that the king had modified to allow him to continue the practice of monopoly, usury, undivided land, and having strangers in the land - the things Bible Law forbids. The story goes this way:

Edward II of England invaded Scotland and suffered a humiliating defeat at Bannockburn, June 24, 1314, as everyone who saw the movie Brave Heart well knows. Undaunted, Edward attempted to do with diplomacy what he could not do with his armies.

Edward held his lands en fief from the Pope. As part of the agreement, the Pope was after him to furnish English armies to help his re-conquest of the Holy Land. Edward agreed, but asked one small favor in return. He asked that the pope, Pope John XXII, "give" Scotland to him to rule.

Since the Catholic Church claimed all lands in the West by right of being "Peter's heir", of "Constantine's Bequest" and by right of being "spiritual Israel" - and because all Western kings held their titles and lands en fief from him - giving Scotland to the English king to rule was a mere formality. In 1317, he ordered it done.

The Scottish Declaration Of Independence

The news that Robert the Bruce was being ousted and Scotland was being given to the English king to rule did not sit well with the veterans of Bannockburn. In 1320, Robert the Bruce called a Scottish Parliament. They met at Arbroath Abbey and compiled the following letter, which reads in part:

> "To the Most Holy Father ... ours, to wit the nation of the Scots, has been distinguished by many honours; which passing from the greater Scythia though the Mediterranean Sea and the Pillars of Hercules and sojourning in Spain among the most savage tribes through a long course of time, could nowhere be subjected by any people however barbarous; and coming thence One thousand two hundred years after the outgoing of the people of Israel, they by many victories and infinite toil, acquired for themselves the possessions in the West which they now hold after expelling the Britons and completely destroying the Picts ... In their kingdom one hundred and thirteen kings of their own royal stock, no stranger intervening, have reigned, ... King of Kings even our Lord Jesus Christ, after His passion and resurrection, called them though situated at the uttermost parts of the earth almost the first to His most holy faith, nor would He have them confirmed in this faith by any one less than His first Apostle, although in rank second and third, to wit, Andrew the most meek the brother of St. Peter. ..."[1]

This letter to the Pope said in effect that all the enfiefing agreements made with prior popes were still in effect and that the Scots expected the present pope to honor them. That if he didn't and if Edward set foot in Scotland again there would be war between Scotland and England.

The pope did not want to get a war started between England and Scotland, the same Scotland that had defeated the English at Bannockburn. He needed the English army in the Holy Land. So, he reconsidered.

The above document sent to the Pope is called the Scottish Declaration Of Independence.

Along with the document was filed proof of Robert the Bruce's right to make the claim - his genealogy - which can be found in Scotland's College of Lyons, and is certified as legal.

Genealogies

The reason for posting genealogies was to search for counterfeit applicants, and to see if agreements with prior fief holders allowed the present one. The genealogy posted by Robert Bruce went back to Ireland, from there to Spain, from there to Egypt, from there to Israel, and from there the Bible genealogy takes it back to Adam.

Charlemagne's genealogy was similar. The primary difference being that Charlemagne traced his through Europe's rivers from France back to Israel. Internet articles about Charlemagne declare that all Europeans and those of European descent can claim Charlemagne as their ancestor. After all, that's what a nation is - a family of kinsmen where all are blood kin.

Stone Of Scone

There is another story concerning Scotland that I had heard all my life and which was brought to mind when an old friend recently sent me a brochure he got when recently visiting Westminister Abby. It contained a description of the stone on which Britain's kings sit when being crowned. It says:

> "The Coronation Chair was made for Edward I to enclose the famous Stone of Scone, which he seized in 1297, and brought from Scotland to the Abbey, where he placed it under the Abbots's care. The Scots made repeated and vain efforts to induce Edward to give it back. Tradition identifies this stone with the one upon which Jacob rested his head at Bethel - 'And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillow, and set it up and poured oil upon the top of it' (Gen. 28:18). Jacob's sons carried it to Egypt, and from thence it passed to Spain with King Gathelus, son of Cecrops, the builder of Athens (Ed: this was long before the Diaspora which occurred in 721 B.C.). About 700 B.C. it appears in Ireland, whither it was carried by the Spanish King's son, Simon Brech, on his invasion of that island. There it was placed upon the sacred hill of Tara (Ed: Remember "Gone With The Wind"), and called Lia- Fail, the 'fatal stone', or 'stone of destiny', for when the Irish Kings were seated upon it at coronations the stone groaned aloud if the claimant was of Royal race, but remained silent if he was a pretender. Fergus II (d. 501), the founder of the Scottish monarchy and one of the Blood Royal of Ireland, finally received it in Scotland, and King Kenneth (d. 860) finally deposited it in the monastery of Scone (846). Setting aside the earlier myths, it is certain that it had been for centuries an object of veneration to the Scots, who fancied that while it remained in their country, the State would be unshaken.' Upon this stone their Kings, down to John Balliol, were crowned, and it is said that the following had been engraved upon it by Kenneth:

"Ni falla fatum, Scoti quochunque locatum Invenient lapidum regnare tenentur ibidem.

"A prophecy which was fulfilled at the accession of James VI of Scotland I of England".(From the National Message, London, England; copied from TKC)

These two stories alone should be sufficient to direct us back to the study of the WORD which is our God. When we look we find many other proofs of who we are and what is expected of us as the Israel of our God. This is why we claim the promises God made to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. They are our ancestors and these promises are ours by right of descent. They belong to no other.

Finishing The Book

These stories, combined with the many other Biblical proofs, were more than enough to prove the Saxons' descent from ancient Israel. This revealed that the Saxon is obliged to obey his God's Law system because of the covenants made by their God with their ancestors, and this included the prohibition of usury. Knowing this I was able to complete War Cycles / Peace Cycles.

As for the rest; the present condition of Saxon-Israel, its deplorable state is temporary. "The eternal God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee ... Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:27-28

Men of the WORD know that "Esau was a designing and deceitful man." Jasher 29:20 They know his hired kings, priests, and media- banking merchants think as their master tells them to think, and in time they will share the fate of their master.

Once again; Jacob's children know that Esau's children are made in the image of their sire. He was a "designing and deceitful man". So are his children. The Law is not done away; the LAW has not been given to the children of Esau; the LAW is ours - ours by right of descent.

> "He showed his word... his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them." Ps 147:19-20

Listen America - News From S. Africa

S. Africa may be the grim model of the future Western world, for events in America reveal trends chillingly similar to those that destroyed our country.

America's structures are Western. The American trait of either getting involved or ignoring politics is peculiarly Western; it is not the way most of the world operates.

White Americans may soon find themselves unable or unwilling to stand up to challenge the new political methods that will be the inevitable of ethnic change now taking place. Unable to cope with the new rules of the game - violence, mob riots, intimidation through accusations of racism, demands for proportionality based on racial numbers, and all the other social and political weapons used by the have-nots to bludgeon treasure and power from the haves - Americans will no doubt cave in. They will compromise away their independence and ultimately their way of life.

That is exactly what happened in S. Africa. I know, because I was there and I saw it happen.

Faced with revolution in the streets, strikes, civil unrest and the sheer terror and murder practiced by Nelson Mandela's African National Congress (ANC), the white government simply capitulated in order to achieve "peace."

Westerners need peace. They need order and stability. They are builders and planners. But what we got was the peace of the grave for our society.

The Third World is different - different peoples with different pasts and different cultures. Yet Westerners continue to mistake the psychology of the Third World and its peoples.

Sierra Leone is in perpetual civil war, and Zimbabwe - once the thriving, stable Rhodesia - is looting the very people (the white men) who feed the country. Yet Westerners do not admit that the same kind of savagery could come to America when enough immigrants of the right type assert themselves. The fact is, Americans are sitting ducks for Third World exploitation of the Western conscience of compassion.

It is already too late for S. Africa, but not for America if enough people strengthen their spines and take on the race terrorists, the armies of the "politically correct" and most dangerous of all, the craven politicians who believe "compassionate conservatism" will buy them a few more votes, a few more days of peace.

In S. Africa today, only 9% of murderers end up in jail. Court dockets are regularly purchased and simply disappear. Magistrates can be bribed as can the prison authorities, making escapes commonplace.

Above all, don't put yourselves to the test of fighting only when your backs are against the wall. You will probably fail.

Millions around the world want your good life. They care not for the high-minded ideals of Jefferson and Washington, and your Constitution. What they want are your possessions, your power, and your status.

And they already know that their allies among you, the "human rights activists," the skillful lawyers and the left-wing politicians will fight for them, and not for you. They will exploit your compassion and your Christian charity, and your good will.

They have studied you, Mr. and Mrs. America, and they know your weaknesses well.

They know what to do.

Do you?

LETTERS

STRANGERS: "Dear Richard. We live 11 miles from 4 native reserves. They are invading our town to escape their own violence. We are now 'blessed' with native gangs and crack houses but must show tolerance and understanding! There are only 6,000 residences in our town but everywhere you look you see variously coloured people with trophy wives and mixed offspring. This just proves deliverance is coming." CHETTIARS: "Dear Brother Hoskins: As soon as I read the name 'Chettiars', and your explanation, I now (after 45 or so years) begin to understand my grandfather's tales of India. He had 41 years continuous British Army service with 19 or so in the Indian States. When Grandfather talked of his service years India was his favorite topic. He served in S. Africa during the Boer War, Hong Kong, Egypt, the Middle East area (Aden), Russia, Canada, Kenya and so on, but, its the term 'cheaters' he used often when discussing India that never made sense to me as a kid listening. As I read HR #379, I began to understand that the word wasn't 'cheaters', it was Chettiars. Grandfather's stories began to make sense." W. S. - Florida

LYNCHBURG'S MAYOR GUILTY

Lynchburg's black mayor was convicted on all counts: Social Security fraud, mail fraud, bank fraud, making a false statement to a federal official, and obstruction of justice. Federal prosecuting attornies played it smart and tried the case in Roanoke instead of allowing it to be held in Lynchburg where a mixed-jury would have had it dismissed.

It is my understanding that the initial indictment of Lynchburg's mayor was national news. It is also my understanding that his conviction was a media "non-event" - another of Esau's children being convicted of criminal activity is really not news. Also, Esau doesn't like to have his children's escapades advertised.

"Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

NOTE: The black judges and black power figures shown on TV are Esau's methods of conditioning the Saxon population to accept the planned black overlordship similar to that in S. Africa. After all, Esau owns the media, banking, and banking profits storehouses called "corporations". They can elect or appoint anyone they choose to manage their assets - and tomorrow it won't be us.

UNFILTERED NEWS

AIDS: India now has the largest number of AIDS infections. Data released by UNAIDS shows that India has the largest number of people living with HIV/AIDS. It has passed S. Africa.

S. Africa has one in three pregnant women testing HIV-positive in public antenatal clinics in 2004. Nearly 19% of adults were infected nationwide last year, and the per capita rate is continuing to climb. (AP) (News & Advance, A2, May 31, 2006)

In frustration, Pope Bendict XVI recently excommunicated two bishops recently appointed by the state. (Story in News & Advance, p.2, Lynchburg. May 5, 2006)

BLACKOUT LIFTED? The Christian Science Monitor, March 20, 2006, ran an article about the "Hard New World for Afrikaners" under black rule. "Blacks are the preferred candidates for civil service positions and private-sector jobs. Whites are living in squatter camps." This is a first among mainstream publications. IRA DISARMS: The IRA has again pledged to disarm. In the past each pledge was a ploy to win more political power for the IRA's political wing, Sinn Fein. The result is that moderate political forces in Northern Ireland have been destroyed. There is no pledge to give back wealth stolen, to disband, or apologize for the 3,000 people killed during the years of bombings and back- alley executions.

PLEASE: "Please" and "Thank-You" smooth transactions between the children of Jacob who are equals. They are almost never used by Esau's media. Esau rules from the top down and doesn't need to say "Please" and "Thank-You". He takes what he wants. It's his due!

RUSSIA: The supreme Court of Russia barred candidates of the nationalist party Motherland from the December election for the Moscow legislature, because of racist remarks made about migrants from the Caucuses. (Impact, P.O. Box 28233, Sunnyside 0132, Rep. of SA)

SWEDEN: In Malmo, the third-largest city in Sweden, the police admit that they no longer control the city. It is effectively ruled by violent bands of Moslem immigrants. The police are afraid to enter parts of the city without backup. (Impact - S. Africa)

CHINA: China has a policy of ethnically cleansing non-Chinese nationalities on its soil. This process has been going on for some time in Manchuria, Tibet, Inner Mongolia and Turkestan. Ethnic Chinese are now in the majority in the Russian Far-East, and there is a Chinese Diaspora of over 30 millions in SE Asia, including over a million in Australia. These minorities often dominate local economies and remain loyal to China, regardless of its political system. (Australian Resurgence)

Chapter 382

ENEMY Of GOD & MAN

Who is this new God?
Where is the old one?

Philip Morris

Ikey Hoard was a fixer at the Southside Philip Morris plant. He fixed the broken cigarette machines and was the union representative. I was being trained to be a shift foreman and was pretty helpless. Ikey had broken in a lot of new managers. He took me under his wing and told me stories about the depression.

Jobs were hard to get. Women were oftentimes the sole support for their families. Dark skinned plant inspectors from NY who could scarcely speak English would come to Richmond and walk down the aisles between the machines and point to this woman or that and she would have to have sex with him - or lose her job and her children might starve. Jobs were scarce.

The story violated the Law about having strangers rule over you and having strangers in the land.

> "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

Every minister of The WORD in Richmond was obligated by LAW to teach their congregations the LAW and the consequences of Law violation .

> "When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all who were of foreign descent." Neh: 13:3; "Obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments." Deut 30:8; "Read this law before all Israel ... that they may ... do all the words of this law." Deut 31:11-12; "Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Eccl 12:13

If the preachers had done their duty - the things described would never have happened - but they didn't teach the people, and things like that did happen.[1] I heard the stories from Ikey and a few old timers - not from the preachers. The preachers turned their collective backs on God-the-WORD rather than offend the children of Esau or their corporations.

Massacres Of 1622 & 1642

Strangers are not allowed in our land.

> "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33; "I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shall drive them out before thee." Ex 23:31.

The stacks of mutilated bodies comprising almost half the white men, women and children of the Virginia Colony resulted from the Indian massacres of 1622 and 1642. The colony almost ceased to exist before the thick-headed prelates of the Church of England noticed that the modified Scriptures they were teaching cost the Crown more than they gained. Many more settlers had been scalped, skinned and burned alive than could be made good with red converts.

African Colonization

The King, head of the Church of England, was a stock holder in the company that sold black slaves into Virginia. Twice Virginia petitioned to get the trade stopped. Twice the Crown warned Virginia not to protest the trade or "risk royal displeasure".

After gaining independence, a Baptist minister organized the African Colonization Society. Its purpose - buy black slaves, teach them to farm, and then colonize them back in Africa. The price paid for the slaves was to be used to hire white replacement workers from Europe.

1 "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17

Almost everyone belonged; Tom Jefferson belonged; my great-grandfather owned more than 100 slaves - he belonged. Tens of thousands of slaves were bought, trained, given seed, implements, and farmland and returned to Africa. The Crown, responsible for bringing slaves here, had nothing to do with their return.

A handful of white industrialists financed "radical abolition" - free the slaves WITHOUT paying for them.[2] Radical abolition would deprive farm owners of money to hire white replacement help from Europe.[3] It was designed to destroy the South's self-sufficient farm system.

Col. Earnest Sevier Cox was "Colonization" chairman when I lived in Richmond. Every Session of the Legislature he would go before the Virginia assembly and ask for money to pay transportation costs for black colonists to go back to Africa. Thousands of blacks filled the gallerys, halls, porches, and yards. Every Session the Virginia assembly would applaud long and loud - and do nothing.[4] The preachers could have generated the support needed, but they didn't.[5]

2 "Thou shall not steal." Ex 20:15; "Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul." Pr 29:24; "Know ye not that .... thieves ... shall (not) inherit the kingdom of God." I Cor 6:9,10

3 "Next, Karl Marx. The Protocols say, 'The aristocracy of the peoples, as a political force, is dead ... but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land." The Controversy of Zion by Douglas Read, Noontide Press, Newport Beach, CA, 1985. p. 219

4 "For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins." Heb 10:26

5 "When a person ... sins ... about an event he saw, or knew, if he does not relate it, he shall bear his crime." Le 5:1

Two Gods

Western man has two Gods; the genuine and the fraud. The genuine is the separatist God-the-WORD. The fraud is the integrationist WORD. The genuine God- the-WORD says;

> "For I the Lord, do not change." Mal 3:6[6]

Hari-Hara - God of Integration - Posing as the Christian God

The enemy attempts to modify the WORD by combining him with other Gods to gain that which is unLAWFUL. God-the-WORD warns against kings, usury, strangers, undivided land and monopolies, and those who desire them: "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!" Isaiah 5:20-21.

The WORD tells us how to discover true from false. "By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20 A false God is one who maintains that a thing is true when the WORD says it is false.

6 "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever." Heb 13:8; "The scripture cannot be broken." John 10:35; "It is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the Law to fail." Lu 16:17

The False God

The greatest enemy of the WORD is Brahma. He is the combination of all Gods. His primary weapons are gold and deception. He uses them to buy kings and priests and capture the minds of the people.

His greatest enemy is Adam-man - the "White-devil". Adam-man must be destroyed so that this evil age can end and a new age can begin. Adam-man has always stood in the way of the destruction of the earth.

Brahma's manifested symbol of death and destruction is Kali - standing on the body of a blue-eyed white-devil while holding a severed head in her hand.

Brahma's manifested symbol of integration-warfare against Adam-Man is Hari-Hara. Hari-Hara is a mixed-breed - half white and half black (seen on the facing page). He is the God that destroyed Adam-man in India and many other places in the world. Hari-Hara is the primary weapon of the sons-of-Esau. Their followers use him against Adam-man today.

Survival Lesson

God-the-WORD established a training manual for his people which says; "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1. It is man's history book. Other races have their own Gods and their own holy books. God- the-WORD is Adam-man's God.[7]

7 "ADAM" in Hebrew is Man: "MAN - Heb: adam - those who blush rosy") Strong's Concordance. "Adam- man".

Beasts

The WORD speaks of "Beasts". God created man and beast. The American Heritage Dictionary's third definition of BEAST is "A brutal, contemptible person." We think of him as Lawless non-man with the nature of an animal. This brutal, Lawless "Beast" wears clothing in Johah 3:8, "Beast", "cries mightily unto God". Johah 3:8, "Beast" has hands. Exodus 19:13, "Beast" capable of mixing with man. Jer. 31:27, "Beast" keeps the vineyard. Song of Solomon, Chap 1., Jesus called the Syro-Phoenician woman a "dog". Dogs, swine, beasts, are descriptive words for Lawless, brutal, contemptible beings.

The instructions from the WORD are strict when dealing with "beast"; "If a man (Heb:adam - "man" - blush red) lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. And if a woman ... lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast." Leviticus 20:15-16, Lev 18:23; Ex 22:19

The curse for man's disobedience is, "I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children." Lev 26:22. The coupling of man and beast results in more beasts, fewer man, and increasing problems.

The story is old: "A multitude of beasts came all around them (Adam & Eve). It was satan's doing ... in order to wage war against Adam through marriage." I Adam & Eve 69:11. The war of racial interbreeding has been waged against man since the beginning.

Look at the mathematics - a beast kills a man and substracts one man. He breeds a man's woman and man is deprived of one of his own kind and the beast gains one of his own kind - a double victory. It is the easiest amd most practical way to vanquish the obstacle to Brahma's long awaited nirvana (See HR #366).

The WORD Orders Separation

From the very first the WORD commands man to be separate from other peoples of the earth: "So shall we be separated, I and all of Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Ex 33:16.

Not only from aliens but from kinsmen who have been mixed with aliens "Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitudes." Neh 13:3; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deut 23:2

Servants of Hari-Hara, posing as Christians, constantly modify the WORD. To answer them one must know some of the basic stories from the WORD.

Sarah's Sorrow

Isaac had two sons - Jacob and Esau. Esau broke his parents' hearts because he took strangers for his wives:

> "Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite: Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah." (Gen. 26:34) "And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life ... if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?" Gen. 27:46; "And Isaac called Jacob ... and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. ... And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father; Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son ... to be his wife." Gen 28:1, 8-9.

Esau not only disobeyed his mother and father by being an integrationist, he was also a murderer. Here's this story;

Esau Murders Nimrod

"And king Nimrod reigned securely, and all the earth was under his control, and all the earth was of one tongue and words of union." Jasher 9:20

"Nimrod ... rebelled against the Lord, and taught all his subjects and the people of the earth his wicked ways." Jasher 7:23-46

Nimrod had a special cloak that he had inherited and when he wore that cloak people believed his words and he was able to rule the world. Esau coveted that cloak and vowed to take it. This is how he did it;

"Esau started suddenly from his lurking place, and drew his sword, and hastened and ran to Nimrod and cut off his head ... and Esau took the valuable garments of Nimrod, which Nimrod's father had bequeathed to Nimrod, and with which Nimrod prevailed over the whole land." Jasher 17:7,10

This cloak is said to be the reason that Esau is as powerful as he is to this day. Some say that today's media are Esau's cloak. Others say that the modified-WORD is Esau's Cloak. Regardless, it is written;

"Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

Esau's murders and deceptions are the reason that God said:

> "Jacob have I loved but Esau have I hated." Romans 9:13

The thing that makes Jacob cautious when dealing with Esau is Esau's promise;

> "Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41

Dinah - Road To One People

Integrationists say that rape is not serious. Scripture relates this story:

Isaac had a daughter named Dinah. Dinah was raped by a stranger who then wanted her for a wife. He also wanted his people and Isaac's people to integrate and become one people. This is how the dual problem of rape and integration was handled.

Shechem, an alien, the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country saw and desired Dinah. He lay in wait for her and when she passed he seized and raped and defiled her.

Shechem then asked his father to get Dinah as a wife for him. Hamor came to Jacob and said, "Pray, give her to my son to wife, amd make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us and take our daughters unto you."

And the sons of Jacob answered deceitfully because Shechem had used deceit and had defiled Dinah their sister.

> "We will give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters unto us ... and we will become one people. .... if ye will be circumcised." Gen 34:15-16

They agreed to become circumcised, and on the third day when they were sore - the sons of Jacob took their swords and slew all the males with edge of the sword and took Dinah out of Shechem's house because they had defiled their sister.

The lesson of Dinah teaches that there is no way that the children of Isaac will ever become one with another people; there is no way they will ever tolerate or forgive the rape of one of their daughters; and there is no way that circumcisiom, or a promise, or a ritual, or an oath will purify an alien to prepare him to become one with Israel. The reason is simple. It is forbidden by Law.

> "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." Deut 23:2

The Return From Captivitiy

Integrationist servants of Hari-Hari say that the Sons-of-Esau can become one with the Sons-of-Jacob by simply accepting the teachings of the Lord God of Israel. That's not what the WORD teaches.

There is a story in Scripture where aliens moved into the land of Israel, adopted their religion, built temples to the God of Israel and desired to become one with Israelites - but were still rejected. The story is as follows:

The Children of Israel had been taken into captivity. While in captivity in Babylon they asked permission to return to their old homeland and rebuild their destroyed temple. The king thought it a good idea to appease as many gods as possible and so he permitted them to return.

When the Israelites arrived back in the land of Israel they encountered an alien people. The ancestors of these people had been brought in to live and work in the vacant lands after the children of Israel had been removed so that the lands would remain productive. Teachers of the WORD had also been imported so that these aliens would know the proper God to worship.

These so-called Bible-believing aliens wanted to work with the returning Israelites to rebuild the temple. They filled every requirement that modern day apostate preachers accept about aliens who wish to incorporate themselves into the body of Israel. This was the result:

> "Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel; Then they came to ... the chief of the fathers, and said unto them. Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assur, which brought us up thither.
> "But ... the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel." Ezra 4:1-3

Best read that again. The rule is - that under no circumstances are the children of Esau allowed to worship with or marry the children of Israel. They can learn the Laws, get baptized, make offerings, get circumcised, perform the rituals and do whatever else they like, and the answer will always remain the same;

> "The fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel."

Even the Romans who came later knew about and respected this requirement of the WORD.[8]

The Greeks

We remember how Alexander The Great invaded India and then departed thinking that he was the conqueror. However, the Indian journals record the incident quite differently;

> "King (Asoka) considers moral conquest (that is, conquest by Dharma),[9] the most important conquest. He has achieved this moral conquest repeatedly both here and among the peoples living beyond the borders of his kingdom ... where the yona (Greek) king Antiyoka rules." The Edicts of Asoka, N.A. Nikam & Richard McKeon, Univ Chic Press, Chicago 1959, p.29. (The footnote to this: "The king referred to has been identified as follows: Antiyoka = Antiochus II."

This Greek King Antiochus took his new-found Hindu knowledge and put it to work in the lands he ruled in the Near East. The Book of Maccabees records the following:

> "King Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, And every one should leave his laws ... For the king has sent letters ... that they should follow the strange laws of the land ... to the end they

8 "When you go through these (first) cloisters, unto the ... temple, there was a partition made of stone all round, ... upon it stood pillars, at equal distances from one another, declaring the law of purity, some in Greek and some in Roman letters, that 'no foreigner should go within that sanctuary'." Josephus, Wars of the Jews 5:5:2

9 "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C. (Father of Buddhism)

might forget the law, and change all the ordinances ... Then many of the people were gathered utnto them, to wit, every one that forsook the law." I Maccabees 1:41-52."

If one will take the time to go to his computer and type in the name of a Greek or Roman God and the word "Hindu" right afterwards - he will learn the Hindu name of the Greek and Roman Gods. Thanks to Antiochus, the re-interpreted Greek Gods were actually Hindu Gods with Greek names. Roman and Greek Gods were Gods imported from India.

Many Israelites refused to integrate with the alien peoples brought into the land or accept the new alien Gods brought from India by Antiochus. Their protest started the long drawn out Maccabean Wars - so vividly related in the Apocrypha.[10]

HYRCANUS

Following the victorious Maccabean Wars a war hero took control of the country and became both king and high-priest. His name was Hyrcanus. He was a talented military man.

Hyrcanus invaded Edom - the land of Esau - and took over its rich trade. But, he did not drive the Idumeans away. He made both the land of Idumea and its people a part of his own kingdom. He forced the Idumeans, who had been cursed by God, to be circumcised, and he made them promise to obey the Laws. He then pronounced them "Israelites". He could easily pass for a modern integrationist.

10 The Apocrypha was removed from the KJ Bible circa 1830s in preparation for a reintroduction of Antiochus' decree. This decree took the form of the enactment of the 14th Amendment permitting strangers to vote and rule over man; This, plus the decrees of the High Priest of the God of the Land, Earl Warren, that struck down the Saxon nation's law of right of association which brought them in line with the Hindu Dharma Law of Asoka the Great.

Hyrcanus forgot the fate of the strangers who raped Diana, Hyrcanus ignored that fact that the children-of-Esau remain children-of-Esau - even when circumcised, converted, baptized and covered with promises, blessings and benedictions.

These newly conquered and "converted" Edomites were allowed to enter the mainstream of Israel. They quickly formed their own Sadducean Party that recognized "no heaven" - a Hindu belief. They cornered economics - a Hindu "usury" monopoly - and they ended up ruling the land through their son Herod the Edomite ("Thou shalt not have a stranger rule over thee") - the one who killed the Israelite Children.

Later, in the war with Rome, these Sadducees helped divide the surrounded and beleaguered Jerusalem into three contending parties, parties that fought each other and killed more of their own respective groups than were killed by the Roman soldiers.

Hyrcanus, king and high-priest, disobeyed God the WORD and destroyed Judea and its people.

Return Of The Word

The virus of Hinduism brought by Antiochus and those like him spread throughout the Greek and Roman world and had well nigh destroyed the people of Israel before the WORD-made-flesh returned with the WORD to save his people - with this proviso:

> "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matthew 5:24

Marcianism

Rome discovered that the WORD had spread into its borders and was destroying Rome's Hindu Gods. To fight this new foe Rome introduced a substitute Christianity called Marcianism (HR #239, #375).

This substitute Christianity did away with the Laws, Statutes, and Judgments and opened the religion to everyone in Rome's vast empire. With new bells and whistles, this revised import from India, Brahma's reinterpreted Marcian-Christianity, remains the primary foe of the WORD.

Today

With few exceptions, little remains in Western Christianity recognizable as "Christian" except the name and the ritual.

However, the children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob have eyes to see: They see that the wealthy mainline churches are losing members in a flood and they see the new temporary circus-churches gaining members in a flood. A quick investigation inside their doors will disclose the common denominator - Esau is there, and there is a general refusal to teach the WORD - God's Law.

Today Caesar and his agents use unLawful taxes, usury, monopoly, racial aliens, and the use of undivided lands. All this would be impossible if Caesar tolerates the LAW of GOD the WORD which forbids them.

So, neither mainstream nor circus-churches teach God's LAW. When God's LAW is not taught it is easy for the lost to forget the WORD of their master:

> "Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke shall pass from the Law until all is accomplished." Matt 5:17-18

Not knowing the Law makes it easy to forget how the LAW orders the lives of each of us;

> "For the Law ranks above affection for parents, so that a man may not for their sakes surrender his virtue, and it overrides love for a wife, so that if she transgress, a man should rebuke her, and it governs love for children, so that if they are naughty a man should punish them, and it controls the claims of friendship, so that a man should reprove his friends if they do evil. "And do not think it a paradoxical thing when Reason through the Law is able to overcome even hatred, so that a man refrains from cutting down the enemy's orchards, and protects the property of the enemy from the spoilers, and gathers up their goods that have been scattered." 4 Maccabees 1:40-41 (Lost Books)

Conclusion

At last, matters have become simple.

> "You are servants to whomever you obey" Rom 6:16: "No man can serve two masters." Matt 6:24

You can choose one of two Gods to rule you: God the WORD:

> "O children of Israel... You only have I known of all the families of the earth." Amos 3:2; "Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Eccl 12:13

Or, you can cast aside the Scriptures of the Christian faith that condemn integration. Christians are told to "Come out from among them and be ye separate."

Buddhist-Hindu writings support integration. They are told, "We must love everyone without regard to race, creed or national origin." Asoka the Great, the Father of Buddhism.

Brahma manifests himself as Hari-Hara - the God of integration.

Integrationists who worship Hari-Hara, the God of Integration, while calling him "Jesus" - are simply anti-Christ heathen - enemies of both God and Man.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

The Africanization of S. Africa continues. Black workers are striking. From security guards to bus drivers. When school buses failed to turn up, the black children burnt 50 of them. No firm seems keen to sign a government contract because earlier companies never got paid.

At present, the country is kept running by a few whites. Government matters are getting to be like the war planes the black government recently bought in Europe which can't be flown because they no longer have white pilots. The government asked if they had enough black pilots - and hands were raised everywhere. Blacks will tell you they can do any kind of work - until time comes to do it. Now, the expensive planes sit on the ground without pilots.

Elderly English have been taught to take black babies to shop with them, treating them like their own grandchildren. They follow a different God.

In the Cape, coloured gangs fight constantly. The climate is ripe for revolution and Mbeki tries to take the blame away from himself and his government and place it on the whites by constantly using the word "apartheid" and how the whites still oppress them.

Two members of the "Boeremag escaped from prison and we hope they are far out of reach. They have been in CMax for 3-years while nothing has been found against them. They are two nice young men, not the earring type. Best, K.J.

LETTERS

EDUCATION: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I just want you to know the HR prison outreach has afforded me an education that no university could ever give. T.F. - prisoner New Jersey

---

OPINION: "Kinsman Hoskins; I send your books and newsletters all over the country and more and more of our nation are awakening. I feel that Saxons are beginning to lose their fear of being persecuted for obedience to The WORD." L.R. - New York

---

RECRUIT: "Dear Mr Hoskins: It has been seven years this September since I accepted the faith while reading one of your books. Thank you.

I plan to start my own newsletter and send it to ten people C.R. - Prisoner Oklahoma

RKH: Good. Suggestions: The newsletter can be a daily or once a year. Every reader should have a big or small mailing list and the ability to quickly print labels It's not important that you write your own newsletter. Someone else can write it, or, you can excerpt parts of others' newsletters. The purpose is to pass on news and ideas as fast as you can. Make your newsletter short. People read short before long. A small newsletter can quickly network into several hundred in an emergency. Last: people are interested in subjects, not you. Keep your own opinions to a minimum - your readers have their own - they want new information. You may be the only one who can give it to them. Good luck!

OPINION: "Dear Dick; I can't imagine what could have possessed you to praise the anti-Christian, re-paganizing Nazis and their SS. The Nazis were wholly despicable + thoroughly opposed to the religion of Jesus Christ. How you could praise them escapes my comprehension. You are misleading your readers + sinning against the Gospel + Jesus Christ." S.F. - Tennessee RKH: Which Jesus Christ? Whose gospel? After WWII it was customary for the Red Front to smear Germany and its armed forces as being anti-Christian to conceal the Red-Front killing of 30 million Russians, burning to death half-million refugees in the German open-city of "Dresden", and starving to death more than 2 million surrendered German soldiers after the war was over as revealed in "Other Losses" and other publications. It is also general knowledge that there are no six-million bodies, no gas chambers, no human soap and human-skin lampshades. Scads of "witnessess" have recanted and informed the world that German Nuremberg Confessions were obtained by torture - that seems not to bother you at all. Ancient Red Front propaganda won't change the fact that Germans and Jews worked together and devised a "Transfer Agreement". to separate Jew from German. Separation - not integration- is the future.

Chapter 383

RATS & PIGS

I have had trouble walking. To exercise my dogs, I drive to a stretch of unused road and open the door. My Rotts and my little Terrier jump out to start their morning exploration, sniffing, and what have you. Old Sarah stays in the car and keeps me company.

I drive along at 2 miles an hour in the middle of the road. In the unlikely event someone speeds down this isolated dead-end road they must slow for me and also the dogs.

At the end of my driving dog-walk, I toot the horn, the dogs hop in and off we go. They've had their exercise, I've pushed the steering wheel back and forth. Everybody's happy.

Crutches & Slowdown

A year ago I was returning from a long walk when my left knee collapsed. It was all I could do to reach the car 100 yards away. Just that simple.

I don't know if I'm saying this right, but the cushion between the upper and lower leg bone collapsed and bone was rubbing on bone. The doctor washed out bone fragments and stopped much of the pain. Still, for the last year walking has been difficult.

Quick Fix

Problems bring solutions. I quickly learned that everyone in Lynchburg has had knee replacements and now I have one.

My progress is satisfactory, however, my medicine has affected my concentration, so, this newsletter will just contain odd and ends from the past.

Eating Rule

One way we used to get to know a new acquaintance was to ask him where he went to church. Sounds harmless, but it was a loaded question. His answer generally revealed the "law-system" he operated under which told us how to deal with social occasions like eating.

In the early days of Virginia, those appointed to rule the state were members of the king's modified state religion. They ruled over the non-conformists - the Puritans, Covenanters, Huguenots, etc., who were often treated as potential revolutionaries and banned from holding government office.

Actually, it was a dangerous situation for those in government. IF people insist on obeying the WORD as written in the Bible instead of the king - it would cause a revolt that would put the king out of business. After all, do away with taxes, usury, monopoly, and ban the integration of alien nations into the work force and what need is there for a king?

The predictable result was that the ruling state religion and the non-conformists locked horns all the time, and this included disputes about food.

Knowing where someone went to church helped avoid embarrassment at the dinner table.

Salt Water Scavengers

In Virginia in the old days, people either ate shrimp, oysters, crabs, lobster, etc. - or they didn't. It depended on their religion. Most dissenters didn't because the Bible said not to while those who went to the king's church did.

Time has added practicality to faith in the disagreements about food that both sides now understand or ought to understand..

For example: My daughter is an emergency room nurse at a Virginia Beach hospital. The greatest number of emergencies they have are people who suddenly become ill from eating salt-water scavengers - oysters, shrimp, clams, crabs, lobster, etc.

When someone eats a salt-water scavenger he is eating a delicacy that can kill him. A salt-water scavenger is nature's garbage processor. It removes filth from the water. If the scavenger feeds on rotten decaying matter - there is a possibility that when you eat the same scavenger you also eat the same rotten decaying poison matter the scavenger has taken into its system. The result - your breathing may suddenly begin to shut down. If it does before aid arrives - you're dead.

It happens all the time in the emergency room down at Virginia Beach.[1]

Staying Alive At Jamestown

Bartholomew Hoskins arrived at Jamestown at age 15 in 1615. We've been told his brother was a protestant minister to a Catholic king - a job similar to bomb-disposal today. The family wanted him out of England to ensure that at least one family member would survive if things turned nasty.

Before the age of newspapers, radio and TV, the church was the place where the king's announcements were read to his subjects - every Sunday. The pastor would read the royal proclamations and those who were absent from services were fined.[2]

The Hoskins were dissenters. But the crown fined those who didn't attend service. It was expensive being fined month after month for none-attendance so most of Virginia's dissenters went to the state church to avoid the expense. Attendance allowed them to hold office and go into businesses otherwise closed to them. The Hoskins went to the state church every Sunday like most everyone else but kept Bible Law at home and when among their friends.

1 Forbidden: Eels & shell fish, scavengers, Lev 11:10-20; pig, Lev 11:7; Duck, goose, swan, sea-birds & web-footed birds, scavengers. Prohibition includes their eggs. Lev 11:13-20; Deut. 14:12-18

2 FOOTNOTE: Virginia was a cheap producer of tobacco for the crown monopoly. It was sent to Britain, processed, and sold at a large markup elsewhere. Black slaves were introduced to lower labor cost. Pigs to feed them were introduced since they are cheaper to raise than beef or mutton. The king's state-church blessed the undertaking - which is what state-churches were created to do.

Religion In Transition

The king was a tyrant in America and elsewhere. England invaded and conquered Scotland twice - in 1715 and 1745. Thousands upon thousands of Presbyterian Scot prisoners' of war were unloaded at Yorktown and sold as indentured slaves to pay their passage. These POWs were mostly well educated and were quickly set to work educating the children of Virginia planters, children like George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and the like.[3]

This input helped bring along a war with Britain that had long been smoldering - a war the Americans won. The king's priests went back to England and for a long time afterward Virginia's state churches stood empty. Gradually, other denominations moved in and began holding services. Same people, same building - but this time teaching the unmodified WORD.

Old habits die hard. Virignia had followed England's state religion for two and a half centuries. The fact is that business and social cliques were pretty well set around this fact of life. England's state church, through its agents, remained a power behind Virginia's scenes. As an example; my uncle Andrew Jackson Montague was a Baptist. He ran for governor several times and was defeated every time. It was quietly suggested that he better become an Episcopalian if he expected to be elected governor. He did and and he was. .

3 Scot POWs were accused of teaching Americans Latin, Greek, Hebrew, math, and to hate the English.

How Dr. William Got 10,000 Acres

Dr. William Hoskins married Janet Carter Roy. Her brother, Capt Charles Roy, aged 19, was killed at the Wilderness. They never found his body. Charles was supposed to inherit his father's plantation, which now went to Janet and her husband, Dr. William Hoskins. This is how he got 10,000 acres of plantation land.

A plantation isn't a farm as we think of farms today. It is a place to plant people - hence - a plantation. Just about everything in the new world was plantation land. There was Plymouth Plantation, Virginia Plantation, etc. The land was divided among the people to be passed on to their descendants forever.[4] Laws were even passed to prevent the sale of plantation land outside of families.

Initially, Virginia had been established by investors who called themselves The Virginia Company. When the company became profitable, King James I dissolved the company and made Virginia his own royal colony.

Kings and their backers aren't interested in plantations. They are interested in profits, cheap labor, and managers. To them land is a commodity to be bought and sold. This resulted in all sorts of trouble between the King and the colonists when the King tried to sell land where people had established plantations for themselves and their descendants.

4 "Joshua divided the whole land by lots to Israel for an inheritance, as the Lord had commanded him." Jasher 90:19; "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... To many thou shalt give the more ... to few thou shalt give the less ... the land shall be divided by lot: according to ... their fathers they shall inherit." Num 26:53-55; (GB) "Ye shall not offer unto the Lord ... an offering thereof in your land." Lev 22:24; (Family records show that back in Scotland our family gave land to the Catholic Church in exchange for praying dead family members out of Purgatory.) "Ye shall hallow the 50th year ... and ye shall return every man unto his possession." Lev. 25:10; "If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... ye shall be plucked from off the land." Deut 58:66

Land Seizures

The South was invaded and lost the War Between the States. Conquered Virginia was turned into a military district occupied by a federal army and governed by blacks. Whites were not allowed to vote. The blacks passed horrendous taxes on land which produced almost nothing for owners who had no way to pay the taxes. Bankruptcies were universal. Plantations became farms overnight - mere merchandise to be bought and sold. He couldn't pay the land taxes and feed his family at the same time. Like so many others he felt fortunate to find a Yankee land company who took the 10,000 acres off his hands for a few cents on the dollar. The fact that Dr. William Hoskins owned 10,000 acres - well, that and 50¢ will get you a cup of coffee.[5]

How Dr. Hoskins Stopped Drinking

Dr. Hoskins lived down in King and Queen County. The Federal occupation government had taken his land so he moved from the old Dragon Plantation to an office at Carlton's Corner. There were more people and more patients there.

One of the things Dr. Hoskins enjoyed was meeting at the end of the day with his old war comrades for a few drinks. They met across the road at Carlton's Store - in spite of the promise he had made to his wife not to drink.

One evening, Dr. Hoskins was enjoying the company of the local gentry when a colored servant rushed in and told him that he'd better get home fast that Missus had packed up the family coach, had loaded the children and was fixing to go back to her parents at Ashdale. This was serious. He had married Jannet Carter Roy, and when he promised her he would stop drinking she really expected him to keep his promise.

5 I've seen a handful of plantations which have survived having ten or twelve generations buried in the same family cemetery.

Dr. William walked back across the road and saw that his wife Jannet was really going to leave. The coach was loaded and fixing to leave; so he made the best of a bad situation - he repeated once more his promise to stop drinking and staighten up - and he did.

That's how Dr. William Hoskins stopped drinking. Not only did he become a teetotaler for the rest of his life, he went to church service every Sunday and was the first white man to be elected to the state legislature from King & Queen County after the War. I saw his picture in the Capitol building.

Wagons

People aren't interested in wagons today, but some day they may need to become interested again. The wagons of the 1800s were different from the wagons of the 1600s and 1700s. The early ones were bigger - they were designed to navigate rougher roads - roads that received little maintenance. A lot of roadwork was done from the late 1600s through the 1700s, so from then on, wagons were built smaller. It worked this way.

People from Tidewater going to Richmond, Baltimore, Boston or Charleston usually went by water. Most roads were local and only went to nearby boat landings where they picked up shipments. By the 1800s overland roads had received some maintenance, but in the 1600s and 1700s maintenance was rare and most overland roads had potholes remarkable for their size. They could easily wreck a modern car. To navigate these hazards required large wheels - very large wheels. They could roll over most deep potholes with only a slight "bump".

Large wheels require large wagons. The Conostoga wagons that settlers used to go West in the mid-1800s are examples of the type of overland wagons needed for really rough terrain. They weren't designed for working in the fields - they were cross- country vehicles - great big things.

The Hoskins family coach that Jannet Carter Roy used was old and it was big - a big family coach used infrequently. It would carry a surprising number of passengers and some lasted more than a century.

The wheel size alone on family coaches and cross-country wagons of the 1700s and the 1800s Western expansion would make Hollywood movie stagecoaches look small.

Hookworm

Daddy told me about hookworm.Lots of white people in Essex and King & Queen were sick when he was young. No one knew why. They were listless, wouldn't eat, couldn't work, couldn't go to school, and died young. It appeared to affect only white people - the colored didn't seem to be greatly affected.

Dr. Bagby from upper Essex County discovered that the white population was eaten up with hookworm - a disease brought to America by black slaves. Most American doctors had never heard of hookworm. This changed when Dr. Bagby set up a demonstration at a meeting of the Virginia Medical Association in Richmond complete with rows of microscopes so the doctors could see for themselves. It was the first time it had ever been done and it caused a sensation.

Families which had been sickly for generations suddenly got well. They stood up and led normal lives. Once doctors knew what to look for - hookworm virtually disappeared from Virginia in a few short years.

A recent edition of National Geographic included a piece about Andersonville Prison where so many northern prisoners died during the War Between The States. It appears that the primary killer of Union prisoners wasn't the Southern guards, bad food, or Commandant Wirt who was in charge of the camp and who was hanged after being blamed for camp conditions. It was hookworm.

This alien endemic disease of the Negro killed their deliverers by the tens of thousands.

Aliens & Their Diseases

The Bible has much to say about consorting with aliens. Let's remember that non-venereal syphilis contracted by Spanish explorers from the American Indians and taken back to Europe killed half of Europe's population.

Once again, fleas on rats brought the Black Plague from Islam where it is endemic in places like Saudi-Arabia. While in Arabia the disease comes and goes - in Europe it killed half the population before it left.

AIDS

AIDS appears to have the characteristics of an epidemic. I have been told that it is difficult for Whites to catch the disease except from someone who already has the disease. While reaching epidemic proportions among strangers, it is rare for Whites to contract the disease except from sexual contact with alien carriers. It would seem to be sensible advice to warn our people to terminate relationships with anyone who engages in interracial relationships. Sexual intercourse should be reserved for Saxon men and wives only. Even simple physical contact could become deadly.

Conclusion

The WORD was given to the Saxon to save him from things that would destroy him. The future may reveal that avoiding forbidden food and avoiding consorting with Lawless people may be a matter of life or death.

PIGS

I was brought up loving sugar-cured Virginia ham. We always had several curing in the smokehouse at the farm and when we moved to Lynchburg we always had several curing in the attic.

Except for a few, most Virginians felt the same way we did about Virginia ham. After I was saved on 28 April 1965, I started studying, and my studies ran into the part about diet.

> "Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing. ... the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcass." Deut 14:3,8

That's pretty cut and dried. There was something else. There was a time when eating pig was considered submission to the alien God-of-the-land, and refusal to eat pig was considered rebellion. Following is a case of the latter kind where a man believed his life was of less value than submitting to eating pork:

Eat Pig Or Fight

> "In those days arose Mattathias ... "The king's officers, such as compelled the people ... to make them sacrifice ... came unto ... Mattathias ... Then answered the king's officers, and said to Mattathias on this wise, Thou are a ruler, and an honorable and great man in this city ... Now ... fulfill the king's commandment ... and thou and thy children shall be honoured with silver and gold, and many rewards.

"Then Mattathias answered ... Though all the nations that are under the king's dominion obey him, and fall away every one from the religion of their fathers, and give consent to his commandments ... God forbid that we should forsake the law and the ordinances. We will not harken to the king's words, to go from our religion, either on the right hand, or the left...." I Mac 2:1-22

Mattathias then wreaked vengeance on the violators of God's law and thus began the Maccabean Revolt that freed the land from lawless strangers. It all started with the eating of pig - an animal that God forbade his people to eat.

What To Do?

I was told that this Law was no longer obeyed because of the clean conditions pigs were raised under and meat raised this way could in no way present a danger.

I then talked to others who explained that a pig is a scavenger like a skunk or a buzzard. The scavenger's entire body is made to dismember and dissolve rotten poison carrion. The process of dissolving begins the instant one contacts the scavenger. From the moment one eats a delicious mouthful of good old Virginia ham the ham begins its natural job of dissolving one's digestive tract.

In short, scavengers are created to dissolve offal in their special acid filled bodies. The entire scavenger body works to digest whatever it comes in contact with. It continues working whether you are inside it - or it is inside you. If inside you it attacks whatever is already weak within your system.

Very often it is your immune system that is first damaged while trying to ward off the scavenger's attack. I have heard that one can feed a pig strychnine, a deadly poison, without making him sick.

My Experience

As mentioned before, my father was raised near Hoskins Creek in Tidewater and kept the old eating habits taught by the old state religion. Dad said he could tell the river an oyster came from by its taste. Maybe he could. As far back as I can remember our family enjoyed oysters, crabs, Virginia ham, and bear meat when we could get it.

As a child I had chronic earaches. When the pain became more than I could bear Daddy would lance them. When I was a teen-ager I had boils. I played football games with boils. I haven't words that will describe that experience.

This last may be a coincidence, but it is a fact. As I said before, I accepted the WORD on April 28, 1965. I read the Scriptures against eating scavengers. I stopped eating them. I haven't had an earache or boil since. Just like that!

Coincidence?

I don't think so.

Virginia Hospitality

My wife has an aunt who married a preacher sixty years ago and moved away. Her husband died and she came back home to be near her family.

In Lynchburg, when there is sickness in a family, friends often drop off a meal to help out.

During my recent convalescence, my wife's aunt dropped off supper - the best smelling BBQ you ever saw -

Pork Barbeque!

FORGET THE MIDEAST REMEMBER THE BORDER

Remember, America is undergoing a mass invasion by aliens on our southern border. The hue-and-cry became so loud that the president sent an unarmed national guard to the border to help with guard duties - an unarmed national guard having neither weapons nor ammunition.

When this stratagem failed to quiet his critics, a war was expanded in the Mideast that has thus far cost 2,500 American and countless Arab lives.

Every newspaper, TV and radio broadcast is full of the Mideast fighting - and all the while the invasion of America's southern border continues unabated - pushed off the front page - but ongoing as if it had never been mentioned - millions

THOSE DESERVING HONOR

A MATTER OF TIMING

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven." Ec 3:1

Scripture tells us not only whom to honor, but lists the proper order in which honor is to be tendered and things done. Our minds are to be trained in good things and away from bad things.

"As a man thinketh ... so is he." Pr 23:7

Barabbas's Timing

According to the Book of Philochristus, Barabbas was devout and sincere, but he did not know God's WORD and therefore his timing was of his own and not God's timing. The result was a disaster:

> "Now Barabbas spake with something of austerity ... Therefore I asked him again where he had been of late, and why he had forsaken the disciples. But he answered with still more of passion than before, 'Because I am weary of these idle wanderings about Galilee, which bring forth no fruit. Not to sit on stools at the feet of a Scribe did I and my friends join ourselves to Jesus of Nazareth. Why tarrieth he so long idle? Why is his hand so backward to smite the oppressor? But I bade him be of good cheer, for the hour was not yet come, and Jesus would know better than we the season fit for our uprising." (Philochristus, Chapter 13:pp.24, p.129).

God The WORD is man's God. Scripture says, "For I the Lord, do not change." Mal 3:6. Kings justify their Lawlessness by appointing priests who will modify and change The WORD to allow the king to do unLawful things.

Their modified Christianity permits them to exact taxes, form monopoly, practice usury, and allow strangers in the land when such things are forbidden by the WORD.

Mass Modification

For instance, the first editions of the "King James Bible" were cheaply printed by the Crown to replace the troublemaking Geneva Bible containing "margin notes" included by the reformers. The first KJ Bible contained the nationalist books of the "Apocrypha" just as the first Geneva Bibles had done. Today's KJ Bible does not. They are gone. Vanished.

They've been censored out of the Bible to keep Saxons from learning and becoming aroused against their leaders by reading their own history.

"As a man thinketh so is he." Pr 23:7.

Control a man's mind and you control the man.

Discovering Those Deserving Honor

One of the Apocrypha's censored books is the book of Ecclesiasticus. This book lists three who are worthy of study and honor.

When the book was written everyone knew who "Adam-man", "Isaac's- son", and "The WORD made flesh" were. We can no longer assume that this is true since all media are censored and Esau pays Jacob's turncoat priests to keep silent about the matter.

The following is basic to understanding:

First:

"(God's) name is called The Word of God." Re 19:13

Next:

"God created man in the likeness of God." Gen 5:1

The WORD of God is known by its Laws, Statutes and Judgments. Man is made in the image of these Laws, Statutes and Judgments. We are made in the image of God the WORD.

According to Strong's Concordance, the meaning of MAN is the Hebrew word: Adam 119 - "to show blood (in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red (ruddy).

Man or Adam-man is our name. We have another name:

"In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7

We are "sons of Isaac", "Isaacsons", "Saxons". Our name alone can cause panic among our enemies which is the reason their media is careful not to repeat the name - "Saxon". We are named by our own God - God the WORD - after our father Isaac. We are Saxons. In addition to these two names we have still a third name:

> "And God said, Let us make man in our image ... and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth." Gen 1:26

God selected man to govern the earth and gave him the power to do it, and gave him a name befitting the task - Israel.

Israel in Hebrew means - "he will rule as God" Strong's Concordance. The same as "one who has been given God's power of attorney." Certain rebellious Sons of Isaac - Saxons - deny Israel descent attempting to escape restrictions decreed by the WORD which is God. To them, denying that they are Israel gives them a license for Lawlessness.[1]

God-The-WORD gave us the world to rule justly - according to the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of the WORD.

Our three names are Man (Adam-man), Saxon, and Saxon-Israel.[2]

1 "After the death of Saul the ten tribes arrogated to themselves this name, as if they were the whole nation (2 Sam. 2:9, 10, 17, 28; 3:10, 17; 19:40-43), and the kings of the ten tribes were called "kings of Israel," while the kings of the two tribes were called "kings of Judah." ... "After the Exile the name Israel was assumed as designating the entire nation." Easton's Bible Dictionary

2 Only Esau, his agents, or ignorant people call a black an "Adam-man" or "man"; a Chinaman a "Saxon"; or a Khazar-Turk an "Israelite". Such comparisons are oxymorons but valuable to expose the mental state of the speaker.

Three Worthy Of Honor

Scripture clearly identifies those three who are worthy of honor and praise.

FIRST IN HONOR

According to the censored Book of Ecclesiasticus, the very first deserving of honor is "man" himself - the creation and image of God.

> "Adam (was in great honor) above every living thing in the creation." Ecclesiasticus 49:16

Whether high or low, man should always be held in honor. When he is loyal and faithful to the WORD he should receive the honors prescribed by the WORD. When he is naughty he is still to be honored by receiving the judgments and punishments directed by the WORD. Never are we to take the Law into our own hands and administer punishment according to what we think is right or wrong. We simply accept the judgment of God.

SECOND IN HONOR

After man himself, we are to praise and study those of our nation who are famous and who are second in honor. The following is from Ecclesiasticus 44:1-23 45:1-17

> Ecclesiasticus 44:1. "Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. ... 16. Enoch pleased the Lord and was translated, being an example of repentance to all generations. Noah ... in the time of wrath he was taken in exchange for the world, therefore was he left as a remnant unto the earth when the flood came. ... 19. Abraham ... who kept the Law ... 22 With Isaac did he establish ... the covenant. 23 And made it rest upon the head of Jacob...

45:6 "He exalted Aaron ... 7. An everlasting covenant he made with him, and gave him the priesthood .... neither did ever any stranger ... but only his children and his children's children perpetually. ... 15-17 Moses... He gave unto him his commandments ... that he should teach Jacob the testimonies and inform Israel in his laws. ..."

We are instructed to honor first - "Adam-man" and second to honor our heroes and prophets.

THIRD IN HONOR

To have Law, someone must enforce the Law. Third in honor is the one who enforces God's Laws.

Ecclesiasticus 45:23. "The third in glory is Phinees (Phineas) the son of Eleazar, because he had zeal in the fear of the Lord, and stood up with good courage of heart when the people were turned back, and made reconciliation for Israel, 24. Therefore was there a covenant of peace made with him, that he should be the chief of the sanctuary and of his people, and that he and his posterity should have the dignity of the priesthood for ever. 25. According to the covenant made with David son of Jesse, of the tribe of Juda, that the inheritance of the king should be to his posterity alone: so the inheritance of Aaron should also be unto his seed. 26... to judge his people in righteousness, that their good things be not abolished, and that their glory may endure for ever." Ecclesiasticus 45:23-26 (see Num 25)

Choice

The first in honor is "Adam-Man". He is made in the image of God the WORD, is destined to be conformed by the Law into one acceptable by the WORD, who also bears the name Israel - meaning having God's power of attorney - and has added the name of Isaac - Saxon.

The second we are to honor and study are the great prophets and leaders of the past. We study their stories because each has a lesson to teach us.

The third in honor are followers of Phinees - "Because he had zeal ... when the people were turned back ... that he and his posterity should have the dignity of the priesthood for ever." Ecclesiasticus 45:23-26 (see Num 25)

Esau's Deception

Esau boasts that he controls the minds of the world. He does this with his usury and media monopoly.

Jana - Gawa - Mana - "Thou are the ruler of all minds."

Adam-man honors the WORD. Esau's media glorify sex and violent death. His heroes are glorified to capture the mind of man and increasingly are the color of Esau's God Kali. Man and his heroes and prophets are erased by simply ignoring that they exist.

"As a man thinketh ... so is he." Pr 23:7

Positive Result

As is his way, Esau has overdone things. His actions are educating man. The things that Esau is trying to teach Jacob to honor and worship are now easy to identify:

"A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire. Wherefore, by their fruits ye shall know them." Matt 7:18-20[3]

We see corrupted pulpits, thrones and trade-counters and these things have taught us to use the WORD to judge. God's people are beginning to study the WORD. Our enemies have become obvious in what they do and man is learning to make fewer mistakes.

Barabbas

We spoke of Barabbas. Barabbas was asked why he deserted Jesus and why he and his followers rose up against Rome, a decision that resulted in getting his followers killed and him in prison awaiting execution.

Barabbas failed because the time was not right - there were not enough in the land who knew the WORD to support his efforts. Remember, too, the reason Rome survived as long as it did was because it stayed on top of discontent that might develop into insurrection.

Rome Incites War

In 87 AD, the time was still not right. To keep nationalism from growing, the Romans sent soldiers to Jerusalem to provoke the nationalist Israelites to fight before they were ready. It was interesting how they did it. They paraded their soldiers before the walls, turned them around and had them raise their garments revealing their behinds - a real insult in those days. Jerusalem's inhabitants acted as the Roman's expected - they poured out of the city after Roman blood and the war was on. They weren't ready and the war was a disaster - as planned. Rome won by provoking a war before their enemy was ready.

3 "And God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam ... And God said to Adam, 'Look at this devil ... and look O Adam, at him who said that he is God! Can God be black?" II Adam & Eve 4:1-4

Fort Sumter

The trick is to get the victim to strike the first blow. Lincoln told S. Carolina's peace emissaries meeting with his government in Washington DC that there would be peace.

Hearing this, Virginia immediately voted against seccession. Actually, while the peace conference was in progress, Lincoln had secretly ordered the U.S. fleet loaded with an invasion army to storm Charleston. The fleet arrived off Charleston Harbor and waited until an unforeseen storm subsided so that they could storm the city.

Shocked at the sudden appearance of the invasion fleet while peace talks were going on, Charleston's defenders opened fire on Fort Sumter before the invaders could land and unite with the garrison inside the fort.

Hindsight says that it would have been better public relations to allow the invaders to sack and burn Charleston. This sacrifice would have rallied support from the entire country - North and South. They didn't and the war Lincoln promoted was a disaster to the South. The time was not right.

Bob Mathews

There was a young fellow named Bob Mathews. He was distressed by things being done to his people. In the 1980s he organized a group called the Order. They took money from armored cars and gave much of it to farmers being foreclosed by the banks. His group was betrayed and he was tracked down and burned alive as an example to others.

Mathews' followers were rounded up and most are still in prison. A story similar in many respects to the Barabbas story. Such actions seldom succeed when the people are not ready.

Sons Of Liberty

In Tappahannock, on the main street leading to the river a half a block down from the court house on the left hand side of the street is an old story and a half house with lots of dormers. It belonged to a wealthy Tappahannock merchant who owned a fleet of ships that did business with Britain. A group known as the Sons Of Liberty had posted a decree forbidding trade with England and this merchant violated the decree.

Early one morning, the merchant answered a knock on his door and was confronted with a street full of men standing quietly. Their leader briefly stated that further trade with England would result in the merchant's house and ships being burned and he himself being whipped and tarred and feathered.

When the king's soldiers arrived to protect this merchant they stood alone and received no help from the community. The surrounding countryside stood solid with the protesters. England was islolated, incensed - and helpless. The merchant wisely stopped trading with England. The time was right.

Living Under The King's Law

The whole system of King's law collided with the WORD. Neither gave ground. The king's lawmen and army enforced the King's law - and the Sons of Liberty and their like enforced the Law of the WORD. It had taken many humiliations, confiscations and lives before public opinion in Essex County supported defiance.

The crisis had been building a long time.

The Royal Road

The lawless edicts of the Crown resulted in the Indian massacres of 1622 and 1644. Lawless crown edicts caused Bacon's Rebellion, ruinous taxes, monopolies, confiscations, imported slaves, trade and treaties with warlike Indians.

All this lawlessness made possible the Tappahannock event. The people had suffered and were now organized and able to prevent further suffering. They were able to use to their advantage every mistake the king's agents made. The time was right. The successful Revolutionary War followed.

Abortion Clinic

A different type war has now evolved. The other night, I watched on TV a woman who was an abortion clinic manager in Alabama. She was listing her problems. The biggest one was the scarcity of doctors to perform abortions.

Business had dropped to a fraction of what it had been earlier and it was questionable whether or not she would be able to continue to keep the doors open. Doctors who had worked for her found that when it became public knowledge that they practiced abortion their private practice dropped drastically. Most said that they were unwilling to risk losing patients in order to perform abortions under present conditions.

Public opinion has done what other means couldn't. This is a different warfare but just as effective. The time is right.

Bruce Pierce

The other day I received an interesting letter. It was from Bruce Pierce, a member of The Order who has been in prison for more than a quarter of a century:

> "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I'm very well save for my knee. It needs replacing. Trouble is, I'm too young - at 52! The doctor suggested I wait as long as I can cope with the pain.
> "While traveling through the local country to my hospital visit I was struck by how much more good I/we might have done if we tried instead to reach out to people in the language they'd understand about our message. Endeavoring first to be Godly men before our family and kin, then to our community - including work - demonstrating what a Spirit-led man is.
> "When is the last time you've heard anyone, preacher, prophet or lay person teach about the Messiah? It's been a long time. I think we've lost sight of whose we are.
> "Yah bless, still serving our people and truth, > Bruce Pierce - The Order" - Prisoner Pennsylvania

My Opinion

In my opinion one would do well to take note of this letter from Bruce Pierce. He is no less the warrior today that he was a quarter century ago - but more mature. He has had time to judge what is possible.

Today is the time for learning, and teaching our kinsmen the wisdom of those who are SECOND in honor - our prophets and leaders of yesteryear - giving them the respect that is their due.

This done - the Lawlessness of the king will in time result in another 1622 type Indian massacre. That will be the time to honor the last who are due honor. It will make no difference what the Saxon thinks about anything - he will fight to survive. By this time mankind will know the meaning of the words:

"Thy Kingdom come Thy will be done!"

Esau and his Christian-Hindu servants already know their meaning, and reading Luke 19:27 describes that day to perfection.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Our homes are more suited for summer and this is the coldest winter in memory. Nature is really upside down. I think we had one month with rain here while places not far distant were so wet that they cannot harvest last year's corn crop.

Government mismanagement has allowed pollution to become a major problem. Lanserig airport is to the West, the huge and rapidly growing black township to the south, and a major sand and stoneworks in the East. The air is unfit to breathe.

The only grass left to the back of us went up in flames when a black put a match to it. The wind was gale force and the poor animals had great difficulty in escaping.

One distrusts blacks when meeting them. They are no longer afraid to kill a white. In fact, it gives them great pleasure. We worry when our daughters and grand-daughters are on the road.

Black enpowerment is becoming more dangerous by the day. Companies must have at least 80% blacks on their staff to be able to make a bid on a government project. A black with no education or expertise is made chairman. He comes in once a month to pick up his large salary and disappears until the next month. Most believe that the government plans for blacks to totally take over white industries as they have done in other parts of Africa. This has caused economic disasters when working capital disappears and incompetents take over.

A speech made at the OAU (Organization for African Unity) and AU (African Unity) appeared in print. They talk of rivers flowing with the blood of whites and incredible hatred against the entire white population. White newsletters warn against letting police into homes or even past the garden gate. Often the police are criminals themselves or criminals who have stolen police uniforms. Beware of letting anyone in who is supposed to be a workman for the telephone or electric company.

We have also been alerted to stay on high alert since an all-out attack may not be far off. May God forgive us for our past sins and protect us against these ever growing hordes of murderous, thieving aliens.

We received HR #380 late. It had been sent to the Philippines.

We went down to the Children's Home. In spite of being overcrowded Betzy took in five more children; two from the Cape, one boy who had been abandoned, and two more.

Our best, K.J.

Chapter 385

THE DEVIL'S THRONE

Need For The Parable

Many times man has been ruled by strangers - strangers eager to kill him if he shows the first sign of revolt.

Since the WORD rules against the ways of strangers - against having kings, taxes, monopolies, integration with strangers, usury, war with one's own kind, and the requirement that land is to be divided and never sold - all this is seen by the ruling strangers as "sedition", "rebellion", and "treason" - and they are quick to punish with a heavy hand those who express such opinions. Because of the fierce retribution from our conquerors, man has learned to speak to each other in parables. The things the WORD says to us we understood, while the very same things mean something entirely different to our conquerors and their hirelings.

The Parable

Parables are constructed to have two meanings: the obvious and the hidden. Those who know and obey the hidden are "saved". The "lost" see the obvious and follow its path to destruction.

Simple Bread & Wine Parables

Sons-of-man know that Jesus made wine. Those who are lost use this to justify their drinking and they perish as is their due. It is a parable.

Bread is the "WORD" that gives us life; "the bread of life". Wine is the "spirit" - the desire and resolve to live by the WORD. The two go together. Bread without wine accomplishes nothing.

Remember this one:

Two Kinds Of "Dead"

> "Another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead." Matt 8: 21-22

This is easy. "Let the dead bury their dead". One without the WORD is dead. His life is a one way trip to chaos. Look around you. There is little real difference between the living dead and the actual dead. Look at them!

Another easy one is the parable of Peter walking on water. When I worked on Wall Street there was always someone proclaiming that he had the faith to walk on water. A crowd would gather and he would walk down to the end of Wall Street and step out into the East River only to be dragged out by the harbor patrol half drowned. He violated God's Law about specific gravity. Now, the real story.

Peter, (the "rock") asked Jesus ("the Word made flesh") to allow him to walk over the water (water means "peoples"). He started walking, doubted, and began to sink into the waters. Jesus, (the Word-made-flesh) reached out and lifted him out of the waters to safety.

The enemy can't make hide nor hair out of that one in spite of it going on around them all the time.

Then, there is little David hurling a stone that hit big Goliath in the head. This one is too obvious to bother to comment - and there are many others.

Now, let us raise the mark a bit. We'll turn it into a puzzle - you work it out: It's easy if you think about it.

THE CLOAK

There was once a cloak. It was made by God to clothe Adam after he had been turned out of the Garden.

This cloak descended to Noah who bequeathed it to Shem. Noah's outcast son, Ham, stole the cloak. His son, Caanon, received it from him. In time, it fell into the hands of Nimrod.

This was not an ordinary cloak. It possessed special powers. It allowed the one who owned it to capture men's minds.

When he put on the cloak, Nimrod became ruler of many nations and many peoples because he had "captured their minds."

Nimrod began to build a great tower to reach and take over heaven, but the workers began speaking different languages causing the construction to come to a stop.

One day Nimrod went for a stroll in the cool of the evening. Two guards were with him. Esau saw Nimrod approaching. He hid himself, and waited in ambush.

Esau sprang from concealment and with his sword slew all three. Seizing the cloak from Nimrod's lifeless body, Esau fled. Nimrod's followers followed hot on his heels.

Esau arrived in the camp of Isaac, his father, frightened, weary, and despairing of his life. He demanded that his brother Jacob trade his meal to him in exchange for the birthright due him as the eldest son. His birthright was of little value since he expected to be killed before the sun set. He kept the cloak. This story can be found in the book of Jasher chapter 27.

Esau's Cloak

Nimrod's cloak is now owned by Esau's descendants. They have taught not only their own people but their servants its use. Whoever possesses it is able to rule peoples and nations without their being aware. Their eyes become blind. When in its power, lies can be told for truth, and sawdust given for treasure.

Answers Needed

What stopped the building of the Tower? How did the cloak capture men's minds?

We know who has the cloak today, but that knowledge is of no use unless we know what the cloak is. What does this cloak do?

The foolish see the cloak story as just another fanciful flight of man's imagination. The key that unlocks the secret to the cloak parable is found in the following temple parable.

Logic

It is logical to assume that in states ruled by Esau, every political, economic and religious person of consequence is either an actual son-of-Esau or his agent, and that the Law system that is enforced in that state has been modified to be approved by Esau.

Night Meets Day

The story of the Devil tempting Jesus is so important that it is placed in the first book of the New Testament - Matthew 4:3-10. It unlocks the cloak parable, and opens the door to understanding the rest. The rest of the New Testament is filtered by this story:

1. "Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit unto the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. ...

3. "And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread

4. "But he answered, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5. "Then the devil taketh him ... and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 "And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, ... his angels ... shall bear thee up. ...

7. "Jesus said ... It is written ... Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8. "Again, the devil ... showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, ...

9 "And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 "Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hense, Satan; for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve." Mt 4:1-10

The Parable Key

The above was written when Rome was looking for an excuse to wipe followers of the WORD from the face of the earth. However, they looked and could not see and so the key remains.

There are so many key words and important disclosures in the above ten verses that it is difficult to know where to start or to speak of them briefly.

1. "Jesus" - the WORD made flesh; "Wilderness" - a place like Washington D.C., NY or London; "Devil" - Lawlessness - those who follow Lawlessness.

3. "Stones into bread" - a Lawless act.

5. "Pinnacle of the temple" - the Devil's throne.

6. "Throw thyself down" - defy the Law of Gravity.

8. "Kingdoms of the world" - are created to control the devil's possessions. Each kingdom consists of three ruling castes: The "king" enforces Lawlessness; the "temple" cloaks religion and controls the people's minds; the "merchant" manages media, usury and trade. The devil can give them to whom he will to enjoy and manage because he established them.

9. "Great merchants" are given money to manage from the never-ending flood of usury money. Today's "kings" are media-elected to enforce Lawlessness. "Preachers" are given wherewithal to establish large churches along with media access in exchange for proclaiming a point or two of righteousness and ignoring the raging flood of lawlessness.

10. Obey God only.

The Cloak Key

With the above as a guide it should be simple to decode "The Cloak of Esau". The cloak that was given by God to protect the Adam-man he had created. It covers and protects him from all evil.

However, long ago Esau discovered our love of money and, using this knowledge, Esau learned to infiltrate established religions and modify them to make them say what Esau needs them to say[1].

Many peoples worked to build the Tower Of Babel. Their different languages caused confusion and the work on the tower stopped because the workers didn't understand each other.

What languages? The different law systems each group brought with them and in whose image each group was made. These law systems conflicted - the peoples could not understand each other. What was right for one was wrong for another. Their work suffered. The work-force building the Tower fell apart.

We must remember that the cloak of Esau allows Esau to rule the world while concealed by his cloak. He has changed our God-the-WORD into a manifestation of Siva (sex) and

1 "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10; "Money answereth all things." Ec 10:19; "And Jesus went into the temple of God, and ... overthrew the tables of the money changers." Matt 21:12

Kali (death). Sex and death and little else comprise the content of Esau's media today. The temple priests ignore the chaos which is interpreted by the masses as being approved by the priests. People are being conditioned to accept death, slaughter and whoredom as normal - and the corrupt priesthood allows it to happen and does not protest.

The Hindu has named this age - the Age of Kaliuga - the age of death. Everything done by his kings, priests, and merchant-money managers is focused on bringing about nirvana - the destruction of all life on earth. The one obstacle is the ancient obstacle - adam-man. Kaliuga can only end when the last man on earth is dead - then all life on earth can perish and a new age can be born.

CHEERS

Don't sweat it. Everything is in good hands. Jesus prepared for this long ago.

Guess who he appointed to be the new priests and new kings to lead the way into the new world? It's right there.

> "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5-6

How do you like that? You've been drafted. Don't sweat it - you are in good hands. Your leader has never lost a battle. What can go wrong? We got our certificates and it's time to get off our duffs and follow orders.

Remember, he promised us a crown or two for doing what we are supposed to be doing anyway. That's better pay than you've been getting.

Now - two questions:

The Devil's throne is - WHERE?

Jesus appointed WHO to be king and priest?
Look it up again and don't forget it!

The hell of Nirvana is for Esau - not for Jacob - whom God chose to be Israel. God made Adam-man and commanded him to govern God's kingdom on earth - justly.[2]

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA by K.J.

At "The Home", Betzy had to spend time with the six new children, and since the boys' room was full they had to build new rooms. We hope to see everything when we go down again. Betzy takes the children to the RPC church on Sundays - it's just down the road. A good old man comes on Wednesdays and they read and discuss the Bible.

Slowly the very cold winter is slipping away. The garden is getting attention and it is time to plant seed and seedlings.

Crime has become so bad that N. Zealand told their citizens not to come here as it is so dangerous - and they are not the only country doing this. We often get updates on danger spots via internet.

Willie Marais is of the opinion that the black regime will not last till 2010 when they are scheduled to have the big soccer affair here. If the government cannot fix the expansion joints of a bridge in a year, how will they build all the needed stadiums and facilities? Only Cape Town has the frame up for one. Soccer has become a black sport here and it is mismanaged. They lose every game. They hire new coaches

LIBERAL SCIENCE: Physicist Stephen Hawking is ready to retract his theory that a black hole destroys everything sucked in by its gravitational force. Like the unproven theory of evolution - easy come - easy go.

Other wild unsubstantiated theories follow chaotic thinking and Lawlessness. "Diversity" for one. The word means separateness but cartel word-crafters twist it to mean "integration". In their minds it is easier to "de-separate than to de-integrate once "de-separated".

They want Jacob to be "de-separated - and be like Esau who is diversified".

RECRUITING: Muslim terrorists are 'recruiting new youths and indoctrinating them with separatist and religious ideologies.' According to Thailand's prime minister. (Christian Science Monitor)

FORBES: Paul Klebnikov, editor of the Russian edition of Forbes magazine was shot and killed near his Moscow office. Russians are becoming increasingly unappreciative of American media bias and are more direct in expressing themselves.

ICELAND: Iceland's government passed a law preventing media concentration. Iceland's president, Olafur Ragnar Grimsoon, vetoed the law.

RKH: The media advertises its agents so voters will elect them. Then, those elected protect cartel interests. This one did.

PAYOUT: The Roman Catholic Archdioceses of Los Angeles and Orange County are prepared to pay $1.5 billion to settle claims of sexual abuse by priests.

RKH: "In Hinduism, 'guru' means God Himself." Am I A Hindu (The Hinduism Primer), p.2, Halo Books, 1992, POB 2529, San Francisco, CA 94126

Acting as God, gurus (preachers) make laws for their followers. As lawmaker, the laws he makes for himself may be opposite from those made for his followers. Thus, a guru may forbid his followers from being sodomites and pedofiles but may be one himself. Such Gods can do anything. It is also logical that God-the-WORD will hold them accountable.

SALVATION ARMY: The Salvation Army is poised to install its first black leader - Commissioner Israel L. Gaither. His was the first interracial marriage in the Salvation Army. Other examples of blacks that have served as top officials of majority white U.S. religious bodies are Archbishop Wilton Gregory, former president of the Roman Catholic bishops conference, and The Rev. William Sinkford, president of the Unitarian Universalist Association. The number of Salvation Army officers has dropped 1/3 in the past five years. Chapter 386

2nd VA CAVALRY & LATHAM'S BATTERY

Nations have histories. The world empire of the International Trade Cartel (ITC) has its own entirely different history

When the ITC makes a conquest - it replaces national history with its own version of history.

When Iraq was invaded, its museums containing thousand year old artifacts were looted and destroyed, the Iraqi children's schooling was censored, and every word spoken by an Iraqi was judged.

It was necessary for the invaders to first destroy the Saddam rule. To do this the conquered country was divided into three nations - one racial and two religious. These three nations were encouraged to go at each other's throats and exhaust themselves. Then, it was planned that the newly established puppet government of the conqueror would unite them and bring the whole into the cartel..

However, things don't seem to be working according to plan. Only Esau can fight himself and at the same time unite to fight outsiders. They proved this when Saladan united the Arab world during the Crusades.

Presently, Esau is developing a new kind of warfare. The objective is simple. Anyone connected with the invaders in any way is a possible target. Every enemy killed is heralded as a great victory and every Iraqi killed is mourned as a martyr.

In many respects our West is in a similar condition. We were conquered long ago. We are ruled by puppet governments, have puppet priests, and furnish slave labor for our conquerors' industries. But we see and we learn. Sons of Vikings don't endure chains forever.

Virginia

This week I passed a "dog-leg" and reached the "Lynching Tree".

We learned about dog-legs and the Lynching Tree in school, and almost everyone knew where a "dog-leg" was and had visited the Lynching Tree.

We were taught that men owning land once had more power than the state of Virginia. They were kings of their kingdoms. They ruled by Bible Law.

If Virginia wanted to put a road across a man's property and he didn't want them to, the state would have to go around. The result: Virginia is loaded with "dog-legs" where the road suddenly ends and you must make an abrupt left or right turn. After driving for a while there is another abrupt turn that sets you on your original course. It's a "dog-leg". There are a lot of them on the back roads of Virginia. Private land in Virginia was once beyond the reach of the state.

They don't teach about "dog-legs" anymore. The idea that at one time people had greater power than the state is a "no-no".

Lynching Tree

That same day I drove past Judge Lynch's house, the one with the Lynching Tree. During the Revolutionary War people with land- boundary disputes went to Judge Lynch. They sat together under the big old tree in Judge Lynch's front yard - the "Lynching Tree - and received Judge Lynch's opinions concerning the old land-grant boundaries.

The reason was that the King had called all his land-judges back to England. There were few men left who knew land-grant rules and claims. "Judge Lynch" was one of them. He had been a clerk in one of the land-judge's offices and knew more about land, boundaries and ownership than anyone else, so his neighbors made him a land-judge. The old tree where they sat is now gone. But the true story is at variance with the media story. No one, black or white, was ever hanged on Judge Lynch's tree - the "Lynching Tree". If the rest of the country ever learned the true story it would ruin the media's "lynching" fable, so they've stopped teaching the true story about the Lynching Tree.

Black Reparations

Something else; blacks want reparations for their time spent as slaves. I'm all for it. Let me tell you why.

Today's media says that slavery is all our fault - that all Southerners ever did was to sit on front porches, sip mint juleps and whip slaves. They won't let people know that Virginia didn't want slaves and petitioned the Crown twice to stop the trade. The Crown warned us that if we petitioned them again the petition would be treated with "severe displeasure". Why?

The other night I was reading the Enclyclopedia to relax before I turned off the light and guess what I found:

> "The Treaty of Utrecht (1713), which closed the war (King William's War (1689-1697 - French & Indians vs England in America), ceded to England the Hudson Bay region, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, and allowed to it the monopoly of the slave trade in the colonies." The World Book, W.F. Quarrie & Co, Chicago 1927, p.2329

How do you like that? England had the slave monopoly won from France in a war. No wonder the King didn't want to hear that his subjects objected to his selling his black slaves here. He was making money hand over fist in the slave trade that belonged to him.[1]

If America's blacks want money as compensation for their slave labor - go for it! Just go to the one responsible for them being here in the first place - England. We did our level best

1 The "King" is the ceremonial representative of the cartel's British market. Its old civil service has been banished. Britain's new rulers can be seen in the faces of its new nobility and priesthood. In fact, if you would care to become a baron - its really not that expensive.

to keep blacks out of this country and it isn't our fault that they are here now.

Maybe we, too, should petition England to get paid for the money we've had to spend on England's blacks since they forced us to take them.

We can say that they had better pay both of us or risk our "severe displeasure".

Once Upon A Time

Wars are never over. Rome conquered Gaul. When they were through smiling and making new agreements, the people of Gaul were penniless Roman slaves.

While visiting Scotland I discovered few Scot families who had owned their land more than a couple of generations. I found lots of Scots living in six-story walkups in Glasgow whose ancestors had been swept off the land to make way for sheep. The Cartel traded Scots for sheep. Scots become unhappy when reminded of that fact which is why the cartel media doesn't remind them.

In America, not one Southerner in a hundred owns his great-grandfather's land. In one form or another the enslavement goes on and on and on. The last thing in the world the conqueror wants is for the subjects he has conquered to learn about their old heroes, their past days of greatness, and the injustices they have endured. They just might try to emulate the deeds of their fathers. The Cartel doesn't want people going around asking each other if they live on their grandfather's land? It causes problems. Following is an example.

2nd VA. Cavalry

Before the War, Lynchburg had only about 8,000 people, and that was only when people came to town during tobacco harvest and the winter off-season holidays. In growing season, the population dropped to about 4,000 because everyone was working his land.

When Lincoln announced that he was going to invade Virginia, the local farmers gathered at what is now Lynchburg's Miller Park, elected officers, called themselves the 2nd Virginia Cavalry, and rode off to the war. This regiment fought many desperate battles before they came home. But, their arrival home was an extravaganza.

This is what happened. At the end of the war, my grandfather Major William Hoskins, surgeon, 59th Virginia Infantry surrendered with General Lee and the Army of Northern Virginia at Appomattox - 20 miles east. He knew the story of the 2nd Virginia. The old timers used to talk about it.

Lynchburg's 2nd Virginia refused to surrender. Along with Latham's Battery from Lynchburg, they formed battle-line and charged through the entire Yankee army - pistols banging and sabers slashing - it was a breathtaking spectacle. The handful of survivors rode the rest of the way to Miller Park in Lynchburg, called roll one last time, hid their battle flags and dismissed the regiment. They never did surrender.

There's more.

Latham's Battery

Latham's Battery, also from Lynchburg, rode with the 2nd Virginia in the last charge. On their ride from Appomattox, they stopped briefly to bury their six gun battery in a creek-bed somewhere between Appomattox and Lynchburg.

The occupation armies searched with no success. Some say that the secret of their location has been passed down from generation to generation. If Virginia is ever forced to defend herself again the guns can be dug up.

Everyone knew these stories once. Now few do. The exploits of our men are seldom mentioned by the media or the government schools, and when they do they are related in a disparaging way. The media are the reason.

Other Censored Things

Virginia's budget was recently released. The Horse Center in Lexington received $2 million dollars, Poplar Forest, Jefferson's home 6 miles away, received $750,000, and the Museum of the Confederacy received $50,000 of the $700,000 requested. It doesn't have enough money to stay open more than a couple of days a week.

The Confederate flags have been taken down at Miller Park and at Lynchburg's Confederate Cemetery where 3,000 of our boys are buried. Robert E. Lee Jr. High has been renamed, as has Garland-Rodes School, named for Lynchburg's boy generals. "Dixie" hasn't been heard at a football game for 40 years. All the history that would make a Virginian a nationalist has been erased. Virginia is no longer proud or rebellious.

Governor Allen

Still, news slips through. Lynchburg's News & Advance of Sept. 20, 2006, carried a short little article buried deep on page C3 revealing that Senator George Allen of Virginia, who is seeking re-election, was upset because his mother revealed to a reporter that she is Jewish - which makes Senator Allen Jewish.

When the question arose at one of his political rallies, Allen replied, "Who cares?" The paper related that the audience of about 600 business executives booed and hissed that the question was asked.

The booing of his supporters stopped the old question about whether or not Allen had prayed the Kol Nidre Prayer. Did he or didn't he? Suppose he said that he didn't? Could he be believed? After all, different nations have different laws.[2] Kol Nidre kept Jews from voting or holding office in England for hundreds of years.

Fifty Years Ago

Gloom and doomers really don't understand how much things have improved in the past 50 years.

For instance, right after the Korean War I was living in Richmond. Late one night there was a knock on the door. A tall middle-aged fellow, whose name I've forgotten, came in and asked me if I wanted a printing press.

Lots of people had mimeograph machines, but a printing press was big-time. That's when I learned that back then the government required printing presses to be registered. I didn't know that.

I remember that when the Communist government of Poland was overthrown - one of the first things the U.S. did was to ship printing presses there - lots of them. Because of this, the minds of Poland's people became controlled by the U.S. puppet Polish press. That was interesting. Printing presses were sent to Lenin when he moved his operation to Russia.

Being a Southerner, I already knew that one of the first things the invading Union Armies did was to take over local newspapers to control the minds of its captive populations.

A few years ago the Lynchburg News & Advance was bought by a Cartel newspaper chain out of Richmond. The editor of the old paper was immediately fired along with the old reporters and an entirely new crew of internationalist newspapermen arrived. Instantly, history and traditions vanished from its pages. Lynchburg's news diet became strictly internationalist, globalist - one world.

Ruling Technique

I quickly learned how the Cartel Media rules a community. It happened before my eyes. Cartel papers receive advertising money from the great Cartel corporations - while denying advertising to competitors. The several protest newspapers who tried to start up received no advertising from the big international companies and soon went out of business.

As a virtual news monopoly, newspapers give publicity to those of like mind and ignore those who aren't. In short-order, the city councils, school boards, state and national politicians, and well known media clerics became cookie-cutter likenesses of media views. If individuals don't parrot the one-world line - they are blacked out and their existence is unknown to the voters.

This is how the ITC rules the minds of the people of its market area. There is one viewpoint - that of the International Trade Cartel. Any nation wishing to break away and follow its own law-system is their enemy - be they Black, White, Jewish, American Indian, or Mexican.

I understood none of these things 50 years ago. But now - almost everyone is beginning to understand.

Where one man furtively offered me a printing press 50 years ago - almost everyone now has a computer with world-wide printing capabilities - and many use their new capability to e-mail to hundreds, even thousands. Not only are we beginning to get uncensored information - people are beginning to recognize and complain about mind-control information provided by the Cartel media.

Targets

The American invasion of Iraq has triggered a deadly Islamic reaction. Islamic nationalists correctly noted that the intent of the "American media" in Iraq was to control the minds and attitudes of the Iraqi people. To stop this, anyone having anything to do with the media has became a target, from newspaper boy, TV announcer, cameraman, secretary, to station executive.

Never mind how low on the media ladder, every time a media person is killed the insurgents claim a victory and announce the inability of America to defend its puppets. The US is placed in the position of having to defend every single Iraqi who works for them. That presents a problem because America doesn't have that many troops in the world - much less Iraq. The task of defending Iraqi allies is impossible. They can't be everywhere at once. The Iraqis have learned to fight back against media mind-control.

The Lynchburg News & Advance p.2, Oct 13, 2006 carried an interesting AP story, excerpts of which follow:

"Baghdad, Iran - Staff members at Shaabiya TV were working to get the new station ready to begin broadcasting ...

"At 7 a.m. ... militiamen, some dressed as police, broke into the station and gunned down 11 Iraqi executives, producers and other staffers - the deadliest attack against the media in Iraq where at least 81 other journalists have been killed in the past 3 years. ...

"In another attack on Iraqi media, the body of a Kurdish radio reporter was identified at the Baghdad morgue ...

"At least 51 journalists - mostly Iraqis - have been kidnaped in Iraq ... The latest was the editor of a weekly magazine ...

"Many kidnap-slayings ... have been carried out by gunmen in police uniforms ..."

The thing I found most interesting was that on the very next day in a different newspaper was another story dealing with the same subject - this time in Russia. We must not forget that Russia was roughly occupied by the Mongol-Turks for several centuries and the Russian memory is long.[3]

The following is excerpted from the Financial Times, p.3, Oct, 14-15, 2006.

"Contract murders became a feature of Russian life after the collapse of the Soviet Union ... Professional killings mushroomed from 100 in 1992 to 563 by 1994. They largely replaced the court system as a way of settling disputes. ...

3 During the great Tartar invasion of Europe in 1240-1242, mongol massacre of Russians was a regular practice. "At Moscow (Batu) ordered a general massacre, and 270,000 right ears are said to have been laid before him in testimony to its accomplishment." Marco Polo II, FN2, p.493, Yule-Cordier Edit, Dover Pub, NY.)

> "Similar methods started being employed in the mid 1990s against journalists and politicians ....
> "Rights activists say political killings, including those of journalists, have already got worse under Mr. Putin. The NY based Committee to Protect Journalists says Ms Politkovskaya was the 13th Russian journalist to die in a professional killing since 2000. .. such cases as hers and that of Paul Klegnikov, the editor of Forbes Russia murdered in 2004, may be the tip of an iceberg of attacks on journalists. Many, because they occur at local level, never get reported ...."

In closing, the article makes an interesting observation;

> "Such crimes ... parallel with the rise of extreme and sometimes violent far-right groups in Russia ... though experts say (Ms Politkovskaya) recent murder did not look like a racist attack."

The use of the word "racist" indicates that many if not most of the other attacks may also have been racist attacks. The Cartel often accuses a national enemy as being racist.

This "racial" view describes the on-going Russian civil war - which IS racial. It is the continuing warfare between Mongol-Khazar-Turks who overthrew the Tzar's government and still control most of the wealth of the country, and the Nordic-Slav alliance which is trying to regain it. At present the struggle seems focused on trying to regain media control which will determine who controls the minds of the Russian people.

Background

The West has been meddling in the affairs of the Middle East for a very long time. It helped carve Iraq out of the Ottoman Empire. It then included within Iraqi borders 3 different hostile nations. Next, it incited them to fight each other to exhaustion. The plan was then to have the docile remnants herded unprotestingly into the Cartel. Things don't seem to be working out that way.

The Coming War In America

In the years up to and including 1999, the cartel media blamed America's Saxon reform-Christians for almost every act of violence and injustice that occurred. The media reported rumors and false alarms almost weekly to create paranoia.

It was reported that Russian tanks were photographed being transported on American railroad flat cars; more Soviet military equipment was discovered hidden in government warehouses. German planes and pilots were spotted stationed in Texas; Russian armies were organized in Canada and Chinese armies were on maneuvers in Mexico. Foreign invasion was said to be imminent.

Patriot militias were organized nationwide in a panic. Many had government agents planted in their groups that announced that the militias were making illegal machine guns and bombs and were capable of illegal acts.

The media blamed whites for every act of interracial violence, in spite of most violent acts being committed by blacks - bringing racial tensions to a high.

Then came the red alert about militias becoming a national danger; there was Ruby Ridge, Waco, Oklahoma City and the first Towers bombing - the media connected all in some way to Saxon patriots and Christian reformists.

The Switch

Saxon-bashing suddenly stopped. The media hesitated. They were seemingly confused as to whom was to be blamed for Oklahoma City - American Patriots or Islamic terrorists? This was the first that most of us had heard of Islam having terrorists in America.

Then came the Towers incident. That decided things. The media reported that this was definitely the work of Islamic terrorists. This took American Patriots off the hook and put them on ice for the duration of the war to suppress Islamic separation.

Conclusion

The war against Islamic separatism in Iraq is now winding down. Muslims are fighting among themselves like cats and dogs - as usual in Islam. However, all Islam agrees on one thing - the mutual enemy of all are the U.S. and the Iraqi rulers they have appointed, the media spokesmen, and the American soldiers still visible on Iraqi soil.

In the foreseeable future, American armies will leave Iraq. Washington will then have to choose a new enemy to justify continuing as "protector of the country" - and, of course, to keep the economy going.

Will it be China again? Russia? Or, will it be one closer to home, one who with little effort can be taken out of the ice-box, brushed off, and abused?

If it is - it would be unfortunate. Years of Anti-Saxonism has had the effect of pushing Saxons together. Saxons now talk - worldwide. This is something that they haven't done for years. They also observed Iraq and have learned the ways of Esau.

If, in fact, America's puppet government again turns on its Saxon Christian Patriots - it would be unusual indeed if someone wandering along a creek between Appomattox and Lynchburg didn't find a rusty old relic from the time of the Late Unplesantness - and remember the story of the gallant men who put it there - the ones who wouldn't surrender.

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins: The black laws are getting worse by the day. They recently passed one where a person driving a car must pay to enter a town. Since public transportation collapsed there is no transportation available other than one's own personal car - excluding the death-trap taxis. It is one more hardship our people must endure.

The price of electricity is going up since the smaller electric plants shut down and the Koeberg nuclear power station was damaged.

In Northern Transvaal a cash-transit vehicle was robbed. It was ambushed and pushed off the road. The bandits killed one black guard, removed the cash, and pushed the three whites back into the van, poured petrol over them, and burned them alive. Their families could not identify their bodies. You can imagine how this makes us feel toward blacks.

One million highly qualified whites of working age that we know of have already left the country. Blacks tolerate the rest of us because we continue to generate wealth and make things run for the rest of the country.

The latest statistics show that there are 52 murders a day not counting rapes, robberies and hijackings. These figures appear acceptable to the black Minister of Safety and Security.

A druggist told me that AIDS combined with TB is killing larger and larger numbers of blacks. Last night's TV news reported that many more mortuaries are being planned for the near future, so the story must be true.

I recently received a letter from a U.S. pastor whom I thought was a Saxon patriot. He said that he feels very good that Mexicans are coming into the U.S. and that he likes them as a nation. I don't know if he ever has lived near any of the dark races, but here it is hell on earth.

Our best regards, and thank your readers for doing for us what circumstances prevent us for doing for ourselves, K. J.

Balance Of Payments

A negative balance of payments gives aliens funds to buy America - which is why America's puppet leaders encourage a negative balance of payments.

ITC

We've heard stories of $10 lent at 6% at the time of Christ now being worth more than a ball of gold many times the size of earth.

The simple question is - what is the usurer to do with the flood of usury money that pours in year after year?

The answer - they invest it!

Where?

In businesses.

What businesses?

Look around! All sorts. Yearly the lenders' flood of money is parceled out to hired billionaire managers who buy businesses that buy smaller businesses and get bigger and bigger. They are called corporations; giant corporations; international corporations; everyday names. The whole is part of the International Trade Cartel.

Utilities, oil companies, shipping companies, manufacturing companies, land companies, banks, media, the multi-billion dollar holdings of religious organizations - all are owned by the Cartel who lent that first dollar at the time of Christ. This is what they do with their money.

To keep the serfs quiet, Cartel religious managers modify the teachings of the world's Gods. They use their media and their hired religious spokesmen to condition captive populations to accept these modifications, how to think, and to accept cartel government dictates. We are taught that happiness is obedience to the "Lord of the Land".

Chapter 387

THE DAY Of The WHITE HORSE

Solzhenitsyn

Alexander Solzhenitsyn served with distinction in the Soviet Army during WWII. But, at its end, he criticized the Soviet government, and for this he spent years in a Russian prison - the gulag.

Upon his release he wrote books critical of the Soviet regime which were passed around among close friends. One of these took his books to the West where they were printed and received wide acclaim. These writings opened the door on what was really going on in the Soviet Union. The word was out. The Soviets deported him.

At the time, the Western media welcomed anyone who had anything bad to say about the Soviets - that is until Solzhenitsyn said that he found the same things happening in the West that he had left behind in the Soviet Union. This was unacceptable. The media blackout slammed down. Except for his books scattered over the West, one would never know that a Solzhenitsyn had ever existed.

One of the things Solzhenitsyn said was that Americans are brain-washed just like the Soviets. He described the quality of education in America's colleges in this manner:

> "What sort of education can you get from a professor who is scared stiff of losing his job?"

His observation of the first almost hysterical acclaim of his writings in America was this:

> "And I sat there and I thought: If the first tiny droplet of truth has exploded like a psychological bomb, what then will happen in our country when whole waterfalls of Truth burst forth? And they will burst forth. It has to happen." Alexander Solzhenitsyn, Gulag Archipelago.

Good question. What will happen when those who need to know actually learn? What will be the trigger? Let's look at the past to find the trail of the enemy.

Trail Of The King

When Greece ruled, Greece insisted that Greek-style buildings be erected in the lands they ruled - from Sicily to India. When Rome ruled, Rome insisted on Roman architecture in the lands they ruled. The same was true of India, Egypt, China and the Aztec. Virginia architecture was British Colonial architecture.

The rule is - the ruler replicates his style of architecture in the land he rules. It has always been this way.

Before My Eyes

In my grandfather's day, the farm was the center of his universe. The nearby town was where he briefly met neighbors to exchange goods, information and buy a few necessities and luxuries. The courthouse was the biggest building, next the churches. Most main street stores were converted houses. Not now.

Today, one can view the skyline of Lynchburg, Cleveland, Paris - cities in Saudi Arabia, India and Singapore - Tokyo, Peking and even Timbuktu in the middle of the desert - and with a few differences, they look alike - the architecture appears the same - tall office and apartment buildings.

This tells us that there is someone who rules world-wide. This is HIS architecture. We are accustomed to it so we don't notice, but it is clear as a calling card inscribed "Globalization". One power rules the world.

What To Expect

All empires die; a natural catastrophe occurs, or some unforeseen fluke happens - it always does. One of the following could topple Babylon's Tower.

BUSINESS: Rome conquered and annexed Egypt. The Nile valley was the richest farming area in the world. The new Roman owners of Egypt shipped Egyptian food to Rome and under-sold local farmers driving them from their farms. In Virginia after the War, the occupation government taxed the people so heavily that the farmers were driven from the land. Untold millions of acres are now owned by corporations and, like Rome, our farmers have moved to the cities. Once there, they opened grocery stores, drug stores and worked in shoe factories.

Now, the corner grocer and the corner druggist have been absorbed into supermarkets and national drug chains and the shoe factories have been moved offshore.

World corporations contain the vast accumulated wealth of the world's usury system. "Billionaire" managers are appointed to manage them. These billionaires and their lessor directors receive honors based on the profitability of the companies they manage. Unprofitable corporations transfer their assets to others, and fade away to keep the system going. Regardless, the corporation assets remain the property of their owner and this owner will destroy anyone who would attempt to take the corporations from him.

CHURCH: All nations have their own religion. Religions are law-systems.

For corporations to operate in lands having hostile religious law-systems, they must create a competing religious-corporation whose job it is to modify the old religious law-system so that it becomes a tolerant religion.

The result is that in every land there are two active religions claiming to represent the same god. One is intolerant of other law-systems and the other is tolerant of other law-systems. In spite of their many likenesses, one is the genuine national religion and the other is a modified counterfeit.

Southern Baptist

I ran across the following article in my files:

"Southern Baptists and Roman Catholics, the nation's two largest denominations, generally have been regarded as doctrinally far apart, but their scholars find they basically agree...

"The 163 page report is seen as the most full-scale, mutual examination of respective positions of the two traditions. Achieving it was an unprecedented experience for Southern Baptists, commonly averse to ecumenical affairs ...

"The talks, sponsored by the Catholic Bishops' Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs and the Southern Baptist Department of Interfaith Witness, involved 18 meetings between 1978 and 1988." The Bakersfield Californian Aug 27,1989

It's interesting to learn that Jerry Falwell spoke admiringly of the Pope and has recently joined the Southern Baptist Convention.

There was another interesting report:

"At his invitation (Pope John Paul II), Leaders from the religions of the earth gathered ... in the tranquil medieval Italian town of Assisi ... . The assemblage included ... believers in creeds once labeled 'heathen' and 'pagan' by a church that for centuries has preached unambiguously that there was no salvation outside its walls. The astonishing variety of the invited group also raised suspicions among some Christians that Assisi represented a heretical step toward syncretism, the amalgamation of various conflicting religions." Time, Nov. 10, 1986

Here's another:

"Concerning the recent Israeli/Vatican accord/treaty, Shimon Peres said, 'It is an agreement between two great religions, not just between two diplomatic enti> ties." In ranking the Vatican accord in terms of its importance with other Israeli treaties, he said, "A day will come when a third partner will join this agreement (between Israel and the Vatican), and I mean the Islamic world." America's Promise Ministries, p3. Feb 1995, PO Box 157, Sandpoint, ID 83864,

There is one last quote that I thought interesting. The heir to the British throne is Prince Charles. As such he is also the head of the Anglican Episcopal Church - "Champion of Christianity." The following came from the CBN News:

> "Prince Charles would like to represent all religions in multi-religious Britain." (CBN News, 10:25 AM on June 28, 1994)

We have pictures of him with the Hindu all-seeing eye painted in the middle of his forehead.

All the above indicates the progress of the world's corporate religions to modify the religions of nations.[1] into merchants' tolerant religion - whom the ancients called "Hindu".

Modified

The International Trade Cartel has established within the world's nations: parallel religions; parallel businesses; and parallel political representation. One is national and the other a modified likeness.

---

1 Rabbi Meir Kahane, Zionist nationalist and founder of the Jewish Defense League, was shot by an Egyptian-born Muslim who was acquitted of the killing. Muslim nationalist clerics are separating Islam from the ITC - bringing down on Islam war after war and general devastation. Catholic leaders of National Socialist Germany attempted to reclaim the wealth taken by international Corporations, and outlaw usury. The ITC crushed the German nation and executed its leaders. America's and S. Africa's self-sufficient farm systems were obliterated, their countries occupied, and reconstructed.

With unlimited funds from its usury banks, the corporation overwhelms the efforts of nations to rule themselves. They own the world's media which allows them to control the minds of the people much as cattle are controlled in the Chicago stockyards.

Once, a state in India could virtually wipe out the population of another state leaving dozens of other states intact. That India is no more. Today India is one state.

Once a Chinese province could virtually wipe out another province leaving dozens of others armed and intact. Now China is one state.

Once the United States was a union of many states but now it is one state - and there is a movement under way to unite the United-state with Mexico and Canada creating one mega-state.

This union of states and peoples has predictable results - the most obvious is that a Lawless ruler will commit a Lawless act from which there is no return. History is rife with such examples.

URBAN LIFE: Nimrod built the first city. The purpose of a "city" is to gather workers to be exploited by the ruler. Tax money is converted into the ruler's pockets through public works programs. In time, workers stop having children to maintain a livable standard of living, or they migrate to find better living conditions, or they starve because the lack of their own self-sufficient farm denies them food in an emergency.

MONOPOLY: Rome monopolized professions and work. She produced no food herself. Cheap food was provided by the Egyptian monopoly. Great food carrying ships brought food from Egypt to Rome. Viking ships swept the Mediterranean and destroyed the great grain carriers and Rome starved. Her unpaid mercenary armies dispersed and German invaders marched past vacant Roman cities.

EXTERMINATION: Mongol invaders dealt with cities they encountered in different ways. Many were spared. Many others were destroyed - killing every man, woman and child - fifty, a hundred, and several hundred thousand at a time. Some cities were exterminated because the Mongols wanted the land turned into pastures for their flocks.

Races in Africa have often virtually exterminated other black races leaving wide areas devoid of all human life.

STARVATION: A section of Russia was inhabited by independent self-sufficient farmers. A son of Esau, Joseph Stalin, ruled. He ordered Soviet troops to seize all food in the area of self- sufficient farms. The people in that area starved en masse. Many of those who survived were deported to Siberia.[2]

FORCED INTEGRATION: For the sake of the trade monopoly, the British government decreed that Virginia colonists accept Indians regardless of their Lawlessness. Those who refused were heavily fined. To avoid problems with their own government most colonists adopted government "integrationist" policies.

Protected by this policy, in 1622 the Indians stormed white settlements killing every man, woman and child in half of them. 1644 was a repeat of 1622. This was followed by a war

2 "To control nations, control oil; to control people, control food." Henry Kissinger in 1675, and Indian war followed Indian war every 20 years afterwards well into the 1800s - sprinkled in between with smaller raids and massacres

BIOLOGICAL: Whenever two races come in contact, the diseases of one harms those who have no immunity to them. The crew of Columbus' ships contracted non-venereal syphilis from the Indians and transported it to Europe where it killed one third to one half of Europe's population.

The plague was brought to Europe by sailors from the near east. It too, killed one third to one half of the population of Europe.

INTERBREEDING: The builders of the world's skyscrapers are also believed to be the rulers of the banking system and the world's mind-controlling media. The religion of these people tell them that "white" is evil and "black" is good. Integration is being forced on every Saxon nation in the world. It is effective. Racial interbreeding destroyed the children of Jacob in India, China, Syria, Palestine, Turkey, Greece, N. Africa, Southern Italy, Sicily, Southern Spain, Central and S. America, and elsewhere. It is the most successful single form of warfare and is an unforgivable sin.[3]

ECONOMIC WARFARE: Usury is the creation and monopoly of Esau. It is the system where if only $10 exists and one lends it to another and demands a return of $11 - it cannot be done since $11 doesn't exist. Anyone unable to pay his contractual debt for whatever reason may lose his collateral. The possibility of money disappearing from circulation

3 "When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." Deut 23:2; "Not everyone shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Matt 7:21. (Deut. 13:6-11)

in an instant which would prevent repayment of debts is real; having happened four times before in American history. (See War Cycles / Peace Cycles, Hoskins)

"Derivatives" are new. Few people understand them. Investor's Business Daily estimates that there are $365 billion in derivatives outstanding at this moment. I know one person who made a million dollars a week selling derivatives before a sudden reversal bankrupted him, his customers, and almost brought down his firm. The person in question knew how to trade derivatives, but he didn't really understand his product. Neither did his customers nor did his firm.

The sudden disappearance of money could have dire consequences and our enemies would like to see such a thing come to pass.

The Reason

The reason for enumerating the above is because they have the real possiblity of severely harming us, and Jacob is making no effort to avoid them.

Esau has sworn to kill Jacob, and Esau has the means to do so since he rules the monetary system and he rules the minds of the world and the governments of nations through his media.

The Trigger

One looks to the Western sky in the morning and judges the day's weather. We look and see clouds - the kind predicted long ago - the kind of clouds that herald a new day and the fullfillment of our age old prayer:

"Thy kingdom come - thy will be done, On Earth."

But, for it to come Scriptures say:

> "The coming of our Lord Jesus Christ ... that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first." 2Th 2:1,3

That's happening! There is a "falling away". Not only do people refuse to live Lawfully - many refuse to hear the WORD of the Law.

When people fall away from obeying the Law of the WORD - and begin disobedience to the Law - chaos results. Man does not flap his arms and fly nor does he breath water and live. God's Law forbids it.

Chaos will cause man to either die or return to the teachings of "the Word made flesh."

The Book of Revelations tells of The One on the white horse.[4] This One is the WORD. The beast is lawless Babylon. Those who practice lawlessness are the devils.[5]

The devils were slain by the sword that proceeded out of the mouth of Him who sat on the white horse.

> "I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet ... with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire ... And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth ..." Rev 19:19-21

4 "Behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him ... His name is called The WORD Of God." Rev 19:11,13. The white horse is the traditional symbol of the Saxon.

5 DEVIL: Satan: Heb. adversary, arch-enemy of good. (Strongs 7854.); Gr. 4567 the devil: - Satan.; Law vs Lawless; Gr 1228 - false accuser, devil, slanderer. 1140 - a demonic being, a deity: - devil, god; Devil: Bearer of Lawlessness vs Lawfulness; Devil: "He has a devil". Lawless behavior. Lawlessness vs Lawfulness.

In a Capsule

The WORD says that before God's kingdom can come there must first be a "falling away" from the Law. This is necessary and is happening. The "falling away" means that God's Law is being rejected. A Lawless society commits acts which bring chaos and death. Chaos demands that man return to the Word or die.

We must look and see what will be involved in this event that we have asked for, that "Thy kingdom come". Who is it that is betraying us? Who stands in the way of the return to God's Law?

Volksverrad

Remember the book "Volksverrad" by Piet Pretorius - the story of the betrayal of our kinsmen in S. Africa? The author was in position to know exactly who had betrayed South Africa. Remember what he said? He said that they were ALL guilty - ALL of them. All the politicians, the generals; the religious leaders; the money managers - ALL of them. All the ruling castes of S. Africa. He could hardly believe his findings. They ALL had a hand in it - they were all guilty!

Today

Let us put all this into a possible scenario. The population of the United States at present is perhaps 300,000,000 - half of whom are aliens. The Scriptures say that the half who are children of Esau will flee to their own lands. This could be a peaceful event through mutually beneficial "transfer agreements" activated in the 1830s and the 1930s. If the transfer is not peaceful then the exodus will occur under the following conditions.LAW;last days

> "They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16[6]

This will leave half who are sons of Jacob - some 150,000,000. Of these the Scriptures say;

> "And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein." Zec 13:8

We can guess that this evil 2/3rds part of Jacob who are to perish are the ones who refuse to return to the WORD and remain lawless. They are the Lawless ones who worked with Esau to keep their brothers in Esau's slavery - those who refuse to heed the clarion call of the WORD. Their demise leaves 50,000,000 - or 1/6 the number now living in the land.

Conclusion

After the day of Armageddon - or Ragnarack as it is called by our ancestors - after the enemies of the WORD are dead[7] or departed - and the land is again divided - there will be land sufficient for each of the children of Jacob to have his own self-sufficient farm where he will never have to bend his knee to beg his bread from another; With a cottage industry to supply his needs - where he is a King and a Priest and bows only to the WORD which is his GOD.

6 This is why it is important that Saxon nationalists cultivate and work with the other nationalists of the world who would benefit by separation from us as much as we would benifit by separation from them.

7 "But these enemies of mine, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27

When drops of knowledge grow into a deluge of truth, as is now taking place, we will soon have our kingdom on earth and our enemies will learn that there is a real place called hell.[8]

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins: Two Muslims came by the other day looking to buy land to build a housing complex. But, after considering the matter they now find that it is too dangerous to live here.

It is difficult for Hans and me to go anywhere together. We are a good distance from stores and post office, and one of us must stay behind to watch over things.

They say that a thousand blacks die every day from the new combination of TB and AIDS. They are fatal and fast, but there is no way to keep track of the black population because of the inflow of illegals.

We saw Betzy and Rina yesterday. Many of the children are taking exams. Their holidays start on December 1 and she will be taking the children to a hot thermal spring holiday resort for a week, after which they will be going to spend the holidays with their holiday parents.

The black authorities are changing white names of places for black names - names that we never heard of before. They are trying to remove every trace of our past and present; the flag, our anthem and all traditional songs, even the Union Building and Jan Smuts airport. Their mismanagement is causing everything to fall into ruins and that causes them to hate everything white.

The former state president P.W. Botha died. He was at age 90. He made a lot of mistakes but he built the S. African army of his day into one of the best and is also responsible for the building of six nuclear plants without which S. Africa today would be a complete basket case.

The Dutch Reform Church has their first black minister. They look around but see no poor whites but make their members sign pledges for black children in Zambia who have AIDS. Ordinary people are now becoming outspoken in their opinions of the above church.

Our best wishes, K. J.

BRIAR HEDGES

& INDIANS

Brier Bushes

When you take your dogs and walk cross-country in Virginia you can still run into the old brier-bush boundary hedges. If you run into them at night when hunting it can ruin your whole night.

Uncared for neary three-quarters of a century, some of these bushes have grown big. Each is covered with small sharp needles and when you walk into one you stop instantly and try to untangle yourself without leaving a yard of skin behind. In any event, you will still have a painful memory as you patiently pick out the thorns.

History

Virginia brier bushes have a history. They are remnants of the old brier hedges that once encircled farms, divided fields and marked off boundaries in Old Virginia. Properly maintained, they were relatively cheap and maintaince free compared with split-rail fences.

Brier hedges ran for miles along creeks and ridges marking boundary lines. The farmer would plant brier plants a few feet apart. Every year the bushes put out stringers, sometimes four or five feet long, and every year someone walked both sides of the brier hedge to weave the stringers back into the hedge. In a few short years, the hedges became absolutely impenetrable. I'm quite serious. It is hard to imagine a rabbit being able to get through a well maintained hedge - much less a cow, horse, or deer - who wisely avoided them.

After the war, many unattended hedges took over the fields and required long hours to clear so the land could be put back into production. I well remember the irritating pricks and cuts clearing brier bushes.

Indian Warfare In Early Virginia

Indian warfare in Virginia was an ongoing affair from the early 1600s well into the 1800s. Intermittent warfare was interrupted by all out Indian wars every 20 years or so. There is no old Virginia family which has not lost members to the Indians - members who usually died in unbelievable ways at their hands.

All the older houses I've seen (1825 and earlier) had a great wood bar to secure the front door. The shutters were of heavy wood with firing slots. At Poplar Grove, where Dr. William Hoskins is buried, in the corner of one of the rooms stands a parapet gun - eight or nine feet tall. Most people have never seen one. This one was a flintlock, rifled, adjustable sights, about 1 inch caliber, and I was told that it could reach far beyond the usual 200-300 yards range of a rifled musket.

Household Defense

Tobacco was a Crown monopoly and Virginia's money crop. Britain paid low prices and tobacco quickly wore out the land. In Tidewater, the depleted soil required larger plantations. It took a plantation of 1,000 acres to profitably grow the plant. 1,000 acres is about a square mile. It made homes relatively distant from each other. Indians could slip down a river or over the mountains and massacre a half-dozen plantations before the alarm sounded and the mounted militia gave chase.

The main defense was the house itself, which acted as a fort. Where Indians were active, most able-bodied slaves were armed and helped in the defense. The pastures and fields that had brier-hedge rows surrounding the house presented obstacles to the Indians starting at 100-200 yards. Regular passage through the hedges was at the usual wooden gates. Dogs kept watch at night.

Unseen hedgerows often presented formidable obstacles to Indian war parties. Attackers expected a hedgerow somewhere, so when reaching one they would throw poisoned meat to the dogs and then enter at the undefended gate.

Plantation owners backed their hedge protection with dogs, and backed this up with another alarm system comprised of peacocks, African guinea hens, or both.

Peacocks are interesting. When they ruffle their feathers, lower their wings to touch the ground, spread their tails like a rainbow - and give their raucous cry, they are the most spectacular thing on the farm. However, foxes, coons, wolves and Indians found them easy prey.

Guinea hens are a different matter. They are a semi-wild bird from Africa and roost in trees near the house to be near their source of food. When someone approaches day or night they make an unbelievable racket. When I was growing up almost every farm had a few guineas and never a robbery. Everyone knew they had a visitor - expected or not.

Indian Lore

When Capt John Smith was exploring Virginia in 1608 he noted that there were seven or eight squaws to each brave. He attributed that to their constant warfare. In my experience the ratio still seems to be about the same. Indians keep to themselves. You seldom know what they are doing. They handle their differences themselves with their own laws. Others have agreed with me that there are many more Indian women than men.

There are stories about Indian day help failing to show up at their pick up-place. They never did show up. They just vanished. No one ever reported them missing and no one seemed to know what happened to them. They just disappeared.

The Beating

My son, a responsible young man, told me a story the other day. He said that this past summer he had heard that three white men were fishing and inadvertently strayed onto an Indian Reservation and set up camp for the night. During the night, a band of Indians pulled them out of their tents and beat them insensible. They had to be hospitalized.

In years past, when I passed Indians on a mountain trail, they didn't look at me or seemingly even see me. When I greeted them they either were startled or ignored me. Regardless, I did what my father told me to - I never turned my back.

In spite of having these Indian colonies in our midst for near 400 years, they keep to themselves and most Saxons know virtually nothing about them.

As part of their ongoing mind-control program, the lying media say we stole their land. Not under Indian law. When Indians left land they were living on, they could return within a year. From then on it was up for grabs. The idea of setting boundaries that guaranteed Indian land ownership on land reserved for them was a Saxon idea. Recently, this simple concept has been expanded.

Bylas Sniper

A subscriber kindly sent me a copy of the Eastern Arizona Courier, p.1, Nov 29, 2006. It contains an interesting story.

It seems that people driving through the San Carlos Indian Reservation are being shot at by snipers. Most targets involve school buses. One resulted in a leg injury of a young woman. In the most recent, Mike Bibb was in his truck on the way home from a camping trip when the driver-side window was shattered by a bullet which was shot from somewhere near the Mt. Turnbull Apache Market in Bylas. Bibb's face was cut by shards of glass blown into the cab by the bullet. All the shootings took place as the victims were passing through the Indian reservation.

This next I found most interesting.

Bylas District Councilor Jonatha Kitcheyan assured the public that the tribe is taking action to ensure the safety of travelers though his community. Kitcheyan, a member of the law and order committee, said the tribe approved the assignment of two Indian officers during weekends, but Graham County Sheriff Frank Hughes said the only way to control the situation is to allow the county jurisdiction on the reservation. The tribal chairman and council have the power to grant that request. Even if jurisdiction were to be granted, deputies and officers would have to turn over suspects to tribal courts, not state courts.

Stafford Mayor Ron Green said that he plans to attend a meeting with tribal representatives to find a way to stop the shootings.

Did you read what I read? It seems that here in the United States, Saxon mandated Indian reservations now have figurative brier bushes grown up around them. Saxons can be assaulted or killed while passing through the reservation, and if the perpetrators are caught they must be turned over to Indian authorities for prosecution under Indian Law - whatever that is.

I didn't know that Indian reservations were not under the "law of the land". Reservations have power held only by sovereign countries. It appears that it is only the tip of the iceberg.

Seminoles

In the Financial Times, p.6, 12-9/10-2006 there was another interesting story.

Seminoles of the Seminole Tribe were the first to enter the gambling industry when they opened a high-stakes bingo operation in Hollywood, Florida in 1979.

The chief executive of the tribe's casinos says that the profits from the Hard Rock chain - $34.8m last year - will be reinvested in the business, used to fund public services, and any surplus will be distributed among tribe members.

Indian Business

Today, tribal gambling revenues have soared from $5.4bn in 1995 to more than $20bn with about 360 casinos operated by 220 tribes on their self-governed reservations.

The Seminole tribe alone recently agreed to buy the Hard Rock Cafe chain from Rank Group, a British casino operator, for $965m. The deal includes more than 120 restaurants, hotels, and casinos in 45 countries. In addition, the tribe operates seven casinos in Florida including two Hard Rock franchises and draws 90% of its revenues from gambling.

Since 1992, the Winnebago tribal reservation in Nebraska has set up new businesses ranging from construction to marketing. The casinos and manufacturing businesses of the Mississippi Choctaw Indians make it the state's second-largest employer. The Salish and Kootenai tribes of Montana own a technology company, S&K Technologies, and have NASA and the USAF as customers. These last named customers put the Indians' businesses in the big time.

Since Indians are Esau, and Esau deals in deception, we must look for something similar on the other side of the world to help our understanding.

Oil & New Billionaires

A few years ago, a handful of semi-nomads in Saudi Arabia were allowed to take over the multi-billion dollar oil producing business that belonged to U.S. interests. At the time a regiment of marines could have stopped it - if the ITC wanted it stopped. But that wasn't the plan.

Saudi Arabia is supposedly a sovereign country although its puppet rulers were appointed by the WWI victors over the Ottoman Empire who was the previous owner. Still, the ones who made these Arabs rulers of Saudi Arabia were also aware that they were also children of Islam, and that the land they were given to rule would be protected by all the traditional laws and customs that go with being a sovereign country. What it does with its new oil wealth behind closed doors is its own business.

Saudi Arabia was one of the weakest, most defenseless countries in the world. It had few people, was dirt poor - and its few people were the most fanatical of all Islamic peoples.

The income from the oil industry that the U.S. gave them furnished Saudi Arabia with a massive cash flow which they could use to fund radical Islamic movements world-wide - or fund anything else they wanted to. As stated before, since they were an independent nation they could spend their bushel baskets of money anywhere they liked.

We know about Saudi Arabia allegedly furnishing most of the 9/11 participants. But there is more:

Chase

A report filed with the SEC, Apr 22, 1991, reveals that the Saudis at that time held for themselves or held for someone else, over 5% of Chase Manhattan Bank. This was the second largest Saudi investment made since the war. The largest was a $590 million "investment" in Citibank.

This very probably gives effective control of these two banks to that group. There are constantly stories in the Wall Street Journal of other banks being bought by foreigners - who own the media - who own the minds of their viewers.

Back To the American Indian Thing

It stands to reason that the rulers of the government of the United States favor granting Indian Reservations sovereign state status just as was done with Saudi Arabia - or they would not have done so.

These new sovereign American-Indian states, provided with a gambling income that is more than enough to satisfy a great many of the countries of the world, all hidden by their national sovereignty from the prying eyes of outsiders, could become every bit a source of mischief that Saudi Arabia is today.

National sovereignty is a powerful thing. Israeli criminals flee to the Israeli state for safety and protection. What is to keep Indian criminals from fleeing to Indian reservations for the same protection? Or, to protect other Saxon enemies?

Actually, they have the potential to become even more of a source of mischief than this; they are tucked away and protected in the heart of America. What sort of protected wheeling-and-dealing are they doing with other nations under the cloak of their American- Indian sovereignty?

Brier Hedges

Saudi Arabians and American Indians are growing a type of brier hedge which is virtually impenetrable according to International Admiralty rules - the "national sovereignty" hedge.

Saxons, too, have a different kind of brier hedge that kept wolves outside. It is called the WORD.

This hedge, once impenetrable to enemies, has been long neglected and has wild stringers growing all over the place. Gaps now allow predators to wander through as they please.

But things are changing. Already there are guinea hens sitting on tree limbs screaming their heads off at approaching predators. Already there are workers frantically grasping wild stringers and weaving them back into the hedge - to make the sheepfold impenetrable. Already there are those complaining about prickly briers and unfairness to wolves.

The time is approaching when willing hands will re-weave the last stringer back into the hedge and the Sheepfold will be secure. Then will be time to tend to the wolves in our midst.

SADDAM HUSSEIN HANGED

The leaders of the US invaded one more country, Iraq, a country with which they had no quarrel. They have destroyed its cities, killed and maimed hundreds of thousands of its people, used nuclear waste ammunition leaving the land contaminated, and for a finishing touch - hanged its president. Death, starvation, misery, disease and dishonor - the legacy of the rulers of the United States.

Is this a "mis-calculation"- an accident? I hope it is - just as I hope that Ruby Ridge, Waco, Oklahoma City, and the Towers were accidents. If not, we must assume that these executions are part of an ongoing plan.

The unprovoked Iraqi War has stripped the US of the friends it once had. Now, when the alien invaders pouring into our country begin a civil war to force us to live under their Gods and their laws - there are none who will come to our aid.

If the ball is truly in play, further acts of mayhem can be expected. This will truly be the Hindu Age of Kaliyuga. The choice will be clear: In the future we will serve Kali- Christ,[1] or we will serve Christ-The-WORD.[2]

"By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA by K.J.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: The number of Indians coming in can be seen by shops catering to their tastes - all different curries etc.

We have become the world's market place as Dr. D. F. Malan predicted at the Voortrekker Monument's inauguration in 1948 when he said choose this day if you want a Christian country or a democracy.

1 The Hindu Puranas teach: Apocalypse for the Hindu is the natural ending of the world in the fourth age, the present Kali Age. Kali the central figure - the Destroyer God - must destroy life on earth before Vishnu can bring in the new Kalki age of peace.

2 "Very early, Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law, and faith was interpreted as obedience." The Encyclopedia Britannica, 14th Edition, Vol 5, p. 635.

When Vorster took over it happened. We lost everything that identifies us as Western Christians. DeKlerk was the final pawn. Having no scruples, he signed our freedom away in exchange for honors and money.

Our electricity is most unreliable, blackouts every day. Squatters recently cut down about seven telephone poles and took the cable to sell leaving us without a telephone - again. The one white technician got us back on line in a day. When he was sick it took a whole horde of blacks a week to repair the line after a single pole was cut.

Even placing them underground doesn't protect the line. They simply cut both ends and pull the cable out of the pipe with a small truck.

We called Chris, the young white policeman at the local police station, but this has been going on so often that I do not think we will have the land line working soon or the criminals caught. No wonder business firms use satellite dishes in the rest of Africa. Nearly every second day our phone is out because of poles being cut.

The black way of solving a problem is to put up a sign. When a pot-hole appears in the road, up goes a sign warning motorists not to drive into the pot-hole. When a carjacking occurs - a sign goes up warning motorists not to get hijacked.

F.W. DeKlerk was our last white president and the greatest traitor of them all. He was upset when P.W. Botha told a Dutch reporter how he sold us out to barbarians. When Willie Marias wanted to know where all the money was coming from that DeKlerk was flashing about, he threatened to sue.

DeKlerk threatens to sue every time something happens - like when his youngest son was seen with a coloured girl, or, when questioned how his wife Marike happened to be murdered by intruders when he was away with the Greek woman, or, when his son actually married the coloured woman.

This thick skinned man and his new Greek wife even turned up at P.W. Botha's funeral, although he knew the Botha family's feelings toward him. He was wise enough to leave the instant the service was over.

One day he will have to account for the thousands of whites who have died cruel deaths because of him, and others who lost their jobs because of affirmative action. And last, he certainly will have to answer for betraying his own God-fearing people into the hands of barbarians who follow witch-doctors.

A Mozambician with inside help escaped C-Max in Pretoria Prison. He was charged with more than 62 counts of murder and rape. Can you imagine!

It is estimated that at least 1,500-2,000 blacks die every day from AIDS combined with TB. This will certainly have an effect on our nation's future. Still, last month 700 whites left the country for Australia.

And last, we have two Dachshunds - ladies of the manor - only the best for them. I understand that you have a new Rottweiler puppy - that gives you four. With prices soaring here, I'm glad you have to feed them instead of us.

Yours faithfully, K.J.

WAR II?: "'How many Canadians know that Russian forces have attacked Canadian Forces helicopters with lasers in an attempt to blind the pilots and cause them to crash?" (Mccleans Canada; THE WEEK p.16, Dec 22, 2006)

RKH: Kings stay in power by protecting us from an enemy. Kings are aided by followers of Kali who encourage war and destruction in order to rebuild the ruins. We remember that the Bolsheviks who destroyed Russia and murdered millions came from America. From that time, Russia became an American satellite just as America is a puppet of the ITC. No shot is fired anywhere without permission.

SLAVE TRADE: The slave trade is now the third largest type of illegal trade in the world, after drugs and weapons, according to the U.S. State Department. Between 600,000 and 800,000 people are trafficked across national borders each year ... with up to 17,500 of them entering the U.S. (Story in THE WEEK, p.11, Dec 15, 2006)

GOODWILL: Pope Benedict XVI, in September quoted a 14th-century characterization of Islam as an 'evil and inhuman' faith with a natural tendency to violence. Benedict reversed his position last week when he said that Turkey should be granted entry to the European Union. (WEEK p. 3, Dec 8, 2006)

RKH: No imperial episcopacy, Protestant, Catholic, or State - can admit that Jacob-Israel really didn't vanish suddenly without trace - something that no nation has done before or since. Such an admission would destroy their own authority to create kings, monopolies, tax, incorporate aliens into the state, and make prison-slaves of their own people.

The notable exception was Queen Victoria who loudly proclaimed that her ancestry traced back to Jacob-Israel and told it to the world. Of course, Britain's real rulers hushed the matter as soon as she died. One can imagine what would happen if suddenly Saxon- Israel should awake one morning and realize that God's WORD is true - that they really are the people chosen by God to rule by God's Law - and are to be held responsible and punished for not doing so.

BLAME: An article in The NY Times Magazine by Helen Epstein blames the chaos in S. Africa on the following: "In the 19th century, European settlers built railways, mines and cities and coerced millions of young men to work for them, forcing them to leave their families behind in their villages for months or years at a time. White settlers appropriated much of the most fertile land, and the black populations that remained in rural areas became increasingly dependent on remittances from migrant workers," and "the destabilization of the southern African family by the upheavals of apartheid."

A couple of details were left out of the above article. When Whites arrived in S. Africa there were almost no blacks living there. When White Afrikanners moved north into the Transvaal and Freestate there were almost no Blacks there either - they had slaughtered each other or had starved in their self-imposed Diffacane. The land was mostly vacant. To develop the gold and diamond mines Blacks were brought in by the hundreds of thousands by the Jewish owners and managers. Now, most of the Jews have left and their media are blaming the Whites for the mess the Jewish owners created and left behind.

HI-TECH ASSASSINATION: An American built Israeli helicopter piloted by an Israeli pilot firing American built rockets killed the local Islamic leader of the Aqsa Martyrs Brigades, a 2nd Palestinian and seriously wounded a third in a refugee camp outside Nabus.

RKH: The US puppet government promotes this type of warfare. It provides the equipment. The resulting misery usually creates a desire for peace allowing the easy installation of strong ITC puppet governments which administer international Admiralty Law.

PRIVATIZATION: "France puts off privatization of state utilities." Financial Times

RKH: The knowledge of how the robbery of the assets of Russia, Rhodesia, S. Africa and Australia was done with the help of cartel puppet governments is beginning to filter down to other victims.

LEGAL ACTION: Before he died, former State President P.W. FOOTBALL: It is no secret that white high school football teams regularly beat black high school football teams. This is no secret to anyone that follows high school football in any area of the country. Chapter 389

LITTLE BOY BLUES

Indians & Saxons

Saxons from England landed in Virginia in 1607 and encountered American Indians. The relationship between the two was hostile from the first. Their law systems were polar opposites and instantly clashed when one tried to enforce his law over the other.[1]

English Law

Complicating matters further, the English Saxon law system was at odds with itself; there was the episcopal "law of the land" whose head was the king of England. This was the ancient Law that had been modified to allow him, his government, and his church to control the people, their land, and their property. He granted privileges to his favorites in lands under his rule. It was his monopoly. The crown's appetite for "more and still more" was insatiable. Enforced by a standing army and his own appointed aristocracy to whom he granted privileges, he had loyal enforcers for his decrees. The "king's wish" was the "law of the land". It still is.

In opposition were reform-minded Puritans who had grown up within the king's Anglican Church but who wanted to do away with the king's modified law and return to the WORD.

This meant doing away with the rule from the top down episcopacy and obeying the Law of the WORD. They said they spoke only of the ecclesiastical episcopacy, but the king's logic recognized the danger: If the religious episcopacy that had been created were abolished, it would only be a matter of time before they would try to abolish the office of king itself. Puritans were potential enemies of the state and were treated as such.

The result of these two systems in Virginia produced a Saxon nation where the governor was appointed by the king and charged with enforcing the king's modified law, and on the other hand were a great many Anglican/Puritans who wanted to conform to Biblical Law. From the very first, the clash of the two law systems produced a contentious colony often verging on civil war.

The thing that held them together was the Indian menace that produced a major Indian war every 20 years or so interspersed by ongoing massacres of individuals and families.[1]

Indian Law In Virginia

The Indian law system was driven by perpetual war between themselves or with the colonists. The objective was to appease their bloodthirsty God, Okie, who constantly demanded pain and blood from human or animal sacrifices. This produced a hostile Indian presence fragmented into countless semi-independent tribes at war with each other every summer. During the occasional periods of Indian peace, the sacrifices needed to appease Okie were obtained from the newly arrived Saxons who objected strongly. The first Thanksgiving wasn't held to promote the brotherhood of man - it was held in Virginia in 1615 thanking God for preserving them from the Indians.

Saxon Militia

In theory, Virginia was protected by the Governor's 400 or so royal marines at Jamestown. In fact, the Colony's western frontier was protected by 40,000 mounted militia who elected their own leaders, furnished their own weapons and supplies, and drilled monthly. This was the backbone of Virginia's defense. They were good at protecting themselves, their families and, incidentally, the royal governor at Jamestown.

---

1 There were 45 orphans In Augusta County alone in 1745 who had to be raised by foster parents. Their families had been massacred.

Indian Trade Controversy

The King declared that the Indian fur trade was a royal monopoly. To keep this trade from being interrupted, the governor refused to punish those Indians guilty of committing massacres of Virginian colonists.. Some of the worst offenses took place around the frontier town of Richmond.

In exasperation, the militias elected a leader, Nathanial Bacon, who fought and defeated the Indians. This stopped the massacres and, incidentally, it stopped the fur-trade. Bacon and his followers were outlawed by the Governor.

The Governor split the loyalties of Bacon's followers by promising them the land and properties of those rebels who were caught and hanged.

This, plus being backed by the rest of the British Empire, resulted in the suppression of Bacon's Rebellion in a series of bloody, bloody executions. But, the Virginia militia survived because it was needed for the survival of the colony and it continued in existence. However, the differences between the tyrannical rule of the crown and those who wanted to live by the WORD remained.

Birth Of The Blues

As mentioned before, the militia elected its own officers. In official correspondence, to distinguish between a regular British army "captain" in his red coat and a "captain" of the Virginia militia, the term "Militia Captain" or "Captain of the Blues" was used. For formal affairs, the regulars wore their red uniforms and Virginians wore blue ones. The name "Blues" stuck.

Among the blues, the Richmond fall-line militia was among the most active in the colony and as the town grew the militia became known as the "Richmond Blues". Later, when they adopted the rifled-musket and trained in the light-infantry tactics necessary for the use of that weapon, they became known as the "Richmond Light Infantry Blues" - the official name was received in 1789, although their history goes back to 1632. They were known then as the 1st Virginia Regiment. They were well-trained, well-disciplined, and formed the backbone of countless military operations against Virginia's enemies.

At the time of the Revolutionary War, the Blues were designated the 1st Virginia Regiment and were the first to go on active duty from Virginia. My ancestor Robert Hoskins was a member. My father belonged when he attended the Medical College of Virginia before WWI. When I lived in Richmond, I joined because it was expected. I can't tell you the feeling you had when you answered roll call in that regiment. The Richmond Light Infantry Blues was recognized as the oldest American military organization in continuous service in the country. Like youngsters everywhere - we thought our regiment invincible.

Battle Streamers

Battle streamers on a regimental flag are a relatively recent addition. The oldest streamer on the Blues flag was won fighting under Gen. George Washington during the French & Indian wars - although there had been many, many battles before then.

Over the years, I've served in regiments that had two, eight, and even twelve battle streamers. The Blues flag had so many battle streamers that they faced in every direction of the compass in order to make room for them all.

Little Boy Blues

When Virginia was invaded during the War Between The States, the Blues again marched off to war as the 1st Virginia - leaving Richmond defenseless.

To take their place, a home militia was formed of the sons of the men who had marched away - boys from about 8 to 13 or 14 years of age. There were also a few old men and a handful of walking wounded from the local hospitals who furnished the discipline and leadership. Since the vast majority were children, they were called the "Little Boy Blues." Their duty was to defend Richmond.

Dahlgren's Raid

Lee was fighting Grant south of Richmond at Petersburg. This left Richmond defenseless from the north. A yankee, Col. Dahlgren, devised a plan to form a strike force comprised of selected mounted troopers to make a lightning attack on Richmond from Washington. The plan was to storm Richmond before Lee could bring up troops to defend the city, free the Union prisoners held at Belle Island and Castle Thunder, kill the members of the Confederate government and burn the town.[2]

All went according to plan. His ride from Washington was breath-takingly fast and Richmond's steeples were in sight. Suddenly, his column was halted by the sight of a line of battle across the road where there weren't supposed to be one. He rode forward and through his binoculars saw a line of children standing at attention with rifles taller than they were. He and his staff laughed, formed his cavalry into line and charged.

Going To The Blue's Ball

Blues in uniform going to some function or other about Richmond were once a common sight. To have fun on a hot summer day I opened the sun-top and let my shako and plume show through. A photogropher at the Richmond Times Dispatch took this photo.

The interesting thing is that the AP sent the picture world wide instantly. People were kind enough to send me copies from all over the US, Europe, and the Orient. At that time I did not know that the world's media were basically one entity and in instant communication with all its parts. This was new information.

with rifle butts on their shoulders and muzzles resting on the ground until the thundering mass of charging men and horses were 15 yards away when the command "present" was given; the rifles rose followed instantly by the order - "fire!"

The volley at such close range blew away the attacking line leaving a carnage of thrashing horses and dead and dying men, Col. Dahlgren lay among them.

The remnant of Dahlgren's command rapidly retreated and attempted to reach Federal gunboats in the James. They camped for the night at a crossroads in King and Queen County on the other side of Richmond, at a place now known as "Dahlgren's Corner".

During the night, the boys' and old men's militia of King & Queen surrounded the remnant of Dahlgren's command. They crawled as close as they could without being seen and lay still in the brush waiting for sunrise. Their orders were not to move - let the enemy come to them - within five paces - then shoot them.

Dawn arrived and the Union troopers began to stir and walk around. As they unknowingly walked up to the boys lying in the brush - shots rang out. Chaos reigned. There was no visible enemy. Men ran back and forth - wherever they went they ran into an ambush. Men fell by the score. A handful surrendered.

Dahlgren's raid on Richmond is just one more thing the Cartel media only touches on in passing - children fighting and giving their lives to defend their homes, sisters and mothers from savage invaders. Union soldiers later returned in force and burned King & Queen County in retaliation, including the old Court House with its priceless centuries-old records. The old men, women and children were left homeless and many died from exposure.[3]

Short Apology

I lived in Richmond in the mid-50s in the middle of everything but knew next to nothing.. I didn't know what "man" meant. I didn't know what "Saxon" meant. I didn't know about the International Trade Cartel, I didn't know about Jews being Khazar-Turks who were converted to Judaism; I didn't know that Saxon's could be bought and become "Janissaries" (Turkish for "white slaves"); I didn't know that my people were engaged in an ancient ongoing war between Jacob and Esau. It wasn't until 28 April 1965 that I accepted the WORD. Its teachings gradually brought reality. I learned that most of our Christian priests, kings, and great-merchants are Janissaries, and that both the money and the media are Turk monopolies. I just didn't know these things. My ignorance will in measure explain many of my mistakes over the years.

Little Boy Blues - Again

Since I was a member of the Blues, I thought it would be a good idea to revive the Little Boy Blues. I talked to the colonel of the regiment and he agreed that it was a good idea. He gave me the job.

The sons of members of the regiment eagerly signed up and soon I had more than sixty boys meeting every week at 3 Nothing has changed. the Blues armory to drill. The help promised never arrived and I had to plan, drill, discipline, transport and all the things required. I obtained 136 rifled muskets model 1876 for the boys to drill with. With little effort I believe that the Boy Blues could have grown into a battalion. It was a perfect place to teach them the values of Virginia and her history.

Personally, I stayed absolutely exhausted for weeks on end, and there was always some extra job or expense involved. When my job on Wall Street opened up it was my salvation. Unfortunately, the Boy Blues project collapsed. It was time to move on.

Lessons Learned

While working with the Boy Blues, I ran across two exceptional young boys. One was an intellectual - absolutely invaluable. But the boys would not follow him. The second was a natural leader, looked up to and respected by the others - but an intellectual he wasn't. In due time, the boys elected him their captain and I persuaded him to appoint the intellectual to be his adjutant. It made a perfect team. I also discovered that, with a few missteps, the boys were instinctively capable of selecting leaders that would serve them best.

The main thing I learned is that a big job like organizing requires careful planning, a great deal of help, and money. As it was, I found that everything that I went to so much trouble to do was later done by writing a little book, Our Nordic Race. In this way, the history and heritage of our people could be passed on and reach far more people with far less time and effort. The Little Boy Blues was a valuable learning experience.

There was something else I learned:

Constitution Party

About the same time as I was working with the Little Boy Blues, I also made a tentative step into politics. In the '50s there was one political party in Virginia - the Democratic Party. And it had left a bad taste after J. Lindsey Almond was elected governor and, in violation of his word-of-honor, turned the state's schools over to the Feds - for which deed he received an appointment as a federal judge. He was a Janissary who came cheap.

The Democratic Party always applauded Col. Earnest Sevier Cox when he spoke to the Legislature asking for financing for the blacks of the African Colonization Society who wanted to return to Africa - and there were thousands and thousands of them who wanted to go. The legislature applauded. but never gave help. Even back then, unknown to the people, Virginia's Legislature as a whole had been compromised. So, with the irrepressible optimism of youth, I decided to form a political party myself and take 'em all on.

It was easy. All my old friends from the Defenders and everyone disillusioned with the Democratic Party joined. We called it the Constitution Party. Forty or fifty of us met and since I called the first meeting I was elected temporary chairman - that's what people do.

We reactivated some of Richmond's old Defenders' "block organizations" and soon we had several hundred attending meetings and we were growing every meeting. Anyone who walked in was a member. I appointed several committee heads to start projects and things were humming. We were beginning to take over where the Defenders had left off.

A charming young couple from Sandston, who were more conservative and outspoken than Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson combined stood and asked if we could have a special meeting just to vote for president. Sounded fine to me.

Who wants to attend a meeting just to vote and go home? It's time consuming and expensive. The night to vote arrived and only a handful of my old friends came and a lot of new people who were friends of the super-conservative couple appeared. They voted me out and voted a millionaire from northern Virginia to be chairman. He transferred the headquarters to Northern Virginia and folded the Constitution Party in a few months. That's how it's done. I had a lot to learn.

Learning More

I learned several things more. First, politics is a closed club that protects and advances business. It is not to be treated lightly. They have big money available to meet most eventualities and any number of hired Janissaries available who will do anything they are told - anything!

Second, a person's announcement that they are liberal or conservative and 50 cents will get you a cup of coffee. You judge a person by what they do - not by what they say. I learned later that that nice conservative couple had at various times joined other conservative endeavors and had caused their demise each time. Live and learn.

A third thing I learned was that in spite of everything, once our Constitution Party seemed to be making progress, the media blacked us out. Any organization that intends on reaching the public must have a means of reaching the public if they intend to counter the poison that flows from the establishment media. A newsletter or newspaper is needed and a mailing list. Both are essential.

Davis & Gresham

When I finished my Wall Street training at old Francis I. Dupont, I was sent to manage stock portfolios in my old hometown, Lynchburg.

Lynchburg was like most medium sized cities in the South. It was basically conservative but had a liberal newspaper that advertised liberal candidates for office. That is why conservative Lynchburg had a liberal city council - except for two members.

I soon found out how these two kept being elected year after year in the face of liberal media bias.

Two of my old friends from Defenders days were responsible. Each had a small circle of friends and each of the two were good at writing letters - that others signed and mailed in. When the newspaper called and asked if they had sent the letter - the answer was "yes" - which was true. So, to keep the newspaper readers happy and subscribing - they were printed. Of course, Davis and Gresham were successful at their jobs and if a few dollars extra were needed - the two chipped in. Their system worked for many years and gave Lynchburgers a voice in an otherwise alien city government.

Concerned Citizens' Committee

Roy Dillard and I tried the same thing later. We set up something called "The Concerned Citizens' Committee" - fancy name. We announced to the newspaper that we were holding a mass meeting at the old Virginian Hotel. The night of the meeting arrived and all those in Lynchburg who were interested were present. Roy and I. Otherwise it was an empty meeting room.

This suited us. A civic mass-organization of two. We then sent an announcement to the newspaper that at the mass-meeting we agreed to support the best candidates for office regardless of party. That was a novel idea - the newspaper printed it.

Bridge Burners

Since the newspaper had mentioned our CCC organization, Roy and I went about interviewing candidates - and found that most were simply ego-maniacs who would say anything for a vote. We asked "bridge burning questions," Their answer was designed to make somebody mad - which burned a bridge.

Things like:

Do you plan on honoring Robert E. Lee by having the city fly Confederate Flags on his birthday?

"Yes" got the white vote and lost the black bloc vote. "No" lost the white vote and got the black bloc vote.

A "refusal to answer" lost all the way around. (Today it would be "Will you sponsor legislation to send illegals home?)

Pretending neutrality, we gave the newspaper the list of our choices - which they did not print - they were getting wise - but it didn't make any difference.

We bought alphabet stencils from an art store, a can of black spray paint, some cardboard posters, and sticks to nail the posters to. We pasted the stencils together with scotch tape listing the candidates names, spraypainted them onto the cardboard posters, and tacked them to the poles. It only cost a few dollars and took a couple of hours.

The result was a short list of candidates (some were only the best of a bad lot) and then we went out to find workers to hold the signs at the polls.

Our choices of candidates might include Democrat, Republican and Independent - all in one election. Our motto - "Vote the Straight Split Ticket".

It was no problem getting people to carry them at the polls. We were neutral - remember? Most of our volunteers had no idea who the candidates were - they were just doing their civic duty by working the polls. Lots of businesses let their workers off to do this civic work. We also had little cards printed to hand to voters with the candidate's "for" or "against" record so they wouldn't forget when they went into the voting booths.

After several elections people began coming over to our sign holders for a voting card before going in to vote. Most had no idea who was running for office but because we did our homework they trusted us. We elected at least one state senator, several members of the House of Delegates, and were the swing-vote in the election of several congressmen.

Results

The political parties didn't like us, neither did the newspaper, but they were polite. The "burn your bridges" type of questions we asked kept a number of otherwise highly educated bad actors out of politics. We folded the CCC and went our own ways when it appeared that Lynchburg was largely governed by conservatives. Would that were so today.

Two Or Three

In my life I have had many failures and some successes. I learned from the WORD the correct way to organize:

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Mt 18:20

Only two or three - ruled by the WORD. That's all. It doesn't take a thousand or a million to accomplish something. I once saw between 10,000 to 15,000 farmers gather together in Kansas in 1985 to protest what was being done to them. There had been no organization by two or three and they went away as unorganized as they came - and so disheartened that the farmers of America never did organize.

But on many occasions I have seen "two or three" gathered in the name of the WORD and success followed.

Two or three working as God's agents can accomplish wonderful things. Sharing ideas, methods, and means - plans can come together that can shake the world. Just two or three. The rest is detail.

It's the LAW!

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Both of our alarm systems were burnt out by a lightning strike. We lack maintenance workers and still do not have a working alarm system 3 weeks later.

Since the Hindus have arrived in force, for some sort of religious reason they have this thing about crackers - which they sell to the blacks. The blacks eat crackers and beat on their drums all night long frightening the animals.

As you know, Afrikkaners observe the Day of the Covenant at which time the Covenant is read. That was when we promised God that if He would save our little party of 464 settlers from the 20,000 bloodthirsty Zulu army, that we would observe the day forever.

This observance has upset the blacks who were there as guests of General Opperman. The Covenant really had nothing to do with Blacks. The few servants that the Voortrekkers had never took the vow, only the 466 men who fought at Blood River and their descendants forever.

We heard from a few people that a Dutch Reform Church minister will not allow the vow to be read in his church. The church district denies everything now, but people tell you they are not surprised since the DR Church finds homosexual marriages acceptable. The Bible is a closed book for them. Neither do they find naked tattooed women a sin.

Mbeki spoke on Devil's Black Hill. He had much to say about the whites and blamed them for everything that has gone wrong since 1994.

Racial separation died with Dr. H.F. Verwoerd's assassination in 1966. Vorster, who swore he was pro-white, stepped in Verwoerd's shoes and did his best to destroy separation. He told Ian Smith of Rhodesia that he hated apartheid. In the Verwoerd era, the country flourished. Everyone had work, food and prospects. Now blacks rule and there is deterioration everywhere.

Crime attacks on farms have spread to the towns and cities using the same methods. Most people in town complexes used to tell us that they were perfectly safe with their electronic gadgets and guards. Well, the criminals learned quickly how the alarm gadgets worked and the guards were soon bribed. One couple I know never closed their front door and had no arms to protect themselves. All that has changed. Making matters worse, when judges are black, justice is often measured depending on whether you are black or white.

Everything is being done to destroy our farmers. I see young farmers go and work in America as season workers. I believe the same people did that earlier to your own American farmers.

Our best wishes, K.J.

FAD: Dear Richard; Black Haitian orphans are all the rage in churchdom here in Alberta. They like to adopt them and bring them into the white community. A family of good Norwegian stock who have five children of their own have so far adopted 3 Haitian orphans. The devils in the anti-Christ church will have much to account for in God's Day of Revenge". H.B. - Canada REFUGEES: "Dear Dick & Ann; We are moving to Knoxville next summer. Very sad here in N.E. Ohio as de-industrialization reduces the area to a coolie economy. Our Christian Academy will no doubt close next year - lack of enrollment. Other private schools share the same fate. Even the Catholics! They do a bit better due to Bingo proceeds. However, evangelization fervor for Asians, Indians and those from New Guinea is hot as the ministers bring them in for donations every 2 weeks. You really wonder when Israelites will ever wake up.

OFFSHORE INDUSTRY
CROSSBOWS

Cousin Mary Edwina's Story

Cousin Mary Edwina was maybe 65 but looked 30. She was one of those ageless beauties - tall, dark brown hair, blue eyes, patrician nose, graceful figure, quiet; when she spoke the room fell silent to hear what she was saying. She never went to school but spoke Latin and French and knew history and mathematics. Her parents taught her.

Never having gone to school caused her problems when she went to work for the civil service in Washington. But, she was promoted to the highest levels in spite of not going to school. Quietly, she stood out in any company in which she found herself.

Deserted Houses

Her father was a lot older than her mother and had been a member of the Black Horse Cavalry. He died when she was about 12. She and her mother lived on the north side of the Rapidan, one of the upper branches of the Rappahannock River, in a farmhouse built about 1870 replacing the one burned during the War.

Behind her house the fields gradually went down for a half-mile to the Rapidan. On the other side of the river were bluffs on which were fine houses. They were furnished but deserted - and this was after the War. Mary Edwina used to play in them as a young girl. The lawns and gardens were grown up. The owners had deserted both houses and land and moved out west after the War when the black Reconstruction Government made it almost impossible to make a living on farms.

The Crossbow

Cousin Mary Edwina started working for the government in Washington when she was maybe 18 in order to support her mother in Culpeper County. Much later she went to New York to sell insurance. She was good at it. She flew coast to coast to see clients - the first person I ever knew who did that.

I think I was fourteen and was sent to New York so that she could teach me about the city. She took me to a museum where she knew the curator. He appreciated our interest in medieval weapons and he took us to the basement of the museum to show us how a crossbow worked.

Mary Edwina Coons (1902-1984)
Born Culpeper County, Virginia. Never married. A victim of Esau's land and industy warfare against Jacob.

I had always considered a cross-bow to be a poor cousin of the English longbow. The exhibition changed my mind. The curator took a piece of period chest armor that was perfectly sound in front but badly rusted in places in back and slipped it over a sandbag. He used a crossbow that had to be cranked up and inserted a "bolt". The bolt was a metal "arrow" that had a square tip. To guide the bolt after it left the crossbow were narrow ribbons tied in back.

From the other side of the room, perhaps 40 feet or more away, the curator shot at the armor. The bolt went through the front armor, through the sand bag, through the back armor and stopped when it hit the wall behind.

I changed my mind about crossbows. Its performance was beyond anything I imagined. Anyone within range could get hurt. The curator said that the kind he was using was dangerous at a thousand yards.

I'll come back to this directly.

Land

One of the most important Laws in THE WORD deals with land. The Law says:

> "The land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit." Nu 26:55; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; ... If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession ... in the jubilee ... he shall return unto his possession." Lev 25:23, 28; "The priests ... shall have no part no inheritance with Israel. ... The Lord is their inheritance." Deu. 18:1-2

The Land-Law is simple. Read it again. It says the land belongs to God. He gave it to Adam-man who was named Jacob-Israel. It is to be divided among them and this land is never to be sold or given away - to priests, kings, merchants, or anyone else. There is a reason for this Law.

William The Conqueror

Great Britain was mostly settled by Saxons and Vikings who divided the land and organized themselves by 10s and 100s. William the Conquerer arrived from France with an army, conquered the forces opposing him, and claimed possession of all the land in the country. One day free men lived as free men on their own land; the next they were serfs on the king's land.[1]

To rule his newly conquered land, William appointed counts over counties, barons over districts, and commanded them to build castles to prevent a revolt of the people. Great Britain is full of castles. It still is - just as America is full of military bases - and for the same reason. When you own the land you own those who live on the land.

Bankrupting Farmers

As part of their plan, the International Trade Cartel instructed their governments to make things difficult for American farmers and force them to surrender their land. They taxed them. They brought in cheap labor to compete with them. Then, they imported cheap food produced by their foreign corporate farms and dumped it into the country at prices well below American farm production costs.

Only a few years ago, the government sent its agents to tell farmers to buy more land and produce more to lower costs. Farmers obeyed this advice. They borrowed money and bought more land. Then, cartel banks raised interest rates to nearly 20%, and farms bankrupted all over the country and were immediately taken over by banks and other corporate owners. I was asked to speak at the great farm rally in Nebraska in 1985 where there was talk of a farmers' revolt.

1 William's father was a viking, and William is either a direct ancestor or a close kinsman of all Saxons. The thing to remember is that regardless of kinship - no man can be trusted with great power or wealth. That includes you and me - much less the aliens and their puppets who rule us today.

There was no revolt and most American farms quietly passed into the hands of corporate owners.

The animosity of the Cartel against farms and farmers is ancient - especially against Saxon farmers who prosper where others cannot.

Karl Marx On Farms

The following comments on land come from The Controversy of Zion by Douglas Read, Noontide Press, Newport Beach, CA, 1985. p. 219

> "Next, Karl Marx. The Protocols say, 'The aristocracy of the peoples, as a political force, is dead ... but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land ... At the same time we must intensively patronize trade and industry ... what we want is that industry should drain off from the land both labor and capital and by means of speculation transfer into our hands all the money of the world ...'
> "Karl Marx in his Communist Manifesto exactly followed this formula. True he declared that Communism might be summed up in one sentence, 'abolition of private property', but subsequently he qualified this dictum by restricting actual confiscation to land and implying that other types of private property were to remain intact. (In the later Marxist event, of course, all private property was confiscated, but I speak here of the strict parallel between the strategy laid down before the event alike by the Protocols and Marx)."

Destroying the Southern Farm System

From its beginning, the South's economy was based on the self-sufficient farm.[2] British surrogates of the International Trade Cartel tried twice to destroy it and failed. The Federals succeeded.

Hunter came down the Valley. He burned as he came. He burned the town of Lexington, then south to Liberty City (Bedford) which is twenty miles west of Lynchburg, and burned it.

Turning east, his advance was heralded by great clouds of smoke from burning homes, barns, and fields. The smoke dimmed the sunlight as it was brought to Lynchburg on prevailing westerlys. Early's boys caught Hunter's soldiers torching Grace Inn up the road from where I live and shot them all. The scorched floor in the corner of the dining room was where the fire was put out. Most houses weren't so fortunate.

Sheridan burned Valley farms - thousands of them - long after the Valley had been occupied by Union troops. It was Cartel policy. It is what their agents do. Sherman burned the farms of Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina. The one who gave him authorization is now a national Cartel hero and has a memorial in Washington.

When they finished destroying the farms, the Cartel disfranchised the surviving whites and installed blacks to rule them[3] and left Federal garrisons to see that the blacks weren't

2 On a self-sufficient-farm, almost everyone raised their own food in perhaps a third of a year. The remainder of the year was spent making improvements or with cottage industry, whose products were used or traded to another for needed items.

3 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them." Jer 30:21" removed. The forts are still here, garrisoned, and renamed after Southern generals to make the conquest more agreeable.

The South dates the birth of its cites from this time. Before then, other than small trade centers and a few larger ports to load and ship goods, Virginia had no cities worthy of the name. The present-day city of Roanoke was then a crossroads named "Big Lick". Here in Lynchburg, starving farmers brought their families to town to live on Cotton Hill and work for starvation wages in plants brought from New England where workers became unemployed because of the new supply of cheap Southern labor. The South no longer produced its Tom Jeffersons, Patrick Henrys and George Washingtons. Self-sufficient-farms that gave them independence had become few. I sat beside farm boys who had walked barefoot through the snow to get to school. Bewildered northern students who came to Lynchburg with their families knew absolutely nothing of what we had been through. They didn't believe the stories we told them and their parents said that we got what we deserved.

South Africa

S. Africa was settled by the Dutch a few decades after Jamestown. They were soon joined by French Huguenots and free Lutherans fleeing the state religions of their German kings. Together they established a loose government under THE WORD.

The British Empire took the Cape from the Dutch during the Napoleonic Wars and installed a governor who quickly discovered that S. African free farmers governing themselves by THE WORD were not in the least interested in empire edicts based on their modified British state-religion.

Force was tried - but was counter-productive and Boer attitudes hardened. English settlers were brought in to dilute the Boer presence and were given confiscated Boer farms.

Draconian measures including executions were tried to bring S. African farmers to heel. Nothing worked. Rather than submit, the Boers abandoned their farms and moved north into the unknown - beyond the reach of the British.

In the face of incredible hardships they settled what is now Orange Free State and the Transvaal. There they prospered.

The wealth accumulated by the presbytery un-taxed self-sufficient farm system is living proof that men have a choice. It destroys what episcopacies are attempting to do.

To erase the Boer blight, and to take their newly discovered gold and silver mines, the British started the Boer War (1899-1902). More Empire troops were brought to S. Africa than there were Boer men, women and children living there. It was a repeat of what the Cartel had done to the American Southland. Farm districts were torched wholesale. Herds of cattle and flocks of chickens and geese were slaughtered and left to rot. Boer POWs were indiscriminatively shot and women and children herded into concentration camps where they died like flies.

British Policy

The following is from Die Afrikaner, 23-29 Jun 2000.

"The intent of the British Empire in S. Africa was made public by the following announcement by the British Army under Lord Roberts:

> "'Whereas, by Proclamation, dated the 16th day of June 1900, of Lord Roberts, Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief Her Majesty's Forces in South Africa, it was notified to the inhabitants - and principal residents > of the Orange River Colony, and the South African republic, were warned, what whatever wanton damage to public property, such as Railways, Bridges, Culverts, Telegraph Wires, etc. took place the houses of persons living in the neighborhood would be burned ...'"

"On 2 Sept 1900 Lord Roberts added;

> "That 'for ten miles round every farm should be denuded of all provisions, cattle, etc.'

"He further stated that he proposed to expel from all towns and places occupied by British troops the wives and families of burghers in the field.

"This was the extension of 'methods of barbarism' which in the course of the next two years caused the death of almost 24,000 young children - probably more than 30% of the Boer youth in the Concentration Camps." J.A. Marais,

When the British were through, the two Boer republics were virtual deserts.

Russia

Russia grew on the river trade routes linking the Baltic to the Black Seas. Russian Tzars claimed the land and parceled it to be ruled by their nobles. These semi-independent estates produced the cream of Russia's intelligentsia. The rest came from old, old German farm settlements that produced Russia's overwhelming food surplus that was exported world-wide.

Khazar-Turks joined with local rebels and, aided by money and revolutionaries from America, overthrew the venal Imperial government ruled by Jacob and installed a savage Soviet government ruled by Esau. They slaughtered the estate owners. The old German farm settlements had their food supplies confiscated by the Soviet government and they starved by the millions.

Survivors were placed on collective farms, sent to gulags, or Siberia, or were shot. From a food exporting country, Russia overnight became a land having a perpetual food shortage.

The brilliant Solzhenitsyn is notable primarily because he is a rarity from a land that once produced scores like him. The self-sufficient farm that once supported his like is gone and the creative individual who can improvise without its support is rare.

Germany

Germany, incensed by her treatment after WWI, burst on the world stage with a new political platform for all to see. This platform, if sucessful, meant the end of the International Trade Cartel. Following are some of the program points that received the most condemnation from the Cartel media and its agents.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST PROGRAM 1920

1. Right of self-determination.

NOTE: Germany was ruled by international corporatons and foreign states. Especially after WWI, many of them were alien.[4]

4 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them." Jer 30:21"

3. Land and Colonies confiscated after WWI to be returned so that surplus German populations could be settled. (Germans had been uprooted and forced into the already crowded German heartland causing drastic over-crowding). Germany demanded the return of her land confiscated by the Allies after WWI.

NOTE: Wilson's 14-Points had stated that there would be no forfeiture of lands or peoples by the contestants. Based on this assurance, the Germans agreed to an Armistice. With the Armistice, the German armies dissolved as soldiers left to care for their families starved by the Allied blockade (which continued for 6 months after the war ended), This left the field to the Allies who then imposed a one-sided draconian peace, including:

* Forfeiture of German homelands
* Saxon people placed under Slav rule
* Overseas German colonies confiscated,
* Imposition of heavy tribute.

THE WORD classifies this as stealing:[5]

4. Nationals only may be citizens.[6]

NOTE: With few exceptions, this point is allowed by all nations across the world - except for Saxon nations.

5 "For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour." Ex 22:9

6 "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2

6. Only nationals may vote and hold office.[8]

NOTE: Most nations of the world have this provision which again is not extended to Saxon countries.

7. State must promote industry and livelihood of nationals - aliens excluded.[9]

NOTE: State intervention stopping German de-industrialization, ending alien immigration, and replacing international banking with national non-usury banking.

8. Non-national immigration prevented and aliens deported.[10]

NOTE: This was accompanied with a repatriation program worked out with Germany's neighbors.

13. Confiscation of business monopolies.

NOTE: Business monopolies in Germany were generally Esau's operations with Jacob fronts. They still are. (Isaiah 5:8; Mic 2:1-2)

18. Usurers & war-profiteers punished with death.

NOTE: Usury is a capital offense. [Ezek 18:13], and "war-profiteering" is a vampire operation.

22. Standing armies abolished and replaced by militias.

NOTE: The end of standing armies marks the end of kings using force to keep themselves on their thrones.

8 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them.. Jer 30:21

9 "If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel." I Tim 5:8

10 "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31- 33

23. Media disinformation punished by law.

NOTE: "As a man thinketh ... so is he." Pr 23:7; Ezek 3:18; Lev 5:1; Isaiah 5:23; Deu 19:16-20

Germany's media before the 1930s was like America's media today: Esau-owned with Jacob fronts. Nothing it says about anything can be believed without verification.

a. Editors and assistants must be nationals.

NOTE: "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of man and inveigled them." Jasher 28:20; I John 2:22; I Jn 2:3-4;

b. Non-national media allowed only with special permission.

NOTE: Practically the entire media of the world are managed by three or four sons of Esau.

c. Aliens financing media forbidden.

NOTE: Ownership through Jacob-agents was forbidden.

24. Liberty for all religious denominations that do not endanger the nation or denigrate its morals.

NOTE: Hinduism by any other name is a danger to any nation. Hindu-Christianity is no exception.

a. Positive Christianity supported - but not a particular creed.

NOTE: Modified Christianity only benefits its modifier. THE WORD's Laws, Statutes, and Judgments defined Positive Christianity and won the loyalty and support of both Protestants and Catholics.

Results

As soon as the NSWP was voted into power it immediately began implementing the above program which resulted in the "German Miracle". Germany snapped out of the worldwide depression almost instantly while all others remained mired in it. The program also began the destruction of the International Trade Cartel operation in central Europe.

The ITC retaliated with a worldwide crusade by its servant nations against National Socialist Germany.

Esau's Plan To Destroy Jacob

To destroy man, Esau deposes him from his self-sufficient farm; forcing him into industrial centers for sustenance; then he removes the industry that provides the sustenance and man dies or becomes few in numbers. Esau's Plan has worked many times.

The Morganthau Plan

At the end of WWII, the Morganthau Plan was introduced. This was the plan to de-industrialize Germany and seize its farming areas and its peoples and give them to strangers to rule.

Without natural resources and unable to gain sustenance from industry, it was planned that Germany would soon be reduced to less than a 3rd world nation. The plan is still operating and includes all Saxon peoples.

When denied increase from both land and sustenance from industry, the Saxon is expected to wither and die.

Europe

For centuries, Europe's people maintained their growth and power by sending their children to form distant colonies.

The International merchant used his money, media and the armed forces of its American and Soviet puppet states to force Europe to give up her colonies and return off-shore Europeans to Europe creating over-crowding. Many were exterminated in the process and others have been exterminated where they lived as is the case in Rhodesia. The extermination of still others is a work in process now taking place wherever Saxons live.

The most visible result of Esau's war against Jacob is that the reproduction rate of Europe's Saxon population has plunged. Many of its states now have a birth rate of 1.1 to 1.3 - where 2.1 childeren per family are required to maintain a stationary population.

Conclusion

I learned from my cousin Mary Edwina that as a child she played in perfectly sound houses on farms that had been abandoned because there was no money to pay taxes. Commodity prices had been made artificially low, and roving bands of murdering, robbing aliens presented an ever-present danger.

Next, she introduced me to the devastating effect of the crossbow.

In my childhood mind, the crossbow represented the most powerful weapon it was possible to have - because everyone seemed to think it harmless. But I knew differently. I had seen what a crossbow could do.

I also know something else: the crossbow, that has never been used in my lifetime, I equate to THE WORD - which also has never been used as it should in my lifetime. Its power is shocking and to the unsuspecting - devastating. And we have the promise: when we are in dire need, God will do this for his children:

> "If thou turn to God ... he will not forsake thee." Deut 4:30-31; "I will send my word and save thee and thy seed." II Adam & Eve 12:6

Letter From S. Africa

Dear Mr. Hoskins: Since 1991, 6,600 white farmers have been murdered from attack by blacks. Now, black gangs are moving into towns to kill more whites. They even want to dig up white graves and cremate the bodies. They say we don't even deserve that much space.

In the meantime our young Afrikaner people are beginning to wake up and use what means they have to resist. One is black superstition. A simple song De La Rey makes blacks think we are calling up our forefathers spirits to come after them. Even the Vekleur flag of the Boer War puts them in a state.

You remember Siener van Rensburg who had visions at the end of the Boer War about the future of our people. He predicted hard times were coming for us and then our people were going to rise and drive our enemies away. I see many poems and songs based on these visions.

Black customs take getting used to. Early explorers wrote about their method of crossing crocodile infested rivers. They made the old women go last, so that the crocodiles would get them instead of anyone else. Now they rape babies and children because they believe it will keep them from catching AIDS.

With our best wishes, K.J.

Letter From The Loeries

POB 120, Bronkhorstspruit, South Africa

Dear HR Subscribers,

The Loeries and the Trustees would like to thank you once again from the depth of our hearts for your unconditional love. Your names are engraved in our hearts and is seen in the changes made in our childrens' lives.

Your generous contributions have made the following possible:

* A huge, open shed was erected in front, attached to the house, which now can accommodate all the children at once during the rainy season. Play can thus go ahead!

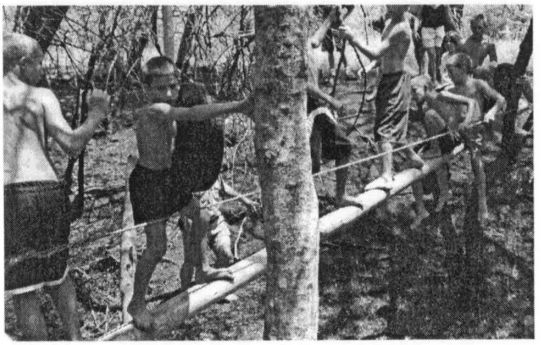
The Open Shed - Out Of The Rain

Ready For School

* School Funds were paid in full for some of the children which meant that we were self-sufficient and could take care of our own.

* The area, from the entrance gate to the carport was paved. Something long needed.

* Palisade fencing was erected throughout.



Playing "Pass The Tire"

* A sitting room was built where the children can gather after finishing their homework, duties and sport activities in the afternoons.

We have been quite busy and wish you were able to be here and witness things.

After the schools closed down, seven Loeries went to the hospital to have their tonsils removed. After five days of ice cream and TLC they pulled through.

The year 2006 ended on a high note. All the Loeries, apart from one newcomer, passed their annual exams.

Wishing you Hoskins Report readers a wonderful and prosperous 2007!

God Bless, Willie Hoffmann

Chapter 391

CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM

The other night I went to a lecture at the Jones Memorial Library. The speaker was the professor of Irish History from the University of Virginia and his subject was Irish Americans in Virginia. Since my mother's family was "O'Kelly" from "Kelly's Ford", I was very much interested.

At the end of his lecture, he asked for questions. One lady stood and asked what it would take for the Catholic Irish, Anglican Irish, and Presbyterian Northern Irish to get along.

The lecturer shrugged his shoulders, and asked for comments from the audience. Naturally, I volunteered my opinion. I said that as long as Catholics insist on living by their canon law, and the Anglicans insist on living by their canon law, and the Presbyterians insist on living by their version of Biblical Law - other than by conquest - there will be no unity.

Christian unity must encompass the entire Law - not the present Buddhist substitute that has fragmented the Christian WORD into a thousand versions.

Rome's Peacemaker

Rome had Ireland's problem of too many law systems. She had conquered many lands and many peoples. All had different law systems. Yet, Rome was able to rule them in a manner that was usually quiet and relatively peaceful. How did they do it?

Rome used the Hindu technique of rule - the technique used by the international merchant in all lands and among all peoples to this very day. It's simple and it works.[1]

The "10 Buddhist Precepts,"

The followingare taken from ERROR'S CHAINS, by Frank S. Dobbins, Standard Publishing House, NY, 1883, p. 524-526. The accompanying comments are my own.

---

1 It is believed by many scholars that the Buddha adopted the teaching of the early Aryan invaders of India and his disciple, King Asoka, later modified them for his own ends.

There are ten basic "Buddhist Precepts" - although only the first four are used universally by Hindu-Buddhist missionaries worldwide.

"1. I take the vow not to destroy life.
"2. I take the vow not to steal
"3. I take the vow to abstain from impurity
"4. I take the vow not to lie

These first four precepts are basic to community life and are readily accepted by almost everyone, especially since they mean whatever the speaker says they mean.

Buddhist missionaries implanted them throughout the East before the Christian missionary arrived. Even the Mafia accepts them. Its members may kill, steal, and lie, but if these things are done to their own, the offender will be severely punished. Successful criminal operations require that its members be strictly honest in dealings with their organization and its leaders.

The Remaining Six

The remaining six precepts are not needed for cartel success, but are no less interesting:

"5. I take the vow to abstain from intoxicating drinks, which hinder progress and virtue.

NOTE: This is parallel to the Christian WORD which teaches "It is not for kings to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert judgment." Pr 31:4-5; "When he ... add drunkenness ... all the curses that are written in this book shall fall upon him." Deut 29:19-20

Alcohol is a mind-control substance:

"6. I take the vow not to eat at forbidden times.

NOTE: This has health value - but most episcopal religions turn this precept into a ritual whose only value is to teach obedience.

"7. I take the vow to abstain from dancing, singing, music, and stage-plays.

NOTE: This prohibition is to prevent mind-control. These acts affect one's emotions and one's emotions control one's mind. "As a man thinketh so is he." Pr 23:7 It is also why the Hindu presents awards to their actors and why actors were banned by the Puritans.

"8. I take the vow not to use garlands, scents, unguents or ornaments.

NOTE: Women use perfume and men use after-shave. "Scent massage-therapy" is the rage in large cities. Besides therapeutic value, scents also tend to control both mind and body.

"9. I take the vow not to use a high or broad bed.

NOTE: The great bed was once to show wealth and power. The wise among cartel kings, merchants and priests live modestly in ordinary houses and drive ordinary automobiles.

"10. I take the vow not to receive gold or silver.

NOTE: In ancient days Buddhist priests accepted food and drink only. Gold and silver passed hands in transactions with their monasteries which were unbelievably wealthy. Of course, at a certain level they were allowed to use monastery resources.

Hindu vs Buddhist

Buddhism is a way of life,

Hinduism is a government system. It consists of four castes. The first cast are the priests who interpret the precept-laws. Second - kings who rule captive populations. Third - managers of Hindu assets, and last the workers who are slaves in all but name.

The basic weapon of Hinduism is "mind-control". This includes "media" and "usury banking"."Usury banking reduces targeted populations into slaves and mind-control keeps them from recognizing the fact.

Hinduism says that it accepts all religions. In fact, it does, but only after the targeted religion has been revised to add the Buddhist "4-precepts" and the mind-control mantra of the Hindu merchant:

> "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

Once this process is completed the targeted religion is reduced to a hyphenated religion (Hindu-Christianity) and is easily integrated into the World Force of the Hindu.

The WORD

Before there was a Bible, or Moses, or Abraham, Isaac or Jacob - before there was the world - there was the WORD.

The WORD is LAW. It is absolute and exact. It may not be tampered with without unfortunate consequences that follow in logical sequence. It covers all eventualities.

The WORD made man in its image. Man is the only nation made in the image of the LAW. Using the LAW man can do things humans can't. Using the LAW man made iron float, made people fly and able to go to the bottom of the ocean and return.[2]

The WORD gave detailed instructions of how man was to first rule himself and then how to rule the world. The WORD created and instructed man to obey the LAWS - and proclaimed devastating curses for disobedience.

The WORD allows man to make atomic bombs. The WORD tells him when they are to be dropped. Man, obedient to the WORD chooses one time - disobedient man and most humans choose another. The choice is a choice of life or death - the choice is between the welfare of God's world and his creatures - or their destruction.

The Bible

The Roman Empire was confronted with a revolutionary named Jesus, who called himself "son-of-man". He returned the ancient Law to his people. His Gospel spread, teaching man that he was special and had a special job to do - that he was appointed king and priest to carry out God's will.

The Law that Jesus brought taught that there were to be no kings other than themselves, no taxes; they were not to be ruled by humans; or have humans in their midst; the land was to be divided and never sold, and there was to be no trade with strangers.

2 All can profit by using the Law, but the innate lawlessness of most humans causes its benefits to be of relatively short duration.

Rome was an empire built on the trade that resulted from conquest and sacking cities and countries of others. This Gospel had devastating economic effects on Rome.

The Encyclopedia Britannica, 14th Edition, Vol 5, p. 635 says:

"Very early, Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law, and faith was interpreted as obedience."

The Two Law Systems

Christian Law and Roman law could not rule at the same time. The result was chaos.

Roman officials attempted to suppress the Law of the the WORD by burning and executing as many followers of Jesus as they could find.

Next they used the Buddhist mind-control of the "4-precepts". The object was to deceive people into believing that it was possible to have, and to obey, two law-systems while having only one. The Roman law regarding government would continue as always and the opposing system would be confined to the universal "don't lie, cheat or steal" plus its rituals.

In time, Rome manufactured a new Christian religion called Marcianism, (HR #239, #375). It related many of the moral teachings of Paul and Jesus while claiming that the ancient Laws of God were done away. This left only the government of Rome to declare what was law and what wasn't.

From that day to this, each time the The WORD has been revived it has been intercepted by a Marcian facsimile whose basis is the 4-Precepts combined with the Hindu mantra "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed"

. This ignores the 2/3 of the Scriptures that deal with government on earth. The result has been that appearances change, but in reality the powers that be continue to rule as they always have.

The WORD Revealed

God gave a special name to a special group - "Israel". The word means "To rule as God". There is great power inherent in the name.

> "The LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, above all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Deut 7:6; "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matthew 5:24; "Oh children of Israel ... You only have I known of all families of the earth." Amos 3:1; "For in the division of the nations of the whole earth he set a ruler over every people; but Israel is the Lord's portion." Ecclestiasticus 17:17; "Among all the multitudes of people thou hast gotten thee one people: and unto this people, whom thou lovedst, thou gavest a law that is approved of all." II Esdras 5:27; "The eternal God is thy refuge ... and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:28

The above tells who is authorized by God; the verses that follow tell how.

Groups through the ages have tried to pre-empt the WORD and use the name of its enforcers to benefit themselves. God knew that this would happen and said that the time would come when the name Israel would be forgotten and those appointed to be true Israel would then call themselves by Isaac's name - Isaac-sons, Saxons.

"They shall no more be remembered by their name." Hos 2:17 (Israel); "The Lord God shall ... call his servants by another name." Isaiah 65:15; "In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7

Esau vs Jacob

Esau swore to kill his brother Jacob.

"Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41

Esau disobeyed his father and mother and married daughters of Cain and daughters of Ishmael. His descendants[3] have spread Esau's blood throughout Arabia, India, Africa, the Orient, and the Americas.

The World Divided

The world is now divided into the world of Esau and the world of Jacob. It is a world at war. The weapon of Esau is deception and the weapon of the sons of Jacob is the WORD. Esau tries to deprive Jacob of his weapon, the WORD, and Jacob tries to deprive Esau of his weapon, deception.

Esau knows that Jacob is dangerous only when he obeys the WORD. However, if Jacob does not know the WORD, he is defenseless.

Esau's first step to fulfill his promise to kill Jacob is to separate him from the WORD which is his God. He does this by using the deception[4] of his media-monopoly, called by the ancients "The Cloak of Esau".[5] The media-monopoly plus his

3 "Thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." Re 18:23

4 "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

usury monopoly with its massive corporate wealth, presents Jacob an imposing adversary.

To attempt to overwhelm the WORD, Esau's corporations open their coffers and endow Christian seminaries and colleges that train the sons of Isaac. This generosity allows Esau to select teachers - the ones who will teach the "4-Precepts" wrapped in Christian ritual.

The two-thirds of the Bible that deals with government, contracts, judgments, and money remain hidden. If revealed, the result would be "Thy kingdom come on earth" and the world of Esau would be destroyed.

The War Verses

Esau has deceived the world into believing that the WORD's policy and laws of government are his to obey - or not;

> "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I come not to send peace, but a sword." Matt 10:34; "The land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it." Num 35:33; "Let the saints be joyful ... Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand, to execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people; to execute upon them the judgment written: this honor have all his saints." Ps 149:5- 9;
> "Teach thy sons the bow and all weapons of war." Jasher 56:9; "He said unto them ... he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one." Luke 22:36-37; "Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood." Jer 48:10; "If the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned ... his blood will I require." Eze 33:6;

"For the word of God is quick, and sharper than any 2-edged sword." Heb 4:12; "Whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it." Matt 16: 24-25; "If a man keep my sayings, he shall never see death." Jno 8:51

At present, Esau's puppets lay exclusive claim to these war verses - even the exclusive right to use this last one;

"These enemies of mine, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27

Conclusion

It is perfectly logical that Esau's puppet government bans the Ten Commandments. "Two masters cannot rule at the same time." Esau bans the Law of the WORD from Jacob, and allows him only to teach the "4-Precepts" wrapped in Christian ritual.

The war is on. Jacob's lands are being massively invaded by Esau's armies. Esau intends to fulfill his promise to kill his brother Jacob.

Regardless:

It is true what the Encyclopedia Britannica, said:

"Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law, and faith was interpreted as obedience."

God The WORD created the world and all that is in it. Man's survival depends on his obedience to what appears to many to be a new system of law.

Those who would live under the Laws of God rather than the deceptions of Esau are tomarrow's hope.

The Christian Nationalist.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

The language problem is with us again. I think how hard Gen Hertzog fought in the 1920s to get Afrikaans recognized and now the black regime wants to remove all traces of everything Afrikaans as well as the Afrikaner. The number of Afrikaans-only schools has been reduced from over 2000 down to only 300.

The song in modern idiom about Gen de la Rey really upsets the Blacks. They say we are calling up forefathers' spirits and it frightens them. There is talk that more songs will be written - some based on Siener van Rensburg's visions. Apparently, the thousands who went to the rugby match on Saturday sang that one and other patriotic songs. We are experiencing not only a spiritual war but a physical one as the killing of my people continues. We do not only need de la Rey, we need our God to save us, or we will disappear as England has worked so hard to bring about. England will one day pay for all its many evil deeds.

The establishment want to fill our Afrikaans schools with black children who must be taught in English. They are changing all the place names. I don't even know what towns and places they are talking about. Nothing appears any longer in Afrikaans.

The number and viciousness of the murders being committed are unbelievable. If the blacks start saying that they will kill all whites, we had better take it seriously and see to our safety at all times. Now, when forced to take trips, we travel armed. On our last trip we had four types of firearms with us. We don't intend to repeat Riet Retiefs' mistake of trusting Dingaan of the Zulus. Once disarmed, Dingaan killed them all. Yours faithfully, K.J.

De La Rey

During South Africa's Boer War (1899-1902), one of the Boer leaders was the dashing cavalry commander General de la Rey.

With a handful of crack marksmen, he rode circles around the huge invading British armies. Countless times he defeated them in open combat. Many times, British soldiers, hearing his name, lay down their arms and allowed themselves to be taken prisoner. He destroyed railroads, captured wagon trains, scores of cannon, and countless numbers of British prisoners. He was also among the very last of the bitter enders to give up the struggle for freedom.

Recently, a man named Bok van Blerk wrote a song named "De la Rey". It has taken today's Afrikaner nation by storm and is sung everywhere - especially at sporting events. It has been banned. In spite of the ban people stand and break into song.

The problem for S. Africa's Black rulers is that ordinary Blacks believe the Whites are calling on the spirits of their ancestors to help them fight to regain their country. Blacks well remember the Battle of Blood River when 20,000 Zulus attacking a handful of whites in a wagon train saw another army of thousands of Whites firing at them from the clouds above the besieged Boers.

Today, a wave of superstitious fear has begun to descend on S. Africa - and in spite of the ban - "de la Rey" is spontaneously sung at sporting events and where crowds gather. The words read in part:

"And my house and my farm were burnt to the ground so they could capture our land.

"But the flame and the fire that once burned now burn profoundly within my heart.

"De La Rey, De La Rey come lead the Boer

"De La Rey, De La Rey

"General, General united with you we shall rise or we fall.

"General De La Rey ...

"But the heart of a Boer is deeper and wider than the enemy can see ...

"Because my wife and my child are forced into prison to die, As the enemies overrun us again, we are forced to take a stand." - SaPa

Ernst Zundel Jailed

A German court in Mannheim, Germany convicted Ernst Zundel, 67, of the crime of "Holocaust Denial" and sentenced him to five years in prison.

Certain rabbis contend that the alleged deaths of 6 million Jews atone for their sins in a prior life and this permits them to side-step punishment and be reborn into the New Age. This would make Holocaust Denial a religious dogma. All the contrary evidence in the world will be unable to reverse religious dogma.

Chapter 392

VPI MASSACRE
In Perspective

VPI Massacre

VPI has 26,000 students and 100 buildings on a 2,600 acre campus in Blacksburg, Virginia. A 23 year old student, a Korean son-of-Esau, shot and killed two people about 7:15 a.m. Two hours later he entered a classroom on the other side of the campus and proceeded to shoot and kill 30 more and wound 26. We are told that he then shot himself.

FBI

In America, when some awful event takes place the FBI immediately comes under suspicion because they are often seen pulling the triggers. Media on-site coverage disclosed FBI agents on campus soon after the first shootings - and before the mass shootings took place. Proof that the national government had inserted itself into the VPI affair from the first. If the FBI had some part in this dreadful affair - would they be serving their masters or would they be serving the American people?

DEEP thought is unnecessary. The Law says;

"No man can serve two masters." Matt 6:24

The FBI is hired and paid by the federal government. If you trust those in charge of the the U.S. government you will trust the upcoming conclusions provided by the FBI investigations.

Gun Control

The media have once again raised the cry that since guns did the killings - guns should be outlawed. Are guns actually to blame for the VPI shooting or did the shootings take place to incite the public to pass anti-gun laws?

We remember that the Communist Program calls for disarming captive populations. Czarist Russia was conquered and civilian ownership of firearms was banned. Following a mass murder of children in Scotland - Britain banned firearms. Following a mass murder in Australia - Australia banned firearms. Now, there has been a mass shooting in Virginia and Esau's media are beating the drum to ban firearms.

The other side of the gun control matter is that some states allow its citizens to carry concealed firearms. Virginia, where the shooting took place, is one of them. In Virginia, at least one person in every Virginia crowd is armed. It was announced on our local Lynchburg radio station WLNI, 3:30 p.m., April 24, 2007 that of 193,000 concealed gun carry permits issued in VA, NC, and KY - there has not been one felony among them in 5 years.

We remember that in South Africa two blacks appeared at the back of a church during service and opened fire on the congregation with automatic rifles killing several. One church- goer was armed. He drew his pistol and returned fire and the attackers ran away.[1].

But things were different at VPI. The state appointed administrator had banned guns on campus. Result? The teachers and students could not defend themselves against an armed attacker. One person returning fire might have stopped the slaughter. It did in S. Africa.

The administration of VPI had broken the law by denying its teachers and students means of defending themselves from deadly force and may be charged with criminal neglect.

Esau vs Jacob

The WORD says,

> "Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41
> "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20-23

1 "He said unto them ... he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one." Luke 22:36-38

The children-of-Jacob live by the WORD. The children-of- Esau live by deception;

Many Gods

It has been estimated that Esau has more than 200,000,000 gods. Each god has its own customs and laws - some of them are violent. Readers will remember that in 2004, a group, unknown in the West, released poison gas in the subways in Japan to kill as many people as they could in order to bring to an end the present evil age of Kaliyuga. The group numbers tens, if not hundreds of millions all through Asia - including Korea. All of this is foreign to the Western mind, but the question is there - did the Koran VPI killer belong to this organization? Its something that has to be taken into consideration.

Esau's 36-Strategies Of Deception

Educated people understand that Esau intends to kill Jacob. Even the devils of their religions are white. It is wise to try to understand their war strategy called the "36-Strategies".

There are many books written about Esau's 36-Strategies and the different methods used to implement them. They are taught to Esau from childhood and are used by the mother in her daily shopping and the general on the battlefield. Esau contemplates which of the 36-Strategies he will use in his next encounter with his enemy.

Jacob complacently respects the Law of the WORD and tends to ignore any other belief system. When he suffers defeat after defeat he does not look beyond to the strategies that brought about his defeats - the 36-Strategies. These strategies were listed in HR #365 with examples and are listed below to serve as a reminder and an abbreviated reference:

Esau's 36 Methods Of War

"The greatest victory is the victory gained without battle."

1 - Hide important things in the open for all to see.
2 - Help save a state from evil forces by invading them.
3 - Use surrogates to do what you don't wish to be seen doing.
4 - Make impossible demands on potential victims.
5 - Start a house fire and help salvage the contents.
6 - Talk one thing - do something else.
8 - Use an unknown technique.
9 - Help the enemy destroy himself with internal dissen sions.
10 - Smile with knife in hand.
11 - Sacrifice friends to win victory for a greater good."
12 - Quietly pick up unattended property as your own.
13 - Make a hidden enemy reveal himself by creating a disturbance.
14 - Pretend the worthless is valuable.
15 - Entice an enemy from his place of strength.
16 - Never attack a desperate enemy.
17 - Exchange something worthless for something valu able.
18 - Make every effort to capture the friendship of the leader of a powerful opposition.
19 - If unable to answer problems or ideas - remove or discredit the author or authors of the problems.

20 - Replace an enemy's loss of direction with your own program.
21 - Pretend the cicada's empty shell is alive.
22 - Denounce friends to establish believable "bona fides".
23 - Keep captive populations intimidated.
24 - Promise one thing - deliver another.
25 - Attack enemies within reach - keep others neutral.
26 - The hidden message.
27 - Pretend not to notice the approach of an enemy.
28 - Destroy the bridge.
29 - Be wise by playing the fool.
30 - Provoke strong emotion - we good, enemy bad.
31 - The beauty trap.
32 - If weak, appear weaker than you really are.
33 - Use double agents.
34 - Self inflicted wounds.
35 - Create your own "Bing-fa" - 36 strategy combina tion.
36 - When all else fails - Run.

Using Esau's 36 Strategies

The Children-of-Esau use the above rules of warfare taught from the cradle called the "36 Strategies". It is ancient. Almost every move Esau makes can be traced to one or more of these "36 Strategies".

Following is a list of a few of these strategies now being used against Jacob (the "36 Strategies" were listed and explained in HR #365).

Strategy 18: "Make every effort to capture the friendship of the leaders of the enemy."

Esau's usury system gives him money to capture the media. It has bought the loyalty and made puppets of religious and political leaders in practically every area that has a media intelligence- gathering network.

Strategy 6: "Talk one thing - do something else."
Every word of Esau's media is designed to capture minds.

Strategy 13: "Make a hidden enemy reveal himself by creating a disturbance."
The unprovoked attacks on Gordon Kahl, Ruby Ridge, and Waco resulted in a massive activation of citizen militias - which disclosed names, numbers, and location of militia units to local media intelligence gatherers. The size of the nation-wide mobilization alarmed Esau and convinced him that the time was not right for a Bolshevik type solution in America.

Strategy 34: "Self inflicted wounds".
To retain credibility, the media have recently repeated charges from reputable sources that the Oklahoma City incident pointed to government participation. The result was to give dictatorial powers to America's chief executive. There appears to have been also a tenative admition of government participation in the destruction of the Twin Towers. Now that the deed is done it is politically correct to point out that this 9-11 incident caused the public to fight whatever enemy was pointed out to them.

Strategy 2: "Help save a state from evil forces by invading them". Iraq was invaded to save the world from their "weapons of mass destruction" - now known to have been non-existent.

Strategy 11 - Sacrifice friends to win victory for a greater good."

President John Kennedy and Martin Luther King had both lost credibility. People had tired of Kennedy lies, corrupt personal life, and liberal stance. People were tired of Martin Luther King's talk about non-violence while leaving burning cities behind him. Both were loyal to Esau. Both had become liabilities. Both were assassinated; in this way the liabilities were turned into martyred assets.

They were sacrificed to win victory for a greater good.

Strategy 22 - Denounce friends to establish believable "bona fides".

People like Don Imus and Rosie O'Donnel pushed the limits of public tolerance. To appear to be in touch with the public - the networks fired them with great fanfare - making the networks "the good guys" and avoiding a public backlash.

The fired individuals now take a back seat with their multimillions until the heat dies and the public forgets. The media will have established its "bona fides" as protector of public morals and then the denounced friends can return.

Strategy 33 - Use double agents.

Esau's media publicize its agents. The American voter votes for the best person he knows, but the only one he knows is the one the media reveal to him. The man elected "cannot serve two masters" so he serves the one whose publicity allowed him to be elected. This activates "Strategy 3" - Use surrogates to do what you don't wish to be seen doing.

Strategy 24: "Promise one thing - deliver another."

Esau's puppets promised that the few lives lost during the Iraq/Afghan Wars would destroy "terrorism" and make the world safe. These events also diverted America's attention from the massive ongoing invasion of her country.

Strategy 27: "Pretend not to notice the approach of an enemy."

Esau's media have crowded the front pages with the foibles of George W., Anna Nicole Smith, the Iraq War, Don Imus, Rosie O'Donnel, African starvation and massacre, and now VPI. All divert attention from the big story.

The Big Story

The big story is that Esau has already occupied Europe with over 50 million muslims - not counting millions of asiatics and blacks. These invaders are not the traditional desert raiders - they have set their tent pegs and staked out their territory. They intend to stay. Europe is the broodland of the Saxon - the heartland of our people.

America 's Hispanic, Oriental and African occupation has swelled to more than 40% of the total population.

Esau's mind-control media have effectively used the "36 Strategies" in his war against Jacob. Esau means to kill his brother Jacob, and the traitors in pulpit and government allow it because their "love of money"[2] is greater than their love for their countrymen and for the WORD which is God.

The big story is the on-going invasion and occupation of the land of Jacob by the armies of Esau in violation of God's Law. The WORD says so.

The following is my favorite of all the 36.

2 "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10

Mel Gibson

Strategy 6 - Talk one thing - do something else. The best example I can think of is Mel Gibson. He is delightful, believable, and absolutely amazing doing what he does. This hero of "Braveheart" is in trouble again - maybe.

He got in trouble over his movie about the crucifixion of Christ. Esau's media in a pro-Jewish stance came down hard saying that it was "anti-semitic". Jews all over the country stood and condemned the picture. Mel apologized, apologized, apologized.

Wishing to see the anti-Semitic production that everyone was talking about and that Mel was apologizing about, America packed the movie houses. The gross was estimated to be somewhere between a half-billion to a billion. Now, that's impressive! As soon as everyone had their ticket the media stopped bashing Mel.

"Kha-Ching!"

To retain his "anti-semitic" status, Mel did it again. The story is that he got drunk, was pulled over by a Jewish cop to whom he is said to have complained that the Jews have caused all the world's wars. Whereupon the media again accused Mel Gibson of being anti-Semitic. Mel apologized, apologized, apologized.

"Once is your fault - twice is my fault."

Is it possible that Esau's media are creating a right- wing celebrity-hero to be the next stand-in leader of America's right wing? How about a governor? Since it is dangerous for Saxons to have their own genuine recognizable heroes, Hollywood steps in to give them what they need.

Schwarzenegger was hired to act the part of governor. He's good.

Reagan, another Hollywood "B" actor successfully played the part of governor and did so well that he was hired to play the part of president. Even Castro, America's Cuban nemesis, was hired from Hollywood. In Esau's world a good deceiver can play any part Esau needs and is worth his weight in awards and in gold.

"As a man thinketh ... so is he." Pr 23:7

The One Responsible

One can place responsibility for the VPI shootings on government political manipulation, the age of Kaliyuga, or an act of war by Esau using one of the 36-Strategies, and they would be wrong.

The WORD is clear - the stranger who pulled the trigger should not have been here. If he had not been here he would not have committed the crime. The one who did not warn the people that there was an alien in their midst is the guilty one:

> "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31- 33

> "O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel ... If thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way ... his blood will I require at thy hand." Ezek 33:6-8

Those who have spoken to warn our people are the faithful watchmen. Those who have remained silent are the guilty ones and will receive the curse of God.

Letter From South Africa by K.J.

Ransburg centre is black. It's sad that a place hardly more than 50 years old has declined into a slum. Under black rule, parks and sports fields are being turned into squatter housing built of stolen tin and wood that seemingly go up in one night.

The suburbs near the centre of Ransburg have developed huge rat problems. Water and sewage pipes are continually in a state of collapse and are unable to supply all of the town additions. The plan is to do the same to Pretoria and the rest.

Because of the high crime rate, townhouse complexes have been built that promise security, but present a bleak view - no trees, grass, flowers or dogs - and they are just as expensive as a house in the country. They were sold as being safe, having guards at the gate, but was a false promise since they are continually being broken into.

The Zimbabwe crisis is growing daily and their citizens are flooding South Africa.

Mbeki's "quiet diplomacy" has been uncovered as his way of doing nothing. A recent poll shows that 6% believe that he is truthful and 94% believe that he is a liar.

Why England's Margaret Thatcher chose Mugabe to rule Rhodesia while knowing full well that he was a tyrant I will never understand.

A woman announcer on Radio Pretoria said that Rockefeller gave the Dutch Reformed Church seminary here R6 million. The one who pays the piper calls the tune.

There is talk about new widespread land confiscations here in South Africa. It's called for in the Communist Manifesto. We may soon have to make some serious choices.

Yours faithfully, K.J.

CHINA'S PLAN: "China is preparing a multi-billion-dollar buying mission to big American cities next month ... to reduce its swelling trade surplus ... " Financial Times, April 14/15, p.5, 2007

RKH: China has over a trillion dollar trade surplus to spend in America. Tomorrow we may work for a yellow skinned son-of-Esau who owns the business where we work - thanks to our rulers in their pay.

REVERSE: "Pope Benedict XVI has reversed centuries of traditional Roman teaching on limbo, approving a Vatican report released Friday that says there were 'serious' grounds to hope that children who die without being baptized can go to heaven." News & Advance, p.2, Apr 21, 2007

RKH: "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you; and before you came forth from the womb, I sanctified you, and I ordained you." Jer. 1:5; "Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb ... My substance was not hid from thee when I was made in secret ... Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written ... when as yet there were none of them." Ps 141:13-16; "Whosoever he be of the children of Israel that giveth any of his seed unto Molech, he shall surely be put to death" Lev 20:2

INDIAN COUNTRIES: According to USA TODAY, 30 Nov 2006, Federal auditors say a court ruling last month crippled their ability to examine the $22 billion dollar operations at American Indian casinos.

This pretty much cements the sovereignty of Indian nations within the US to do whatever they want - to own, buy or trade - and provides them the money to do it with. This falls in step with the creation of the SW Hispanic nation of Aztland which is financed by some of America's biggest corporations.

APOLOGY: NC has followed in the steps of Virginia in apologizing for their part in promoting slavery and Jim Crow laws. IBD, Apr 9, 2007

RKH: Eternal apology is "guilt-control" of the minds of Saxon people. Those who know history know that Saxons have done nothing of which to be ashamed. First, slavery prohibition pertains to man, not humans. Second, by Law strangers are not allowed in our lands. Third; England owned the slave monopoly which they took in a war with France. Fourth; England forbade Virginia to stop the slave trade and repatriate slaves. Fifth; the South was invaded to destroy the African Colonization Movement which was created to return black labor to Africa. The War burned South's farms to replace its barter system with Esau's usury-capitalism where every man is a slave. Fifth; If there is a guilty party it is the British Empire Inc., and Africa's own black slave-traders who rounded up their brothers for sale - and still do.

Make the two of them "fess-up", apologize and pay. Pay no attention to the lies of the lick-spittle puppets of Virginia and North Carolina governments who grovel when their masters snap their fingers.

> "The Treaty of Utrecht (1713), which closed the war (King William's War (1689-1697 - French & Indians vs England in America), ceded to England the Hudson Bay region, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, and allowed to it the monopoly of the slave trade in the colonies." The World Book, W.F. Quarrie & Co, Chicago 1927, p.2329

ALIENS: "Immigrants move into our America's big metro areas, while native-born Americans are moving out, the Census Bureau estimated. The NY metro area added 1 mil immigrants from 2000 to '06. Without them, the region would have lost nearly 600,000 people and L.A. would have lost 200,000." Investor's Business Daily, Apr 9, 2007.

> "In those days went there out of Israel wicked men who persuaded many, saying, Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen ... Then certain of the people ... went to the king, who gave them license to do after the ordinances of the heathen:

"Whereupon they ... joined themselves to the heathen, and were sold to do mischief. ... After 2 years ... the king sent his chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Judah, who came unto Jerusalem ... And spake peaceable words unto them, but all was deceit: for when they had given him credence ... And they put therein a sinful nation, wicked men ...

"Whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her, and her own children left her ...

"King Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, And every one should leave his laws: ... Yea, many also of the Israelites consented to his religion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the sabbath. For the king has sent letters ... that they should follow the strange laws of the land ... To the end they might forget the Law, and change all the ordinances. ... The king ... appointed overseers (surrogates) ... commanding the cities ... to sacrifice, city by city. Then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit, every one that forsook the law: ... and ... they rent in pieces the books of the law which they found, they burnt them with fire.

"And whosoever was found with any the book of the testament, or if any consented to the Law, the king's commandment was, that they should put him to death. ... Howbeit, many in Israel were confirmed in themselves not to eat any unclean thing. Wherefore they chose rather to die. ... that they might not profane the holy covenant." I Maccabees 1: 11-63.

MONEY ROLE: In "Tough Choices", Frederick van Zyl Slabbert (one-time leader of the left-liberal Progressive Party), reveals secrets about who helped finance the downfall of white S. Africa.

Clandestine meetings between white S. Africans and black revolutionaries had taken place at the now famous location of Dakar. These meetings were financed by Hungarian born Jew George Soros and IDASA. What the Dakar group didn't get from Soros was supplied by the German airline Lufthansa.

Money from Scandinavia and other European countries streamed into IDASA.

Slabbert observes that "Mandela worked tirelessly with right-wing groups to draw them into the process of 'reconciliation'. Eventually we find Carel Boshoff and Constand Viljoen committed to the process." (Letter in Die Afrikaner, Pretoria) From Impact, p.3, Dec 2006/Jan 2007

LIBERAL LOGIC: Racial strife is caused by integration. Liberal solution? More integration!

REFORMED SODOMITE: Ted Haggard, the evangelical leader who resigned as the result of a three-year affair with a male prostitute, emerged from just three weeks of intensive counseling to declare himself now "completely heterosexual." (THE WEEK, p.6, Feb 16, 2007)

DOG: A woman in Thomasville, Georgia was badly injured when her car ran off the road and down a bank. A stray German Shepherd passing by took her collar in his teeth and pulled her 50 yards to the edge of the road and let her lean on him so she could wave down a passing car.

SADDAM: "Why the rush to execute Saddam Hussein?" Asked Ghada Karmi in Britain's The Guardian. " The "unseemly haste" made the judges look "bloodthirsty." There can be only one reason the Americans allowed the execution now; "to stop him revealing secrets about the West's past enthusiasm in supporting and arming his regime." The execution will go down in history "as an American affair," said Robert Fisk in Britain's Independent. They will assert that "the West destroyed an Arab leader who no longer obeyed his orders from Washington." Also, Saddam was killed on the Sunni Eid al-Adha, that day that Allah had mercy on Abraham and spared the life of his son Ishmael. It is a day devoted to mercy and forgiveness. "Even the ghastly Saddam" used to release prisoners on that day. The US government "deliberately insulted and humiliated more than 1.5 billion Muslims."

PSYCH: A poster showing Saddam Hussein's dead body was removed last week from the recreation yard in the US prison in Guantanamo Bay.

STATE PRIESTS: Polish Archbishop Wielgus has been outed as a former secret-police collaborator. Wielgus denied spying for the communist-era government, but a newspaper discovered documents proving his employment. Another prominent priest, Father Janusz Bielanski of Krakow's Wawel Cathedral also resigned over similar past collaboration. (WEEK, p.6, Jan 19, 2007)

RKH: Russian Orthodox priests collaborated with the communist state; Polish and German Roman priests collaborated with the communist state; German Lutheran priests appointed by the state collaborated with the communist government. State priests of whatever denomination tend to be loyal to whatever state is in power at the time. A man cannot serve two masters. Be warned.

MEDIA WHACKED: The Russian government simply does not pursue crimes against reporters. Of 13 journalists murdered since 2000, only three cases went to trial, and none brought a conviction. For every reporter that was killed there are dozens who were beaten up, or threatened, or had their cars burned or apartments ransacked. And no one was punished. (THE WEEK, p.14, Feb 9, 2007)

RELIGION: The Vatican, a sovereign jurisdiction with its own laws and police, has the highest per capita crime rate in the world. In 2006, Vatican City, with a population of just 492 had nearly 1,000 crimes-mostly pick-pocketing, purse snatching, and fraud. That's a crime rate of about 1.5 crimes per resident. (Der Spiegel

HOPE: Paul Kinsella of Belleville, Ill. dropped wallets around. Each contained $2.10 in cash and a fake $50 gift certificate. He eventually got back 74 of the 100 wallets. Things aren't as bad as they say.

KOSOVO: The US blew Yugoslavia apart in 1999. It then brought in its lapdog EU to lend legitimacy to its actions. The EU occupation forces privatized much of Kosovo assets and over Belgrade's protest intends to declare the 90% Moslem Kosovo an independent state. The reason that Kosovo is now 90% Islamic is because of on-going Islamic immigration. Finishing one conquest for the ITC the US Janissary (Turk for white slave) is planting seeds for the next war.

News & Advance

FALWELL

Jerry Falwell 1933 - 2007

For the last two weeks the Lynchburg News & Advance has been full of the death of Jerry Falwell. Every major newspaper and magazine in the country has carried stories about him. Congress held a minute of silence. It ended a few days ago after the body had been displayed for several days for the thousands of visitors and then carried in a horse-drawn conveyance through crowd lined streets of the 5,000 acre Liberty University to a gravesite on the hill where an eternal flame will burn.

I knew Jerry

The Jerry I first knew wasn't the Jerry in the paragraph above. He was fun, a comedian. He did a lot of good in Lynchburg. He sincerely cared about people.

He grew into a Lynchburg institution. Politicans stood in line to bask in TV glory in his pulpit. A visiting politician, by merely being there, was translated by public relations people as having received Jerry's endorsement.

Jerry Falwell was media created - just as Billy Graham, Pat Robinson, Jim Bakker, and others. He employs an older son as the Church's attorney and a younger son as successor pastor.

First Contacts

I was the organizer for the Defenders of State Sovereignty, an organization of Virginians trying to prevent the de-Sax-onization of state schools by the feds. I organized Lynchburg and looked for a chaplain. The only one willing was Jerry Falwell. Jerry was a welcome addition and a wholehearted supporter of separate educational systems.

The Wind Shifts

Virginia was betrayed by its governor, J. Lindsay Almond, the one who talked like a lion but then tamely handed over Virgina's schools for a federal judgeship.

Members of the now defunct Defenders in Lynchburg started a private school to keep Lynchburg's children from "walking with strangers".[1] Schools are time consuming, most of the Defenders who dealt with never ending school problems were older, so Jerry offered to take and run the school as a racially separated school. This was the beginning of Jerry's Thomas Roads schools.

Thomas Road Congregation

Thomas Road was the only church in town that was doing any thing to help alcoholics, the down-and-outers, the people that no one else wanted.

Jerry's style of church service got attention. In the formative years he spoke one Sunday in four. Visiting notables were brought in from all over the country to speak on the other three Sundays. Most of them were excellent. John R. Rice, Oliver Green, the Chaplain of Bourbon Street; lots of people came to hear one, and came the next Sunday to hear another visiting speaker. That was the reason I started attending. The different speakers.

There was always something new - choirs, singing groups, exhibitions of one sort or another. It was a religious Disneyland. When Jerry spoke he made it lively and incorporated the congregation as much as he could.

When I arrived I found two groups in the congregation - those who came to hear Jerry, and "followers of the WORD" who came to seek fellowship with others of their kind. They volunteered for every task. Many of them were ushers. This resulted in an amusing incident.

1 "Can two walk together, except they be agreed." Amos 3:3; "They ... were mingled among the heathen and learned their works." Ps 160:35-36.

NAACP In And Out

I was told that a delegation from the NAACP came to Thomas Road to integrate the church. They walked in while service was in progress. The ushers dealt with the trouble-makers in 30 seconds.

They grabbed the intruders by their collars and the seats of their pants and threw them head over tea-cups down the front steps.

Curb Conversation

I was a representative of a NY Stock Exchange firm and trained as a portfolio manager in New York by old Francis I. Dupont. They sent me back to Lynchburg to manage the portfolios of a new local firm they had just bought, Scott, Horner & Mason. At the same time they sent me to Lynchburg, they transferred all the Lynchburg portfolios to New York to be managed there. Having nothing to manage, I was forced to start from scratch as a stockbroker. It was hard work.

Jerry was just getting started with his church at the old Donald Duck Bottling plant on Thomas Road. He was doing something no one else was doing. He used TV. His wife Macel helped as a teller at the same bank as my wife, Ann. Every Friday, Jerry and I would sit on the curb outside the bank waiting to pick up our wives and commiserating with each other.

Saved 28 Apr 1965, 4:00 P.M.

I had been taught to be an atheist by a religion teacher at Lynchburg College. Atheism wasn't working. I had tried everything. I knew that Stonewall Jackson and Robert E. Lee were Christians, and they were better men than I could ever hope to be, so, I determined to try to copy whatever it was that worked for them.

It was 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon of April 28, 1965. No preachers, no churches, no friends around. I made an agreement with God - if there was one - that if he would let me work I would try my best to believe. I gave my word.

I started studying the Bible intending to do what it said. I understood the words to be God's marching orders, and I was just a recruit in the rear ranks who had a lot of catching-up to do. I read three chapters a day and four on Sunday. I also promised that I would go to church on Sunday.

Thomas Road Visiting Ministers

I thought that people either obeyed God's orders or he didn't. One was either a Christian or he wasn't. It was the one way or the other. What I learned from my weekly visits to Lynchburg's churches had almost nothing to do with what I was reading in the Bible.

Then I read a newspaper advertisement that Oliver Green was going to visit Thomas Road Baptist Church. I went to see what he was all about. It was worth the time. He had a story to tell.

The next week there was someone else, and the week following still someone different. Jerry had a visiting speaker every Sunday in the month except one when he spoke and he only acted as master-of-ceremonies the rest of the time. Instead of visiting around all over town - I began to stay at Thomas Road and let the different speakers come to me. I joined the church along about September 1965.

Jerry said that my baptism when I was 7 didn't count, that I should get baptized again. So I did. So did my wife and, as the years went by, my six children. I was trying to do it right. These guys were pros and I was new to this religious stuff.

Drinking

I was an alcoholic. Many is the time that I went to service after drinking and didn't see anything wrong with it. Then, one of the visiting ministers said something that I had never heard before - He said "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5-6

I wasn't interested in being a king and a priest.

He continued, "It is not for kings to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law." Pr 31:4-5. That made sense. I was being promoted, but to qualify I had to stop drinking.

I wasn't allowed to drink because it would make me forget God's Law.

I was in Willis Carto's apartment in Washington on Jan 1, 1966. He gave me a beer. I drank half and set the can on the kitchen counter. It was 10 o'clock in the morning. That was my last drink.

City Council

I ran for City Council. Jerry let me announce my candidacy from the pulpit. He wished me well. Eliot Schewel, a Jewish businessman, was also running. He went to see Jerry and then announced to the Lynchburg News and Daily Advance that he had the endorsement of Jerry Falwell. Jerry didn't dispute it and I lost the election by 11 votes.

Smoking

Jerry didn't smoke. He announced from the pulpit that most of the congregation didn't smoke. I smoked 3 packs a day. Somebody pulled the scripture "Your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?" 1 Co 6:19. I was abusing Government property. This was a tough outfit.

I quit smoking Jan 1, 1967.

Marriage

Jerry said that the answer to everything is in the Bible. He made everyone hold up his Bible every Sunday and told them they should read three chapters a day and four on Sunday to get through in one year.

Ann and I have been married for almost half a century - the last 40 happy. The first ten were something else. Trying to straighten things out, I started with Proverbs and marked a "M" in the margin if it dealt with women or marriage. I did that throughout the Bible.

Ann and I talked about what was written. With understanding, give and take, things worked out. In fact, I can honestly say that everything good that has happened in our marriage is because of my wife.

Witnessing

There was an old associate minister at Thomas Road. He had been a bootlegger. His thing was "soul-winning". He was always bringing new members to church. I went with him to see what he was doing.

It was simple. He just went up to a door that he had never been to before, and knocked. Invited in, he told them what the Bible had to say. People believed him and turned their lives around - just like that. He used the "Roman Road" approach. I copied him when I went out by myself. It worked. I've still got a dog-eared testament full of names of people who signed, "I'm saved and I know it!" No other church in town had a witnessing ministry that I knew about. It always amazed me to see someone turn his life around.

Church

Right next to the Donald Duck Bottling plant Jerry built a nice church. It held about 500-600 and people stood in the aisles and along the walls. He then started talking about a bigger church that would hold 3,000. I laughed at that. Who would come? He built it and it filled right up. People stood along the walls and sat in the aisles. He had to build extra balconies and crowd in more pews. Everyone helped. I mixed mortar for the bricklayers.

Taught To Shoot

Jerry had a get-away cabin on Tobacco Row Mountain. He invited me up to teach him and his family how to shoot the .45. Jerry learned fast. Macel, his wife, did well as did his daughter and oldest son Jerry, Jr. His teen-age redheaded son, Jonathon, excelled. He was a natural. He was also rude.

Jerry's Advice

My eldest daughter wanted to marry a certain young man whose father was a deacon at the local Presbyterian Church. He was a nice boy, a student, but had no job. I thought that they were talking about an engagement and getting married after he finished school and had a job.

The scriptures instruct "Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterward build thine house." Prov 24:27. In other words - get your act together then get married.

With no job to support a wife he intended to live with his parents - which was all right with them - but not me. I sent the couple to talk to the Presbyterian preacher of his church to straighten things out. That preacher didn't know enough scripture to counsel them and made things worse. Then I sent them to a Baptist minister, who I later found had married his wife while he was in school. If it was good enough for him it was good enough for my daughter and her boyfriend. So much for preacher advice.

My daughter is hard headed like her mother's side of the family and without my blessing went ahead and set the wedding date and sent out announcements. I asked Jerry what I should do. He advised, "Don't fold". "Keep on keeping on." It was good advice. At the last minute she called the wedding off. The young man met someone else two weeks later, married her, had two children and then left her.

That could have been my daughter.

Oliver Green

I've spent 10 years on active duty and in the reserves. I like things orderly and by the book. Thomas Road was the most disorganized place I ever saw. Ice and snow came and no one cleaned the steps or sidewalks. People fell down and hurt themselves - and things continued on. Oliver Green came to town with his tent. The mud parking lot was the only place that would hold that huge, huge tent. I went out with a sledge-hammer and put in stakes. It took a day and a half.

Where do people park their cars with a tent in the middle of the mud parking lot? Wherever they can. This was Oliver Green! In his day he was bigger than Jerry Falwell. People came from everywhere. You wouldn't believe the mud, the traffic jams. I was in my best suit up to my ankles in mud directing traffic. The crowds of people, no place to sit. Mud everywhere. It was a howling success. People came back for more.

Alcoholics Ministry

There was a fellow at church who had been an alcoholic. He had a small ministry for alcoholics and was holding down a steady job. He had three or four men at his home. He needed to work at the ministry full time. Jerry financed him and added an alcoholics' ministry to the church.

Unwed Mothers

Someone started a home for unwed mothers. Jerry financed it and added this to the Thomas Road Ministries.

Police Chief

The police chief got saved and came to every service. He said he was glad he had his pistol because he was sitting right in the middle of all the thieves, drunks, and murderers in Lynchburg. Thomas Road was interesting.

Bus Ministry

Thomas Road had a "Bus ministry" phase. Other churches across the country had successful bus ministries. The head of one of these ministries showed up and offered to set up a bus ministry for Thomas Road. Jerry jumped at the chance.

Jerry's management technique was to attach himself to someone who promised great things. If they delivered, great. If they didn't, he walked away from the chaos.

The bus director started with Lynchburg's inner city. He brought out hundreds and hundreds of black children and filled the Sunday Schools with them. They cursed, urinated in the classrooms and halls, picked fights and disrupted the entire Sunday-school program. Macel took her three children out of the Sunday School and brought them into the main sanctuary where they sat in front of me. They climbed over the backs of the pews and giggled and laughed during the service. Jerry ignored them. I didn't.

White children stopped going to Sunday School and at last the bus organizer received word not to send the buses to the inner city. The blacks disappeared overnight and the Sunday School took a long time to recover.

Appointed Administrators

Jerry was impulsive. If he thought something needed to be done, he ordered it done. If he needed to help, he helped. If he needed buses, he bought buses. Whatever he thought he needed he went ahead and did it. He owed money all over town. Lots of money. He borrowed in spite of regulations against such things; Lynchburg merchants got tired of not being paid. They were getting in trouble themselves. They filed suit against him. Twice the city had to set up administrators to oversee Thomas Road finances.[2]

2 "The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov 22:7; "Owe no man but to love one another." Rom 13:8; "The bad borrows, and does not repay." Ps 37:21

Co-Sign

One time Jerry needed money and the banks wouldn't let him have any unless the members of his church signed his note and promised to pay if he didn't. I wasn't at all sure about doing this because my family had gotten into all sorts of trouble in generations past by guaranteeing other people's notes. But, when the paper was put in front of me, I signed. Jerry assured us it was just a formality.[3]

I can't tell you how much this upset me. I had taken someone's word above the Law and had put my own family at risk.

Showtime

Macel played the piano and we sang. We had choirs, quartets, visiting ensembles, soloists, visiting musical groups, living Christmas trees that had 100 people singing on platforms all the way up to the top of the tree. It was a great big thing. We had dignitaries - preachers, billionaires, newspapermen, military heroes - you name it. People liked it. Some spoke on Biblical subjects. Some spoke and sold their books in the lobby. Missionary groups came, spoke and collected money in the lobby. Well known politicans came; Jerry put in a good word for them. It was all part of the show - people came - rain or shine people came. It was fun. Thomas Road was religion's "Disney Land".

The thing that began to bother me was that Jerry was not selective. If he could get a "name" for his service-TV show it got headlines, added to the event, and he was happy. Most 3 "Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts." Pr 22:26; "A man void of understanding strike hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend." Pr 17:18.

"names" that he got were names because the media approved of that person's activities and had given him publicity. Most were liberals who acted "conservative" for the event.

I don't know if Jerry even knew it, but the liberals he associated with were changing his religious perspective. The old timers who helped start his ministry noticed. For years, when he spoke, a group of them met in the basement directly beneath his pulpit and prayed that Jerry would return to the Word that he had started with.

The Washington Trip

Along with several others, Jerry invited me to fly with him to DC to attend a meeting. Some businessmen owned a mutual fund that was losing money and wanted to give it to Jerry and take a tax write-off.

On the way home I explained the regulatory headaches he would inherit along with the gift so he didn't do it. The thing that caught my attention was his conversation with the DC cab driver who drove us to the airport. He was an avid follower of another TV personality. Jerry commented that the person he was referring to was "a competitor of his." That was the first that I knew that people in God's service were competitors.

Separated Schools

As noted before, Jerry got in the school business by taking over the white school organized by ex-Defenders. It was understood that he would continue the school as a separated institution. After a while I noticed a few sons of Esau among the student body and went to see him about it. He said that he had to do it because of tax-reasons. "Just a few do no harm."

He then founded a college. In driving over campus I noted daughters of Jacob walking with sons of Esau. Again I went to see Jerry. He told me not to be concerned, that he had it all worked out and nothing would come of it. He was instituting special classes to teach Biblical rules against interracial dating and marriage. I left disturbed. Students later told me that they never heard of such classes. Now, newspaper announcements of interracial marriages at Liberty University are common.

Separated Congregations

Jerry began having sons of Esau come and perform music from the pulpit stage. He had sons of Esau use his pulpit to speak to his congregation. Sons of-Esau could be seen seated in the congregation. Ignored was the Bible warning:

> "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51.

Turnover

One Sunday while attending service, I woke up to the fact that of the hundreds that I knew when I first joined Thomas Road only a handful were left. They had gone and were replaced by newcomers to Lynchburg. With a few exceptions, Thomas Road had separated itself from those who had built it.

Book Problem

In the meantime I was writing a book - War Cycles/Peace Cycles - a book on usury. Briefly; if there is only $10 in the entire world and you persuade someone to borrow the $10 and promise to repay $11 - he can't do it because there is only $10 in the world. It's simple logic. In time the borrower defaults and loses his collateral. This is why the WORD makes it a capital crime.

My book had come to a standstill. If the Bible approved of usury - that was one thing. If it condemned usury - that was something else. I couldn't seem to get a straight answer out of anyone. I did my homework and called Jerry. He said he'd come down to my office. When he arrived, I told him that I believed that usury was wrong and showed him some 20 pages of reasons. He told me that if I believed that, I should act accordingly.

I groaned, took a big breath and stopped selling bonds. Selling bonds furnished half my income. Two weeks later Thomas Road came out with a new bond issue and sold it to its own members - which made usurers out of Thomas Road members.[4]

The Rabbi

I thought that Jerry had told me that usury was wrong. I went to Thomas Road to get this straight. Jerry was talking to someone else and asked an associate pastor to help me. The associate pastor told me that only Jews were under the Law. He said that if I wanted an answer about the Law dealing with usury I should call the local rabbi.

I called the local rabbi and told him that Thomas Road told me to call him. His brusque manner became pleasant. He agreed that usury was unlawful. Good! But could I take his word? Jews practice Kol Nidre.

4 Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother ... Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury. Deut 23:19,20

Judeo-Christian

Jerry taught that the Jews were God's chosen people, that we were Judeo-Christian, and that both Christians and Jews believed in the Old Testament.

I was speaking to Eldon Purvis' church group in Richmond about money and usury and mentioned that I was a "Judeo-Christian". There was a shocked silence and then they told me what was wrong with being a Judeo-Christian.

The Word vs The Talmud

Jews believe the Talmud:

> "Thus the ultimate authority for Orthodoxy is the Babylonian Talmud. The Bible itself ranks second to it in reality, if not in theory. (Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, "Authority" pg 637)

Jews believe their own Messiah is not Jesus Christ, but themselves:

> "The throes of mother Zion which is in labor to bring forth the Messiah - without metaphor, the Jewish people." (Kethuboth Illa, Exh 147)

The Jews are their own Messiah.

The Anti-Christ

Our Bible says;

> "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist." 1 John 2:22

The Jews deny that Jesus is the Christ. The WORD says that makes them antichrists.

In searching the matter further I found lists of books written by Jews revealing that Jews are descended, not from Jacob-Israel, but from Khazars-Turks, a tribe of Esau.[5]

The Return

The Bible says that if one denies that Jesus is the Christ that came in the flesh - he is anti-Christ. Jews deny that Jesus came in the flesh. Thomas Road told me that I was a Judeo-Christian - which is half one and half another - which is simply gibberish. Jews also confess that they follow Talmudic law and are descended from Khazarian-Turks who converted to Judaism in the 8th century.

Now, if Jews follow Talmudic law, and admit that they are Khazar-Turks, sons-of-Esau, they can't be sons-of-Jacob, or, Jacob-Israel, the keeper of the LAW.[6]

Things came fast;

> "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matthew 5:24.

And:

> "By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20

6 "He showed his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them." Ps 147:19- 20

Many things Jerry taught me were true. Many things Jerry taught me were not true. For one thing - the Jews weren't Israel. Who was Jacob-Israel? I was ready for the Declaration.

Scotland's Declaration

I dusted off the ancient Scottish Declaration of Independence where the government of Scotland published their descent from Israel at the time of Robert Bruce. Then, Queen Victoria published her descent from Israel, as did the kings and nobility of Europe. Further, these claims had been investigated time and again were certified as legal by the Catholic Church and Europe's governments who had the proof posted in London, Edinburgh, Stockholm and Rome and other places.

So, this was it. We were Jacob-Israel! Those claiming to be Israel were "Khazar-Turks" - children of Esau. Why the deceit? Simple.

A teacher may read from the Bible and still not teach God's LAWS. If, in the place of God's LAW, he tells his listeners his own opinion of what is good and evil, he speaks as a "guru". The Hindus believe a "guru" speaks as God on earth. This is power! Besides the power that accrues to a Guru,[7] preachers who say that Khazar-Turks are Israel are allowed to use the Khazar-Turk media - which means "Big Time". It is inconceivable that Esau's media would allow anyone to teach the LAW of God-the-WORD and deprogram their captive mind- controlled audience.

Book Finished

My initial assumption in writing War Cycles / Peace Cycles - that the Saxon nation was under God's Law and forbidden to practice usury was correct. I went ahead and published my book. We ARE descended from Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and ARE under God's Law. Everything I had been told as a child was true.

More Information

Starting with Genesis 5:1 in the front of the Bible it says, "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1. "Man" is Hebrew for Adam. Strong's Concordance says, Heb: Adam 119 - "to show blood(in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red(ruddy). "Adam", "Man", blush red - the Bible was written for the generations of Adam-man. Jesus called himself "son-of-man".

Another verse was De 23:2, "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2

Adam-man was created by the WORD. Man is to obey the WORD. Not to obey God's Commandments is not to love God.

"If ye love me obey my commandments. John 14:15.

To take the word of a Rabbi, a son-of-Esau, who follows the Talmud violated God's Commandments.

Obedience is proof.

Altar

Jerry had come 180 degrees from when we first met. He had taken a separatist school and turned it into an integrated school. He integrated his college and told me that he was teaching his students the evils of racial intermarriage. Strangers were in the church congregation. The WORD says,

> "Shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51"The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7, Num 1:51.[8]

Jerry was always the nice fellow ever willing to help, and help he did. There are many his ministry has helped get on their feet. He helped me.

However, without the Law, the good that Jerry did is no different from the good done by followers of Islam or Buddha.

The WORD is different. It created man, chose Noah and his family, chose Abraham, Isaac and Jacob-Israel, and their Saxon offspring to the end of time. They are chosen to establish God's kingdom here on earth in obedience to the WORD and to care for the earth that God created.

Esau's media remembers Jerry because Jerry endorsed Esau's political candidates and led people to support them.

8 One can't obey that LAW today because the king forbids it. The rule we are forced to obey is this: "The wrath of a king [is as] messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it." Pr 16:14; "Then saith he unto them, render therefore unto Caesar the things which are caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's." Math 22:19-21; Taxes are unLawful, but, "Lest we should offend them ... thou shall find a piece of money. That take, and give unto them for me and thee." Matt 17:27. Paul Hill killed the murderers of children, according to Law, and the King killed him because "The wrath of a king is as a messenger of death." The king of the land permits murder when it suits him. Time will tell whether Paul Hill's death was worth his sacrifice.

On Jerry's watch a Buddhist temple has been built on the James without his condemnation, Islamic mosques are springing up all over the land, Jewish synagogues are everywhere, Esau's Hispanic invasion is engulfing the land, racial intermarriages are blessed in his church, and in all this he has seen no evil.

It is for these things Jerry will be judged.

Chapter 394

WHITE SLAVES

The Two Enemies

Isaac had two sons: Jacob and Esau. Jacob obeyed the WORD and Esau disobeyed the WORD. Esau left his father's house and became a murderer and a thief. He took wives from the people of the land and spread his seed over the entire world.

"Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41

In the world today, Jacob sees two races - the sons of Jacob and sons of Esau. Esau sees many races.

Esau's World

Esau is rich, intelligent, strong and well-educated. He is also lawless and treacherous. To rule his fellows and his slaves he organizes strict episcopacy organizations, appoints a ruler at the top, and all others stair-step down according to assigned rank and caste.

Occasionally a great leader such as Attila, Saladin, Genghis Khan, or Stalin will emerge and Esau unites and seems invincible. When the ruler dies, or when normal lawlessness and disorganization overwhelms his empire, it disintegrates and his people fight among themselves. But, through it all, Esau has never forgotten his ancient enemy, the children of Jacob whom he blames for his own ills and the misfortunes of the world.

Egypt

The following quote was included in the Bible, which is our history; "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1 We are told that we were once slaves in Egypt and were ruled in the following manner:

> "(Pharaoh) placed officers over (the Israelites) from amongst the children of Israel, and over these officers he placed taskmasters from amongst his servants." Jasher 77:10

Pharaoh arranged matters so that the oppressors most visible were the Israelite slaves he had appointed. Above them and largely out of sight were the Pharaoh's "taskmasters".

Above the "taskmasters" was the Pharaoh himself who was looked upon as God since his edicts were the law-of-the-land, and as law-giver was looked upon as Egypt's God-of-the-land - above all other Egyptian Gods.

The slavery of the children of Israel in Egypt is recorded to remind us not to forget the experience.

The Chain Of Command

To understand the following events remember what the WORD teaches about Esau's chain of command.

First - "Pharaoh"; Second - "taskmasters" chosen from Pharaoh's servants; Third - "officers" selected from the slaves themselves; Fourth - "slaves".

Description Of The Turk

Turks are children of Esau. There are as many breeds of Turks as there are different breeds of American Indians - who are also Turk kinsmen. They differ according to the most recent amalgamation with other breeds accumulated in their travels. The more prominent tribes of Turks bear names given to them by the Chinese according to their attempted invasions of that land.

They loosely share certain traditions and religious beliefs which they have developed into countless sects. Their basic unity comes from their ancient hatred of Jacob.

Turk Government

Turks are well aware of their own shortcomings. They know that they are smart, erratic, irascible, warlike, suspicious and cruel to those who fall into their hands. They also know that self-rule has resulted in one catastrophe after another. Their solution, which is logical in their view, is to have someone better organized to rule them:

> "The children of Esau resolved to crown a king over them ... And all the children of Esau swore, saying that none of their brethren should ever reign over them, but a strange man who is not of their brethren, for the souls of all the children of Esau were embittered every man against his son, brother and friend ... Therefore the sons of Esau swore, saying, from that day forward they would not choose a king from their brethren, but one from a strange land unto this day." Jasher 57:38-40

All of this seems strange to us, but we remember the story of how Mohammed and his followers had fought the other rulers of Arabia to a standstill, and these wars had stopped the east-west caravans of the Silk Route for a year. Then, a lone messenger from the east rode to Arabia and declared that Mohammed had been appointed ruler of Arabia. That settled it. The Arabian world rallied behind Mohammed, and soon, Muslim armies embarked on world conquest.

Janissaries

Turks, also sons of Esau, conquered and ruled the Arabs of the near- east. The ruler of the Turks chose his own personal slaves to rule his Turkic nation for him. He called them Janissaries. "Janissary" is a Turkish word meaning "white slave".[1]

Esau's Discovery

Esau knows that Jacob is organized and Lawful by nature while he is disorganized and lawless by nature. Esau determined to use Jacobs' virtues for his own ends by controlling Jacobs' mind.

Turkish fleets raiding Spain, France, Britain and Russia took loot and male children ages 8-10, although some were taken as old as 20. Others were kidnaped in Europe and smuggled to Islam where they were placed with Islamic families until they learned to follow Allah and were grounded in the ways of Islam.

Once they had matured, and their minds had become the minds of a Muslim, they were then assigned to the army or to government civil service. They were the personal slaves of the Turkish ruler and entrusted with ruling native Turks.[1]

Turkish armies, led by tens of thousands of these fanatical blue- eyed Janissary soldiers - who were organized, financed and transported in powerful fleets built by other Janissary civil- service kinsmen - led Islam to the zenith of her power. Under their rule the Mediterranean became an Islamic lake and Christendom trembled.[2]

The Janissary On Leash

Janissary rulers were powerful. To prevent one Janissary ruler from conspiring with another and gaining power over all Islam, the Turkish masters played one group of Janissaries against another group. The result was endless war cycles that

1 "As a man thinketh so is he." Pr 23:7

2 MAMELUKES: In Egypt, Janissary equivalents were called "Mamelukes." These slaves of Islam were the power within the state and furnished 56 consecutive sultans. They furnished the fierce warriors that decimated the Crusaders and chewed up the vaunted invading armies of the Mongols.

kept the Janissaries busy fighting each other. The similarity of the internecine wars of the Janissary- ruled Turkish world and the mindless wars of Europe's kings is striking.

The Hindu

Hinduism is the religion of Esau - the International Merchant. One seldom hears the name "Hinduism" because the Hindu usually wraps himself in the religion of the local God to appear the same as his local customers.

"Brahma" is the Hindu's "World Force" - or universal God. Each of his many personalities is represented by a lessor God such as Buddha, Jesus, or Tao, etc. Even atheists are holy and accepted as another facet of Brahma's many sided personality. In Hinduism there is no sin and no laws. There is only "mis-conduct". People are seldom executed for mis-conduct - they are imprisoned to give them a chance to reform. There is no need for talk of heaven or hell. Upon death one is immediately reincarnated into another body - a rat or ant if his life has been bad, or a wealthy man or prince if his past life has been good.[3]

General Beliefs

Of its millions of belief systems, the most popular world-wide belief system is Buddhism.

If there were two laws besides the Buddhist universal teaching that frowns on lying, cheating, or stealing - it would be to love one's parents and obey one's government. Buddhism is an export belief system long banished from India.

---

3 The Hindu's unforgivable sin is an act of violence against a member of the Brahmin caste.

Hindu Beliefs

The Hindu sect with the most power is that of Siva, the sex god. Where Esau rules, sex rules.

For instance, In India there was a practice called Devi-Daci. Hindu families donated their daughters to a local Hindu temple to be used as prostitutes by the priests and the public. Hollywood furnishes a near comparison.

Kali is Siva's consort. Kali is the goddess of death. She too is black. She is pictured standing on a dead white devil. Wherever the ITC rules, Kali and her consort Siva are worshiped - sex and death - usually under different names. Most often they disguise themselves as Buddha or Jesus, but the color they worship is black. To them black is holy.

Blacks themselves are often worshiped simply because of their holy color. They are given awards, wealth, help, and fame. They have streets, parks, buildings and events named in their honor. This honor and worship is given for reasons almost incomprehensible to the Saxon mind; they represent Kali's agents of destruction and death. Everything to which they are joined dies in time, or is destroyed in an orgy of rape, blood and fire. To the followers of Kali, this is good. It brings closer the end of the present evil age of Kaliyuga.

It is no accident that Esau's media reports only the smallest fraction of black crime. In Western countries, when blacks are arrested for some crime, their punishment is usually a slap on the wrist. Newspapers revel in their riots and city burnings - and then they become non-events - allowing the Saxon to forget his injuries.

Esau intends that Jacob should die - quietly if possible. This will remove the final obstacle to the end of the Kaliyuga age with the extinction of life. Then, life on earth can begin again in a new and better age.

The Janissary white-slave is used to bring about this final result.

Work Of the White Slave

Jacob won its war against Esau in Rhodesia. Rhodesia's leader, a white-slave named Ian Smith, turned his country over to the blacks who promptly went about killing and stealing from the sons-of-Jacob. The latest word is that this Smith person and his possessions still remain safe, but fellow liberals who helped him betray his nation have not fared as well. Esau has turned on the very Janissaries who gave them their country.

Duke

Mike Nifong, the N. Carolina district attorney was disbarred after an ethics panel said that he had repeatedly lied and withheld evidence in trying to make the case that three white Duke students had raped a black stripper.

A search of the internet yields no clue as to Nifong's race, or even his religious affiliation, making it difficult to discover whether his conduct was the normal conduct of one of the sons-of- Esau or the conduct of a son-of-Jacob having the mind of Esau.

The same cannot be said of the 88 members of the Duke faculty who took out a newspaper ad supporting the accuser without even hearing the evidence. This extreme antisaxonite mind-set is what history teaches us to expect from Janissaries who will attack their own God chosen kinsmen[4] on the unsubstantiated word of a child of Esau, and who will doubtlessly march with Esau should Esau's push become a shove. Meanwhile, they teach our children.[4]

Alternate Media

In recent years, Jacob has created an alternate media similar to the "Committee of Correspondence" used with such success before the American Revolution.

To sabotage this effort, Esau has given money, mailing lists and free-rein to his Janissaries to capture the mind of Jacob. They may say anything they like to win the mind of Jacob - anything - except one. There is one thing they are not allowed to say; They may NOT quote chapter and verse from the WORD as their Law. To do so establishes the WORD as absolute final authority. This, Esau will not tolerate.

In years gone by, I often phoned Dr. W. G. Finley, of the Covenant Message in S. Africa to inquire about current affairs. In passing he told me about an American visitor who is today well known and quoted widely as a Separatist icon. Dr. Finley said that this person said things to him in far away South Africa that he would not dare say to his conservative audiences in America. Neither would he quote the LAW of the WORD because he was a follower of the Law-of-the-land - a different God entirely..

Orval Faubus, George Wallace, J. Lindsay Almond of Virginia, Thurmond of South Carolina, Ian Smith of Rhodesia, and DeKlerk of South Africa first aroused the suspicion of those loyal to the WORD when they refused to speak its Law to justify their stands. Deceived, their kinsmen were led to defeat and slavery. They were Janissaries - they did the job they had been chosen to do.

4 FALSE WITNESS: "If a false witness rise up ... Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother." De 19:16- 19. The Law declares; "If a man ... force her, and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her shall die." Deut: 22:25. The Duke 88 declared innocent students guilty of a crime punished by death without proof. Discovered to be false witnesses, the Law concerning false witnesses applies. When God's Kingdom comes God's Law will be enforced.

It remains my opinion that nine out of ten right-wing newsletters and web-sites claiming to represent Christian Separatism are the work of Janissaries. The unchangeable stamp of the WORD that gives legitimacy to their speech is missing. Readers would be wise to give this thought. After all, it is written;

"Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20.

We should expect the same from his slaves.

Conclusion

To a knight of Christendom defending his nation and his home against invaders it makes no difference whether the warrior advancing to kill him is a Turk or his Janissary white slave.

Esau has trained his white-slaves to be our priests, teachers, judges and lawmen - just as in the days of Pharaoh. They serve their masters and his God and oppress us and reject God the WORD.

In the day we separate ourselves from Esau we shall leave these slaves with their masters and the two will become one while we shall live alone: "So shall we be separated ... from all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Ex 33:16

The WORD does not lie, things will take place as they did before:

"The hand of Pharaoh continued to be severe against the children of Israel, and he crushed and oppressed them until the time when God sent forth his WORD and took notice of them." Jasher 71:16

The WORD saved us then - it will save us now:

"It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitudes." Neh 13:3; "And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers (5236 ne^ka^r - strange, alien)." Neh 9:2

God can will this to come to pass peacefully - or not. The fate of Esau's white-slaves will depend on them.

One last thing:

The Janisarries existed between late 1300s and 1826 - about 450 years. One morning, Esau's prime directive was activated once again, "I will kill my brother Jacob".

The Turkish ruler secretly issued orders and on the same day all over the empire, Islam's Janissaries were slaughtered. The Sons- of-Esau did their work quickly, by the tens of thousands, Janissary white-slaves were slaughtered like pigs. And the Children-of-Jacob praised God.

==========

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins: We are having a general strike by blacks. First the civil service, next the mines, and finially, others out sympathy. This is an organized effort by the communist trade unions as the next stage in the S. African communist revolution. The teachers' strikes are most unsettling. Some whites join blacks "toi-toying" in the street (black football players dance). Leaders of blacks ruling groups have continually told their followers that it is their right to take money wherever they can get it. After all, they had it bad in the apartheid days. Their nature makes it easy to bring about wholesale anarchy.

The old South African civil service never paid employees much, but now, these new bosses give themselves huge salaries. They gossip and make grand plans while services deteriorate, pipes burst, there are electrical blackouts and rampant crime. Beaches, now highly dangerous, used to be such a pleasure for walks. Now one is bound to be raped, robbed or murdered. The swimming areas are dirty and black behavior is terrible.

Hans went to the Ransburg licensing department and found the doors closed. He went around back and found the blacks in their offices chatting, eating and phoning their friends. The official phones were off the hook in all departments. People buy cars and cannot get them registered.

I suppose white liberals are the same the world over. Here they collect for the black poor and never give a thought for their own poor. In the meantime, they, along with all the rest of us suffer from black on white misconduct. Diepslaat squatters still cut our telephone poles to get the cable copper to sell to the nearest scrap-yards for a few rand. But, something positive comes fom all this mess, liberals are being cured at a fast rate.

I phoned Betzy. She was in Pretoria with a child who fell from a horse at the "weekend parents", and broke something. Last night I phoned her to hear the outcome; a broken arm. She took the little one home after they put the arm in a splint.

The "affirmative" who is working with Maria left to go to another company. She could not cope with computers in spite of her "certificate of qualification". Maria's firm must send her to Switzerland for a course on worldwide computer systems, but she can't get her passport updated because of the striking blacks.

When going to town we drove past the "Irene Concentration Camp" of the Boer War (1899-1903) where Johanna Brandt helped as a nurse. She commented on how little she could do for the sick. She buried the bodies of six little children in one grave. Imagine being forced to sleep on the bare ground in freezing cold without warm clothing or blankets. The British burned their bundles of clothes and blankets that they carried from their houses before they too were burned. Making matters impossible was that most of the captives came from semitropical areas. Most died. I understand they treated American civilians badly in 1776 and 1812. German survivors of British camps tell us they treated them harshly in 1945.

The Dutch Reform Church now ignores Biblical sin. All that is left is a cult. Homosexuals are preachers and people worry about their children. All races and all opinions are welcome.

A bright light is that the Christian schools are doing well and, most important, those at Afrikaans Universities are really waking up and taking a stand for the Afrikaners' liberty, his anthem, his flag and they are holding meetings.

With our best wishes, K.J.

Letter From The Loeries

April 2007

Dear Mr. & Mrs Hoskins,

The kids in our care are coping very well. Our first grade 12 student, Bennie, completed school successfully last year. This year we have 4 matriculants, which of course means that this will be their last year with us. Three of them have been with us since the first day Loerie's doors opened.

We started off this year with 24 kids and welcomed three new- comers into our family - a pair of twins, Nathan and Niche Pel (age 8) and their elder brother Marcel (in Grade 8). Which means we now have 3 pairs of twins. We now have 27 Loeries.

We thank your readers once again from the bottom of our hearts. I can assure you, although the children are still young, they do appreciate everything that is done for them.

Attached are photos of all 27 of our children as promised. We are definitely going to send you more news and photos this year.

Thank you again,
Willie Hoffman,

CONSERVATIVE ADVICE: A 1990 Hoskins Report copied a conservative newsletter containing advice that is pertinent today:

"No more parades, please. Six or seven recently attracted publicity and caused their own side to be ridiculed. When the foe cannot see you, does not know what you are doing, and frightens itself with its own imagination, you are effective. Unseen, invisible, silent. It must either be that again or the flag should go back into the glass case in the museum where it can be respected in memories. Tight small cells ... infiltrating every other organization around ... quietly doing their work of altering such groups' courses to suit themselves and their own objectives." From The Mountain, June 26, 1990

SPANISH: Newt Gingrich speaks grammatically correct Spanish. He is tutored three times a week while considering a run for president. NY Mayor Michael Bloomberg speaks Spanish every chance he gets. N. Mexico Gov Bill Richardson announces his presidential bid in Los Angeles in the language of his Mexican mother. Sen Chris Dodd, a Connecticut Yankee discourses in Spanish. (Story in News & Advance, A5, June 10, 2007, copied from Washington Post)

RKH: I remember when Newt announced his lifetime membership in the NAACP. It would be more honest if the Demo/Repub party hired ALL their actors from Hollywood. In the political arena - city, state, and federal - I believe there are not more than two or three who are not part of the "desaxonization" plot. To win credibility all a political actor would have to do is sponsor a bill to deport aliens. In the meantime, I believe that our media- selected politicos were put into office to turn America into a Rhodesia/S. Africa type disaster.

INVASION PROGRESS: For the first time the U.S. Census Bureau reported that about one in three Americans are now black, Latino, or Asian. (The New York Times)

ED: Unofficial reports estimate over 50%.

FIGHT FOR PEACE: U.S. weapons manufacturers sold more than 2,000 surface-to-air missiles to nations in the developing world, 10 major war-ships and has signed a sale agreement for $1.8 billion in F-16 fighters to Turkey and another 100 F-35 Joint Strike Fighters. First, they sell weapons to one nation, and then sell to its neighbors. (Story in NEWS p.15, June 1, 2007)

MURDOCH's POWER: Murdoch is the largest single owner of media properties in the world. His multi-billion dollar conglomerate can be seen by nearly 75% of the Earth's population. Much of Murdoch's day is occupied with calling his editors around the world. (Story in NEWS, p.13, June 1, 2007)

ED: The International Trade Cartel's media attacked my books first in 1991 and then in 1999. The attacks appeared worldwide. Most were made on the same day using the same wording. The handful of papers that did not carry the story the first day did so within a short period. None printed a single line from my many letters of correction. This was the first time I fully understood the media's ability to totally control men's minds. First lesson; nothing that appears in Esau's media can be believed without verification. Second lesson: those who serve the media are next to usurers in power; they rank far above government and its police powers. They have also revealed themselves for all to see.

IRAQ OCCUPATION: U.S. Defense Secretary Robert Gates acknowledged that the U.S. may occupy Iraq for decades. He said he could envision military relations with Iraq being similar to what they have been with S. Korea & Japan. (IBD, p.1, June 4, 2007)

SECRET PRISONS: The EU concluded that the U.S. had operated secret prisons in Poland and Romania where terror suspects were held and possibly tortured. The CIA called the report distorted. (IBD, p.1, Jun 11, 2007)

Chapter 395

CITIES

A merchant must have a product to sell, a place where it can be sold, and the blessing of the customer's God so that he will not be harmed while engaged in business.

Virginia Before The War

Virginia was once virtually off limits to the international merchant. The reason was obvious. There was little the international merchant offered that Virginians wanted.

Virginia had numerous towns but no real cities. Before the War, Lynchburg had 4,000 year around residents, Richmond had 20,000, and Norfolk had 30,000. Most everyone lived on their own self- sufficient farms and produced their own wealth. They had ample free time to develop their own cottage industry whose products satisfied their own needs and the needs of their neighbors. With few exceptions, the goods of the international merchant were neither needed nor wanted.

Buena Vista

Buena Vista is up the river from Lynchburg just over the Blue Ridge where the James River forks. Before the War it contained a warehouse and a few houses. Canal boats coming up the James with cargo destined for the other fork would store its cargo in the Buena Vista warehouse until it was picked up by a boat going up the other fork.

I used to drive through Buena Vista in the '40s. It was strange looking. It had lampposts in the middle of pastures with cows grazing around them. There were two impressive three or four story red-brick city office buildings - lone sentinels standing in otherwise vacant city blocks. A little way out of town, on the way to Natural Bridge was a big deserted hotel in a wheat field on a low hill. One wing was finished, and another wing was partly finished. There were a few houses scattered about.

Planned Cities

Buena Vista was a "planned city" or a "promoted city" - one that wasn't successful. After the War the "victors" changed Virginia's laws and Cartel promoters freely bought land, gained a charter, and built a city to attract people to work the nearby mines which had produced low grade ore for 100 years. However, the mines played out and the promoters left Buena Vista only partly finished to build elsewhere. Its skeleton was left to amaze passers-by.

Overnight Cities

"Big Lick" was a winner. The promoters brought in Railroad yards and repair shops and changed its name to "Roanoke".

In Lynchburg, the first thing they did was to build the 1st National Bank. The cornerstone reads "1865" - the year the War ended. Next, they built cotton mills and a steel mill and Lynchburg began to grow. It grew from 4,000 to 50,000 by the time I was a boy and is now 70,000 or thereabouts.

The question often asked is, why did Virginians want the international merchants after the War when they wanted almost nothing to do with them before the war?

Replacing The Farm

The traditional Self-Sufficient Farm provided wealth, food, increased herds, and considerable free time for their cottage industry to fashion tools, make machines, operate blast furnaces, weave cloth, make harness and wagons, and countless other items. Every creek had its mill. Much of the wealth created by their cottage industry was exchanged for things they did not have. It produced far more wealth than the city- system of the North. It provided most of the exports and far more than half the countries' tariff income which was spent mostly in the urban North.

It also provided work and sustenance for growing families and care for the aged. The Albemarle County "poor house" had two rooms and stood vacant most of the time.

There was little need for money or cities in Virginia. The SSF system did everything and did it better - before the War.

Exchanging Commodities

The exchange of commodities most often took place at the crossroads country store. The store owner charged one item out of ten for disposing of the rest of a consignment. What was not sold was returned to the creator of the wealth along with the admonition to better manage his efforts in the future.

Millers charged one bushel of wheat out of each ten they ground to flour. Sometimes there were several stores specializing in different items. These grouping were usually located at a crossroads. This was called a "town". Money was seldom used.

Good times arrived with good weather - not with the boom and bust market economy of the city. Virginia was completely unaware of the depression that ravaged Pennsylvania and much of the north in the 1850s. The self-sufficient farm system is God's natural wealth creating system and is insulated from the vagaries of Esau's market economy.

The life of untaxed farmers was vastly different from the lives of people living in the city-system. Europeans experienced the last of their self-sufficient farms with the arrival of Charlemagne's Empire in the 800s. It was my good fortune to have grown up in the ruins of such a farm system. It is a shame that the on-going conquest of the West requred its destruction.

Wars

There were many attempts to destroy Virginia's farm-kingdoms and seize and make merchandise of the people and their land. Following is a proclamation of one of Lincoln's generals;

> "In 1862, General Pope was appointed to command the Federal Army of Virginia. ... He ... made a speech to his army to the effect that he did not approve of this protecting the property of the rebels, and that he intended that his army should subsist, that is, live on, the country through which they passed." (Virginia History, For the Young, p.200, J.P.Bell Co, Lynchburg, VA 1897)[1]

This was official authorization to steal, loot, rape, and murder. It came from the top. Only recently has the population of Amherst County, across the James from Lynchburg, grown larger than it was in 1864-1865 when it was swollen by the flood of refugees fleeing the barbarous Union armies. These refugees felt that it was better to live in the woods under lean-tos, half-starved in the freezing snow, than to live in their own houses behind union lines and suffer the atrocities inflicted by the invaders.

To carry out the Cartel program, Sheridan burned the Valley from one end to the other, homes, barns, mills, outbuildings - and forbade the refugees to take food and warm clothing before applying the torch. Sherman burned the farms and towns of Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina.

1 "Federal armies pillaged and plundered their way through the Southern states for the duration of the war, and Lincoln supported several confiscation bills that allowed them to plunder private property as they went." The Real Lincoln, Thomas J. Dilorenzo, Forum, 2002 p150; "Lincoln championed the leaders of the European revolutions of 1848." James McPherson "Abraham Lincoln & the 2nd American Rev. p.24, Dec 1992

Missouri was left a depopulated wasteland. My great-great grandfather watched Lincoln overseeing Union soldiers systematically destroy the Kelly barns and flocks at Kelly's Ford.

These depredations were not accidental. They were done according to plan. The purpose was to stamp out the self-sufficient farm system and replace it with the market-economy of the international merchant - the city!

Lee's 20,000 men unconditionally surrendered to Grant's 200,000 men at Appomattox. This removed the last armed resistance in Virginia.

The Reconstruction

Immediately, the defeated Southland was reconstructed so that it could be properly incorporated into "the city".

Disarmed Southern whites were deprived of the vote which was given to blacks. Blacks were also given rule over the whites. Governors, senators, congressmen, city councils, state legislatures, police, militias were black - all this took place under the protection of federal occupation bayonets. What is now happening in South Africa is a carbon copy of what the blacks did to the American Southland.

Under direction of Republican "carpetbaggers", black legislators voted themselves enormous salaries and taxed farmland to pay for them. Tariffs were placed on formerly cheap imports so that farm implements became expensive. Differential freight rates made it more costly to ship goods by rail from Richmond to NY than from NY to Richmond. These rates weren't removed until the 1950s. All this was carefully planned.

Virginia's farms produced food and articles from cottage industries, but they did not grow money. Taxes had to be paid in cash. There was no cash. Farms went on the auction block for whatever land would bring. Land-companies owning millions of acres were the only ones bidding. Land at Kelly's ford, valued at $850 an acre in 1858, was sold at 50¢ an acre in 1900.[2]

The War Between The States was fought to remove the South's Self- Sufficient Farm System and replace both it and its law system with the international trade cartel's "city". It was a complete success.

Cheap food from domestic and foreign corporate-farms undersold the few farms that survived. Stripped of their land and having no way to support their families, jobless, landless refugees flocked to Lynchburg seeking work. Cartel planners had prepared for this and the town was ready to receive them. When I was growing up Virginia's countryside was a land of deserted farm houses and deserted country churches whose cemeteries dated back more than 200 years. The hundreds who had attended them had gone.

The Cartel built rickety company housing along with the ubiguitous company store. Then, they moved their New England mill operations to Lynchburg where labor was cheap and plentiful. Destitute Virginians stood in line for a chance to labor 15 hour a day for a pittance to keep their families from starving. The Southern farmer, perhaps a bit more roughly treated, was now equally a slave with his northern kinsmen who hadn't a clue as to what was taking place, or why.

2 Mr. Milner Noble of Lynchburg sold 14,000 acres of his family's land near Richmond for $7000 as late as 1952 to avoid taxes. Government policy had made the produce of the land bring less than the taxes demanded.

Protocols

Henry Ford's The Dearborn Independent in its expose of the Protocols chose to highlight "land". Here is its summary pertaining to Protocol #VI:

> "The farmer's strong advantage is that, owning the land, he is independent in his sources of livelihood. The land will feed him whether he pleases International Financiers or not. His position is impregnable as long as the sun shines and the seasons roll. ..."

Wars Against The Independent Farmer

For almost a thousand years, Britain has been a janissary-agent of the International Trade Cartel. During the on-going Indian hostilities against America's Saxon settlers, the British government often sided with the Indians against their own flesh and blood, furnishing leaders and equipment for Indian war parties who raped and murdered old and young, male and female. The Indian incentive was to kill the White man as a religious offering to their God Okee who ate pain. They offered captured members of neighboring tribes and even their own children when offerings were scarce. The British government used the Indian customs for their own ends, which was to destroy the independent farms and prevent the inevitable opposition to "the city" empire.

> "In 1817, Creeks who had joined the Seminoles in Florida incited them to war. General Jackson was sent against them and seized St. Mar's in 1818. Two British subjects, Ambrister and Arbuthnot, were captured at that time. Jackson knew these types and, like Lew Wetzel, was not squeamish about killing them. On the charge that they encouraged the Indians to kill Whites, he executed them as renegades." Vigilantes Of Christendom, p125[3]

During the Revolutionary War, the Crown sent its armies into the Carolinas and Virginia where they burned farms. In the war of 1812, the British landed on Virginia's Northern Neck and again burned and destroyed farms. They captured slaves and sold them into the Caribbean. The destruction of the independent farm system is necessary if the Cartel's city-system is to exist in their place.

In 1861, the Union army lived off the land. It was part of their plan. There are great stretches of the American Southland with almost no farm buildings standing dating prior to 1861 to mark where self-sufficient-farms and their nearby trading villages once stood.

In 1899-1902, the British Empire's scorched-earth policy destroyed South Africa's self-sufficient farms, slaying vast herds, and confining survivors in concentration camps where they died like flies. After that, South Africa's cities grew like mushrooms.

The City Spreads Worldwide

In 1924, Russia's self-sufficient farms were collectivized and 5,000,000 farmers were starved. Cities like Moscow immediately began to spread over the countryside.

After the German collapse in WWII, the eastern German farming region was given to Polish communists to collectivize. A large number of the 9 million Germans who died after the war died during their expulsion from their ancestral lands.

3 "Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel." I Kings 12:24; "Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people." Lev 19:18.

The U.S., the pretended ally of nationalist Chiang Kai-shek, withheld war material and allowed Mao to conquer all of China. Mao promptly collectivized ancient family holdings and imprisoned or executed millions of "land owners". Today, China's cities are unable to hold the great number of farm refugees and the Chinese government is in the process of building 40 new cities to house and better police this potentially explosive force.

In 1985, a great farm rally was held in Nebraska protesting bank foreclosures and mass corporate farming. Esau's media universally condemned the gathering and puppet politicains ignored their plight. The rally failed, and the last of America's independent farms have almost disappeared from the land. America's cities continue to experience a housing building-boom from the displacement of populations.

The Path Of Destruction

The Hindu is the world's international trader. In theory, Hindus accept all Gods as different manisfestations of their own God. Hindus seldom call themselves "Hindu", preferring to use the names of local Gods to help business. Their common denominator is their obedience to ancient beliefs and laws.

Called by different names, the ruling Hindu god of this age is Kali - Goddess of death. She is the destroyer. Hindus believe that this is her age - the age of Kaliyuga - which will end when all life ends - once the white devils who stand in her way and hinder her progress are removed.

Her spirit, many millennia old, is alive and well and the success of her march is told many ways in the Hindu Puranas. An internet search reveals the same story told and re-told many ways but with the same basic predictions. A brief synopsis follows:

> Apocalypse for the Hindu is the natural ending of the world in the fourth age, the Kali Age. Vishnu will appear again as Kalki, a winged white horse. She is destined to destroy the present world and take humanity to a different, higher plane.
> All kings occupying the earth in the Kali Age will be prone to take the paltry possessions of others, having character that is mostly vile, rising to power and soon falling. They will be short-lived, ambitious, of little virtue, and greedy. People will follow the customs of others and be adulterated with them; peculiar, undisciplined barbarians will be vigorously supported by rulers. People will commit sin in mind, speech, and actions. Quarrels, plague, fatal diseases, famines, drought, and calamities appear.
> In the Kali Age, there will be many false religionists. People will freely commit abortion. Earth will be valued only for her mineral treasures.
> Money alone will confer nobility. Power will be the sole definition of virtue. Praise worthiness will be measured by accumulated wealth. Simply to be well dressed will signify propriety. The pretense of greatness will be the proof of it, and powerful men with many severe faults will rule over all the classes on earth. People will suffer from cold, wind, heat and rain. Thus in the Kali Age humankind will be utterly destroyed.

Results

There is nothing supernatural about seeing this ancient prophecy unfold before our eyes. Esau's cartel believes it to be inevitable. Since they believe it to be inevitable they use their enormous wealth gained through their usury banking system; hoarded in their great international corporations; and administered by their merchant managers and puppet kings, to bring it to pass precisely as written many thousands of years ago; the wars, famines and suffering come about because they are ordained by their God.

They fully expect the evil they do to result in good. These Hindu prophecies are heard over and over, mantra like. They have the wealth and power to make them self-fulfilling.

But before their ultimate victory, the white devils standing in the way of Kali's victory must die. To hasten their destruction - their habitat must be destroyed - the self-sufficient farm.

The City - Esau's Trap

Today's city is Esau refuge for those he has made homeless and destitute. With their homes destroyed, the city is the only haven remaining, a haven which is also a prison.

In the city one must depend on the cartel for his livelihood. One's wealth is no longer God-given from the land. Man must now obtain Esau's magic-money to pay for his bread, shelter, tax- tribute, medicine, and retirement. He must even obtain a permit to conduct business. Esau's media-monopoly tells him what to think, and rebels are quickly hounded into silence, killed, fired, fined, or imprisoned. Scrimping and saving, retirement and hospital bills reduce many to becoming beggers overnight.[4] Above all, he is required to be tolerant of other Gods and obedient to their laws even when it means disobeying God the WORD.

4 My wife recently spent a week in the hospital - $30,000; doctor $32,000; total $64,000. We had good insurance. Many don't.

Killer Stress

It is stressful for a race-horse to pull a plow. It is stressful for a little Pekingese dog to herd cattle. City life is stressful to the Saxon.

The city-system generates worry and stress and drastically reduces the Saxon's birthrate, which now stands at 1.6, far below the required 2.1 children per family needed to maintain status quo. On the other hand, Esau thrives in his cities, as he should - it is his habitat.

In spite of TV, new houses, and football - Jacob does not prosper in Esau's city - it is alien to him. This is why Esau and his agents destroyed Jacob's habitat and forced him into the city. Esau plans to destroy his hated brother, so he will disappear from the earth and allow Kali's day to arrive.

The Other Road

Unfortunately for Esau, when he makes war with Jacob he makes war with Jacob's God. The Scriptures say that in the beginning; "The world was made by him." John 1:10

God made the world and assigned ownership, "The earth he hath given to the children of Adam." Ps 115:16. He then directed how it was to be ruled, "The land shall be divided." Nu 26:55. Finally, "The land shall not be sold forever: for the land is mine." Lev 25:23

Esau and his puppets have forced Jacob from his land and have taken and sold it like a pair of shoes. God said he wanted his people to live alone; Esau and his puppet rulers and priests have brought a flood of Esau's children to take Jacob's land and eat up his substance.

These unlawful invaders are breaking God's Law and trespassing on God's land.

But this, too, is prophesied. "For Esau is the end of the world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth." II Esdras 6:9

The time is late. God's WORD is eternal. The following will come to pass as written:

> "The eternal God is thy refuge ... and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew." Deut 33:27-28; "And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel." Eze 39:11
> "Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:28;

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins; Our telephone service is interrupted every few days. Cell phones have become essential. Most of the electricity problems come from mismanagement. The government has closed down power stations and has gotten rid of white staff. The money saved is added to management's already big salaries.

Young people on horseback carrying our own flags went to commemorate the dead at the Irene Concentration Camp. Every year they go to a different camp.

We do not know or intend to learn any of the new names that the black government have given to our towns. Blacks and Jews did not build them. We did.

The new thing for blacks is to blow up ATMs to get the money. They use dynamite their pals bring from the mines. Recently, one misjudged and lost both arms.

Radio Pretoria told their listeners not to buy anything from China, especially food as it contains poisons. The clothes they sell are of a very poor quality.

Years ago there was a book written about the Anglo-Boer War. The arthor was a Michael Douitt (1846-1906). He was an Irish nationalist who was imprisoned for 7 years by the British for his part in one of the Irish revolts. After his release he was elected as a member of parliament several times, but each time disqualified because of his previous convictions. When he finally was allowed to become a member in 1895 he served till 1899. In that year he resigned, protesting Britain's invasion of South Africa. Thereafter he paid a visit to the two Republics and from that he wrote a book "The Boer Fight For Freedom", 1902, which he completed before the war was over. This was one of the few books on the war written from our viewpoint.

The TV reported "Redhead Harry" as saying that they held the concert for Diana to keep the commoners happy. These people have an irritating way of flaunting their inherited position.

A friend of Maria left with her husband and two sons and went to England. Finally, they went to Canada. She was strict with her boys but the ordinary English schools are so bad that they were set back two standards on arriving in Canada.

The inferiority of the ordinary British school is fairly common knowledge. Their massive Imperial armies were just as dumb and did the most foolish things during the Anglo-Boer War which led to defeat after defeat sometimes when they had a ten to one advantage. It may be that England's real rulers plan to keep the ordinary people dumb.

Hoskins Report subscribers' money reached the Loeries without any problems. They had a commemoration day which we could not attend. An Afrikaans singer entertained them. Afterwards some people came to Betzy and offered their help. The Loeries built an addition to their home and spruced up everything. A long needed 3-phase electricity unit was installed. The other one always cut out. The youngsters helped with the renovation and showed a lot of spirit.

The government has now passed a law allowing dogs to be eaten. We look on dogs as pets. Eating dogs presents another problem. Rodents thrive in towns and cities because blacks throw garbage in the streets. Until now, dogs have kept the rodent population in check.

We need your prayers in these days. Heavily armed blacks kill whites at a terrible rate. Once again we thank our kinsmen in America for their help. The times are grim. Our God sees how his people suffer under the heel of the heathen. God bless, K.J.

LETTERS FROM THE PAST

INVASION: HR #230, Nov 1993 "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The #229 Hoskins Report observation that the Khazar Turks had joined hands with the Arab Turks is important. Ezekiel 38 prophesied that those of God, (descended from Japheth but now mixed among the non-Adamic Turko/Mongolian Khazars), Persia (now Iran), Ethiopia (once the southern border of Egypt and occupied by the peoples of Cush - son of Ham), Put (once the Libyan region west of Egypt), Gomer (descended from Japheth and now mingled with Turko/Mongolian Khazars), Bethtogarmah (Togarmah descended from Japheth and mixed with Turko/Mongolian Khazars) would be summoned in the latter years and come like a storm to cover the land of true Israel, and that they would devise an evil plan and say, "I will go up against the land of unwalled villages, to those who are at rest and living securely, without walls, bars or gates to capture a spoil and seize plunder." And didn't Ezekiel prophesy that Israel in her naivete would say, "have you come to take a spoil, to plunder us?"

"Our Celto-Saxon nations worldwide are experiencing the take- over of our commerce, our land, our homes by the Pakis, the Chinese, the Indians of India, the Japanese, the Syrians, the Lebanese, the Khazar Jews, the Koreans, the Vietnamese, the Iranians, the Egyptians, the Saudis, ad infinitum ad nauseum. They are taking their plunder, and we naively say, "Are you really here to take a spoil, to plunder us?"

"Ezekiel indicates that these Turko/Mongolian people will realize the bounty that is available in these lands of sleeping Celto- Saxons and will come with a 'great assembly and a mighty army.' This may mean military might in order to finish the takeover, but if you look around at the 'warfare' (as it is termed by the Japanese) that is being waged against American business and property, you can see that we have already been attacked, and we are losing. And, as you say, all in accordance with the consequences of Deuteronomy 28 when God's Covenant People do not follow His Law.

"The rest of Ezekiel 38 and 39 tells how it all turns out." M. J. - Oregon

RKH: Today, America is fighting the Arab/Turks in the Mideast - while Islamic peoples are invading Europe and America in massive numbers. This could not be possible without the OK of the Khazar- Turks. This means that America's war in the mid-east is a smokescreen to hide the on-going invasion of the West.

IMMIGRATION: HR #234 - 1994) "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What reason does the establishment have for allowing the mass immigration of strangers?" M. G. - Mississippi

RKH: Read what "The Decline & Fall of The Roman Empire, p 273, has to say about what happened in Alexandria: "The lucrative trade of Arabia and India flowed through the port of Alexandria to the capitol and provinces of the empire. ... But the people of Alexandria, a various mixture of nations, united the vanity and inconsistancy of the Greeks with the superstition and obstinacy of the Egyptians. The most trifling occasion, a transient scarcity of precedence in the public baths, or a religious dispute, were at any time sufficient to kindle a sedition among that vast multitude, whose resentments were furious and implacable. After ... the authority of the laws were relaxed, the Alexandrians abandoned themselves to the ungoverned rage of their passions, and their unhappy country was the theatre of a civil war, which continued (with a few short and suspicious truces) above 12 years. ... Every street was polluted with blood, every building of strength converted into a citadel; nor did the tumults subside, till a considerable part of Alexandria was irretrievably ruined." (footnote: "This long and terrible sedition was first occasioned by a dispute between a soldier and a townsman about a pair of shoes.")

Different people have different gods. Different gods demand that their followers obey their laws which may conflict with the laws of another god. To prevent chaos, a powerful third party ruler must then judge their disputes.

The international merchant encourages the strife so the people will demand an all powerful ruler to bring about peace. The great merchant can then trade and transact business on his own terms. Nothing has changed. Today's establishment encourages aliens and their gods to enter our land to create chaos so that in time the people will demand a strong puppet government who can "legally" exercise the power to judge between the gods and their peoples. In time, the waves of immigrant aliens will give the establishment the power of a god on earth.

Hail Caesar!

LETTERS

HINDU/CHRISTIANS: Dear Richard; Did I understand you to say that Jesus Christ is a lessor God of the Hindu? S.L. - Oregon

RKH: Hinduism accepts all Gods as different facets of Brahma - the "World Force". A Hindu may proclaim himself a Christian. In his house he may have a shrine in which is a likeness of Christ along with likenesses of Vishnu and Kali. Does he worship Christ? Certainly, along with Vishnu and Kali. The WORD separates the wheat from the chaff; "By their acts ye shall know them."

If you believe their talk, Hollywood whores, and politicians swimming in Washington's "cess-pool" are also "Christians" - the non- judgmental, more tolerant Christian kind.

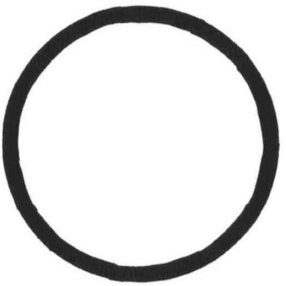
Chapter 396



MOON LANDING

When I was seven years old I lived in Culpeper with my grandparents while Mother and Dad lived in New York. Dad was always going back to medical school to learn something new. My brother John died from Leukemia and Dad had this thing about trying to learn as much as he could about his profession. He ended up having four different specialities. It took a lot of time. The good part is that I spent a lot of time on the farm.

My main job was sweeping Granddad's furniture store. I made 15¢ a week. On Saturday afternoon I walked to town to see the movies; the movie was 10¢ and popcorn 5¢.

It was always a cowboy movie with a serial. The serial I liked best was Flash Gordon. "Flash" flew back and forth to the moon and all over the Solar System - and that was back in 1935. Grandmother told me it was all make believe, but I had seen it with my own eyes. It's hard to make up things like that. I was seven and knew better.

Sputnik

Russia beat America into space by putting a satellite in orbit around earth. They called it "Sputnik"

America got to work and poured billions into a space effort, and, before you could say "Jack Robinson" we showed the "Commies" a thing or two - we put a man on the moon. Not only did we put a man on the moon - we put three men on the moon.

This accomplishment came just before the Soviets put an unmanned "probe" on the moon. A probe was the best they could do while we landed three men who planted an American flag, did exercises, made fantastic jumps in the moon's low gravity, left a monument to commemorate the occasion, made speeches, took photographs and movies, and did scientific work.

America's Triumph

BBC had this to say for the history books:

"1969: American Neil Armstrong has become the first man to walk on the Moon.

"The astronaut stepped onto the Moon's surface, in the Sea of Tranquillity, at 0256 GMT, nearly 20 minutes after first opening the hatch on the Eagle landing craft.

"His colleague Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin watched from inside the lunar module and spoke the first words of man on the Moon: "Tranquillity base. The Eagle has landed."

"As he put his left foot down first Mr Armstrong declared: "That's one small step for man but one giant leap for mankind."

"He described the surface as being like powdered charcoal and that the landing craft left a crater about a foot deep. "The historic moments were captured on television cameras installed on the Eagle and turned on by Armstrong. Armstrong spent his first few minutes on the moon taking photographs and soil samples in case the mission had to be aborted suddenly.

"He was joined by Aldrin at 0315 GMT and the two collected data and performed various exercises - including jumping across the landscape - before planting the Stars and Stripes flag at 0341 GMT.

"They also unveiled a plaque bearing President Nixon's signature and an inscription reading: 'Here men from the planet earth first set foot upon the Moon July 1969 AD. We came in peace for all mankind.'

"After filming their experience with a portable television camera the astronauts received a message from the US President. President Nixon, in the White House, spoke of the pride of the American people and said: "This certainly has to be the most historic telephone call ever made.

"Many other nations - including the UK - sent messages of congratulation. Moscow Radio announced the news solemnly in its 1030 GMT broadcast. As Aldrin and Armstrong collected samples, Michael Collins told mission control in Houston he had successfully orbited the Moon in the mother ship."[1]

Practice

Billions of dollars went into the space program. Nothing was left to chance. The media said that when our astronauts were preparing for the moon event, they blasted into orbit and circled the earth many times.

To return, they prodded their space capsule in the direction they wanted to go with small directional rockets. This is how they got into a proper descending orbit. The space capsule then gradually descended until it reached the earth's lower atmosphere whereupon it released a parachute to descend the rest of the way, softly landing in the ocean where they were rescued by America's navy.

We must have seen moving pictures of these parachute descents and "splashdowns" a zillion times. The media and the government talked about it constantly. This is the way it is done on earth.

The Problem

About the actual technical details concerning the moon landing the commentators were a bit more hazy. Moon landings are tricky, to say the least. In theory, it is easier to land on far away Mars than to land on the nearby moon. The reason is that Mars has an atmosphere which might allow parachutes to be used to land, just like they are used when landing on Earth.

1 A further 10 astronauts traveled to the moon in another six missions with the final manned lunar landing, Apollo 17, completed in December 1972.

The moon is different. It has no atmosphere and so another method of landing had to be found. This is the part the commentators get vague. Exactly, how did the astronauts get down to the surface of the moon safely?

The Plan

The plan was made to launch a moon rocket which would go into orbit around the moon. This orbiting moon platform would then launch a smaller rocket-powered capsule which would descend to the moon's surface.

The Pictorial Record

There are moving pictures showing practice space rockets taking off into space. We are told that they orbited earth several times, and then, there are pictures of these same space rockets descending by parachute and subsequently splashing down into the ocean. These pictures are complete with helicopters buzzing about and boats standing by to rescue the space voyagers. Each was a media event.

But, this is the hard part; you can't use a parachute when landing on to the moon's surface because a parachute won't work when there is no air. Takeoffs and landings on earth are one thing; takeoffs and landings on the airless moon present another set of problems.

The big question is - how do you land on the moon?

Special Requirements

Moon landings require special equipment, special techniques, and no margin for error. A rocket landing on the moon is almost the exact reverse of a takeoff on earth. Picture a moving picture of a rocket taking off from earth - except in reverse. The moving picture would show a rocket plunging tailfirst toward the earth, at thousands of miles an hour. Then, at the precise moment it begins to fire its rockets to slow down. The lower the rocket the greater the blast until the speed of the rocket is precisely slowed from hundreds of miles per hour to zero the instant it touches ground. Touchy to say the least.

Weather conditions must also be taken into consideration. Dense atmospheres can upset firing calculations; wind storms might topple a descent; uneven landing areas; countless items could spell disaster.

The fact is, except for the TV and movies, I have never seen a movie claiming to show a space rocket landing tail first. I have seen "splashdowns". I have seen countless pictures of recent "space gliders" landing without power like ordinary aeroplanes, but, never have I seen a news broadcast of a space rocket descending on a column of fire and making a soft landing - which would be critical to the safety of its crew.

That isn't to say that they haven't been any such "retro-rocket" landings, I just haven't seen any. It would seem that it would be a media-event that politicians would love boast about - at the least to justify the spending of billions of tax-payers dollars on the project.

Doubting Thomases

No sooner had the moon event taken place than a handful of critics stepped forward to point out that in certain pictures supposedly taken on the moon, shadows of objects fall in different directions. Others mention the absence of stars in moon shots - only a coal black sky. In the absence of an atmosphere, stars are theoretically gigantic. Others mentioned that pictures taken in airless conditions should result in blinding white light - moon shots were like ordinary pictures taken on earth.

Such doubts were mentioned briefly at the time and after that brief mention were never debated or aired again on TV or the national media so far as I can remember.

Other Considerations

The original plan was to launch a rocket that was to establish a stable orbit around the moon which was to act as a platform from which still another rocket was to be launched which was to descend to the moon's surface.

Except for the original moon landing reports, I haven't heard of any such space platform circling the moon. Relatively recent attempts to establish a stable space platform circling Earth have met with countless problems - each of which have been reported in detail and have received abundant media coverage. But, I have seen no similar reports of difficulties in establishing a moon orbiting space platform.

Reservations

1) There is a media blackout directed against moon landing doubters. That in itself is worthy of comment.

2) Efforts to build space stations orbiting our own Earth have been plagued with problems and they still haven't gotten one working smoothly. But, the media tells us that back in 1969, America's space program established not only established an orbiting space station, but established it to circle the distant moon. It was a space station so stable that it was able to launch a smaller rocket that carried three men to the moon and retrieved it safely.

3) Judging from my TV, there appears to be no retro-rocket testing presently taking place. Further, I can remember no successful retro-rocket testing taking place in the now distant 1960s. How does one descend from a moon orbiting space station to the airless surface of the moon without using retro-rockets? Perhaps there is an answer, but the knowledgeable people I talk with don't know or just won't tell me.

Lastly, it's been almost four decades. The first landing was 1969 - the last 1973. There have been seven missions and we are told that 12 astronauts actually landed. In 1998 NASA gave up. President Bush now says that the US will launch a moon expedition in 2015. China says that they will try to put a man on the moon 20 years from now.

Why so long? Why not just repeat the process that put American astronauts on the moon in the first place. It must be fool-proof or they wouldn't have risked the lives of the 12 they sent there.

Conclusion

In 1935, I saw Flash Gordon land on the moon. In 1969, I saw the whole thing happen all over again. I had no doubts about the 1935 landing, and only a few in 1969. I thought surely there would be mining colonies established there by now. I even thought that other planets would be visited and maybe settled.

But, of course, I'm no longer 7 years old, and have even started questioning "9-11" and "weapons of mass destruction".

YEARLY HOSKINS REPORTS On DVD

People interested in the struggle of our Saxon nation to survive, current events, and the ongoing S. African bloodbath have ordered back issues of Hoskins Report Newsletters.

Often, today's censorship has caused the back issues to be the only source of such information. This ongoing demand has depleted our stock of many issues.

Our solution has been to convert back issues of Hoskins Report into book-form organized by the year; 2006, 2005, 2004, and so on.

Each book has been put on DVD diskettes which can be viewed on your computer and will consist of a year of twelve chapters with pages numbered from page 1 to 200-300 depending on the year.

Each DVD can be read on your computer like any other book; each will have a table of contents and an index.

A touch of your computer mouse can enlarge or reduce the pages, take one instantly to the table of contents in the front or the index in the back.

In the index one can find whatever subject is being researched. A touch of the mouse takes you instantly to the desired page.

The titles to the yearly Hoskins Reports on DVDs are taken from one of the issues in that year.

They are easy to store, mail, are portable and can be available for use as tomorrow's events unfold.

The following containing a year's Hoskins Reports on DVD are now available:

2000 - Year 2000, $12;

2001 - How To Shoot A Pistol, $12;

2002 - Black Sniper, $12;

2003 - Iraq Attack, $12;

2004 - America Through Chinese Eyes, $12;

2005 - Hounds Of Hell, $24;

2006 - The 2nd Va Cav & Latham's Battery, $24

UNFILTERED NEWS

GERMAR RUDOLF, author, publisher and chemist, after a 4-month trial in Mannheim was sentenced to two and a half years in prison for publishing an article based on his forensic examination of the alleged gas chambers at Auschwitz-Birkenau which concluded that for a variety of technical reasons they could not have been used for executions.

DAVID E. LANE: Member of The ORDER who coined the "14-Words" - "We must secure the existence of our people and a future for White children" - died in prison. "Defiance Unto Death", Order motto.

HAMMER & SICKLE: Russia's Parliament has voted to restore the Communist era hammer and sickle to the official flag of the Russian Army. The McAlvany Intelligence Advisor

BLOOD LIBEL: Ariel Toaff, son of Rabbi Elio Toaff, holds that from the 12th through the 16th centuries, crucifixion of Christian children by Jews really happened, prompting furiously punitive retaliations against entire Jewish communities. A report about Toff's book prompted "Historian Gives Credence to Blood Libel," published in the Israeli daily Jerusalem Post, Feb 7/8, 2007. (IHR Update, p.5, Summer 2007)

INCOME: Outsourcing has contributed to the stagnation in men's incomes. According to census bureau figures adjusted for inflation, men in their 30s in 2004 had a median income of about $35,000 per year - a drop of 12% compared with $40,000 a year for men in the same age group in 1974. (IHR Update, p.3, Summer 2007)

DISCRIMINATION: New Orleans DA violated the civil rights of dozens of white employees when he fired them after taking office in 2003 and replacing them with black workers. (The News, p.2, Aug 16, 2007)

ED: Saxons will one day learn that the cartel can replace them with strangers in both government and corporate jobs whenever they like and have the decision enforced by the U.S. government and all its might.

ENGLAND: A son of former Ugandan dictator Idi Amin was sentenced to 5-years in jail for his role in a London gang attack that left a man dead. (Investor's Business Daily, p.2, Aug 6, 2007)

TAMMY FAYE BAKKER (1942-2007): Tamara Faye LaValley grew up in International Falls, Minn. Later, she entered N. Central Bible College where she met Jim Bakker. They were married in 1961 & preached throughout the South. Pat Robertson brought them into his fledgling Christian Broadcasting Network. They left to form the PTL Club. PTL raked in about $1 million a day. In 1987, it emerged that Jim Bakker had paid $265,000 hush money to a church secretary, Jessica Hahn, following their extramarital affair. It soon followed that Bakker had stolen more than $3 million and squandered donations on luxuries. Bakker was sentenced to 45 years in prison. Following their divorce in 1989, Tammy Faye became addicted to tranquilizers. In 1993 she married Roe Messner, a former business associate who was himself imprisoned for fraud 3 years later. In 1996 she starred in the Jim J. and Tammy Faye Show with the openly homosexual

Jim J. Bullock - forging a bond with the sodomite community. She died of colon cancer at 65. (Story in The WEEK)

AIDS: HIV is spreading too fast for treatment programs to keep up. Worldwide about 40m people have HIV; that figure is expected to reach 60m by 2015. (WEEK, p.7, Aug 3, 2007)

CRIME REPORTING: Crime statistics in S. Africa are hopelessly under-reported because many victims do not report crimes, especially rape. The general consensus is that rapes are five times higher than reported. Everyone seems to forget that the present violent criminality was started by the ANC itself before 1994, when they actively encouraged necklacing atrocities (attaching a burning tire to a living victim), burning down schools and burning policemen alive in their homes, screaming "kill the Boer, kill the farmer." The government has "de-racialized" crime stats, to try and hide the identity of the true perpetrators. A time bomb is ticking. (Story in Citizen, July 6, 2007)

DOG MEAT: Radical new plans are being drawn up that will affect how animals are ritually slaughtered and whether dogs can be eaten. A policy document of the Department of Agriculture is looking at revising laws on the treatment of animals from pets and livestock to circus animals and racehorses. The plan includes subscribing to international standards that dogs will be considered an "edible species". (Sunday Times, July 8, 2007, S. Africa)

ALCOHOLIC: Nearly one in three Americans is an alcoholic or has experienced personal or job problems because of excessive drinking, according to a new survey by the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism. Only a quarter of those with alcohol problems seek treatment. (Newsday)

TATTOOS: Some 17% of people with tattoos now say they regret their decision. This has given rise to a new service: tattoo removal. Eight recommended treatments can cost several thousand dollars and leave behind white spots.

RKH: "Ye shall not ... print any marks upon you: I am the Lord." Lev 19:28; "You shall not ... inscribe any marks upon you." Lev 19:28 (From the Ancient Eastern Text); "You shall not make tattooings on your flesh." Lev 19:28 (Ferrar Fenton); "Ye fhall not ... make any print of a marke vpon you." Lev XIX:XXVIII (Geneva Bible).

Followers of the WORD avoid using tattoos (Lev 19:28), shaving their heads, letting their hair grow long (Ez 44:22), using strong drink (Isaiah 28:7; Pr 31:4-5), fornication (1 Co 6:9; Jubilees 33:18) and abusing their bodies in other ways since their bodies are the temple of the Lord (1 Co 6:19) and not their own.

Joseph Franklin was identified by a nurse in a hospital because of a tattoo.

DROUGHT: It started in 1999 and now covers 1/3 of the country. Parts of 11 Western states hardest hit are receiving only 20% normal rainfall. The volume of the Colorado River - a vital water source for 30 million people - has fallen by half. Melting mountain snowpacks that replenishes rivers and lakes were only 20% of the normal level this spring. Reservoirs are starting to dry up. "We've gone from moderate to severe drought, and we've jumped to extreme." According to climatologist Bill Patzert of NASA. (THE NEWS, June 29, 2007)

RUSSIA: Nearly half of Russian men who die between age 25 and 54 are killed by alcohol. The London Guardian reported that "men and women drink in Russia because they have nothing to live for." Russia's birthrate has dropped to 1.2 children per couple.

GIRLS ABORTED: An Indian man is charged with aborting female fetuses. Abortion is legal but abortion based on the sex of the fetus was outlawed in 1994. In many regions of India only 800 girls are born for every 1,000 boys. Indian parents prefer boys because girls are expensive to marry off. (Story NEWS,p.9, June 29, 2007)

HACKERS: According to a November, 2006 article in the Washington Times - Chinese computer hackers penetrated the Naval War College network, forcing authorities to shut down all e-mail and official network activities of the Navy School for Senior Officers.

FAILED STATES: Twenty states were designated "failed states" by the Carnegie Endowment for Internal Peace; the U.S. Fund for Peace; and the CIA, including Afghanistan, Burundi, Dominican Republic, Guinea, Iraq, Colombia, N. Korea, Sierra Leone, Somalia, Chad, Bangladesh, the DRC, Ivory Coast, Haiti, Yemen, Liberia, Ruanda, Zimbabwe, Sudan, Central African Republic. (Phoenix 1/2007)

ESAU RULES: As late as 2005, Mugabe vowed to keep grabbing land until there was "not a single white on the farms". Rhodesia, used to export vast quantities of agricultural products is now on the brink of starvation. Mugabe is now offering 99-year leases to white farmers willing to return.

AFRICOM: The U.S. Pentagon is quietly developing their Africa Command (AFRICOM) "which will oversee strategic developments and military operations across the entire African continent." IMPACT ABOMINATION: Christian activists disrupted a Hindu clergyman as he tried to deliver the morning prayer in the U.S. Senate with shouts of "This is an abomination!" and "No lord but Jesus Christ!" Three members of a Christian group, Operation Save America/Operation Rescue were led away in handcuffs.

SCANDAL: Los Angeles Roman Catholic Archdiocese agreed to pay $660 million to 508 people who were sexually abused by local clergymen as children. By settling, the archdiocese avoided a trial that would have forced Cardinal Roger Mahony to testify under oath about his role in transferring pedophile priests from one parish to another, and covering up their crimes. (THE WEEK, p.3, July 27, 2007)

SERBIA: Tomislav Nikolic, ally of the late President Slobodan Milosevic who died under mysterious circumstances while held captive by EU, has been elected speaker. Muslims have gradually occupied most of formerly Orthodox Kosovo. If muslims attempt to become independent Milosevic threatens intervention.

HOLOCAUST DENIAL OUTLAWED: The 27 E.U. members have agreed to make denying the Holocaust punishable by a jail term. Punishment; three years in prison for "denying or grossly trivializing crimes of genocide, crimes against humanity, and war crimes." The only genocides that fall under the statutes of the International Criminal Court, and the Rwandan genocide, are covered. The massacre of Armenians in WWI, Stalin's slaughter of millions, Britain's slaughter of S. African women and children, the slaughter of 9-million Germans following WWII, and collateral damage that resulted from numerous American interventions in other countries are not covered.

TERRORIST: Juis Posada Carriles, 79, former CIA operative wanted in the 1976 bombing of a Cuban airliner that killed 73 people is now out of prison having posted $250,000 bail. Born in Cuba, he worked for Batista regime's secret police, informing on Castro loyalists. Trained at the notorious U.S. Army's School of the Americas in Georgia, his exploits include bombing Cuban embassies around the world and organizing the sale of drugs to purchase Iranian weapons for the Nicaraguan contras. The U.S. has refused to extradite Posada to Venezuela, where he holds citizenship to stand trial for the crimes. The White House is simply "not about to allow one of its own terrorists to face justice." (Editorial, La Jornada, The WEEK, p.22, May 4, 2007)

POLICE STATE: According to information obtained by the Virginia Taxpayers Association, Project Echelon run by the National Security Agency, has a major station and giant antenna arrays at Sugar Grove, West Virginia, which listens to all telephone calls and monitors all private computer transmissions. Even Stalin's harsh communist state did not have such sophisticated surveillance over everyone. Yet, not a single member of Congress has objected to this police state, which is already in existence. PERFECT MASTERS

Religion Of Death

Most Hindu Gods are black and most Hindu devils are white. When one dies he is immediately reborn in the body of an animal or even a God - depending on his deeds while living. Most Hindus believe that the extinction of all life on earth is necessary if this evil age is to end and a new-age of "goodness" is to be born. They believe that the existence of the white devil prevents this. Once the white devil is removed the present evil age will end with the extinction of life and a good new age will be born.

The Prime Directive

Each species has its own laws. Laws of species differ. Cows eat grass and lions eat meat. If lions can be taught to eat grass and cows taught to eat meat - both will die. If man can be made Lawless, he will die.

To bring about this condition, a prime directive was issued by India's King Asoka the Great (304 B.C. - 232 B.C.).

> "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka.

That's it! It's just that simple.

Toleration of other Gods is to tolerate their Laws. Man's Law states that if he tolerates other Gods - his own God will kill him.[1] A nation's birth rate is an indicator of its obedience. The laws of one alien nation in our midst addresses this directly.[2]

Buddhism

Asoka's "prime directive" needed a vehicle that would be accepted by peoples worldwide. He found it in the teachings of Buddha. Buddhism is a system of conduct and mind control. It advises against lying, cheating, and stealing, and advises its followers to obey their rulers, but it has nothing

1 LAW: "When ye have ... gone and served other gods ... the anger of the Lord be kindled against you and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given you." Joshua 23:16

2 Christian birth rate must be diminished materially. Zohar (II,62b) like the Biblical teachings of the doctrine of man, sin, salvation and the resurrection. It has no God.

Most Buddhist teachings are simple everyday common sense, and as such are are considered by many to be the most moral of all teachings - next to Christianity.

Since Buddhism has no god, its teachings can be attached to any religion by a practice of mental self-discipline called "Yoga". Good moral instruction plus the admonition to obey one's ruler is received with open arms by rulers worldwide. When combined with the Prime Directive it destroys opposition to one's natural enemies and allows kings to increase their empires.

Dharma

The simple prime directive is called "Dharma". Any religion plus "Dharma" becomes HINDU.

King Asoka formalized Buddhism; he issued the "prime directive", and he organized teacher-missionaries called "Dharmamatras" to insert Dharma into the separate religions of the world.

He said;

> "In the past there were no officers charged with spreading Dharma. I created these posts in the 13th year of my reign. These officers are commissioned to work with all sects in establishing and promoting Dharma." The Edicts of Asoka, Rock Edict V, p.58, Edicts Of Asoka, Trans. by N.A. Nikam & Richard Mckeon, Univ Chicago, 1959

Ecclesiastical Government

Dharmamatras were the invisible storm troops of Asoka's world empire - an empire created by mind- control.

Asoka's grandfather, a wealthy but militarily weak ruler, used Greek soldiers to conquer separatist rebel states in northern India. The Greeks were paid with the wealth looted from the rebel states they overran. When the Greeks accomplished their job they returned home after delivering the conquered states to their new ruler.

Besides the great wealth they had obtained, the Greeks left India infected with Dharma. Dharmamatras went with them. Upon arriving in the Greek lands they helped recreate the Greek Gods into "Greek-Hindu" Gods - all retaining their Greek names.

> "King Antiochus (the Greek king) wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, And every one should leave his laws: so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king. Yea, many also of the Israelites consented to his religion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the sabbath.
> "To the end thy might forget the law, and change all the ordinances. And whosoever would not do according to the commandment of the king, he should die. ... then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit, every one that forsook the law...
> And when they had rent in pieces the books of the Law which they found, they burnt them with fire. And whosoever was found with any book of the testament, or if any consented to the law, the king's commandment was, that they should put him to death." Macc 1:41-57.

Asoka's Bequest

Asoka's plan of world conquest was immediately successful because he financed it with everything he had. He bequeathed all his worldly wealth to the religious organization he worked for. The bequest reads in part;

> "This earth enwrapped by the ocean in its glorious sapphire garment, this land whereof the face is adorned with many jewels and gems; this soil sustaining all creatures and Mount Madura ... all of this I bequeath to the Assembly of Saints." The Edicts of Asoka, N.A. Nikam & Richard McKeon, Univ Chic Press, 1959, p. 136

In this manner an unknowing world with all its peoples, including you and me, were given to a religious organization to rule.

Dharma Education

To train his "Dharmamatra" teacher-missionaries, King Asoka "transferred 1000 million gold pieces to the monastery of Kukkutarama and to their missionary work."[3]

These priests, vaguely known as "the Saints", were given the entire world. Their sole duty was to spread "Dharma" - "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed."

Those selected to enter this elite group spent up to 15 years in their studies. They were taught the language, customs, and religion of the land where they were to be sent.

3 ASOKA THE GREAT India's Royal Missionary, by Emil Lengyel, ©1969, p.134, Franklin Watts, Inc, 575 Lexington Ave, NY NY 10022

4 MAN - Heb: adam - those that blush rosy, Strong's Concordance; ("Son- of-man" - son of those who blush rosy).

They were given the temple's unlimited wealth with which to buy rulers and priests. In time, lands conquered by Dharma supported themselves and produced their own wealth through the imported monetary system called "usury".[5]

The result of teaching the Hindu prime directive that demands tolerance of things unlawful has caused man to close his eyes to God's LAW. Ignoring God's law blinds man to the cliffs in his path.[6]

The Trail Of The Dharmamatras

As soon as the Dharmamatras arrived in the West with Asoka's prime directive they immediately began tearing at the foundations of Christendom.

Nothing escaped their notice. When I was growing up, the following was the rule regarding children:

> ""He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes." Pr 13:24; "Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying." Pr 19:18; "Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him." Prov 22:15."

5 USURY: A contract fraudulent in its conception - where a victim is persuaded to repay 11 items when only 10 of those items exist. Repayment can only be made by negotiating a new contract where an 11th item is borrowed and more collateral is required. History calls usury "the ultimate deception". It empties the countryside, creates both the city and super-state, and creates kings, police, taxes, hucksters, and a corrupt priesthood to protect the monopoly. A capital crime under Biblical law. (Ezek 18:13)

6 MAN - Heb: adam - those that blush rosy, Strong's Concordance; ("Son- of-man" - son of those who blush rosy).

Correcting Children

Older readers remember the time when the antics of my almost teenage daughter Rebecca made our family trip to New York miserable. 'Teen logic told her that having people around protected her from parental correction.

In the lobby of the Waldorf-Astoria she tried some outrageous shenanigan that was the straw that broke the camel's back. Right there I made her assume the position, and gave her the required number of whacks with my belt. After a moment of silence, onlookers applauded. She was good as gold for the rest of the trip.

New Dharmamatra taught laws would cause one's arrest for disciplining a disobedient child. We first tolerated dharma and now have dharma-law. Hindu reasoning isn't the same as ours,

> "Hindu children are always treated with great respect and awe, for one does not always know who they are. They may be incarnations of a grandmother, grandfather, aunt or uncle, dearly beloved mother, sister, brother, respected father, a yogi or rishi returned to flesh to help humankind spiritually. ..."Subramuniyaswami, Sivaya: WWW. Hinduism Today

Evolution

Evolution is basic to Hinduism. In Virginia during the 1600s teaching evolution was banned. Today it is accepted as fact. If you believe evolution you can accept the following;

> "The worm of today is the God of tomorrow." Swami Vive Kananda

Sodomites

Only a few years ago sodomites were as rare as hens' teeth. Now they are a protected species. The WORD says, "There shall be no ... sodomite of the sons of Israel." Deut 23:7; Dharmamatras bring a different law;

> "Alone among the major world religions, Buddhism does not condemn homosexuality or premarital sex." The Alyson Almanac, Church Policies on Gay Concerns, pp 234-239.

The Quandary

The problem with obeying "Dharma's" prime directive, "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed", is that in the process of being tolerant of other religions and races one must be tolerant of their Gods - and there are a lot of them. India alone has 200,000,000 gods. Each god has his own distinctive law system. This means that there are potentially 200,000,000 plus law systems in the world. The potential for chaos resulting from conflicting laws is unlimited. However, the Hindu solution was presented long ago.

The Perfect Master

Most people are too busy to find out all there is to know about Gods, so they rely on specialists. These specialists, in theory, spend their lives studying Gods and what is right and what is wrong. After this ordeal, they have made a careful selection of necessary laws gathered from the various Gods that will make lives better and easier. In India these people are called "Perfect Masters". They use different names in the West but their function is the same.

There are certain things that one must know. "In India the perfect Masters are referred to as Saints."[7]

Remember that Asoka turned the wealth of India over to "saints"? There's more we can learn about perfect Masters;

> "Since all perfect Masters are sons of God and one with God it follows that this is true of the living perfect Masters of today. If we want God, we should seek him there; and if we want to worship God, we should worship Him in them. There is no other living form of God in the world today than the person of the perfect Master and consequently God cannot be worshipped directly here in any other way than by worshiping the Master."[8]

I really hope you understand and remember the above. The individual perfect Master has replaced God and is a God on earth whom we are to worship. There is no need for the Law of The WORD, the Law of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob when we have perfect Masters. In our lifetimes we have witnessed public policy concerning disciplining children, sodomites, and evolution change from the LAW of The WORD to the myriad laws of Hinduism. We know that the Dharma brought by Dharmamatras is initially to blame, but who teaches and spreads this blasphemy?

It is the perfect Master.

Who is this person?

He is the one whose opinions you see in the newspaper, hear on TV, read in the insider newsletter - he is the one who twists the thinking of children in college; who casually take the country to war - and who stands behind the pulpit on Sunday and gives his opinion without proof from the Laws of God The WORD.

These pretended wise-men GIVE NO AUTHORITY FOR THEIR WISDOM. They expect people to believe what they say because they said it and that makes it so.

The perfect Master doesn't need the guidance of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob because the speaker is a perfect Master. He has consulted the Gods, absorbed their wisdom, and is a God on Earth.

Conclusion

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

The ANC wants to flatten the concentration camp cemetery in Krugersdorp and build a black squatter camp on top. They have their eyes on the Paardekraal Monument where the Boers came together to pray before the first Anglo-Boer war.

Krugersdorp already has a black name. They don't want one Voortrekker name to remain.[9] Pretoria is even worse. Apart from changing the name they want to remove the Kruger Monument and replace it with one of Mandela. England must find all this a great joy. No wonder Mandela's statue now stands in front of Parliament in London.

The black government of Zimbabwe destroyed the white farms and now the entire country is on the verge of starvation. Some of our neighbors took food to Zimbabwe's starving animals only to find their owners starving also.

It seems that at long last some institutions and churches have gotten together and now make regular trips to help starving elderly Rhodesian whites.

More Afrikaners are starting their own schools. We are thankful for that. It was the same after the Anglo-Boer war. Now, there are no Afrikaners in parliament to give us help.

With best wishes and thanks to your subscribers for all they are doing. K.J.

DEATH PENALTY: The vast majority of Europeans disapprove of the death penalty practiced in the United States. This indicates the degree of Hindu influence present. Hindu-

Chapter 398

THE SERPENTS REACH

Law

People have Gods.

Gods have law systems.

A God's followers follow their God's law system.

Christendom has the WORD. "He showed his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them." Ps 147:19-20

Where lawlessness rules - the teaching of the WORD is instantly controversial:

The Encyclopedia Britannica, 14th Edition, Vol 5, p. 635 reads:

> "Very early, Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law."

The re-introduction of The WORD created no end of trouble for the many Gods of the Roman Empire and their many law systems. Christian law forbade having kings, usury, monopoly, and strangers in the land. If not suppressed it would have dissolved the Roman Empire. The Roman solution was to make their emperor a God and mediator over all the different religious law systems, including Christianity, and punish all who would not obey the emperor.

Modern day America has the same problem as did Rome. There are Biblical Law, Catholic Canon Law, Episcopal Canon Law, Jewish Talmudic Law, Islamic Sharia Law, State Law - which is called Hindu Trade Law or Admiralty Trade Law.

Which will rule?

Constitution Protected

Some have wondered why I seem casual about the protections provided by the Constitution. Many forget that Patrick Henry and many other greats of the Revolutionary Period were also skeptical about adopting the document as law - and for good reason. Here's what I found in The World Book, 1928.

Dartmouth

"In 1769 King George III signed a charter for Dartmouth College, named in honor of its chief patron. ..."

"Dartmouth College Case, was one of the most important cases ever decided by the Supreme Court of the United States. The court held that a charter granted by a state was a contract, and that any attempt by the state to alter it was unconstitutional, because 'no state shall .... pass any .... law imparing the obligation of contracts' (Constitution of the United States, Art. I, Sec. 10).

"The case arose from a religious and political struggle for the control of the college. The state legislature had amended the charter by adding eleven new trustees to outvote the old members of the board, but the latter, with Daniel Webster for attorney, carried the case to the Supreme Court. The decision was handed down by Chief Justice Marshall in 1819." (THE WORLD BOOK, VOL 3, p.1705, W.F. QUARRIE & CO, CHICAGO, 1928)

The above contract was made by Great Britain, before there was a United States, and before there was a Constitution. Yet, we find that we must obey laws and contracts that we had no hand in creating - and there are hundreds, if not thousands of other unknown private contracts that are binding on us to this day - contracts that are mysteries until the day they are enforced.

The Constitution

Let's take a peek at the Constitution and see how the case of West Virginia came about.

The Constitution reads;

> "No new State shall be formed or erected within the Jurisdiction of any other State." Constitution Of The United States, Article IV, Section 3:

That seems clear. However, in 1861, when the War Between the States broke out, the Union army immediately invaded the western part of Virginia and declared it to be a separate state. They can't do that! - can they?

The Gift

Later I ran across the rest of the story;

> "The British ministry between the years 1769 and 1774 had formulated very definite plans to take away all the territory of Virginia west of the tops of the Alleghany Mountains. ... the Walpole Company was to create a new province called Vandalia which was to cover practically almost the whole of the present state of West Virginia. ... the proclamation creating the Province of Vandalia had been prepared and was ready for public announcement by the king before the end of 1774. But, in the judgment of the privy council, the disturbed conditions of affairs in America, and especially in Virginia, rendered it unwise for the announcement to be made until quieter times should come. ..." Virginia's Mother Church, Vol II, George Maclaren Brydon, DD, 1952, p. 136. Also see (The Ohio Company of Virginia and the Westward Movement, pp. 237, et. seq.)

Well, that was what was done. The Charter was made between 1769 and 1774. In 1819, the United States Supreme Court declared that such private grants were legal and could not be tampered with. In 1861, the transfer was made and enforced by Lincoln's invading army. So, the Walpole Company got its Vandalia and named it "West Virginia".

The stripping away of West Virginia from Virginia is illegal according to the Constitution. It is not illegal according to the legal theory of private contracts confirmed by Chief Justice John Marshall's court in 1819.

Which Law?

All this raises a question; which law system did the transfer of Vandalia (W. Virginia) take place - under Biblical Law, Catholic Canon Law; Episcopal Canon Law; Jewish Talmudic Law; Islamic Sharia Law or State law which is called Hindu Trade Law or Admiralty Trade Law? Or, none of the above.

On the surface the answer is simple: it was the British king, the head of the Anglican Church who made the contract.[1]

Our forefathers met and put together a contract called The Constitition to satisfy the people. However, except for the "Hoorah!" - the contract was simply "eye-wash". The Constitution can and is twisted to enforce unknown contracts created by unknown people in bygone eras according to concealed law-systems - if sufficient force is available to make the change.

Simple Choice

People make fatal choices; groups, organizations and countries make fatal choices. The world is filled with the ruins of empires that self-destructed. What can one expect in a world filled with unknown contracts, plots, schemes, and plans. Each is potentially a deadly land-mine. There is only one choice that has allowed man to survive, and it's not man-made - it's The WORD that was in the beginning. Obey and live - disobey and you will die.

1 This opens a can of worms. Does Anglican Canon Law recognize contracts made under Catholic Canon Law before there was Anglican Canon Law? Does Catholic Canon Law recognize contracts made under Greek and Hindu law before there was Catholic Canon Law? What are those contracts?

> "How long will you waver between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him, but if Baal is God, follow Him." I Kings 18:21

The second critical point is derived from the first:

Only Two Races

Isaac had two sons, Jacob and Esau.

God said, "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." Ro 9:13; The WORD says "Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41.

Esau married strangers and his descendants spread their blood worldwide during their countless migrations. Esau's descendants invaded China, India and sent his merchant-traders through the furthest reaches of Africa. When one faces a Chinese, Indian, Black, Eskimo, or Jew, one sees only one race in its many guises - a mixed breed descendant of Esau-but always it is Esau.

Since The WORD states;

> "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." Deu 23:2

This means that there are two races on earth; the children-of-Jacob and the children-of-Esau - the very same Esau who swore that he would kill his brother Jacob.

The Result Of Disobedience

The WORD is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The WORD instructed his people to have no dealings with the sons of Esau. Success comes only with obedience. Disobedience can be fatal:[2]

Germany's Honorary Aryan

Germany lost WWI. The German state was seized and dismembered. The sons-of-Esau swarmed in, divided its wealth and "privatized" it into the hands of international corporations.

The racial policy of Hitler's Germany was separation, or "repatriation". No integration - no friction. Germans who found themselves trapped in other countries due primarily to the conquest and division of Germany were returned to Germany and aliens living in Germany were repatriated to their own people. In this way Germans were returned from Eastern Europe and Slavs were returned to Slavic lands and Jews were sent to Palestine.[3]

However, there were certain Jews who, because of their proclaimed expertise in certain fields, were allowed to remain in Germany as "honorary Aryans". One such was Erhard Milch.

Field-Marshal Erhard Milch

The following was extacted from the Wickipedia:

> "Milch was born in Wilhelmshaven to a Jewish father and a German mother ...."

2 "When (Israel) departed from the way which God appointed them, they were destroyed." Judeth 5:18

3 Transfer Agreement, Edwin Black, Va Pub Co, POB 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, $18.

> "Following the defeat of France, Milch was promoted to field-marshal (Generalfeldmarschall) and given the title Air Inspector General. Milch was put in charge of the production of planes during this time, and his many mistakes were key to the loss of German air superiority as the war progressed. Due to changing the designs and aircraft requirements frequently, manufacturers like Messerschmitt were unable to focus on aircraft output. Germany produced fewer than 5,000 planes during 1942, whereas Russia increased its aircraft production to over 40,000, leading to a change of superiority on the Eastern Front." Wikipedia

Over the opposition of some of Germany's greatest combat pilots, Milch chose the Focke Wolf 190 as the standard German fighter over the vastly superior and revolutionary Messerschmidt 262, a heavily armed jet fighter, 100-150 mph faster than anything the allies were able to develop during the entire war. In the opinion of many, if the Me 262 jet had been chosen earlier instead of the FW 190, Germany would have won the war. The question will always be asked - was Milch's choice a simple mistake, or was it the eternal instinct of Esau to destroy Jacob.

Hitler's choosing a son-of-Esau to lead the Luftwaffe cost Germany the war and Hitler his life.[4]

George Lincoln Rockwell

In the 1950s, while I was working for the Defenders, I drove to Newports News to see Bill Stephenson, the remarkable young editor of a conservative monthly newspaper called "The Virginian".

---

4 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

While visiting, a tall quiet man walked through the room carrying an armfull of papers. Bill introduced us. His name was Lincoln Rockwell.

After he had gone on about his business, Bill informed me that Rockwell had commanded a Navy squadron of Aircraft during WWII and had received 9 decorations. He was strongly anti-communist, as were most people at that time, but the establishment ignored his existence and wouldn't let him speak. He was working at Bill's newspaper to learn the business.

The next time I heard of Lincoln Rockwell, he, and a few followers, were front-page news dressed-up in National Socialist uniforms. He had gotten on a soap-box somewhere in competition with a half-dozen other groups and his Nazi uniform was an attention grabber. He also had a body-guard around him whom he called his "storm troopers". These fellows would fight you at the drop of a hat if you were looking for a fight - and the red-front was always looking for a fight. The newspapers loved it.

His act got all the media attention. He was headlined as a real "crazy". People flocked to see the "crazy" decked out in a Nazi uniform.

Back then, while the country was anti-communist, the colleges favored pro-communist speakers to satisfy the demands of their corporate donors. To appear "even-handed" they invited an occasional right-winger. Lincoln Rockwell became a regular speaker on the college circuit.

Rockwell came to Lynchburg. The papers hammered the "Nazi" thing and the city armory was the only place in town large enough to hold all the people who wanted to see what a real live Nazi looked like.

Introductions were made, and a tall, well-groomed young man strode on stage. He was dressed in a double-breasted suit with a General MacArthur style pipe. His manner was calm and pleasant, his talk reasoned, and the audience gave him a standing ovation when he was finished. Rockwell had discovered an entryway into the world ruled by the cartel. He spoke at colleges all over the country.

To increase his personal following, Rockwell inlisted sons-of- Esau. A John Patler joined. He was formerly Yanacki Patsalos of Greek ancestry. Once in, he attempted to organize a coup against "blue eyed devils". Rockwell got rid of him.

Patler hid in ambush and assassinated Rockwell August 25, 1967. He received a short prison sentence and was paroled Aug 19, 1975.

"Lest they ... turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6

Hendrik Frensch Verwoerd (1901-1966)

Dr. Verwoerd was an intellectual, an accomplished writer and editor of "Die Transvaler" before becoming prime minister.

In 1958, as prime minister of South Africa, he helped enact the "Black Self-Government Act" to help black "Self-Development". He was also responsible for establishing colleges for the ongoing black "Homelands" project which had been started by the British back in 1910. It was all part of the "Separate Development" ideal that had taken hold in most Western countries.

The "Homelands" project was intended to allow the 7 different races of blacks in S. Africa to govern themselves. On May 31, 1961, Verwoerd led S. Africa out of the British Empire and formed a Republic. The British Empire looked on this as sedition and financed and helped train every anti-white South African conspiracy from that time on.

South Africa had changed since the Boer War. The indomitable Boer fighters who remained quietly faded away after their self- sufficient farms and flocks that had supported their families were destroyed by the British. Most were forced to work in towns which quickly grew into cities - like the American Southland.

International businesses, factories, and corporate farms took over. South African colleges became dependent on corporate and government grants and taught the ways of the sons-of-Esau to the children-of-Jacob. Alien corporations imported cheap black labor from the rest of Africa. By the millions they were imported to work in alien owned mines and factories and to compete with white labor.

A new affluent management class of whites rose who owed their wealth and status to these alien interests. To keep their positions, they gave them their allegiance - everyone except the working class whites and a handful of white intellectuals who had the wisdom to see their country being drowned in a sea of color. Verwoerd was one of these. He and his followers steadily led his country away from the smothering grasp of the International Trade Cartel.

On Sept 6, 1966, Verwoerd was stabbed to death by Dimitri Tsafendas, a parliamentary clerk of mixed Greek-mulatto ancestry. As incredible as it sounds - most Sons-of-Jacob living in South Africa were unable to identify a son-of-Esau who wasn't black. The murderer escaped death by using the insanity defense. The charge of "paid-assassin" was rejected by the court and Tsafendas has since been released - as is usual in these cases.

If separate "self-determination" for whites had been enforced as strongly as it was for black sons-of-Esau - one of them could not have been there to murder him.

The Order

Robert Jay Mathews (1953-1984) organized "The Order", with 7 members, on his farm in 1983. It's stated purpose "We must secure the existence of our people and a future for white children."

Like the Jewish revolutionaries in Poland in the 'teens before the Russian Revolution, they planned to take money from establishment sources to fund operations. Their targets were armored cars and banks. They also counterfeited money. Their income was given to "above" and "underground" organizations similar to Irish Republican Army operations. Each member received a nominal income with a large part distributed to distressed farmers.

Bob Mathews recruited Tom Martinez who betrayed him. Mathews was surrounded in his cabin on Whidby Island by up to 500 FBI agents who burned him alive. The date was Dec 8, 1984. Martinez later went on a nation-wide roadshow with Morris Dees of the Southern Poverty Law Center.

Robert J. Mathews' association with strangers cost him his life and the freedom of his followers.

Conclusion

Ghengis Khan and Joseph Stalin, both sons-of-Esau, are said to have been gentle and personable when it suited their purpose. When it didn't - they killed millions of the sons-of-Jacob.

There is no way to tell if a Black, Chinese or Indian son-of-Esau is actually the mild, reasonable, personable person that Esau's media and agents tell us they are. They could very well be another reincarnation of their fore-father who swore, "I will slay my brother Jacob."?

To be safe, one should first obey The WORD:

"If ye love me obey my commandments". John 14:15

And,

To stay safe one should note those who don't.

DAVID LANE: "Pastor Hoskins: David Lane was an Odinist. He doesn't deserve the respect given Bob Mathews, leader of The ORDER." D.D. - prisoner Florida

RKH: Actually, Odin was one of our ancestors, and quite a hero. Look at "Saxon Identity", #266. I think he is in our grandfather Charlemagne's line.

I have known scumbag "Odinists". I have known Odinists who were straight as arrows. They followed and taught the "Laws, Statutes, and Judgments 100 times better than most present day preachers who call themselves Christians and to whom the Law of God is a stranger.

Sampson was a long-haired scumbag who fornicated with a stranger who betrayed him. "By their acts ye shall know them." He is now one of our heroes. If having faith as little as that of a mustard seed will get one into heaven, David Lane is there - hands down - even if he called it "Valhalla".

PHILADELPHIA: "Hello Richard, I took the family to see more historical places this summer. We went to Philadelphia and Gettysburg. At the liberty bell the foreigners were lined up so long every day we could never see it. We felt like we were in a foreign land watching a conqueror displaying stolen war booty. Jacob has become the tail and has returned to Egyptian bondage." F.G. - Idaho

TAINTED BLOOD: A few years ago one of my children needed a transfusion. Family members lined up as volunteer donors. The doctors refused their blood because the hospital rule was that blood had to be sent 50 miles away to be processed before being administered. One had to take the blood stored on hand or do without.

It is now reported that stored blood loses some of its ability to deliver oxygen to the body, making transfusions dangerous. As soon as donated blood leaves the body, Duke University researchers found, it starts losing nitric oxide, a blood gas that opens small blood vessels and helps distribute oxygen. (The WEEK, p.20, Oct 26, 2007)

RKH: In the '30s, Dad made house calls. If a patient needed blood, Dad would find a family member with the right blood type and give the transfusion right there at home. I never heard of his ever having a problem with the transfusions. We've got a lot to re- learn.

IRAQ PUZZLE SOLVED

Iraq

The Iraqi tale has come together like pieces of a puzzle. Only one or two pieces are needed to complete the picture.

Iraq is a "country" - a NEW country carved from the Ottoman Empire by the victors of WWI.[1]

Three hostile groups - Kurds, Sunnis, and Shites - were bundled together and politicians drew a political border about them. Forcing hostile groups together causes strife. Strife requires a strong government to keep the peace.

Strong central governments are led by a strong-man who has sufficient money to equip an army strong enough to control the rest of the countries' inhabitants. The one furnishing the money to the strong-man is the king-maker and the actual ruler. Most countries are created in this manner - as potential powder-kegs - so that a strong ruler can be installed to rule them. Iraq is no exception.

1 COUNTRY: A country is a business franchise complete with national resources and workers. It is managed by a 3-caste system of king, priest, and merchant.

Other Near East countries created from the Ottoman Empire along the same lines were Palestine, Transjordan, Lebanon and Syria. Each was destabalized by integrating hostile elements within their borders, and each requires a strong government with a strong army and a rich king-maker standing unseen in the background.

The Suez Canal

An interesting piece of the puzzle is the Suez Canal. The Suez Canal is a profitable operation. It allows ships to quickly go from the Orient to Europe without having to sail the long route around Africa. Naturally, there is a hefty fee for ships using the canal's shorter route.

In the late-nineteenth century, European interests bought the canal from a spendthrift Egyptian ruler. After WWII, Egypt seized the Canal and claimed its fees as its own.

Immediately, the injured parties, England, France and Israel, mobilized an invasion force to retake the Canal. The U.S. stepped in and forbade the invasion. This permitted Egypt to keep the income from the Canal while denying that same income to Europe. Egypt became financially independent overnight.

Saudi Arabia's Oil

Another piece of the puzzle is Saudi Arabia. Saudi Arabia was also carved from the Ottoman Empire. Its basic assets were sand, camel drivers, and Western owned oil wells.

Saudi Arabia seized the oil wells. The United States quietly acquiesced, which was strange, considering that the U.S. was strong enough to have rounded up every Arab living there along with their camels and sent the lot to the North Pole.

Instead, it let them keep the oil income - thereby depriving Westerners the benefits derived from that income.

Overnight, "dirt-poor" Saudi Arabia became "super-rich". So rich, in fact, that she finances whatever happens in the Arab world and has enough left over to buy controlling interests in major American banks. Just so it is perfectly clear - the oil money that would have benefited the people of the West was given to Esau instead.

Abu Dhabi

Another piece: Abu Dhabi is on the coast of eastern Arabia. Until the middle of the 19th-century its main occupation consisted of camel trading, picking dates, growing vegetables at oases and fishing and pearl diving in season. Its people lived in huts made of palm fronds and the wealthy lived in mud huts.

In 1958 oil was found.

In 1971, the United Kingdom announced its withdrawal and turned the oil wealth over to the desert children of Esau - wealth that had been destined to benefit the people of Great Britain. Now, instead of palm frond shelters and mud huts - banks, boutiques and modern high-rises stand.

Several nearby Arab tribes agreed to form their own little enclaves. This done, they united into what is called the United Arab Emirates. Thus far, the borders of this brand new country still have not been definitely decided upon.

Abu Dhabi has now grown into a city, the richest city per capita in the world. The average citizen's worth is estimated at $17 million dollars. Also, the city has formed an investment corporation which owns assets all over the world.

Citigroup is the largest US bank and the largest corporation in the world measured by assets. It has been particularly hard hit by the deflation of the US housing market. To provide a temporary solution, the bank arranged a deal with the Abu Dhabi Investment Authority (ADIA). In exchange for $7.5 billion, Citigroup. will exchange equity units convertible into shares in the company within the next four years. At the end of the period, ADIA will be the largest single shareholder of Citigroup, with up to 4.9 percent ownership.

ADIA's share of Citigroup will then exceed that of the current largest shareholder, Prince Al Waleed bin Talal of Saudi Arabia, who purchased 3.6 percent of the company at the time of its last major financial crisis in 1991.

For those who may be a bit slow with puzzles - this lets Esau control the largest bank in the U.S., which means, the children-of-Jacob who are the bank's debtors are Esau's servants.[2]

Kosovo

We next move to Europe. Long ago Islam invaded Serbia and a great battle was fought between Muslims and Christians. The Muslims won and occupied Kosovo.

Kosovo had been part of Yugoslavia. When Yugoslavia began to disintegrate, Kosovian Orthodox-Christians attempted to drive away the Islamic invader population and re-take the country for themselves.

On the orders of America's president, the U.S. stepped in. It didn't step in to help its kindred Christian peoples; instead, the American air force, with the passive endorsement of the

2 "The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov 22:7

European Union, allied itself with the Muslims to attack the Christians! The US air force hammered Christian Yugoslavia for weeks until the Slavs in effect agreed to let the Muslims have Kosovo. Then, the US-EU put Serbian Christians on trial for crimes against the Muslim invaders of Kosovo!

This makes an interesting situation. Christians fighting Christians to save Muslims from being driven from a Christian country which they had invaded and occupied - and this took place at the very time the U.S. was waging war against the Muslims in the Middle East. There has to be a reason.

Muslim Conquests

Long ago, Mohammed declared Jihad (holy war) against non-believers. Obediently, Arab men left their families and children and joined armies which swept out the deserts of Arabia and overran the Middle East, Syria, Egypt, North Africa, Spain, Turkey, India, the Eastern Roman empire of Constantinople, and much of Russia and S. Eastern Europe before reaching the end of their resources and settling into their conquests.

Most of Esau's conquests were lands which had formerly been the possessions of Jacob. Millions died. Islam then seemed to settle into a deep sleep. There is a reason for this seeming "deep sleep".

Janissaries

Deception is inbred in the Children-of-Esau. They use deception to conquer enemies and to oppress each other.[3]

---

3 "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

Because of this inborn trait, Esau distrusts everyone, including each other. This distrust causes groups within their society to circle their wagons to protect themselves and their possessions from hostile groups of their own kind. Thus, while the world of Esau often appears to sleep, and at times appears to stand still, the slightest dislocation can start a chain reaction of violence that can take centuries to regain a motionless, watchful, status- quo.

Islamic rulers attempted to solve this problem of perpetual distrust and hostility among their own people by kidnaping, purchasing, and receiving as tribute children-of-Jacob. These children were raised and trained by Muslims and taught the Koran. The theory was that since they were basically honest they would continue being honest if placed in positions of authority in Islam.

The result surpassed expectations. These children grew up and were placed in positions of authority and Islam began to let down its guard and stir once again. These Christian converts, called "Janissaries", formed Islam's most aggressive fighting force. Under their direction great Islamic fleets were built, turning the Mediterranean into an Islamic Sea. England's seaside towns were raided on a regular basis.

Islam's tax money was handled efficiently and in time these Janissaries ruled the Ottoman Empire down to the most minute detail.

One morning, the ruler of Islam ordered their extermination. Thousands died.[4]

4 See "Janisarries", Wolf & The Sheep, Va Pub Co, POB 997, Lynchburg, Va 24505, $8.

Modern Janissaries

Our forefathers have fought Esau's every attempt to continue their invasion of Western lands. To regain momentum, Esau was forced to change tactics and reactivate the Janissary system that had served her so well in the past. Their mulahs are well aware that the WORD says;

"The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10;[5]

Putting this truth to the test, Esau recruited Western renegades as partner-agents to establish and front for Esau's great corporate trade operations. These great corporations were created and continuously expanded from the increase gained from the usury charged by their banks.[6]

In Lynchburg, the old First National Bank building still has engraved on its front: Established 1865 - the year we were conquered. These newly established banks lent money to land owners desperate for money to pay the new land-taxes installed by the occupation government of our conquerors. New tariffs destroyed the old markets for farm products and now making money became virtually impossible for many. The result was that land went into default and was bought at tax sales by land-corporations for virtually nothing. Many others were foreclosed by the banks.

Media

Invading Union armies confiscated city newspapers as they went along. In time, these newspapers became a monopoly since they received "advertising" from Esau's corporations. Local competing newspapers were denied "advertising" and failed.

5 "Money answereth all things." Ec 10:19.

6 USURY: A contract fraudulent in its conception - where a victim is persuaded to repay 11 items when only 10 items exist. Repayment can only be made by negotiating a new contract where an 11th item is borrowed and more collateral is required. A capital crime under Biblical law. (Ezek 18:13)

Politicians must have media exposure to be elected. Janissary-operated newspapers select candidates to publicize those who are willing to work for Esau. In this way, America and her armed forces became Esau's agents.

The Corporation

Virginia was started as a commerical venture with money provided by a number of private English investors.

Times were difficult. There were Indian wars and a starvation time that destroyed most of the colony, but when it became apparent that Virginia was a success, the king of England took over. The king represented a corporation called The Crown. Today, the Crown and its corporations having other names have interests worldwide. In England, entire towns are owned by "private" interests.

Today, when an entrepreneur develops a successful business and it reaches a net worth of $20,000,000 or so - it is bought by a larger corporation - or - the smaller company begins to have trouble getting loans, or its market suddenly disappears. Most small companies wisely allow themselves to be bought by large corporations.

The original purpose of a corporation was to conceal ownership and confer special benefits.

The WORD teaches that the individual Saxon and his wife constitute the basic unit - separate from all others of his kind. The Law system he lives under is the WORD, Sons-of-Esau are different. They naturally form groups with a strong-man as their leader-spokesman. Groups in turn join together with a strong-man as their leader.The word of these strong-man leaders is law. The groups act as a natural corporation. Their business is conducted in the same manner.

One does not do business with an Indian or Chinese merchant - he does business with a representative of India or a representative of China. That businessman has the weight of entire nations of Esau behind him. An ignorant Saxon merchant can quickly get in over his head.

South Africa

South Africa's self-sufficient-farm-system was destroyed by the British Empire just as the American self-sufficient farm system was destroyed by the invading American Armies and by the occupation government they imposed followed The War Between the States.

To secure employment, most survivors of the war were forced to work for corporations. The income they received from these corporations made it possible for them to buy their daily bread. When a man is dependent for his daily bread for himself and his family - he becomes reluctant to do or say anything that will jeopardize his employment. He has become a "wage-slave" who is inclined to parrot the opinion of his employer to safe-guard his job. This is why the the WORD says "Thou shalt not have a stranger to rule over thee." It makes sense, think about it.

Esau's agent, Great Britain, sent her armies to first destroy white South Africa's self-sufficient farm system, forcing them to work for Esau's corporations. Becoming a wage-slave allowed Esau to capture their minds.

Most of South Africa's white politicians, religious and business leaders worked for Esau's corporations, or were dependent in some way on those who did. The result - when told to do so - they turned their entire nation over to blacks to be ruled.[7]

The Book

A white insider, P.J. Pretorious, wrote a book called Volksverrad. This book disclosed that everyone of importance was involved in betraying white S. Africa, excepting a few. His book concluded, "They were all guilty! All of them!"

The lesson - we should work for ourselves if at all possible. If you work for Esau's corporation-cloaked businesses you will tend to become their servant to protect your income. In S. Africa, our own people were ordered to turn themselves over to blacks - and they did.

Thus far, S. Africa has lost almost a quarter of her white population and the survivors are being killed daily.

Last Pieces Of The Iraqi Puzzle

Esau uses an ancient system of making war called The 36-Strategies. They were listed in Hoskins Report #365.

Strategy Number #7 states: Create a phantom for your enemy to fight.

7 "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24; "The Lord said ...Israel hath sinned ... neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you." Josh 7:10-13

America's politicians are elected by Esau's media. They do as they are told or they will not be re-elected. These politicians used 9/11 as the excuse to invade Iraq - to destroy their "weapons of mass destruction" - a phantom created for us to fight.

While the media rivets our attention on Iraq, almost none of our media-elected leaders - local, state, or national - will acknowledge that Esau has launched armies of Hispanics to invade America, and at the same time, armies of tens of millions of Muslims have occupied practically every city in Western Europe.

While searching for the phantom weapons of mass destruction in Iraq - Esau's armies occupied the lands of Jacob without a shot being fired.

9/11 and Iraq were both phantoms - invented to detract our attention from the real points of attack - the heartlands of Europe and America.

The successful use of the 36-Strategies is supposed to bring the perfect victory. "The greatest victory is the victory gained without battle."

But, Esau's victory is not complete: the puzzle has a place for a piece in the middle. Until that place is filled - the war isn't over, and it appears that Esau has taken on more than he can handle:

God said; "Jacob have I loved but Esau have I hated." Romans 9:13

The WORD also says:

> "And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel." Eze 39:11

As for Esau's servants - the Janissaries in our midst - history has a way of repeating itself - one way or another.

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins; Because of the industrial activity across the road from our farm we have moved to town. Before we left we had to come to terms with the black who worked the garden. Under black rule blacks can't be fired, and this one had taken to saying that "this isn't my job", or, "that isn't my job", so that he hardly did any work at all. Hans gave him two weeks salary and R1,000 and got him to sign a letter to the effect that he left of his own free will.

You are so right, our people are not made for towns - especially since it seems that the entire black population of Africa is arriving here to escape their own black ruled countries. All services are flooded. There is little work, so they steal from everyone around them.

We got the same security firm the previous owner had. In an emergency they will react. Now, if there is an emergency there will be some sort of help available. The black police are utterly useless and their emergency telephones are almost always off the hook.

We have developed a way of speaking to the white liberals who are responsible for the poor treatment given our old white people and white orphans. We say "Good day comrade", branding them a communist. If they think blacks will spare their lives they have a false hope.

The present garden needs much more work. The manure they had been using came from the sewage plant - it causes infection. We use cattle manure.

The black army fired a cannon without removing the cover from the barrel. It exploded and a number were killed. These things are happening because they have gotten rid of every good white soldier.

Our best, K.J.

ATTORNEY GENERAL: Congressional good will evaporated for the moment when Mukasey argued that the president had the right to order any action not forbidden by the Constitution - even if Congress has passed a law against it. Then, Congress confirmed Mukasey, violating the Law "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15.

BIG BUCKS: Paul Bremer, former head of the US-led civilian administration in Iraq defended his decision to send billions of dollars in cash to Baghdad in 2003 and 2004 that is unacounted for. Henry Waxman, Democratic chairman of the house oversight committee said during hearings, "Who in their right mind would send 360 tons of cash into a war zone? But that is exactly what our government did." NNC News (http://newsvote. bbc.co.uk/mpapps /pagetools /print/news. bbc.co. uk/2/hi /americas/6338341.stm)

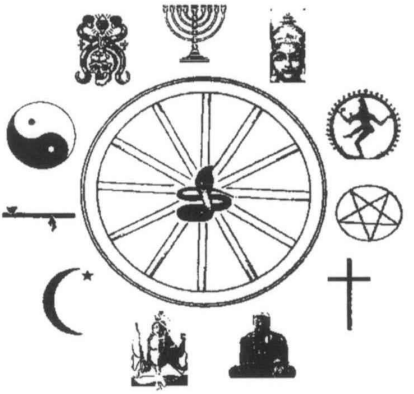
Chapter 400



EMPIRE RELIGION

Josephus

Josephus was a remarkable man. He was a priest, soldier, and historian. He was the one who recorded in detail the Roman War against the Judean Revolt in 87 AD, and the siege and storming of Jerusalem.

His description of his own nation's attempt to follow the Law of their God is interesting:

> "Nor do we delight in merchandise, nor in such a mixture with other men as arises from it ... having a fruitful country for our habitation, we take pains in cultivating that only. Our principle care ... is ... to educate our children well; ... to observe the laws that have been given us ... Since ... there was no occasion offered us ... for intermixing among the Greeks, as they had had for mixing among the Egyptians, by their intercourse of exporting and importing their several goods; as they also mixed with the Phoenicians, who lived by the sea- side, by means of their love of lucre in trade and merchandise." (Flavius Josephus Against Apion, 1:12)

Books can be written about the above paragraph, but to continue;

Josephus was appointed general of the Galilean region of Judea to prepare for the expected Roman invasion and he found the Galileans were short of oil with which to cook and light their lamps. He recorded a request he sent to his superiors in Jerusalem:

> "Now I (Josephus) was entrusted with the public affairs there (in Galilee) by the people of Jerusalem ... since they had not oil ... he would provide a sufficient quantity of such oil for them lest they should be forced to make use of oil that came from the Greeks, and thereby transgress their own laws." Life of Flavius Josephus v13, 4J

The WORD is strict about dealings with strangers:

"If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (zûwr - racial alien), thou art snared with the words of thy mouth. Pr. 6:1; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21

Chauncey Spencer

Chauncey Spencer, an affable negro, lived in Lynchburg. He was one of the first black pilots trained by the U.S. government to fight our German kinsmen in WWII and is looked upon as a hero and authority on race by Lynchburg's non-white community and their allies. The following was written by James M. Elson in Lynch's Ferry, p.9, Fall/Winter, 2003/2004:

> "Undoubtedly the most daring of the Lynchburg flappers were those 'fifteen or twenty white college girls from nearby women's colleges,' mentioned by the late Chauncey Spencer in his autobiography, who 'participated in many excursions across the color line.' In view of the prevailing societal attitudes towards black men with white women, it was a good thing that these adventures went undetected."

Blacks brag about having "snow-bunnies" to impress other blacks, but I grew up here and I never heard of "flappers" crossing the color-line in Lynchburg. Everyone knew that racial adultery was risky because the WORD was universally known. Zealots were everywhere.

A stroll through 18th and 19th century cemeteries frequently reveal gravestones bearing the first name of Phinehas.

It was a matter of pride to name a son Phinehas in recognition that man's first duty was the enforcement of God's Law. "It is better to obey God rather than men." Acts

5:29. The Phinehas story is prominent in Biblical writings and has only relatively recently been banned by the national media and its ecclesiastical fellow-travelers. The rulers of the American empire do not allow the Laws of its captive Saxon nations to be publicized - especially if they conflict with their own edicts.

Following is the story of Jacob-Israel enforcing "prevailing societal attitudes" referred to in the Spencer story:

> "Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit harlotry with the daughters of Moab. And they ... bowed down to their gods. ... and the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel. ...
> "And behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman to the sight of Moses ... And when Phinehas ... saw it, he ... took a javelin in his hand; And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through ... So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. And the Lord spoke unto Moses, saying, Phinehas ... hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel ... Wherefore ... I give unto him my covenant of peace; And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel." Num 25:1- 13

Phinehas enforced the Law of Jacob-Israel. Their God also declared who else is required to do the same:

> "The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people." Deut 17:5-7

According to this now-banned Law of the WORD, if a Christian-Israelite were to see an act of lawlessness, and did not personally step in to enforce God's Law, the failure was severely punished.

> "Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people. I Ki 20:42

Blackwater Snake

About 70 years ago I was walking beside the Blackwater Creek and I saw a snake under the water lying on the bottom. It looked dead. I knelt down to see better and my "throwing hatchet" slipped out of my belt into the water. I reached down and took my hatchet by the handle and brought it up; the snake was wrapped around the head. It was about a foot and a half long. I looked closer. It wasn't a snake - it was part of someone's intestine.

I was told that the hospital, high on the bluffs, about 500 yards upstream long ago disposed of body parts removed during operations by flushing them into the sewer which led to the creek.

Now Legal

Doctors back then considered abortion to be the most hideous act a doctor could perform. There was jail, scorn, and ostracism awaiting the offender. Abortions weren't performed in hospitals because abortions weren't allowed in hospitals. If they had been, I believe it would be safe to say that the fetus that would have been removed would have been flushed into the Blackwater Creek along with other debris from the operating room. Instead of bringing up a piece of someone's intestine on my hatchet I might possibly have brought up the body of an unborn infant.

Today, empire edicts have replaced God's Law. Abortions are now legal. They also burn the body parts removed during operations.

Deja Vu

The present act of burning an aborted child as an offering to one's god is in no way different from the very same act condemned by the God of Israel in ancient days:

> "Thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech." Lev 28:21; "Thou has taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast born unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed ... thou hast slain my children ... to cause them to pass through the fire." Ezek 16:20,21[1]

Law vs Edict

A few years ago there was a Presbyterian minister named Paul Hill who used every platform he could find to speak against turning unborn children into "burnt offerings". Incensed with people's indifference, he slew an abortionist and his assistant.

He then waited for the state's law enforcement officers to arrive. Put on trial for murder he attempted to use the WORD as a defense. The judge would not allow it, and he was condemned, convicted, and executed in record time.

1 "I will bring evil upon this place ... because they ... burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings." Jer 19:3-5; "They sacrificed their sons and their daughters ... whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan." Ps 61:37,38

Thus far some 50,000,000 children have become "burnt offerings" to the Gods of the land. This triggers another Law;

> "If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... ye will be left few in number ... ye shall be plucked from off the land." Deut 58:66

Already the American birthrate is down to 1.7 children per couple, where 2.1 are required to maintain the status quo, and this includes the swarm of children produced by the armies of aliens being assembled in our land.

Remember, it was with the approval of empire-religious leaders that black slaves were sold into the South and South Africa. It was under the approving eye of empire-religious leaders that the great slaughter of WWI and WW2 took place.

It was the shrill cry of empire-priests that urged the West to boycott S. Africa and place its whites under the rule of blacks. Because of their backing, 1 million Afrikaners are today destitute, unemployable and homeless.

The Sep 8, 2007 Rapport newspaper writes: "South Africa's 3 million Afrikaners .... are being forced back into the stone-age by the current ANC-regime's laws which bar such 'whites' from the labour market."

"It is no longer unusual to see whites begging, and according to the latest official statistics from 2006, there are 900,000 unemployed 'white' people in South Africa now - all living in total destitution. 380,000 are men and 610,000 are women - who are not only unemployed, but permanently unemployable due to the ANC-regime's blacks-only hiring laws for the entire labour market. South Africa has 4.5m whites of whom 3 million are Afrikaners."[2]

The handful of religious teachers who opposed these blasphemies were almost entirely non-empire and non "wanna-be" priests who remain true to the God of their fathers.

> "If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel." I Tim 5:8

Fixing The Blame

To fix the blame for the evils that have befallen our nation we must avoid the words of those who profit from our ills. We must walk the narrow path of the WORD that leads to the truth.

The WORD declares "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10.

$10 @ 10% For 100 Years

Usury increase provides a perpetual reservoir of money which is used to buy the media, kings, priests, and millions of willing followers.[3]

Jesus, "the WORD made flesh", returned the WORD to his people, who had long been without it. The WORD immediately clashed with the edicts of the Roman Empire. Empires can't exist when the WORD rules. To prevent being overthrown, kings hire priests to re-interpret God's Laws to agree with the king's laws. It is natural that Jesus would be condemned to death.

2 Source http:// africancrisis .co.za /Article. php? ID=175228

3 USURY: A contract fraudulent in its conception - where a victim is persuaded to repay 11 items when only 10 items exists. Repayment can only be made by negotiating a new contract where an 11th item is borrowed and more collateral is required. A capitol crime under Biblical law. (Ezek 18:13)

Today it is natural to see pictures of Jesus nailed to a cross. There are still those who don't understand that it is the "WORD made flesh" - God's Law - that is nailed to the cross.

The WORD tells us who condemned Jesus:

> "When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him (The WORD made flesh), they cried out, saying Crucify him, crucify him." John 19:6; "Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar." Joh 19:15[4]

Catch that again;

> "The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar." Joh 19:15

The king had done his job well. Those the king had approved to be "chief priests", the ones who taught the people a modified Law which tolerated the foibles of the king, were the ones who proclaimed "We have no king but Caesar."

It is the same today. Today's priests do as their predecessors did. They modify the WORD to please the king and teach the people to accept the king's Lawlessness.

Today, those priests having the most success in getting people to accept the king's lawlessness are rewarded with TV access.

The approved priest can stand on a stage before millions, quote a parable minus the Law that would have given it meaning, read "this-week's" canned sermon from teleprompters, spice it with a canned joke or two, ad-lib a few comments, and wait for the money to pour in to help the starving Eskimos

---

4 "The charge on which Jesus was finally condemned was of political sedition (Lk 23:2) ... He did often speak about the 'kingdom of God' as the object of his mission, and such language ... was open to nationalistic interpretation." New Bible Dictionary, 2nd Ed, Tyndale, "Jesus Christ, Life & Teaching Of:"

at the North Pole. The sermon will contain no criticism of State Law.

New Jersey can ban the death penalty and there is no outcry from the king's pulpit.[5]

A stranger can run for president of America, and there is no cry of indignation from the king's pulpit.[6]

A Vanishing World

State-priests who are good at their craft, obtain TV exposure and are multi-millionaires. "Wanna-be" state priests who haven't the skill to make it are a poor lot.

Here in Lynchburg, I can show you a half a dozen century old churches which once held hundreds, even thousands, which today have less than fifty attending. People who are searching for truth in the WORD find nothing there to help them. They are now leaving state-churches everywhere.

Where do they go? Some go to "circus-churches" for fun - but then leave. The turnover is enormous since ritual, show, music, and antics are what a jazzed-up state-church offers, and that provides no direction for the difficult days ahead.

Others set up home churches, just as their forebears did more than three centuries ago.

5 "Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death." Num. 35:29-30 (premeditated murder), "If a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death." Lev 20:13; "He that stealeth a man, and selleth him ... he shall surely be put to death." Ex 21:16

6 LAW:"Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

Conclusion

State-churches exist to modify The WORD so that it does not conflict with the king's edicts.

The WORD has pronounced judgment on state-priests:

> "Thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing that thou hast forgotten the law of thy God." Hosea 4:6; "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17; "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore [is] wrath upon thee from before the LORD." 2 Ch 19:2

The WORD also declared just who it is that God appointed to be his priests; "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5- 6

That's YOU!

Resolving The Conflict

Taxes are unLawful. The Scripture says that taxes were demanded of Jesus. Jesus obtained tax money, paid them, and continued teaching.

Paul Hill knew the Law. He knew that people were breaking the Law by killing unborn children. He stepped in to correct matters. and the king quickly killed him to stop rebellion to his edicts.

Personally, I choose to obey the king in-so-far as I possibly can. I pay my taxes to asvoid the king's wrath. When people ask what to do about this or that, I quote the WORD:

> "The wrath of a king [is as] messengers of death: a wise man will pacify it." Pr 16:14

However, that said, we also remember that the WORD also promises that a new day is coming. Already there are tens of millions of our people who have rejected the king's gods and long for their nation's return to the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. History records what happened once before when our people refused to be led along the road to their destruction.

> "So they joined their forces and smote sinful men ... So they recovered the Law out of the hand of the Gentiles and out of the hand of kings." Macc 2:44,48

UNFILTERED NEWS

MORGAN STANLEY: Morgan Stanley, the No. 2 U.S. investment bank, reported a $9.4 billion writedown on Wednesday from bad bets on mortgage-related debt, leading it to take a $5 billion infusion from an arm of the Chinese government. China's Investment Corporation will hold almost 10% percent of the investment bank shares once its investment converts to common shares in 2010.

INTEREST FREE: Western banks have been working increasingly with Muslim clerics to create a new range of financial products designed for devout Muslims. Under sharia law, Muslims are not allowed to receive interest or go into debt. (WEEKEND, (Financial Times)

RKH: Watch out, Islam, usury banks are noted for finding ways to make usury look like cotton candy, and finding preachers to bless the creation! Usury is also forbidden in the West - and look at what is going on - all blessed by Christian clerics.

KENNEWICK MAN: Members of Congress are trying to pass a bill to turn the 9,300 year old skeleton of a white man over to American Indians for re-burial before research can be completed. The remains were found in 1996 near Kennewick, Washington and are presently on display at Columbia Basin College in Richland, Wash. Houston Chronicle

INTERESTING: Four of the five Roman Catholics on the Supreme Court came to worship at the Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle in DC. (News & Advance)

RKH: The remaining justices consist of two Jews, an Anglican, and a "protestant".

SELF-PROTECTION: A man by the name of Matthew Murray armed with a semi-automatic rifle, two handguns and 1000 rounds of ammo entered the New Life Church in Colorado Springs, Colorado. He had already killed four people: two at a missionary training center miles away, and two in the church parking lot. There were thousands of people inside the church.

A church member, Jeanne Assam, drew her 9mm pistol and shot him, undoubtedly saving a great number of lives. The media dropped the story when they discovered that a lawfully armed citizen prevented a massacre by using her own pistol.

Most people are probably not aware of the fact that American citizens use a firearm to defend themselves more than 2.4 million times every year. Firearms are used 60 times more often to protect the lives of honest citizens than to take lives. 192,000 self-defense cases are by women defending themselves against sexual assault. In the vast majority of cases (92%), the mere presence of a firearm helps avert a major crime from occurring. The number of defensive uses is four times the number of crimes reported committed with guns.

In spite of Virginia's "concealed-carry" law, VPI forbade firearms on its campus. An armed student or professor might have prevented the VPI slaughter. "He that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one." Luke 22:36.

AMERICAN INDIAN DNA: Anthropologists agree that new DNA evidence has settled the issue that American Indians originally migrated to the Americas from Asia. All the Indians on the North and South American continents have the same genetic mutation, indicating that they are descendants of a single group of Asians. Univ of Michigan researchers came to this conclusion after finding that the mutations occurs only in Asians who live in Siberia and in 29 native groups in Canada, U.S., Central America and S. America. This genetic marker cannot be found in any other part of the world. Further DNA analysis found that the American Indians and Siberians diverged 12,000 years ago. BLACK MURDER: Half of all murder victims are black, even though they make up just 12% of the population. Of the 7,421 African-Americans murdered last year, 92% were killed by other blacks. The Miami Herald

AIDS: The Toronto Sun states that the U.N. has admitted inflating the numbers on AIDS - to raise money more easily.

In Rwanda, for example, the portion of the population infected with HIV is not 11% but 3%.

RKH: So, waiting for AIDS to solve the racial problem is not going to work after all. But, the story worked.

IMUS: As predicted, Imus is back again after being fired for describing the Rutgers Univ women's basketball team as "nappy- headed hos." On bended knees and proving that he is sorry for his conduct, Imus brought with him two black side-kicks.

America is beginning to realize that Esau owns the media. Its talking heads are either Esau with six coats of make-up or are his servants.

EUROPE'S INVADERS: Aliens rioted in Paris, rampaging, breaking windows, burning cars, and injuring almost 100 policemen. Muslims poured into the streets, throwing Molotov cocktails and attacking police as they did in 2005 when they rioted for weeks. This time demonstrators used firearms and shot several police officers.

LOERIES

Dear HR Kinsmen,

The Loeries had an amazing year at the Loerie Home. We couldn't wish for more!

The generosity of our friends from America has allowed us to accomplish many of our goals - giving the Loeries a real home and a loving family to whom they can always refer to as their own.

THE LOERIES - All Of Them

The following has been accomplished:

* The girl's two bathrooms have been rebuilt into one large bathroom, with two individual showers, a new bath, two wash basins and three separate toilets.

* The boy' bathroom was also upgraded with four individual showers, fitted with benches, towel hooks and four toilets and four basins.

* The interior walls of the entire home were repainted, ceiling bedroom fans fitted (as the children really suffered during our hot summer nights) and new roof lights placed where needed.

NEW LOERIE ARRIVALS

Riaan Myer, Mari Williams,Leigh-Ann De Bruyn, Sean Oberholzer.

We are saying goodbye to four of our Grade 12 students who have successfully completed their school education and now have to take on a new life. It is very hard to let them go. They are true survivors and we know they will do us proud.

Their empty beds will now be filled with children who are also in great need of a home.

The very busy 2007 ended on a high note and school reports reflect the children's determination. We had quite a few achievers, and Loeries did well on the sports field as well.

God continue to bless you all,
Willie Hoffmann, Loerie Youth Centre Trust

Chapter 401

UN ON RACE

The lead article of the January 2008 The New Covenant Messenger[1] states that the UN Treaty and all other treaties are included in the Constitution of the United States.

As proof, they quote Article VI, paragraph 2, of the United States Constitution:

1 The New Covenant Messenger, POB 321, Union, KY 41091

> "This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land, and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution of laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding."

The article continues:

> "In 1954, a Senate Report verified the UN Treaty was the Supreme Law of the Land ... The United Nations Treaty the Supreme Law of the United States! 'The charter of the United Nations has become the supreme law of the land and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution, or laws of any state notwithstanding.' Senate Document #87, page 287; 'The Review of the Charter of the United Nations,' January 7, 1954.'"

Realization

Saxon-America is being shaken out of its complacency. Un-Constitutional acts are now commonplace because the Constitution gives equal status to treaties and private contracts made before the Constitution was ratified (see HR #398).

Once again, prior private contracts and treaties between nations have superseded the Constitution of the United States and are now the law of the land.

In obedience to the above, President Eisenhower ordered the soldiers of the 101st Airborne to Little Rock where they bayonetted white parents protesting the integration of their schools.

On Nov 1, 1991, Hoskins Report #206 carried the following article dealing with the UN requirements dealing with race which, since it is a treaty which has been ratified by Congress, is the law of the land - notwithstanding anything in the Constitution to the contrary.

Chapter 206

U.N. DECLARATION

ON

RACIAL DISCRIMINATION

The U.S. Constitution states that both the Constitution of the United States AND international treaties shall be the law of the land.

The U.S. Government ratified the U.N. charter giving both the UN charter and UN proclamations the power of international treaties - and thus of law.

The UN proclamation on race published by the U.N. Office of Public Information, OPI151-63-27884, in January 1964, outlines what the UN requires of its members.

Text

"Considering that ... all human beings are ... entitled to all the rights ... without distinction ... as to race, colour or national origin.

RKH: Different peoples are entitled to THEIR own rights - not the rights of others. This text is certain to violate basic Christian teachings.

"Considering that ... all are equal before the law ... .

RKH: Each nation has its own laws. Christian Law pertains to Christians. Different law systems of different nations if enforced at the same time would result in chaos.

"Considering ... the U.N. has condemned ... segregation and discrimination ...

"Considering that any doctrine of racial differentiation ... is scientifically false, morally condemnable, socially unjust and dangerous, and that there is no justification for racial discrimination either in theory or in practice.

RKH: Children can observe racial differences. Evidence establishing racial differences has resulted from scientific experiments. Scientific evidence condemns integration. Discord, disaster, and chaos is the history of societies that integrate.

"Taking into account the other resolutions ... of discrimination.

"Taking into account ... discrimination based on race ... continues to give cause for serious concern.

"Alarmed by the manifestations of racial discrimination ... in the form of ... separation ... as well as by ... dissemination of doctrines of racial superiority ... .

RKH: Proofs of racial differences are so convincing that establishment suppression is needed to prevent them from becoming common knowledge - which would threaten the establishment's very existence.

"Convinced that ... policies based on the prejudice of ... racial hatred ... jeopardizes ... international peace and security

"Convinced ... that racial discrimination harms ... those who practice it.

"Convinced further that the building of a world society free from ... racial segregation ... is one of the fundamental objectives of the U.N..

"1. Solemnly affirms ... speedily eliminating racial discrimination throughout the world ...

"2. Solemnly affirms the necessity of adopting national and international measures to that end ...

"3. Proclaims this Declaration:

Article 1

"Discrimination ... on the grounds of race ... shall be condemned ... as an obstacle to ... peaceful relations ... and as a fact capable of disturbing peace and security among peoples.

Article 2

"1. No State ... group or individual shall make any discrimination whatsoever ... on the grounds of race ...[2]

"2. No State shall ... lend its support, through police action ... to any discrimination based on race ...[3]

"3. Special concrete measures shall be taken in appropriate circumstances ... to secure ... rights for different racial groups.[4]

Article 3

"1. Particular efforts shall be made to prevent discrimination based on race ... in the fields of ... religion[5] ... .

"2. Everyone shall have equal access to any place ... without distinction as to race ...[6]

---

2 There is an overwhelming amount of scripture forbidding association with, living with, doing business with, and having intermarriage with strangers.

3 "The Word", the "Word made flesh", and "Israel" are indivisible to Christians and their God. This article requires toleration of "evil". Israel's God has said he will destroy his people for tolerating evil.

4 "Affirmative action," anti-white media, anti-white legislation, Fort Smith Sedition Trials, aid international support to S. Africa's black Communists.

5 "God the Word" of the Christians is the God that forbids racial integration. Gen 24:3,4, Deut 7:3, Joshua 23:12-13, Hosea 5:7, Neh 13:3, Neh 9:2, Ex 33:16, Lev 20:24, Ezra 10:3, Ex 23:28,33, Deut 28:43, Jubilees 30:6-13, etc. Article 3 is aimed solely against Christians who follow the Laws of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

6 "When the tabernacle is to be pitched ... the stranger (Heb: zûwr -racial alien) that cometh nigh shall be put to death." Numbers 1:51. "Come out from among them and be ye separate." II Cor 5:14

Article 4

"All States shall take effective measures ... to rescind laws and regulations which have the effect of ... perpetuating racial discrimination ... [7]

Article 5

"An end shall be put without delay to ... policies of apartheid

Article 6

"No discrimination by reason of race ... shall be admitted in the enjoyment ... of ... citizenship rights ... [8]

Article 7

"1. Everyone has the right ... to protection by the State ..."

2. Everyone shall have the right to ... protection against any discrimination ...[9]

7 This is believed by many to be the reason for the Canadian, Swedish, French, British, Australian, and German anti-White "anti-hate" laws.

8 "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." Deut 23:2 (Margin note by the reformers in Geneva Bible 1599). "This was to cause them to live chastely, that their posterity might not be rejected."

9 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15. "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them.." Jer 30:21. "Thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee." Deut 15:4

Article 8

"All effective steps shall be taken immediately in the fields of teaching, education and information, with a view to eliminating racial discrimination ...[10]

Article 9

"1. All propaganda and organizations ... promoting racial discrimination ... shall be severely condemned.[11]

"2. All incitement to or acts ... against any race ... shall be ... punishable under law.[12]

"3. ... all states shall take immediate ... legislative and other measures to ... outlaw organizations which promote ... racial discrimination ...[13]

Article 10

"The U.N. ... shall ... by combining legal and other practical measures, will make possible the abolition of all forms of racial discrimination ...[14]

10 This could be the compelling reason for "Black studies", "Politically Correct" studies. "Read this law before all Israel ... and thy stranger (Heb: gêr - visiting racial kinsman) ... that they may ... do all the words of this law." Deut 31:11-12

11 This article is the reason for the censorship present now in Canada, Britain, Sweden, France, and Germany. Now, lawsuits and harassment of Christians and Christian groups is taking place all over the West.

12 "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29. "If ye love me obey my commandments. John 14:15. "Not everyone shall enter into the kingdom of heaven but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Matt 7:21. Reading the Word must be banned to comply with this statute.

13 Christian gatherings obeying the Word must be banned to comply with this statute.

14 The "policing map" of the U.S. and other lands by troops foreign to them has already been published and is available from patriotic groups.

Article 11

"Every State shall promote ... fundamental freedoms in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations.[15]

LEGISLATION

To enforce Article 9, Section 2 of the above, which is by treaty "the law of the land", Congress recently passed "anti-terrorist" legislation criminalizing writings that may incite terrorist activities. The bill has been sent to the Senate for confirmation - which is expected shortly.

When enacted into law - Christians can expect to be forbidden to copy from the WORD such things as "Hate those that hate thee ... with a perfect hatred", and, by law we will be forced to tolerate those who blaspheme against God.

Apocrypha

All these things have been done in the past and are recorded in the Apocrypha - a collection of books banished from the KJ Bible in the 1830s, as near as I can learn; the same time that those who are not Isreal began using their media monopoly to proclaim that they are Israel.

The banished Apocrypha is Israel's history from the time of Israel's captivity until the return of the WORD made flesh. Without the Apocrypha, one remains ignorant of the great victories Israel won over their oppressors and the methods they used to do so after their return from captivity.[16]

The Apocrypha also tells how our fathers went from captivity into a far land where we became known as Isaac's

---

15 Only the nations of the West are required to comply. An alien world which hates Christ now sits in judgment over His people in the UN.

sons, Saccsons - Saxons, while others returned to Judea. The book of the "Maccabees" contained in the Apocrypha, in my opinion, is the age we are now entering.

Conclusion

During the days of the Maccabees, the Greek gernerals ruled the land, burned the scriptures, and punished those who would not worship the new Gods.

Most of today's priests no longer teach the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of the WORD. In the place of the 10 Commandments of the Covenant they teach "civil religion" - the religion of those who worship the state. These false watchmen find no fault with the capital crime of "usury" - which multiplies debt - which Esau uses to buy the media which they use to enslave minds. These enslaved minds are then taught to elect Esau's agents to be their kings - kings who open our borders to more aliens.

We've read the UN Declaration and we've read The WORD.

The heathen have raged before. But, there is but one God!

OPINION

The Democrats appear to have selected two candidates. The WORD is Our guide:

> "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them." Isaiah 3:12

For the other the WORD says;

> "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15

The WORD is clear:

"Enter ye in at the strait gate, for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be that go in thereat." Matt 7:13

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA

Dear Mr. & Mrs Hoskins: A big "thank-you" for the wonderful donation from your subscribers who care for our poor white children. Betzy was delighted and deeply thankful.

Five students wrote their matric and three little ones came in - two brothers 6 and 7 and a girl of 10. It will take a lot to adapt. Betzy has the experience and one look at their happy faces tells the story. They are not in an institution but individuals - each with his own needs.

On the other side of town is a black home to whom the Hollanders send millions. It's chaos. They hardly attend school, learn no manners or study anything useful. They were recently on TV.

The term of President Mbeki is nearing its end and there is much infighting. The new black leader is Jacob Zuma, a Zulu. He must have good speech writers as he only attended grade four out of 12. There are not many Xhosas, but lots of Zulus. In 1994, a number of Zulu chiefs were killed - and Zulus have long memories. We suspect that Zuma may be anti-Xhosa in addition to being anti-white. Regardless, he is an out and out communist.

A Catholic order called Jesuits is being accused of involvement in southern Africa politics. Machel, the leader of Zambia and Mugabe, the leader of Zimbabwe are both Catholics. A photo on the front page of the Argus showed Mandela receiving communion from the Roman Catholic Archbishop, Lawrence Henry. So, I suppose he is one also. In any event, the blacks have reduced Zimbabwe so that it looks like the ancient Zimbabwe ruins and all the blacks are outspoken in their hatred of whites. Often, when murders of young whites take place, nothing is taken; they are just taken out and shot.

It is difficult for the world to understand our plight since the media has blacked out our existence. Whites are used to having their own farms. White traitors among us, aided by outsiders, saw their chance to get rich. They helped black rebels overthrow our government, and in return for large bribes the new black rulers are selling our industry and land for next to nothing to these same traitors and foreign countries. We are being reduced to being penniless serfs in our own land. As we see things, the time is not far away that to survive we will need every hand and without God there is no chance.

Willie Marias, the HNP leader (Heritage National Party), died on the 27th Dec from a heart attack. In spite of my disagreeing with the liberal direction he was taking the paper, I continued to subscribe to die Afrikaner since it is one of the few Afrikaner papers still being printed.

Koos Venter was the young man chosen last year as chairman of the small group that broke away from the HNP for the same reasons. I hope we will hear more of him.

We are going through a huge mess. Remember how they closed all the power stations and sold them as scrap to China? The Chinese must be enjoying the present situation - we are having daily electrical brown-outs and black-outs. The effect on factories and businesses is terrible. Electrical shortages have caused many gold mines to stop operation except for using their water pumps. This has caused a gold shortage and the world price of gold to rise to new highs.

In spite of the electrical shortages here, S. Africa still supplies Zimbabwe with electricity which Mugabe re-sells to South West Africa.

China is moving into Africa. They own the copper mines in Zambia. The black workers wanted to strike and were firmly told to go back to work.

Basic commodities are not available - like bread which forms the staple diet for many. Gas, stoves, fridges and lamps are most expensive.

The Pretoria trains could not run so the blacks burnt the lot. Who will ever understand a black's mind.

The last few days we have had large amounts of rain. The dams are filling up, but I don't know how it will affect the crops. Milk is still in short supply.

With our best wishes, K.J.

LYNCHBURG' MAYOR SENTENCED

On December 8, 2005, The News & Advance announced that Lynchburg's black Mayor Carl Hutcherson, pastor of Trinity United Methodist Church and owner of a funeral home business, was indicted by a grand jury on charges of social security fraud - receiving a disabled person's SS payments and using the money to buy himself a TV and stereo, make payment to another, and purchase life insurance on the disabled person - payable to himself; Another count of SS fraud where he received a second person's SS and used it for himself, to pay for a fundraising dinner, make contributions to his church, to buy postage stamps for himself and pay for cable TV for himself; That he stole money from his church's Trinity New Life Development Corp. and used it to pay the IRS; That he submitted forged documents to the Centra

Health Foundation soliciting money; That as a member of the Board of Directors of Bank of the James provided a fraudulent letter to the bank; that he made a false statement in January 2005 in an FBI investigation; that he provided the federal grand jury with fraudulent minutes of a directors' meeting and cash receipts, and, obstruction of justice. If convicted on all seven counts, Hutcherson could expect up to 105 years in prison and $2.5 million in fines.

Hoskins Report expressed skepticism that the establishment would punish one of their own in such a manner. The 2005 indictment was made with a quarter page picture of Hutcherson and reams of copy.

The final sentence was reported in January 2008, three years later. There was a very small front page picture, a couple of inches of copy, followed by a few more inches of copy buried on p.A5. In the brief article it was revealed that U.S. District Court Judge James Turk sentenced Hutcherson to six months house arrest, three years probation, 200 hours of community service and $15,000 in fines and restitution.

Now that Hutcherson will have soon paid his debt to society, including having his wrist slapped, and learned his lesson, it is not unreasonable to assume that the Democratic/Republican Party might run him for mayor once again.

The pulpits were silent when Hutcherson was indicted. They remain silent.

Non-Genetically Modified SEEDS

Henry Kissinger said that a country is controlled by controlling its food.

America is now fed with genetically modified seeds. The seeds used today produce a bountiful crop but they don't reproduce. The seeds that come from genetically-modified plants are sterile.

If people should suddenly have to reactivate farms or plant WWII type "victory gardens" - most would starve. They have no seed to plant.

In 1988, HR asked readers to send the names of companies where seeds might be purchased. A list of about 20 names resulted which were passed on to you. Today, HR repeats the request - we need the names and addresses of companies that sell seeds that are NOT genetically modified.

Food is a weapon. Non-genetically-modified seeds in the hands of patriots may turn out to be their salvation.

LETTERS FROM - 1988

1988 HR - SOVIET INTENTIONS: The Communists killed millions in the Soviet Union. They murdered the entire upper and middle classes of the nation - millions! Every family in the USSR has a martyred member.

A free Russia should be eager to bring to trial the thousands of murderers who are responsible and still walk the streets. When Russia's new government tries and executes these criminals wholesale - then one can believe that the present new government isn't the old communist government with a new name and a smiling face.

1988 - FRANCE BETRAYED "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I am a White French Algerian colonial refugee living in France. My people colonized vacant N. African land, planted orchards, and made the land bloom. DeGaulle gave our land to the Arabs. This land, neglected by the Arabs, is again returning to the desert.

"After reading your VC I understand why. DeGaulle was like your J. Lindsay Almond of Virginia, Smith of Rhodesia, deKlerk of S. Africa, Reagan or Bush of America.

Eisenhower, an American Lt. Col. with no combat experience, was appointed by your Roosevelt over 40 senior officers to command the Allied forces in Europe. In turn he chose and gave recognition to DeGaulle. This American recognition made DeGaulle France's leader. In return, DeGaulle gave away French Indo-China and North Africa. He did what he was chosen to do. Eisenhower was chosen to give away E. Europe to the Soviets, which is why he stopped the American armies. The Establishment chooses obedient servants.

Strangers have flooded into France. The enemy, once in Algeria and Indo-China, now occupy the streets of Paris. There are more Moslem births in France than French-Christian births. Traitors have cast down our defenses. France, the home of the Crusaders, has been invaded and occupied by its foes.'" A. Y. - France

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: The Scottish Regiments of the British army touring the U.S. no longer include the Black Watch. Why?" D. McD. - N. Carolina

ED: The Black Watch was originally recruited from Scots loyal to the English government ("German George" married to a Scot) who opposed Bonnie Prince Charlie. The regiment was used to oppress other Scots who wished to secede. Today's Scots are nationalistic, and refuse to serve in that regiment. It is now recruited in England and is manned almost entirely by Englishmen. I was told that the last time they were in Virginia the hotel where the Black Watch and Seaforths were staying was forced to call the police on several occasions to break up fighting between the two regiments. They fought in the restaurant, hotel corridors, and stairwells, on the streets and before and after public appearances. The Queen is even said to have issued a personal appeal for harmony. Evidently it wasn't enough. Frankly, can you imagine a fiery-eyed Scottish mother wanting her son to serve in the Black Watch?

'Regardless of the color of the person's skin, they have been made in the image of God and belong to the human race (Genesis 1:25-28).[17] People of different skin color are permitted to marry without committing any sin.[18] However, it is important that they both have faith in Christ,[19] since it is a sin for a believer and an unbeliever to marry.[20]

"Realistically, such couple needs to consider the sinful prejudice in society against marriage between people of different skin colors. They need to make certain that they are

ED: To be fair, if an electronic ministry came out against racial intermarriage, how long do you think they would stay on prime time? Of course, if the reason their media masters allow them prime time is to dispense this nonsense, they run the risk of God's curse: *"Woe to them ... that justify the wicked for reward." In the past, my family has had painful and expensive dealings with practitioners of Voodoo. I would advise approaching practitioners with utmost care. Law officers who value their lives: do not enter a room recently vacated by a priest without wearing a gas mask. It may be a question of life and death. Do not treat Voodoo practices casually. Stay away, or view them from a safe(?) distance. Blacks are very susceptible, and I believe that any Black, educated or ignorant, can be made to do the will of a Voodoo priest. Either that or forfeit his life.

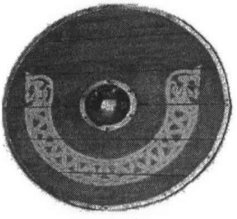
JACOB'S CHILDREN In ESAU'S EMPIRE



Goths

"When Athanaric was negotiating a peace settlement with Valens in 369 AD, the emperor addressed him as king. To this the Gothic prince replied that he preferred the title judge, since the judge embodied wisdom, the king only power. ... monarchic kingship did not exist among the Goths." History of the Goths, Herwig Wolfram, p. 94, Univ Cal Press, Berkley, ©1988[1]

The Saxon has known both the Self-Sufficient-Farm - and the opposite extreme - the Empire. The Empire always brings death. There is a reason.

1 "The ten tribes of Israel took the name Gauthei, which means The People of God. The name Gauthei was later changed to Goth." Abraham Ortels, 1527-1598

The Self-Sufficient Farm

I was fortunate to have lived at the end of America's Self-Sufficient-Farm era (SSF) and can compare its life with life today. A Self-Sufficient-Farm is a business that gives employment and sustenance to its owner and others under his protection.

In its ideal state, it produces everything it needs. It has the freedom to make good decisions that benefit, or bad decisions that harm. This is a freedom unknown today. The freedom was such that not even the "state", the Empire incubator, could put a road across a SSF without its owner's permission - a permission often denied.

The Empire

Empires grow from the desire of a few to take tribute from the many.

> "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Tim 6:10

A land of self-sufficient-farms, by its nature, has many rulers; an empire has one. This one ruler, with his supporters, form the ruling clique. This ruling clique creates a government apparatus to keep themselves in power and to ensure that the flow of tribute is not interrupted.

The Emperor's enemies are "separatists" - religious, political or economic - those who wish to pull away from Empire control. His greatest enemy is the Self-Sufficient-Farm - whose owner is independent since he can feed himself, arm himself, and has all the powers of an emperor except they are confined to the land he cultivates. The one superior power he recognizes is the Law system given him by his God. But, as long as the SSF exists the emperor can never be sure that it won't become the focal point of rebellion against himself.

Before an Empire can exercise its full power and feel safe, the independent farm system must be merged with others and placed under control of the agencies of the state or a state-approved corporation controlled by an ally. Former owners of these mini-empire farms are now state subjects and provide tribute to the state.

History books list many Empires - and with the exception of the one existing today - all have self-destructed.

My Father

My father's grandfather was a doctor who lived on a Self-Sufficient-Farm. Reconstruction taxes forced him to sell. The Chesapeake Corporation now owns his land.

Since farms had become unprofitable, his son operated several country stores. Chain stores opened in nearby towns and undersold country stores. Empty country stores dot the countryside.

My father used the last of the family money and went to school and became a doctor. It distressed him to see a patient with a condition that he could not help. He went back to medical school to learn new things. In time he accumulated four specialities; "Eye-Ear- Nose-Throat", "Internal Medicine"; "Surgery"; and "Urology". He practiced all four specialities at the same time - something not done today. Other doctors sent their patients to him to be diagnosed. I suppose you might say that he was a one-man clinic. He always felt that there was much more to learn.

SSF Life

Going back to medical school took time. Dad would go to school in Baltimore with mother for a year or two, and my two sisters and I lived with my Mother's parents on the Kelly farm near Culpeper.

It was during the depression. Lots of people lived in the Kelly's big white frame house on the other side of Mountain Run. Kinsmen and hard-up friends were welcomed, given a bed, a place at the table, and assigned a job. Money was scarce, but there was work for everyone. Even I was important, and I was seven years old.

An Important 7-Year Old

My job was to be first up in the morning. I dressed and went down to the kitchen and stirred up the coals in the big iron stove and threw in kindling. When it caught I threw coal on top. Then, I lit a "spill" from the fire and took it to the hot-water heater; cut on the gas and "WHOOMP!" - fire blazed up in the middle of the water coils. It was scary.[2]

With both the stove and hot-water heater burning, the kitchen quickly warmed and I had to leave while the women came down where it was warm to dress. Or, they could take turns taking a bath in my hot water.

Next, Aunt Lucy fixed me something to eat. Behind the barn was the water pump. Richard pumped water for the cows in the morning, and I had to do it after school. I hated pumping water. One thirsty cow could drink all the water and I had to keep pumping and pumping. Woe unto me if the cows found an empty water trough and complained loudly enough for Granddaddy to hear.

2 A spill is a long tightly rolled page from a newspaper. You light one end from fire in the stove and turn and then light the heater without getting close enough to be burned. They were used also to start fires in fireplaces.

I also fed the chickens and took them water, collected the eggs, and helped Richard slop the pigs in the afternoon. I brought in kindling for the sitting-room fireplace.

School was two miles away and I took the short-cut across the meadow - keeping an eye out for the bull. I crossed Mountain Run on the state-built wire foot-bridge.

School was hard. I could spell "Dick" fine, but they made me learn "Richard", and that had too many letters. One day for "show and tell" I brought a moccasin in a jar. I had holes in the top so it could breath. The teacher took the jar out of the bag, screamed, dropped and broke the jar, and the whole school was in an uproar. A snake was loose! Everybody was running around. I put the snake back in the bag and turned him loose in the yard of a lady across the street. I thought she wouldn't mind. They eat mice and things. She did mind. But, that's another story. Try explaining all this to your Grandmother when you get home. She knew all about it. Culpeper was a small place.

Then, there was hog killing time. It took all day grinding sausage and cutting, seasoning and wrapping hams. Then I helped milk the cows when Richard was sick. I could help harness and handle horses and I could drive them when standing behind on a sod-buster. I helped gather corn and I played inside the corn-stacks, and in the barn and storage sheds with my buddies who lived on the next hill. I could ride a mean pony bareback; and Richard let me drive the truck when Granddaddy wasn't around. Life was great!

There was almost no market for farm produce and taxes had to be paid. Grandaddy also found it hard to make a living on the farm so he opened a furniture store in town. He also bought and sold houses and land. Grandmother sewed things. She also supervised the house and raised chickens. She bought hundreds of baby chicks, raised them; the hens produced eggs, the roosters provided meals. She sold some of them and always had money when you needed it. When I had done a hard job especially well she gave me a rooster. I took it to Triplet's Mill and sold it for 50¢. A movie cost 10¢ and popcorn 5¢ and I had 35¢ left over for the rest of the month.

My great-uncle Roy Hume was old. He had been in the gold-rush out West. He was in charge of the vegetable garden and got me to help hoe the weeds when he could catch me. We had more than enough food to feed the family, their spouses, all the children and all their friends, visiting kinsmen, overnight guests and hard-up friends.

Aunt Lucy was in charge of meals. Uncle Gordon, Aunt Maude's husband, died. She taught school and helped with linens and coached the children with their lessons when she got home; Uncle Thompson ran an appliance business in town and helped Richard the hired hand when he came home. Uncle Alex ran Granddaddy's furniture store with granddaddy. At least 15 sat down to the supper table just any time and sometimes twice that many. Everyone had "news" so everyone wanted to be at the table to hear it and no one wanted to leave.

Real often the table topic was "Reconstruction" which was the start of hard-times - when "Yankees" came. They were around a long time and did whatever they liked - sometimes they burned people's houses down. Whenever Mosby derailed a train, they burned houses for ten miles around. As late as the 1930s there were places where you could go for miles and there were no houses, barns or anything.

The grownups were always talking about taxes. People couldn't raise enough on their farms to pay the taxes needed to pay the debt accumulated during Reconstruction when the black legislature was put in power in Richmond. The blacks paid themselves humongous salaries, bought houses, had lavish parties, and paid double for railroads that went nowhere. A lot of our people moved out West. Things were bad there, too. Their letters were read at the supper table.

Granddaddy was quiet - but everyone knew Dick Kelly. Local people came to the house for him to judge their disputes. They sat quietly in rocking chairs talking on the front porch. Dick Kelly's decision settled the matter. This was the same Dick Kelly, who with his brother Alex, had that run-in with the Texas Rangers in Tyler, Texas that I told you about.

The Kelly house seemed typical, at least it was the same as the other farms I visited. There were some that had more activities and more people and some less. I learned words and meanings that don't even exist today. I learned what a "grass widow" was - a woman whose husband had "turned her out to graze". I didn't know what that meant. But, then again I never heard of an actual case of divorce, not in the entire county. I knew what "suicide" was. A boy of 18 hanged himself 60 years before in a red shed behind a white house in town. I walked past that shed every day going to school. I told other boys that I was going to look inside one day, but I never did.

I'm telling you all this so that you will have an idea what it must have been like living in the last of the Self-Sufficient-Farm system. Everyone took care of everyone else and there was plenty to eat. Those who had anything at all seemed to have more than enough. There was a lot of work, but no one complained. Everyone worked. That's what people did.

Ongoing War

I was a kid and didn't know, but the entire country was being changed from the Self-Sufficient-Farm-System into an Empire.

To prepare the way, America's Empire builders engaged in wholesale slaughter. James Webb, author of Born Fighting is quoted by Thomas DiLorenzo in Lincoln Unmasked, p.174 as saying:

> "It is impossible to believe that (Southern) men would have continued to fight against unnatural odds and take casualties beyond the level of virtually any other modern army (70% casualties with 25% dead) - Something deep was motivating them."

One of these casualties had been one of Mosby's men. He came into Grandaddy's store and asked to borrow a knife. He rolled up his pant leg and there was a big knot in his knee. He made a quick cut and a .36 cal pistol ball popped out onto the desk. He had been shot in the side during the War and it had worked down to his knee. It stayed in the cash register drawer for a long time. I don't know what happened to it.

Black Reconstruction government introduced more debt than the war had cost. This debt caused ongoing taxes to be so high they couldn't have been paid even in good times before The War.

Carpetbagger Corporations bought millions of acres of deserted farmland at tax sales for almost nothing. A lot of what they bought was privatized to helpful politicians and others.[3]

Destroying the SSF

When Daddy came back home to Lynchburg from school I left Granddaddy's farm. It wasn't long after that Granddaddy shut down his farm operation. It was too expensive. Everyone else seemed to be doing the same. The chickens were gone, cows gone, corn fields gone, workshops and barns - all gone. Deserted country churches dotted the hillsides. People moved to nearby towns and got better paying jobs working in factories owned by cartel corporations.

This started the time when people began watching what they said or did if they were going to keep their jobs and feed their families. Empire results in "dumbing down" people who aren't really dumb.

This background is the reason I tried to learn why my country has been turned into a land of deserted farms and deserted country churches into mushrooming cities where people live from paycheck to paycheck.

How was it possible that in the 1850s the North was in the grips of an economic depression starting with the failure of the Life Insurance Company of Pennsylvania - people were going hungry - while Virginia was in one of its greatest periods of prosperity. It was in the midst of a building boom, there was little indebtedness and practically everyone had plenty to eat. It wasn't until April 28, 1965 that I discovered The WORD. From the WORD I discovered The LAW: From the LAW I discovered what had happened to my people.

3 Empires fight wars so that the loser's wealth can be "privatized".

Old History

The law says:

"The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov. 22:7

America's Southland was virtually debt-free but became borrowers and slaves overnight. We look back and see that our people have gone through the same sort of thing before - and survived.

The Goth nation was split into two parts - Visigoths and Ostrogoths. The Goths were settled and farming north of the Black Sea when suddenly half of them were overrun by a massive invasion of Huns. The captives were allowed to live provided they paid tribute to the Huns and serve in their armies (same as today). These slave Goths were "Ostrogoths".

The other half fled. They learned the Hun method of war and became a nation on the move - their self- sufficient farms faded into the past. These Goths were known as Visigoths. With the Huns behind them, they were pushed into the Roman Empire. Without a king but with excellent leaders, they destroyed the Roman army sent to expel them, killing the emperor and most of his men.

While the Ostrogoths served the Huns until Attila was killed by a captive daughter of a German chief, the Visigoths continued on and conquered and settled France, Italy and Spain. Once there, they again divided the land and established their Self-Sufficient- Farms like those that they had abandoned in the Crimea. Each man was again king with his own land to rule.[4]

Fate Of Rome

A man having a Self-Sufficient-Farm may destroy himself and his family inadvertently - and it will scarcely be noticed by the rest of the nation.

With an Empire it is different; the emperor, the final arbiter of right and wrong for everyone in his empire, in time will make a fatal mistake. When he does, not IF, but when - his empire will come crashing down.

Babylon left a water-gate undefended, the enemy entered its "impregnable" defenses and Babylon fell.

Rome died a bit at a time. Its emperor granted a food monopoly based in Egypt. Pirates destroyed the grain ships - much of Rome starved. Rome taxed its citizens. Romans saved money for taxes and stopped having children. Rome's water came by aqueduct from distant mountains. German warriors broke the aqueducts and the population of the City of Rome dropped from 1 million to 10,000 in one year.

Today

Esau has stealthily invaded our lands. "Esau's Cloak" blinds our eyes and minds. His agents in pulpit, political office, and business have collaborated to make us accept the debt of country, states, and cities. Our homes and possessions are collateral. Bankruptcy and prison await non-payment or defiance. Esau has arranged things so the Law is not taught. Without knowledge there can be no obedience. Without

---

4 "All the earth is mine." Ex 19:5; "As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5; "Joshua divided the whole land by lots to Israel for an inheritance, as the Lord had commanded him." Jasher 90:19; "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... the land shall be divided by lot." Num 26:53- 55 obedience there can be no hope. Esau knows the law. He knows:

"The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov. 22:7

He has attached "usury" to this debt, and made us responsible for both. He can do this with impunity since his collaborators will not teach that endebtedness is slavery and "usury" is a capital crime.[5]

While this is taking place, we are awakening to find tens of millions of hostile strangers in our land. Our taxes are no longer enough. Esau's fraudulent money system is fractured - which in time may place food beyond reach. In brief, Jacob's debts could vanish overnight when Esau's usury system self-destructs.[6]

Picture a day when the sons of Goths and Vikings stand naked, hungry, having nothing more to lose, they will realize what Esau and his collabarators have done to them and they are angry - very angry; And having the LAW in their hearts and nothing more to lose they will know exactly what to do to bring God's Kingdom to earth.

5 "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

6 USURY: Usury is lending 10 units when only 10 units of the thing lent is in existence - while requring the repayment of 11 of those units, or forfeture of assets. Given time, Usury logically results in ALL property in time falling into the hands of one usurer with all other usurers being his agents. Ezek 18:13; Deu 23:20

SEEDS

Climate, political, and monetary changes point to an increasing possibility of food shortages. In 1988, I asked for the names of Seed Companies and received more than I could print. I asked HR readers to share their lists of companies selling non-genetically modified seed and received the following:

Food As A Weapon

Russian armies retreating before Napoleon burned their own farmlands. French soldiers went hungry and then starved.

During the War Between the States, Lincoln stopped prisoner exchange so that the South would have to feed tens of thousands of Union prisoners. Areas of the South were burned to punish the inhabitants. Some farms were even sown with salt. Rail fences that kept livestock from ruining gardens were burned. Union armies often lived off the land. The economy was ruined and post-war taxes passed by occupation governments forced cheap land sales.

In the Boer War, British armies invaded S. Africa and burned Boer farms, slaughtered livestock, and imprisoned women and children in concentration camps where tens of thousands died from disease and starvation. The economy was ruined. Much later, black occupation governments passed high taxes forcing cheap land sales.

During WWI, the allies blockaded Germany. The blockade was continued after the war to force Germany to agree to the Versailles Peace Treaty. Hundreds of thousands died. Post war Allied supported governments passed high taxes, printed money and ruined the economy - forcing cheap asset sales to foreigners.

The National Socialists came to power in Germany after WWI. They required that houses being built have garden plots. During WWII, the allies again blockaded Germany and again kept the blockade in place after the war. Hundreds of thousands of Germans again starved to death. It would have been far worse without the small individual garden patches. I have met Germans whose families had members who starved to death during this period. Allied installed occupation government taxed a ruined economy and forced its sale to foreigners. Saxons of America, South Africa and Germany own very little in their countries.

Don't think that those responsible for Ruby Ridge, Waco, Oklahoma City and the Towers will hesitate to punish American dissenters. Think what would happen if the 18-wheelers stopped running or the aquducts shut down. Stalin starved ten million of his own people. The Soviet revolution was financed from America - its revolutionists came from New York's east side.

Get non-hybrid seed and start your own garden.

LETTERS

RON PAUL: Dear Mr. Hoskins: The reason for Ron Paul's poor showing has to be the hammerlock Esau has on the media. There is also the probability of fraud with the voting machines. For all the money Paul raised, I did not see a single Ron Paul campaign ad, even on Election Eve. Perhaps, "The Cloak Of Esau" needs to be exposed anew." E. Z. - Arizona

ED: I have heard nice things about all the people running for office. I'm almost 80 years old and I can't tell you how many times I've been snookered with the same talk. My rule is this: wait until the latest "white hope" burns a bridge.

Ron Paul could have announced that he intended to audit the Federal Reserve or deport aliens. That would have burned a bridge. Or, he could have said that he would shut down usury banking, or, enforce the Law against racial intermarriage, or, he could have chosen any one of a hundred other Laws that would have burned a bridge.

Never take someone's word that he is the "white-hope" and the real McCoy. Let him burn a bridge. Ron Paul is a nice guy, they all are. One of them might even be another George Washington, but George crossed the Deleware at night in the snow and ice and fought a battle. That's the hard way to burn a bridge.

It's over, and everyone still likes Ron; he remains a member of the establishment in good standing. Lending his name to lead the fox-hounds to chase their tails cost him nothing. Right-wing separatists will be told that they were trounced again. In my opinion, they weren't even in the race. Burn a bridge or shut-up.

HOPE: "Dear Hoskins Family: Enclosed are $2.00 in stamps to help. I hope my brothers who walk out of this jungle gym stay in contact and help spread the message. Many have no remorse! I hope to rise above my anger until my King cast the first stone. In the meantime I mean to reach those who can be reached." D.E. - prisoner Texas

MASSACRES Of 1622 &1644

16th Century

In the 16th century, the children of Jacob-Israel living in Europe had had enough of the corruption of church and kings.

Kings and priests grew fat and rich on the people's labor. Land, taken from the people, sat unused while the people starved. Everything had its price. The church even sold documents giving permission to commit a sin. The king would give a "favorite" 10,000 people to rule.

Enough was enough! Revolt broke out all over Europe - the rebels included both peasants and nobles. They used Biblical Law to justify their seizing and dividing the land claimed by the kings and church. Many groups set up their own states.[1]

Deposed rulers fought back. Kings calling themselves "Protestant" and other kings appointed by the Catholic Church together hanged protesting rebels by the tens of thousands to retrieve the lands. Then, the "Protestant" kings and the Catholic kings fought each other to see who was to rule the land retrieved from the people.

To appear Lawful, Protestant kings appointed their own Protestant bishops to bless what they were doing. The Pope blessed the slaughter committed by the Catholic kings he had appointed. Millions had died. In places, Germany lost 90% of her population.

The Reformation reform was dead - except for scattered islands of survivors who fled from place to place keeping the flame alive.

Puritans & Covenanters

Scotland had suffered long from the invasions and misrule of Episcopal invaders from England. John Calvin brought a message. "Earthly princes deprive themselves of all authority when they rise up against God - We ought rather to spit in their faces than to obey them". John Knox taught "It is better

1 LAW: *"As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5; "Joshua divided the whole land by lots to Israel for an inheritance, as the Lord had commanded him." Jasher 90:19; "Thus shall (evil men) do in strongholds with a strange god ... he shall divide the land for gain." to obey God than man". In 1596, the firebrand Presbyterian Andrew Melville stood in King James' face and said, "I mon tell yow, thair is twa Kings and twa Kingdoms the Kirk, whase subject King James the Saxt is, and of whase kingdome nocht a king nor a lord nor a heid, bot a member." Brave talk.

The Scot backbone stiffened, and they came together in what they called a Covenant based on the WORD.[2]

To the south, England's people had also had enough. There, followers of the WORD were called "non-conformists" or "Puritans". Many were burned at the stake - first by Catholic kings and then by Protestant kings. Persecution bred opposition.

In an age of long hair, rebels cut theirs short to conform to the Scripture - thereby earning the name "round-heads". Short hair was a flag of rebellion.[3]

Catholicism was largely suppressed and England was Protestant in name. However, there was an ocean of difference between the religious beliefs of England's puritan Protestant Parliament and the religious beliefs of the Protestant king and his Protestant "Established Church".

The Puritans used Scripture. The king's church used Scripture - but omitted teaching the prohibitions of "kings", "taxes", "usury" and "monopoly" among other things. Inevitably, the two different law systems collided and conflict broke out between the puritan Protestant Parliament and the Protestant King.

Oliver Cromwell

Parliament selected Oliver Cromwell to lead their forces. Like today's conservatives, he "talked the talk" and seemingly "walked the walk".

Unschooled in military matters, Cromwell revealed himself a military genius. Making things better, Scottish Covenanters came down from the north and joined forces with the English Puritans to fight the Episcopal king. United, they crushed the king's Episcopal armies.[4]

Parliament thanked Cromwell and told him to disband Parliament's Puritan army and go home. Cromwell refused, and instead, dismissed Parliament and beheaded the captured king.

The Puritans in Cromwell's army revolted against him. Cromwell crushed the revolt. He then reorganized his army with those loyal to him and invaded Scotland and crushed his former Scottish Covenanter allies. Cromwell killed two of this writer's Scottish ancestors at Dunbar.

Catholic Ireland revolted and massacred Irish Protestants. "Protestant" Cromwell invaded Ireland and devastated the Catholics from one end of the island to the other.

Returning home, he dispossessed the Puritan owners of lands given them by the former Puritan Parliament and turned them over to his own "Cromwellians" who had proved their loyalty to him. He called himself "Lord Protector", fooling noone. He was king. A king is a king by whatever name he chooses to be called. He had fooled everyone.

A Quick Recap

A king rules an episcopacy with himself as the head, or, a self-sufficient people rule themselves. Both call on Gods to bless their efforts. Ours is God-the-WORD. [5] A king's god is a god the king creates to bless his Lawlessness.

The WORD frowns on kings and other Gods.

> "This will be the manner of the king ... he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants (stealing). And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants (taxes). ... He shall take the tenth of your sheep (taxes): and ye shall be his servants." (Deut 17:16-17). "And ye shall cry out in the day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the Lord will not hear you in that day." I Sam 8:11-18

One who is chosen to be a leader to deal with a crisis is not a king. Neither is one who calls himself a "protestant" necessarily a follower of the WORD, nor a "catholic" a Christian.

> "By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20

Puppet Rulers

Kings and great churchmen, surrounded by followers, processions and pomp, are easy to see, and their excesses are easy to condemn. Neglected is the realization that both represent the merchant. Their job is to police and bless the merchants' trade monopolies.[6]

5 "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father;" Rev 1:5-6

Visible political and religious episcopacies are front men for the rulers of the world who stand behind them.

Virginia

The old king appointed a Royal governor to rule Virginia. This governor represented the king's law system. Many of Virginia's 1607 colonists were Puritan in belief. Many of Virginia's Puritan settlers insisted on the Law-of-the-WORD while the governor insisted on obedience to the King's law.

Pocahontas

Today's media tell the story of how an Indian princess, Pocahontas, married a young Saxon lad named John Rolfe, and the two lived happily ever after. The point being - interracial adultery is all right.

This isn't the whole story.

Law Collision

A king is a creation of the "merchant". He enforces the merchant's wishes. A basic belief of the merchant is Anyone who walks through the merchant's door is welcome - he may be a customer. Happy interracial marriages encourage a larger market area.

John Esten Cooke wrote the true account of the Pocahontas affair in his Virginia, A History of the People, p.95, ©1883.

6 The Jews had been banished from England for centuries. Oliver Cromwell allowed them to return to England. This started the story that he was a secret Catholic since Jews had long been used as Vatican bankers as well as acting as the civil-service of the international merchant's trade cartel. What is he to do? he asks Sir Thomas, that man of good conscience and great knowledge in divinity. The Scriptures forbade marrying 'strange wives,' and Pocahontas belonged to 'a generation accursed' ...
> "Sir Thomas Dale at once advised that the marriage should take place. ... The scene was the church at Jamestown, and the time the month of April (1613)."

Sir Thomas represented the King's Government and the God of his Established Church. Rolfe represented the teachings of the revolutionary Puritan movement in England based on the WORD.

Royal Rule

The Royal Government sent explicit instructions that the colonists were to be friends with the Indians. They went in and out of the houses. The whites visited them at their scattered villages and traded with them. The Indians were sold firearms and became excellent shots.

Massacre Of 1622

Powhatan, father of Pocahontas, died in 1618. He was succeeded by his brother, Opitchapan, who was quickly deposed by Opechancanough. The Indian tradition was that he was neither Powhatan's brother, nor a Virginian at all, but a mysterious stranger from Mexico. But he became the Indian ruler and immediately set about planning the extermination of the Saxon colony.

For four years he nurtured his scheme, bringing tribe after tribe into the plot; and during all this time not one Indian betrayed him.

In early 1622, all was ready. On the very morning of the outbreak, the Indians came to the various plantations with presents of game, and breakfasted with the English in the friendliest manner.

Then, the blow fell at the same hour of the same day from Richmond's fall line to the Bay.[7] At the last minute one or two colonists were alerted by friendly Indians but the rest knew nothing. Half the colony died in what was called "wholesale butchery".

Bitter rage engulfed the survivors and instilled them with a fixed resolve to "exterminate these wild beasts".[8]

The surviving colonists drove the Indians away. But, after Saxon indignation had subsided, the King's governor again demanded a universal reconciliation with the savages. The door to interracial trade was to be reopened.

Massacre Of 1644

To repeat a violation of God's Law is to risk a repeat of God's punishment. The result of the Governor's continued unLawful unification policy was a repeat of the earlier massacre:

> "More than 20 years after the massacre of 1622, they resolved a repeat ... their leader was the same Opechancanough."

7 "Fall-line": Ships sail up the Virginia rivers until they encounter rapids stopping their progress.

8 LAW: "Thou shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:32- 33

This strange warrior from a far-off land, whose kinsmen are flooding the country today (and inflicting barbarous unreported injuries on Saxons), was more than 100 years old. This time, however, his effort was far less successful; the colonists trusted neither the Indians nor their own governor, and his effort to exterminate the white man was reduced to killing several hundred victims.[9] The colonists were learning that their lives depended on obedience to the WORD and not the promises of the king's appointed governor.[10]

Bacon's Rebellion - 1676

Jamestown's governor issued a law as to conformity and uniformity in church worship; the whole colony of Virginia was instructed to conform "both in canons and constitution, to the Church of England," (1624-32) "lest the Roundhead people overthrow the Church and King."

Passengers on arriving ships were required to take the oath of supremacy and allegiance. Those not present at prayers, are to be fined one shilling; if they do not attend later, they are to pay two shillings and six-pence; and if they appear not at all, they are to be "fined by the whole bodie of the Assembly" (1632).

In 1675, Indians around Richmond massacred scattered Saxon families. A young 28 year old Englishman named Nathaniel Bacon organized the local militia and requested permission from Governor Berkley to engage in hostilities. Berkley operated a fur-monopoly with the Indians that he did not wish disturbed and so he denied Bacon's several requests. Saxons continued to be murdered.

9 LAW: "Little by little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land." Ex 23:29-30

10 LAW: "He said unto them ... he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one." Luke 22-36-38; "Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold it is written in the book of Jasher." II Sam 1:18

In violation of orders, Bacon's militia retaliated against the Indians and defeated them. Berkley declared Bacon's actions to be an act of "rebellion" and war between the two commenced.

Bacon died either from disease or poison and Berkley proceeded to hang his followers and confiscate their estates - thereby reopening the Indian fur-trade that had been closed by Bacon.[11]

Question

Today's merchant kings and merchant priests seek customers for their masters and have once again thrown the country's doors open to strangers - most having almost identical DNA to those who massacred our ancestors in 1622, 1644, 1676, etc. These invaders are inflicting beatings, robberies and wholesale murders on the Saxon population and have flooded prisons with their members. Unreported by the merchant's-media, armed alien gangs at this moment are organizing in city after city and creating a fearful existence for their inhabitants.

The Question

If, in time, a kinsman of Opechancanough, having the same lust for Saxon blood, leads one or more of these alien groups to commit a truly horrifying 1622 or 1644 type massacre, and the Saxons respond by aggressively defending themselves against their attackers as they did in 1622, 1644 and 1676 - would you expect the king to attack and drive the aliens beyond our borders, or, would you expect the king to attack the Saxons who defended themselves against the wild savages?

11 The Hoskins lost their lands in Bacon's rebellion. Confiscated lands were given to Berkley supporters, many of whom used their newly gained wealth to build big houses on the James. This writer had ancestors who fought on both sides.

Merchant

The God of the Merchant kings and merchant priests considers anyone who walks in the door to be a potential customer. The more who walk in - the more potential customers.

Anyone who prevents a potential customer from walking in the front door is automatically the merchant's enemy.[12]

Merchant kings and merchant priests are selected by the great merchants to police their corporations. Their God is not God The WORD.

Lesson From The Past

Two millennia ago, a traveler commented on the absence of aliens and their trade among the Israelites. The following was the explanation:

> "Nor do we delight in merchandise, nor in such a mixture with other men as arises from it ... having a fruitful country for our habitation, we take pains in cultivating that only. Our principle care ... is ... to educate our children well; ... to observe the laws that have been given us ... Since ... there was no occasion offered us ... for intermixing among the Greeks, as they had had for mixing among the Egyptians, by their intercourse of exporting and importing their several goods; as they also mixed with the Phoenicians, who lived by the sea- side, by means of their love of lucre in trade and merchandise." Flavius Josephus Against Apion 1:12

Rules Of War

The Indian Massacre of 1622 set the rules for future warfare between Saxons and Indians. The ritual remains the same. "Treaty", "friendship", "disarming conduct", "exchange of gifts", "massacre".

Whether peace or war, Saxons have continued to lose isolated families and travelers who are put to death by Indian war parties and their kinsmen in the most horrid manner.

The Indians made the rules. Virginians learned to follow them. Saxons commenced their own massacre raids. Three times a year Virginia would call up her mounted militia who would then scour the no-man's-land between Saxon settlements and Indians. Indians found in the forbidden zone were put death in the same manner the Indians put Saxons to death. It was the kind of war practiced by Indians against each other over hundreds of years and was thoroughly understood by both sides. My family has many members who were massacred by Indians.

Texas

The bloody Aztec-Indian Empire to the south would capture the entire army of an opponent and put them all to death, one by one, in a ritual sacrifice that would leave mountains of bodies and torrents of blood.

This was the people conquered and ruled by a Spanish-Saxon aristocracy. They imposed a veneer of Western civilization over the land. In violation of the LAW - the Spanish aristocracy mixed their race with the Indians creating a mix-breed called "mestizos". These mixed-breed Mestizos breed faster than Saxons and in time this reduced the Mexican-Saxons to a minority.

Mexican Texas was largely unsettled. By 1835, thousands of Americans, mostly from the Southern states, had settled in this land. The clash of LAWs soon changed the initial welcome to hostility, so the Saxons set up their own government.

"Remember The Alamo"

A large Mexican army moved to suppess these Texas separatists and quickly defeated small Texan forces. After capture, they massacred their Saxon captives. Next, was The Alamo. We are familiar with "Remember The Alamo" and the fate of the garrison.

Goliad Massacre

Flushed with success, the Mexican army defeated a number of other small Texas units and captured their members - who were slaughtered after they surrendered. At Goliad, 342 men of Col. Fannin's command were captured. At 8 AM on Palm Sunday, March 27, 1836, the Mexicans marched their prisoners out and shot, clubbed and stabbed them to death. Those found wounded in a Goliad hospital met the same fate.

Three known survivors escaped to Sam Houston's army with the news. In the following Battle of San Jacinto the Saxons were overwhelmingly victorious.

Instead of following the Indian rules of war - the Texans spared the lives of surrendered Mexican Gen Santa Anna and his soldiers.

Border Massacre

I spent a number of years as a Gideon. Our job was to distribute New Testaments at schools and Bibles in hotels. One old timer had served on the Mexican border under General Black Jack Pershing before WWI. He told an interesting story.

His command was ordered to pursue Mexican bandits. They crossed over into Mexico and passed through several towns. In the streets lay the bodies of entire families - men, women and children - bodies having blond hair and blue eyes. The Mexicans were killing their own Mexicans who were Saxons. This scene met his eyes in village after village.

Today, Mexico is virtually devoid of its founding Saxons. The Indian children of Esau destroyed them.

Conclusion

We Saxon children of the Covenant are still here because we remember the LAW of our Father:

"I am the Lord your God, which have separated you from other peoples." Le 20:24

Hispanics and Indians share the same DNA. The things they did before is in their blood. Esau has placed the same type of governors to rule us as he did before. These rulers promote interracial trade regardless of consequences to Saxon-Israel. They see our kinsmen being slaughtered daily and consider it of no importance.

Esau and his appointees tell us that things are different now, that there can be no repeat of Opechancanough's Plan.

Still, we remember 1622, 1644, 1676, the Indian wars that followed every 20 years, the Alamo and Giliad massacres, and the tens of thousands of ambushes on backroads, farms and streets, and the rape and slaughter of our women and children - constantly increasing in tempo and intensity and ignored by pulpit, politician, and media; and we remember especially - the ones who are responsible for allowing this to happen.

Chapter 404

ALL ARE GUILTY

A government paper came into my possession in 1987 entitled "A Staff Study, Prepared For The Use Of The Joint Economic Committee, Congress Of The United States, dated May 10, 1986." It is 44 pages long.

It was excerpted to fit HR #149.

The paper confesses that our own government knows that the acts of the banking cartel shuts down US farmers. They have done this to make room for foreign farm exports from other lands. This increased foreign production gives foreigners money to pay interest they owe to the international banks. The consequences were known, but were still implemented to the detriment of our own American farmers.

"A STAFF STUDY"

A Staff Study, was written in 1986 - more than 20 years ago. It's tough reading, but you'll learn something. It will be worth your time.

"Latin American debtor nations had a total external debt of... $318 billion, with yearly interest payment totaling $38.5 billion. Their trade surplus... was only $8.5 billion, or $30 billion less than that needed to pay interest. ...

"Debtor nations generate a large portion of the dollars they need to pay interest by increasing their exports and cutting their imports;

"... to comply with this strategy, Latin American debtors... reduced their imports from almost $100 billion in 1981 to approximately $60 billion today (1986). ... Argentina, Brazil, and Mexico, ... account for 2/3s... (they) increased the volume of their exports by 47%, 56%, and 62%...

"Injury To The US Farm Economy

"...policies ... implemented have permitted US banks to... increase their profitability. But... those policies have... injured the economic well-being of sectors of the US... agriculture and manufacturing in particular....

"Little attention... has been paid to the relationship between the international debt crisis and the financial difficulties of US farmers.

"Declining Farm Exports

"In 1981 ... the US Department of Agriculture reported:

"Developing countries continue to be the major growth area for US farm exports... over 1/2 of US wheat and soybean oil and 4/5s of US rice exports went to developing countries ....

"... US farm exports hit an all-time high in 1981... Between 1980 & 1981, the Latin American market absorbed almost 1/2 the total growth of US farm exports.

"When the debt crisis emerged in Aug. 1982 ... L. American markets contracted precipitously. ... to obtain dollars to pay interest on their external debt, debtor nations began reducing their purchases of all US exports... this had dire consequences down on the farm.

"... agricultural exports to L. America tumbled 1/3 below ...their 1981 level. ...

Falling Commodity Prices

"... to pay interest, debtor nations must increase their exports as well as reduce their imports ... they must ... produce more and compete more fiercely with US producers for a share of world export markets....

"This additional production ...places downward pressure on virtually all major commodity prices. Falling commodity prices ... pushes many (farmers) into bankruptcy. ...falling commodity prices also make it more difficult for L. American debtors to continue servicing their debt.... as ...debt ...difficulties mount, they are pressed to produce and export still more which ...generates additional price declines and increases the financial strains on US farmers....

"Between October 1980 and Oct. 1982, prices for all non-petroleum commodity exports declined 40%. ...

Global Overproduction

"Many Americans are under the impression that the current farm crisis is due primarily to domestic overproduction. ... export statistics tell a different story.

"... while US wheat production was increasing by 6 million metric tons (6 MMT) between 1981 and 1985, global wheat production was increasing ... nearly 12 times as much...

"Rising world production ... spark the dramatic decline in US farm exports. ...

Increased L. American Grain Exports

"... While US production and exports have been declining, debtor nations ...Argentina & Brazil in particular, have greatly expanded production and, as statistics concerning the increasing incidence of malnutrition in both countries indicate, they have increased their exports even more rapidly than production. ... their success in boosting exports has come at the expense of US farm exports.

(ED: These countries, desperate to pay their debts, took their own citizens' food to sell to pay interest to the international banks.)

"Manufacturing businesses and their employees are also victims ...more than one million US jobs have been lost because the debt crisis has forced debtor nations to reduce their consumption of US products and increase their exports of competing products to the US...

Solvency Or Profitability?

"...Without new bank loans, debtor nations would have difficulty making ...interest payments. ... if debtors failed ... bank profits would fall. ...

"From the earliest days ...banks increased their spreads - (additional interest charges) ... These higher profit margins ... quickly translated into higher profits at the money center banks. During 1985, ... after-tax profits rose by 12% at Citicorp, 39% at Chase Manhattan, 16% at Manufacturers Hanover, 31% at Morgan Guaranty, 15% at Chemical, 21% at Bankers Trust, & 96% at 1st Chicago. Continental Illinois converted a $1 billion loss in 1984 into a $134 million profit in 1985. ... Bank profits have grown steadily since the onset of the debt crisis....

"Not surprisingly, bank stock prices and dividends increased along with profits ... In addition to ... higher dividends, shareholders also profited from a substantial increase in stock prices...

Growth Or Interest Payments

"... except for the Dominican Republic, all the major L. American debtor nations are generating large trade surpluses. In Argentina, Brazil, and Venezuela, exports were at least twice as large as imports. ... In dollar terms, the total trade surplus of these 10 L. American debtors is $35.6 billion. ... a large part of that trade surplus was generated by reducing their purchases of US products. ...

"However, because of their debt service expenses (interest), debtor nations cannot afford to increase their imports. ... With the exception of Ecuador and Venezuela, interest payments exceed the trade surplus in every Latin American nation ...

"... In other words, after all expenses are taken into account, debtor nations were still not generating enough export earnings to operate on a pay-as-you-go basis ...

Impact On US Farm Economy

"... there is a significant chance that it will lead to further declines in international commodity prices and US farm exports.

"... Argentina is getting its $350 million World Bank loan on condition that it ... expand the amount of land devoted to wheat and soybean production ... The World Bank recognizes ... boosting food exports reduces world market prices...

"The World Bank analysis leaves 2 important questions unanswered. Who will purchase Argentina's additional agricultural exports? And ... which country's exports will decline so that Argentina's exports may increase? (ED: We know the answer to that one!)

"... the recent decline of the dollar against the yen will not give the US farmers a competitive advantage of L. American farmers. ... both Argentina and Brazil devalued their currencies and then pegged them to the dollar. Consequently, both... will always remain below the dollar in value (ED: So has China) ... Argentina and Brazil will appropriate ... the benefits that US farmers hoped to reap from a falling dollar.

"A final set of candidates for purchasing the additional Argentine farm exports are Brazil & Mexico ... In effect, all three debtor nations will have more dollars to pay the banks because they would all be purchasing less from the United States." (Editor's italics)

Rocky Road

The above report reveals that more than 20 years ago the American government knew about the problems being caused by usury-banking and the harm done to the American farmers - and did nothing.

The Game

When I was a youngster, neither the national Republican or Democratic Parties were conservative. Virginia was nominally Democratic but relied on its own leader, Senator Harry Byrd.

When the US Government attempted to take over Virginia's schools, Byrd proclaimed "Massive Resistance." Virginians believed him. I was a young officer in the 186th Combat Team, the old Richmond Light Infantry Blues. When government officers invaded Virginia soil and began taking over its schools, our regiment went on alert. Virginia has been invaded many times before and we know exactly what to do. We sat by our telephones expecting to be called to our regiments to repel invasion.

Instead, nothing happened. No call came. "States rights" talk about the 10th Amendment stopped. The Richmond Times Dispatch changed the subject. Senator Byrd had nothing more to say.

When Byrd died, his estate consisted of extensive orchards, a newspaper that covered much of Virginia, and an impressive portfolio of stocks. All on government pay.

More

When times turn bad, a third party candidate appears so that we can have someone to vote for. There was Senator Goldwater, the Jewish conservative. I remember standing in the rain at a stoplight handing out his election brochures. He wasn't conservative. Those calling themselves conservatives told me he was a Conservative.

Then, George Wallace and his 3rd party arrived. Overnight the Wallace Phenomenon mushroomed into a national steamroller that promised to swamp both major parties and sweep him into office. To stop the unexpected juggernaut he was shot and his 3rd party disintegrated. In a wheelchair, Wallace confessed that he had been a liberal all along. Great!

Ross Perot was another who boasted that he was a conservative. America's disenchanted flocked to his standard. His strength grew so great that his bloc of voters became the balance of power. Whomever he endorsed would be the next president. All sorts of favorable deals can be made under these conditions. America's cheers turned into cries of disbelief when Perot withdrew from the race. This crushed the conservative spirit for years.

Somewhere in here stood Strom Thurmond who talked one way and practiced miscegenation when out of sight.

Then there was Pat Buchanan, the voice of conservatism. He showed his true colors when, in violation of the Law, he chose a stranger for a running mate.

Now we have Ron Paul. People have been beating his drum for a long time. If by some miracle he is elected president - what will we have? Pete Peters wrote an article in Dragon Slayer, p.5, Election Sermon 2008, giving his opinion:

Ron Paul

"You can tell a lot about a man by who his heroes are.

"Mr. Paul's hero is Martin Luther King. ... Mr. King was a Communist trained, whore-mongering womanizer, a race-mixer and a plagiarizer ... Consider the following news item:

> '... Ron Paul today issued the following statement ... 'It is especially fitting that we take time to reflect on one man's struggles to defend our Constitutional freedoms during this primary election season. Jan. 15 was the birthday of the great freedom fighter, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and on Monday, we honor him nationwide for his sacrifice and love for liberty for all people. To me, the timing is more than a coincidence. The American people, regardless of color or creed, have the opportunity to choose a candidate who will uplift the ideals for which Dr. King fought-and died.'"

"If you think Ron Paul is a better choice than Jesus Christ, vote for him. As for me, I'm going to write in 'Jesus Christ'."

Writing in Jesus Christ is better than anything presently available, but this I know - America's political system is in the hands of its enemies. To discover exactly who the guilty ones are it might be informative to examine the South African betrayal.

South Africa

The US and Great Britain forced the white South African government to abdicate. S. African politicians were forced to vote on a key piece of legislation to implement the abdication. It was called, "One Man, One Vote".

Since S. Africa was overwhelmingly black - passing the "one man, one vote" law was sufficient to turn the country over to a black government. Knowing that such a thing would destroy their country, the vote was taken. Only four members of the ruling party voted against it - FOUR!

P.J. Pretorious, who had insider contacts, wrote a history of the event. He called his book Volksvarrad "Betrayal". His conclusion was "they were ALL guilty of treason - ALL of them". The generals, the preachers, the politicians - all of them.

America's Janissaries

America is the same. Those in power have been placed there by the money-powers. It's simple. Media-access is denied those who follow the Law. Those who find a way to speak - whose dangerous ideas might disturb the status-quo and whose ideas may be accepted - risk #19 of Esau's 36-Strategies, (HR 365)

> 19 - If unable to answer problems or ideas - remove or discredit the author or authors of the problems.

Simply, it is a rare politician who is elected to a local city council, state legislature, or Congress who was not selected because he is willing to co-operate with the Cartel. A non-cooperative person is denied media recognition, and without media recognition the average voter would not even know his name.

The banking cartel controls the media who controls the government who controls the people. It's nothing new. Andrew Jackson complained of this very thing back in the 1830s.

Priests are controled by the same cartel. Priests of wealthy churches are paid by wealthy parishioners who receive their pay by working for the cartel or one of its corporations. In my life-time I have heard many preachers but never have I ever heard the Laws, Statutes, and Judgments taught in a big church. The result is that without the Law of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, there is a new religion in the land. Texe Marrs summed it up when he wrote in his Power Of Prophecy, May 2008

> "Today's evangelical Christian has no principles and is neither evangelical nor Christian."

Back To Basics

The Law states:

> "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

Usury is lending 10 units when only 10 units of the thing lent is in existence - while requiring the repayment of 11 of those units, or forfeiture of assets. This is a contract impossible to fulfill.

Priests tell people that "usury" means too much interest. Something like - 5% interest is good, but 15% is bad - which is nonsense.

Owing $1.05 with only $1 in existence is as unpayable as is owing $1.15 with $1 in existence. ALL interest is usury and usury is against God's Law. The usury contract is crooked from the instant a person signs his name. It's simple logic. ALL property falls into the hands of the usurer in time. Usury is the primary cause of wars and famines, and usury troubles will continue as long as usury continues.

Josiah Stamp's Confession

Some people won't accept simple logic. They won't accept the WORD. Often, these same people will take the word of someone they consider more important.

Sir Josiah Stamp
(1880-1941)
President of the Bank of England

The opinion of one of usury's top men, Sir Josiah Stamp, might convince them. He was the President of the Bank of England in the 1920s and the 2nd richest man in Great Britain.

> "The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight-of-hand that was ever invented. Banking was conceived in inequity and born in sin. ... But if you want to continue to be slaves of the bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let the bankers continue to create money and control credit."

This is the thing that Esau's media and our Lawless preachers and politicians are paid to conceal and tell us that all is all right. This is witchcraft, the art of making money out of nothing.

Josiah Stamp said something else profound:

> "It is easy to dodge our responsibilities, but we cannot dodge the consequences of dodging our responsibilities."

Conclusion

In time, a genuine leader will arrive. In the meantime, who is our friend and who is our enemy? The WORD instructs us:

By their acts ye shall know them.

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA

The ANC Communists held a big conference in Northern Transvaal early this year. In their monthly letter, Jeremy Cronin, the Jewish head of the Communist Party, made some of their aims clear; he stated, 'We can't go on like this - together. Let's make sure things change." The message was an open letter and clear. Trouble broke out soon afterwards. Murders and rapes increased and the blacks provoke whites everywhere. Zuma the Zulu, follower of Mbeki, is a true communist. In his songs he sings about his machine gun and killing the Boere.

As I mentioned before, S. Africa is having electrical problems. When a grocery shop is out of electricity for 3 days, the frozen food is thrown out. Firms cannot work and businesses close their doors because a dark shop is ideal for theft.

The mixing of races in university dormitories is a disaster. Some time back the daughter of a friend of ours, who had been a liberal, told us what it was like. Dirt everywhere; washbasins full of their hair. She had to shower with her sandals on because the tubs were too filthy to touch with one's bare skin; loud African music, 'boom, boom', at all hours.

Most of the food and farm supplies are in the hands of Jews. The implements and fertilizer they sell are very expensive. Smaller markets, started by small farmers, are beginning to appear everywhere. They sell their produce and goods without paying the heavy government taxes.

With a revolution coming, we seem so ill prepared. As it is, the outcome will rest with our God and Gideon's few men. Die Afrikaner warns that we must stay alert when Mugabe goes. Hatred toward us is growing here, and many whites have been killed.

Please pray earnestly for us at this time, as the dark clouds are gathering. Yours faithfully. K.J.

Charlton Heston (1924-2008)

Known for impersonating heroic historic personages as well as his strong defense of the right to bear arms - Heston was elected president of the NRA and roared that gun control advocates would have to wrest a weapon "from my cold, dead hands!"

In 1964, he backed presidential candidate Barry Goldwater who ran for office as a conservative. Following that he became president of the ultra-liberal Screen Actors Guild for a record 5 years from 1966-1971. When Senate Democrats blocked confirmation of the black, Robert Bork, to the Supreme Court in 1987 he switched from Democrat to Republican. He called Martin Luther King Jr "a 20th-century Moses for his people," and actively supported the anti- white civil rights movement. He even joined King's march on Washington in 1963. In Hollywood he played parts in interracial love scenes - kissing and fondling alien partners.

Heston followed other Hollywood actors; Ronald Reagan - whose first marriage was outside his race - acted the part of a fiscal conservative while he was US president while his budget broke records; Hollywood's "terminator" is presently acting as governor of California where he supports the sodomite movement and other anti-white legislation.

History often teaches lessons: the Romans despised the professions of actors and gladiators above all others. One tells lies for a living, while volunteer-gladiators amused audiences in the arena for pay and applause at the risk of their lives.

The one that you can trust least is one who pretends to be one of your own while looking on aliens as their heroes.

"So long," Charlton Heston; you were good at what you did.

UNFILTERED NEWS

HEROES: The Cloak Of Esau covers the land. We are supposed to select heros to be our leaders. Perhaps someone like "Hackworth" - if we had known of his existence. His obituatry was in HR-2005.

"HACKWORTH: David Hackworth (1931-2005) is dead. Who was David Hackworth? He was America's most decorated Vietnam veteran. In Korea in one ferocious firefight he killed more than 100 enemy soldiers, and that is only one of his stories. Why haven't you heard of David Hackworth? Esau's government has no intention of giving captive Saxons a hero who might become their leader - especially a military leader. Esau's Hollywood actors are substituted to play statesmen and soldiers.

The WORD tells us to select leaders from Phineas types who follow the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

his country's armed services were 'totally infiltrated by the CIA.

SIX-MILLION: Prof. Richard Lynn writes the following observation:

"I've checked out Churchill's Second World War & the statement is quite correct - not a single mention of Nazi "gas chambers," a "genocide" of the Jews, or of "six million" Jewish victims of the war. This is astonishing. How can it be explained?

"Eisenhower's Crusade in Europe is a book of 559 pages; the six volumes of Churchill's Second World War total 4,448 pages; and de Gaulle's three-volume Memoirs de guerre is 2,054 pages. In this mass of writing, which altogether totals 7,061 pages (not including the introductory parts), published from 1948 to 1959, one will find no mention either of Nazi "gas chambers," a "genocide" of the Jews, or of "six million" Jewish victims of the war." Chapter 405

SUPERCLASS

Today, most of our lands and businesses have been taken from us and we survive by serving Esau's corporations.

There are some fortunate few who inherit wealth from their forebears while others create wealth by their own efforts.

Increasingly, there are others who seem to attract wealth in ways having no satisfactory explanation and some of them spend this wealth in ways hurtful to our people. These deserve closer attention.

Thomas Fortune Ryan (1851-1928)

Our family often drove to visit Mother's family in Culpeper. Sometimes we would take a side trip and drive through "Oak Ridge". Oak Ridge was near Lovingston and belonged to Thomas Fortune Ryan.

Oak Ridge included a large part of Nelson County. We would enter Oak Ridge and drive for miles and miles over county roads and still be on the Oak Ridge estate. Everything was interesting. There were tenant houses, great barns, fields with high grass that needed cutting, but no horses, cows or people. It was like a ghost country. We could see the big homeplace up on a hill - deserted. We passed an occasional car. Besides that - nothing.

The Story

Thomas Fortune Ryan was a local boy who made it big. He was born at nearby Lovingston. His father was a tailor. He took the train to Baltimore to seek his fortune. Raised a Protestant, he was converted to Catholicism while on the train.

He had the midas touch. Everything he touched turned to gold. He joined a brokerage firm that was extremely successful. He moved to New York. He was the major player with New York's public transportation and owned most of its streetcars. He owned coal mines, banks, public utilities, railroads, tobacco companies. He owned over 30 corporations and was active in politics - behind the scenes. He built The Cathedral of the Sacred Heart in Richmond and built dormitories and buildings for Jesuit colleges. His wealth was beyond counting.

He went back to Nelson County and bought thousands upon thousands of acres and built Oak Ridge - one of the finest houses in America. In poverty-stricken Virginia, he offered jobs to hundreds of unemployed to work for him on his estate. Oak Ridge was a garden of Eden in Virginia's post-war "Reconstruction" devastation. Ryan was seen as a demi-god dropped from heaven.

Abruptly, it ended. This is the story I was told.

His chauffeur was driving him along a county road on his estate when a deputy sheriff pulled them over for speeding and gave him a ticket. Ryan flew into a rage. After all he had done for Nelson County! It was inconceivable that a deputy sheriff would have the audacity to give him a speeding ticket!

He went home, packed, fired the hundreds of people working for Oak Ridge, gave orders to dispose of the live-stock, slammed the front door and left never to return, and that was years and years ago before I was born.

It was spooky driving over the roads of Oak Ridge passing deserted tenant houses and barns - seeing the deserted Oak Ridge mansion on the hill. All this had belonged to Thomas Fortune Ryan, and he had left. It reminds one of the Chetiar mansions in Southern India (HR 379-2006). They, too, just stand there deserted.

Swannanoa

Just above Waynesboro stands Swannanoa. It is a marble palace that was disassembled in Italy and transported across the Atlantic, up the rivers, and hauled the rest of the way by wagons to the top of Afton Mountain on the edge of The Valley - a long way from anywhere. It stands like a white jewel that can be seen from miles away.

It was just off the main road going over Afton Mountain, and in the 1940s there were no signs showing how you could get to it. Visitors were few. You could drive there if someone told you how. The lawns needed cutting, but you could just walk right up the marble steps into the house. There was nobody there. Your steps echoed in the great marble hall and when walking up the fine staircase.

The story I was told is that a young Confederate soldier made a great fortune and erected this Italian villa for his bride. He was supposed to have made his money in railroads. I never could find out what else he did or in what way he interacted with his neighbors. A palace standing on a mountain top, transported from one continent to another at incredible cost - worth millions - standing deserted.

Strange story.

Defenders

Mr. Bob Crawford of Farmville hired me to help organize The Defenders. I was maybe 25 or 26. The Defenders were made up of Virginians fighting the takeover of its schools by the government.

The timing was right and I had phenomenal success. Membership was $10 a year. That was a lot of money in the '50s. We had over 10,000 dues-paying members organized into county, city and congressional chapters. We had our own newsletter. It seemed that everyone belonged. Politicians listened to us. My salary was $2,600 a year. I furnished my own car. If I could have afforded it, I would have worked for nothing.

The Defenders needed money and weren't above passing the hat at meetings. Members gladly put in a dollar or two. It added up. I visited lots of people. Driving down the road I would see a big house and drive up the driveway and knock on the door. I would introduce myself and the owner almost always invited me in. We would talk George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and "states-rights". Everyone knew who The Defenders were. That's how I learned a fact of life. The bigger the house and the richer the individual I talked to - the greater the reluctance to join and the smaller the donation. Real Virginians contributed what they could besides the $10 membership fee. But, the three largest contributions I ever got from "rich folks" were two $40 contributions and one for $35. It would seem that they would be the ones with the most to lose. Maybe I had a lot to learn.

Constitution Party

Virginia was betrayed. The traitors pretended to be patriots but were mirror images of Janissaries.[1] Government surrogates seized Virginia schools and quickly converted them into institutions teaching antisaxonite propaganda.

Except for a few "bitter-enders" the Defenders folded. A few of us got together in Richmond and organized The Constitution Party. In a short time, hundreds gathered at meetings.

A multi-millionaire from Arlington was elected president - because he was a multi-millionaire. People thought he would do great things for Virginia. His election was the last meeting Virginia's Constitution Party ever held.

1 JANISSARY: "Slave" in Turkish. Kidnaped Christian children raised as muslims. Fanatically loyal to Islam. Considered the most dangerous of all Christendom's enemies. Comprised Turkish civil service and private army of Turkish rulers. Called Janissary. Considered "traitor" and "renegade" by their Western kinsmen.

I began to see a pattern.

Vigilantes Of Christendom

In 1991, Southern newspapers attacked me for writing Vigilantes Of Christendom, the history of the Phineas Priesthood. Shortly thereafter I received a visitor - a personable sort who asked all sorts of questions.

He hadn't read my book and apparantly there was no purpose to the meeting except to meet me.

Strange. I made inquiries.

People living near him in the county east of Lynchburg said that he was a retired wealthy recluse. He would disappear several times a year and then reappear at meetings of conservatives and talk to those attending. He declined to hold office and made no contributions.

Scholarships

I wrote Our Nordic Race in 1958. Soon after that, a reader sent me a scholarship booklet that had come into his possession that he said would interest me. It did.

A certain foundation offered journalism scholarships to selected individuals who met their criteria - a matter which was to be discussed privately. Those approved received an initial grant of $200,000 with the same amount following at two year intervals to total $1,000,000.

In 1960, $1,000,000 was a lot of money - a whole lot of money. Exactly what did a promising journalism student have to agree to to receive that kind of money?

Then again, how many prominent Saxon-Israelite writers do you know about? How many anti Saxon-Israelite writers do you know about?

College Professors

When I was in college in the '40s I had conservative Saxon-Christian professors. When I returned from the Korean War things had changed. A former liberal upperclassman was the new president. Foundation money was pouring in, buildings were going up and new professors were being hired.

These new professors were anti-white liberals with one single exception. The college had changed from right to left in the few years I was absent in service and foundations now influenced the selection of the board of directors.

My Rich Friend

I have a rich "friend" who calls me, or runs into me, four times a year. The reason I know he's rich is because he told me so. He never has worked during all the years we have been acquainted. The common denominator is that we knew the same people in Richmond 50 years ago - at least he named some Richmond names I recognized.

Each time we meet he tells me how great I am and how much my books and ideas have meant to him over the years. He says the same things practically verbatim each time we meet. In spite of the kudos, my head remains normal size. My wife sees to that.

He has a law degree but has never practiced law. He knows little things about me that no one else knows - things like the names of certain foreign newspapers who reprint excerpts from HR newsletters.

How many people would you expect to know that?

Years ago he would show up at Christian meetings where I would be one of the speakers. Organizers of these meetings know who contributes to the meeting's expenses and who doesn't. They told me that this individual attended many times and never made a contribution or helped in any meaningful way.

Actors

Sixty years ago I attended "Little Theatre" and college plays in Lynchburg. The actors were local talent whose remuneration was the applause they received for their performances. Often, the performances were as good as anything I saw in New York when I worked there.

In Lynchburg, an actor's private life was above reproach. A hint of impropriety could cause an individual to be replaced in an instant to prevent the reputation of the rest of the cast members from suffering.

I've been informed that today's Hollywood and Broadway actors and actresses, some of whom are not as talented, receive millions for their work. Widely advertised "awards ceremonies" are held for those who do what was once standard fare at the nation's "Little Theatres". Knowledgable people have told me that it seems as if one must be a whore or a whoremonger to be employed by Hollywood. The media portrays them as rich, beautiful, and "cool" - the perfect hero types for our children to copy.

Money Moguls & Basic Facts

A corporation is a management organization that never dies. Once, only the sovereign had corporations. The sovereign's corporations managed the sovereign's wealth. These corporations owned other corporations which owned still more corporations.

Corporations managed countries, religions, peoples, manufacturing, trading, banking, public relations, public information, etc.

Today, small entrepreneurs are allowed to organize corporations. When their enterprises reach a certain size worth a respectable amount, they are surrounded by potential buyers and offers are made that they can't refuse - without something going wrong businesswise.

Paying The Superclass

Corporations require supervisors. Great Corporations have super-supervisors. Some in this rarified group are paid a half a billion dollars a year. Some are even given billions and told to speculate in the currencies of various countries.

The possession of "billions" creates a "Superclass". There are few things or people that a few million dollars can't buy. We didn't elect this superclass. We can't throw them out, and they are getting more powerful every day. They number several thousand scattered throughout the world.

Some well known multi-billionaires oversee managers who manage multi-corporations. Others supervise vast real-estate holdings; still others dispense largesse to "deserving" institutions and individuals from tax-free foundations that they manage.

Self-made billionaires, or billionaires who inherited wealth and the cartel consider potentially dangerous, are stripped of their wealth - even when laws have to be revised to accomplish the job. The destruction of Bunker Hunt of Texas is a classic example.

The One Responsible

My wife used to work in a bank. The bank made home loans. Before the sun set the new loan would be sold to a major bank or insurance company in Chicago or New York. Where it went from there, I don't know. In any event, the local borrower was completely ignorant of the fact that the local bank was not the owner of his mortgage - and that the local bank was only an agent of a bigger bank..

We have long known about the "usury-scam" - the scam that resuts in an "ultimate lender". We pay careful attention to the ultimate lender since he is also the ruler of countries. We know this because the WORD says;

"Money answereth all things." Ecc10:19

One borrows money into existence when he takes out a mortgage. This reduces the borrower to a condition of slavery. We know this because the WORD says:

"The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is slave to the lender." Prov. 22:7

For millennia this lender, the dispenser of wealth and poverty, has been been hidden behind layer upon layer of corporations - banks, religions and governments . His power, and the power of his agents, is such that the governments of the world and their armies spring into action when he, or his agents, snap their fingers.

Manipulating Countries

HR #404 contained excerpts from a US government document showing how world trade is manipulated so that countries owing money to international banks can be made to pay interest on their debt. India and South American countries increase the export of food even when it makes their own people face famine.

It was noted in the document that the American government was aware that the American farmer would be adversely affected as foreign food exports replaced American food exports. However, they raised no objection. The fact that this story was in a US government document shows that the American government is an accomplice to acts detrimental to its own people. It would not be unrealistic to conclude that these acts make the government a bank agent.

World Debt Meltdown

Recent newspaper articles discuss the melt-down of world debt. They estimate this debt to be somewhere between 50-trillion and 750- trillion dollars. While impressive, the amount is immaterial. It is "debt" itself that triggers the Law: "The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov 22:7

Remember the "Unfiltered News" item in HR404:

> USURY: A woman whose ancestor lent $299.58 to the City of Tampa during the Civil War wants the debt repaid, plus $22.7 million interest compounded over 148 years. (THE WEEK, P.6, Mar 28, 2008)

This woman wants repayment of $22.7 million for the loan of $299.58. Unpaid debts compound trememdously over time.

Investing Trillions

For simplicity sake, let's assume that the world debt owed the international banks is 100-trillion and the interest rate is 10%. The result is easy to compute. This generates 10-trillion in interest. This 10-trillion interest is expected to be paid every year - year in and year out.

Bank policy requires that this flood of interest money be invested where it cannot be taken away from the bank if a debtor should repudiate his debt - like Germany did in the 1930s - which required WWII to force Germany to again start paying her debts to the international banks.

Money managers are needed to invest the yearly incoming $10-trillion. Individuals might be given $20-billion or even $100-billion to manage. Someone with $20-billion to manage is called "a billionaire". This is the way most multi-billionaires are created - and the money keeps coming in.

Lawlessness Causes Death

India was in the center of the silk trade and practiced usury banking almost before recorded history.

We assume that with certain exceptions, interest from their loans would be kept "in-house". In other words, placed in the hands of fellow Sons-of-Esau. This is not always the case. The Turks found that their racial kinsmen were so greedy and deceptive that they were better off to entrust both their government and banking to white Janissaries.

We know that their rules are not our rules. We know that their father Esau swore to kill our father Jacob. The power of a person wielding $100-billion is simply enormous. He can buy governments, religions, and people's minds. History has shown us that Esau uses every opportunity to fulfill his oath to destroy Jacob.

Esau's money managers know that the easiest way to destroy Jacob is to make Jacob disobey his God.

Jacob's God commanded:

> "If ye will not ... do these commandments... I will... bring the land into desolation." Lev 26:14-35; "If ye will not... do all these commandments... I will... cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols." Lev 26:14-35; "Mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring them hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27.

This is why Scripture counsels:

> "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29

Obedience brings life - disobedience brings death and destruction. The sons-of- Jacob are reluctant to violate God's Law and be destroyed by their own God.

However, Esau can force Jacob to disobey God's Law and be destroyed. The result of stepping off a cliff is the same whether done willingly or unwillingly. The following is a case in point.

Example

The South was forced into a war. It was devastated and blacks were placed over them to be their rulers[2] These strang-

---

2 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

3 "If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... ye will be left few in number ... ye shall be plucked from off the land." Deut 58:66

ers installed high taxes[4] forcing whites to sell their lands to Esau's land companies. This forced formerly self-sufficient farmers to go to the newly built cities that Esau built for them, work for Esau's companies, pay rent to live in company houses, and borrow from company stores to buy groceries to feed their families.

Esau and Esau's hired help forced Jacob to break one LAW after another - the penalty being the destruction of the land and its people would grow few in number - which was Esau's plan from the beginning.[5]

Another Curse

Esau's corporations, having forced Jacob to be his servant-workers, is also able to steal the products of Jacob's mind.

God said:

> "God is a ... revealer of secrets." Daniel 2:47; "The Lord possessed me (wisdom) in the beginning." Prov 8:22; "I (wisdom of God) find out knowledge of witty inventions." Pr 8:12; "Give not that which is holy (that which is of God) unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they ... turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6; "Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10

The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob chose Jacob-Israel and gave him a Law that made him the envy of the rest of the

4 "And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this [fellow] perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar." Lu 23:2; "Of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. ... Then are the children free." Matt 17:25-26.; "Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them ... thou shall find a piece of money. That take, and give unto them for me and thee." Matt 17:27

5 "If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... ye will be left few in number ... ye shall be plucked from off the land." Deut 58:66

world. Obedience to this LAW makes possible "witty inventions". Our God warns against casting pearls given to us before swine - lest they turn again and rend you.

Esau destroyed Jacob's farm and partnership system to force him to work for Esau's corporations. Because he works for Esau's corporations, Esau owns the ideas, inventions, and secrets God gave Jacob

It is little wonder that the world of Esau is bursting into growth - he has found a way to steal the secrets and inventions that God gave his own children and thereby cause Jacob to violate the the law "Neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they ... turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6

The Informers

To continue to rule, Esau must prevent Jacob from uniting to protest. To defend themselves, they have hired informers who will betray their own kind in exchange for the privileges and position that money can buy. Once alerted, Esau is then able to use the apparatus of the state to suppress all who rebel against their rule.

This is why Esau's media, more often than not, tends to choose morally deficient types to rule Saxon government, religions, and businesses. Moral degenerates see no wrong in leading people away from the WORD which is their God and into the merchant's "money-worshiping" society.

Esau's World

Esau has used his usury-wealth to convert the Saxon world into his world - a world of merchants, traders, rulers and elites - a world in which Esau sucks Jacob's blood causing Esau to thrive - while Jacob slowly dies because Esau has forced him to separate from his God.

Esau's surrogates are today's wealthy. They are the ones who gave $35 and $40 to the Defenders when they could have given thousands, even millions. These are the ones who today obediently give millions to Esau's poor throughout the world and turn their backs on their own kinsmen in Esau's prisons or to alleviate the suffering of white orphans under black rule in South Africa.[6]

The WORD says;

> "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10

We should not be surprised that the rich are luke-warm to anything that might endanger the flow of Esau's money into their pockets - even if it means betraying their God and their nation.

Jesus, the WORD made flesh, proclaimed:

> "A rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven." Mt 19:23

> "And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." Mt 19:24

And still again:

> "How hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! Mt 10:24

---

6 "If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel." I Tim 5:8

Conclusion

The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob remains the same through the ages.

Esau and his hired help have taught our people to ignore the God of their fathers; ignore the ancient writings; and cease their fear of doing evil since they are told that Esau's "God-of-the-land" will protect them.

The "Cloak of Esau" weaves deception into truth and creates money from nothing - money that one day will return from whence it came.

Esau's world is a world where whores and whoremongers are enshrined as gods and goddesses, where mere possession of money is commendable and is worshiped above righteouness, where priests teach a "christ" that is unknown to the WORD.

The WORD also speaks of "the day of the Lord"; this is the day when Jacob will reclaim what is his..

> "And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall flee every man to his own land. Every one that is found shall be thrust through;

The rest should be of special interest to those who have betrayed their God and their nation, who lick the spit of our enemies, and drink the blood of their kinsmen;

> "And every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword." Isaiah 13:14-15

Oh, yes - a new age is coming.

Chapter 406

The COMING STORM

Tim Russett, the TV political analyst, died of a heart attack at the age of 59. Tributes are pouring in. He is receiving the same homage presidents get when they die.

Those seeking establishment endorsement presented themselves before him. The way he conducted the interview captured men's minds. In essence, Russett was a political Guru. The public trusted him. He selected their leaders.[1]

Solzhenitsyn

Alexander Solzhenitsyn, one of the great thinkers of the 20th century, wrote:

> "Such as it is, the press has become the greatest power within the Western World, more powerful than the legislature, the executive and judiciary. One would like to ask; by whom has it been elected and to whom is it responsible?"

Added to this observation is the unguarded comment of Walter Cronkite:

> "My job is not to tell the truth, I am an opinion molder." (Crusade for Christ, Special Message For 2002. Col Jack Mohr.)

He, too, was a media guru - He captured men's minds.

Alan Berg

Then there was the case of Alan Berg, the Denver radio announcer. He was married and divorced, lived both with a white woman and a black. His radio program was a monologue.

> "... on the joys and danger of oral sex ... merciless diatribes on the flaws of the Christian religion, ... and how white women fantasized about sleeping with black men."[2]

2 Talked To Death, Stephen Singular, Beech Tree Books, William Morrow, NY 1987, p.86

It ended when Berg was shot to death in his driveway. The interesting thing is that the ruling authorities in Denver considered the shooting of a media mind-control artist important enough to assign 60 Denver police officers to the case - not counting the FBI. All this for one smut-talking radio personality.[3]

Berg was extremely important to someone. He poured filth into Denver's collective mind. When it stopped, it was as if a great army had been destroyed.

Capturing Minds

Capturing minds is essential to prepare separatist peoples to be annexed into empires, starved, or killed. Empires do not tolerate separatist peoples. Jesus Christ was a separatist.

Rome

Rome killed peoples opposed to its rule; it starved states into submission; destroyed their habitat; mixed divergent populations to encourage loss of identity through interbreeding; and captured their minds by accepting all religions - but insisting that the emperor was the ultimate law-maker - the "God of the land".

The Southland

The American South was composed mostly of independent self-sufficient-farms. They were allied by kinship, repelling invasions, aiding each other in times of disaster, and Sunday social-religious meetings.

---

3 Vigilantes Of Christendom, p. 383, VPC, POB 997, Ly'bg, VA 24505, $18

Each farm was essentially a small state whose owner was its king. The State of Virginia could not put a road across a farmer's land without his permission - which accounts for Virginia's back country being full of dog-leg roads that go around the land of stubborn farmers.

Their law system was basically "The WORD", The Law of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Combined, the farms of the Southland produced 3/4s of the United States exports and furnished most of its import taxes - most of which was spent to benefit the industrial North.

Slaves

Indians and Blacks were not wanted by America's Saxon settlers because they were un-LAWFUL; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33

British empire law was different. The WORD had been reinterpreted under the "Divine Right Of Kings" doctrine to conform to the king's wishes. With few exceptions, the king priests treated the king's wishes as God's laws. These revised Biblical teachings were taught to the people by the king's "Anglican Church" of which he was its supreme head. The King's decrees were enforced by his courts, governors, and armed forces.

Britain won the slave-trade franchise in a war with France, so Britain forced America to receive slaves - like it or not.[4]

4 "The Treaty of Utrecht (1713), which closed the war (King William's War (1689-1697 - French & Indians vs England in America), ceded to England the Hudson Bay region, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, and allowed to it the monopoly of the slave trade in the colonies." The World Book, W.F. Quarrie & Co, Chicago 1927, p.2329

The king's edicts were proclaimed every Sunday in the King's establishment church, which occupied the place of today's newspapers. All colonists were required to attend service or be severely punished. In spite of this, many colonists remained religious dissenters who did not want alien-slaves in their midst.

The collision of divergent Law systems brought about America's Revolutionary War in which the American slogan was "No King but King Jesus". This translated to - "No law system but the Law System of Abraham, Isaac & Jacob."

After they obtained their independence, Americans took steps to deport the blacks. The former colonists organized the "African Colonization Society." Everyone who was anyone belonged. Slave owning Thomas Jefferson belonged. My ancestor John Payne Kelly belonged. He owned more than 100 slaves and was an abolitionist. Most slave owners were abolitionists.

The Society's plan was to buy slaves from their owners, teach them to farm, furnish them with implements and seed, settle them on their own farms in Liberia and protect them from outside enemies until they could protect themselves. Males were to be bought and transported on reaching age 21; females at age 18. Those older would be allowed to remain in America and die of old age. The money received from purchasing slaves was to go to importing white replacement workers from Europe. Thousands of blacks were returned to Africa.

The Corporation

With few exceptions, political rule in America's industrial North fell into the hands of its wealthy international Corporations. Values changed. Formerly, the ideal was to produce one's own wealth on one's own self-sufficient-farm. A salary branded one as being a servant of another. This changed.

Media corporations established municipal newspapers. This replaced mass news-dissemination formerly done by establishment churches.

The South, living largely on self-sufficient-farms, remained quietly separatist - and prosperous. The corporation's imperative to expand required the annexation of the South.

The American Empire

To create incidents and inflame sectional disputes, American industrialists (The Secret Six) financed a crazed maniac named John Brown to attack isolated homes of slave owners killing some and maiming others by severing their arms and leaving them alive. The corporate media began a drum-fire demonization of Southern separatists. They replaced the African Colonization plan with "radical abolition" which demanded instant freedom of farm slave labor, no repatriation back to Africa for the freed slaves, and no compensation for the farm owners so that they could hire replacement white laborers from Europe.

Abolitionist mind-control propaganda had interesting spokesmen:

> "If I had the power I would arm ... every Negro in the South, and every devil in Hell, clothe them in the uniform of the Federal Army and turn them loose on the Rebels of the South and exterminate every man, woman and child south of Mason and Dixon's Line. I would like to see Negro troops, under the command of (U. S. General Benjamin F.) Butler, crowd every Rebel into > the Gulf of Mexico and drown them." Rev. William G. Brownlow. Occupation Governor of Tennessee.[5]

Today's media tells us that Brownlow was an exception. The media tells us that if an atrocity actually happened, it was unintentional and it happened without the knowledge of Mr. Lincoln.

When I was a boy sitting by the living-room fire listening to the grownups talk, I heard how President Lincoln stood in front of our house at Kelly's Ford and watched his soldiers loot and devastate Kellyville, kill the livestock, burn barns and houses, and steal whatever they wanted. He was there. He saw it, and did nothing to stop it. He knew.

Forty-Eighters

Mr. Lincoln had help. For years Esau planned the conquest of Europe. Karl Marx outlined their intent when he published the 10-planks of the Communist Manifesto - now part of the law system of the U.S.

In 1848, the revolution broke out all over Europe. In most of the larger cities the fighting was bloody. Governments were deposed, business came to a standstill, the Pope ran for his life. Thousands died.

Gradually the revolt was suppressed. The hunt for the guilty began. Four thousand Communist leaders fled to America where they became top government officials and high ranking officers in the Union Army. August Willich, a member of the Communist League along with Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, became a major general in the Union Army;

Gen Lewis Blenker, whose men inspired the term "Blenkered" because of their atrocities - and the list continues.

Lincoln commanded an army, many of whose leaders were criminals. These include Custer, of "Little Big Horn" fame - who shot captured Confederates; Sheridan - who burned the Valley leaving thousands of women and children in the snow without shoes, clothing or food; "Butcher" Grant the drunk, whose bungling slaughtered his men by the tens of thousands in battle after battle and who left their bodies to rot on battlefields; "the monster" Sherman who burned cities, towns, entire countrysides. This and much more can be found in a recent book Red Republicans: Marxism in the Civil War Lincoln Marxists, iUniverse, Lincoln, Nebraska, 2007. 1-800-288-4677. It's worth a call.

Newspapers - Capturing Minds

As the Union Army advanced and captured Southern cities it also captured local newspapers. New editors presented the radical union agenda and began the process of capturing the minds of the conquered. The radical concept of racial intermarriage was introduced. North and South, people were incensed when they heard this - they refused to entertain the concept. This would take "gradualism". Gradualism picked up speed as small newspapers foundered. Esau's wealthy corporations subsidized its own newspapers with lucrative advertising - opposition papers received nothing and failed even when they had many more subscribers. Most towns and cities were reduced to having one establishment newspaper - one point of view.

Over time, careful mind-indoctrination permitted the US rulers to pass laws requiring racial integration in neighborhoods, work, and schools. The purpose - to destroy Saxon separatism and the Saxon through racial interbreeding. Referendums have been carefully avoided.

United State

Lincoln's War killed one quarter of the Southern soldiers with most survivors suffering wounds - many severe. Their asset-producing farms had been burned and newly installed high tariffs deprived them of their former foreign markets. Defeated, they were denied the vote. Blacks were given the vote and placed in power to rule over whites. Black rulers taxed farms. Destitute farmers borrowed money for taxes. When unable to repay the loans, their farms were defaulted. Foreclosed farms were auctioned everywhere and millions of acres passed into the hands of Esau's corporations. Survivors went to Southern cities that had been newly built to receive them. There they worked for starvation wages to feed their families. Hunger kept survivors submissive.

Their habitat - the Southern self-sufficient-farm system - was destroyed.

Farm Crisis

In the midst of the 1980s massive nationwide anti-farm demonization media blitz, I attended the 1986 Nebraska Farm Rally. The media told the rest of the country to expect terror attacks from vicious, vindictive farmer terrorists.

The surviving American farmers had borrowed from banks to stay in business. They had to pay interest on loans which was often as high as 20% or more. This put an end to America's self- sufficient-farm system. What remains today is the pitiful remains of what once was.

South Africa

In 1616, the Dutch East India Company established a letter drop and watering station on the southern tip of Africa to service ships plying the trade route from England to India.

In 1652, Jan van Riebeck landed with settlers to plant vegetable gardens to supply passing ships. The population was augmented by French Huguenots fleeing the massacres of protestants by Louis XIV. A sprinkling of German settlers also arrived.

Starting in 1707 and continuing for over a century, whites settlers were barred to force South African Boers (farmers) to buy black slave-workers from the East India Company.[6]

In 1795, South Africa was invaded by England who by then owned the slave-trade monopoly seized from France. They continued the S. African slave-trade commenced by the Dutch.

The English governor, Lord Charles Somerset, arrived with English colonists. He ruled with an iron hand. Heavy taxes were imposed on the Boer farmers. Foreclosures and tax sales transferred land to corporation land-companies. Dutch Bible Law and and the King's Episcopal law collided as it had earlier in America.

Driven by British persecution, Boers abandoned their remaining holdings to the English and trekked north into the unknown. They were called Voortrekkers.

Difagane

In 1836, the Boers arrived in what is now the Free State and Transvaal. This was the period after the Difagane. The

6 "During the rein of William IV, David de Pinto was the chief stockholder of the East India Company." Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Holland, p.432

Zulus had attacked neighboring tribes and these tribes in turn attacked their neighbors and drove them away. The slaughter continued until blacks were nearly exterminated.

In the Free State and Transvaal, the Voortrekkers found only burned out kraal (villages) and skeletons left from black internecine conflict that had turned the land into a lifeless desert. It was a clean, vacant, open world. The Boers divided the land and prospered in their own separatist self-sufficient farm society.

Gold

In 1886, gold was discovered. Over Boer protests, British companies imported tens of thousands of black workers. New discoveries were made - each requiring more and more black workers. A single great mine could employ 14,000 workers and there were many mines. This started the black tidal wave into S. Africa.

In 1899, the British provoked a war with the Boers. Using more soldiers than there were Boer men, women and children, the British Empire vanquished the Boers. Their farms were burned, livestock exterminated and their women and children were herded into concentration camps where they died like flies.

White labor was cheap after the war, so the International Trade Cartel moved industry to S. Africa. Destitute farmers moved to factory centers, and cities were built to house them. Survival was possible only by working for the Cartel.

Following WWII, Hendrik Frensch Verwoerd (1901-1966) was editor of a newspaper "Die Transvaler". It was small but effective. Patriotic Boers read it. It persuaded S. Africa to declare independence from Great Britain.

On Sept 6, 1966, Verwoerd was stabbed to death in the House of Assembly by Dimitres Tsafendas, a half-breed assassin. Like others of his type, he escaped the death penalty by pleading insanity.

After disposing of Verwoerd, agents selected by the Cartel media took over the government and S. Africa was betrayed. Cartel monopoly media hammered "one man one vote" and bewildered whites obediently voted their own destruction. The biggest betrayal was by the so-called "Christian" ministers, who refused to teach the LAW - "Thou shalt not have a stranger to rule over thee".

The result was predicted in 1994 by the well-known intellectual, Paul Johnson, in the following terms:

> "South Africa under Mr. F. W. de Klerk has made a leap into universal suffrage. Within ten years the country ... will develop into an industrial rubble heap, beastly, bloody and bankrupt". (J.S. Marais, Leader of the HNP, 6 Jan 1999)

Russia

The children of Jacob-Israel escaped Babylonian captivity almost a thousand years before Christ. They traveled up the Black Sea rivers into Europe and the Baltic leaving colonies on the Russian Rivers.

Many Slavic nomad bands which roamed the Russian plains sought the safety of these colonies and put themselves under their protection.

In time, the widely spread Russian lands were united under Saxon-Russ rulers who claimed all the land and ruled it for their financial backers - which is standard procedure.

Rulers divided the land and appointed nobles to help manage. These nobles reduced the restless Slavs to peasant workers to keep them from walking away and taking up their former nomad life.

Russia was invaded by Mongols who ruled for centuries. It was a bloody traumatic experience. When driven away at last, they left Mongol colonies as captives. One of these consisted of a people called Khazars. They had converted to Judaism in the 8th century.

State Religion

The Roman church split into Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox. In time, the Russian Tzar ruled the Eastern Orthodox.

To permit tribute-paying strangers to live in his empire, the Tzar instructed his priests to re-interpret the Eastern Orthodox religion to allow him to do so, and they did.[7] This allowed the alien Khazars along with other aliens to live under Russian rule.[8]

A quote from the late 19th century Konstantin Pogbedonostsev, a conservative lawyer and Tsarist adviser, illustrates the result of having the Tzar's holy law override the unchanging Law of God:

> "There is no just case which cannot be lost nor is there any illegal case which cannot be won, for there are no firm principles according to which the legal can be distinguished from the illegal." (FT Weekend, March 18/ March 19, 2000)

7 Catholic means "universal". The name can describe any universal religion - protestant, Roman, Orthodox, Buddhist or Hindu.

8 "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24

Injustice was general and Russian discontent among both Russian Saxons and their subject peoples was deep. Revolt lurked in the hearts of injured peoples.

Matters came to a head. The Tzar was deeply in debt to the international bankers. They wished to foreclose. Their collateral was the land of Russia.

WWI was the trigger. Heavy losses sustained in fighting the Central Powers sparked a revolt. Russia retired from the war, the Tzar abdicated and a rebel government was established.

The international bankers poured both money and Jewish revolutionaries from America into Russia to take over the bankrupt state from its revolutionary government. They overthrew them and set up a communist state under Nicolai Lenin.

After two generations of denial and accusers being branded 'anti-semitic', the Jerusalem Post of 1-26-92 casually admitted that Lenin was Jewish. One of his first acts was to have the Tzar and his family shot.

> "Among Radzinsky's discoveries: Despite official denials for decades, it was Lenin who ordered the murders. ... And as a historian, he believes it is vital for the Russian people to realize that the Lenin-ordered murder of the Romanovs foreshadowed the murder of millions more under Stalin. 'Stalin,' Radzinsky says, 'was Lenin's best disciple." USA Today, D19, July 30, 1992.

Foreclosing Land Owners

There is a reason for everything. The following was written by Douglas Read;[9]

> "Next, Karl Marx. The Protocols say, 'The aristocracy of the peoples, as a political force, is dead ... but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land ..."

To destroy Russia's Self-Sufficient-Farms, the Soviets confiscated farmer's food supplies; 5 million starved. Some 30,000,000 more Russians died in Soviet death camps - most of them Saxon.

Today, the land is still ruled by cartel managers. To increase efficiency, Russian wealth was recently divided among a handful of Cartel managers - most believed to be agents for the same international banks who had foreclosed the Tzar's holdings. Eastern Orthodox Church priests are state employees.

In spite of new slogans, name changes and new leaders, Soviet Russia is basically the same. This is proved by the fact that none of those responsible for the murder of 30,000,000+ Russians have been brought to trial.

Germany

The Roman Pope crowned Charlemagne - Holy Roman Emperor.[10] Charlemagne invited more than 500 German Saxon chiefs to a conference where he killed them. Roman Catholicism then became the established religion. The people were reduced to serfs on estates whose managers were appointed by the king, who in turn was appointed by the Roman Catholic Pope.

In time, the people discovered that The WORD required that the land be divided.

> "All the earth is mine." Ex 19:5; "As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5[11]

General revolt broke out as peasants and many of the nobles united to divide lands seized from Kings and Church. In time the Kings and Church regrouped and attacked the land-holding peasants. Tens of thousands were slaughtered. Then, in a 30-year war, Protestant and Catholic kings battled over who was to rule the re-conquered land. Germany lost up to 90% of her population.

Protestant kings appointed protestant bishops and the Roman Church appointed Catholic bishops. Information controlling the minds of the people came from Sunday pulpits. Catholic and Protestant kings were heavily in debt to church banks run by Jews.[12]

WWI was fought to foreclose European property that had been pledged as collateral for loans. It made little difference which side won - the winner foreclosed the loser - and war caused both sides to sink deeper into debt.

The Nationalist Socialist Workers Party came to power in 1933. It posted its platform which included the following:

11 "Joshua divided the whole land by lots to Israel for an inheritance, as the Lord had commanded him." Jasher 90:19; "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... the land shall be divided by lot." Num 26:53- 55; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; ... If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession ... in the jubilee ... he shall return unto his possession." Lev 25:23, 28..

Germany was separating from the International Trade Cartel. This platform caused consternation. It revived the mind-set of Germany's great Peasant Revolt.

Civil Service

The Jewish caste is the worldwide Civil Service of the International Trade Cartel. The NSWP platform removed Jews from their job of managing Germany. Within 30 days of the NSWP being elected to power, Jewish organizations met and declared war on Germany.[13] WWII started in 1933, not 1939.

WWII was fought to restore Germany to the cartel.[14] The German revolt was harshly suppressed. Her men, women and children were incinerated by the hundreds of thousands in firebombings. The Allied blockade of Germany continued after war ceased causing millions more to die from starvation. Her leaders were condemned to death by kangaroo courts. One million German soldiers died in POW camps after the war ended from starvation and exposure. Corporations, state lands and foreign trusts were recovered by her enemies along with her banking system. Remaining farming lands not taken in WWI were taken in WWII and given to Poland - a traditional enemy.

Today, Germans are at the mercy of her enemies for food. The Allied-installed puppet government censors what Germans are allowed to learn in media and schools. WWI "six-million" and "death-camp" propaganda was resurrected after WWII to install a guilt-complex and capture the minds of the people.

Conclusion

Saxon-Israel has suffered one disaster after another. Their governments, priests, businesses and armed forces serve Esau. Jacob-Israel is a slave.

The reason: Saxon-Israel doesn't know God's LAW. Those commanded to teach the LAW refuse to:

> "Read this law before all Israel ... that they may ... do all the words of this law." Deut 31:11-12; "Teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses." Lev 10:11. ! 15 ▒

If Saxon-Israel isn't taught - people can't learn. We step inside today's churches and look around. We see "strangers". Our ancestors branded this "blasphemy!"

15 "Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you." De 4:1; "Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments." Ezr 7:10; "Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, ... that they may teach their children." Deu 4:10; .

> "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (2114 - foreigner, strange, profane, - commit adultery) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51[16]

Today, false teachers teach a false Christ and cause Saxon-Israel to be "... mingled among the heathen and learn their works." Ps 106:35

BUT, something is happening. For the first time in my nearly 80 years - people quote the LAW of Moses as their authority. Saxons are learning that they are both God's temple and Israel:[17]

> "The most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands." Acts 7: 48; "Your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost." 1 Co 6:19; "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests." Rev 1:5,6; "Ye are the temple of the living God ... God hath said, I will dwell in them and walk in them." II Cor 6:16

Before the American Revolutionary War, people spoke their grievances to like-minded people, and claimed God's WORD to lead them. Their motto was "No King but King Jesus". King George's preachers worshiped the word of King George and couldn't answer The WORD.

Our people have again discovered their God. The days of the likes of Tim Russett, Walter Cronkite and Alan Berg are coming to an end.

16 "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2; "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." No 18:7, No 1:51.

17 Israel Heb: "He will rule as God." Strong's Concordance. The same as "one who has been given God's power of attorney."

The WORD has begun to capture Saxon minds. Like bolts of lightning, The WORD can strike a thousand places. We have been promised that our God will protect the lands of Jacob-Israel. It will seem like a giant prairie fire cleansing the land.

> "The eternal God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew." De 33:27-28

And Israel will dwell alone.

Chapter 407

HISTORY CHARTS

My Opinion

The purpose of a chart is to show a lot of information in a small space. People ask about the economy and the stock market. The answer takes a lot of space, so I'm using charts as a short-cut.

Reading a chart can be compared to tracking an unknown in the forest. Clues are the faint track where he jumped the creek, the bruised fur on the underside of a fern, and the broken dead branch that shouldn't be broken. The stock market is the same.

We know some basic things: the markets are Esau's creation and Esau prizes deception. This allows us to understand the adage, "Good news is bad news and bad news is good news, but the best news is no news."

You might not understand the facts you see on a chart, but they are better than a newspaper or TV opinion. The information is there - we try to make sense out of what is revealed.

Trend

We have learned to expect the stock market to bottom every 4th year (2002b) and to peak in election year (2004t) two years later. It hasn't been doing that. The flood of money generated by the Iraqi War has played havoc with this indicator.

We try something else. We draw trendline (B-E). This is the line drawn under the bottoms from 2002-2008. If the stock market stays above the line - all is well.

We expected the stock market to peak in 2008. Instead, it peaked in 2007 - it came down and hit the trend line (B-E), and instead of bouncing up again into 2008 it crashed through the B-E trend line. Something is wrong. Broken up-trends can be serious. Now, the big guess;

If the Dow is going to go down - how low will the Dow go?

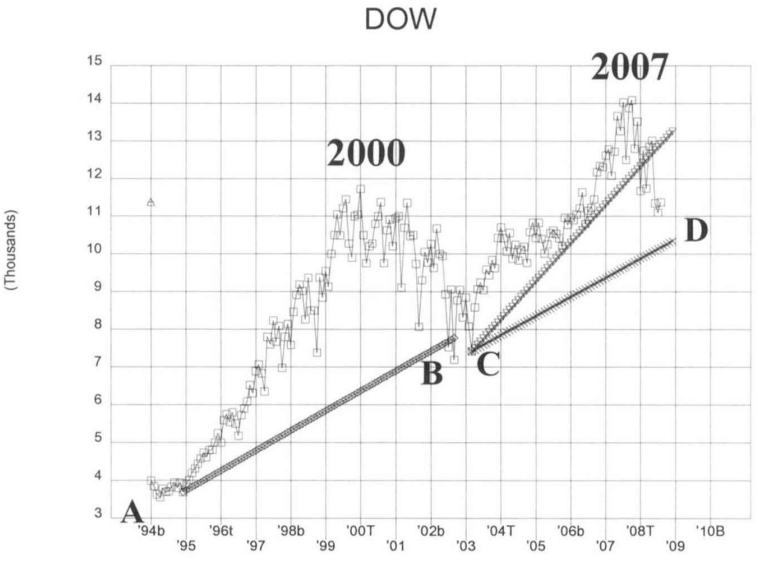
One-Third / Two-Thirds

Old-timers introduced me to the "1/3 - 2/3 Speed Resistance Line" when I worked on Wall Street 50 years ago.

I won't get into the mechanics other than to say it works more often than not. I think the real reason it works is that the big money managers need a reason to buy into a declining market when everyone is scared to death. If the moneymanagers all buy at the same time - the market is going to stop declining and start up.

Note that the 2000 stock market declined to its 1/3 Speed Resistance Level (A-B) in 2002. The big boys bought in when everyone else was selling. The stock market started up.

As noted before, the stock market was supposed to peak in 2008, but peaked in 2007 and went down and broke its up-trend. It is now in a down-trend.



If the 1/3 speed indicator is right - the accompanying chart says that the market will decline to the 1/3 Line at point "D" which is presently around 10,300 on the Dow. If this is true, it means that the Dow has 1000 points more to go to the downside - after it performs its usual up and down gyrations..

The Big Exception - 1929

People who know their history can read the consequences of men's actions in these charts. Take the case of Germany after WWI.

Fighting stopped based on the Wilson Plan that belligerents would return behind their own borders and that there would be no winners or losers.

When this news became public, German communists started another 1848 type revolt. German armies returned to Germany to suppress the revolt. The Allies found the German armies fronts gone, so they moved up to the German borders and crossed over and occupied Germany. They then imposed a draconian peace treaty called the Versailles Peace Treaty.

The treaty deprived the Central Powers of their colonies, many of their own provinces, and required them to pay horrendous reparations.

The only way Germany could pay was to borrow money from the international banks - billions upon billions. All this money floating around found its way into the world's stock markets.

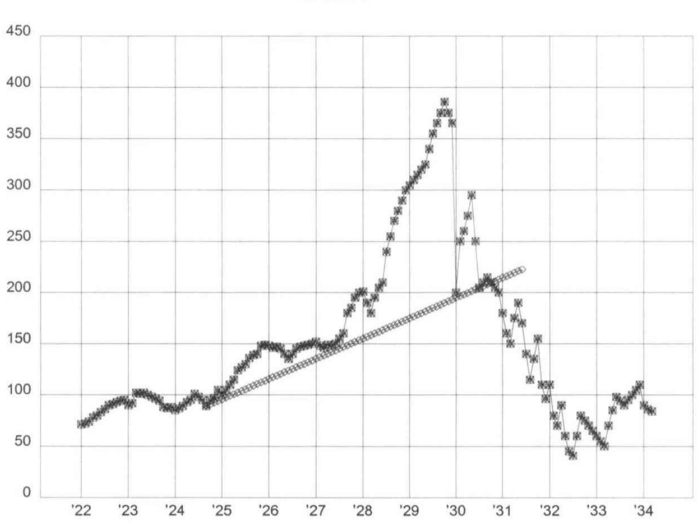
This picture shows what happened. The stock market started up during the 1920s and zoomed up in 1928 and 1929 in a critical 3rd degree rise. Germany was drained. Having no more money - or credit - she stopped payments.



Deprived of German repatriation payments, the stock market collapsed in 1929 and in one month reached its rising 1/3 Speed Indicator line. There it bounced up again.

However, there was nothing to support the rising stock market and it collapsed again and continued on down until 1932.

Germans owned almost nothing in Germany. Everything had been bought by the international bankers: businesses, buildings and land. There was no work and people were starving. Germany rebelled and confiscated everything the international corporations had seized. Germany then began to create its own money, repudiated its debts, and withdrew from the International Trade Cartel.

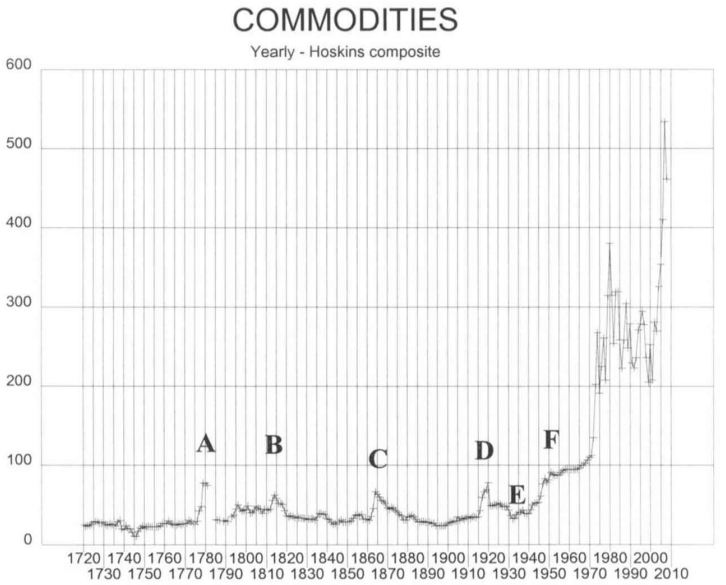
It required WWII to subdue her and repossess her industries and lands. It's all there in the stock picture.

Commodities

The history of America is written in the price of commodities. I had to work a long time getting info and putting it together. The chart starts in 1720. The Revolutionary War inflation peaked in the 1780s (A) with "Continentals" nearly worthless. It's all there.



(B)In 1815, the Napoleonic Wars ended with a final burst of inflation. After that, commodity prices hit the skids. It got so bad that Thomas Jefferson went bankrupt. Uriah P. Levy bought his home "Monticello" in 1836 for $2,700.

(C) The War For Southern Independence took the North out of a commodity depression in the 1860s. Family land at Kelly's Ford that sold for $800 an acre in 1858 sold for 50¢ an acre in 1900.

(D) In the early 1900s, the Boer War and WWI demand took commodities up to a peak in 1920.

(E) Commodities then declined until 1932.

(F) In 1933, Jewish organizations met and declared war on Germany (HR 406) and preparations for WWII caused commodities to start to recover. The process worked so well that there has been one war after another until the present day.

The need for war is basic - people are reluctant to go into debt and borrow money into existence unless they are threatened by war. It's the politicians' job to get wars started so that good times will continue rolling by.

Banks 1780 - 1970

People ask if there will be bank failures in the days ahead? Look at the chart above.

Before 1778 America had no banks. In 1780 we had one. Then a few more after 1810. Then, banks began growing like cancer cells, especially in the South following the War Between The States. The number of banks zoomed in number to almost 32,000 by 1920.

1 Levy's nephew, Jefferson Monroe Levy, inherited it and sold it to the Jefferson Foundation for $500,000 in 1923.

2 In Hazard, Kentucky my father lost his hospital when the price of coal dropped nearly 50% and the miners couldn't pay their bills. This made it imposible for my father to pay his bills.

In 1920, the commodity collapse hit. Banks by the thousands folded until 1930 when the number leveled off at about 14,000 - where they have stayed year after year. A bit strange - don't you think?

When I used to travel around Virginia there were deserted bank buildings just about everywhere. But, what happens to the mortagages that had been owned by the bank? They were merely transferred to another bank. People in debt remained as much in debt after a bank folded as they had been before.

War Cycles / Peace Cycles predicted that the number of banks would decrease to perhaps 8,000 or fewer in time. Fewer banks are easier to manage than many banks. Practically speaking, bank owners only have a franchise from the big bank cartel. Franchises can be terminated whenever the Cartel changes its rules. After all, they will keep the failed banks' mortgages; the only ones being hurt are those who own the bank's stock.

What do you think? Will we have fewer banks in the days ahead or not?

Oil - cut back

It is logical to assume that if people pay a high price for oil products - they can't spend that same money on something else. In other words, money is drained out of circulation when the oil price rises. When the oil price goes down it allows money to be spent on other things. It is perhaps the only way to quickly regulate the world's floating money supply.

The worrisome thing has to do with our leaders telling us not to worry. Why are they telling us not to worry if there's nothing to worry about?

Conclusion

It might be wise to see if the stock market declines to its 1/3 Speed Indicator Level that we saw on page two. If it does, then it might be safer to nibble a bit on the market - never for a moment forgetting that someone else might have plans besides the international bankers. Interesting times may be just around the corner.

==========

Letter From S. Africa

Dear Mr. Hoskins: Mugabe seems completely insane. Last night over the radio it was reported that he said that he is getting rid of 5 million who voted against him.

His soldiers chopped the hands and feet off a woman and burnt her house - and she is only one of many. It is reported that Mugabe, who is said to be a Jesuit, intends to stay in power until he dies. For safety sake, many are leaving as fast as they can to the nearest safe country.

Thousands upon thousands chose S. Africa. South Africa is not able to care for all these new people. They take both food and jobs from local blacks.

The xenophobic violence against these invading blacks started in the Alexandra black township. It is an area always volatile with many idle people around. The inhabitants blame foreigners for taking their jobs, getting the houses that they had planned on getting. Or, one tribe killing another, fighting about some ancient grievance.

Sometimes they fight for fun, like binding an auto tyre to a Mozambican and burning him alive. Newspaper pictures show three black school girls walking past unconcerned.

Zimbabwean refugees may be trying to escape their ruler Mugabe, but they are cruel and they steal large amounts of money from cash in transit-vans and blow up MTMs with dynamite. Since there is no work, they steal.

When violence broke out, the government did nothing. At last, three countries sent buses to take their citizens home: Lesotho, Malowi and Mozambique. But, there are still thousands more waiting. The S. African government then changed its mind and let a large group of refugees stay, without considering that it has no surplus food and shelter to care for them.

The amazing thing is that the rulers of England and America who caused these problems in Africa now stand by doing nothing. Its as if they planned these things from the first.

Two strange incidents happened in Potgietersrus and Benoni. At Potgietersrus, they closed the road into town and placed large rocks on the roads keeping people from going home. At Benoni, the same thing happened. Police turned up when the mobs kept people from getting petrol and threatened to set fire to the depot.

We read about your New Orleans disaster where pillage, rape and murder were the order of the day, and the blacks fired on relief helicopters, soldiers, and relief workers sent to help them. Whites must be increasingly prepared.

In July, a law came into effect where private property will belong to the government, exactly the same as in the Soviet Union.

The Whites have worked hard from the day Jan van Rieberck landed at the Cape, building, planting, developing. The blacks don't build - they burn down their own schools - schools that Whites built for them.

Mbeki is now president. Zuma the Zulu who hates Whites is next. Soon you will have Obama.

God help us, K.H.

Chapter 408

THE MONGOL
A Short History

"(God) will destroy ... the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations." Isaiah 25:7

"Neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6

The Sons of Jacob see only two races in the world; "Jacob" and "Esau". The Sons of Jacob were appointed kings and priests. Esau was cursed and branded a murderer and deceiver.

Esau sent his merchants to Jacob who traded his pearls for Esau's pretty ge-gaws in violation of God's Law.[1] The merchants returned to Esau with Jacob's pearls. Seeing Jacob's pearls he wanted more.

Esau united and in a generation conquered an empire; built a nearly invincible army; and built a fleet that destroyed the fleet of a world-renowned European power in a day.

Following is history that is now hid from view but should be pondered as Jacob continues his Lawless affair with Esau.

The Mongols

In the beginning of the 13th century there was a young Mongol ruler named Genghis Khan who, with a few followers, rode ponies across the Mongolian Desert. A few short years later his Empire stretched from China in the east to the Danube River in the West. The armies of Genghis Khan and his successors were seen as invincible.

His forces were almost exclusively cavalry organized into divisions, regiments, battalions and companies. There were two kinds of cavalry. The heavy cavalry wore padded leather armor and were armed with heavy bows and arrows as well as light bows and arrows. The heavy bows and arrows were to fight heavily armored opponents. The light bows were for rapid fire once a battle had turned into a melee. They also carried swords and spears. The light cavalry were armed with light bows, little armor, and light javelins.

In combat, the heavy cavalry would form up in three lines and the light cavalry would charge through the heavy cavalry

1 TRADE: "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (zûwr - racial alien), thou art snared." Pr. 6:1; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21; "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Ex 23:31 to attack the enemy with a barrage of arrows. They would keep up this attack on a selected portion of the enemy line until their opponents showed signs of disorder. This would be the signal for the heavy cavalry to charge and finish the job with spear and sword.

If attacked, the whole Mongol force would retreat - both light cavalry and heavy cavalry. When the enemy tired of the chase, the Mongols turned and recommenced their attack in the same way they had done at the beginning. The difference being that by this time their enemy was scattered and disorganized from the chase.

Recruits

Relatively few in number, the Mongols demanded support from the enemies they conquered. Loyalty was guaranteed by hostages. Hostages were a tried and true method of compelling obedience from new "allies".

There were seven nations of Mongols. Genghis Khan subdued them one by one. Each furnished its quota of warriors. The growing army went on to conquer surrounding nations, each adding its own quota of warriors.

Even the vaunted Teutonic knights - man for man the best fighters in the world - were twice beaten by these barbarian armies from the deserts of Mongolia, and the vaunted Saxon-Hungarian army, larger and better armed than that of the Mongols, was exterminated.

Signals

Veterans who fought the Mongols noted a strange phenomenon - the silence! The silence of Mongol armies. Unlike Western armies where there was a din of orders, war cries, and trumpets, no sound came from the Mongol hordes. There were no couriers dashing up and down the lines carrying orders. There was only the deathly silence.

Seemingly without orders, battalions and regiments wheeled out of line and galloped to a flank. At other times, their entire line would suddenly retreat, or the light cavalry would suddenly burst through the heavy cavalry and blacken the sky with their arrows - all without a spoken order being given.

The secret was their signal flags. These signals were understood and instantly obeyed by everyone in sight of the signals, who then relayed messages to distant units out of sight. Superior communications allowed the Mongols to move faster and concentrate overwhelming forces at enemy weak points before they could be reinforced. Communication was the key to the success of the Mongol armies.

General Communications

The Mongols ruled the most powerful empire on earth at the time. It included China, Korea, and countless other nations and countries including most of Russia. In Russia, the Mongols gave vent to their true nature:

> "Batu himself, the leader of the great Tartar invasion of Europe (1240-1242) ... At Moscow he ordered a general massacre, and 270,000 right ears are said to have been laid before him in testimony to its accomplishment." Marco Polo Vol II, p. 493, Dover Pub, NY 1993.

Nothing changes. Khazar Turks were part of the Mongolian Horde. When the Tzar's government was overthrown by the Jewish/Slav alliance - 20 to 30 million people were put to death - most being Sons of Jacob. Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn (1918-2008), was feted and quoted by the American Press until he disclosed that most of the Soviet work camps' commandants were Khazar-Turk Jews. Joseph Stalin was a Georgan-Turk. Nothing changes.

These sons of Esau are often known as "Tartars", "Mongols", "Turks" or "Arabs". In the East they often had an oriental cast - in the West many were virtually indistinguishable from Westerners. I have read that many of the Khans had blue eyes and red hair.

The ruling Khan carefully selected his underlings, gave them general instructions and dictatorial powers, then left the execution of his orders strictly to them. Months might pass without orders from Genghis Khan to his subordinates - but his universal spy system informed him of their activities.

Mongol rulers made good use of captive peoples - often placing their intelligent members in very responsible positions in their own government. This was true for most government positions except finance - which was reserved for Mongols.[2]

Other Intelligence

Mongol military and political adventures were planned far in advance based on information obtained from merchants operating or traveling through targeted lands. Information also came from diplomats, paid agents, and informants. Mongol Hordes didn't burst in from nowhere - their operation had been planned far in advance. Their actual appearance on the battlefield was almost an afterthought.

Sometimes, information alone made it unnecessary to launch an invasion by armed force. This was the Mongols' preferred method of conquest. Information from merchant agents and virtually unlimited wealth available for bribes allowed the Mongols to often install puppet kings in foreign countries without the bother of military conquest.

Wealth

India, positioned midway between the East and the West, has long been known as the home of the merchant and Esau's treasurer.

Merchants collect wealth. Unless properly protected this wealth can be subject to unwelcome attention from others:

> "Gold, according to the Masdlak-al-Absdr, had been flowing into India for 3000 years, and had never been exported. Firishta speaks of the enormous spoils carried off by Malik Kafur, every soldier's share amounting to 25 lbs of gold! Some years later Mohammed Tughlak loads 200 elephants and several thousand bullocks with the precious spoil of a single temple." Marco Polo Vol II, p 348, fn.6.

Religions

The Mongol leaders adopted varied religions. A single family might have members who were "Christian", "Muslim", and "Idolater" (Hindu). Many of the great leaders declared themselves to be "Idolaters" (Hindus) as being the most versatile for the political necessities of the moment. Their merchants often adopted the same practice. In India they might be "Buddhist", in Egypt - "Muslim", and in the West - "Christian" - all within a few weeks.

In general, Mongols were tolerant of each other's religion. Obedience to one's leader was the important thing - not the religion he professed at the moment.

Reminder

Unlike the children of Jacob who are appointed "kings"[3], the reader is reminded that Esau has the character of a wolf, including the never-ending urge to fight among themselves to determine who is to be pack leader. These endless struggles tend to keep Esau occupied with each other rather than being a constant threat to Jacob.

History also shows that time after time a leader rises who is able to prevail over contenders and is able to unite Esau. United Esau is then dangerous. He is focused. In a single generation he is able to rise from being a camel rider to a leader of chemical warfare experts, and from herding cattle to a leader of computer experts. Presently, he has achieved world-wide economic supremacy and has overthrown every nation and state who has opposed him. Unlimited wealth also allows him to rule countries through puppet leaders and use captive nations to administer discipline to rebels.

Attila The Hun

Centuries before the Mongols knocked on the doors of Europe, a Hun by the name of Attila (A.D. 406?-453) successfully invaded the Roman Empire.[4] He and his Huns

3 "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings & priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5-6

4 Westerners, deluged by countless numbers of eastern nations, at one time tended to lump Huns, Turks, and Mongols together and call them "Tartars".

executed their long planned invasion westward and stormed out of the desert to devastate the Goths settled around the Black Sea. These are the same Goths who are our ancestors. He overran the Ostrogoths while the Visigoths escaped to the West. He took hostages of captive Ostrogoths and incorporated their warriors into his army - causing the Hun army to grow larger. He did the same with small German tribes he overwhelmed along the way and his army grew to three-quarters of a million.

Some of Europe's greatest cities were sacked and put to the torch: Rheims, Mainz, Strasbourg, Cologne, Worms and Trier. The overpowering smell of death prevented survivors from re-entering their own cities long after the Huns had left.

Attila was defeated by a combined Roman and Gothic army at the battle of the Catalonian Fields in France where half their number were lost in that battle. Germans in the Roman Army were allied with Visigoths; they faced Huns and their allies who also included Germans and Goths. Kinsman faced kinsman and in places where they fought bodies were stacked twenty and thirty feet deep.[5]

Attila The Statesman

Attila periodically brought his chiefs together to teach them the Hunnic art of statescraft. In such meetings he elaborated on the following subjects:[6]

* LOYALTY: Huns and their agents must be loyal.

5 Jacob has learned that when confronting a kinsman in Esau's service one must treat him as he would treat you.

6 Leadership Secrets of Attila the Hun, Wess Roberts, Peregrine Pub. Co., P.O. Box 2742, Rohnert Park, CA 94928, 1985

Anyone who encourages acts counter to the good of the tribe is disloyal and will be quickly removed. In our day, accidents that happen to the rich and famous are often not accidents.

* REWARDS: Reward successes lest others will make their own attractive offers.

With reason Congress is known as the millionaires' club.

* RUMOR: A rumor can make possible great victories.

Rumors can redirect a captive population's attention from disagreeable subjects.

* ACT THE PART - Preparing to meet Roman negotiators;

Attila instructed his Chiefs to select the most ferocious looking warriors from his army, dress them in rough furs and leather, and to eat raw meat. They were instructed to select 20 or 30 prisoners and inflict the most horrible tortures on them - impalement, dismemberment, and the like. Then, tables were placed in the midst of this collection of screaming, dying wretches. Interspersed were Huns who unconcernly sat eating raw meat, with blood dripping from the sides of their mouths. Roman-Hun negotiations then commenced that gained the Huns all that they wanted.

* INTEGRATION: Attila taught that a nation of one ancestry and one race is weak. He taught that integration is desired.

Following Esau's recent conquest of Europe - millions of Jacob's sons were starved, died of exposure and disease, and their leaders executed. Puppet governments severely punish those who talk of separating Jacob from others. Tens of thousands are presently incarcerated because of these laws. Esau has not changed.

* DECEPTION: Attila taught never to neglect the opportunity to deceive an enemy, to make him think that you are a friend. To let him think that you are weak when you are strong. To try to make him act before he is ready to act. And, most important, "never tell him everything."

Catalonian Fields Post-mortem

Wes Roberts states that "By nightfall, the fields of Catalaunian were heaped with over 300,000 slain bodies of the horde. The E/B states only that the carnage was terrible. Whatever the total casualties were they were sufficient to cause Attila to withdraw the following day.

Attila's End

Attila's battle losses in France were heavy. Withdrawing across the Rhein River, he returned to his Pannonian home.

In 453, he took the daughter of a Germanic chief whom he had executed for treason. Attila indulged himself with her and the morning after his marriage he was found dead in a pool of blood. The story was passed about that he had burst a blood vessel. The other story was that Ildico, to revenge her shame of being taken by a stranger, killed him as Judith slew the tormentor of her people.[7] If so, Ildico did what the combined armies of the West could not do.

When word was received that Attila was dead, his followers fought among themselves to determine his successor. The coalition of Germanic tribes conquered by the Huns used this time to revolt. After a succession of battles, they defeated the Huns in Pannonia at The Battle at the Nedao River in which 30,000 Huns were slain including Attila's oldest son.

The German tribes revolted against Hunnic overlords, as did the Ostrogoths, thereby reducing the Huns to just another despised warring tribe of strangers.

The empire of the Huns evaporated almost as quickly as it had been created.

The Birth Of Islam

Once there was an Arabian prophet named Mohammed. The local ruler was jealous of his growing influence so he fled to an oasis far out in the desert where spice-route caravans stopped for water.

Mohammed and his followers stopped the caravans for over a year causing anguish to the merchants and to the Arabian king who had been paid to protect the caravans.

At last a single rider appeared from the east. His message was brief - Mohammed would be the new ruler.

Mohammed soon spread his teachings among nearby tribes and united them in a great crusade against "unbelievers", the worst of whom were Christians. His armies conquered the Near East, Turkey, Egypt, the entire North African coast, Sicily, Southern Italy, and Spain. The Mediterranean became an Islamic lake. Most of this took place in a single generation.

Lev 20:24*

Signature Cities

In the past, leaders have appeared leading ignorant nomads who were able to build empires in twenty years. Warfare has changed.

Today, Esau's weapon of usury-banking has created a world empire. It has conquered both countries and nations. It can order one country to discipline another. Its hallmarks are cities - cities of shining glass and steel skyscrapers. Some even have Rolls Royces for its inhabitants - and its all done in a lifetime.

This is power!

Jews

The world has long blamed the Jews for its problems, still, the Jews remain after all this time. This would be impossible without protection from the kings Esau has appointed to rule.

Look into the background of people who ceaselessly blame the Jews and you will find that they almost never use the WORD to address matters the WORD considers more important.

Trade Religions

Every nation has two religions - its national religion and its international religion. A national religion is for the nation's people - puppets of Esau's international merchants created the other.

Esau's merchants cannot rule if banned by national religions. To remove the religious obstacle, Esau creates, finances, and substitutes an international religion. His international religion re-interprets the local national religion to allow allow Esau's merchants the freedom to do as they please.

National religions are oppressed by the merchant's substitute international-religion. Every nation has this problem - Jewish, Arab, Indian, Hindu and Christian. Esau's internationalism is the enemy of all. But since Esau is the world's paymaster - most people give lip service to his trade religion to earn their daily bread.

But, at times, it is possible for national religions, otherwise hostile to each other, to work together for their mutual benefit. We must remember that German Zionist Jews peacefully rounded up German Jews who were then sent by German Christians to Palestine. Both Zionist Jews and the Germans benefited.[8]

All nations wish to be separated from all other nations. To separate they must oppose Esau's internationalist trade religions. Integration brings strife. Separation brings peace. Hostile nations can work together for their mutual benefit. They've done it before.

Saladin's Propaganda

Egypt had a ruler named Saladin: 1137?-1193. He was the son of a Kurdish soldier. He united the Arab world to fight the Christian Crusaders.

Saladin had been left a strong army by his father, but his key to uniting all the various Turkic-Arab tribes lay elsewhere.

One of the first things he did upon coming to power was to create a media for the Arab world. He employed hundreds of scribes and provided them writing materials and special quarters for the purpose. Their job was to correspond with important people in each Arab nation giving special attention to the Arab world and of the Crusaders preparations to invade Islam.

Liberally interspersed in the letters were Mohammed's commands to fight against "unbelievers". When at last Saladin moved his army against the Crusaders, each Arab ruler was compelled by his own subjects, made fanatical by Saladin's propaganda, to join Saladin's army. Saladin's army became enormous.

Hammer Meets Anvil

The invincible Mongols moved West. The invincible Armies of Islam based in Egypt met them near the Mediterranean Sea and nearly exterminated them.

Jacob has been saved many times because of the nature of wolves to fight each other.

Conclusion

Esau controls the world's wealth. With this wealth he bought the media. With the media he set up kings and has taken them down. With his wealth he endows colleges and seminaries. With teachers trained by him, he creates trade-religions to capture people's minds.

Esau has done these things before - and as God promised - Jacob still remains. Not only does Jacob remain but God has armed him with an invincible weapon.

> "Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat [them] small, and shalt make the hills as chaff." Isa 41:15

We know that weapon. Those who don't will feel its teeth. The time of Jacob's troubles will soon end.

From The Loeries

Dear Hoskins Report Subscribers; The Loerie Home is growing stronger by the day.

Safety precautions have been arranged to give us more peace of mind when we go to bed at night. The alarm system is in full operation and working well.

The influx of illegal immigrants from Zimbabwe, Mapukto, Zambia, Kenya and neighboring African countries is flooding through our borders seeking food and a better life. This causes great upheaval and tensions and a higher crime rate.

This forces us to constantly sharpen our safety measures. Loerie Home is situated adjacent to a main highway which makes it more open and exposed to crime. Electrical wiring has been erected on top of the steel palisade fencing surrounding Loerie Home's premises.

We have 29 children in our Home. Our 3 newest additions are Richard 6, Jacques 8, and Mariska 10. All three of these children have learning disabilities. They receive therapy on a weekly basis. We have already seen improvement in their abilities concerning conversing and willingness to progress.

Mrs. Magda Voges, who assisted Betzy when the Loerie Youth Center was first established, had to leave because of financial difficulties. The good news is that she is back again and works full time as Betzy's assistant.

The generosity and support of Hoskins Report Subscribers has allowed much to be accomplished. The youngsters are our future.

God Bless You All,
Willie Hoffmann

Letter From S. Africa

Dear Mr. Hoskins: At last a vehicle is being provided to withstand the constant attacks from robbers. They are called "Ratels". They were used in the Border War with great success and America bought some to use in Iraq.

Apart from "Die Afrikaner", the other S. African newspapers hardly mention whites. It's as if we do not exist.

The regime still expropiates big pieces of our most fertile land. Under black management the land slowly ceases to produce and after two years often ceases to be productive. This is certain to lead to more food problems in the future. My brother had to sell his farm that has been in the family since 1850.

Health problems abound and the lack of professional help makes matters worse. One waits up to two years for certain dental procedures.

We visited the Loeries and everything seems fine. Magda fits in well and gets on well with the children.

Our Best, H.K

LETTERS

CHINAMAN: Dear Mr. Hoskins: You've heard about the "Canadian Chinaman" that sliced off the head of a young man on the Greyhound bus. Appears the Chinaman had been bothering a woman and the white fellow had stepped in and put a stop to it. When the white guy put his earplugs in to listen to some music and sleep, the Chinese "Canadian" stabbed him repeatedly, decapitated him, and began eating parts of his body. No doubt this fine addition to Canadian society will be found "not responsible", spend time in a mental hospital, and in time be released again into society.

Meanwhile, the four Indian reserves north of us are trying to cut back on drive-by shootings by having an amnesty. After another killing Saturday night the elders suggested that they should kick war-parties off the reserves. This would force them to move to neighboring towns and that would wake up some docile whites.

We are continuing to prepare for uncertain times by storing food, kerosene, etc. Sincerely , H.K - Canada

Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn
1918-2008

Solzhenitsyn won the 1970 Nobel Prize in literature. He joined the Red Army in 1941 and fought throughout WWII; was arrested in 1945 for his anti-Stalinist views and sentenced to 8 years in labor camps. One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich was published in the USSR in 1962. In 1964 authorities confiscated his writings. He managed to smuggle The Gulog Archipelago to the West where it was enthusiastially received. In 1974 he was again arrested and exiled from the USSR. Settling in the US, he continued to write against the USSR, but also commented that detente was a "sham" and "viewed the US and the West in general as flacid, morally weak, and cravenly materialistic." Still, he continued to be feted and quoted by the American Press until he disclosed that most of the Soviet work camps' commandants were Jewish, at which time he became a non- person and disappeared from the pages of America's cartel press.

Chapter 409

FALSE PRIESTS Cause Market Meltdown

Two Gods

Christendom has two Gods.

There is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob - and there is the other God - the God of the International Merchant whose followers were once called "Pharisees". They worked with the lawyers of the day who were called "Scribes".

We've got the same thing today - followers of the WORD and those who follow the Merchant's God.

Similarities

The followers of these two Gods call themselves "Christians" and they call their Gods "Jesus". The baptism and the Lord's Supper rituals are the same for both. Both teach their followers not to lie, cheat or steal.

One is genuine - the other is an anti-christ fraud.

Which is which? The answer; "By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20

Fear

Followers of God the WORD fear their God. Followers of the anti-christ don't.

As a child, when we lied or stole, our parents took a switch and wore us out. We learned early that it was not only wrong to lie or steal; it was painful.

Fear of pain, and respect for the one who administered the pain was a constant reminder not to lie or steal. We feared the punishment, and we feared the father who administered the punishment. We learned the deeper reasons later.

Rules

God the WORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob instructs his children the same way.

First, he gave rules written in stone - and then said;

"If ye love me obey my commandments. John 14:15[1]

One can obey or disobey - you can't do both. "No man can serve two masters." Matt 6:24

If one obeys the WORD - this is the result: "If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them ... I will give you peace." Lev 26:3-9

Disobey and this happens; "But if ye will not... do all these commandments... I will... cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols ... And I will bring the land into desolation." Lev 26:14-35.

This is the whipping - utter destruction - obliteration.

We are given another warning; "Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Eccles. 3:1

The hardheaded who are thus far not impressed with what has been said should really pay attention when it is said still again;

> "Mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring them hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27[2]

Josephus summed up how the obedient react when they hear The WORD;

> "Moses called the people together, with the women and children ... that they might engage themselves to the observation of these laws. ... that in case any one of their own blood, or any city, should attempt to confound or

1 "And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. 2 Jno 6

2 "If any man obey not our word ... note that man and have no company with him." II Thes 3:14; "Not everyone shall enter into the kingdom of heaven but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Matt 7:21; "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29 dissolve their constitution of government (the WORD), they should take vengeance upon them, both all in general, and each person in particular ... but that if they were not able to take such vengeance, they should still demonstrate that what was done was contrary to their wills. So the multitude bound themselves by oath so to do." Antiquities 4:8:45

Lack Of Fear

In Christendom, men are trained to be priests and teachers. They are sent to special schools to learn God's Laws, Statutes and Judgments.

In time, agents of the anti-christ were admitted and began to practice the forbidden rite of usury. Rivers of usury-profits were channeled into "corporations". Wealthy corporations richly endowed the very seminaries where our young people were being sent to be trained as priests and teachers. The one new condition was added to their studies - that they learn "dharma".[3]

DHARMAMATRAS: "In the past there were no officers charged with spreading Dharma. I created these posts in the 13th year of my reign. These officers are commissioned to work with all sects in establishing and promoting Dharma." The Edicts of Asoka, Rock Edict V, p.58, Edicts Of Asoka, Trans. by N.A. Nikam & Richard Mckeon, Univ. Chicago, 1959. (Asoka - prophet of Buddha - missionary arm of Hinduism.)

After having absorbed the WORD that had been filtered through Dharma, these new priests and teachers concluded that the WORD is a mish-mash of myths and gobbledy-gook about a none-existent God now replaced by a new more loving, understanding God - a God of the new One World Age - a God who does not "condemn another religion or race by word or deed".

These priests and teachers no longer fear the WORD. They scoff at the The WORD's promise to punish those who know the WORD and refuse to tell others.[4]

There we have it. For whatever reason - if a man ignores and forgets the LAW of God - if he does not minister or teach the WORD - if he follows another God - he cannot hide:

"By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20

Market Meltdown

Newspaper headlines say that a crash is imminent; the world's financial system is broken and is in danger of a meltdown.

So, what's new? Today's economic system is designed to periodically break down and bankrupt people. It is based on "usury".It's how the usurers get the borrowers' property. The WORD forbids usury and calls it a capital crime. Followers of the WORD know this, and the dire consequences that follow, and they warn those who will listen. No usury - no market meltdown. In the 1850s before the WAR, because there was virtually no usury, those living on self-sufficient farms in the South were not even aware that a market crash was devastating the North.

4 "Thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing that thou hast forgotten the law of thy God." Hosea 4:6"

Priests and teachers of the other God know the effects of usury but refuse to teach the LAW. This is the reason for today's "meltdown".[6]

Kings & Priests

"The WORD made flesh" appointed man to be kings and priests.[7] Kings and priest have kingdoms and rule and teach their people according to The WORD.

Land

To allow us to flourish as kings and priests, in the beginning God gave us land to develop our kingdoms. "As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5.

If someone was deprived of his land, still, the land was to be returned to its owner in due time; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; ... If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession ... in the Jubilee (50 years) ... he shall return unto his possession." Lev 25:23, 28

These land-kingdoms given us by God produce wealth, give employment, provide abundant leisure to create "witty inventions", allow cottage industries, and permit joint ventures with neighbors - and most of all - the land's increase provides sustenance, wealth, and "peace of mind".

Teachers and preachers who have not told the sons of Jacob-Israel that they have been robbed of their land and 6 USURY: If there are only 10 items in existence and they are lent to a borrower who agrees to repay 11 - and he puts up his house or business as collateral - he has agreed to the impossible. 11 items cannot be repaid if there are only 10 of the items in existence. The contract is fraudulent from conception.

7 "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5-6 kingdoms given them by God the WORD will certainly be punished by God the WORD.

Strangers In Our Midst

The WORD forbids us to have strangers in our midst:

> "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31- 33

The preachers and teachers of the other God have organized together and consciously cursed us with their silence so that we have been "... mingled among the heathen and learned their works." Ps 106:35[8]

The Merchant's God teaches our people "sex" and "death" with the media bought with the flood of money that comes from our "usury" payments. This media are managed by aliens and their agents who have crept in - shielded by the silence of Priests and teachers who disguise themselves as "Christians".

Offshore

Usurers and their corporations have been allowed into our land. This has opened the door to Strangers who have come in a flood. Our farm-kingdoms have been taken from us by deceptions, and we work for the strangers' corporations. In 1900, 90% of the people worked for corporations, or, lived by doing business with them. By 2000, almost 100% of our people work for them, or, survive by doing business with them. Ours has become a nation of slaves to Edomite corporations since people fear to bite the hand that feeds them. Esau is now "off-shoring" corporation-jobs and our people are on their knees - and still - we hear no protest from the pulpits.

8 "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24

Racial Adultery

"When two races live together with no barriers between them, they intermarry."[9] The WORD forbids racial- adultery;

> "When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3. [10]

Anti-christ preachers teach the Buddhist "love" and "diversity" instead of the LAW.

Rule Over

The WORD commands:

> "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

The WORD does not permit alien-corporations to rule his people; it does not permit strangers to rule us as governors, congressmen, senators, or judges. It is unLAWful for them to serve on juries to judge our people. To have a stranger become leader of the country and rule our people blasphemes God the WORD!

Note those who support the violation of God's LAW.

10 "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." De 23: 2

The Flood

Millions of aliens flood our land and have taken up residence; alien CEOs of corporations suddenly appear and lay off hundreds of thousands of our people;

Priests who are followers of the alien God hide the WORD and remain silent about matters of life and death. They talk of being "raptured" or "getting saved"; followers of God the WORD cry out to make ready; "When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him." Isaiah 59:19

Hindu Gods Include Allah, Buddha & Jesus

This Other God

Priests who follow God the WORD teach and obey his LAWS.

Priests who fight against the WORD follow the God of the International Merchant. This God has many names, among them - "Allah", "Buddha" and, "Jesus" - a false Jesus to be sure. This false God speaks the words of a prophet named Asoka who proclaimed "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed" - a commandment his followers strictly obey.

Quick Determination

To quickly determine if a gathering worships God the WORD or the God of Esau-Edom is to enter a house of worship and look around. If you see a stranger - leave quickly. The WORD says;

> "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - foreigner, strange, profane, adulterous) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7, No 1:51.

That congregation has judged themselves: "By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20. They have no fear of God The WORD. If you join them you will partake of their soon to come judgment.

Who's Guilty

Today's priests teach our people to tolerate disobedience to the WORD. Pretending to be "watchmen" they ignore the LAW and look away while Edomites and their agents flood our land. These strangers and their usury practice have eaten up our sustenance. Our land-kingdoms now belong to them. Usury's horrendous debt is causing the present market meltdown. Jobs are off-shored, strangers command our armies, sit as judges, and serve on juries; Priests have taught our people to tolerate sodomy, and racial adultery.

We can blame the Jews but if they were gone the problems would remain. Why go further than the Scriptures?

The priests in Jesus' day were responsible for nailing "the WORD made flesh" to the cross. There is no difference in nailing "the WORD made flesh" to the cross and todays priests nailing His WORD to the cross.

Evil can be banished only when man knows the LAW. As in Jesus' day - evil flourishes because the priests are silent.

The Parable

All Christendom knows of "The Lord's Supper".

In the spiritual interpretation, the bread is the WORD and the wine is the spirit. The bread of the WORD can do nothing without the vitality of the Spirit. Together the two make one.

In spite of the silence, misdirection, and heresy of today's priests, those other priests appointed by God to be his true kings and priests are alive and well. Also, they remember the injuries done them and who is responsible. They also remember their instructions:

"Thy kingdom come,
"thy will be done
"On earth!"

God's kingdom will rule here on earth; God's LAWS will be enforced here on earth.

Those who have tolerated evil and have made us slaves of God's enemies should "fear". You have been replaced and will be judged.

"I have set watchmen ... which shall never hold their peace." Isaiah 62:6

Letter From S. Africa

The Karoo, a semi-desert area, has had no rain for four years but always got support from the white government in hard times. Not so the blacks. Mbeki says everything is fine while sending millions of bushels of corn to Zimbabwe. Mugabe and his cronies get their food, fuel etc. free from here.

The weather is bad worldwide. We had huge storms in the Cape with 20 ft. high waves. Three provinces have had huge veld fires, killing everything in front of them.

A white woman died in her burning house, Hans saw the old farm burn down. They had made no fire break. I loved the trees, plants and animals, but all are lost.

The days are getting warmer and the rains will be so welcome. The vegetables are beginning to come on.

Whites are still leaving for safe countries.

THE KING'S ENGLISH: "Mr. Hoskins: I spoke to an English gentleman the other day. He added something to the story that I haven't seen in your newsletter. He said that the Boers and Afrikaners did a very good job of keeping themselves separate from the stranger, as the WORD commands.

In fact, he said that their exclusivity even included Englishmen and white Europeans of every sort. This elderly gentleman said they were very arrogant, and did not treat outsiders, including white Adamic outsiders, very well at all. Scripture has much to say about this." W. T. - Canada

RKH: White South Africa was settled basically by waves of Dutch Reformed, German Lutherans and French Huguenots. Many if not most were fleeing persecution in their native lands. From the beginning the private Dutch East India Company treated the white Dutch population harshly - forbidding the immigration of white workers to force locals to buy slaves from the company. The increase of the white population was by natural increase.

Next came the English occupation during the Napoleonic Wars whose rule was so draconian that most Afrikaners left their possessions and moved inland to set up new farming states to the north. Their persecution complex didn't improve when gold was discovered in their new homes and gold-rush invaders climaxed their invasion with a British led coup-attempt.

Next came a British invasion that was fought to a standstill.

Then came another, the Boer War (1899-1903), in which the British obeyed their ruler rather than the King of kings and acted like barbarians - rounding up women and children and putting them in concentration camps and starving them by the tens of thousands - slaughtering livestock, burning fields and homes, and leaving the country a wasteland. Most of the English settlers living in S. Africa either did nothing, or aided the British subjugation efforts. Most liberals were and still are English.

Now, I speak as a Virginian of English-Scottish-Irish descent. My people came from England to Virginia in 1615. They were what you would call "Puritans" - Virginia was ruled by an episcopal royal governor. Law was whatever the King proclaimed to be law. Church attendance was compulsory and it taught religious doctrine which included the king's latest decrees.

The King's government took the Indians' side against their own white settlers, resulting in the "Massacre of 1622" where we lost half the Virginia colony and again in the "Massacre of 1644".

Continued royal misrule resulted in Bacon's Rebellion of 1675, whose failure resulted in confiscations of my family and others and widespread hangings.

In 1680, English Irish affairs brought the first O'Kelly here who became "Kelly". Then, Scottish POWs were dumped into Virginia by the thousands from the failed "Rising of 1715". This is where my Scottish line comes from. The "Rising of 1745" caused thousands more to be sold here. The Scots of the period were the poorest but best educated of any people in the world. They became Virginia's schoolmasters and taught George Washington, Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson Latin, Greek, Hebrew, French, reading, writing, and to hate the English. This resulted in the "Revolution of 1776" where the British ravished the Southland and Virginia - but we won at Yorktown.

At the beginning of the 19th century a handful of French refugees arrived from Haiti who had been abandoned by both French and English to be slaughtered by blacks.

In 1812, Virginia was again invaded by Great Britain. British landing parties went up and down our Northern Neck slaughtering livestock, burning houses, and capturing slaves for resale in the West Indies. Time and again we were attacked by Indian War Parties led by the English. Oh, need I mention that England owned the slave- trading franchise she had won from France, and before the Revolution, the King had twice received petitions from Virginia to stop the slave trade, and had sharply reprimanded Virginia for doing so.

Next, Andy Jackson bankrupted the 2nd Bank of the US in the 1840s. This uncovered the fact that its stockholders lived in Great Britain. In other words, Great Britain ruled the United States through usury-banking more than half a century after the revolution.

Following this is the English type land appropriation and distribution into land-corporations accomplished by the war with Mexico, the War Between the States, the War with Spain, WWI and WWII.

Ah, Yes. South African arrogance. Afrikaners blame the English. We understand that the English are merely the horse ridden by the International Trade Cartel - the same cartel that now uses America to do what England once did. Have you heard what people think of America and Americans recently? I'm one of those they are talking about. Not only that, I'm a Virginia rebel and fly a Confederate Battle Flag of Robert E. Lee's Army Of Northern Virginia in front of my house!

In short, nothing will change until we take back our God. Next, we are to obey our God. This means that there will be rough days ahead for the enemies of the WORD! And, who can do it better? We are sons of our fathers. Scratch a Saxon and what do you get ?- a Viking!

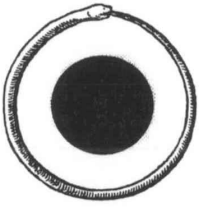
Chapter 410



KALI'S PRIESTS

Shaking Hands

My grandfather, Dick Kelly, meeting someone, would not shake his hand. He was friendly but would ignore the outstretched hand in front of him.

Many years before his best friend wanted to buy the old Culpeper Hotel across the street from the house where the gallant Maj John Pelham died; Robert E. Lee and Ulysses S.

Grant stayed in that hotel when they passed through town with their armies. Granddaddy's friend asked him to go on his note so that he could borrow money to buy it. They shook hands. Everyone knew that Dick Kelly's word was good.

Soon thereafter the friend went bankrupt and the bank came after Granddaddy to pay the debt. For years this indebtedness caused the Kelly family suffering. Granddaddy developed strong ideas about going on notes - anyone's notes. Even notes of his own children. All this was in the Bible - but no one had told him.[1]

Under Law

We are a nation under Law:

> "He showed his word... his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them." Ps 147:19-20

Josephus recorded in Antiquities this comment by the Romans who compared their gods with the God Of Israel,

"Our Gods are common to all men, and yours ... belong to nobody else but yourselves". Anti 4:6:8

Jesus Christ, the WORD made flesh, confirmed this;

> "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 15:24.[2]

1 "Be not one of them that strike hands (handshake, guaranteeing performance, make trade agreement), or one of them that are sureties (give pledges) for debt." Pr 22:26

2 "These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not unto the way of the Gentiles, and unto any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6

Add and Take Away

The WORD is set in concrete. It never changes. To add to its words or take away from them is absolutely forbidden; "What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it." Deut 12:32[3]

Another Don't

Jesus Christ said to not go to strangers. He repeated this time after time - for a reason.

> "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6; Lev 22:10

Jesus was just reminding Israel of the old story.

Rebuilding With Strangers

When Israel and Judah were taken into captivity many years before, Edomites moved into their vacated lands and were taught to worship the God of Israel. In time, Judah returned from captivity to rebuild the temple.

> "The enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin ... perceived that they of the captivity did build the temple unto the Lord God of Israel. So they went ... and said unto them, We will build together with you. For we likewise, as ye, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice unto him from the days of Azbazareth the king of the Assyri-

---

3 "And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." Re 22:19; "Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish aught from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you." Deut 4:2; "Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee." Prov 30:5-6.

ans, who brought us hither. Then ... the chief of the families of Israel said unto them, It is not for us and you to build together an house unto the Lord our God. We ourselves alone will build unto the Lord of Israel." I Esdras 6:66-71

It isn't enough that a stranger believes in our God. The WORD says that we are to accept only our own kind into our congregation. "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deut 23:2

Why? "Lest they turn again and rend you."

Rome

The Roman Empire was a giant trade empire encompassing many lands, races and their gods. Its government was episcopal - rule from the top down. The "Roman Peace" was the peace of death. Rebels died.

The WORD brought by Jesus Christ was looked upon as a new revolutionary law system. At first there was murderous suppression. People were crucified and fed to lions. This failed. The Roman Government next made Christianity a state religion and appointed its religious leaders. This worked. Christianity was then what the rulers said it was. Rebels were then accused of rebelling against God as well as the Empire. The punishment remained the same.

The International Trade Cartel

Those who study Scripture find that paths of deceit lead to India.

Historically, India is the center of world trade. Its spice trade goes east to China and west to Europe. Its symbol is the serpent. The serpent represents "deception".

India's people are both rich and poor. The super-rich exist in the midst of tens of thousands of starving people. Mind control teaches all of them to accept their place in life and few make any effort to change. They are taught that their present condition is the result of acts committed in earlier lives.

Buddha

There was a holy man in India called Buddha.[4] His teachings are considered by many to be closest to those of Jesus Christ - with an important exception - Buddhism has no laws - only proverbs..

Buddha was discovered by a powerful ruler named Asoka The Great,[5] a powerful ruler who adopted his teachings and made them a state religion.

It is often the case that men with modest means become rulers when advanced money which they use to hire and equip armies to enforce their will over others. This happened to Asoka's grandfather. In essence, Asoka and his empire resulted from the actions of wealthy "Brahmans" who stood unseen in the shadows. Both Asoka and Buddha were placed centerstage as their tools.

Buddhism was chosen because it teaches people to be "tolerant". Asoka was selected and made powerful because he could then force people to be tolerant. Peoples who accept Buddhism are required to be tolerant of strangers who move into their lands to buy and sell and take up residence. Its basic teaching - or motto - is called "Dharma". Its mantra is;

4 Buddha: Originally Siddhartha Gautama. 563?-483? B.C.. Indian mystic and founder of Buddhism. He began preaching after achieving supreme enlightenment at the age of 35. (American Heritage Dict)

5 Asoka: Known as the Great. Died 232 B.C. King of Magadha (273-232) Amer Heritage Dict

"One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

The Times

India had been a land roiled by racial strife. There were whites in the north and blacks in the south. Wherever the races met there was strife. Dharma ended racial strife and the merchant was able to go about his business.

When a race is destroyed, or changed into something else, the religious objections of their God to race-mixing cease. The land and people are then considered to be conquered by "Dharma". The multi-national; the "mixed breed", the "mulatto" are all the result of "Dharma". He has become a "One World Citizen".

Greece conquered India and in turn was unknowingly conquered by India.

Dharma Works

Asoka, India's ruler, bragged of his conquest of the Greeks;

> "King Priyarsi (Asoka) considers moral conquest (that is, conquest by Dharma), the most important conquest. He has achieved this moral conquest repeatedly both here and among the peoples living beyond the borders of his kingdom, even as far away as six hundred (yojanas) (about 3000 miles), where the yona (Greek) king Antiyoka rules, and even beyond Antiyoka in the realms of the four kings named Turamaya, Antikini, Maka, and Alikasudara, and to the south among the Cholas and Pandyas (in the southern tip of the Indian peninsula) as far as Ceylon." The Edicts of Asoka, N.A. Nikam & Richard McKeon, Univ Chic Press, Chicago 1959, p29[6]

Asoka's psychological warfare conquered Alexander's Empire - and by extension, the Roman Empire that absorbed the Greek Empire.

King Asoka went on to tell how he did it:

> "King Priyadarsi (Asoka) says: My officers charged with the spread of Dharma are occupied with various kinds of services beneficial to ascetics and householders, and they are empowered to concern themselves with all sects. ... Different officials are thus assigned specifically to the affairs of different religions, but my officers for spreading Dharma are occupied with all sects." The Edicts of Asoka, N.A. Nikam & Richard McKeon, Univ Chic Press, Chicago 1959, p34

Dharmamatras

The government officers responsible were called "Dharmamatras", or, today - "missionaries". Perhaps "thought police" would better describe them. These were talented people who were trained for as long as 15 years to learn about the land, language, people and religion of the country where they were to be sent.

With this training, and backed by unlimited wealth, they had little difficulty making contacts among the religious leaders of targeted countries as well as their political leaders and merchants. Dharmamatras carried Dharma to all of Asia and caused Buddhism to become its basic belief - except for lands converted to Islam.

Dharma was also carried to the West where it thrives. Asoka ordered that Dharmamatra enforcement was to be a state function and that "Army personnel" and "Prisoners" were primary subjects. He also instructed that his Dharmamatras were to work with charity functions and like organizations that provide "Medical Treatment" for both men and animals. They were also to have "Road Waysides" with water, shade, and medicines.

The Way Of Government

In India, King Asoka had large carved stones placed at major crossroads throughout his Empire teaching basic Dharma;[6]

* Prohibition of religious intolerance and discrimination.
* (Open housing) People of all religions live anywhere they choose.
* Honor all faiths
* Concord alone commendable.
* Message To Unconquered peoples - trust Asoka and learn Dharma.

Exceptions

Dharma prohibitions do not include the following:

> "Alone among the major world religions, Buddhism does not condemn homosexuality or premarital sex. ... Rape and adultery are considered misconduct, but an individual is free to engage in consenting sexual acts that do not violate marital monastic commitments." Church Policies on Gay Concerns, pp 234- 239.

The Result

In the West they created a counterfeit version of the WORD. The counterfeit version approves the following acts that the WORD forbids. Those obedient to the WORD are

6 The Edicts of Asoka, N.A. Nikam & Richard McKeon, Univ Chic Press, Chicago 1959

Christians - those who disobey are followers of the merchants' religion, or, anti-Christs.

Things Not Tolerated By The WORD

1 Tolerating Other Gods
2 Kings
3 Taxes
4 Monopoly
5 Usury
6 No death penalty
7 Reincarnation
8 Sodomy adultery
9 Pedophile adultery
10 Integration adultery
11 Fornication
12 Prostitution
13 Abortion
14 Open housing
15 Aliens in congregation
16 Accepting mixed-breeds
17 Strangers ruling man
18 Strangers in the land
19 Eating scavengers
20 Horoscopes, witchcraft
21 Trade with strangers
22 Eating w/strangers
23 Gambling
24 Taking strange wives
25 Disbelief in hell[7]

God Is Black

Counterfeit Christianity approves of most of these things forbidden by God the WORD.

There is something else that identifies the anti-Christ religion; its constant pre-occupation with the color of its God.

BLACK KALI - STANDING ON A WHITE DEVIL

Lolling tongue, severed head in one hand, sword in another; necklace of heads about her neck; belt of severed hands about her waist; flanked by helpers eating body parts and drinking their blood. The One World aura surrounds her head. God of the age of slaughter and destruction - the age of One World - Kaliyuga.

The following story comes from the ancient book of II Adam & Eve 4:1-4;

> "The Word of God came to the serpent and said unto it ... be thou dumb; and speak no more, thou and thy race, because ... the ruin of my creatures happened through thee ... And a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, threw it on the shore, and it landed in India." I Adam & Eve 18:7-9 (Lost Books)

There's more;

"God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam ... And God said to Adam, 'Look at this devil ... and look O Adam, at him who said that he is God! Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman?" II Adam & Eve 4:1-4 (Lost Books)

Think now; what God is a woman, is black, and bears the serpent of deception on her person?

Kali

Her name is KALI - Goddess of death, sex, and destruction - the most feared and most worshipped God of India - and worldwide under other names. What is the name of the age in which we live - the age in which millions upon millions have been butchered and starved? Kali-yuga; What is the color of the saints worshiped by her followers? Black!

In India, streets are named for black saints, national holidays are named for black saints, buildings are named for black saints, statues and idols are erected to black saints.

It is the same wherever Kali is worshiped - by whatever name she is called. Black saints are worshiped in the West.

There's still more:

Who is it that Kali is standing upon? A white man - a white man whom Kali worshipers call "white devil".

Media, rulers, and merchants world wide do the same. They stand on the "white devil" and praise their black God and his black saints.

Double Proof

Long ago, God the WORD knew that his enemies would use religion to try and destroy his people. He gave Moses special instructions to give the priests;

> "Moses commanded the Levites, which have the ark of the Covenant of the Lord, saying, Take this book of the Law, and put it in the side of the Ark of the Covenant of Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee." Deut 31: 25,26

The faithful have removed the book of the LAW from the Ark and examined its contents. We follow the WORD that is a witness against those who call themselves "Christian" but defile the land with disobedience.

The Way

Our ancestors refused to rebuild the temple with Edomites who claimed to follow the WORD. Jesus said not to go to any city of the Samaritans. The WORD forbids taking the WORD to strangers lest they turn and do you harm.

In violation of the WORD and ignoring the consequences of what would happen if this commandment were violated - the WORD has been taught to the likes of Le'Oveture, Marx, Stalin, King, Mandela and the imported hordes of strangers now in our midst who yearly destroy and wound almost as many of our people as are killed in all our wars put together. Kali-priests smile tolorently.

The sons-of-Jacob know the Commandments of Jesus - the WORD made flesh - and obey. Those who are against the words of Christ are anti- Christ.[8]

The Briar Hedge

Once I walked across a wide field. In front of me was an inpenetrable 200-year old briar boundary hedge. A rabbit would have trouble passing through. The closer I got the more formidable the hedge. When only yards away a path became visible that allowed me to pass through.

Today a briar hedge looms in front of us - the work of anti-christs in our midst. They have revealed themselves. We know who they are and what they do.

Armed with this knowledge, we will continue to walk and a path will open that will allow us to pass through. It is a promise.

> "Thus saith the Lord which giveth the sun ... and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars ... If those ordinances depart ... then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before Me." Jeremiah 31:35-36.

Letter From South Africa

Hello; It is amazing how HR subscribers keep supporting the Loeries month after month in spite of world finances becoming a nightmare. The value of our money here seems to fall from hour to hour. Some say that it is a planned depression.

The government continues doing what they have done since coming to power. They print more and more money and spend it on themselves, or give it to the unions for work that is never done. The same is true for other companies having government contracts - they demand money already paid to them long ago, but no records were kept.

The Zuma group got rid of Mbeki who only had a few months left in office. An interim president rules now, but he talks of what he will do in ten years. It make one wonder.

Summer is near and we are getting welcome rains. The downside is that the rain-water fills the road potholes making driving dangerous.

A major problem is our water supply. The water is filthy resulting from the lack of maintenance plus millions of black immigrants. Farmers can no longer use water from the polluted rivers and dams for their animals and must use bore holes. Whites buy water filters.

More blacks are pouring across the borders into South Africa. Food is now in short supply as a result of the government confiscating white farms and giving them to black owners who produce nothing.

During the past few weeks a number of people have gotten sick and some have died from mysterious diseases believed to be carried by rats. It makes one think of the black death. Unfortunately, the isolation hospitals were closed when the blacks took over the government.

The newspapers say that the United States will soon elect a black president. Good luck!

Yours faithfully, K.J.

Global Cooling

The Hadley Center for Climate Prediction shows a steep drop in temperature over the last year. China has its coldest winter in 100 years. Baghdad has its first snow in all recorded history. N. America has the largest amount of snow in 50 years, with places like Wisconsin having the highest since record-keeping began. Record levels of Antartic sea ice, record cold in Minnesota Texas, Florida, Mexico, Australia, Iran, Greece, S. Africa, Greenland, Argentina, Chile - the list continues. Over the last year global temperatures have dropped precipitously.

ABOMINATIONS

Pits

I was running the Pits at the Camp Picket range in 1948. We stood in a deep trench and pulled the targets up and down. When the targets were up - the shooters fired; we marked the hits, signaled the score, patched the target and ran them back up.

A young private was working target No. 8. A bullet hit the ground between us and threw dirt on us both. Panic swept the boy's face. He looked like he might run - and there was no safe place to run.

Not knowing what to do, I laughed, I laughed as if it were a big joke. He saw me laugh, his eyes lost that wild look, and he laughed.

The bullet? I have no idea where it came from. I surmised that it hit a rock on the edge of the pits and glanced down through a thin layer of dirt. Maybe not. Anyway, it worked. In this case, the thing that controlled the mind was laughter.

In my life I have seen cowards made brave, brave men made cowards, smart men made stupid and stupid men made smart and even enemies turned into friends. The power to control men's minds is great power.

"As a man thinketh so is he." Pr 23:7

The Time That Is

This is an historical period. Several subjects need to be discussed.

A Stranger Rules

The land is in trouble and people have selected a stranger to rule them and make matters right. The violation of God's LAWS continues.

> "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

Priests of the Christian "Spiritual Church" knew the LAW - and stood mute. They followed another God - the "God of the Land" - rather than the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. So did the elected officials. They too stood mute. They stood mute because they think the LAW applies to someone else.

Many don't know who "Israel" is; they don't know who Isaac is; they don't know who "Adam" is. They don't know who THEY are or to whom the WORD is speaking. Then there are those who know and choose to remain silent. They've sat on my back porch and told me so to my face.

> "If we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins." Heb 10:26

The Age

The God of the international merchant, called the "God of the Land" in ancient days, proclaimed this age to be the "age of annihilation and deception". It is the age of Kali-yuga. Its color is black; its heroes are black; its God is black; its followers idolize and build monuments to blacks who have a history of violence and death.[1] Its motto - "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.- 232 B.C.

The Merchants' Way

Great Merchants tend to welcome integration because integration brings more customers. Five customers are better than three. "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10.

In my life I have known many wealthy people - but I have known few who were followers of the WORD.[2]

---

1 "God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam ... And God said to Adam, 'Look at this devil ... and look O Adam, at him who said that he is God! Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman?" II Adam & Eve 4:1-4

2 "I beheld the angels of punishment ... preparing for the kings and the powerful ones of the earth." Enoch I 52:3,5

Why did John McCain lose?

From the beginning, McCain allied himself with Bush. Bush has been called the most hated president in American history. It is said that his approval rating was 25% going into Election Day.

Two-thirds of the country thought that the war McCain championed was a mistake, and 80-90% thought the country was on the wrong course. McCain had little in the way of charisma or communications skills. He was vastly outspent, and his political organization appeared inept. It is a wonder he did as well as he did. Yet, thanks to Sarah Palin, at one point he came from eight points behind to take the lead.

Then we had the collapse of Lehman Brothers, the bailout of AIG, and McCain announced that the economy was fundamentally sound. Suddenly, McCain was down 10 points as the press went after him in a mad-dog attack. He never recovered.

Asia's Collapse

A few years ago one of Esau's "instant multi-billionaires" took several hundred billions (trillions?) and sold and shorted the exchanges of Asia. The effect was spectacular. Country after country collapsed - devastated - their economies in ruins. Asian writers described conditions as being worse than the damage inflicted by WWII or the American War in Vietnam.

After the economies of Asia reached rock-bottom with unemployment rampant and starvation raising its ugly head, those responsible for the devastation stepped in and bought Asia's industries and lands for almost nothing. Their profits were beyond belief. Today they own the assets of the East.

Economic Integration

There has been much talk about uniting the world's economies - its banking and monetary exchanges. This is just talk. The fact is, the world has the dollar, euro, and yen, but when the economic meltdown started, it started everywhere at the same time. Practically speaking, the world already has a single currency and a single market system that operates under the same universal admiralty law. How else could everything collapse together.

Lightning Strikes Twice

Could the same people responsible for the Asian economic disaster be the same ones selling and shorting our own markets and causing the present world-wide economic chaos? They've done it before.

The most interesting thing is that the media will not talk about this possibility.

"Blame-game" players usually investigate a smoking gun first. However, if the same one who devastated Asia also owns the media - disloyal writers will be walking the streets without a job the next day. Let's look at what might have been.

The Set-Up

McCain must have had a reason for not using the cards handed him on a silver tray. Any of the following could have decided the election:

McCain could have come out against off-shoring American jobs; or

He could have demanded a high tariff to force the rebuilding of America's manufacturing at home; or

He could have demanded that America follow Eisenhower's example and mass deport Hispanics. Eisenhower deported tens of thousands of Mexicans in less than two weeks - creating thousands of jobs for Americans.

McCain made no believable issue about protecting American borders against the continuing alien invasion that is taking more and more American jobs.

McCain didn't touch America's sodomite problem that social conservatives were using to make giant strides elsewhere in the country.

In California, a liberal judiciary had ordered the state to recognize homosexual marriages. Voters slapped the judges and ordered the ban re-imposed and placed the ban in the California constitution. Arizona and Florida also voted by landslides to outlaw sodomite marriage. Where was McCain?

The New York Times deplored the "ugly outcome" of these three referenda and said voters were "enshrining bigotry," thus calling the majority of Californians, Arizonians and Floridians bigots and their Bible-rooted Christian beliefs bigotry. Yet, McCain, who might have led these moral and cultural issues didn't, and lost the very same Florida and California by a landslide.

In Missouri, where McCain eked out a victory, a proposal to make English the official state language carried six to one. Where was McCain?

In Nebraska, a proposal to ban affirmative action won. Where was McCain?

Had McCain made an issue of his opponent's support for a Freedom of Choice Act that would eliminate all state restrictions on abortion, he could have forced Obama to defend what yet remains a radical and extreme view in America.

A black locked up black America; McCain brushed-off the white working class. McCain could have had a heyday with his opponent's "most liberal voting record in the Senate" and his long association with the likes of Jeremiah Wright and '60s bomber William Ayers - but he didn't..

Economic insecurity is traceable to NAFTA-GATT globalization, under which it makes economic sense for U.S. companies to close factories here, build plants in China and export back to the United States. McCain had nothing to say.

Manufacturing now accounts for less than 10% of all U.S. jobs. This trend could be reversed with a stonewall tariff. McCain seemed not to notice.

Massive crime rates, bursting prisons, and social insecurity are traceable to massive alien immigration which is altering the character of communities and competing with U.S. workers by offering their services for less pay. McCain didn't notice.

In Politics, things don't happen by accident. Conservatives generally agree that the selection of George Bush for president was no accident. Neither was the choice of McCain. McCain's selection guaranteed that his opponent - in this case a black - would be the next president of the United States.

Huckabee & Ron Paul

The president-elect didn't make an issue of the above items. Neither did the "conservatives" who promised to lead America out of its woes. Smooth talking Huckabee and Ron Paul are two. Ron Paul was on television denouncing white activists for their "racial collectivism". Both were supporters of honors for the radical, city burning, plagiarizing whore-monger Martin Luther King. Sometimes I don't know who are worse, outright enemies, or those who say that they are our friends!

There is someone else who must be taken with a grain of salt; It is the "conservative" writer who constantly mistakes a flaming liberal for a conservative. They make the same mistake election after election. In time, people must realize that that's why they are there doing what they are doing - their job is to mislead Jacob into chasing his tail. It's no accident.

Executive Orders - Same Old

A front page story in the The News & Advance Nov 10, 2008, announced that the president-elect intends plans to use "executive orders" to make an immediate impact when he takes office. He is now in the process of selecting one of the most potentially radical anti-white cabinets ever seen in America.

Southerners are no strangers to presidential "executive orders". In 1861, a radical president issued an "executive order" sending armies pouring into the South - looting, raping, and devastating the land. This is what you can do with an executive order. Rule by executive order is called "a dictatorship". A lot can be done in the name of "executive orders" when backed by armed force.

Money

The election is now water over the dam. At some point in time, this present monetary affair will have to be dealt with. What do we do while waiting?

Scrip - The Lifesaver

We are told that the market meltdown is due to derivative IOUs coming due and debtors scrambling about to find money to pay them.

Debtors try to sell real estate to get cash - or stocks. Banks are said to be illiquid. We are told that corporations can't get money to pay suppliers and are being forced to shut down - which is causing unemployment to go through the roof. I know I have ordered things over the internet that were supposed to be shipped in three days and already it has been two months. Some merchants can't get loans to buy merchandise.

This type of thing has happened many times in the past, and still, people found a way to pay the police and fire departments. They paid them with scrip. Lynchburg issued scrip many times in the past to survive conditions similar to those today.

Paper scrip has been issued in all sorts of denominations to pay municipal employees and then taxed out of circulation with property taxes, utility taxes, tolls, and what have you. It's all in War Cycles / Peace Cycles. The only thing new is that YOU are probably the only one in your community who knows what to do. Pick up your phone and call your city councilman. I have.

The International Trade Cartel (ITC) would like for people to forget that the South fought a war with nothing but scrip and almost won. Usury bankers hate people talking about it. We used scrip for four long years - not counting the many other times we've used it.

Islam's No-Interest Banks

Something else. Islamic countries have been jerked around for a long time by usury-banking. Many of them have adopted "no-interest" banking as a safeguard. Have you heard of any of them bankrupting? I haven't.

This may be the right time to dump the present usury-system and re-institute Amsterdam type no-interest banking (See WC/PC, p.52). It would save us a lot of suffering, depressions, joblessness, hunger and war.

Let's review this usury business one more time:

New Reader Catch-Up

If there is only $10 in the world, and if you borrow that $10 and pay $1 a year interest - in 10 years the $10 you borrowed will have all been paid back to the one who lent it to you and there will be no more money left to pay the next year's interest. You will then be forced to bankrupt. You lose your house or business you used for collateral for the loan.[3]

Step Two

As you can see, borrowing puts money in circulation - paying interest takes money out of circulation.

To keep the game going, bankers lend make-believe paper dollars to almost anyone. They even import debt-free Hispanics so that they can borrow money into existence. They lend to Chinese, Japanese and Indians and teach them to build skyscrapers, super-highways and bridges so that they will borrow more money into existence so that interest will continue to be paid.

---

3 "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

But, at some point in time people have enough skyscrapers, bridges, houses, cars, clothes, and plastic toys. Borrowing slows; business slows; people begin being laid off their jobs - but the lender still wants his interest payments.

A shortage of dollars to pay maturing IOUs develops and becomes critical.

Step Three

Cash becomes so hard to get that borrowers begin selling anything they have to raise money to pay debts. They dump assets on the market and prices plunge. People lose homes and jobs and begin to go hungry. Most try to keep the little money they have left. Business grinds slower and slower and prices reach rock bottom.

Then the usury-bankers step back in and buy. A banker in Farmville told me that in the '30s the bank owned almost every house in town. They were begging people to stay in them rent-free to keep vandals away.

The Last Step - War

Now is the time to put dollars back in circulation. People must be forced to borrow money into existence so prices will rise. We need to start a war.

War allows governments to borrow money into existence. People are afraid of debt, but governments tell us that we must borrow money to defend our freedom against some new enemy or terrorist who means to destroy us with weapons of mass destruction, We must buy guns, tanks, ships and planes to defend our liberties - and put people to work.

And the cycle starts over once again.

Modern War

War is different now. It has gotten dangerous. Many countries really do have weapons of mass destruction. If these countries were really to fight - not only will young men die, but those who start the wars and make the money will also die.

Unable to fight a good old-fashioned war - people must be "persuaded" to do something else - they must support massive government borrowing and spending to save us from a "banking-freeze".

Seven hundred billion dollars is a good start. It's more than most of our past wars have cost and it gets money back in circulation the same way an ordinary war does.

Unless someone can think of something else, its as good as anything else, short of a shooting war, to jump-start the economy.

Still, spending money and going into debt upsets people. This drive to borrow money to save banks and GM might still develop into a tough sell.

Revolt

Let's face it - it's time to start ruling ourselves.

We can start by putting LAW-abiding Christians in public office

We need to do away with usury-banking and re-introduce interest-free banking. We've had "no-interest" banking before. My book on the subject made the establishment mad fifteen years ago. In case you didn't read it, the name of the book is War Cycles / Peace Cycles. It tells the story of usury and what to do about it.[4]

Interest on national debt, state debt, corporate debt, personal debt - all kinds of debt can be handled in a no- interest banking system. We've done it before. The details were worked out long ago. All that is needed is the will to do it. If Esau can do it - so can we.

Scrip can tide us over while we make the necessary changes. The alternative is to allow the usury bankers to continue doing to us what they have been doing.

"As a man thinketh so is he." Pr 23:7

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

We went down to Bronkhorstspuit, but with Betzy running between the Kindergarten and high school students, we saw her for only a short time. I gave her your message to expect that the downturn in the American economy will cause things to get even tighter for S. Africa.

They are hard at work improving the place. For children who come from homes lacking everything what they provide must seem wonderful.

Magda seems to find things overwhelming. I must say that I find 30 youngsters a handful. It takes a special person since every child is different. The school gave Betzy a framed certificate of appreciation for all she is doing.

The two rightist book shops in Pretoria who sell our type of books have sold out of "Sellout", or in Afrikaans, Verraad by Adv Pretorius. When people realized they were betrayed, they bought the entire edition of this book to learn the truth and the guilty parties behind it. It's hard to find.

The government seems to be grinding to a standstill. Submarines sit in dry-docks, ships are idle; the only weapon they seem to be able manage is the AK47. They never have to clean it - only pull the trigger. I found the 47 a little heavy so Hans got me a Ruger.

A tour leader picked up a tropical disease. She was flown here where she died along with her medic and a few others. They are guessing that it might be Cholera.

We now have a new black party opposed to Zuma. Perhaps this is the beginning of the inevitable black in-fighting.

Derby Lewis was found guilty at the time Chris Hani the black leader was shot. Since he knew some of those involved he was sentenced to death and served 6 years on death-row. He has since spent another 15 years in prison. No appeal helped because the ANC saw Hani as an icon, and it is almost impossible for a white to get bail. We got to know him and his wife Gaye well. He was a Member of Parliament for the Conservative Party in the then- white government and is still in prison.

With best wishes, K.J.

LETTERS

ROBERT E LEE: "Dear Mr. Hoskins; Thank you very much for the book about Robert E. Lee. He is an inspiration for me. I have 10 typed pages, highlights from one of the books I have read about him. I have likely read and re-read these pages a thousand times each, literally. I never tire of examples of his military methods. May God bless and keep you and yours. God, race & truth, Bruce C. Pierce - The Order

INDIANS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: My mother said that she had an Indian grandma. I have been researching my family history and found that this just was not so. Our line goes back to the Western Isles of Scotland. I noted with interest that the census takers were careful to note whether a person was white, negro, mulatto, Indian, mixed race or unknown race. I confronted my mother about this and she confessed that she found it 'romantic' to think of her grandmother being related to an Indian chief." O.S. - Virginia

RKH: "As a man thinketh so is he." Pr 23:7. Jacob is bound by Law. Esau isn't. It is easier for Esau to persuade Jacob's sons that they are really lawless sons-of-Esau than to have to station armed guards on every street corner to prevent Jacob from enforcing God's Laws.

When I was a boy, Esau had convinced us that the English, Scottish, Irish, and Germans were all different races who had freely mixed and therefore there would be no harm in mixing with Blacks and Indians. My genealogical research couldn't find a Black or Indian in any neighborhood families. It had all been a lie to separate us from our God. We've come a long way.

UNFILTERED NEWS

CONFEDERATE: In Richmond, the Sons Of Confederate Veterans had a statue built of President Jefferson Davis, along with his wife, son and a half-breed orphan that the Davis family cared for when his parents abandoned him.

BLACK NAVY: The Citizen of Sept 26, 2008 reported that the S. African navy was increasingly unable to perform even the most basic maintenance and poorly trained crews were in danger of damaging ships' systems. One submarine RUSSIA: Far-right activist and neo-Nazis clashed with police in Moscow as they protested alien immigration. Nationalists in many countries are discovering that the "Nazism" (National Socialism) of the much maligned Nazi area is nothing more than taking ill-gotten assets from internationalists and their corporations and returning them to themselves.

SODOMY: Florida, Arizona and California voters approved laws banning same-sex marriage. Esau's media blame California's large black turnout for its passage. This makes blacks the moral banner bearers of the cause. But, of course,. if history has taught us anything - it is that whatever Esau's Media say about ANYTHING is tainted.

ANTICHRIST: The black Archbishop Desmond Tutu of the Anglican Church was ordained as an Anglican minister under the guidance of the integrationist activist Archbishop Trevor Huddleston in the 1970s. An article in Financial Times, May 17-18, 2008, (L&A p3,) quotes him as saying "Almost every day you see mixed couples walking hand in hand or they are in a clinch - you wouldn't get a rake between them. I saw on one occasion a large group of black male students at Pretoria University and just one white girl walking with them, and she was in a clinch with one of the boys."

RKH: Esau, to the great grief of his parents, married two Canaanitish maidens. (Gen. 26:34-35). Then he married his mixed- breed cousin Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael (Gen. 28:8-9) (father of the Arabs). God said, "Jacob have I loved but Esau have I hated." Romans 9:13

God hates integrationists. They commit "adultery" - "racial- adultery". The Law punishing adultery is severe.

ANTICHRIST: Richmond - For the first time in its 106-year history, one of the nation's oldest Presbyterian Church (USA) seminaries will be led by a black. Supporters of Brian Blount, head of Richmond's Union Theological Seminary hope his appointment will inspire more black students to attend the shrinking 2.3- million member denomination which is 92% white. SEX-ED: The British government has announced that all pupils, from kindergarten through high school, are to be force-fed a curriculum of sex education. No schools may opt out - not even Catholic schools. "They wish to destroy childhood innocence and smash the remaining influence of religion." said Peter Hitchens in the London Mail on Sunday

PEDOPHILES: The FBI arrested 600 people in a child-prostitution sting. Arrested were 73 alleged pimps and 518 adult prostitutes. Rescued were 47 children age 13 to 17. Ten were listed on a database of missing children. Oakland is a hub for human trafficking and child prostitution. Agents say they broke up at least a dozen child-prostitution rings run out of casinos, truck stops, and illicit websites. THE WEEK

BIG BUCKS: Five biggest Wall Street's firms - Bear Sterns, Goldman Sachs, Lehman Brothers, Merrill Lynch and Morgan Stanley - paid out $39 billion in employee bonuses as their shareholders lost $74 Billion over the same period. (ABCnews.com)

Chapter 412

WITCHES, BEAST, BANKERS And A NEW WORLD

The nation of Adam-man is old. The sons of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were taken into captivity and scattered over the world almost a thousand years before Jesus was born.

It is not surprising that there are many histories of our people. A few of them were gathered into a book called The Bible. The purpose of the Bible is stated in its first chapter; "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1.[1]

1 MAN: Heb: Adam 119 - "to show blood(in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red(ruddy). Strong's Concordance

In The Beginning

Before there was a law of gravity there was God the WORD. God the WORD spoke the world into existence. He created the birds, fish and beasts.

Lastly, he created man. "God said, Let us make man in our image ... and let them have dominion over ... all the earth." Gen 1:26. Man's natural instinct is to obey the WORD in whose image he is made. Obedience is necessary to rule God's creation. Disobedience permits the creatures of the world, like wild animals, to turn on man. The WORD warns:

> "But if ye will not ... do all these commandments; ... I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children ..." Lev 26:14-22

The ancient book of Adam And Eve, 69:9-11 relates how that in the very beginning the beasts warred against adam-man;

> "Adam and Eve returned from the mountain ... and went down ... to the place where their corn was, but when there, a multitude of beasts came all round them. It was Satan's doing ... in order to wage war against Adam through marriage."

Racial adultery - war by marriage - waged by beasts against Adam- man has destroyed many nations of man through the ages. God warned time and again:

> "Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion." Lev 18:23; "If a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. And if a woman ... lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast." Levi- ticus 20:15-16; "Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death." Ex 22:19

The more recent books of the Scriptures contain the same prohibition using more modern words:

"When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3; "When the tabernacle is to be pitched ... the stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh shall be put to death." Numbers 1:51; "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (2114 Heb: zûwr, racial aliens) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51; "Ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars." Judges 2:2; "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4.[2]

Scavengers

Most children of Esau are scavengers. They take the work of others and prey on the weak and diseased. They create little and depend on trade or war to secure increase. They are made in the image of their lawless Gods. They do things that the God of Adam- man does not permit his children to do and live.

---

2 "They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange (Heb zûwr - racial alien) children; Hosea 5:7; "Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives ... Now therefore ... separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives." Ez 10:10-11; "When they had heard the law ... they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." Deut 23:2; "Not everyone shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Matt 7:21.

Mentality

Most beasts have a wolf-pack mentality. In their world the ruler owns everything. The ruler allows his subjects to enjoy the use of possessions that he is not using in return for paying him tribute.

This tribute consists of rents, tithes; fees; transfer- charges; and most important: interest and taxes. All these things are normal under the rule of strangers.

Esau Organizations

Governments of strangers have different names but are basically the same. Some are simple neighborhood gangs. Others are called "mafias" which can be wide-spread. Still others are mafias within mafias. Then there are "castes".

The ruling government today is hidden within the ubiquitous organization called "the corporation" which operates by secret "policy" instead of transparent rules and laws to which man is accustomed.

Witches

Jacob's lands have been infiltrated and are now ruled by Esau's surrogate rulers that Esau has chosen. Jacob's fears and misgivings about these rulers are handled by his media which Scriptures once called "The Cloak Of Esau" (see HR 161-1988). Other scriptures warn of "witches".[3]

---

3 "There shall not be found among you anyone ... who casts a spell." Deut 18:10- 11; "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live". Ex 22:18; "Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits (mediums) and the wizards out of the land." 1 Sam 28:3

A witch or sorcerer has the power to change himself into whatever wishes. The witch may appear as a priest, saint, king, knight, president, peasant - even a god on earth, or the familiar neighbor next door.

Many witches perform their acts openly. Those who are most convincing at making evil appear as good receive awards at ceremonies attended by the great witches of the land. The nation's serfs are encouraged to look on in envy and respect.

Some witches appear as respected financiers who are so skilled at their art that in the midst of thousands of professional observers they are able to make 50 billion dollars disappear. This is a marvel.

Sir Josiah Stamp
(1880-1941)
President of the Bank of England

Even more impressive is their ability to conjure wealth out of thin air. Consider the words of an internationally respected expert in such matters - Sir Josiah Stamp, President of the Bank of England in the 1920s and the 2nd richest man in Great Britain.

> "The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight-of-hand that was ever invented. Banking was conceived in inequity and born in sin. ... But if you want to continue to be slaves of the bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let the bankers continue to create money and control credit."

Creating wealth from nothing is almost the epitome of witchcraft.

The actual epitomes are those witches who stand in pulpits across the land and convince the people that the King of the Land is also "God of the Land".

Witchcraft has divided Christianity into two separate parts - each having its own God. There is God the WORD - the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and there is the God Of The Land, whose edicts replace the Laws of God. King worshipers are taught to ignore the LAW of God and obey the king. The witches who perform this magic are richly rewarded.

With this power, the King of the Land can issue any edict he pleases and expect it to be obeyed as if it came from God. He can even outlaw the Laws of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Corporations

In a world built on the illusion of witchcraft, its creations and activities are concealed within Esau's creation called the Corporation. Within corporations, secret things go on - things are seldom as they seem.

Corporations own other corporations who own still other corporations. Corporations regularly devour smaller corporations and grow larger. Critical decisions affecting more and more people are made by fewer and fewer managers. With fewer managers overseeing increasing problems, the possibility of making an irreversible error grows bigger and bigger; especially when the unchangeable Laws of God are broken again and again.

Results

Since witchcraft is an illusion, it is also illogical. Illogical things are self-destructive. This is what Sir Josiah Stamp concluded:

> "It is easy to dodge our responsibilities, but we cannot dodge the consequences of dodging our responsibilities."

Read that again. It is profound.

One may not believe or practice Lawlessness, but if we allow Lawlessness to be practiced in the land, we cannot dodge the consequences when Lawlessness activates God's curse:

> "But if ye will not ... do all these commandments; ... I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children." Lev 26:14-22

Look around. We see man's sons and daughters being taken by beasts so that man is being made few in numbers.

The Curse Grows

Usury banking is witchcraft - an illusion. Like soap bubbles, usury economies grow and grow and then burst - one after another. Time after time men with families lose their jobs. With the loss of jobs - money, food and shelter become scarce or vanish. Children suffer; couples stop having children. Starvation stalks the land.

The disobedience is hard to correct because of God's curse:

> "I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast." Jer 31:27

Esau's surrogate rulers have flooded Jacob's land with the kinsmen of Esau who have been waiting for this day. The surrogate rulers make no effort to return them to their own lands.

If jobs are few, and money is scarce, it is logical that man and beast might be forced to struggle for the same crust of bread. That struggle could develop into something bigger - much bigger; something planned by Esau long ago and now that Jacob's lands are seeded with beasts - now could be that time;

> "And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein." Zec 13:8

Trees must be pruned if they are to produce fruit. If this prophesy is talking about "man" it will certainly solve Jacob's problem with witchcraft, beasts, false Gods and those who follow them.

Conclusion

Will Esau triumph and kill his brother Jacob as he swore to do? Is today the beginning of the final struggle, or, is this just another "Jubilee" to be followed by still another Jubilee and then another?

There are some things we do know from simple logic: man unpaid by his employer quickly changes masters. If one master will not feed him and his family - perhaps his old Master will.

After all, it is written:

> "Thus sayeth the Lord, who giveth the sun ... and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars ... who divideth the sea ... If those ordinances depart ... then the seed of Israel shall also cease from being a nation before me forever ... If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all they have done, sayeth the Lord." Jer. 31:35-37

In addition to God's eternal protection, our God again relates His promise of prosperity and increase and tells us what we need do as the pruning process begins:

"And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the Lord will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers: If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the lord thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the Lord thy God with all thine heart ... For this commandment which I command thee this day is not hidden from thee ... It is not in heaven ... But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it." Deut. 30:9

Either now or later, a new world will be born - built on the ruins of Esau's Tower.

Corporate Virginia

Things are not always as they appear. A corporation having unlimited resources is usually ready to protect its interests.

The rule; "Maximum profit at minimum cost."

Go to your local shopping center. The shops are invitingly clean, bright, and shiny. Now, walk around the perimeter of the shopping center and look behind the shrubs and fences; Trash, garbage, and refuse years old are all swept into corners for someone else to clean up.

Babcock-Wilcox, the atomic-energy corporation, was located here in Lynchburg. The company went down on the James and bought a beautiful old ante-bellum plantation and set up shop. After a few years they moved on.

People wondered how they disposed of the atomic energy byproducts - dangerous stuff. The word leaked out. They put it in barrels and buried them all over. But, so what? Management was paid to turn a profit. It did. The company itself has moved on. The mess remains.

Up at Piney River are the remains of an old mining operation. The office buildings look new, but, they are closed and locked. Everyone went away. The land can be bought for almost nothing. Once bought, the new owner finds that before he can do anything with the land he must first spend millions to clean up toxic waste. So, more of Virginia is ruined and discarded while guilty corporations move elsewhere to repeat the same thing.

I used to travel to West Virginia. Mine tailings are piled everywhere in the mountains. Water seeps through the tailings into the streams. I remember looking down at a stream which had the carcasses of deer lying dead beside it. Poisoned by the water.

The Law says that the land is to be divided and never sold. An owner does not treat his land in this manner if he is to give it to his son and his son's son. "The land shall be divided for an inheritance." Num 26:53; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine." Lev 25:23

SOUTH AFRICA: Dear Richard Hoskins, I have a great deal of interest in South Africa as most of your readers have and rightfully so. But let us not forget some truths.

For years I could not understand why God would come down on Afrikaners so heavily when they are the most Christian and separatist of us all. Then I went to South Africa and went to Blood River and stayed with Identity believers and saw the truth. South Africa never had real Apartheid!

I was at the Blood River Monument and the Voortrekker monument. The first statute to "greet" you as you walk up to the Voortrekker monument is dedicated to the Boer women. Fair enough. It is of a woman and two children, but the little boy is an Edomite, Joseph Goldstein. He was chosen by the artist to model for the statue, back when the monument was made!

The Boers never separated themselves from the heathen. Even the 'Great' Verwoerd allowed blacks to work for whites in white houses and gardens and spent white money to 'develop' the black living standard.

'Pretorious' went without weapons to strike a deal with the "Beasts of the field" and they killed him. He actually had to watch as they killed his son slowly. But why did he negotiate in the first place?

In South Africa the 'boy' does the gardening and the "servant" does the house work, farmwork, and on the side steal and kill. Thus even to this very day, in South Africa, there are two types of work - 'White work' and 'Black work'.

Whites see themselves as overseers and blacks as workers. Boers who come to live in Australia are amazed to see white laborers. Boer wives in Australia have to learn house work.

Some go back to South Africa. I have met many Boers in South Africa and I love them, they are kind and hospitable, but they have never practiced Kingdom law. They, without knowing it, copy Esau's law.

Christian Greeting. W. A. - Australia

RKH: I have never been to S. Africa, but I can empathize with them.

Virginia has run much the same course. The first Hoskins in Virginia was Bartholowmew. He was sent by his family to Virginia in 1615, age 15, so that one member of the family would survive if all the Puritans in England were killed. My Irish ancestor arrived in 1680 - an indentured servant - although a gentleman. My Scottish ancestor was also deported to Virginia when he was 15. He had fought in the failed "Rising Of 1715". His father lost his lands and was sentenced to be hanged, drawn and quartered. The Humes of Wedderburn were Scottish Covenanters.

The Hoskins fought in Bacon's Rebellion in 1675 and forfeited their lands. Along with many others we protested the Crown's importation of black slaves and supported the African Colonization Movement - which was neutered by the creation of the Republican Party in 1850.

Our homes were looted and burned by the British in 1777 and again in 1813. Our slaves were stolen, loaded on ships, and sold in the Caribbean. We lost countless family members in unending Indian wars - Indians who were armed and often led by the French and British.

We were again looted and burned out during the War Between The States and again had our slaves stolen from us without compensation by the very ones who sold them to us - slaves that for years we had tried to return to Africa through the African Colonization Movement - and replace with white workers from Europe.

I wrote books which I thought related God's will. The newspapers attacked me and my books and I was fired from my job in spite of being a leading producer and VP in the company.

Why has this all happened to my people, family and me? Why has the same thing happened to those in S. Africa and Germany? Sure, we've made mistakes - some big ones, but hey! We're still here!

Our attackers have ruined themselves. When I was fired I made a business of a side-line and my wife went to work the next day. Our income was almost as much as before and I was free to write what I wanted to write. The company that fired me in 1991 no longer exists. We are still are here doing what we have done for as far back as I can find out about.

Look at France! Look at Britain! Overrun by aliens and persecuted by governments placed over them. Look at the New England that furnished soldiers who looted and burned us out. Not one in ten living there now has an ancestor who fought in that war. The rest have disappeared.

Where are the traitors who betrayed S. Africa; Britain, France, Germany and America? They had better enjoy their rewards, because their day is coming. Where will they run for safety? To me? To you? Ha!

We will still be here when our enemies are gone. All God's rebels from Scandinavia, England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Germany, America, South Africa and Australia will still be here! And, when God finishes teaching us how to deal with his enemies, the land will be ours alone.

DOOMSDAY: Brian T. Kennedy of the Wall Street Journal writes that one of America's enemies could aim a missile to explode 300 miles over the center of the country, generating a massive electromagnetic pulse. That pulse would permanently destroy most electronics in the country, including utility transformers, automobile electronics, water-pumping stations, TVs, radios, and computers. In an instant, the U.S would be plunged back into the 19th century, with no communication and no ability to provide food and water. Consequently, a proper missile defense system should be the top priority.

ISLAM: Michael Jackson has converted to Islam says the London Sun. His new Islamic name is "Mikaeel".

BAILOUTS: The total amount pledged so far comes to more than $7 trillion. That's nine times the cost of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan thus far and could pay off more than half the country's mortgages. But, the destination of this money still remains a mystery. Bob Ivry in Bloomberg.com

GUILTY: Citigroup's directors were grossly negligent, and perhaps the worst offender was Robert Rubin. As Bill Clinton's Treasury secretary Rubin engineered the deregulation of banking. When Rubin left Citi's board last year, he was $107 million richer. New York Post

KINGS, USURY, BANKS & SCRIP

Esau is ruled by kings - or kings called by different names. The king's government is today known as a "corporation". There are often many corporations within the king's primary ruling corporation. The king appoints the head of each.[4]

Corporations bow to dictates of the king. A king's right decision causes all to prosper. A king's wrong decision can spell disaster for all.

For this reason, Jacob-Israel is forbidden to have a king other than "King Jesus".

4 Corporation: "1. A body that is granted a charter legally recognizing it as a separate legal entity having its own rights, privileges, and liabilities distinct from those of its members. 2. Such a body created for purposes of government. ..." Amrican HeritageDictionary

Kings

Many years ago Jacob-Israel saw other nations that had kings and wanted one for themselves - a king who would fight their battles for them.

> "The elders of Israel gathered ... and came to Samuel ... and said ... Give us a king to judge us ...

Man's desire for a different king meant that a whole new law system would come into being, a law system that would override God's Law.

God said;

> "Hearken unto the voice of the people ... for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. ...

God then told what was going to happen:

> "Show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them. ... He will take your sons. And he will take your daughters ... And he will take your fields ... and give them to his servants. He will (tax you) and ye shall be his servants." I Sam 8:1-20

God then let Jacob-Israel have kings like the nations around them and the Scriptures tell of their misdeeds.

Today, all-powerful kings rule us, kings who can do anything they like. They force our sons into their armies and our daughters to work in the merchant's factories. Our children are forced to go to his schools; our land is taxed and taken from us; and we have become servants who are forced to obey the king's every whim.

The Corporation

A corporation's ruler is appointed by the merchant who wishes to exploit a land's trade potential. He is hired to be king and protect the merchant's interests.

When William The Conqueror invaded England, he claimed all the land as his own and appointed his loyal followers to manage counties, districts and farms. Those he conquered then worked land they had once owned but now belonged to the king. The wealth they once had produced for themselves now was the king's. If they rebelled and fled they would starve. There was nowhere to go. The next farm and the next also belonged to the king. That's the way kingdoms are run. From the top down. The king and his appointees rule all.

Danger To The King

Kings control their subjects more easily by controlling their minds - making them accept their existence as serfs. The king appoints priests to tell the serfs what the "god-of-the-land" (himself) wants them to do. They are told to obey, praise and honor their kings. They are to take pride in the fact that their kings live in palaces, travel in processions, sail the seas in magnificent ships and fly the skies with their wives and concubines.

Of course, there is danger. Kings often die at the hands of assassins; defeated kings lose their heads after losing wars; and his own serfs blame him if things go wrong.

There are always those eager to replace him. Self- preservation is a problem.

Deception & Self-Preservation

Most history is a record of man's revolt against unjust kings. People rise up and seat a new king - one who has promised many good things. But, kings are kings. In time the new king makes a wrong decision and all is as it was before. Then comes another revolt.

Kings often use deception to protect themselves. The person we know as "king" might only be the king's representative - with the real king living elsewhere. A revolt only remove the king's representative. Then, after a time, the king who lives elsewhere appoints another of his "lieutenants" to take the place of the one who had fallen - and life continues.

My Story

Fifty or so years ago I had political aspirations. I talked over my situation with my cousin in Tidewater who knew which political button to push to get things done.

He told me that if I wanted to be elected to the Virginia state legislature I first had to have the black bloc-vote, and, he knew the black who controlled the black-bloc and would introduce me. I could make whatever arrangements were necessary with him in private because back then a politician could not publicly seek the black vote without losing the white vote.

The black he was talking about wasn't one of the well known black lawyers of the time, or, one of the black celebrities the newspapers are always talking about; he was a rural mail-carrier whom I had never heard of before and didn't know existed. The great merchant who ruled Virginia had appointed a black middleman to manage Virginia politicians who were willing to pay the price to be elected.

Since I was unwilling to meet with this black "king-maker", my political career ended before it started. Today it is almost impossible to find a Virginia politician who will openly criticize blacks - and no-one knows who is standing behind the blacks, appoints their rulers and calls the shots. These are the things that are done in Esau's "corporation" where leaders are appointed or replaced as needed.

There was another case.

The Street Sweeper

I was told by a man, who until recently was a US senator, that at one time the one appointed to be the real head of the communist party in the United States was a street-cleaner in New York City. I was incredulous. However, after rethinking the matter it made sense. It was a perfect disguise which protected him against disgrundled patriots. But, who would have thought it? Who appointed him? "Power" does not always reside in a "title" or what appears obvious.

The point is that most well-known political figures are appointed figureheads. They act the part with the real power residing elsewhere. This is the reason nothing changes when they are removed from office. It was this way in Virginia before the American Revolution.

Summarizing The Corporation

In the age of deception, the one we know as a king is seldom who we think it is. The WORD tells us how to track our evil rulers:

> "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10;
> "Money answereth all things." Ec 10:19

Banks

There are good banks and there are bad banks. The good banks, such as the Bank Of Amsterdam, are no-interest banks.[5] The bad banks are usury-banks.[6]

Today we are ruled by the merchant's corporation which uses usury and usury banks as their whips. It is important that the long reach of these banks is understood.

Esau's Corporations Grab Farms

Under protection of the king, usury banks use many schemes to defraud the people. The following is one such which is excerpted from the booklet, Forty Years of Roosevelt, by T.W. Hughes. On p.31, he says, "I now quote from a letter sent by the Big Bankers to their agents throughout the nation."

> 'We authorize our loan agents in the Western States to loan our funds on real estate to fall due on Sept. 1, 1894; we will not renew our loans under any consideration. On September 1st we will demand our money, and (when the farmers cannot pay) we will foreclose and become mortgagees in possession. We can take two-thirds of the farms west of the Mississippi, and thousands of them east of the great Mississippi as well, at our own price. We may as well own three fourths of the farms of the West and the money of this country. Then the Farmers will become tenants as in England. After 5 The Bank of Amsterdam charged the equivalent of $45 to hire a ship, captain, crew, and cargo and send it the Orient. When it returned the profits were divided by shares. If the vessel sank, insurance covered the loss.

6 USURY: A contract fraudulent in its conception. It is lending 10 units when only 10 units of the thing lent is in existence - while requiring the repayment of 11 of those units, or forfeiture of assets. This creates an oxymoron. An "oxymoron" is an impossibility. Given time, Usury logically results in ALL property in time falling into the hands of one usurer with all other usurers being his agents. Ezek 18:13; Deu 23:20

Sept.1st, the interest we receive on coupons will be accumulated. We will not lend any of our funds after that date, as we can make more money by withholding our interest income."

Results

My mother's family, the Kellys, survived the War Between The States and kept their land - only to lose it thirty years later. Their land at Kelly's Ford that had traded at $800 an acre in 1858 was sold for 50¢ an acre during the 1890s money panic.

Add the following story, the same one I related a few months ago:

Corporation Manipulation

Brazil, Argentina and Mexico fell behind on their usury payments to the international banks. They were ordered to cut back on their imports. They did - but they still didn't have enough money to pay their bank creditors.

All they had to export to generate income to pay their debts was food. But, worldwide food exports were in balance and there was no market for additional food.

To create a market, the bankers ordered the US Congress to pay American farmers not to grow crops. This created a demand which allowed Brazil, Argentina and Mexico to sell their farm products on the world market thereby preventing their debt default to international banks.

This whole story is in: A Staff Study, "Prepared For The Use Of The Joint Economic Committee, Congress Of The United States, dated May 10, 1986." It is 44 pages long and was excerpted to fit HR #149.

The story is mentioned again to show the worldwide reach of the merchant's corporation that rules the world. The smaller political corporations of Brazil, Argentina, Mexico and the United States are ruled by still larger corporations which can order them to "do this" or "do that" and they obey.

The Property

We have discussed the crash of the 1890s that bankrupted thousands of self-sufficient American farms. We have discussed how American farmers were paid by their own government not to grow crops in order to give foreigners a market in which to sell their produce so that they would not default on their own loans to international banks.

Now it is time to see which the ruling corporation considers more valuable - its banks or the collateral owned by the banks.

The Bank Or The Collateral

In 1920, there were more than 32,000 banks in the United States at the time of the commodity crisis. They bankrupted one after another leaving only 14,000 banks. What happens to the loans made by a bank that has bankrupted? The deeds to property?

The loans were simply transferred to a surviving usury bank. Banks are a means to an end - they are expendable. The merchant wants the debtor's property. The king guarantees the transfer. The usury contract makes it possible. Usury is the important thing.

Gold

There are those who say that we should go back to the gold standard. The problem with gold is that if we go back on the gold standard the one with the most gold will rule - and, America doesn't have the most gold. Countries of Esau like India do. To remain serfs of Esau all that we need do is to go back on the gold standard and allow Esau to use his gold to remain king.

Scrip

The colonies issued SCRIP and taxed it out of circulation many times. They did it for almost 300 years. It infuriated the international bankers.

During the Revolutionary War we fought England using SCRIP - and didn't tax it out of circulation - we still won the war but untaxed SCRIP caused devastating inflation.

For centuries, Virginia used SCRIP and taxed it out of circulation. Very little usury banking existed. To destroy our SCRIP and take our land we were invaded. Once defeated, by decree our conquerors declared Virginia scrip to be worthless. Usury bank notes were introduced to replace them.

Usury banking was causing chaos in Germany after WWI. Germany then converted to SCRIP. It created what historians call "the German miracle". Germany came out of the depression in three years while it took the US until 1946 to do the same. Eighty- three percent of Germany's international trade was done by barter. The usury bankers sent the armies of the world to crush Germany's SCRIP system and confiscate German property.

Dr. Thomas Porter in his book: THE GREEN MAGICIANS, p.46 writes: "The Word published in Glasgow, England once stated:

> 'Marriner Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board and Montague Norman of the Bank of England agreed not later than 1935 on the joint policy of killing Germany's financial experiment by all methods including war if necessary.'"

What Is Scrip

Scrip is a piece of paper representing "wealth".

My grandfather, Willard Hoskins, owned a mill at Hoskins Mill Pond. Farmers brought wheat to be ground into flour. Sometimes they waited for the wheat to be ground. Other times they took Hoskins Mill Scrip and went to Tappahannock and traded the scrip for things they needed. Anyone with Hoskins Mill scrip could go to Hoskins Mill and trade it for 100 pounds of flour. When all the scrip had been exchanged for flour there was no Essex Mill scrip left in circulation.

Lynchburg Scrip

The City of Lynchburg issued scrip that looked much like today's paper money. They did it to perform a "service".

Lynchburg paid their firemen, policemen, and garbage collectors with Lynchburg Scrip. They built bridges, paved cobblestone streets, and paid for it all with Lynchburg Scrip. Lynchburg citizens used the scrip to pay dues, licenses, tolls, taxes, buy groceries and drygoods.

Virginia Scrip

The State of Virginia issued scrip to perform a "service". Virginia maintained its own navy, built forts, paid its soldiers, bought firearms and munitions; defended against Indian war parties; French and Indian invasions; two British invasions and repelled invaders during the War Between The States. All with scrip.

People used the Virginia scrip for groceries, tolls, taxes and import and export duties. Responsible governments were careful to regulate the amount of scrip in circulation by raising or lowering taxes.

Today's Notes

The paper money in your pocket is not scrip. It has printed on one side, "Federal Reserve Note". Everything about the "Federal Reserve Note" is deceptive. It is not "Federal" - it is a private banking system registered in New York; it has no reserves; and it is an IOU "note" based on usury.

Usury is forbidden by LAW because one cannot borrow $10 and repay $11 when only $10 is in existence.[7] It's simple logic.

Chaos results by borrowing $10 at 10% for 10 years.

Governments have borrowed from the private Federal Reserve for years and for each dollar borrowed - many dollars are now owed.

This system has created mountains of "bad debts" both government and private, debts that are now coming due - the bad debts that banks want taken off their books and put in "bad banks" for someone else to take care of.

Government Scrip

Just like Virginia used to do - the United States government can and does print scrip. They haven't issued much in the past, because if America issued its own scrip in quantity - the usury bankers would lose their monopoly and be unable to rule the world.

American scrip and bank notes look alike because they use the same paper money, but they are different.

Banks are now in trouble because truck loads of IOUs are coming due and they have nothing on the books to pay with. In a panic they have just asked for seven-hundred billion dollars.

Seven-hundred billion of what? Puppet politicians in DC created seven-hundred billion and gave it to them. Just like that! But, what was it?

Was this seven-hundred billion scrip? Or, did the government borrow seven-hundred billion from the failed banks and turn around and give it back to them? If they did the latter, we have witnessed the biggest financial con-game ever perpetuated on a bamboozled public.

Now

Today, usury banking has once again created chaos - this time worldwide. IOUs are coming due and can't be paid; banks have refused to lend, businesses are closing, people are unemployed. The banks are crying for bailouts.

The banks can no longer create usury dollars and are begging us, the people, to "bail them out", and the Kings of DC, appointed by the merchants, are giving them billions with almost no strings attached.

Solution

The rule is: the man who pays the piper calls the tune. The people are paying the piper. They should call the tune.

For the first time in a very long time we are in a position to end usury banking - and open federal, state, and municipal banks and require them to use no-interest SCRIP for banking purposes.[8]

Nebraska Farm Rally

In 1985, almost 25 years ago, hundreds and hundreds of farmers from all over America who were being bankrupted by America's usury system stood shivering in a freezing cold steel barn outside Kearney, Nebraska. Our meeting place had slammed the door on us after protests by B'nai B'rith.

My talk described usury's ongoing destruction of self-sufficient farms and the need for SCRIP. I closed with a prayer asking God to send us a leader - a Moses, a Gideon - one to vanquish the King-of-the-land and enthrone the King of Kings.

God is faithful. "Ask and ye shall receive." The return of the WORD will be like a prairie fire whipping across the plains. It will seem like an instant.

Woe be to God's enemies who stand in its path.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Cholera has broken out in Zimbabwe and, fearing its spread, we filter and boil our drinking water. This has become necessary because many purification plants no longer work. Some of the cholera infected Zimbabweans make it over the border from Zimbabwe to get treatment. In spite of all, I have gotten a bug that will not go away. We do not eat out, no one handles the food but myself, and our drinking water goes through a filter.

8 See "Municipal Banks", War Cycles/Peace Cycles, Hoskins, POB 997, Lynchburg, Va 245058

Things have gotten so bad in Zimbabwe that Mugabe told a number of white farmers they can have their farms back - only to withdraw the offer the next day. I am afraid black nations will never get on with the whites. The differences are so blatant; in the summer heat we dress as light as possible, but blacks go about in suits and ties.

With the economic slump, many mines are cutting back or closing. They say demand is much lower. Without mines, the whites left there will be without any income and most are too ashamed to say they are destitute. In the old days, only a few auto manufacturers were allowed to import cars. Now, the whole far east seems to sell cars here.

Zuma the Zulu compared himself with our Christ; causing the Muslims to come to Jesus' defense. But, not a word in public from white Christian leaders. It seems that they are afraid they might upset a black brother.

Had a letter from a friend in Sweden supporting the Israeli invasion of Gaza. I asked him what honour is there in invading a neighbor and shooting and bombing unarmed civilians, mostly women and children. They use the newest weapons from Amerika, nothing produced by themselves. My feeling is that they will not stop till they have killed the last Palestinian - and then proceed to attack other countries.

There are a few books in Afrikaans about our earlier border wars in South West Africa and Angola against Cubans, East Germans and other European mercenaries plus various black tribes. Our men were successful and even saw the lights of Luanda, capitol of Angola - when they were called back by Kissinger and Pik Bota. They could have cleaned Angola of communists. In the old days our Generals would have ignored Kissinger's order, as he is a foreigner. Our men were fewer in number but well trained.

After the English boycott, S. Africa was forced to design and build their own troop carriers and bomb-proof cars. Our R1 rifles were far better than the AK47s.

We sent you a copy of Sell-Out about the whites in power who sold out their own people to the blacks. It would still be in print except the Conservative Party leader Ferdi Hartzenberg took the book to court and the Judge, his brother, banned the book. The young author had no option but to cease publication.

In the early 1900s Siener von Rensburg predicted that the day would come when white pensions would be taken. So far, the police, railway workers and municipal workers have lost everything. The ruling black drones have helped themselves to huge paychecks and bonuses and left the whites to beg. When the last of the whites were forced out of government the country has begun to rapidly disintegrate.

'Till next time we wish you and yours a wonderful 2009. Things are difficult and our only hope is from God.

Your friend, K.J.

LETTERS

ROBERT E. LEE: Greetings; I would hope that your readership could get word that the book your prisoner ministry sent me, Robert E. Lee, On Leadership, is a tremendous inspiration; the kind of book that makes a mark on one's heart for a lifetime. As I walked away from the receiving window with it, the guards made it clear, in unison, that anyone who would recognize any excellent quality in the man Robert E. Lee, is guilty by association of the unspeakable crime of 'racism,' 'pro-slavery', and a host of other associated crimes. I doubt in my mind that a single one of these guards can state a single salient fact about the life or character of Robert E. Lee. I myself have learned a lot about both from this most cherished book." L.P. - prisoner California

Chapter 414

BABYLON FALLING AND SCRIP RETURNS

My Dad was a doctor in the '30s. His patients had almost no money. Dad would come home with the proceeds for the day - potatoes, corn, a chicken and maybe $1.28 in cash. People were always coming by our house asking to work for a meal. The food Dad received in payment for his services went out the front door as fast as it came in.

Layoffs are taking place. Hundreds of thousands lose their jobs each month all over the country. Millions are unemployed.

What do people do when they use up their unemployment insurance? their savings? What do they do when there is no money to buy food? The media says that in places foodbanks that care for the poor are down to three weeks supply. Someone else told me about seeing a car stopping and the driver picking up road-kill. If true, people may soon fight over a scrap of bread. Perhaps whole groups - perhaps whole races. Maybe that's a picture of tomorrow.

The Eternal War

It is surprising the number of people who don't know the simple facts of their existence. There is an ancient ongoing war in progress between Jacob and Esau. Scripture says;

> "And Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said in his heart ... I will slay my brother Jacob." Gen 27:41

Who is Jacob?

Jacob is the son of Isaac who is the son of Abraham. All are "Adam-man". His God is their God, and "His name is called the WORD of God." Rev 19:13. God's WORD never changes. God first wrote it on stone and then wrote it on men's hearts. Today's Adam-man bears Isaacs name, Isaac's-son, Isaacson, "Saxon".

The Saxon's one great desire is to be left alone so that he can worship God the WORD in peace.

> "Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me." Ex 9:13; "The eternal God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; ... Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:27-28

Who is Esau?

Esau was the son of Isaac and Rebekah. He is the elder twin brother of Jacob. He married Judith and Adah, both Hittites (Gen 26:34-35; 36:1-2) and afterwards he wedded Mahalah the daughter of Ishmael 28:9; 36:3 (father of the Arabs).[9] These were forbidden marriages, "Thou shalt not commit adultery." Ex 20:14; Deut 5:18.

Being a deceiver, a fierce warrior and merchant-trader the mixed- breed sons of Esau first traded with and then invaded and spread his blood throughout Asia, China, India, North Africa and Southern Europe. His settlers and traders continued spreading their seed throughout Africa and South and Central America.

The result is that in spite of a seeming multitude of colors, dialects, and cultures, there are basically only two peoples on earth - the sons of Jacob and the sons of Esau.

The children of Esau are mixed breeds. God commanded:

> "A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD." Deut 23:2

Result

Esau is the result of "integration" with other races;

Jacob is the result of "separation" from other races. The children of Esau are mixed-breed integrationists. The children of Jacob are separatists who seek to remain separate.

God the WORD, the God of Jacob, made his preference known:

---

9 Arab; meaning (ambuscade) (Davis Dictionary of the Bible.)

"As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." Rom 9:13

Esau's War Against Jacob

Esau the trader and conqueror accumulated great wealth. He uses this great wealth to expand his business into a monopoly. He hires kings and armies to invade other lands. The hired Kings manage these newly-acquired markets and protect Esau's interests. They enforce their employers directives as being "the law of the land" replacing prior laws. Using the power of the state, the king treats non- compliance as treason and punishes it accordingly.

The fact that Jacob allows kings to rule them is unlawful.[10] The violation of one Law opens the door for the violation of other Laws.

Resistance

Much of Jacob's history is the history of his overthrowing the kings that Esau has placed over him:

"So they joined their forces and smote sinful men ... So they recovered the Law out of the hand of the Gentiles and out of the hand of kings." I Maccabees 2:44,48

This is why to this day that Saxons distrust and chafe at any episcopal rule (rule from the top down), be it religious, government, or corporate business, since such rule may impact the rule of God's true kings which is the individual Saxon who is responsible to enforce the WORD which is God;

10 "The elders of Israel gathered ... and said ... Give us a king to judge us ... And the Lord said ... they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them." I Sam 8:1-20

"Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5,6

Esau's Counterfeit Religion

Laws issued by kings, to be obeyed by the people, must receive God's blessing - especially if these Laws violate the LAWS of "God the WORD" - the WORD that does not change.

Esau obtains God's blessing by hiring priests who retain the rituals of the old God, add the universal "be nice" that is present in all religions, and lastly adding that the old Law is done away and that the new law requires that one must obey the God of the Land who is the king of the land.

This creates a Counterfeit Christianity.

Counterfeit Christianity Today

Identifying Counterfeit Christianity is easy for anyone who knows The WORD. Scripture says:

> "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (Stranger 2114 - foreigner, strange, profane, - commit adultery, Strongs.) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." Deut 23:2; "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7, Num 1:51 (two witnesses)

Go into a church and look around. If you see a son of Esau seated among the children of Jacob - you have discovered a violation of the LAW - you are in a Counterfeit Christian Church.

It's that simple. It should be no surprise to discover that these are the sort of churches where sodomite leaders are discovered on a regular basis; pedofilia is found to be rampant, and their collections are given to the children of Esau instead of to their own sons of Jacob who desperately need them.[11]

Virginia 1622

The Indian fur trade in Virginia was a royal monopoly. Indians sold their magnificent furs to the crown who resold them to the rest of Europe at a fantastic mark-up.

To build good will with the Indians, Virginia's settlers were ordered by the King to integrate the Indians into their society - take them into their homes - eat with them[12] - bring them into the churches. Be nice to them.

Integration pays the merchant more than separation, so the King ordered the integration of the Indian race with the White race. Colonial leaders talked integration. Preachers preached integration. The authorities hounded separatists.

Then, the Indians closed the trap.

The Indians had planned The Massacre for years, but not a word had reached the Whites. In 1622, they rose at the same

11 "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore [is] wrath upon thee from before the LORD." 2 Chr 19:2; "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17; "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." Heb 10:26-31

12 "Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10; "Withdraw from among the Gentiles and do not eat with them." Jubilees 22:17; "They shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the Lord ... when they eat their holy things." Lev 22:15-16 hour on the same day from Richmond's fall line to the Atlantic Capes and massacred half the colony. Everyone lost someone.

From that time, a White integrationist couldn't be found among the survivors. God's wrath for violating his Law convinced them. The survivors became separatists overnight.

1622 Again?

Today, Jacob has once again been ordered by Esau's surrogate king to integrate with the children of Esau. The king's governors, rulers and Counterfeit Christian ministers teach integration. Separatists are called unflattering names and are dealt with harshly.

Large groups of aliens have been brought into our settlements as replacements for heavily indebted sons of Jacob who are loaded with debt and can borrow no more. The newly arrived sons of Esau are mostly debt-free and can be counted on to borrow and expand the monetary system for years into the future - pouring more billions into Esau's coffers. Integration is more profitable to traders than separation.

Prelude

While Esau has a reputation for being rowdy, the present aliens are relatively quiet and orderly, as least as much as they have ever been. They have responded to the overtures of the king and are relatively friendly and nice.

But, we've seen this before. We remember with a sense of foreboding what happened. Will the past repeat? What might happen if food should be in short supply; if the millions of unemployed aliens should deplete their savings and unemployment insurance and be unable to buy what food is available?

If people should have trouble feeding their families, or, if it should appear that one group has more to eat than another - what then? Another 1622?

Doesn't it appear strange that only a handful of priests teach The WORD Of GOD and speak out against usury, undivided land, strangers in our midst, monopolies, and kings?

Doesn't it appear strange that among all the king's government officials in county, state, and federal levels one can't name ten who are demanding that the horde of aliens in our midst be deported to create jobs for our own?

Doesn't it appear strange that hundreds of billions of tribute are taken from the people and given to Esau's bankers to do with as they like? And, most of all, doesn't it appear strange that in direct violation of the LAW of God the WORD we have a stranger ruling over us when THE WORD clearly teaches, "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21?

False Alarm

In 1999, people were told that computers would not be able to adjust to the time change and would crash on Jan 1, 2000, and the country would revert to the stone age. People were advised to load up on food, ammunition, and survival equipment.

This was a false alarm - sort of like "The Indians are coming" when they weren't - until they did.

Now, once again, this time without being told, people are buying survival equipment. The price of ammunition has doubled in many places and the price of firearms has become prohibitive.

Still, the Blacks, Hispanics, Jews and others remain quiet, while Esau's media presents entertainment provided by the Washington Circus and Hollywood whores and whore-mongers. But, these distractions are no longer funny. The quiet is becoming unnerving.

Jackson

In 1817, Creeks who had joined the Seminoles in Florida incited them to war. General Jackson was sent against them and seized St. Mar's in 1818. Two British subjects, Ambrister and Arbuthnot, were captured. Jackson knew these types and, like Lew Wetzel, was not squeamish about killing them. On the charge that they encouraged the Indians to murder their own kinsmen - that they were arming and training strangers to destroy their own Saxon people, he hanged them. "Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel." I Kings 12:24

He knew that a Christian Community is a separated community and there would never be peace as long as there were Indians in their midst, so he met with Indian leaders and reached an agreement that in exchange for lands they held in the east the American government would give them their own lands in Oklahoma plus $20,000,000 to compensate them for any standing buildings or land improvements they left behind. The Indians were then to move to Oklahoma where they were to set up their own Indian country.[13]

13 "The eternal God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee ... Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:27-28

Blacks

Pastor Robert Finley, a Presbyterian minister, founded the American Colonization Society in Dec 1816. Its sole purpose was to colonize blacks back to their African homeland. The country of Liberia was established to receive them. It found support among prominent men, such as Henry Clay and Thomas Jefferson. Money was raised. In (1819) Congress appropriated $100,000 to help return blacks to Africa.

In 1821 an agent, Eli Ayres, and Lt. R. F. Stockton of the U.S. Navy purchased land in Africa, where subsequently Jehudi Ashmun and Ralph R. Gurley laid the foundations of Liberia. The colonization movement came under the bitter attack of Esau's integrationist agents financed by Esau's corporations.

The whole "Back To Africa" movement was put on hold by the formation of the radical Republican Party in 1850, the defeat of the South in 1865, and again forced racial integration following WWII.

But, as always, racial integration created a vastly bigger problem. The following was reported in an Australian newspaper:

> "The longest war America has ever fought is the Dirty War, and it is not over. It has lasted 30 years so far and claimed more than 25 million victims. It has cost almost as many lives as the Vietnam War. It determined the result of last year's congressional election. Yet the American news media do not want to talk about the Dirty War, which remains between the lines and unreported.
> "When all the crime figures are calculated, it appears that black Americans have committed at least 170 million crimes against white Americans in the past 30 years. It is the great defining disaster of American life and American ideals since WWII. All these are facts, yet by simply writing this story, by assembling the facts in this way, I would be deemed a racist by the American news media. It prefers to maintain a paternalistic double standard in its coverage of black America, a lower standard." (Patrick Sheehan writing for the Sidney, Australia, Morning Herald 1995.), My Awakening, D. Duke, p 259

Phineas

Kings ruling the lands of Jacob-Israel are a violation of the LAW. It removes the responsibility of law enforcement from the individual Saxon and replaces it with a professional police force, and it replaces the nation's militia with a permanent army. NY City didn't have a police force until 1840 - its citizens enforced the law before then and the U.S. army were only caretakers until the formation of the Republican Party. Lawlessness breeds lawlessness.

Recap

Virginia was settled in 1607. The king's governor was ordered to incorporate Indian savages into the colonists. In 1622, the Indian Massacre resulted. Overnight, God's Phineas Priesthood was activated. Their immediate job was to root out any who tolerated dangerous aliens in their midst. The day after the massacre an integrationist couldn't be found in Virginia.

This caused a separatist mind set which spread to England. It was years before the king could bring matters under his control again. When he again ordered integration, it caused another Indian massacre in Virginia in 1644 - but this time the people were on guard.

The Law of God's Phineas Priesthood is simple; obey and enforce the Law of God the WORD. The LAW requires a Saxon to correct Lawlessness and the LAW instructs him as to what he is to do:

> "Deliver him that suffereth wrong from the hand of the oppressor; and be not faint-hearted when thou sitteth in judgment." Eccl 4:9

When someone committed a capital crime, justice was usually administered before the sun went down. To do otherwise was to fight God;

> "If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn to death, and those that are ready to be slain ... shall not HE render to every man according to his works?" Prov. 24:11-12; "Whosoever shall do and teach (God's Commandments), the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven." Mt 5:19

Turning The Corner

I was saved on 28 April 1965. For a time everything seemed to go wrong. It was like driving down a bad bumpy road and suddenly turning off the road and going through the woods. Ridding bad habits was traumatic. It will be the same for you, me, and our nation. While losing jobs, dealing with tyrannical governments, and preparing for a possible 1622, scrip has reappeared. Scrip is part of Jacob's rehabilitation.

Turning To Scrip

In the town of Lewes in southern England, the merchants have devised a way to favor local produce and business over the standardized goods of the global economy. It is being done by introducing its own currency. May's General Store is one of the shops authorized to issue "Lewes pounds" at an exchange rate of one to one sterling. "Sue May, presides over proceedings with a brisk, school-marmish authority, dispensing home-baked bread pudding to regulars while giving the low-down on Lewes' alternative currency project."

According to the Financial Times of March 1, 2009, in the US there are at least 12 local currency schemes which favor small towns and one another against a hostile outside world. The largest is the "Berkshares Program" of southern Massachusetts which is issued in denomominations of one to 50, at a 5% discount to the dollar, and administered by a not-for-profit company. The article says that the money is now widely accepted even for large purchases and wage payments with nearly $2 million worth circulating among businesses and private individuals. Susan Witt, who sits on the board, says "Our youth prefer to spend their free time on Main Street rather than at the mall." Money taken in exchange is held in escrow as backing for the scrip.

Let us understand what is happening; local people indoctrinate local people to spend locally the scrip that is created locally.

The small local merchants are helped and the big international corporations are penalized since they can't send local scrip out of the locality to their central headquarters. In the past, they undersold local merchants and put them out of business and drained money from the locality causing the standard of living to drop for most Americans for the last 20 or so years. Can't do that when people use scrip.

The latest news is that the near bankrupt state of California has decided to issue its own scrip to cover student aid, payments to its disabled and needy, and perhaps to the nearly broke California Public Employees and the State Teachers Retirement Systems. They are going to name the scrip "IOU"s. "A rose by any other name smells as sweet". If California can base their "IOU"s on wealth created locally they will have a permanent money system divorced from Esau's international trade cartel. The Cartel will be reluctant to take California's "IOU"s for fear they will not be accepted in international money markets.

One other good thing: Esau's anti-white newspapers are bankrupting left and right. Newsletters will be important in the days ahead. They might even have to be delivered by hand as were those of the "Committee of Correspondence" before the Revolutionary War.

Conclusion

Jacob has long been a captive ruled by Esau, but now, Babylon is self-destructing and Jacob can see the approach of freedom that is promised them by THE WORD.

Esau's illogical usury system is leading the way in self-destruction which is forcing Esau to release their Saxon captives. Saxons must now build their own society to provide home, food, and safety. The tens of millions of aliens imported to feed the establishment's debt machine are now useless to the cartel and must be helped to return to their own lands.

The day of Esau lick-spittle political servants is over. Those who have been rewarded with hidden retirement funds (see Tax- Payers Association of Virginia); his pulpit agents who have led comfortable lives in exchange for teaching Counterfeit Christianity; and his usury bankers who have rewarded themselves with billions of the people's money now sit helplessly watching the tower crumble. They know that Esau will not spare them since they no longer are of any use to him and the people they have misled are angry. Esau said;

"I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Gen 27:41

And God said;

"I loved Jacob, And I hated Esau." Malachi 1:3

It was the same in 1622 and we are still here. Events have a way of changing people's minds overnight.

Tomorrow we will still be here and Esau and his agents will be gone. We know this because God said;

"The eternal God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; ... Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:27-28

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins: The HR letter from Australia by W.A. was not well received. The man saw the wrong people on his visit and therefore got his facts wrong. For some reason the Australians do not like us, whether on a visit or in sports. They can be mean.

Since 1994 those who manage our monuments, particularly the Voortrekker Monument, have changed their stories. A Gen. Opperman and I had words before. He brought in black guides. We never needed them before and what they tell visitors is twisted. Opperman is also very close to the black who manages the heathen hill. Opperman is no patriotic Afrikaner-Boer; he is what we call a renegade. He spoke on 15 December 2008 at Blood River, but could not resist visiting the recently built Zulu sculpture on the other side of the river.

At the inauguration in 1968, Dr. D. F. Malan was "Premier" Prime minister and the then National Party ruled. As a Voortrekker youth member I took my turn in guarding the statue of the mother and two children in front of the entrance. You can take my word for it, the boy was the son of one of the sculptors. It is a gross insult to say a Jewish child would pose for a nation they hate.

The letter writer made remarks about our laziness. What he most probably saw were Jewish women, since they came to our country they have always needed a maid, house help and a gardener.

Since I married in 1955 I have done my own work and many times the garden as well. When our men had to go on commando their wives managed the farms. During the Anglo-Boer War they provided all passing commandos with food, one of the reasons why the English destroyed everything and sent the families to concentration camps. These days, those who can work at home make the family clothes instead of buying the rubbish from China. Most young mothers nowadays have go out and work only to come home late and still have to see to the children, a meal and the house and clothes. My mother did all her work although she could afford servants. Lots of knitting and sewing-machine work kept her busy. Nowadays, nearly every town has a home industry selling home baked bread, cakes and other items.

Mandela's daughter rented an expensive house, but they nearly destroyed the inside. The same with the existing prime minister, but he did five hundred thousand in damages to a house in less time - removing cupboards, fittings, etc.

We listen to stories by white refugees from up north. They left their places in good condition. Now, a few walls remain - nothing else.

Cholera is now in all 9 provinces and the blacks complain that they have no running water. First they polluted all the rivers and dams. Whites drilled boreholes for them but they steal the pumps to sell for scrap and then they filled in the bore holes with rocks. The same thing is happening to their schools. They steal the equipment from new schools and leave them in shambles.

The "State Bybel" brought from Holland was based on the Masaretic text. We learned about the Septuagint later. Pres. Paul Kruger ruled by the Bible. He was honest and just. Like Malan, Strydom and Verward, which was the reason for his assassination. He did much to help the blacks - clearing away slums that were being rented out by the Anglican Church. Soweto was planned with each house having its own garden. The word "Apartheid" means "separate-development. It was in existence a century before in Natal. The liberals cherry-picked the parts of Apartheid they didn't like to defame us. Socially we never mixed. Blacks did their thing and we did ours. Most of the world news goes through the English Foreign Office; no wonder other nations view us as strange and even evil. This has been going on for a few centuries.

There is something I would like to bring to the Australian's attention. Verwaoerd's idea was to build industries close to homeland borders so black workers could go home at night. There were no squatter camps in those days. Squatter camps increase crime a hundred-fold.

People who went to Mozambiique in December found no animals or birds still alive - they have all been eaten by the locals. Still, all one sees on the alien TV are starving black children with the announcers telling the world how hard they have it.

Until next time, K.J.

Chapter 415

THE REAL VIRGINIA HISTORY

Aryan

To know others one must know himself.

We are Man, - "Adam" in Hebrew - meaning to blush red; we bear Isaacs' Name - Isaacson, "Saxon". We are Israel; Heb - "he will rule as God" - the name of Jacob and his posterity; And we are also known as ARYAN.

This name has a special meaning:

> "ARYAN, ahr'yan, meaning lord of the soil ... lived originally in Central Asia ... They are also called the Indo-European and Indo-Germanic race. ... Centuries ago the Aryans became the ruling race of India ... All modern languages sprang from these people." World Book, Vol 1, p.407. W.F. Quarie & Co, Chicago, 1928.

The Aryan is "lord of the soil". Where he is "planted" the earth flourishes. When he disappears - so does his blessing.

Esau now controls Jacob's soil with taxes, corporate ownership, and import/export controls. Jacob only becomes "Aryan" - lord of the soil - when freed from Esau's rule. Then he again produces wealth from the soil and is free.

Plantations

A plantation is where people are planted. Colonists to the new world were settled on plantations - the New England Plantation, Virginia Plantation, Georgia Plantation, etc.

Integration vs Separation

In the lands of Jacob, the office of "king" is an appointed position. He manages the merchant's market. His subjects produce tax/tribute. To get more tax/tribute kings conquer neighbors. The king's priests teach the king's subjects that integration is good and separation is bad. This is done to prevent his different subjects from "separating" and thereby decreasing the king's tribute.

Economics

Virginia colonists were held in virtual slavery by England's navigation laws. These laws demanded that Virginia trade with England exclusively. Virginia was forbidden to manufacture goods. Manufacturing was an exclusive British monopoly. English manufactured goods were sold to Virginia for top dollar and Virginia's raw materials were bought at low prices set by the King's government.

Great Britain wanted Virginia tobacco. It was a money crop. It was shipped to Great Britain, processed, and re-sold to the world at a tremendous mark up.

Tobacco farming is labor intensive. Convicts, countless tens of thousands of prisoners of war, religious non-conformists, and political exiles were banished to Virginina and were expected to labor in the tobacco fields for seven years to pay their own transportation costs. This made them "indentured slaves." "If thou buy a Hebrew servant, 6 years shall he serve, and in the 7th he shall go out free." Ex 21:2.

A great many of of these immigrants were well educated. Most were put to work in tobacco fields to work off their indentures. Many simply faded into the unregulated frontier. In any event, their indentures lasted hardly enough time to produce an abundant tobacco industry.

Aliens Under Law

Aliens are not under Law and could be made perpetual slaves. In 1619, twenty black slaves were off- loaded into Virginia from a Dutch ship with the blessing of the royal governor. By 1649 there were 300, and in 1670 - 2000.

> "In 1676, Virginia contained 40 thousand people of whom 6 thousand were white servants and 2 thousand negro slaves."[14]

Cooke continues;

> "In 1714 there were 23,000 blacks, (and) the number of African slaves in North America in 1756, the generation preceding the Revolution, was about 292,000. Of > these Virginia had 120,000, her white population amounting at the same time to 173,000."

14 Virginia, J.E. Cooke, p 224, 367, 1883.

In other words, in the short period of 42 years between 1714 and 1756 Virginia's black population had grown almost as large as the white population. Why? God's Commandment dealing with strangers says "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33.

Blacks flooding into Virginia was alarming. George Maclaren Brydon, DD, wrote in his Virginia's Mother Church Vol II, p.13, 1952.

> "The General Assembly of Virginia could put into effect no law which it passed to check or to prohibit the importation of Negro slaves, no matter what conditions the colony might be facing, because the great and politically powerful Royal African Company, had a practical monopoly of the slave trade from Africa to America and the West Indies, and they saw to it that the king declared void every colonial law affecting that trade."

Before we get into the effects of this trade I want to tell you some of my personal experiences with blacks.

Black Friends

It's easy to like most blacks. They can make you feel like a million dollars, and who doesn't like to feel like a million dollars.

Richard was abandoned as a boy. Granddaddy took care of him. He used to work for us in Culpeper. I was 8 and he was 30. He drove all over the country delivering furniture for Granddaddy and Granddaddy let me ride with him. Richard let me help him build fences, build chicken coops, and let me help him milk the cows and slop the pigs. He even let me drive the truck when granddaddy wasn't around.

He showed me the first pornographic book I ever saw - it was something even by today's standards. And, Richard was a thief. He wasn't allowed to go any place in the house besides the kitchen. He would steal whatever caught his fancy. One time I borrowed 10¢ from grandaddy and had saved all month to pay it back. It was on my dresser. Richard came upstairs when noone was looking and it was gone. I was in trouble with Granddaddy. That's just the way he was.

Temple worked for us for years when Mother was sick. She was absolutely trustworthy and cooked us special treats and made the best biscuits I ever tasted. She had four children. One by the preacher of the colored church she went to and the other three by the deacons of that church. She wasn't shy talking about it. None of them saw anything wrong or unusual about it.

Dealing With Blacks

Like it or not, in the South one had to deal with the blacks Great Britain had forced on us. Grown-ups gave us strict instructions: when dealing with colored folks; it was OK to joke with them. They like that - then leave. If you don't they will become a problem. Never, never, ever, get familiar or personal with them or, eat with them. If you do they will turn it into a alpha-dog contest. You don't need that.

Nod to special black acquaintances in passing; avoid eye contact with the rest. Eye contact means one thing to us and another thing to them. Don't speak unless you have a reason to speak. I was told that I would be shocked if I knew what went on in black society. I found that to be a mild statement.

The first time I was on active duty we had a few blacks in our barracks. Several had white scars that stood out on their black skins. They told me that most came from knife or razor fights. I don't remember seeing blacks that didn't have scars. They considered each scar a badge of honor and would relate at length how they got them.

I remember seeing companies of blacks that had two or three whites among them; the blacks made the lives of the whites a living hell - and the army did nothing to stop it.

Learning To Listen

The older folks were always talking about blacks and their history. One would tell a story and someone else would start another. Stories that weren't allowed in history books. Youngsters of my generation learned more black history than today's newspaper writers and college professors put together.

Slave Trade Monopoly

The World Book, W.F. Quarrie & Co, Chicago 1927, p.2329 reveals Great Britain's interest in the slave trade:

> "The Treaty of Utrecht (1713), which closed the war (King William's War (1689-1697 - French & Indians vs England in America), ceded to England the Hudson Bay region, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, and allowed to it the monopoly of the slave trade in the colonies."

As mentioned before, Virginia was forbidden to manufacture goods. When Virginians wanted tools, iron goods, dresses, or suits, they had to buy them from England. These goods were expected to be paid for in gold or silver (which was virtually nonexistent), or exchanged for Virginia tobacco.

Importing cheap Virginia tobacco and reselling it to the rest of the world at inflated prices proved a British gold mine.

Cheap tobacco required cheap labor. Permanent slave labor was the answer. The following instructions were issued to Britain's Virginia subjects;

> "The governor of Virginia was directed to render every assistance ... to the Royal African Company of England. This company was encouraged by the British government to furnish a regular supply of 'merchantable Negroes' to Virginia at 'moderate rates.'" William & Mary Quarterly Series V, 234-5

Cheap slaves kept permanently at work produced more cheap tobacco which resulted in mountains of profits when processed and re-sold by English merchants. This is the reason for the boom in Virginia's black population.

Ashanti - The Black Slave Traders

Esau's historians forget to mention that Britain owned the slave trade to America and they also forget to tell us where the British got the slaves they forced their Virginia subjects to buy. The answer is in the old history books.

The British got their slaves from the black Ashanti Kingdom. The Ashanti Kingdom of western Africa was located in present-day central Ghana and was a powerful warlike confederation of black tribes formed in the late 17th century. They managed Africa's biggest slave mart. Blacks slaves were sent there from other parts of Africa to be re-sold by their kinsmen in vast Ashanti slave markets. (American Heritage Dictionary)

In other words, Britain got its black slaves from black slave traders.

Slave Owners & Traders

We know that the British got their slave monopoly from the French, but there is more. In 1991, the "Historical Research Department" of the Nation of Islam published a book called "The Secret Relationship Between Blacks and Jews.[15] Black researchers reveal that the percentage of Jews owning black slaves was much greater than the percentage of whites who owned black slaves. Also, many slave ships bringing blacks from Africa were owned by Jews.

Many have wondered why blacks readily join forces with Jews against whites in spite of their slave/master relationship with Jews? The answer may be simple - blacks and Jews are kinsmen - kinsmen made in the image of the same God.

A. E. Mourant, in "The Genetics of The Jews" 1978 Clarendon Press, Oxford. from GANPAC p.8 Aug 1993, commented that "Nearly all Jewish communities show a substantial proportion of African Negroid marker genes, such as to imply a total Negroid admixture of the order of 5 to 10%."

This relationship caused a general discussion in Virginia before WWII about the necessity of Jews being sent to black schools.

Slavery Results

Whites don't want blacks living among them. Blacks don't want to live among whites. Every effort to return blacks to their homeland has been blocked by Esau, his surrogates and his corporations. The result has been explosive.

Haiti

A thing that put America on edge was the slave revolt in Haiti. Virginia received white refugees and heard their stories about 1800.

France owned the slave monopoly before Great Britain and the French king used it to fill the French island of San Domingo with blacks to produce cheap sugar and coffee which the French merchants resold to the rest of Europe at tremendous markups. Blacks soon outnumbered whites.

Runaways, called Maroons, fled into the mountains where they reverted to the lifestyle of their African ancestors. They lived off the land, frequently raiding isolated plantations.

There were early slave revolts in 1679 and 1691. But, with help from Esau's French money and media, the big slave revolt took place at the end of the 18th century. Revolutionary France freed the slaves but made no provision for returning them to Africa or for taking care of them. They went wild. Forty thousand whites were slaughtered after having unspeakable things done to them.

Gabrial & Nat Turner

Haiti was just one horror story. Everyone knew that Scripture forbade blacks from being in Jacob's lands, but they were here, and their presence was certain to provoke God's curse unless something was done.

There have been many servile insurrections in America. The most notable in Virginia were those of Gabrial and Nat Turner which Esau's TV recently portrayed as heroes.

There was little that was heroic about either. As far as the record goes both insurrections were the result of a frenzied desire to shed white blood - there was no further aim.

Gabrial's rising took place in 1800. He was a slave belonging to a farmer near Richmond with a face scarred by fighting. He attracted a large number of blacks to his plot. His plan was simple; attack Richmond, seize the arms stored in the armory in Capitol Square, and kill all whites.

Assembling a force armed with scythe blades, he marched on Richmond, but was stopped by a violent storm and impassable creeks. He learned that his plot had been discovered and his band scattered in the woods and swamps. Many were captured and executed, among them Gabrial.

The next insurrection took place in Southhampton in 1831. The leader of this one was Nat Turner, feeble in body but of great cunning. He was looked upon as a prophet and, like Gabrial, conceived the design of exterminating whites. He seems to have had no express provocation. Stating after his capture that his master had always treated him kindly, his motives remain unknown.[16]

He carried a paper with him written in blood containing the figures of a sun and a cross. He showed the paper to negroes up and down South Side of the James and the whole black population soon thrilled with vague excitement.

Turner attacked his master's house on August 21, 1831, killed him and his wife and children with an axe, proceeded further and killed a mother and her ten children; then a number of school- girls in an old field-school; and lastly a lady and all her children who were shot down as they tried to escape. The mob was now drunk with blood but the county was aroused. A local militia attacked them and followed them into the swamps where many of them were killed and the rest captured. Fifty-five white persons had been put to death, almost all women and children, and 21 of the insurgents were brought to trial. Of them thirteen were hanged, among them Nat Turner, who never explained his motives. The plausible theory that they were the result of cruelty is not supported by the facts and Turner expressly disclaimed it. The fact is that the two leaders believed that the time had come to put the white race to death; and they proceeded to try to do so. (Virginia, p.485)

African Colonization

After the Revolutionary War, Britain could no longer stop American attempts to rid themselves of blacks. The African Colonization Movement was organized to buy slaves and return them to Africa. It was planned that when males reached 21 and females 18 they would be bought, trained, provided with their own land and home in Africa, and returned. All those older than 21 and 18 would remain in America and die here naturally. In time the black race would vanish in America. The purchase money was to be used to import white labor from Europe.

At the very time this plan was taking place, Esau's corporate surrogates began advocating "radical abolition" - freeing the slaves with no compensation to their owners.

Banks

The first bank was organized in America in 1780. After that they multiplied rapidly in Northern cities making usury loans to Northern farmers. When the farmers were unable to repay they were foreclosed. Cities mushroomed to house ex-farmers who were now forced to work for corporate industry. Except for minor resistance, the North was conquered. Now, the bank owned corporations poured money into "radical abolition" - to free Southern black slaves with no compensation to their owners - an incitement to war.

Southern Conquest

Like Haiti earlier, incendiary pamphlets were printed, trumpeting radical abolition, black vote, racial adultery, revolution and inciting massacre of whites. Esau's media captured the minds of its readers in the big cities of the North preparing them to fight the South.

The book, The Secret Six, tells of Northern industrialists who financed a crazed revolutionary in Kansas who went about at night cutting off the arms of slave owners and calling for a slave insurrection to kill whites. An undeclared War Between The States was launched by "executive order" that had disastrous consequences for the whole nation.

Occupation

The South was conquered and divided into military districts. Forts and military bases were built to suppress revolt. The whites were disenfranchised and blacks given the vote and rule over whites that included: black police; black city and state governments; black congressmen and senators.

Renegade whites (carpetbaggers) were sent south to instruct the blacks how to vote. In some cases the carpetbaggers were elected. Following is part of a speech by one of them, The Rev. William G. Brownlow, Occupation Governor of Tennessee:s[17]

> "If I had the power I would arm ... every Negro in the South, and every devil in Hell, clothe them in the uniform of the Federal Army and turn them loose on the Rebels of the South and exterminate every man, woman and child south of Mason and Dixon's Line. I would like to see Negro troops, under the command of (U.S. General Benjamin F.) Butler, crowd every Rebel into the Gulf of Mexico and drown them ..."

The War left the South destitute. These Aryans - "lords of the soil" - who had no money were now taxed by black rulers so that they would lose their land. With the loss of their land they lost their ability to create wealth. With the loss of their ability to create wealth they lost confidence in their ability to feed children. From this time the size of white families began to shrink.

The South was destroyed and occupied. Military bases were constructed the length and breadth of the land to suppress rebellion. The British Empire did the same to South Africa. Still later the entire world trampled Germany when she tried to separate. All three remain occupied and subject to their masters to this day.

Today

In this formerly independent Aryan land of America, Esau rules. Jacob's God is banished from courts and schools. The media are virulently anti-white. A few comments illustrate:

* Miles Davis (black jazz musician) "If somebody told me I had only one hour to live, I'd spend it choking a white man. I'd do it nice and slow." [Miles Davis Can't Shake Boyhood Racial Abuse, Jet March 25, 1985.]

* Eldridge Clever (former Black Panther leader on why he raped white women) "Rape was an insurrectionary act. It delighted me that I was defying and trampling upon the white man's law, upon his system of values, and that I was defiling his women ..." [Eldridge Clever, Soul on Ice, McGraw-Hill, 1968, p.14.]

* Chino Wilson (in an editorial in the Daily Collegian, campus newspaper at Penn State University) January 28, 1992. "After looking at all the evidence there is only one conclusion: white people are devils ... I believe that we must secure our freedom and independence from these devils by any means necessary, including violence. ..."

* Malcolm X - "The death of over 120 white people is a very beautiful thing." [Speech in Los Angeles on June 3, 1962 upon learning of a plane crash. He also said on numerous occasions, "The white man is the devil."]

* Rev. James Cone - "What we need is the destruction of whiteness, which is the source of human misery in the world." [Quoted in David Horowitz, Hating Whitey, Spence Publishing, 1999, p. 44.]

White Devil

These comments by sons-of-Esau living in the lands of Jacob are only the tip of the iceberg. In other parts of the world such comments are the rule. Africa speaks of "The White Devil"; Islam speaks of "The White Devil"; China speaks of "The White Devil. The term "White Devil" is used by Esau worldwide.

The question arises; does this "hate the white man" have a place of origin?

We are familiar with how Eve was beguiled by the Serpent and caused Adam to sin which caused them to be thrown out of the Garden. Other ancient scriptures elaborate on this event, assuming of course that we understand the parables involved. "Serpent" means deception; "white" (or light) means truth and goodness and "black" or darkness means evil.[18]

The Book Of Adam & Eve was written long before the time of Jesus. It says;

> "The Word of God came to the serpent and said unto it ... thou and thy race, ... the ruin of my creatures happened through thee ... And a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, threw it on the shore, and it landed in India." I Adam & Eve 18:7-9, [Lost Books, p14]

Why India? Perhaps it's because India lies between the East and the West - the center of world trade. It is the land of the merchant and the trader. There's more;

18 Most Biblical stories have two meanings; the actual event and the spiritual. In days of captivity, use of the parable kept the speaker from being killed.

"God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam plainly, ... And God said to Adam ... look, O Adam, at him, who said of himself that he is God! Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman?" 2 Adam & Eve 4:1-4

The serpent (deception) landed on the shores of India and God permitted Adam-man to see Satan (the deceiver) as he really is.

Gods Of India

India has many gods. In this land, good gods require no particular reverence since they are nice and won't hurt you; bad gods are different. One must give them special consideration and reverence since they will hurt you badly if you don't.

This is why the most popular god in India is Shiva. Shiva has two personalities. The good personality is named Siva the god of sex. All India loves and is loved by Siva. The other personality is Kali.

Kali receives the most worship and obedience since she will hurt you. Siva and Kali are black and both have serpents of deception about their bodies.

Kali

Black Kali has blood dripping from her lips - since she drinks human blood and eats their flesh. She has four arms; in one hand she holds a bloody sword; in another the severed head of a white devil; in another hand she holds a drum - for domination through music - the sound of sex and destruction; in the other is the fire of destruction.

She stands on the prostrate body of a white devil.

Her followers worldwide crave black Kali's sex and violence; her "bump-grind" sex music; and Kali's hatred of the white devil. There is a reason that Kali and her followers hate white devils.

Kali-Yuga

Hinduism divides the world into ages of 20,000 years. The present age is the "Yuga" age of Kali. It is an age of misery, starvation, death, deception and evil. It will end with the extinction of all life. Then, and only then, a new age of "good" can be born - the next age called the age of "Kalki".

The problem is that this present age of evil will not end because every time the world nears destruction and extinction so that good can be born - the White Devil steps in and does something that prevents the world from ending. This permits the evil age of Kaliyuga to continue on and on. This will continue until the White Devil is destroyed.

Dharma

In the past India was the great merchant kingdom.Its great King Asoka sent missionaries, called Dharmamatras, to other lands to conquer their minds.Dharma teaches:

> "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

The above teaches the children of Jacob not to use God's Law against Esau. It made the world safe for Esau's merchants and immigrants who were coming from other lands.

Results

The Hindu god Kali has as her objective the removal of White Devils so that the Kaliyuga age of evil can end and a new age of "good" can begin.

To bring this about they have successfully used five methods of war:

MASSACRE: Examples are Haiti and Nat Turner, thousands massacred by surrogate- whites, who led American Indians - before, during, and after the Revolutionary War; countless thousands of white civilians who died of exposure and starvation in the war on civilians during and after the War Between The States; tens of thousands of white women and children who died of starvation and disease in S. African concentration camps run by white-surrogates; 30 million in Russia's gulags - most Saxons; 9 million Germans starved or died of exposure and those who died in allied PW camps after WWII; the present protected crime wave in the West against Whites that has killed more whites than the last several wars.

DHARMA TOLERANCE: The teaching "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C. neutralizes the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob making the land safe for Esau.

SURROGATES: Our God forbids kings. Kings are appointed by the merchant. The king appoints surrogates to help him rule and rewards them generously. They are removing God's Law from schools and courthouses. They are known by their obedience to the king.

RACIAL ADULTERY: India is a land of mixed-breeds - the result of racial adultery. Dharma suppresses the LAW and permits racial adultery to spread into the lands of Jacob.

USURY: When usury appears the people become slaves and their wealth is transferred to the usurers. Massive usury income is channeled into corporations and is used by Esau and his agents to wage wars of extermination against Jacob. The lands of Jacob that tolerate usury finance their own destruction with their own money.

Conclusion

The history of Virginia is the sum of all that has gone before. Black is Kali's color. It is holy to her followers. The mixed- race children of Esau see blacks as kinsmen. They see whites as "white devils"..

The war between God the WORD and the God of Esau is forcing people to choose their God.

> "Alas! For that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it." Jer 30:7

NELSON MANDELA'S BACKGROUND

Nelson Mandela was convicted in 1964 for sabotage and conspiracy to overthrow the South African government. At his trial he admitted his guilt with pride.

At his farm in the Transvaal, Mandela and his fellow terrorists stored large amounts of explosive ordinance. This material was for an insurrection called Operation Mayibuye.

Plans of 106 targets were discovered including the homes of black policemen, power stations and police stations. Mandela's group had been trained in the arts of intimidation, murder and sabotage by (Soviet) Russian instructors at camps in Algeria, Ethiopia and Egypt. Many of the leading conspirators fled or escaped, leaving Mandela and a few others to take the rap.

On a number of occasions during his sentence, Mandela was offered freedom on condition that he renounce violence.

However, he never complied, as to do so would (in his view) have isolated his colleagues on the outside (of the prison) who were pursuing power through mass intimidation. IMPACT

Chapter 416

Anti-Christ

Hair & Tattoos

Great Britain had a state religion. The king was its head. He appointed priests who appointed lesser priests. Whatever the king said was Law since it was "the divine right of kings" and it was incorporated into the law system and religion of the land. The king's new law was passed on to his priests who passed it on to the lesser priests and read to the king's subjects in every church in his realm. There was no excuse for not knowing the King's law since it was against the king's law not to attend church where changes in the king's law were announced.

The king was, in the words of the ancients, "God of the land".[19] Nonconformists - Presbyterians, Puritans, Baptists, etc., were killed, imprisoned, confiscated, or banished. Many came to Virginia.

Nonconformists

In the 1600s, Virginia was vast and largely unsettled. Great Britain was in the midst of a religious revolution. "Nonconformists" who were banished and arrived in Virginia were looked upon by the King's colonial government as potential revolutionaries.

My ancestor, Diana James, announced that she intended to marry a young Baptist preacher. Her father, a state office holder and faithful member of the state church disinherited her and had her marriage removed from county records. We know her genealogy but proving it is something else again.

Roundheads

Nonconformists were easy to spot since the King and his nobles had long hair; non-conformists had "polled" hair - a haircut almost the same as today's standard haircut. When compared with someone with long hair their heads looked "round". In fact, rebels were derisively called "round-heads".

The King preferred long hair; the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob demanded short hair. Those who wished to continue living on the King's lands and eating his

19 "The elders of Israel ... said ... Give us a king to judge us ... And the Lord said ... the people ... have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. ... they have forsaken me ... (the king) will take your sons (for his army). And he will take your daughters ... And he will take your fields ... and give them to his servants. He will (tax you) and ye shall be his servants. " I Sam 8:1-20; "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings & priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5-6 food kept their hair long. Those who thought The WORD more important than the Law of the Land had short hair - and suffered the consequences.

Hair

The WORD says;

> "Neither shall they shave their heads nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads." Ez 44:22

In the centuries before Christ, India was the center of world trade. India's Hindu holy men had long hair - they still do. Buddhist missionary monks from India shaved their heads. They still do. Both are priests of the international merchant.

Long hair or shaved heads instead of "moderate hair-cut" (polled hair) advertises the individual involved as a possible follower of an alien God - which of course violates the First Commandment: "Thou shalt have no other God's before me." Ex 20:13

Strict Law-abiding Christians would neither shave their heads nor allow their hair to grow long.

Tattoos

Esau's Gods are tolerant. They have many customs but few Laws - except laws created by the king of the land.

God the WORD is strict with his people so that they will survive. His Laws separate his people from other peoples and his Laws NEVER change. "For I the Lord, do not change." Mal 3:6; "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever." Heb 13:8; "The scripture cannot be broken." John 10:35

Alien nations print marks on their bodies to honor their Gods, their ancestors, heroes, and customs.

Man is forbidden to copy these alien practices:

> "Ye shall not... print any marks upon you: I am the Lord." Lev 19:28[20]

Man who follows the Word of God is different. Aliens may copy our customs but they remain creations of their gods - made in their image.

Man Is Different

Lawful Man knows that he is not his own. He knows "God created man in his image." Gen 1:27 (MAN - Heb: "adam" - those who blush rosy. Strong's Concordance). The WORD also says;

> "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you; and before you came forth from the womb, I sanctified you, and I ordained you." Jer. 1:5[21]

God established man's mission before he was born:

> "And God said, Let us make man ... and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth." Gen 1:26

---

20 "You shall not make tattoolngs on your flesh for spirits, nor put written brands upon yourselves. I am the Ever-Living." Lev 19:28 (Ferrar Fenton)

21 "Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb ... My substance was not hid from thee when I was made in secret ... Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written ... when as yet there were none of them." Ps 141:13-16

The Opponent

There are those who oppose man ruling the earth as has been ordained by God. There are those who shave their heads and let their hair grow long; who mark their bodies to honor their gods; who despise adam-man because he is white and made in God's image. These would destroy man by creating dissensions so that man will destroy himself by war, and, become few in numbers and by teaching racial adultery:

> "In America, we will aim for subtle victory ... the Negro will be able to intermarry with the Whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause." Israel Cohen, Communist spokesman in England, in A Racial Program for the 20th Century, Entered into Congressional Record June 7, 1957 (P. 7633). From The Canadian Intelligence Service, Flesherton, Ontario, Canada.

There are aliens whose holy books instruct their followers:

The Christian birth rate must be diminished materially. Zohar (II,62b) and who provide large numbers of abortionists to carry out these instructions. Fetuses are torn from their mothers' wombs and then burned - which incurs God's curse "I will bring evil upon this place ... because they ... burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings." Jer 19:3-5

Man's enemies use lawless usury to create debt and reduce adam- man into slaves. They create governments to manage their trade areas by hiring traitors to God and their nation to be slave overseers. Man is forced to work for alien corporations to eat; his farms are taxed and taken from him, strangers have been placed over him in violation of the Law and God's Law is removed from courts and schools.

The Awakening

One here and two there - man is beginning to see himself as his enemies see him and as his God created him: The Encyclopedia Britannica, 14th Edition, Vol 5, p. 635 says:

> "Very early, Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law, and faith was interpreted as obedience."

In other words, the Emperor looked on obedience to God the WORD as rebellion to the empire and himself.

Man's Belief

The God of Adam-man teaches:

> "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirit of God dwelleth in you. If any man defile the temple of God him shall God destroy, for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are." 1 Cor 3:16,17

Man is a creation of God the WORD. Man is holy. Man is under God's Law. The same God that created man and gave him the world to rule will as quickly destroy the man who defiles God's Law. Joseph Franklin tried to enforce the Law as he saw it. He was identified by a nurse in a hospital because of a simple tattoo.

The AntiChrist

Who or what is an "antichrist"? The definition given usually reflects the mindset of the speaker. The WORD says, "He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son." 1 Jo 2:22. Those who deny the WORD are anti-christ.

What is the WORD?

God's instructions are The WORD. It is what God requires of you. Whoever denies God's Laws, statutes and judgments fights God; he is antichrist.

Some say the antichrist is hiding in the sky and will come down one day to rule the world. That's not what the WORD says; the antichrists are already here: "Ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists." 1Jo 2:18. Man and his God have always had enemies. There have always been antichrists - many antichrists.

The WORD says it twice: "For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist." 2 Jo 1:7

Today's AntiChrists

Today, most men who wear long hair and obtain tattoos don't know the WORD.

If they continue to have long hair and obtain tattoos AFTER hearing the WORD, they violate the WORD and will be held accountable - just as their Roundhead ancestors put their lives on the line by cutting their hair. "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17.

A "Roundhead" was once a standard that advertised a man's belief. Such things still do. In the days ahead it may preserve one's life to know how others think. The rule is simply this;

> "I created man ... and I told him 'this is good, and that is bad' ... that it be clear which in his race love me." Enoch 30:12-14

God made man in his image. He made him a priest and a king. But, once a man becomes traitor to God and his nation, a new Law is activated:

> "Thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing that thou hast forgotten the law of thy God." Hosea 4:6

The person who is no longer God's king and priest is not to be trusted. If he will betray God he will certainly betray you.

Remember this when subjects come up which are matters of God's Law: matters such as strangers in the land, dividing the land, taxes, racial-adultery, strangers ruling over you, monopoly and usury.

Whether in the pulpit or government; if a person betrays God's Law he will certainly betray you.

He is antiChrist.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Black expropriation of white property has been stepped up. The black government doesn't want just white farms, but their houses and businesses. Taxes on white homes and farms have been raised so high that many will be forced to sell. It doesn't matter if the land has been owned for many generations. My family came to the Transvaal in 1854 from the Cape Province.

Many whites leave as they can no longer keep a factory or business going. Shops have to close since they can't operate without electricity. Our high grade wheat is exported overseas and a very poor quality grade is imported.

TV showed some of the poor 420,000 Afrikaners who now live under the breadline. It is worse than 1933 when they could still get a job even for a shilling a day and feed their families. They lived in tents but the children still went to school even if it was under a tree.

The so-called election in Zimbabwe goes on and on. The votes have been counted and re-counted and still Mugabe refuses to step down. It must end sometime - he is 85 years old.

Chinese patrol towns on Zimbabwe's east like Umtalie. Mugabe must have some sort of agreement with the Chinese because arms and troops are flown in. The Chinese are after every bit of raw material they can get their hands on. Their presence means that more refugees will seek safety and cross the border into S. Africa. Still, Zimbabweans do not trust S. Africa. S. Africa did nothing for them while Mugabe was on his rampage.

The situation here has not changed. The farm next to where we lived was attacked by about 20 armed barbarians. The man had his cattle stolen earlier. The other neighbor simply left even before we did. Many whites who are murdered have their throats cut like they kill animals.

A cousin aged 80, after a number of her white neighbours were murdered, said, "I hate Blacks". It is easy to understand. The feeling grows as more people are murdered. Even the Reformed Church has awoken somewhat and now feels that no good will come from being nice to blacks.

Until next time, K.H.

TAXES: Dear Mr. Hoskins: Long ago you gave my father some very good advice. I'm sorry he didn't take it. He was embattled with the IRS and you told him to go to them hat in hand and ask to settle and to look for a time to defeat them in the future. Well, like many patriots, he thought he had the latest and greatest argument and documents which would guarantee him victory. He was wrong. He was sentenced to 27 months in Federal Prison. The IRS won a $389,000 judgment against him and they are assessing interest even while he's in prison. Between the federal judgment and back state income taxes he and my mother are looking at about $500,000 of debt. They were distributed to leading figures in the regime, even though the policy was intended to give farms to landless black Zimbabweans. Chapter 417

MACCABEAN WARS

Apocrypha

The Bible says; "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1. The Hebrew word "Adam" means to "blush red". It is translated into English as "man". The Bible is the history of adam-man. It tells man's story down through the millennia. It is our history.

Part of Israel's history is contained in the Apocrypha. For centuries the Apocrypha was in most Bibles and still remains in some editions. However, Esau and his agents, having economic and political rule over Jacob, concluded that the Apocrypha makes man nationalistic and had it removed sometime around 1830, although some Bibles omitted the Apocrypha much earlier.

Without the Apocrypha the Bible contains a 500 year gap from the time of the Captivity until the time of Jesus.

Captivity

Northern Israel was conquered, made prisoner, and taken to new lands in northwestern Syria. The captivity didn't last long. Taking advantage of the confusion of Syria's war with her neighbors, Israel escaped north through the Black Sea region to the European rivers and the Russian rivers that led to the Baltic in the north.

Dr. Bertrand Comparet says, "In the Apocrypha, 2 Esdras 13:39-46 records their further journey to "Ar Sereth" (the valley of the River Sereth, a northern tributary of the Danube River, in modern Romania, which still bears the name "Sereth".

The southern half of Israel was called Judah. It, too, was conquered. Part escaped to Spain and from there into Ireland and Scotland. The other part of Judah was taken prisoner into Babylon where, after a time, a part was allowed to return to rebuild the Temple.

First, they had to drive away the Idumeans who had occupied the land in their absence; then, re-establish their country and rebuild the temple. Most of this took place almost a thousand years before Christ.

Rule By Heathen

While the returned Israelites were rebuilding their temple and their nation in the lands around Jerusalem, Alexander the Great left Greece with a powerful army. He crossed the sea and conquered Turkey, Judea, and Egypt. Retracing his steps, he again passed through Judea and conquered Babylon and other countries to the east and ended by conquering India.

He had conquered the known world.

Returning to Egypt he died after a short reign of 12 years. Before he died, he divided his empire among his generals. Judea was included in the part given to one of them.

Indian missionaries, called Dharmamatras, had spread their doctrines to the Greeks even before the time of Alexander. Alexander's conquests gave them opportunity to spread their beliefs throughout the lands he conquered. Greek Gods became copies of India's Gods. The Greek God Neptune even carried a three pronged trident representing the Indian triune - Brahma, Vishnu and Siva.[22]

The Greeks ruled this great empire, including the Israelites of Judea, and began to force their captive nations to stop their separatist ways and follow the permissive laws of the new Gods. Many Judeans liked the free lifestyle of their conquerers and wished to participate;

> "Then certain of the people were so forward herein that they went to the king (the local ruler), who gave them license to do after the ordinances of the heathen. ... Whereupon they ... joined themselves to the heathen ... to do mischief." I Macc 1:13-15

Among the new practices the Greek Gods permitted were sodomy, racial-adultery, usury, and child-murder.

Tribute

Nothing is free. Greek rulers had a high life-style. Someone had to pay for it.

In time, the Syrian-Greeks sent agents to collect tribute from the people of Jerusalem. Tax collectors in those days did what was needed to be done to collect money. People were injured, others killed, and many fled the city "whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her ... Moreover, king Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom that all should be one people. And everyone should leave his laws: so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king." I Macc 1:38, 41-42.[23]

A "heathen" was an Israelite who forsakes the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Many other Israelites were fearful of losing their jobs and consented to the new Greek-Indian religion and began to sacrifice to idols. In time, "choice" was not an option; the order from the king commanded that Jerusalem and all the cities of Judea should follow the strange laws, or, "the law of the land" and whoever would not do according to the commandment of the king or used hate-speech against the new ways should die.

To force all people to become one, the king appointed special civil-rights overseers over each city to see that the people abandoned their old laws, which caused many to abandon the Law and gather to the new ways of their rulers. Books of the Law were banned. When found they were torn to pieces and burned, and if any person publicly supported the Law they were put to death. Still, there were those who remained true.[24]

Sacrifice

Sacrificing to a God is done by performing an act pleasing to that God. Certain prominent Israelites were given the choice of publicly committing an act known to be unlawful to the God of Israel in order to persuade others to do the same - or die a dreadful death.

A scandalous act was for an Israelite was to eat pig meat. Pigs are scavengers. They can eat carrion in an advanced state of rotten decomposition without ill effect. To eat the flesh of a scavenger is to eat the filth the scavenger has eaten. Scavengers dissolve offal in special acid-filled bodies. The entire scavenger's body works to digest whatever it comes in contact with. It continues working whether you are inside it - or it is inside you. If inside you it attacks whatever is already weak within one's system. It may be the immune system that is first damaged as it tries to ward off the scavenger's attack. Eating swine has been considered almost the ultimate blasphemy since an Israelite's body is the temple of the Lord.[25]

Following are three stories of those who refused to eat the forbidden flesh and defile their bodies.

Eleazer

> "Eleazer, one of the principal scribes, an aged man ... was constrained (forced) to open his mouth, and to eat swine's flesh. But he, choosing rather to die gloriously, than to live stained with such an abomination, spit it forth, and came of his own accord to the torment ...

25 ""Ye shall not eat ... the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean to you." Lev 11:4,7 (2 Mac 6:18)

"But they that had the charge of that wicked feast, for the old acquaintance they had with the man, taking him aside, besought him to bring flesh of his own provision, such as was lawful for him to use, and make as if he did eat of the flesh taken from the sacrifice commanded by the king; That in so doing he might be delivered from death, and for the old friendship with them, find favor.

"But he began to consider ... the holy law made and given by God: therefore he answered accordingly, and willed them straight-away to send him to the grave. said he ... many young persons might think that Eleazer ... was now gone to a strange religion; And so they through mine hypocrisy, and desire to live a little time ... longer, should be deceived by me, and I get a stain to mine old age ... For though ... I should be delivered from the punishment of men: yet should I not escape the hand of the Almighty, ... Wherefore now ... I will ... leave a notable example, to such as be young, to die willingly and courageously for the honorable and holy laws. ...

"They that led him changing the good will they bare him a little before into hatred ... And thus this man died, leaving his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memorial of virtue, not only unto young men, but unto all his nation." 2 Mac 6:18-31

Mother & 7-Sons

It came to pass that seven brothers with their mother were taken and compelled by the king to taste swine's flesh. Refusing, they were made to suffer with scourges and whips.

One of them said, "What wouldest thou ask or learn of us? We are ready to die rather than to transgress the laws of our fathers."

This infuriated the king and he commanded that a great pan be made hot: Then he commanded to cut out the tongue of the one that first spoke, and to cut off his hands, feet, and private parts, with his mother and brothers looking on. Then he commanded him to be fried in the pan while still alive.

When the brother was dead they brought the second to make sport of him, and when they pulled off the skin of his head with the hair they asked him, "Wilt thou eat, before thou be punished throughout every member of thy body?" He replied, "No", and received the rest of the torments.

With his last gasp, he said, "Thou like a fury takest us out of this present life, but the King of the world shall raise us, who have died for his laws, unto everlasting life."

In this manner they treated each of the seven sons, who died undefiled while putting their whole trust in God.

And, at last the mother, who had encouraged her sons with these words so that they died bravely; "The Creator of the world, who formed the generations of man, and found out the beginning of all things, will also of his own mercy give you breath and life again, as ye now regard not your own selves for his laws sake." 2 Macc 7:1-41

Then, she was put to death.

Mattathias

There was a man named Mattathias who had five sons; Joannan, Simon, Judas the Maccabeus, Eleazar and Jonathan. Mattathias was known as a ruler of his people, one who was honorable and a devout follower of the Law. He was another that the king's officers wanted to use to help to persuade the general population to sacrifice to the Greek Gods. He was promised much silver and gold and other rewards for so doing. This is his story:

> "In those days arose Mattathias ... "The king's officers, such as compelled the people ... to make them sacrifice ... came unto ... Mattathias ... Then answered the king's officers, and said to Mattathias on this wise, Thou are a ruler, and an honorable and great man in this city ... Now ... fulfill the king's commandment ... and thou and thy children shall be honoured with silver and gold, and many rewards.
> "Then Mattathias answered ... Though all the nations that are under the king's dominion obey him, and fall away every one from the religion of their fathers, and give consent to his commandments ... God forbid that we should forsake the law and the ordinances. We will not harken to the king's words, to go from our religion, either on the right hand, or the left...." I Mac 2:1-22

Mattathias then was filled with passion and ran and slew the heathen priest on the altar. "Thus delt he zealously for the law of God, like as Phineas did unto Zambri." I Macc 2:25; Num 25:1- 13, and he and his sons fled into the wilderness leaving all that they had in the world.

Thus began the Maccabean Revolt that regained the Law from the hands of kings and false priests. It started with forcing the eating of swine flesh - an act forbidden by God.

Wars Of The Maccabee

Mattathias and his sons fled to the hills where they were joined by those who refused to blaspheme the Law. Mattathias was old and it came time for him to die. He gathered his sons and said, "Thus consider ye through all ages, that none that put their trust in God shall be overcome... Wherefore, ye my sons, be valiant, and shew yourselves men in the behalf of the law; for by it shall ye obtain glory. ... As for Judas Maccabeus ... let him be your captain and fight the battle of the people. Take also unto you all those that observe the law, and avenge ye the wrong of your people. Recompense fully the heathen, and take heed to the commandments of the law. So he blessed them, and was gathered to his fathers." I Macc 2:64-69

Then Judas Maccabeus led and his brethren helped him, and all they that held with his father. And they fought with cheerfulness the battle of Israel.

He went through the cities of Judea, destroying the ungodly out of them and turning away God's wrath from Israel. He pursued the wicked and sought them out, Wherefore the wicked lived in fear of him and all the workers of iniquity were troubled because salvation prospered in his hand.

Samaritans - Enemies Of Israel

Then, King Apollonius gathered a great host out of Samaria to fight against the Maccabean revolt. These Samaritans had a great hatred toward Israel. This is their story:

When Israel was taken into captivity the king of Assyeria brought in settlers, who today we would call Arab-Turks (II Ki 17:6), to occupy the lands left vacant when Israel was taken captive. These "Arab-Turks" were taught the religion of the departed Israelites and their rituals and tried to pass themselves off as Israelite- Jews.

When Judah came back from Babylon to reoccupy Jerusalem and rebuild the temple, these are the people they met. The Scriptures say:

"Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel; Then they came to ... the chief of the fathers, and said unto them. Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him ... But ... the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel ..." Ezra 4:1-3

The Scriptures continuously warn:

"I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria (mixedbreeds); they prophesied in Baal, ... and caused my people Israel to err." Jer 23:13

This is why strangers, even though professing the Lord God of Israel, are not allowed in Israel's houses of worship:[26]

According to Scripture, churches who admit strangers are heathen and blasphemers. The presence of strangers reveals a Baal temple.

This is why Jesus commanded:

"Into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not; But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6

The War

Apollonius led his Samaritan army against the Maccabee and was slain along with most of his following. What started off as a minor revolt began to turn into a disaster. The king was forced to mount one invasion after another which in time grew into a full blown war that continued year after year.

These wars consumed four of the five brothers. Two were killed in battle and two were murdered by their enemies who pretended friendship.

26 "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7, Num 1:51.

The King's Army

The new king heard that Judas Maccabeas had moved his base of operations to Jerusalem and was besieging the king's main castle there. His advisors told him that if he did not subdue the rebellion immediately that he would lose control of the entire land.

The king was angry and he called together his captains and gave them orders to gather together a great army and gave the same orders to the one having charge of his horsemen.

There were also soldiers brought in from other kingdoms and from isles of the sea, also, bands of hired soldiers that brought the number of his army to more than a hundred thousand footmen, twenty thousand horsemen, and thirty-two elephants.

Elephants

War elephants came from India. Most were named after Indian Gods. To provoke these elephants to fight they allowed them to see and smell the juice of grapes, mulberries, and blood.

The elephants were divided among the armies, and attached to each elephant were a thousand men and five hundred horsemen. The beasts were protected with armor and upon each one was a strong tower of wood and in every tower were thirty-two strong men that fought upon them besides the Indian driver.

The elephant, the attached thousand foot-soldiers and 500 cavalry moved and fought as a unit.

Tactics

The strategy was to form the unit into an arrow-like formation with the elephant at the point. The entire formation would then move forward with the elephant forcing his way into the opposing army and trampling those in his front while the 32 men in its tower rained heavy spears and arrows onto the heads of those in front - breaking their resistance.

The infantry accompanying the beast enlarged the break in the opposing lines created by the enraged elephant and when they began to scatter the accompanying cavalry rode down those fleeing.

Eleazar

It was difficult for the Judean-Israelites to fight armies using elephants, but they fought them the best they could by using terrain difficult for elephants to navigate, and using fire-bombs which often terrorized the animals. There were many cases of heroism.

There was one named Eleazar who saw an especially tall elephant equipped with royal accoutrements and believed him to be carrying the king. He ran upon him though the midst of the battle, killing those in his way and then he crept beneath the beast and thrust his spear into him, whereupon the elephant fell upon him and he was killed.

In spite of his sacrifice for his people; the Greek- led army with its elephants proved too much and the Judeans melted away in front of them.

More Elephants

On another occasion the Grecians bought 110,000 footmen, 5,300 horsemen, 22 elephants and 300 chariots armed with extended hooks on their wheels to put the Israelites from their Laws and from their country.

Seeing this vast multitude, Judas exhorted his soldiers to fight manfully, even unto death for the laws, and passed out the watchword "Victory is of God". Then, with a band of the most gallant hand-picked men he crept into the king's tent by night and slew in the camp about four thousand men and most of the elephants. This filled the enemy camp with fear and tumult.

When dawn broke the king saw the carnage and changed the Greek policy of blood and slaughter to one of accommodation and deception. The king said that he would permit the Judean- Israelites to again live by the Laws of their God, and there was to be peace in the land.

In the meanwhile he appointed a high-priest who was a heathen and he made plans to continue his conquest of the land in a more subtle way.

Conclusion

Nothing has changed over the years. The war between Jacob and Esau continues until today. Our land has been subtly conquered by Greeks using a weapon of deception brought from India. The king continues to demand that all his subjects become one and he has sent enforcers to make it so.

Once again, the king has suppressed the LAW and substituted his own. The Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob has been removed from courts and schools and those who attempt to enforce the WORD are put to death. Our cities are filled with strangers so that those who were born in them find them strange and are forced to flee.

The king has sent tribute collectors who have drained the wealth of the nation and caused all to tremble in fear.

The king has ruthlessly brought on a great depression to make Saxons fear to bring children into the world and make them few in number. It is as if suddenly, a great elephant has crashed into our nation bearing a wooden castle, with a thousand other armed and armored warriors surrounding and protecting it. The war against our nation is spreading chaos, poverty, violence, hunger and destruction.

The elephant's name is Genesha, named after the Hindu elephant headed god of "wealth", "overcoming enemies", and "usury". Usury is the ancient beast having the ability to deceive its enemies.

If one believes that God allows events to repeat again and again until the Law is obeyed - we can expect old men to have their tongues cut out to silence them, mothers witness sons fried in great pans, a Mattathias taking revenge on a heathen at the altar and fleeing to the hills, and an Eleazar who fights his way through a mass of enemies, to crawl beneath the elephant to thrust a spear into its belly. Wouldn't it be a wonder if the spear had a name and its name was "scrip"? If not that, another weapon will be found.

Regardless, our nation will obey the WORD and live - or disobey the WORD and die. Esau is doing everything possible to make Jacob become few in number and vanish from the land.

The WORD says that Jacob's name is Israel - "to have God's power of attorney". Jacob is made in the image of the WORD. He was made to obey God's Law - and live.

Esau - flee while you can! Your time grows short!

USURY TRAP

"The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10.

The Usurer

The Christian religion forbids usury, branding it a capital crime. Kings, to transfer their subjects' property to themselves, found a way to use usury to achieve their objective without being directly involved and gaining the stigma and punishment due to a usurer.

To keep peace in the land and avoid the unwelcome attention of Phineas priests,[27] kings employed Jews to be their usurers. The Jewish religion does not forbid charging usury to non-Jews.[28]

William The Conqueror

William the Conqueror invaded England in 1066. He defeated King Harold at the battle of Hastings and proclaimed himself England's king.

He confiscated the estates of those who fought against him at Hastings and gave their lands to his own followers to manage.

While William defeated Harold and claimed England as his own personal property, there remained numerous Viking settlements centuries old which considered themselves free men and owners of the land on which they were settled. William had the choice of fighting these formidable warriors, or take their land by deception.

This problem had already been foreseen and planned for. William's invasion fleet brought Jewish usurers with them. This was the first time Jews were introduced into England, which in itself was a violation of the Law; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee." Ex 23:33. Their job was to work with William to separate the people from their land and turn the land over to the king.[29] (see "Land" HR#178)[30]

Jews

In ancient times there were two kinds of Jews. Aristotle the great Greek philosopher describes one kind:

Jews From India

> (As related by Aristotle) "This man then was by birth a Jew, and came from Celesyria; these Jews are derived from the Indian philosophers; they are named by the Indians Calami, and by the Syrians Judaei, and took their name from the country they inhabit, which is called Judea." Flavius Josephus Against Apion, book 1:22 (p.615)

Lets keep the dates straight. Our own Saxon people were taken into captivity and escaped into Russia and Europe soon after 721 B.C. The children of Judah and Benjamin were taken into captivity in Babylon soon after. While they were in captivity, Edomites settled the land they had vacated. The Bible calls the Edomites "Esau-Edom" (children of Esau from the land of Edom).

When this part of Israel returned from captivity to rebuild the temple they found Edomites in their cities. These they drove out. However, as can be seen from the above quote by Aristotle - Indian/Edomites remained who called themselves "Jews" after the land of Judea. Aristotle lived (384-322 B.C.). This was long before the Hyrcanus of the Macabeans (135-104 B.C.) conquered Idumea and made the Indian/Idumeans living there become "Jews" - thus allowing more children of Esau into the country of Judea. These later additions became known as Sadducees.

The wiles of the Sadducees caused them to become wealthy and made the kings who supported them wealthy also.

Russian Jews

The next group of Jews we know of came on the scene much later. They were known as Khazars:

> "The Khazars, a Turkic people ... dominated substantial parts of S. Russia during much of the 7th through 10th centuries. During the 8th century the Khazar aristocracy and the kagan (king) were converted to Judaism. ... In 965, Svyatoslav I, duke of Kiev, decisively defeated the Khazar army. ... new waves of Turkic invaders overran the remains of the Khazar state." Academic American Encyclopedia. (See also: The History of the Jewish Khazars, D. M. Dunlop, 1954, 1967. Koestler, Arthur, The 13th Tribe: The Khazar Empire and its Heritage, 1976.)

The ones who converted the Khazars to Judaism were the Indian/Edomite Jews spoken of by Aristotle mixed with the Sadducees which came later. Certain Jewish Rabbis to this day claim to be "different" from the great mass of Jewry (Khazar) and hold themselves to be Gurus who can be defiled by the touch of other mortals.[31]

These mixed alien peoples who call themselves "Jews" are the Jews spoken of in Revelations: "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan." Re 2:9

Jews In England

Kings tax the lands they rule. Unfortunately for the English Saxons ruled by King William, there was little specie to be found with which to pay taxes. As planned, those being taxed had to go to the Jews to borrow tax-money. The money was lent at usury which required more to be repaid than was borrowed. This in time caused the borrowers to default their lands to the Jewish lenders who immediately had these lands confiscated by the king.

Jews Deported From England

To recap: William the Conqueror invaded England in 1066. He brought Jews to entrap the English people and take their land using usury contracts. In a couple of centuries the Jews had done their job and England was the personal property of the king.

The Jews and their usury operation had done their job and they were now needed elsewhere. England found excuses to deport them.

In 1269, the Jews were prohibited from hiring Christian helpers to work as artisans, merchants or farmers since the Law states: Thou mayest not set a stranger (zúwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

On July 18, 1290, the Jews were deported from England. They turned the lands and houses still in their possession over to the king and left England carrying with them their operating capital which was needed to work their usury profession in French and German cities.

England Without Jews

The King of England divided his lands among his nobles to manage. The nobles acted much like today's corporate CEOs. They put the farmers to work on what had been their own land and collected tribute from them for the king and themselves. The nobles were allowed to keep their lucrative positions as long as the lands in their care continued productive.

Oliver Cromwell

The eternal enemy of kings is the WORD which forbids Israel to have kings since Jesus Christ appointed each Israelite to be both king and priest. "Jesus Christ... hath made us kings and priests unto God." Rev 1:5-6

In time reformers came who taught the WORD and Christian revival swept Britain. King Charles was beheaded and his nobles banished, and England's lands were divided among the Puritans.[32]

The Puritan Parliament then ordered their general, Oliver Cromwell, to disband his army and return home. He refused, took control of the government, and became an absolute dictator, a defacto king, but he was a king with no land. The land had been given to new Puritan owners. If he ever expected to receive proper tribute due kings he had to retake the land and tax its tenants - preferably without strife. Like rulers in the past, he turned to the Jews for help.

32 "All the earth is mine." Ex 19:5; "As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5; "Joshua divided the whole land by lots to Israel for an inheritance, as the Lord had commanded him." Jasher 90:19; "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... the land shall be divided by lot." Num 26:53- 55; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; ... If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession ... in the jubilee ... he shall return unto his possession." Lev 25:23, 28.

In 1656, over the protest of Britain's merchants, he brought Jewish usurers back to England. Cromwell and the Jews worked together.

Cromwell levied taxes. The new Puritan owners borrowed tax-money at usury from the Jews to pay these taxes and paid back many times the amount borrowed. In time they defaulted and the land fell into the hands of the Jews who turned it over to Oliver Cromwell and his successors.

Britain had returned to being a corporate state with its own state religion, state government, economic system, and subjects who were servants of the king and who spoke rebellion at their peril.

But this time the Jews were treated differently. While denied the vote and prevented from taking the oath of political office because of their religious beliefs until into the 1800s, they used their usury monopoly to capture men who ruled the state and made the laws.[33]

America

Before the Revolutionary War most of the American colonies printed their own scrip. After the war, private banks were established primarily in the north. In a remarkably short time the great merchants, with aid from their banks, controlled the media, the politicians, the religion and most of the land.

To complete their conquest, the 25 states of the North were incited by the media to invade the 11 states of the South burning and destroying the country and killing or wounding

33 The 1980 Jewish Almanac says; "Strictly speaking, it is incorrect to call an ancient Israelite a "Jew" or to call a Contemporary Jew an "Israelite" or a "Hebrew"; Jews began to call themselves Hebrews and Israelites in 1860. This coincides with the cry of anti-Semitism. (Enc. Jud. 1971, Vol 10:23)

one in three of its men. Whites were deprived of the vote and blacks were enfranchised and allowed to rule the whites. Federal occupation troops were stationed to see that the blacks remained in power.

Carefully instructed by white corporate "carpetbaggers", black politicians voted themselves huge salaries, built or bought big homes, put Southern cities and states deeply in debt to build expensive railroads and unneeded public improvements.

Before the war the South had a large cotton export business. During the war the cotton business was transferred to British India. After the war what remained of the cotton trade was made difficult by tariffs so there was little income of any kind. Differential freight rates were charged so that it cost more to ship goods from Richmond to Philadelphia than from Philadelphia to Richmond. Southern business stagnated.

The South's Black rulers then taxed the land. The owners had neither the labor, the cotton markets, or the money to pay the taxes. Banks were established in Lynchburg with the date 1865 over their doors. Land owners flocked to the newly established banks to borrow tax money.

Unable to repay the tax loans, Southern land was sold to land corporations at tax auctions for pennies on the dollar, and destitute farmers moved to town where they, their wives and their children worked for starvation wages in newly built mills that had been relocated from New England - leaving many New Englanders without jobs.

The federal occupation of the South lasted for 16 long years. When it ended there was nothing left. The South was destitute. It was no longer a free land. Its debt under black rule had grown to more than the entire War of Secession had cost. The giant media conglomerate in the hands of what are now six media corporations established city newspapers, bought up the county newspapers, and from this time controlled the minds of the people and elected their own carefully chosen political representatives.

POST WAR WARS

In the hands of its new conquerors the United States joined Great Britain as a predator state whose objective was to destroy hereditary rule in other states in preparation for the introduction of international rule by corporations ruled by banks and their agents.

The first to go was Spain and her colonies.

Next, WWI destroyed the traditional ruling houses of the Central Powers and gave their colonies to the victors.

Germany

Post WWI Germany was especially interesting. The country was destitute; its ruling king deposed; a puppet government installed, and reparations imposed to be paid in the money of the various conquering allied states.

Since Germany had no French Francs, American dollars, or British Pounds, and payment was demanded in these currencies, the money had to be borrowed from international usury banks.

Germany's debt grew and grew and there was no visible means of repaying. Increasingly the victors converted their reparations money back into German marks to buy assets in Germany. Germany was flooded with marks. Inflation went wild while business came to a standstill. Almost everything in Germany was on the auction bloc and buyers bought valuable property for almost nothing. A large number of the buyers were Jews representing corporations controlled by Jewish usury-banks worldwide. Germans owned almost nothing in Germany.

Germany was also overrun with refugees fleeing the Communist terror in Russia. They told frightful stories. Russia had been conquered by Communists led by Lenin and Leon Trotsky whose efforts resulted in 30,000,000 people dying in Gulags. The Russian people were slaves to a giant corporation called the USSR.. Germany expected that the same thing would happen to them.

Scrip: Jews Declare War

A reactionary German political party called the NSWP stepped forward and blamed usury and Jewish banks for most of their troubles and promised that when they came into power that they would substitute state scrip for the existing usury- banking. They also promised that if given power that they would trade German manufactured goods for raw materials worldwide without going through the process of borrowing from the international usury banks. Scrip and barter are death to usury banking.

These reactionary Germans were overwhelmingly voted into power in 1933.

The very same month that this political party came into power in Germany the following headlines appeared in the world's newspapers:

> "Judea Declares War on Germany! Jews of all the World Unite! Boycott of German Goods! Mass Demonstrations,..!" (Headlines in the Daily Express on March 24, 1933.)

The above hit the newspapers in the same month in 1933 that Germany's anti-usury political party came to power. This was six years before England and France declared war on Germany. Organized world Jewry declared war on Germany six years before WWII. The German threat to use no-interest scrip and international barter of goods rather than using international usury stirred the hornets' nest of international usury.

From that time on an anti-German media-drumbeat sounded worldwide:

> "Hitler will have no war (does not want war), but we will force it on him, not this year, but soon." (- Emil Ludwig Cohn in Les Annales, June, 1934; also quoted in his book "The New Holy Alliance").

WWII was fought to restore Germany to subservience to the international usury banks.

The rest of Germany's pre-war anti-usury political platform is listed below:

Modifified for local conditions, much of the following platform can be used by every Saxon or non-Saxon country in the world seeking their independence.

The German 25-Points

1. Union of all Germans (The NSWP considered all Sax ons worldwide to be "German").
2. Germans were to have equal rights with other nations. (There existed all sorts of trade restrictions against Germany - as there were earlier against the South and S. African Boers). Abolition of Treaty of Versailles.

3. Return of land and colonies seized after WWI on which to settle surplus population.
4. Only those of German blood may be citizens. (Perhaps three-quarters of the countries of the world have a similar requirement.)
5. Non-citizens are guests only.
6. Voting is limited to citizens. Appointment to govern ment positions by merit - not political party.
7. The State must promote industry and employment. Foreigners excluded from the state.
8. Non-German immigration forbidden. Non-Germans re quired to leave.
9. Citizens equal in rights and duties.
10. Citizens must contribute mental or physical labor for the good of the nation. This was necessary to dismantle the 1000 year old German caste system where one caste lived from another's efforts.
11. Therefore: income not earned by work is forbidden.
12. War profiteers will be confiscated.
13. Nationalization of great multi-national corporations with ownership to rest with the workers.
14. Profits from wholesale monopolies shared.
15. Provision for old age.
16. Regulate wholesale business monopoly. Preference shown to small businesses.
17. Confiscation of trust and corporate lands without compensation; abolish interest on land loans; prohibi tion of land speculation. land to be divided.
18. Ruthless prosecution of sordid criminals - usurers punished with death.
19. Roman Law serving the materialistic world order replaced by a legal system for all Germany.

20. Availability of higher education to all regardless of caste. Development of gifted children of poor parents.
21. National health program to protect mothers and in fants; prohibit child labour; encourage sports for youth.
22. Abolition of a paid army and formation of a national army.
23. To create a national Press:
    (a) Editors and assistants of newspapers must be members of the nation.
    (b) Non-German media shall require special per mission of the state.
    (c) Non-Germans shall be prohibited from financ ing or influencing German media. Pornography will be prosecuted.
24. Liberty for all religious denominations that aren't a danger to the morals of the German race.
25. That the government be given the power to carry out these 25 points.

The leaders of the Party swear to sacrifice their lives if necessary in securing fulfillment of the foregoing Points.

Munich Feb 24, 1920.

The final statement at the end of the 25-Points should be read again. A failed rebellion against the international usury-banks will be punished by death. The leaders of Germany understood this at the beginning.

WWII

Germany lost WWII and the property of the international corporations and individuals that had been taken from the German people and then returned to them by the NSWP after WWI was seized still again after WWII. The result - Germans today are once again paupers in the midst of riches around them that are owned by Esau.

COVER-UP: On June 8, 1967, President Lyndon B. Johnson, turned his back on the crew of a US navy ship, the USS Liberty, despite the fact that the ship was under deadly assault by Israel's air and sea forces. The Liberty crew managed to broadcast an SOS over a make-shift antenna. When the appeal reached US aircraft carriers nearby, the commanders immediately launched fighter planes to defend the ship. Informed of the launch, President Johnson ordered the rescue planes to turn back immediately.

For the first time in history, forces of the US Navy were denied the right to defend a Navy ship under attack. Johnson said, "I don't care if the ship sinks, I am not gong to embarrass an ally." Those were his exact words, heard by Navy personnel listening to radio relays. The ally Johnson refused to embarrass was Israel. ... Johnson magnified the day's infamy by ordering a cover-up of the truth. Liberty survivors were sworn to secrecy. STATE RELIGION

China

China does not have a real "state religion" like Japan, where the Emperor is the end-all - at least before WWII he was. In China the government itself is really the end-all. While most lean toward Buddhist and Hindu teachings, at the same time they tolerate all religions. Every now and then the newspapers announce that the government is leaning on one group or another. Usually, the group that is being leaned on is teaching things that conflict with government dogma, but that's rare.

In China, the Roman Catholic Church is even tolerated - up to a point. Since the Roman Catholic Church has its own law system, China handles this difference with one small government addition. The government appoints its own Chinese Catholic Pope - which upsets Roman Catholics no end.

The Chinese Catholics don't seem to mind - at least that's what they say.

Chinese business is simple. The government owns all the land and all businesses. When one deals with a Chinese business he deals with the entire Chinese government. When one deals with any religion in China, a business, or, a politician - in reality he is dealing with two billion Chinese. Even Chinese living overseas feel that they are part of the whole.

This is China's "state religion". It is a "state religion" with no name.

Learning

I went to Thomas Road Baptist Church for 18 years before I learned that there was more to being a Christian than "being nice". Christians are supposed to teach and obey the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I found out that they didn't do that so I quit. People smarter than I learned this in 8 minutes. It took me 18 years.

Anglican Preacher

I learned many things at Thomas Road. One thing I won't forget soon; Jerry Falwell would invite preachers from other denomoninations from all over the world - lots of them. He would give them the grand tour and expect them to go home and do what he was doing. I volunteered to gather the latest group from where they were staying with private families and take them to church or wherever they were supposed to go. We had a long convoy.

One minister I remember. We were on a tight schedule. We waited in front of the house where he was staying for 20 minutes. Eventually he came out the front door wearing a cape and theatrically pulling on his gloves while slowly walked to the waiting car. He stood and waited for someone to open the door. I stood behind and pushed him in with five others and got the convoy moving.

British State Religion

Later, I went to Great Britain with a Thomas Road tour. We visited this fellow's church. It was small and vacant. Not even pews and the flooring was torn up. The preacher didn't seem to mind. He took us on a tour of his "real ministry" - the town. He was in charge of the whole town - every house, business, public latrine, whatever. I was flabbergasted. The guy was a CEO of a whole town. That was when I learned that in England church and business can be the same and often are.

I stayed with an engineer in Scotland who had a 99-year lease on his house. The government was the landowner. The government was the Queen's government - or the Queen belonged to the government. Anyway, the Queen was head of GB's Anglican Church.

Later I went to a great cathedral built to seat thousands. There must have been fifty people or more in the choir. The music was good. The congregation consisted of 13 people. Thirteen. That's where I learned that you don't have to have many members, or any members at all, to have a successful church. You just have to have other business interests. I was learning about "state religions".

Banks Here & There

A few years ago a big bank failed in the mid-west. The newspapers said that England's Queen was an owner.

History books say that Andy Jackson was upset with the private national bank system in the United States and went on a one man campaign to rid the country of them. When he finally did drive them out - the list of stockholders was made public. They lived in Great Britain. Interesting. It might be logical to assume that if banks owned Great Britain's politicians that it would be logical to assume that the banks would also own the American politicians because they had banks here.

National banks returned to America in 1911. Everyone says the Jews own them. Maybe, maybe not.

A number of years ago the newspapers printed a story about a number of Swiss banks that went bankrupt. They were all owned by the Catholic Church. Of course, everyone knows about the Vatican Bank trouble a while back. It created quite a stir for a time.

Then, there's the Chettiers - the black bankers from India who were placed in charge of Great Britain's Asian banks. This was in Hoskins Report #319 in #2006.

How Banks Rule

Most local banks are owned by bank corporations. These bank corporations are owned by still other bank corporations. Congressman McFadden tried to find the ultimate owner with no success. The owner could be a business, a religion, a king, or an Eskimo at the North Pole. There is one thing we do know: "The borrower is slave to the lender". Banks are important.

Control Without Ownership

For tax reasons people with sizable estates often put their stock holdings in trusts managed by bank trust departments. Most of them let the bank trust managers handle details like voting for company directors. In essence, bank trust departments can control corporations without owning a single share.

Politicians

The South was occupied by federal troops for 16 years after the War and puppet governments composed of former black slaves ruled for much longer while whites were disenfranchised. Virginia was left devastated. The state didn't pay off its "reconstruction debts" until the 1950s.

After Reconstruction one of Virginia's new leaders was Harry Byrd. He was first Governor and then U.S. Senator. While governor, he would not stand for any state government "hanky- panky". Anyone could walk in off the streets and examine state books. Virginia's honest government was the talk of the country.

Then came the forced integration of Virginia's schools in violation of the Constitution. I was an officer in the the 1st Virginia, The Richmond Light Infantry Blues. The same regiment an ancestor fought in during the Revolutionary War. I stayed by the phone all night expecting Virginia's National Guard to be called up to defend states rights. Nothing happened. The governor, J. Lindsey Almond did nothing. Then, Harry Byrd came up with a do- nothing policy of talking "massive resistance" to educate people over the rest of the country. The Richmond-Times Dispatch editorials proved a thousand times that we were right and the Feds were wrong - for all the good it did.

J. Lindsey Almond betrayed Virginia and was made a federal judge after he retired. After a while Harry Byrd died. His estate consisted of his own widely read newspaper, extensive apple orchards, and a bundle of stock certificates. Before going into politics Byrd was as poor as the rest of us.

Then there was Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee. He was known as the tenacious watchdog who kept the drug companies in check. When he died the papers revealed that he owned a trunkload of stocks in drug companies.

Virginia now has a new State senator. He had a non-descript job before being elected to public office. Since that time he has been appointed to the governing boards of several corporations and his old house is up for sale. He has now become quiet about big government misdeeds.

Deporting Aliens

State governments must be self-sustaining if their leaders expect to eat at the public trough. They take care of those who take care of them. Politicians arrive poor and leave rich.

Newspapers mostly advertise lawyers who specialize in state law for election to public office. I don't know of a single one of them who has quoted the "other Law", the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob - especially such laws as those dealing with "Strangers ruling over us."

Creating Jobs

Few media-elected politicians have protested the "off-shoring of America's industries.

During the depression of the 1890s Chinese were deported to make jobs available.

During the Great Depression, President Herbert Hoover ordered the deportation of all illegal aliens to make jobs available for the unemployed.

After WWII, Harry Truman deported over two million illegals to create jobs for returning veterans.

President Dwight Eisenhower deported 13 million Mexicans to make jobs available.

Thus far I have yet to hear of a single media-elected politician in Congress beating the drum for the deportation of aliens to provide jobs for our unemployed.

South Africa

The media didn't say so, but South Africa had a state religion composed of several denominations. When time came to turn the white population over to the blacks to rule there was almost no protest from the South African pulpit, politicians, or government. In fact, the white police helped arrest whites who did protest. As the book "Volksveraad" said, "they were all guilty, all of them."

Our Saxon people obey either the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob or obey the God of the Land - the one who currently makes the laws. The choice is life or death.

Rome's Religion

Rome adopted the merchants' religion and built an empire. When Rome conquered a new land it would bring the conquered God's statue back to Rome mounted on a great float in a great victory parade. The god was placed in its own temple and it became part of Rome's pantheon of Gods.

Rome conquered Jerusalem and looked around for a captured God to bring to Rome. All they found were manuscripts since Israelites have no likeness of their God in stone or wood, nothing other than their God's Laws written on paper. So, a great victory parade was held in Rome and these manuscripts were paraded and then placed in a temple. This had never been done before. Immediately there was trouble since the Law of Jacob forbade usury, kings, strangers in the land, monopolies, and required that the land be divided. This Law-God that had been captured had to be suppressed or changed if the Roman Empire was to survive.

Suppression was first tried. Thousands died. It produced little success. In an act of desperation the Roman government adopted the WORD, appointed their own priests, and changed the WORD so that Rome could continue doing what they had been doing all along. The result was that Rome violated the Law and was destroyed.

The WORD Spreads

The WORD spread from group to group into Europe. In time people had their own copies of the WORD and they read where the definition of "king" was "Jesus Christ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5-6

Accordingly, in many places the people seized the lands of kings and church, and divided them among themselves.

The kings in northern Europe wouldn't stand for an independent WORD which took away their lands and privileges, so they gathered their faithful followers and killed tens of thousands of these "rebel" followers of the WORD. They took back their land and appointed their own bishops and instructed them to make the WORD a state religion. Many of those who escaped their king's wrath hid in Europe's woods and mountains and later fled to Pennsylvaia and Virginia.

In England, the king made himself the head of the state religion. He appointed his own bishops who appointed priests. Royal decrees were read from church pulpits and subjects were fined for non- attendance and punished for non-compliance.

England invaded Scotland and forced their state-religion on Scots who had become followers of the WORD. Scots who were caught teaching the WORD in private homes or in open field meetings were imprisoned and their pastors executed on the spot. The people were taxed and their lands confiscated. Rising in revolt they were slaughtered and the remnant shipped to America by the thousands as indentured servants.

Virginia

From the beginning, England's king established his state religion in Virginia. Everyone was required to attend services. However, there were so many dissidents living in settlements inaccessible to Jamestown's supervision that in fact there were two religions; England's state religion, and followers of the WORD who had refugeed from many lands.

Matters boiled over with the arrival of many thousands of Scottish POWs after the failed risings of 1715 and 1745. They were poor but well educated and became the tutors of the children of Virginia planters. They taught the likes of Washington, Jefferson, and Patrick Henry, Latin, Greek, their figures and letters and to despise the king's state religion. The result was that many nominal members of the king's state religion became actual followers of the WORD.

England's bad treatment of its colonies in trade, land, taxes, and alliances with strangers brought on the Revolutionary War.

Wars In Virginia

America's state-media has blacked out the history of this period, but we remember. Much of the war took place here. The conduct of the British armies using the law of their state-religion as their excuse was reprehensible.

My family came from Tidewater where unopposed British landing parties robbed, burned and destroyed the property of peaceful civilians. The loot was part of their pay. They destroyed the lands of people who were pro-British and anti-British. They shot prisoners of war and crammed other prisoners into prison hulks.

Robert

I've got a son named Robert. He was named for my ancestor Robert Hoskins who served with the 1st Virginia in New York during the Revolution. He was captured and imprisoned on the prison hulk "Success" anchored at the foot of what is now Wall Street. He escaped by diving into the ice filled East River and swimming to Brooklyn. He was fortunate. The death rate in these prison hulks is said to have approached 90%.

The West

In Western Virginia near the mountains, British Tories organized war parties of Indian sons-of-Esau, armed them, and paid bounties for scalps - men, woman and children. My family has lost members in every generation from either French or English incited Indian massacre from the time we arrived in Virginia until the 1800s. The laws of Britain's state religion taught its followers to see no wrong in raising hands against kinsmen if they were branded rebels.

The War Of 1812 was a repeat of what had gone before, except this time they introduced "germ warfare".

> General Alexander Leslie "distributed some 700 "Negroes" infected with smallpox to plantations in Virginia. (A Few Bloody Noses, The American War of Independence), by Robert Harvey.

In the eyes of Britain's state religion, the home grown infidels in America were traitors to God and King and could be treated as such - and they did.

Russia

Napoleon marched to Moscow. Finding no one to fight he began his disastrous winter retreat that ended in France. The Russian armies followed him and the conduct of Russian soldiery when passing through Germany and France was proper and orderly.

During WWII, the Russian armies passing through Eastern Europe behaved like animals - looting, wholesale murder, and rape being the norm.

The difference in the conduct of the Russian soldiers during the Napoleonic War and the WW2 Russian soldiers was the Law system that governed them.

The Tzar

Russia's Tzar, head of Russia's state religion was replaced by Turkic-mongol revolutionaries and their atheist state religion.

Russia's state church that had been governed by the Tzar was now governed by new leaders. The new communist government allowed Russia's state religion to keep its Christian rituals and parables but required them to also teach Turkic-mongol law.

Many of the priests who remained accepted these new conditions as they had accepted their old state religion. Some of them informed on their own kinsmen sending them to their deaths in gulags.

State priests are trained to believe that the head of their state is also the head of their religion. This makes the head of the state God's representative.

The new Communist leader and his mongol law caused 30,000,000 Russians to die in Gulags - most of them Russian-Saxons - and many of those were betrayed by priests dutifully following their new leader.

Occupation Of Poland & E. Germany

Following WWII Russian armies, following mongol turkic law, occupied Poland. Poland followed the Roman Catholic state religion. They also occupied E. Germany which followed the Lutheran state religion.

Thus we had an East German state religion, Polish state religion, and Russian atheist state-religion - all three intermingled.

Recently released Soviet records reveal the names of both Polish Catholic state priests and German Lutheran state priests who are accused of working with the Soviet secret police and informing on their own people. They were obeying a new king of the land.

Court Rulings

We know that the Law of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob says;

"I am the the Lord your God which have separated you from other people ... and ye shall be holy unto me: for I the Lord am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine." (Lev 20:24, 26)[34]

Laws & Laws

We know that the first amendment of the American Constitution says:

> "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

Establishing a religion means establishing a "state religion" - a law-of-the-land that binds the WORD so that it will not interferes with land monopolies, strangers in the land, usury, and other unLawful acts.

Each judge is sworn in with his hand on a Bible - which infers allegiance with the WORD. But, this has not stopped the evolution of court rulings over the last several years.

They start in this manner;

- 1897 - Holy Trinity Church v. The United States, 143 U.S. 457 (1892) "... this is a Christian nation."

This was then followed by these decisions that changed the lives of the people of the US, and they were achieved without their vote; just a supreme court decision, or, a presidential decree upheld by his court.

- 1946 - Integration of the American Armed Forces - President Harry S. Truman

34 "For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? It is not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Exodus 33:16

- 1954 - Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka 347 U.S. 483 - U.S. Supreme Court ended all segregation in American public schools.
- 1961 - Torcaso v Watkins U.S. 488(1961) overthrew Maryland statute that required belief in God to hold public office.
- 1962 - Engel v. Vitale 370 U.S. 421, High Court struck down state of NY prayer.
- 1963 - Abington School District v. Schempp, 374 U.S. 203, 83 S. Ct 1560 (1963) Stopped prayer in schools.
- 1964 - Chamberlin v. Dade County (FL) Board of Public Instruction, 377 U.S 402 Banned Bible reading and prayers in FL. public schools, previously required by statute.
- 1967 - Loving v. Virginia - Sup. Ct. Banned law against interracial marriage.
- 1973 - Roe v. Wade 410 U.S. 113 Banned laws against abortion making it legal.
- 1980 - Stone v. Graham, 449 U.S. 39 removed 10- Commandments from school classrooms in KY
- 1983 - Bob Jones v. United States, 461 U.S. 574 denied tax exemption to Bob Jones Univ. and Goldsboro Christian School who had banned interracial dating.
- 1987 - Edwards v. Aguillard, 482 U.S. 578 outlawed Louisiana law requiring that teaching evolution also be accompanied by teaching that the world was created by God.
- 2003 - Lawrence & Garner v. Texas, 539 U.S. 558 banned laws against sodomy.

"Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil: that put darkness for light, and light for darkness." Isaiah 5:20

Thomas Jefferson

Thomas Jefferson wrote:

"It has long been my opinion ... that the germ of dissolution of our federal government is in the constitution of the federal judiciary; an irresponsible body ... working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little today and a little tomorrow, and advancing its noiseless step like a thief, over the field of jurisdiction, until all shall be usurped from the States, and the government of all be consolidated into one.

"To this I am opposed; because, when all government, domestic and foreign, in little as in great things, shall be drawn to Washington as the center of all power, it will render powerless the checks provided of one government on another, and will become as venal and oppressive as the government from which we separated." - Thomas Jefferson 1821

Turncoats

Jefferson was right. Court decisions violating the WORD have been going on for years. The judges say one thing and their decisions are the opposite. Deception is everywhere.

Court decisions and executive orders has given America its own "state religion", and woe betide those who will not worship at their altar. Look at the list of those presently sitting on the supreme court.

Today

A Supreme Court is nothing more than a jury "appointed" by the king to "rubber-stamp" his decrees. They have tenure for life and their decrees determine the laws America will honor, even when they override the WORD.

America's Congress is now in the process of appoving the king's supreme court nominee. This nominee is a stranger, an Hispanic named Sonia Sotomayor. A member of a state-religion.

Quick Look

We know that the media exists to create opinions for the public to believe. This allows politicians to be media-elected. We know that the media worldwide is run by five Jewish run corporations. We know that the worlds great corporations are owned by banks.

In the United States the president is elected by the media which controls the opinion of the people. This president appoints to his supreme-court the ones he is told to appoint.

Justice Religious Affiliation

Assuming that Sotomayor is confirmed, the following will be the declared religious affiliation of the nine members of America's Supreme Court:

John Roberts - Catholic (Chief Justice)
Stephen G. Breyer - Jewish
Ruth Bader Ginsburg - Jewish
Anthony M. Kennedy - Catholic
Antonin Scalia - Catholic
John Paul Stevens - Protestant (atheist?)
Clarence Thomas - Catholic
Samuel Alito - Catholic - 2005
Sonia Sotomayor - Catholic - 2009
(replaced David H. Souter)

Of the nine members of the Supreme Court, there are 6-Catholics, 2-Jews, and one who's opinions seems to some to be more atheistic than anything else. Of course, almost nothing about this has been mentioned in the state-media since the media does not want the people to form opinions on the subject.

Conclusion

America's Supreme Court contains children of Esau, the same Esau who swore that he would kill his brother Jacob. The rest, except one, have sworn allegiance to the state religion whose oath required its new members back in 1961 to say these words - which I assume haven't changed:

> "... I believe the Holy, Catholic, Apostolic, Roman Church to be the one true Church ... I reject and condemn all that she rejects and condemns, and I am ready to observe all that she commands me. ... " (Published by the Catholic Truth Society, London, 1961)

The Roman Catholic state-religion is much like the Chinese state- religion, the Anglican state-religion, Eastern Orthodox and Lutheran state-religions. I would be interested if any one of them had a majority on the Supreme Court. Each has its own monopolies, usury banks, and rulers called kings or other such names, who have done things which violate the WORD. Each state- religion represents its own God of the Land and own law system that must be obeyed. In the past State- Religions have had armies to enforce their will and they have used them. The state-religion that controls the US will have the US army at it disposal.

The most interesting thing is that America's preachers cling to their own denomination, and ignore the WORD that created them in the beginning. "In the beginning was the WORD, and the word was with God, and the WORD was God." John 1:1; "God (The WORD) created man in his own image." Gen 1:27; "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29

Most preachers tell their church members that God's Law is dead, to obey the king, and to accept America's "state-religion" - which is the "law of the land" - a Law determined by the belief system of members of the United States Supreme Court, most of whom have sworn to obey another state-religion.

Interesting days lie ahead.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins: We have a flood of people arriving from China and I find them most unwelcome. Their goods are absolute rubbish. A large group of the Chinese are in military uniforms and were stationed in the Free State near Sasol at an old coal mine call Coolbrook.

It seems that the only thing that upsets blacks and makes them keep their distance are some of their own African charms. We get some sheep bones and make them into beads. Not a nice thing to do, but regular alarms don't scare them anymore.

Some time back Hans forgot the beads and young blacks nearly killed him where he was building a bank in Soweto. He was the only armed; he had a .38 Special on him. The rest of the 22 men of his staff were unarmed. He was on top of the building busy with a copper dome when the blacks swarmed in. Someone left the security gate open. The same blacks had just killed a medical doctor.

Few whites register their weapons. They'd rather keep them until needed.

Zuma won the election. He is in a hurry to make the country a full communist state. He calls himself a black christ and those close to him his disciples. He took the oath of office in front of the Union Buildings in a strange bulletproof cage. Zuma still sings his war songs to crowds of blacks, so we have to be careful. Things could explode in an instant.

We will let you know how things develop.

Best Wishes, H.R.

Chapter 420

SEPARATION vs. INTEGRATION

Revival

A remarkable thing happened in the Army of Northern Virginia during the War. There was a revival of the WORD. Some say that it was triggered by the example of men like Stonewall Jackson. Others say it was spontaneous. Study groups were formed in practically every regiment, company and squad in the army. Men learned the WORD - they memorized the LAW. They remembered the WORD after the War was over.

Reconstruction

Following the War there was racial chaos in the South - a planned chaos.

Whites were denied the vote - blacks were given the vote. Instructed by cartel agents, Blacks were directed how to vote and elect themselves to national, state, and local offices where they passed outrageous laws. Land taxes were passed forcing whites to go to banks to borrow tax money - causing wide-spread bankruptcies since trade had come to a near standstill and new tariffs combined with labor shortages provided few ways for farmers to earn money to repay the loans.

Black on white crime was rampant. Black gangs roamed the cities and countryside. Whites were not allowed to defend themselves from Blacks gone wild. Justice was dispensed before a black judge and jury, and everything took place under the watchful eye of federal occupation troops.

Black Nationalism

Blacks had been told that they were to be set free and sent back to their own lands in Liberia in Africa. This had not happened. They became nationalistic. They had the power. They wanted to turn the South into a Black nation. To accomplish this, whites had to be removed.

They began a reign of terror to force Southern whites to leave. Frequent wagon trains left going West.[35] My mother's family left Kelly's Ford and ended up in Texas. My mother was born there. Her father was afraid to allow her to return into the chaos.

35 While speaking to a church group in Washington State a few years ago I discovered that most of them were descended from families who had come from Bedford County near where I live in Virginia.

Black Nationalism caused other problems. The Cartel had obtained millions of acres of southern plantation land that they planned to sell to Europeans immigrants. Blacks intended taking this land along with the rest.

To prevent this, bank representatives met with Southern leaders and agreed to let Southerners remove blacks from government in exchange for a guarantee that the banks could keep the land they had obtained. And, one thing more - whites must not take vengeance on anti-saxonite newspaper editors. Because of this, the last duel in Virginia was fought in Richmond sometime in the 1870s - between newspaper editors, of all things!

Once the agreement was made, a book was published that announced the "change of policy", and was advertised in the media. Pushed by the media, it was a best seller. In one year's time the opinion of the North was changed from Anti-South to Pro-South. The name of the the book is The Prostrate State by Pike. It's worth the time to find a copy.

Reconquest Misunderstandings

The reconquest of Southern governments by Southern whites was difficult, but the men trained in the Great Revival during the War knew what to do.

First, there was a simple plan for race relations. "Separation stops strife." Not only in the South, but Nationwide, most Saxon whites worked for "separation".

The re-activation of the African Colonization Plan that was so popular after the Revolutionary War was brought back on line again. Except for a few anti-Christ radical abolitionists, there was almost universal support for the plan.

But, behind the scenes, the politicians elected by the banking- cartel's media and who actually governed the country worked for a different plan entirely. They worked for "integration" and the destruction of the African Colonization Plan.

The American public didn't understand what was going on. From a single usury bank in 1780 the number of banks mushroomed into the hundreds - then thousands. As the banks spread, money was available to buy up America's big-city newspapers. This allowed the media-owners to control the minds of city voters. This accomplished, they proceeded to buy up county newspapers and were able to control the minds of the people living in the countryside, and were able to elect politicians who would support cartel policies.

Since the War Between The States there have been very few politicians who have represented the views of the people who voted for them. They have been selected by and are creatures of the owners of America's media.

One Reason For "Integration"

In spite of the talk, the banking cartel had no intention of allowing debt-free blacks to leave the country. To do so would deprive banks of new debt-free borrowers and also deprive their industry of cheap labor. A black debt-free potential borrower is of more value to the lenders than a white borrower who is loaded with debt and can borrow no more. This is why millions upon millions of debt-free Hispanics are permitted to remain in the country taking white jobs. They, too, are potentially of more value than debt-laden whites.

Garvey

Neither blacks nor whites knew that the ITC had abandoned African Colonization. Blacks and Whites were allied on this point. Both went about drumming up support for African Colonization as if it were the only plan on the table and they expected it to only be a matter of time until money was found to have the plan implemented.

We remember the black leader Marcus Garvey who led millions of dues-paying black members after WWI. He had one of the first groups of 20,000 blacks living in tents at Newport News waiting for Liberty Ships purchased from the U.S. government to take them to Liberia. The ships arrived and were immediately boarded by the Coast Guard. It was during prohibition and they are said to have discovered contraband whiskey. They confiscated the ships and put Garvey in prison. Cheap black labor wasn't going to leave America.

Segregation

The South, having just escaped from Black rule, had strong opinions about Black rule. They were unaware that the government was secretly pushing "integration".

Waiting for colonization to take place, the races were separated. The plan the white public adopted was based on the WORD learned during the Great Revival during the War. People talked about God's LAW - whether this course of action was best or that one was best. The Colonization Plan bringing complete separation would solve all the problems, but until it could be funded something had to be done about current race relations. The answers were found in the Bible.

Rule

First; there was the basic Law: "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother."Deut 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

Blacks were removed from voting lists by using the "poll tax". One had to pay to vote. Times were hard and blacks didn't like to pay and most stayed away from the polls. If they didn't, other means were found to keep them away.

In time, whites ruled local politics - at least they voted for those the media said were the most like-minded. Blacks were encouraged to work with blacks. If their elders complained about the conduct of one of them, he was brought to the county courthouse for punishment.

My Cousin Vay Newbill's husband was sheriff of Essex County. If a black got drunk and caused trouble, Mr. Newbill would send word by someone for the guilty party to come down to his office in Tappahannock, and he did.

My uncle Deane Hundley was judge. When I was 12 or 13 I spent a lot of time sitting in court watching him dispense justice. I remember one time a white man beat up someone and Uncle Deane sentenced him to three years. A black beat up another black and Uncle Dean sentenced him to six months. I asked him why the difference? He said that the white man should have known better. People used common sense back then.

Business

Since it was assumed that blacks would be going back to Africa, it was important for them to learn everything they could before they went. The state set up agencies to teach them to farm - although as far as I could see blacks never made good farmers.

The Law governed business transactions with strangers:

> "For thou hast abandoned Thy people, the house of Jacob, Because they are filled with influences from the east, And they are soothsayers (tell fairytales) like the Philistines, And they strike bargains (trade with) with the children of foreigners." Isaiah 2:6; "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods." Deut 7:2,4; "What part hath he that believeth with an infidel? ...come out from among them and be ye separate. II Cor 6:15-17; "And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land." Judges 2:2; "Thou shall make no covenant with them." I Ki 4:21-24

Some white merchants didn't like losing customers, but practically every town and city passed ordinances forbidding whites to sell to blacks - IF blacks had stores in the vicinity offering the same merchandise. Blacks had to buy from blacks and whites had to buy from whites.

This was a God-send to Black entrepreneurs. Almost overnight black-owned grocery stores, drugstores, barber-shops, doctor's offices, hardware stores, hotels, motels and black movie-houses sprung-up and started doing business. Entire sections of cities became black business districts. When a white movie-house showed a picture that wasn't being shown at the colored theatre - there was a special section set aside for them in white theatres - but only if the black theatre didn't offer the same movie.

I went to E.C. Glass High School summer school and had to walk through the colored business district to get downtown to catch a bus home. It was close to a mile and it was hot. I stopped to get a cold soft-drink at a colored drugstore. When I tried to sit down and cool off, the black owner told me to take my drink and move along. So I did.

Neighborhoods

Neighborhoods were restricted by law. Whites could not buy land, develop, or live in restricted areas. Nor could blacks do the same in white areas. Black contractors, brick layers, and carpenters had a monopoly on their market - whites had the same in theirs.

People talk about jobs whites won't do. After I left law school at William and Mary I was fortunate to get a job working for a white contractor digging ditches for $1 an hour. Pay a man who needs work and he will work.

Working

The "ruling over" Law produced racial job monopolies. There were jobs reserved for blacks and jobs reserved for whites. During the Depression there were blacks who kept jobs that whites would have been glad to have.

Schools

There were white schools and there were black schools. White teachers taught white students and black teachers taught black students. I heard that the black teachers at Dunbar were heavy handed with upstart black students, more so than was customary in white schools, but I never heard of student disorders in black schools. A Mr. Seay was the black principal. He was highly respected in the black community.

Sports

White teams did not play black teams. If the black team won the Law would be violated; "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15

There were no black police patrolling white areas for the same reason. There were no black juries or blacks on juries. Besides the "Law" reason, people have found out that blacks tend to side with blacks regardless of their guilt or innocence.

Whites did not walk down the streets with blacks; "Can two walk together, except they be agreed." Amos 3:3; "All flesh consorteth according to kind, and a man will cleave to his like." Ecclesiasticus 13:16.

The same rule applied if traveling on the streetcars, trains, or automobiles. Whites sat in one part and blacks sat in the other. To violate the Law is to fight God. Few want to be put in that predicament.

PARKS & POOLS

There were white public parks supervised by whites and colored public parks supervised by blacks. There were beaches reserved for blacks and beaches reserved for whites.

There was one white fellow on City Council named Jim Ould who wanted to integrate the Lynchburg swimming pools. When he ran for state senator everyone called him "Swimmingpool-Jim" He was overwhelmingly defeated and gave up politics.

When the federal courts ruled that white pools could not refuse black swimmers - Lynchburg shut down its pools.

Racial Adultery

The rules were understood by all concerned. The following comes from the black newspaper The Final Call:

> "In the 1950s, it was clearly understood by all that the consequences for a Black man, young or old, accused of inappropriately relating to any White woman was death. It was just that simple. If a Black man was believed to have crossed that line, death was on the other side, no questions asked ...." (The Final Call, p.16, Feb 3, 2004 .finalcall.com) (Numbers 25)

White women riding in cars with black males after sunset were automatically assumed to have compromised themselves. The WORD names those responsible for carrying out punishments; "The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people." Deut 17:5-7

It is also written what is to be done if the "God-of-the-Land" rules instead of the WORD; one may not be able to enforce the Law without causing one's own death. In that case he must still protest the evil that he sees;

> "In case anyone of their own blood ... should attempt to confound or dissolve their constitution (break God's WORD), they should take vengeance on them, both all in general, and each person in particular ... if they were not able to take such vengeance, they should still demonstrate that what was done was contrary to their wills." Antiquities 4:8:45

A case in point; whites involved in promoting integration were labeled "white-trash". The label didn't go away. To call someone an "integrationist" was the most damning thing you could call someone. That person was a traitor to God and "man". Of course, in those days people knew the Law.

Eating

The attempt to obey the Law; "Thou shall no stranger (2114 - racial alien) eat of the holy thing. Lev 22:10 (food that has been blessed), was done in this manner.

Most pre-war Virginia homes having colored help also had outside kitchens. The food was often prepared by colored help, brought into the kitchen where it was prepared for the table. Then it was brought in to the dining room where it was blessed and became "holy". The black help ate the same "unblessed" food in the outside kitchens.

Separate eating allowed blacks to start black restaurants. Where there were no black restaurants, white restaurants were allowed to serve blacks in separate dining rooms. I saw this wherever I went, in New York, Washington DC, San Antonio and other cities. New York hotels excluded Jews also.

There were two water fountains - one for whites and one for non- whites. Some talked of avoiding black diseases - of which "sickle-cell" is one - but the real reason was "Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Workers who had to drink from the same spring - strangers used the dipper hanging on the left and whites the one on the right.

Churches

The Christian Church at Dunnsville where my father and grandfather attended service was built about 1835. It was an interesting church.

We all know that the Law says; "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." No 18:7, No 1:51. However, there were slave owners who wanted to get around the Law. They wanted their servants to hear such things as "Obey in all things your masters ... And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily as to the Lord." Col 3:22-23.

Of course, the preachers left out the fact that this teaching wasn't meant for blacks.[36]

Their solution to having servants exposed to teachings of the WORD without allowing them to come near the altar was to build a "U-shaped" balcony inside the church which had outside entrances. There were no steps leading down into the inside - just outside entrances. Thus, in their minds, the blacks could not approach the altar.

When the war ended and slaves were free, the blacks immediately deserted the Christian Church and built their own church with their own preacher, deacons, choir and the rest.

I used to sit with my father looking up at the deserted balconies wondering why no one was up there and why there were no steps going up there from the inside so I could go exploring. I had a lot to learn.

Cemeteries

Before The War, family nurses were sometimes buried in their family plots along with the white families they had nursed. This stopped after the war. Blacks were mostly buried in their own cemeteries. They still are.

In Tidewater, instead of headstones, a Cyprus tree was often planted to mark the grave. After two or three hundred years you could spot a black cemetery a long way off by its 36 "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1; "These 12 Jesus sent forth, and commanded them saying, Go ye not into the way of the gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not; But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6 enormous trees. Blacks didn't mind if black lumbermen cut the trees. But, you could hear them all the way to Richmond if a white lumberman tried to do the same thing. Those trees were valuable.

Betrayal

I remember meeting with thousands of blacks and whites in the Capitol Square in Richmond while Col. Earnest Sevier Cox made a plea for the Legislature of Virginia to appropriate money for the African Colonization Plan so that blacks could start going back to Africa. There were many legislators giving supporting speeches. Everyone left happy thinking that something was going to be done soon.

Nothing happened.

Many disappointed blacks who were there abandoned African Colonization Movement and joined the black Muslims movement.

Since that day there is only one rule that can judge friend and foe; "By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:16

Unfinished Business

The Bible tells us that Jesus found priests using churches for money-changing and commerce:

> "Jesus went up to Jerusalem, And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen, and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables; and said unto them that sold doves, take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise." (John 2:13-17)

All this is still going on in state-churches.

Rape

Black Panther Eldridge Cleaver wrote the following:

> "And when I considered myself smooth enough, I crossed the tracks and sought out White prey. I did this consciously, deliberately, willfully, methodically - though looking back I see that I was in a frantic, wild, and completely abandoned frame of mind. Rape was an insurrectionary act. It delighted me that I was defying and trampling upon the white man's law, upon his system of values, and that I was defiling his women." My Awakening, D. Duke, p 256 (Black Panther Eldridge Cleaver Soul of Ice

When the crime is committed against man's nation the punishment also is immediately in mind. "If a man ... force her, and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her shall die." Deut: 22:25

The preacher, teacher, politician, media-man, and merchant who condemns this practice follows the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Those who don't are servants of the devil's "God-of- the- land".

An article was written in Australia describing America;

> "The longest war America has ever fought is the Dirty War, and it is not over. It has lasted 30 years so far and claimed more than 25 million victims. It has cost almost as many lives as the Vietnam War. It determined the result of last year's congressional election. Yet the American news media do not want to talk about the Dirty War, which remains between the lines and unreported...

> "When all the crime figures are calculated, it appears that black Americans have committed at least 170 million crimes against white Americans in the past 30 years. It is the great defining disaster of American life and American ideals since WWII. All these are facts, yet by simply writing this story, by assembling the facts in this way, I would be deemed a racist by the American news media. It prefers to maintain a paternalistic double-standard in its coverage of black America, a lower standard." (Patrick Sheehan writing for the Sydney, Australia, Morning Herald 1995.), My Awakening, D. Duke, p. 259

The preacher, teacher, politician, media-man, and merchant who condemns these practices follows the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Those who don't, serve the devil's "God-of-the-land".

Conclusion

Saxon-Israel remembers the warning from the WORD; "Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Gen 27:41. The WORD also says "Thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." Rev 18:23

God also said "Isaac have I loved but Esau have I hated." Romans 9:13. To fight The WORD is to fight GOD. The day will come when Esau will no longer be able to feed his slaves - and Jacob will remember and return to obey his God.

> "Deliver him that suffereth wrong from the hand of the oppressor; and be not faint-hearted when thou sitteth in judgment." Eccl 4:9
> "For I the Lord, do not change." Mal 3:6

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins: The blacks demand unheard of wage increases. They march to present their demands and in the process trash streets and shops along the way.

In days gone by, Jan Smuts did not hesitate to send the army to quell such conduct. That they are pushing the country further into a depression does not worry them at all. The black Telkom head said they are entitled to get higher salaries than whites, as they know more than whites.

The "Die Afrikaner" says that the situation is critical. In 1997, there were still 5 million whites in SA. One million have left since then. Of those left, 2 million are impoverished. The most stupid black is preferred to a white man. The small number of taxpaying whites cannot continue to pay higher and higher taxes to feed the millions of blacks flooding in to escape Zimbabwe's food shortages caused by destroying white-owned farms.

Zimbabwean black immigrants are aggressive and mean. They rob and murder. Imagine cutting a white woman's throat like an animal. In large groups they rob banks and entire malls. This happens frequently, and there is no longer a border to keep them out.

It hurts to see our country turned into a scrap heap where once the streets were lined with Jacainda trees; the middle of the streets contained well kept lawns containing beds of roses. The entire area below the Union Buildings were full of flowers and lawns.

At the bottom the blacks have their demon worship hill. No grass or trees. I see they have taken more hills and the trees are all gone. The blacks have renamed Pretoria - "Tshwane". Luckily the postal codes help mail get to its destination. We try to avoid any confrontation. With courts full of black judges and magistrates, a white hasn't a chance.

One must continuously watch what our banks are doing. A friend had two operations one after the other. She finally could look after her own business and found she had no money left in the bank. Her small farm was sold which allowed her to get a small apartment. She now sells dried fruit and beauty products.

Once again, thank you, and look after yourselves. K.J.

LETTERS

ESAU & JACOB: "Mr. Hoskins: Would you please answer a question for me. I'm in the hole (administration segregation) for refusing to cell w/a non-white (a black) so I'm not able to look up 'Esau'. Would you please explain it to me in layman's terms?" W.D. - prisoner, Missouri

RKH: Our father Isaac had two sons - Jacob and Esau. Jacob was Lawful - Esau was unLawful and married strangers. Esau said, "I will kill my brother, Jacob," and he has tried to do so ever since. Esau has traveled the world and mixed his blood with all races - except with the sons of Jacob. Therefore, today there are basically two races in the world - the sons-of-Jacob and sons-of- Esau. There is no such thing as a "half-white". People called "half-white" are "sons-of-Esau".

CLEARANCES - SCOTLAND

"The Sutherland Clearances commenced in 1807 but it was here that year on year the severity of the evictions increased to a point where Sutherland is remembered today as the scene of some of the worst acts of depravity that make the Highland Clearances unique in history.

"The landowners, the excessively rich Elizabeth Gordon, Countess of Sutherland, and her husband George Granville Leveson-Gower, the Marquis of Stafford, were responsible for the eviction of around 15,000 people from their lands. ...

"They employed a man to help carry out their greedy purge, a man whose name lives in infamy as one of the most brutal enforcers of his master's will, Patrick Sellar.

"In 1814 Sellar and his men came upon the house of a Tinker that was set to be destroyed. Upon finding out about the presence of a bedridden old woman in the house Sellar is quoted by a witness as saying: 'Damn her, the old witch, she has lived too long. Let her burn!"' And so the house was set ablaze with the old woman inside...

"In 1815 (Seller) was arrested and charged ... however, he was acquitted by a packed Jury comprised predominantly of local landowners sympathetic to his cause, something that was not all too uncommon in such trials at the time. ... " Author: Robert Edwards BA (Hons)

"How hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God." Mark 10:24

Background

In the 8th and 9th centuries, England, Scotland and Ireland were settled by Vikings who divided the land, set up their presbyterian government system (from the bottom up) and lived peacefully.

In the 11th century, William the Conqueror, a son of a Viking 'en fief to the Holy Roman Empire and follower of its law system, left France and conquered England and Scotland and declared it his personal property. He set his followers over the different districts, counties, and clans. The former owners became serfs on their own land. William brought Jews with him to make loans.[38]

There were many wars between England and Scotland. England attempted to install its state religion in Scotland and increase its tribute. Each time the English won, Scottish lands were re- divided and new rulers appointed and new taxes imposed.

These wars became brutal. My ancestor, George Hume was deported after the failed Rising of 1715. In the Rising of 1745 the Scots were defeated at Culloden where their wounded were bayoneted on the ground where they lay. The survivors and their families were hunted through the hills for years and when found were killed and their homes burned.

As for the rest, the British king demanded tribute from his followers to support his wars and his lifestyle. To provide money for the king and themselves his followers taxed their tenants. Over the years, the king's demands grew and his nobles taxed their tenants more. A drop in grain prices could reduce the tenants' income and themselves to poverty - sometime starvation.

Clearances - Land

Estate owners found that sheep were cheap to maintain and produced meat and wool which were more profitable than the farming produce of the people. Absentee owners ordered the people cleared from their estates, their homes burned, and sheep introduced.

The Highlanders who had been cleared from the land found themselves in a serious situation. They had to find work to survive and feed their families.

The choice was to move to the seashore and try to feed their families by catching fish, or move to the towns and cities of the south and try to find "sweat-shop" work for their families in coal mines or mills, or emigrate.

Emigration was not the most popular choice. The journey to the Colonies was long and painful. Sometimes the landowner paid for the trip, most had to serve work-indentures lasting 4-7 years to pay their way after they reached their destination.

Ships leaving Scotland were packed with as many as could be squeezed in with bunks set up with an inch leewaybetween a person and the bunk above. Often, disease broke out among the passengers and 50 to 100 would die before reaching land. Laws governing the black slave trade permitted something like 550 slaves on a ship at a time. Ships carrying Scottish immigrants sometimes carried more than 750.

Lowland Clearances

The clearances of the Scottish lowlands involved many more tens of thousands of people than the Highland Clearances had.

"How hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!" Mark 10:24

IRISH CLEARANCES

Like Scotland, the people of Ireland are composed of Gaelic, Saxons and Vikings. It was conquered by rulers of England who imposed an English Lawless state religion on a traditional Irish Lawless state-religion. In time, the result was strife, poverty, and starvation. One of these revolts was called the Nine Years War.

According to Lecky, the Nine Years War was "literally a war of extermination". He says the slaughter of Irishmen was looked upon as "literally the slaughter of wild beasts". Men, women and children in the hands of the English, were "deliberately and systematically butchered". However the sword, he says, was "not found sufficiently expeditious," therefore another method was found to be much more "efficacious." He notes that year after year "all means of human subsistence were destroyed, no quarter was given to prisoners who surrendered, and the whole population was skillfully and steadily starved to death". The pictures of the condition of Ireland at this time he concludes are "as terrible as anything in human history". (History of Ireland in the Eighteenth Century, vol 1, by W. E. H. Lecky, Longmans, Greens and Co. (London), Pg.4-6 (cabinet ed., 5 vols., London, 1892).

An 1835 British survey found half of the rural families in Ireland living in single-room mud huts containing up to a dozen people along with the family's pigs and chickens. It was not uncommon for the huts occupants to be the dispossessed descendants of the Irish estate owners, nor was it uncommon for a beggar to mention that he was a descendant of an ancient Irish king. The Irish have the longest genealogies of any people in the world.

Absentee landlords held title to enormous tracts of land confiscated from the Irish even before the time of Oliver Cromwell. As in Scotland, they employed agents to manage their estates while the owners often lived extravagant lifestyles in London and elsewhere.

"Middlemen" rented large acreages from the owner's agents which they in turn sub-divided into small holdings which they rented to Irish farmers. They kept sub-dividing the small holdings which grew smaller as the rents increased every year. Irish who couldn't afford to rent, "share-cropped" these small holdings eking out a marginal existence for their families.

More than three-million Irish subsisted on potatoes which produce the large yield of food necessary on such small acreages. Beginning in 1845, and lasting for 6 years, a potato famine killed a million people and forced another million to migrate, mostly to America.

During this time English merchants had surplus grain which they offered the starving Irish, but the Irish has no money with to buy the food. Parliament discussed offering aid, but nothing was done.

"A rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven." Matt 19:23

SCOTCH-IRISH CLEARANCES

The Scots originally came from Ireland. The northeast coast of Ireland is close to Scotland so that the sea voyage is short. The communications between the two lands continued over the centuries with travelers and refugees from one country passing to the other almost waving in passing. The common enemy was usually England. Here's the story.

St. Patrick annexed Ireland to the Roman Catholic Church. The Church farmed the land and its peoples out to local kings to manage. In 1155, Pope Hadrien IV gave Ireland to the English King to manage. The English invaded to exercise their contract.

Later, Henry VIII took over England's Catholic Church and made himself the English Pope and claimed the right to keep all collected tithes and offerings rather than sending them to Rome. Irish Catholics refused to recognize this claim of the Anglican Catholic Church and revolted. The revolt was suppressed and northern Ireland cleared of Catholic rebels.

Scottish Presbyterians, cleared from their own lands by the estate-owners who wished to graze sheep, were shipped to Northern Ireland to be tenants on farms vacated by Catholic rebels - and to act as a buffer between the Anglican Church English estate owners and the irate Irish Catholics. The British Crown itself was the actual owner of the land in both the Irish Presbyterian north and the Catholic south, with English Anglican-Catholic nobles appointed as manager-owners.[39]

Later, clearances started in Northern Ireland, sending waves of Scotch-Irish to Virginia and elsewhere.

---

39 Many Protestant Presbyterians in the north, and Irish Catholics in the south do not realize that the Anglican-Catholic "Crown" has title to the land they live on in Ireland.

"Woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation." Luke 6:24

CLEARANCES/ENCLOSURES ENGLAND

William the Conqueror claimed all of England as his personal property. He appointed his loyal followers to rule the various sub-divisions. England was not as thickly populated as it would become later on and most of England was considered "commons" - vacant land upon which individuals could farm as much as they liked.

Over the years, wars caused the various estates to change hands and as the population increased the estates began to enclose lands that they claimed as their own.

The enclosure movement started around the 12th century and continued to gather pace until it was all but completed in the 18th and 19th centuries. The common land, previously used by farmers for communal purposes, had been enclosed for private use by wealthy landowners. As with the Highland Clearances, sheep took the place of the less profitable English farmers. This caused untold misery to the farmers and their families who were forced into lives of poverty and hardship in the towns and cities.

This forced both English yeomen and younger sons of the gentry to migrate to Virginia from the time of its first settlement in 1607.

Like the Scots, Irish, and Scot-Irish - Englishmen also suffered from the Lawless rule of kings and their refusal to divide the land.

"It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." Matt 19:24

AMERICA - CLEARANCES

Virginia has been a victim of clearances from its conception. In violation of God's Law, the Crown tried to integrate the Indians into the Saxon settlement in spite of the fact that each Indian occupied space that a Saxon settler could have occupied. The result was the Indian Massacre of 1621 when the Indians killed half the colonists.

The royal governor was given the Indian fur-trade monopoly. He refused to interrupt the trade to protect colonists from bloodthirsty Indian attacks. After all, which is a more valuable economic asset to kings and their managers - furs or Saxons? In Great Britain sheep were the more valuable.

In 1676, Nathanial Bacon gathered the militia to defend against raids. Governor Berkley used this as an excuse to outlaw both him and his followers. When Bacon died his followers were hanged and their estates confiscated.

Tobacco was Virginia's money crop - it was THE thing Great Britain wanted from Virginia - and it had to be sold to Great Britain at their set price. Tobacco money was needed in Virginia to buy English manufactured goods which by law could be bought only from Great Britain. Raising tobacco was a necessity. England owned the slave trade it had won in Queen Anne's War (1701- 1713).[40] England poured blacks into Virginia.

This displaced whites which might have settled here. Virginia protested - the king answered:

> "The General Assembly of Virginia could put into effect no law which it passed to check or to prohibit the importation of Negro slaves, no matter what conditions

40 "The Treaty of Utrecht (1713), which closed the war, ceded to England... the monopoly of the slave trade in the colonies." (The World Book, Vol 4, p.2029, 1928)

> the colony might be facing, because the great and politically powerful Royal African Company had a practical monopoly of the slave trade from Africa to America and the West Indies, and they saw to it that the king declared void every colonial law affecting that trade." Virginia's Mother Church Vol II, p.13, George Maclaren Brydon, DD, Church Historical Society, 1952.

In effect, this prevented millions of Saxons from settling in Virginia by substituting blacks - by the king's orders. Blacks produced cheaper tobacco than whites.

The Revolution:

The Colonies, tired of British taxes and mistreatment, went to war. The British armed forces, following the Lawless orders of a Lawless king, waged a Lawless war whose intent was the clearance of rebels. As in the old country; houses, barns and fields of non-combatants were burned. Slaves were captured and taken and re-sold into the Caribbean. Tarlton became infamous for shooting prisoners. Prisoners in British hands died in droves from starvation, mistreatment and disease. British paid the Indians for Saxon scalps - men, women and children. Great areas in Georgia and the Carolinas were cleared of its people.

War Of 1812:

The conduct of the British in the War of 1812 was a repeat of their conduct in the Revolution. British ships landed raiding parties on the Northern Neck just to burn and loot.

War Between The States

After the Revolution the colonists organized "African Colonization". The plan was to buy black slaves, train them to farm and settle them back in Africa from whence the British had taken them. The money received for the slaves was to be spent to transport replacement Saxon workers from Europe.

Following the Revolution, Britain established banks and industrial corporations in America - the first bank being founded in 1780. In short order they had a media monopoly, industrial monopoly, and the beginning of a New England land monopoly. To these rich and powerful men the debt-free Self-Sufficient-Farm system of the South was a ripe cherry waiting to be plucked.

To keep blacks in America these peoples' media demanded instant freeing of slaves without compensating their owners so they could bring in substitute white labor. They fanned the flames of war by financing murderous outlaws such as John Brown.

The plan was to clear Southern land by burnings, put blacks in the governments of the defeated South, and have these blacks tax the land.

Since Southern trade had been destroyed by the war and new taxes and tariffs were put in place, the formerly debt-free Southerners were forced to go to banks to borrow tax money. Southern farms, deprived of labor and with no markets for their products, defaulted wholesale, and their land was bought at tax sales for pennies by land corporations. Land owned by generations of Hoskins is now owned by the Chesapeake Corporation.

The land was cleared of people who were herded into towns, which quickly exploded into cities - something new in the South - to work for "sweat-shop" corporations for starvation wages. Many left and went west to try to build new lives.

To this day the Southern countryside is filled with deserted churches that once housed a vanished Saxon population that has been cleared from the land as their ancestors had been in Europe.

America Today

Today American industry has been cleared, or, "off-shored". States have replaced their Saxon population living in cities with Blacks, Hispanics, Islamics and Orientals.

The king's corporation banks have shut down loans to force foreclosures, and produce high unemployment. American farmers were paid not to grow produce for sale to overseas markets. Now, those markets have been taken by foreign growers and American farms lie fallow.

As in Scotland and Ireland, rural America is a land of deserted churches and deserted dairy barns while million dollar bonuses go to corporate leaders who have accomplished this feat.

"How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God." Mark 10:23

SOUTH AFRICA - CLEARANCES

In 1616, the Dutch East India Company established a letter drop and watering station on the southern tip of South Africa.

On April 7, 1652, Jan van Riebeck landed with settlers to plant vegetables gardens to supply passing ships. By the turn of the century copper mines had been established and the population augmented by French Huguenots cleared from France by Louis XIV. A number of cleared German religious non-conformists also arrived. The early white population of South Africa were Law abiding Christians.

The Dutch East India Company, to create a demand for its Black slaves, discouraged immigration of White workers from Europe starting from 1707 and continuing for over a century, Whites were barred. Most increase of the European population over this period came from natural increase. To obtain workers the South Africans were forced to buy slaves.[41] These Black slaves displaced European whites who would have settled there.

The British Empire invaded S. Africa in 1795. The governor sent by England was Lord Charles Somerset, a governor like Governor Berkley of Virginia. A Lawless king had sent a Lawless servant.

Almost his first act was to re-value the Boer farms to increase land taxes. The purpose of the increase was to start tax foreclosures.

He hired black police as tax collectors.[42] The ruthlessness of these Black police triggered a revolt similar to Bacon's Rebellion in Virginia. The governor boasted that he easily suppressed this revolt. At Slachter's Nek, in March 1816, he hanged five White "rebels", banished 32 and confiscated their estates. Interestingly, the governor's executioner hanged the condemned so that they died very slowly - the same as the Nuremburg executions.

41 "David de Pinto ... and his son Isaac de Pinto played an important part in Dutch politics during the reign of William IV. David de Pinto was the chief stockholder of the East India Company." Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Holland. p.432

42 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut17:15

The governor then set up Black homelands administered by Church of England missionaries. The stated purpose was to improve the condition of the Blacks. The real purpose was to seed Black nations under British control that in time would expand and clear the entire country of non-conformist Boers.

In 1833, England, having run out of customers for her slave trade, reversed herself and freed the slaves in her jurisdiction. This deprived South African farmers of their farm labor making them unable to pay the increased land taxes. Not only that, the British ruled that the former slaves be given the vote, which would place them in power over whites in many areas.

Leaving their farms and business, the Boers loaded wagons and left to go inland to establish new homes and farms free from the British. This exodus was called "The Great Trek". They settled in unoccupied lands in the interior and formed the Boer (farmer) Free State and Transvaal.[43]

"C.A. Venter, an Afrikaner historian writes;

> "The major reason for the Great Trek was Ordinance 50. This infamous ordinance stated that there would be thenceforth (circa 1835) not be any further discrimination between White and Black (full citizenship), one man one vote et al' in the Cape... and the ordinance could only be repealed or amended by the British Government in England."

Diamonds

In 1867, diamonds were discovered in the Free State. The British moved in and took over Boer lands in the interior and the diamond fields. At this, the Boers took up arms and forced the British to grant them their freedom.

In 1886, gold was discovered in unbelievable quantities in the Transvaal attracting hordes of speculators from Europe. England used these "outlanders" as an excuse to take over the Boer country by demanding that the Boers give them equal rights as citizens. The British instigated a revolt starting with "The Jammerson Raid" which was quickly suppressed by the Boers.

The Boer War

Britain continued demanding rights for the newly arrived European miners which would have resulted in a takeover of the Boer nations. The Boers' refusal caused Britain to send an army.

The total population of the two Boer republics including men, women and children is estimated at 232,000. The British troops employed in South Africa up to January 1, 1902 totaled 388,749.

This massive British Army cleared the Boers from the two Boer states. Of the 232,000 Boers; 120,000 men women and children were placed in concentration camps; 36,000 were deported overseas, and 37,000 were eunaccounted for. Approximately 20,000- 30,000 died of starvation and disease in the camps.

The intent of the British Empire's operations in S. Africa was made public by the following announcement by the British Army under Lord Roberts:

> "'Whereas, by Proclamation, dated the 16th day of June 1900, of Lord Roberts, Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief Her Majesty's Forces in South Africa, it was notified to, and the inhabitants, and principal residents of the Orange River Colony, and the South African republic were warned, whatever wanton damage to public property, such as Railways, Bridges, Culverts, Telegraph Wires, etc. took place the houses of persons living in the neighborhood would be burned ...'"

"On 2 Sept 1900 Lord Roberts added;

"That 'for ten miles round every farm should be denuded of all provisions, cattle, etc.' ...

"He further stated that he proposed to expel from all towns and places occupied by British troops the wives and families of burghers in the field. This was the extension of 'methods of barbarism' which in the course of the next two years caused the death of almost 24,000 young children - probably more than 30% of the Boer youth in the Concentration Camps." J.A. Marais, Die Afrikaner, 23-29 Jun 2000

The war over, White South African survivors returned to ashes of their homes and bones of their flocks. To survive, many went to cities to beg jobs of the newly arrived British corporations. After WWII, S. Africa gained its independence. Soon, there was an organized insurrection by Blacks. A South African newspaper reported:

"In 1996, Nelson Mandela was asked by BBC interviewer Sue McGregor what his 1962 trip to Britain had been all about. He said he had been seeing British government ministers and officials about arms 'for the struggle. 'I had no other business', he said." Impact, June/July, p. 9, P.O. Box 28233, Sunnyside 0132, Rep. of SA.

At the insistance of the world powers, S. Africa was given to the Blacks to rule. Since then, South African clearances of Whites have sent 1 million of them abroad, and 4 million are left. Several black leaders have bought large estates in Scotland with their newfound wealth, and white S. African farmers are being killed daily. Like Highland sheep - South African diamond, gold, coal fields and cleared farms are worth more than the people to whom they belonged.

CLEARANCES - RUSSIA

Goths and Vikings have long used the Russian rivers to travel from the Baltic to the Black Sea. In the process they established settlements the length of the country.

These settlements were in the midst of warring nations of Tartars and Slavs, most of whom in time gravitated to the Russ River settlements seeking protection from tribes of their own kind. In time they were incorporated into estates ruled by the Russian Tzar - who was also the head of the state religion.

In 1917, the Tartars and Slavs united under the leadership of Khazarian Turks. They revolted and cleared most of the country of Russ rulers of landed estates and other Saxon Russ. The total who died in Soviet concentration camps has been estimated from 20 to 30 million - mostly Saxon Russ.

The Saxon Russ who remain must live in cities or farm government- owned land in co-operatives as servants of the state. Russia's wealth has been divided among "ologogs", most of whom are Khazar- Turks who travel among the world's multi-billionaires.

The famous Russian writer Solzhenitsyn said that most of the prison camps were run by Khazar-Turk Jew commandants. Thus far none of them have been brought to trial for crimes against the prisoners in their charge.

"Woe to you, ye powerful, who with power strike down righteousness; for the day of your destruction shall come." Enoch I 95:8

CLEARANCES - GERMANY

Germany was claimed by the Holy Roman Empire. The land of the people was taken and combined into estates ruled by nobles appointed by the king.

Luther's reformation swept Germany, teaching:

"All the earth is mine." Ex 19:5; "As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5.

General revolt broke out as peasants and many of the nobles united to divide lands that had been taken by Kings and Church. In time the Kings and Church regrouped and attacked the land- holding peasants. Tens of thousands were slaughtered. Then, in a 30-year war, Protestant and Catholic kings battled each other over who was to rule the re-conquered land. Germany lost 90% of her population in many places.

Protestant kings appointed Protestant bishops and the Roman Church appointed Catholic bishops. Information controlling the minds of the people came from Sunday pulpits. Catholic and Protestant kings were heavily in debt to church banks run by Jews.[44]

44 #HR365 36-Strategies #3 - Use surrogates to do what you don't wish to be seen doing.

WWI

The outbreak of WWI in Europe does not make sense until one considers that the massive debt borrowed from the international banking system was the reason. The Central Powers, of which Germany was one, lost.

The Versailles Peace Treaty stripped Germany of her overseas colonies, much of her European land, and many of her peoples. She was required to pay reparations to the victors that demolished her monetary system and allowed agents of the victors to buy up German land and assets for pennies.

A man named Adolph Hitler became German leader by promising to end reparations, return German provinces and German people to their own country and to return aliens to their countries. This constituted a revolt against the International Trade Cartel; 54- countries declared war on Germany.

Casualties WWII

I wrote Hans Schmidt and asked what were the German casualties during WWII and after? The answer I received was this;

"Herbert R. Vogt wrote in the "New Yorker Staats-Zeitung edition Nr. 29:

"Soldiers killed during the war	3,250,000
"Civilians killed in air raids	1,000,000
"soldiers died in Pow camps	3,242,000
"Civilians killed or died when removed from their home towns	3,000,000
"civilians killed during the soviet occupation	680,000

	Total 11,172,000"

This total from an estimated total of perhaps 85m to 87,000,000 Germans, which counts Germans repatriated back to Germany from eastern Europe.

Large sections of Europe, traditionally German, have been ethnicly cleared. The property reclaimed by Adolf Hitler's government for the Germans in the aftermath of WWI has been again seized by Germany's creditors. Today, Germany is destitute; owning almost nothing within her borders, including land or businesses. Germany's puppet government still pays reparations almost 65 years after WWII. The country remains occupied by foreign armies and aliens occupy most of her cities and much of her countryside.

Conclusion

Throughout Saxon lands, Christian Law is banned in courts, government, and schools. Why? God's Law is sedition to the present rulers and their Gods.

The WORD teaches that we are to have no kings but those appointed by Jesus; "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings." Rev 1:5-6, and, the land is to be divided; "As the LORD commanded ... they divided the land." Jos 14:5.

Esau will not stand for this: "Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41

Chapter 422

MONEY MACHINE & CORPORATIONS

Money

Esau and his agents have misdirected and misled people through the ages so that their deeds remain hidden and unpunished. This is a false hope since the WORD clearly reveals the root of evil:

"The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10

Another verse tells why money is the root of all evil:

"Money answereth all things." Eccl 10:19

If the price is right, there are some who will willingly sell their souls. With enough money one can buy yachts, jets, plush homes in the Caribbean and movie stars.

One can rule people, cities, countries - seize their lands, reduce them to slavery, or drive them from the land and raise sheep. With enough money, one can force people to work in factories, tax them, and hire kings, armies, and police to make people obey one's wishes. Priests can even be hired to convince people that the misery they endure is their own fault and that it is God's will. "Money answers all things!"

Usury

The easiest way to obtain great amounts of money quickly is usury. The LAW brands it a capital crime, but when presented in a deceptive manner the victims can be made to blame themselves for their agonies rather than the lender.

Usury is a contract fraudulent from its conception. A victim is persuaded to borrow 10 items and repay 11 when only 10 items exist - or forfeit collateral. Foreclosure can be delayed by negotiating a new contract where a 12th item is promised to be paid and more collateral pledged. Still, since only 10 items exist, in time the borrower loses his possessions.

History calls usury "the ultimate deception". It empties the countryside, creates both the city and super-state, and requires kings, police, taxes, hucksters, and a corrupt priesthood to protect the monopoly. Usury is a capital crime;

> "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13[45]

[45] Historically, any interest was considered "usury". When priests themselves went into the business of lending money at interest, they changed the definition of usury to mean "excessive-interest".

Making Things Simple

Traditionally, usury bankers lend money to states they control and sit back and let the investment grow year after year. One thousand dollars borrowed at 7 1/2% in 100 years grows to a debt of $1,383,077.31.

At the farm rally in Nebraska in 1985, farmers gathered from all over the country. Thousands. The government had advised them to buy more land if they expected to prosper in the coming years. Most did. Interest on loans went to 20%. One thousand dollars borrowed at 20% requires repayment of almost $83 billion dollars in 100 years.

There are millions upon millions of usury loans in existence. Individuals borrow money; cities and counties borrow money, states, countries and corporations borrow money. Usury payments come flooding into banks. If the money-flood were actual cash, the usury payments would arrive in 18-wheeler trucks, bumper to bumper, in a never-ending stream.

Modern electronic bookkeeping makes modern usury possible. "The love of money is the root of all evil" and usury causes IOUs to multiply in unimaginable amounts - and in time the lender will take the borrower's possessions. In the meantime - what does the usurer do with all the money that is pouring into his coffers?

Investing Money

If left to live to himself, Jacob tends to invest in sole-ownership business or in partnerships.

Esau tends to invest his money through usury-banks or their agents called "corporations".

CORPORATIONS

A king, appointed by the merchant, was once sufficient to govern an agrarian land and its trade. King William conquered England and brought his Jewish usurers with him. These usurers reported directly to him or his agents.

The industrial revolution complicated matters. Enormous amounts of money were borrowed into existence requiring specialized corporate management teams. "Money Managers" were appointed. A new type of aristocracy came into existence.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines a "Corporation" as follows;

> Corporation: "1. A body that is granted a charter legally recognizing it as a separate legal entity having its own rights, privileges, and liabilities distinct from those of its members. 2. Such a body created for purposes of government. 3. A group of people combined into or acting as one body."

The same definition can describe a little country within a larger country. ITC corporations not only manage, but conceal what they are doing and who is giving the orders.

Congressman McFadden launched an investigation to discover who owned and controlled American utility companies. After years of trying to trace cross-ownerships, bank trusts and off-shore owners, he confessed that he had no idea who owned them. The same applies to other large corporations.

The American Colonies became part of the British corporation when they were first settled in 1607. Land-grants, taxes, appointments, slave-importation, wars, etc. were directed by the Crown. When America declared its independence, corporate rule took another form. Banking.

The Banking Corporation started with two banks in 1780. Soon there were thousands of banks.

Usury converted much of America's farmland into Corporate Farms. Rothschild interests were active in the 1830s land bubble.

The media became a division of in-house company "Corporate Newspapers" that began ruling people's minds. If there were other local newspapers in addition to the corporate newspaper - the "Corporate Newspaper" received advertising from other ITC corporations which gave it the wealth it needed to undersell and buy out its independent-competator. This gave the corporate-media a monopoly of creating people's opinions. President Jackson shut down the banking monopoly and it was then that America discovered that its stockholders lived in Britain.[46]

Most corporations are designed to be operated at a profit. Those that don't are absorbed by those that do. The ultimate objective is for ALL wealth to be owned by ONE corporation, and that one corporation owned by one person.

In practice - grocery stores have been absorbed into supermarkets; farms absorbed into corporate land-companies; drugstores absorbed into drug-chains; media outlets absorbed into media chains; state governments absorbed into the International Trade Cartel (ITC), also called New World Order, also called One World.

Managers Revealed

In recent years a business secret has been discovered; the media revealed that the owners and CEOs of some of America's biggest corporations are Arabs, Chinese and Indians. It is now believed that much, if not most, of America is owned and operated by strangers. It is these corporations that finance alien groups in our midst.

46 Loans belonging to a bankrupt bank are merely transferred to another bank who rules the debtors as they had been ruled before. "The borrower is servant to the lender".

For instance, the 4 main Hispanic-interests pressure groups are:

* The League of United Latin-American Citizens (LULAC)
* The Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund (MALDEF)
* The National Council of La Raza (La Raza)
* The Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Azlan (MEChA)

They agree that they want more immigration. They want as many government benefits as possible for non-citizens; and they want deportation of illegal aliens stopped. Some want non-citizens given the right to vote. They want government recognition of their own culture, language, and national holidays promoted by as much public money as possible. Hispanic activists describe their goal as reconquista, or "reconquest".

One would not expect Saxon corporations in America, owned by and managed by Saxons, to finance their historical enemies. Yet, the radical Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund (MALDEF) and National Council of La Raza (La Raza) are creatures of the Ford Foundation. This Foundation with a Saxon sounding name awarded the organization a 5-year grant of more than $2 million. At the end of 1996, MALDEF had total assets of over $7 million, most was money in the bank.

MALDEF gets funding from corporations - AT&T and IBM in particular - and foundations. It received millions from the Ford Foundation; the Carnage Corp, and the Rockefeller Foundation.

The FBI lists Hispanics as hate-crime victims, but, Hispanics who commit hate crimes are officially listed as "white".*

(* Based on an article in American Renaissance, March 2000.)

Corporate Power

A short time ago, corporations said that they needed more engineers - immediately. They hired thousands of engineers from abroad. American collages found that there was suddenly almost no demand for engineering graduates and so discontinued many of their engineering courses. Now, when American corporations need engineers in a hurry, they are forced to hire foreign engineers, or do without.

If alien owned corporations in America find that they can increase profits by moving their business "off-shore", they have no reason not to. As a consequence, America is rapidly being de- industrialized. The once great city of Detroit is now a ghost- town. Pittsburgh is close behind. Several others are close behind Pittsburgh.

America's Business Face

TV-business news has suddenly revealed that CEOs of some of America's largest corporations are sons-of-Esau. They had been hidden behind corporate one-way mirrors.

Members of Congress are advertised and elected by America's alien-owned corporate media. The individual candidates are those who have first been culled by America's one-party system.

These elected agents-of-Esau, who rubber-stamp their master's wishes, said that American farmers were not making enough money, and paid them to stop planting food-stuffs. Farms were shut down. Foreign producers quickly took the foreign markets once held by American farmers. Now, American farmers CAN'T return to farming because their markets have been taken.

If, for some reason - war, monetary crisis, or depression should cause America to be unable to obtain foreign food supplies - millions of sons-of-Jacob will starve in their own land - thanks to their own elected representatives.

Inventions & Corporations

Corporation contracts require that inventions made by its employees are the property of the corporation that employs them. If the corporate ownership is alien, inventions given the sons- of-Jacob by their God become the property of Esau - which is against God's LAW.

> "God is a ... revealer of secrets." Daniel 2:47; "The Lord possessed me (wisdom) in the beginning." Prov 8:22; "I (wisdom of God) find out knowledge of witty inventions." Pr 8:12; "Give not that which is holy (that which is of God) unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they ... turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6; "Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10

TRAITORS TO GOD AND NATION

God commanded that the land be divided so that man might obtain sustenance from his own land and his own efforts and be self- sufficient. Jacob's community service in militias and "barn- raisings" is voluntary and temporary. His first loyalty is to the WORD.

10-Commandments Of The WORD

1. One God, the WORD - Ex 20:3
2. No substitutes - Ex 20:4
3. No vainly asking for forbidden things - Ex 20:7; Mat. 5:33
4. One day rest in 7 - Ex 20:8-9; Ezek 20:12; Luke 13:14
5. Honor parents - Ex 20:12; Lev 19:3; Deut 5:16; Eph 6:2
6. Murder - Ex 20:13; Rom 13:9
7. Adultery forbidden- commercial, written, verbal, religious, racial - Ex 20:14; Deut 5:18
8. No theft - Ex 20:15; Lev 19:11
9. False witnesses - Ex 20:16, 23:1; Deut 5:20
10. Don't covet another's possessions - Ex 20:17

Note that the Ten Commandments of The WORD instruct the individual who is also a king and a priest.

CORPORATE DECEPTION

Esau rules the people-of-Jacob by hiring an agent to be king. Esau's money pays the agent's soldiers who police his subjects, and endows colleges and seminaries to teach his subjects. It is Esau's wishes that are enforced in lands in which he has appointed the king.

Corporations are created to transfer the people's wealth to the corporation. Most Saxons are forced to surrender their farms and small businesses and work for one of Esau's corporations. To keep their jobs and feed their families Jacob refrains from criticizing his Lawless rulers and speaking out against violations of God's LAW.

The greatest offenders are among those who call themselves Christian priests. Most ignore God's Commandments and teach fables. Most accept Esau's Law-of-the-land in place of The WORD. The result is empty churches and a Lawless people. The modern name for this kind of rule is "socialism". All Western nations are now subject to Socialist rule; the best known socialism is called "Communism".

10 Planks Of The Communist Manifesto

1. no private land ownership
2. progressive income tax
3. no inheritance (inheritances taxed)
4. confiscate rebels
5. centralized credit
6. communications & transportation regulated
7. production centrally owned (corporate)
8. equality of sexes
9. farms & factories combined (equally corporate)
10. public schools

Note that these 10-Planks are directed toward the operation of corporations. Note also that all ten planks have been enacted into law in the United States.

Integration

The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, created "man" and gave him Isaac's name. He appointed man to be "kings" and "priests"; they are to have no other king except the King of kings and no law except the WORD - the LAW which never changes.

Sons-of-Jacob thrive when they obey The WORD. They die when they disobey the WORD.

Mixed-breed sons-of-Esau integrating with Jacob leave only mixed-breed sons-of-Esau. Integration kills Jacob as surely as Esau's bullet.

Sons-of-Esau and their agents promote integration with Jacob by quoting the parable of the Good Samaritan who helped the man robbed by thieves.

"Good Samaritans" are blessed by their good works; they are also cursed if they violate God's Law which forbids them to mingle with Saxon-Israel.

> "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7, No 1:51[47]

Integrationists demand that "good-Samaritans" be accepted by sons-of-Jacob in Christian worship.

God's WORD speaking to the children-of-Israel is clear; "Where two or more are gathered together, there I am in the midst of them." Matt 18:20. The WORD says that this is the gathering that Esau approaches at the risk of his life.

---

47 "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (Heb: 2114 zûwr - foreigner, strange, profane, adulterous) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2

CORPORATE DECEPTION

Esau's corporations have a two-fold objective - to "manage" and to "deceive". Esau's corporations transfer Jacob's wealth to himself. Esau absorbs or "off-shores" Jacob's jobs. This forces Jacob to work for Esau to earn money to feed their families. To keep their jobs they are afraid to criticize their rulers and speak out against the violations of God's LAW - and by default - Esau's laws become the law-of-the-land.

Virginia Today

In central Virginia under control of industrial corporations, the cotton mills, steel mills, farm production, GE electronics, B&W nuclear-energy, etc. have been shut down and largely off-shored. Aliens receive favoritism for government jobs and more aliens have been imported to compete for the jobs left.

WARS OF SEPARATION

This last century and a half has seen country after country of the Saxon nation swallowed up by Esau's ONE WORLD. The children- of-Jacob have been slaughtered, enslaved, and scattered by the millions in the process. Esau's mixed-breeds have been brought in to take their lands and their jobs.

The American War Between the States, the Boer War, and WW II. were the result of the Saxons' attempt to remain separate.

JACOB'S NEXT WAR

The lands of Jacob have been conquered and the children-of-Jacob are being forced to renounce their God, or starve.

Sodomy, monopoly, usury-banking, theft of land, and miscegenation are not only tolerated but encouraged.

Such things will not continue forever. Something will trigger a revolt against the Lawless rule of Esau. Perhaps it will be the traditional reason for most revolts. Taxes.

Taxes

Jacob has been herded into Esau's cities where he is forced to pay tax-tribute for almost everything he does.

The coming war will be Jacob's War of Separation. Jacob is discovering that in spite of Esau's soothing words from his media, Hollywood and government edicts - Esau's rule has brought slaughter, mayhem, and misery to our people. Jacob has learned that the God Esau allows to be worshiped is not the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

The thing that has caused Jacob to revolt against Esau's rule more times than any other has been Esau's demand for tax-tribute. If people would take the time to compute how much money they would have without paying tax-tribute, they would be shocked.

Of course, they would have to make provision for the things they need, but it is certain that they could do it cheaper if they arranged to have it done themselves.

Remember, each penny not taken from Jacob in tax-tribute remains in his pocket: Here is a list of taxes;

Taxes

Accounts Receivable Tax;
Building Permit Tax;
CDL License Tax;
Cigarette Tax,
Corporate Income Tax,
Dog License Tax,
Federal Income Tax,
Federal Unemployment Tax (FUTA),
Fishing License Tax,
Food License Tax,
Fuel Permit Tax,
Gasoline Tax,

Hunting License Tax,
Inheritance Tax,
Inventory Tax,
IRS Interest Charges (tax on top of tax),
IRS Penalties (tax on top of tax),
Liquor Tax,
Luxury Tax,
Marriage License Tax,
Medicare Tax,
Property Tax,
Real Estate Tax,
Service charge taxes,
Social Security Tax, Road Usage Tax (Truckers),
Sales Taxes,
Recreational Vehicle Tax,
School Tax, State Income Tax,
State Unemployment Tax (SUTA),
Telephone Federal Excise Tax,
Telephone Federal Universal Service Fee Tax,
Telephone Federal, State and Local Surcharge Tax,
Telephone Minimum Usage Surcharge Tax,
Telephone Recurring and Non-recurring Charges Tax,
Telephone State and Local Tax,
Telephone Usage Charge Tax,
Utility Tax,
Vehicle License Registration Tax,
Vehicle Sales Tax,
Watercraft Registration Tax,
Well Permit Tax,
Workers Compensation Tax,

Not one of these taxes existed 100 years ago and our country was the most prosperous in the world.

The LAW of God's WORD says the following about taxes;

> "Of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto him, Of strangers." (Gr: allotrios - foreign, not akin.) ... Then are the children free." Matt 17:25-26.

When Caesar became belligerent about the refusal of tribute payment, they asked Jesus again. Jesus replied in a parable whose meaning is known to us and unknown to our enemies;

> "Shew me the tribute money (tax-money). And they brought him a penny. And he saith unto them, whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's." Matt 22:19-21

Caesar's law says one thing and God's LAW says another. Knowing the right thing to do is sometimes not the prudent thing to do. It may save one's life and liberty to follow the following suggestion made by Jesus;

> "Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them ... find a piece of money. That give unto them for me and thee." Matt 17:27

Jesus declared in parable that tribute is illegal. UnLawful tribute is theft; the law against theft applies - return twice the amount of the stolen property, or, 4 times if it has been spent or destroyed.

When black slaves became our masters and rulers after the war and imposed heavy taxes on us, we went to the banks to borrow tax money; "We have borrowed money for the kings tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards." Ne 5:4. The low price of commodities and the loss of foreign markets prevented us from repaying the bank-usury loans and the banks and their agents foreclosed our lands and we were forced to move to cities and work for Esau's corporations. It is the same with others of our kinsmen.

At the end of WW I, Germany was devastated and economically enslaved. She was forced to pay impossible reparations - a form of tax tribute. Her new leader renounced the reparations, seized the foreign owned lands and divided them among German farmers, seized foreign factories and turned their ownership over to the workers, repatriated foreigners and accepted the emigration of Germans living in other lands, banned foreign owned media; froze foreign debts to be paid in the future with German manufactured goods, banned usury, and issued Germany's own scrip.

Esau does not easily permit one to escape from his grasp:

Dr. Thomas Porter in his book: The Green Magicians on p.46 writes: "The Word published in Glasgow, England once stated: '...Marriner Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board and Montague Norman of the Bank of England agreed not later than 1935 on the joint policy of killing Germany's financial experiment by all methods including war, if necessary.'"

Conclusion

Jacob will escape from the rule of Esau and his agents.

The attempt may be a copy of previous political revolts. Or, it may be a copy of the successful warfare that is currently practiced in Esau's own lands.

It may result by casting away Organized Religion and bringing about a revival of God's Law with zealots meeting in private homes in the manner of their ancestors.

Or, Jacob's freedom may evolve from something that we have never thought of before.

But this is certain - whichever way it comes - Jacob will be free.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins; A big 'thank you' in a time like this is called for.

Aliens are not satisfied that they did not get all they were promised free of charge. Standerton for instance, they burnt their township; they burnt their townhall, municipal offices and their library plus many homes.

Not satisfied, they moved into town and did still more damage. All the roads are barricaded. The police and army do very little to little to protect property. They certainly don't use their firearms. Their Communist leader has much to say about these goings on.

A few of our people could clean this up in no time if given proper arms. My brother and sister-in-law stay in the old age home. The white women take turns preparing meals. I warned Mattie a long time ago about blacks and their nature if times turn bad and the danger of doing missionary work. But Papa was a church minister and that was how she grew up. I just hope they can defend themselves. Mercy is not something blacks have. They quickly revert to being savages.

The flu lingers on and leaves us tired. Anyway, life goes on. When we go out I sit on the 38-special revolver. I will certainly use it if I have to.

By next year the police say they hope to have a list of whites who have been killed by blacks - it will be in the thousands.

With lots of love, K.J.M.

What do you think of the predictions that economy will collapse, America is to fragment, and Europe is to be vastly changed Oct. 16, 2009? Barbara, New Zealand

RKH: I understand that at one time there were many books of Enoch. Today, there are only two that have survived that I know about - the Ethiopic and the Slavonic. The above quote was taken from the Slavonic found in the The Lost Books, p 92. Both books are worth taking the time to read.

About the catastrophes about to happen: When I worked with old Francis I. Dupont, one of my clients was the ex-minister of finance with Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese government. I told him that I had heard something similar to what you just mentioned and he said; "Mista Hoskin', I tell you som'ting, gov'ment can do what dey do long-time." Smart fellow.

I'm 81 now and I have heard many predictions of coming catastrophes giving date and time - things that have not happened. Remember what the Bible says - if a prophet makes a prediction and it does not happen, pay no more attention to him. I thought the economy was going to collapse 60-years ago and it's still going.

SS: Mr. Hoskins: I just read your Hoskins report about Germany and it comes as a breath of fresh air. What a pity that school children are fed the "holocaust" lie while White civilization dies. The silent genocide of immigration, abortion, sodomy and miscegenation are to be seen everywhere in the White world, with Britain leading the way. As one of mostly British ancestry, I find this particularly disgusting. The SS legions were the first line of defense for White civilization. I would love to see a Hoskins Report on the subject of non-White immigration to Britain in the post-war era. GENETICS

Identical Twins

Over two decades ago, on April 13, 1987, the US News & World Report ran an article dealing with a study done on identical twins.

The study showed that identical twins of the same race who were born of law-abiding parents tend to be law abiding even when placed with lawless adoptive parents. On the other hand, identical twins who are children of lawless parents tend to be lawless even when placed with law-abiding adoptive parents.

The article carries statements such as "heredity has a greater influence on one's personality and behavior than either one's upbringing or the most crushing social pressure." And "... a host of findings in behavioral and animal research conclude that genes profoundly influence human behavior and personality."

Experts were quoted as saying: "The evidence is so compelling that it is hard to understand how people could not believe in the strong influence of genetics on behavior.... The human mind, rather than being a tabula rasa to be filled in from birth by family and society, is 'hard wired' before birth with a predisposed personality ... Sociobiologists believe that such traits as aggression, criminal tendencies and intellectual ability may be biologically inevitable."

The above study shatters anti-white propaganda.

Five Thousand Years

The God of our father Jacob-Israel, was called "God The Word". He was strict. He demanded that his Laws be followed to the letter. Violators were severely punished.[48]

Those guilty of violating His Law against premeditated murder were ordered to be put to death. Execution to take place immediately. For thousands of years - generation after generation - the sons of Jacob-Israel have obediently put murderers to death. Because of this, families with a tendency toward premeditated murder have been weeded out before they establish colonies of murderers within our nation.

Murderers are rare among our people. In fact, it is difficult to find someone among our people who will take pay to kill. Practically speaking, when an ordinary middle class white can be hired to cold bloodedly stick a knife into someone - it causes public outrage.

48 heredity

In this present age of lawlessness, our people, for the most part, remain lawful, except for the occasional maverick who is quickly disposed of. The genetic lines of Jacob-Israel who would violate God's laws have been cut off over the generations. The result - like produces like.

Today

In spite of our people culling out their Lawless members over the ages, the prisons of the country are bursting with inmates. Most are aliens. Lawless strangers have entered our lands concealed by "trading corporations".

Using unLawful usury profits they have gained monopoly control of our country's media, manufacturing, money creation, and organized-religion.

The capture of the country's government allows them to use its armed forces and police as if they were their own. This power allows them to open the country's doors to still more of their Lawless kinsmen.

Esau's immigrants, genetically lawless, living beside Lawful sons-of-Jacob, creates a potentially explosive situation. Either the Lawful and their Law will prevail and suppress the Lawless and their Lawlessness, or the opposite will take place.

Defense

The natural defense against the Lawless rule of the sons of Esau is a return to the God of Jacob. The current modified "state religion" taught in our courtrooms and churches in time will be replaced with the undefiled WORD of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

The enemies of the God who come speaking of "peace" will be answered with the true WORD:

> "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword." Matt 10:34

Today is an age of war - not peace. God's Law clearly defines the rules of this unspoken war:

> "When the Lord thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them (business or treaty), nor show mercy unto them (tolerance): Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shall not give unto his son, nor his daughter shall thou take unto thy son. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly. But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire. For thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God: The Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth." Deut 7:2-6

These words are God's LAW. The WORD brands those who disregard God's LAW as enemies to be severely dealt with.

American Indians

The modern day American Indian is a descendant of braves who survived thousands of years of perpetual warfare. Their perpetual warfare allowed only skilled and efficient warriors to remain alive to produce children. Inefficient warriors died young without offspring. As a result many Indian villages maintained a ratio of five or six women for each brave.

Stealing provided payment for wives. Efficient thieves bought many wives who provided numerous offspring. Inefficient ones - none.

The pinnacle of Indian society for thousands of years has been occupied by their very best thieves and murderers. The inefficient were just as efficiently cut off.

An inspection of prisons in the western United States near Indian population centers bears witness to this selective breeding. The prison population in these areas is almost exclusively Indian. A white face is a rarity. It could not be otherwise.

Thieves and murderers have bred together for hundreds of generations - and thieves and murderers are the natural result. Like produces like.

Today, white man's law slaps the Indian into prison for practicing the law his ancestors practiced for thousands of years. The Indian, a product of hundreds of generations of selective breeding, is punished for doing what he was bred to do.

Virginia's Settlers

Virginia was settled in 1607. The British King gave Lawless instructions on how to deal with Lawless Indians. He demanded that the savages be integrated into the Saxon colony to increase the number of the king's subjects. The colonists were ordered to give them the "glad-hand treatment"; to "be nice". Racial intermarriage was encouraged. All of this was done in violation of God's explicit Laws. The result was chaos.

Captain John Smith's Observations

Virginia colonists paid with their blood for obeying their Lawless king.

Captain John Smith was a soldier who had fought the Turks in Europe; was captured by them and escaped. When he governed Virginia it was with an iron hand.

Following is his observation of conditions in Virginia copied from his journal.[49]

> "The Salvages being acquainted, that by command from England we durst not hurt them, (they) were much imboldened ...
> "(The colonists) houses generally open to the Salvages, who were alwaies friendly fed at their tables, and lodged in their bed-chambers, ... to effect the conversion of the Salvages ... yet such was the trechery of those people, when they had contrived our destruction, ... they came unarmed into our houses, with Deere, Turkies, Fish, Fruits, and other provisions, yea in some places sat downe at breakfast with our people whom immediately with their owne tooles they slew most barbarously, not sparing either age or sex, man woman or child, so sudden in their execution ... Neither yet did these beasts spare those amongst the rest well knowne unto them, from whom they had daily received many benefits, but spitefully also massacred them without any remorse or pitie."

---

49 The General Historie of Virginia, New England, and the Summer Isles (Caribbean), by Captaine John Smith, Vol II, from the London edition of 1629. Richmond, 1819: (Old English used the "v" written as "u". This has been changed for easier reading.

"That worthy religious Gentleman M. George Thorp, ... He thought nothing too deare for them, he never denied them anything, in so much that when they complained that our Mastives (dogs) did cause them to fear, he to content them in all things, caused some of them to be killed in their presence, to the great displeasure of the owners, and would have had all the rest guelt (neutered) to make them the milder ... He built (the Indian Chief) a house after the English fashion ... Thus insinuating himself unto this Kings favour for his religious purpose (modified state-Christianity), he conferred oft with him about Religion, as many other in this former Discouse had done, and this Pagan confess to him as he did to them, our God was better than theirs, and seed to be much pleased with that discourse ... yet as the sequell shewed, not onely murder him, but with such spight and scorne abused his dead corps as is unfitting to be heard with civill eares - .

"Captaine Nathaniel Powell ... they not only slew him and his family, but butcher-like hagled their bodies, and cut off his head, to expresse their uttermost height of cruely. ...[50]

Contaminated-christianity taught by state-priests in that day was no more "Christian" than the contaminated Christian teachings of state-priestss today. Nothing has changed - neither will the result of such teachings change. Smith continues:

Spare None

"The Deere, Turkies, and other Beasts and Fowle, will exceedingly increase if we beat the Salvages out > of the Country, for all times of the yeere they never spare Male nor Female, old nor young, eggs nor birds, fat nor leane, in season nor out of season with them all is one."[51]

50 Smith, p. 66- 68)

This lawless Indian lifestyle depleted their local food supply forcing them to frequently move to find food elsewhere. Their subsistance farmers stayed longer, but even they were forced to migrate when their land was worn out. The Indians' destruction of food sources and constant search for food caused them to migrate great distances in only a few generations. When they were later placed on reservations their age- old conduct caused them to soon use up the natural food supply forcing Washington to supply them with food to keep them from dying from famine.

Reversing Traits

It has been suggested that to reverse these inbred Lawless traits may require as many generations of selective breeding as it took to implant these traits in the Indians in the first place. Persons committing capital crimes (according to our Law) would have to be eliminated to prevent offenders from reproducing their own kind - and this must be on-going for the next several thousand years.

This treatment would be traumatic to the Indians, to say the least. However, their prison population is proof that their present conduct is traumatic to our people.

51 Ibid, p.100

Blacks

Africa's black leaders are today living proof of the success of selective breeding. Seemingly, only the most vicious and bloodthirsty rise to become presidents of black nations in a one time "free" election.

Blacks in the United States, having identical traits, have not fared so well. What is a survival trait in Africa is judged a criminal trait by the Law of the children of Jacob-Israel. The jails in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston furnish abundant proof. They are almost entirely black. Blacks do best the thing they have been bred to do. This gains them leadership of nations in Africa and a prison cell in Western countries. Like breeds like.

The dead resulting from African black-on-black massacres number in the millions. Whites who have fallen into their hands fare no better. The story of Haiti only introduces today's events.

Hispanic

Our people moved to Texas and lived peacefully under a treaty made with the Mexicans. The Mexicans unilaterally changed the treaty and sent large armies to force obedience from the "Texicans". A small group at the Alamo were surrounded and their defenses stormed by masses of Hispanics. The defenders were massacred

The Mexican army marched at will through Texas overwhelming small groups who offered resistance. In the process they captured several hundred prisoners. Then, they lined them up and shot them. Texans call it the "Golead Massacre".

It would be foolish to expect their descendants to behave differently if they again gain power over the "Gringo".

Orientals

The Huns, Mongols, Turks and Arabs have a long history of exterminating their enemies and leaving wide areas of their conquests devoid of human life. American POWs in the hands of the Oriental in WWII have stories to tell - which accounts for the "MIA blackout" by the country's alien media.

Khazar-Jews

The Financial Times of November 13-14, 2009 ran an article by a Jewish writer about how the vast majority of today's Jews converted to Judaism in the 8th century; that their fathers were Mongol, Turk, Arab etc., and there is little in the way of descent from the ancient Jews.

Children of Jacob-Israel have long known that the Law of their God states, "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ?" I John 2:9. The Jews deny that Jesus, "the WORD made flesh" is the Christ. This makes whatever they say about anything "suspect". The Law says, "By their acts ye shall know them."

Their entertainment media are full of "vampires", "magicians", and "sodomites" whom they re-named - "gay". The WORD has much to say on these subjects.

"Virgin" is a word held in derision by Hollywood;[52] their media creates discord among peoples; and their usury-banking where 10 exists and 11 is owed is the root-cause of wars that kill hundreds of millions.[53]

52 "Jesus Christ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5-6, "(A priest) shall take a virgin of his own people to wife." Lev 21:14

53 "Thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." Re 18:23

It is difficult to believe that those who follow such a law system are compatible with the Law of our God.

The US Today

The Government of the United States does many things disapproved by most Americans. It finances, feeds, and arms world communism. It unmercifully taxes its citizens. It sponsors forced busing, unlimited immigration, and casts a benign eye on unbelievably high alien crime rates while protecting the offenders.

History says that at some point Jacob-Israel may come to feel that peaceful efforts at reform are of no avail. They may even feel it necessary to adopt the more aggressive stance of their forefathers if they are to return the nation to obedience to the Law.

The King's Counter Move

The King who rules America today has taken every precaution to protect his kingdom against such a revolt by his subjects. Knowing that the army is the ultimate enforcer of his will, he has carefully selected its personnel.

A large part of its armed forces is made up of minorities. These groups hate White Americans with an intensity that is difficult to understand for those who don't know history. The formerly isolated assaults by its minorities on its white members is becoming commonplace.

Since like produces like, the army as now constituted cannot be counted on to protect the majority civilian population if they come under attack, and may even attack them if so ordered.

Conclusion

Today, there is a more rational and tolerant attitude in the land toward the study of genetics and inherited behavior than there has been in the past. This is seen by the USN&WR article on inherited characteristics mentioned earlier.

It may also be time to examine more closely the suggestions of the various sects of aliens that they be allowed self determination.

If minority populations are allowed to peacefully separate, go their way and rule themselves under their own law it will end the irritation that forced association of Lawful and Lawless populations engender. It will also sidetrack the approaching "difficult times" predicted by black, Indian, and Hispanic leaders.

Since like produces like, it appears that separation of the lawless from the Lawful is the practical way this goal can be peacefully achieved. Self determination and separation are ideas whose time has come for aliens. The return to the Law of their fathers is the future of our people.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins; The latest Hoskins Report reminds me about churches in Switzerland whose Lutheran ministers are paid by the state. The congregations are of little importance and the priests pass their days with social pursuits. The people have stopped attending church.

Since Dr. Heyns, the ultra-liberal preacher about 15 years ago, we are having the same problems. In former days ministers paid regular visits to their members and they were on hand when a family goes through problems. Now they only turn up for funerals and their visits are limited to rich members. They never rebuke current evils and neither do they give a hand to help people in need with things like soup-kitchens. Ordinary people are the ones who arrange to have food ready for distribution. When the ANC defames Christ it does not concern them.

Since Zuma came in, not a day has passed without blacks going on strike. The latest has been a strike by armed army personnel demanding a 30% increase in pay. They burned buildings and businesses and there was a dangerous standoff with the police until the thing quieted.

As for the frequent strikes, blacks still get paid while on strike so why work? A few years ago they said whites go to banks and get money. They had no idea that one must first put money in the bank before he can take it out.

The blacks have given up building the railway to Pretoria from Johannesburg. The reason? They got rid of the white engineers who had the necessary knowledge. The entire project was a waste of money.

It is interesting how liberals, mostly English, provide blacks with food and blankets, and, their newspapers never report the murder of an Afrikaner, but they write at length about blacks.

Many areas patrol their own neighborhoods at night. The patrols report any strange person in the area, and do better than security firms or the police. Many of those on patrol served in the border wars and know to react quickly. This is important since this particular area has lots of bush and trees. The many blacks from other parts of Africa coming is resulting in a low intensity war, but a war nonethesless.

Brazen thieves now attack churches. They rob cars parked outside and guards have to be stationed.

The racial question is getting worse - the blacks claim everything for themselves, but contribute nothing. They will not give a cent for their own poor, even if they own millions.

I hope this letter makes it out of the country.

Thank your readers again for all they are doing,

K.J.

DENMARK: An article by Daniel Pipes and Lars Hedegaard forecast, accurately, that the growing immigrant problem in Denmark would explode. In the article they reported:

"Muslim immigrants constitute 5 percent of the population but consume upwards of 40 percent of the welfare spending. Muslims are only 4 percent of Denmark's 5.4 million people but make up a majority of the country's convicted rapists, an especially combustible issue given that practically all the female victims are non-Muslim. Similar, if lesser, disproportions are found in other crimes." IMPACT LONDON: In the 2-years following the 1997 handgun ban, the use of handguns in crime rose by 40%. From April to November 2001, the number of people robbed at gunpoint in London rose 53%. Your chances of being mugged in London are now 6-times greater than in New York. England's rates of assault, robbery and burglary are far higher than America's and 53% of English burglaries occur while occupants are at home compared with 13% in the U.S. where burglars admit to fearing armed homeowners more than the police. VPI: In March 1982, the small town of Kennesaw, Ga. responding to a handgun ban in Morton Grove, Ill., unanimously passed an ordinance requiring each head of household to own and maintain a gun. The crime rate is actually significantly lower than it was in 1981, the year before passage of the law.

By comparison, the population of Morton Grove, the first city in Illinois to adopt a gun ban for anyone other than police officers, the city's crime rate increased by 15.7% immediately after the gun ban.

Virginia Tech is a so-called "gun-free zone," which Second Amendment supporters say invites gun violence especially from disturbed individuals seeking to kill as many victims as possible. Cho Seung-Hui murdered 32 and wounded another 15 before turning his gun on himself.

Chapter 424

ANTI-CHRISTS And A NEW DAY

Seventh Day Revival

Deep in the Financial Times of December 5-6, 2009, p.7, was an article that alerts the world of Esau that trouble is on the way from the House of Jacob.

Germany's federal constitutional court ruled that "Sunday shopping" is unconstitutional. Mercantilism has long clashed with Germany's postwar constitution. That document incorporates language from the 1919 Weimar Constitution to the effect that Sunday shall be a day of rest from work.

The Catholic and Evangelical-protestant churches, which brought the complaint, were not the only ones delighted with the ruling. So were trade unions, small shopkeepers, and most of the German population, religious or not, simply because they like a seventh day of rest.

"The judges described Sunday as a time not just for prayer but also for the pursuit of secular goals, such as personal rest, contemplation, recuperation and diversion".

The head of the Evangelical governing council justified the ruling as a means of protecting the public from "collective burnout".

Implications

The announcement that our people are beginning to return to the Law was not given front page headlines; it was hidden inside an internationally read newspaper. "Thy kingdom come Thy will be done ON EARTH" is sedition to Esau.

It will be interesting to see how many preachers of today's modified-Christianity will announce the "good news" that God's 4th Commandment, the "Day Of Rest", is being returned to Jacob-Israel. There are nine more Commandments to go after this one.

Now, let's look at the anti-christs who would prevent this day from coming.

Christ & Anti-Christs

"In the beginning was the WORD and the WORD was with God and the WORD was God." The WORD, our God, created "adam-man" and gave him the world to rule. "God said, Let us make man in our image ... and let them have dominion over ... all the earth." Gen 1:26

Christ is the WORD. His WORD is LAW.[1] Opposition to the WORD is "anti-Christ". When one follows another way or another god it is called "idolatry". The universal name for "idolatry" is "Hinduism" - the religion of the international merchant and his people.

Hinduism, the merchants' religion, was created so far back in time that there is no record of its creation, but we know that writings read by the first century Christians relate the following:

> "When the accursed serpent saw Adam and Eve it ... made straight for Eve, and ran after her ... Then the Word of God came to the serpent, and ... a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, and threw it on the sea shore, and it landed in India." I Adam & Eve 18:1-9[1]

This verse is one reason for the belief that India is the early home of Satan the serpent - the anti-Christ. In India, gods are usually depicted in company with serpents, the sign of deception.

Another interesting verse comes from I Adam & Eve 69:9-11;

> "Adam and Eve returned from the mountain ... and went down ... to the place where their corn was, but when there, a multitude of beasts came all round them. It was Satan's doing ... in order to wage war against Adam through marriage."

Bible students know that "mountain" in Scripture can mean a large political or religious force, a "hill" means a small one. Students also know that God created "man" and "beast". He did not create the mixed-breed, now called a "human", or

1 Adam & Eve is found in the Lost Books, VPC, POB 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505

"hued-man". That word is of more recent vintage. The fact that beasts came to "wage war against Adam through marriage" reveals the kind of beasts of which we are speaking.[2]

This is an early example of the anti-Christ using racial intermarriage as warfare to destroy adamic-man.

Hindu Religion

To the Western mind, the Hindu religion is a hodge-podge of mis-information, imagination, magic, evil-spirits, gurus, witches, and make believe. Hindu merchants were among the first, if not the first, to use usury, a form of make-believe magic where one attempts to repay ten items with eleven when only ten items exist. This sleight-of-hand has allowed them to amass virtually unlimited wealth.

The open handed disposition of this make-believe wealth has allowed them to make slaves out of otherwise clear-headed men. As it is written, "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10. The WORD condemns usury which is why Christians condemn usury, "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

Those caught in the usury web will often accept the teachings of Hinduism to ingraciate themselves to their lenders. Others accept these beliefs simply to enrich themselves. The sons of Esau accept the teachings because it is natural for them to do so. "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one

2 "Beast" wears clothing in Jonah 3:8, "Beast", "cries mightily unto God". Johah 3:8, "Beast" has hands. Exodus 19:13, "Beast" capable of mixing with man. Jer. 31:27, "Beast" keeps the vineyard. Song of Solomon, Chap 1., Jesus called the Syro-Phoenician woman a "dog". Dogs, swine, beasts, descriptive words for lawless non-man.

who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

Kaliyuga

The world is not naturally chaotic. The chaos is the result of the thinking of those who possess the world's wealth.

A basic Hindu belief is that time is divided into 20,000 year increments called "yugas". The present age is Kaliyuga named for Kali the black goddess of death. Hindus believe that the present day is a bad age full of deception, disease, wars, suffering and death. The only way that this evil age can be ended and a new "good-age" can be born is for life on earth to be extinguished. There are many people worldwide who hold this belief.[3]

Black

The color of the age of Kaliyuga is black. India's gods are black - its devils are white. There is a widely held belief that just when a great catastrophe is about to end life on earth so that a good age can be born, white devils step forward with their doctors to end epidemics and provide food to prevent mass starvation, which keeps this evil age from ending and a new age of goodness from arriving. Therefore, the world's greatest enemy is the white devil. White people are called "white devils" in most non-white countries of the world.

There has been many attempts to kill the "White devils", but most efforts only cause the survivors to unite in common defense.

3 "Kalki" who is yet to appear, will be revealed in the sky, seated upon a white winged horse, with a drawn sword like a blazing comet." (Error's Chains, p.301.)

Killing The White Devil - Softly

Esau knows Jacob's Law. Jacob's Law says, "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2. When whites allow their offspring to become mixed-breeds they are no longer Jacob-Israel and are no danger to Esau. The way to destroy the white race, with the least backlash is by racial intermarriage. It has worked many times in the past. The country of India was once half black and half white. Now it is half black and half mixed-breed, and ALL Esau - a victory gained by integration.

Buddhist Dharmamattras

Hindus have schools that teach Buddhism and Yoga. Both are missionary arms of Hinduism. Special priests, called "Dharmamattras" travel worldwide teaching "Dharma"; "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.- 232 B.C.;[4]

> "In the past there were no officers charged with spreading Dharma. I created these posts in the 13th year of my reign. These officers are commissined to work with all sects in establishing and promoting Dharma." The Edicts of Asoka, Rock Edict V, p.58. Trans. by N.A. Nikam & Richard Mckeon, Univ Chicago, 1959

In brief, Dharma teaches "tolerance" - tolerance of things that the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob does not tolerate.

4 Dharmamatra converts are called different names in different countries; In the West they are called by the names of the religious sects they infiltrate, or just plain "liberals".

Today, Dharma is spread by Esau's corporations that endow seminaries and colleges, and by establishing public schools whose curriculum is set by puppet governments elected by Esau's media. Dharma, the mind-set of Esau, is taught to the children of Jacob.

Integration

The LAW says, "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." De 23:2

England was ruled by Lawless kings appointed by the great merchants of the world. These kings created a Lawless empire that accepted children of Esau. The priests of the king modified their state religion to make this possible - the king's priests taught that the kings word was sacred.

The English king demanded that the Jamestown colonists integrate with the Indians. Aliens were made knights and nobles of the British Empire. The Indian massacres of 1622 and 1644 slowed the process.

The Lutheran and Roman Catholic state religions demanded the same of its people. The result is that practically every Catholic land has become, or is in the process of becoming, a mixed-breed land of Esau. The same may be said of lands ruled by Protestant state religions.

Civil War - Traitor

The effort to free the Blacks and remove them from America to Liberia was not acceptable to integrationists who served as agents of Esau. Removing them did not achieve their objective of integration which is necessary to destroy Jacob-Israel.

To understand what Esau's agents expect we have the writings of the integrationist David Croly (1829- 1889) as an example.

"It is idle to maintain that this present (Civil War) is not a war for the negro. It is a war for the negro. Not simply for his personal rights or his physical freedom ... it is a war if you please, of amalgamation, so called ... a war looking, as its final fruit, to the blending of the white and black ... Let it go on until ... church ... state ... society recognize ... the necessity of the fusion of the white and black." ...

"The ideal or type man of the future will blend in himself all that is passionate and emotional in the darker races, all that is imaginative and spiritual in the Asiatic races, and all that is intellectual and perceptive in the white races. He will also be a composite as regards color. The purest Miscegen will be brown, with reddish cheeks, curly and waving hair, dark eyes, and a fullness and suppleness of form not now dreamed of by any individual people." Miscegenation, David Croly (1829-1889)

Ian Smith - Traitor

The following is an open letter to Ian Smith by a fellow Rhodesian who objected to his integration efforts:

"Former Prime Minister of Rhodesia, at first resisted, then surrendered a whole nation to Communists....

"Smith knew that White control of Rhodesia meant that farms would be run efficiently, that everyone would be fed and that Western law and order would be maintained. Handing Rhodesia over to Black rule in 1965 meant a corrupt and tyrannical Black tribal chief would take over the country and drive it into the ground....

"Ian Smith declared Rhodesia independent in 1965. From 1972 to 1979, a war with Communist rebels took place. The Communists butchered White and Black civilians and even shot down two civilian airliners in terrorist attacks. White mercenaries from all around the world joined the Rhodesian Army to fight the Communists.

"Due to political maneuvering by the leftist Jimmy Carter administration, the US cut a deal with South Africa to betray Rhodesia. South Africa began an embargo of many items which Rhodesia needed. Instead of holding out through tough times, Ian Smith capitulated and handed over Rhodesia and hundreds of thousands of Whites to Black Communist rule.

"Despite this shameful capitulation, some White people foolishly think Ian Smith is not a traitor to the White race. Of course the battle with the Communist insurgents became more difficult without South African help, but Rhodesia produced its own food and the Rhodesian Army was killing dozens of communist troops for every one of their soldiers lost. They literally could have rearmed their army with captured enemy AK47s and kept fighting indefinitely....

"Did Smith hold out as long as he possibly could? NO! ... Did Smith GIVE the Black Communists total control of Rhodesia? something which the Blacks may never have been able to win on the battlefield? Yes, he did and he deserves our eternal contempt for that....

"The false sense of security that the peaceful transfer of power that Ian Smith signed onto led to many White families being butchered on their farms by Mugabe's thugs and who knows how many White women raped by Black savages. Nice job, Ian.

"Sure, the South Africans betrayed him, but he was still in charge of Rhodesia. .... If anyone doesn't think a lone White-led force could hold out very long in Africa cut off from outside help, read about von Lettow-Vorbeck in World War One. He resisted superior enemy forces in German East Africa (Tanzania) from 1914 to the end of the war in 1918. He only disbanded his force after learning of the end of the war in Europe weeks after it was over."

by James Buchanan - November 25th, 2007, (Google:ian smith traitor)

I was told by an American who had fought with Rhodesia that the communists were beaten and the country was quiet when Smith suddenly turned the country over to the communists. Rhodesians were flabbergasted! They didn't believe that he was actually doing it.

F.W. de Klerk - Traitor

On Wednesday, January 21, 2009, Afrikaner Petrus van Eeden published the following open letter to South Africa's last white president, Frederick W. de Klerk, who together with the country's first black president Nelson Mandela received the Nobel Peace prize. Van Eeden writes to De Klerk -

"With great sadness and deep disappointment, I address myself to you. In 1989 you became president of South Africa. ... in 1990, you gave away South West Africa without even once consulting the voters of South Africa about this important decision. You took a decision without having any mandate for it.

"In 1992 we did hold a referendum about the question whether you as president, would be allowed to negotiate with the African National Congress. The referendum question was 'negotiation' not 'surrender. You made a promise at this time: that there would be a second referendum after you had completed your 'negotiations'. We never saw this second referendum.

"You handed over the country to the African National Congress without any mandate from the white electorate.

"During your negotiations with the ANC, a proposal was also placed before you to turn South Africa into a federal state similar to the Swiss canton-system: i.e. one language and one culture per canton. This successful recipe has been used since 1 August 1291 in Switzerland. And multilingual countries such as India, Canada and Belgium also use this winning recipe to become canton-style Federations. ...

"During the 1992 referendum, a full 68.73% of the voters agreed that you were allowed to negotiate with the ANC. Negotiate, not surrender.

"In 1994, you decided unilaterally to give away a South African harbour, Walvis Bay. You had no mandate to give away bits of our territory. You just did it.

"Within five years, you destroyed the centuries-old dream of the Afrikaner to rule himself over his own little bit of land. This motivated all our forebears; the Great Trek, the Anglo-Boer war. It was all for nothing. Five destructive years under your rule. Then you snuck off quietly from the political scene. ...

"Today, many of my people are being murdered. Tomorrow, planeloads of Afrikaner emigrants depart from our airports. Our schools are being deliberately Anglicized. Our universities, paid for out of our own pockets, are overwhelmed by black students where white students are being denied access. We now are a nation with the threat of genocide hanging over all of us ... .

"You have betrayed us Mr F W de Klerk."

Petrus van Eeden - Open Letter To F.W. de Klerk (Google: fw deklerk traitor)

Tony Blair - Traitor

"The huge increase in immigration into Britain over the past decade was a deliberate attempt to engineer a more multicultural Britain ... said Andrew Neather, a speech writer who worked in Downing Street for Tony Blair and in the Home Office for Jack Straw and David Blunkett ... Labour's relaxation of controls was a plan to 'open up the UK to mass migration'. ... Ministers hoped to change the country radically". (London Daily Mail reporter.) (Impact Dec/2009/Jan 2010)

Establishment Traitors

Lou Dobbs built a large following among American patriots using his CNN show to take strong stands against the incoming immigration flood and against off-shoring American industry.

Recently he left CNN with an $8 million severance package and is hinting that he may run for elective office.

The Wall Street Journal's Peter Wallsten notes that Dobbs is working to repair the damage he has done with the Hispanic community. He is now positioning himself as a champion of that ethnic bloc. In a little noticed interview Dobbs told Spanish- language network Telemundo he now supports a plan to legalize millions of undocumented workers, and,

"Whatever you have thought of me in the past, I can tell you right now that I am one of your greatest friends and I mean for us to work together." (see Nationalist Times, Dec 2009, p.23.)

Dobbs' betrayal was startling in its abruptness but not unexpected. Media opinion-makers must be assumed to have "the mind-set of Esau" or they wouldn't have been hired in the first place. "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore [is] wrath upon thee from before the LORD." 2 Ch 19:2

Pat Buchanan, the great opinion-making conservative who ran for president, hoisted Esau's flag when he selected a black to run as his vice-president. "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

Ron Paul remains America's great white hope but he will not commit himself on race or immigration. "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17

Media Mission

Esau controls the media. Its mission is to change the Jacob mind-set into an Esau mind-set so that Jacob can be easily destroyed through Dharma "tolerance".

A prime method has been to make heroes of the children of Esau while ignoring those of Jacob. Its present handling of the Tiger Woods affair is educational.

Tiger Woods

The black golfer "Tiger Woods" is said to have been found lying in the street with what appeared to be the print of a golf-club on the side of his head. His white wife was supposedly standing next to him holding a golf club.

The media had long held forth that Tiger Woods was a squeaky-clean black, married to a beautiful white woman. The "squeaky-clean" image of the interracial marriage was destroyed. Then, the media claims that a dozen or so white women have pushed their way forward each eagerly claiming to be his mistresses. Each new claim is hammered home to teach the American public the desired mindset.

The media runs picture after picture of their two half-breed children. Beautiful mongrel children. This is the world of Esau. This continues Esau's Hollywood aristocracy adopting children from Africa and Asia as an example to Jacob.

The Children

What is to be done with Tiger's half-breed children? It is said that the white mother wants to take them back to Sweden. Sweden is said to be a Christian country. If in fact it is - the Law that will be obeyed is:

> "When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3.

The Law deals with their white mother:

> "If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien), she may not eat of an offering of the holy thing (daily food blessed by God), But if the priest's daughter be a widow or divorced, and have no child*, and is returned unto her father's house .... she shall eat of her father's meat;*

but there shall no stranger (Heb: zûwr - "racial alien") eat thereof." Lev 22:12-13

Simply put, if she wishes to return to a Christian Sweden she must first dispose of her half-breed children.

Judges

Esau's governments, courts, and media are judging this matter today, but it will not always be so. The ones who will ultimately judge this matter are those of the house of Jacob whom God made kings and priests:[5]

As things presently stand, if Tiger's white wife wishes to return to her father's home in Sweden she must do the same as Abraham did. She must "be a widow or divorced and have no child."

It is the Law.

Conclusion

The earth's market areas are called "countries". Esau's agents keep peace between their customers within each country by teaching Dharma; "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed."

There are two basic types of money systems; Esau's system called the "usury" system and Jacob's system called the "non-usury" system.

The American South had a largely non-usury system as did South Africa. Both were invaded, their people slaughtered and their lands confiscated with taxes and usury. Germany attempted to revive a non-usury monetary system; she was invaded, her people slaughtered, and her lands taxed and confiscated.

The Law System of the God of Jacob forbids usury as well as business and social dealings with sons of Esau. Esau uses his money system to rule the lands of Jacob. He selects Jacob's kings, priests, and great merchants. Dharma has replaced The WORD.

But, the The WORD says:

> "Jacob have I chosen ... I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away. Fear thou not; For I am with thee; be not dismayed; for I am thy God ... and they that strive with thee shall perish." Isaiah 41:8-11

The future peeks over the horizon like the first rays of morning. Already, one of the lands of Jacob has reinstalled the "Day of rest". The arrival of the rest of the Commandments can't be far behind. God graciously answers our prayers; *"Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, ON EARTH!"

Esau, run while you can, and take your servants with you, for we know who they are.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins; Betzy had a difficult time. Two boys got hurt and one developed an infected foot. She had no option but to take him to the government hospital. I did not ask what nationality the doctor was, but without proper investigation he simply wanted to amputate the foot. Betzy saw to it that they opened the wound, properly cleaned it and removed the pus. It looked fine and healed well. No need for an amputation. We've come a long way from 1985.

We are busy, holidays and visitors. Happy New Year, K.J.

Naval Academy Clearances

"Of the 1,230 plebes who took the oath of office in the Naval Academy in Annapolis this week, 434 were members of minority groups," according to the Washington Post.

Bruce Fleming, an English professor for 22-years, who sat on the board of admissions, objects to a race-based admissions program that was used to create a class that is 35% minority.

According to Fleming, white applicants must have all As and Bs and test scores of at least 600 on the English and math parts of the SAT to even qualify for a "slate" of 10 applicants from which only one will be chosen.

"On the other hand, if you are African-American, Hispanic, Indian or Asian, SAT scores to the mid 500s with quite a few C's in classes may produce a vote of "qualified" with direct admission to Annapolis. Those with scores and grades down to the 300s and C's and D's may be sent to Naval Academy Preparatory School.

Fleming quotes the Superintendent of the Naval Academy, Vice Adm. Jerry Fowler as saying, "diversity is the number one priority" at the academy. He wants Annapolis graduates who "looked like" the fleet, where 42% of enlisted personnel are non-white. (Condensed from Opinion, Patrick J. Buchanan, p.4A, July 10, 2009)

Chapter 425

The Best Bible

Our Bible says;

"In the beginning was the WORD, and the word was with God and the WORD was God." John 1:1; "I am the God of thy fathers, The God of Abraham, and God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." Ex 3:6

God The WORD requires obedience to his WORD; He states;

"For I the Lord, do not change." Mal 3:6; "All scripture is given by inspiration of God." 2 Pet 1:20; "The scripture cannot be broken." John 10:35; "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever." Heb 13:8; "It is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the Law to fail." Lu 16:17

Still, anti-christs demand forbidden things. They want kings, monopolies, usury, and to bring strangers into our midst.

Getting Around The WORD

"Kings" are forbidden. Israel demanded kings. When they got kings, conditions became progressively worse.

King Omri is an example. He was Israel's most renowned king. Micah 6:16 says that he substituted his own "statutes of Omri" in place of the commandments, statutes, and judgments of the WORD.

When a king has an armed force strong enough to enforce his wishes, he can take the people's land for himself and create his own monopoly. He can force his subjects to pay forbidden taxes; he can bring strangers into his lands to provide cheap labor and provide more profit.

Powerful "strangers" living in other lands can hire an anti-christ king as their agent to conquer and hold Jacob-Israel in bondage. Then, the Strangers can replace The WORD with their own laws

The WORD In Early Days

The WORD has always existed. When Adam-man obeyed The WORD he prospered. Disobedience to God's Laws is always punished.

In spite of the consequences, there are those who wish to censor the Scriptures so that they might do evil and say that God permits them to do so.

The fear of Lawlessness bringing catastrophe down on everyone's head is why people study to learn what the Scriptures really do and do not allow. There are several ways of doing this.

Memory

To this day, in Ireland there are exceptional men who have remarkable memories. They are able to quote extensive genealogies and literatures almost exactly line for line and word for word time after time.

In the old days, important things were kept in memory to avoid the heavy hand of evil rulers. Rulers can force people to change written documents, but they can't force people to change their minds and be sure that they have actually done it.

It is said that a number of these remarkable people can quote the Bible from beginning to end without a single mistake.

Greek

Alexander the Great (356-323 B.C.) conquered the ancient world. Before he died, he divided his newly conquered empire among his generals. This is how Egypt came to be ruled by Greeks.

In the 3rd century B.C., the Greek ruler of Egypt established a library at Alexandria. It was the greatest storehouse of knowledge in the world. Every place ruled by Egypt was required to send copies of manuscripts in their possession to this library. Scrolls were brought from foreign lands to add to the collection.

Jerusalem had been ordered to send copies of her manuscripts. One day a rumor reached the Egyptian ruler that there were "concealed" works that had not been sent. There were men in Judea who had memorized ancient stories and records and these had not been recorded and sent to the Egyptian library as commanded.

To rectify this, Egypt's ruler sent for seventy-two of these wise men. When they arrived, he put each in a room separate from the rest and ordered them to write the Scriptures that they had memorized. They were warned that if any one of them wrote something different from the others he would be put to death. The result was identical copies.

This is why the earliest written Scriptures are in Greek and also why they were named Septuagint". Septuagint means "seventy".

The Return

Israel and Judah were taken into captivity. Judah and Benjamin returned from Babylonian captivity to find much of the land that they had left was inhabited by the children of Esau - the Edomites.

Making matters worse, the land of Judea was now ruled by a harsh Greek ruler. Scripture records the following;

> "King Antiochus (the Greek king) wrote to his whole kingdom that all should be one people, and every one should leave his laws: so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king. Yea, many also of the Israelites consented to his religion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the sabbath." I Macc 1:41-43 (Apocrypha)

The suppression of The WORD and the enforcement of the Laws of foreign rulers triggered a series of revolts known as the The Maccabean Wars.

The wars went on year after year as the Judean-Israelites fought the armies sent by the Greek rulers combined with the local Edomites and renegade Israelites who had accepted Antiochus' decree to leave their Laws.

At last, they were victorious and the Greeks left them alone and allowed them to worship their own God.

Sadducees

In the years that followed, an Israelite ruler named Hyrcanus conquered the Edomites to the south of Judea. In violation of the WORD, he made these aliens honorary-Israelites by giving them the choice of swearing to obey The Word and be circumcised or being put to death. Most chose to become Judeans. They entered the nation of Judea where most gathered in a cult called "Sadducees".

These Sadducees became a nation within a nation. They claimed to be Israelites but did not believe in an after-life and ignored all except written secular laws. They were lax and worldly monied aristocrats who favored Greco-Roman culture, and were negative toward religious questions. Josephus, in Antiquities 13:6:6 said, "The Sadducees are able to persuade none but the rich." King Herod, king of Judea, the one who killed the Israelite children, was an Edomite.

Jerusalem

In time, the Roman Empire conquered the Greek Empire.

In 87 AD, Judea revolted against Roman rule. Josephus, the leader of the armies of northern Judea near the Sea of Galilee, was heavily outnumbered by the Roman army and forced to surrender. Since the Roman army had suffered few casualties, the people of Galilee were spared the wrath of the Romans.

It was different when the Romans reached Jerusalem. The city resisted fiercely. Many were killed in the fighting before the city was finally stormed and destroyed. The citizens who were not killed were enslaved and sent to work on the canal from the Nile River to the Red Sea in Egypt.

The Romans allowed Josephus to enter the temple in Jerusalem just before it was destroyed and take out many priceless manuscripts which Josephus included in his writings. Some of them were almost identical to the Greek Septuagint written in Egypt 400 years before.

Rome's Problem

The people of Judea had learned to follow the teachings of the heathen gods of Greece and Rome. This changed when Jesus Christ brought back the WORD. It spread like wildfire.

The WORD caused problems. It required believers to do things that would destroy an "empire". One cannot be an Israelite-Christian and a Roman Imperialist at the same time. The WORD taught that kings, monopolies, taxes and usury were forbidden and Israelites were not to have dealings with strangers.

These requirements destroy an empire if they are carried out. To survive, empires must suppress the WORD.

Christianity Nationalized

The Roman Empire tried to destroy the WORD with crucifixions, executions and feeding its followers to the lions. Failing in this, Rome changed its technique and took over Christianity and made it Rome's state religion. The state selected its bishops who in turn selected its priests who taught Rome's subjects what the Empire wanted them to know - and censored what they did not want them to know.

Roman Manuscripts

It wasn't until 367 AD, that a "Christian" Canon was approved. It was still later that they stopped adding and removing books.

We are taught that there were just 66 books in Scripture and that is all there have ever been. This is not true. At the time of Jesus, and for hundreds of years before, there were many versions of the books contained in what is now called the "Old Testament". Most contained the same Laws, Statutes and Judgments as the rest, but, each added interesting details.

For instance, one of these manuscripts tells how Moses became a general in the Egyptian army and became ruler of one of Egypt's new provinces. The Laws, Statutes and Judgments remained the same, only in this case the story of Moses was expanded.

The New Testament

At the time of Jesus there was no New Testament. It hadn't been written. When Jesus' Disciples spoke of The WORD they referred to the Old Testament. In time the New Testament was added.

Choosing The Books

While putting together what we now call the "New Testament", Rome tried to please everyone. In the City of Rome the book of Mark was most popular - so they chose this;

Matthew came from Antioch, John came from Ephesus, Paul came from Marcion's "The Pauline Epistles".[6]

In spite of everything, the effort was chaotic. A priest named Jerome was appointed to restore order. The "Jerome" revision of the Scriptures is known as the Vulgate."

When Roman Christianity was made the "state religion" other religions were banned. Roman "provinces" were re-named "dioceses", and it was decreed that only priests were allowed to read and teach the Scriptures. The WORD was then whatever the priest said it was and secret agents of the Roman state put an end to most home churches.

With this, many religious manuscripts that had been in existence for centuries faded into oblivion. Following is a list of some of the manuscripts that have been lost:

Recovered Books

In recent years a number of ancient manuscripts have been recovered from Egyptian tombs, distant temples, and from the archives of the great temple in Constantinople and the one in Madrid. Some of these are known to the readers; They include "The Book Of Enoch, from the Ethiopic; The Book of Jubilees, also from the Ethiopic; The LOST BOOKS, which contain 26 such books, the Apocrypha - and others which can now be found in book stores.

Bible History

To select the Bible to study that suits you we must review history;

1,500 B.C.: The Ten Commandments were delivered to Moses, written on stone.

500 B.C.: All Original Hebrew Manuscripts which make up The 39 Books of the Old Testament were in existence in one form or another.

300 B.C.: The Septuagint in Greek containing The 39 Old Testament Books and 14 Apocrypha Books

1st Century AD: All 27 Books of the New Testament existed.

382 AD: Jerome's Latin Vulgate containing 80 Books (39 Old Test.; 14 Apocrypha; 27 New Test). Latin: Only Language Allowed for Scripture.

995 AD: Anglo-Saxon (English Translations of The New Testament produced)

1384 AD: Wycliffe; First (Hand-Written) manuscript copy of the Complete Bible; All 80 Books.

1455 AD: Gutenberg Printing Press; The First Book Printed is the Bible in Latin.

1522 AD: Martin Luther's German New Testament.

1560 AD: The Geneva Bible Printed; The First English Language Bible to add Numbered Verses to each Chapter (80 Books). Included politically sensitive margin notes by the authors. It was the first Bible brought to America and was used exclusively for the first 50 years.

1609 AD: The Douay Old Testament; added to the Rheims New Testament (of 1582); First Complete English Catholic Bible; Translated from the Latin Vulgate (80 Books).

1611 AD: King James Bible; printed with all 80 books.

1791 AD: Isaac Collins and Isaiah Thomas Produce the 1st Family Bible & 1st Illustrated Bible printed in America; all 80 Books.

1833 AD: Noah Webster's Bible.

1885 AD: The "English Revised Version" Bible; The First Major English Revision of the KJV. The Apocrypha was removed in 1885 leaving only 66 Books. Much of the Apocrypha teaches resistance to state religions which is interpreted as "sedition". This makes it hard to control people's minds so those who would be kings had it censored from the Bible.[7]

1901 AD: "American Standard Version"; American Revision of the KJV - Apocrypha censored.

1971 AD: The "New American Standard Bible" - Apocrypha censored.

There have been a number of other Bibles printed since 1971.

7 "So they joined their forces and smote sinful men ... So they recovered the Law out of the hand of the Gentiles and out of the hand of kings." I Macc 2:44,48

Status Of Bibles Available

There have always been attempts by state religions to censor the Law and replace it with their own edicts.

The Geneva Bible with its margin notes was replaced by the KJV; the 14 books of the Apocrypha were censored from the Bible in 1885; Bibles such as the Scofield Reference Bible have controversial footnotes.

On the other hand, much has been added with the discovery of the so-called "Lost Books". The Strong's Concordance remains a wonderful help, not forgetting Biblical additions and deletions and mis-translations which have been discovered and corrected in recent years.

Today's Enemy

Today's enemy is the same enemy our people have had in days gone by. Kings and their followers want tribute from the rest of the population - a process that in time leaves the people destitute.

Jacob's enemy Esau, who has sworn to kill his brother Jacob, continues his age-old effort. He and his agents are busily importing immigrants to clear Western lands of Christian Israelites. These immigrants can also borrow money into existence and produce wealth for less, which lowers the Western standard of living which in turn lowers Western birth-rates.

Esau and his agents are also busy removing every evidence of the WORD from the government, its courts, its coinage and schools.

Today's Reaction

Much of Esau's warfare against Jacob is a continuation of the age-old war with this exception; tomorrow's leaders of our people are studying the WORD. In spite of media disinformation and actions of our dusky king, those whom God has chosen have begun using the WORD to judge matters. This is a quantum leap from the way things were only twenty years ago.

The prophecies of the WORD are coming to pass exactly as written. The great churches have failed and most stand nearly empty as increasingly desperate people look elsewhere for their salvation.

They look to the WORD. In our land today there are tens of thousands who are becoming expert in the Law. Esau's media and money changers promote evil everywhere to capture men's minds. When Esau's world breaks down, as it always does, those whom God has appointed kings and priests will step forward as leaders.

Which Bible?

Which Bible should you choose? Any Bible contains useful information. You will never find a Bible that someone hasn't tried to tamper with, but within each you will find the Laws, Statutes and Judgments. This is the important thing. It's not the Bible that is important - it's what's in the Bible - and the Law that is in them has never changed. The Law is the Law.

As has been said before, the skeptic may not believe in the law of gravity, but stepping off an 18 floor building will settle the matter. The law of gravity is one of God's Laws. The same is true with the rest of the Laws.

The answer to our problems lies in His WORD, and His word says;

"Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever." Heb 13:8

Letter From South Africa

A Christmas card came from the Loeries drawn by one of the children along with a letter and a photo.

Betzy went to Wilke's Home at the sea with some of the children. Dalene remained behind with the others and there were some who went to weekend parents.

Donors are responsible for help with the building of three extra dormitories for the boys who formerly had to do with one dormitory. The number of boys exceed the number of girls.

The adopted son of Betzy just wrote his matric. He is Wayne Willems and spends all his school years at the Loeries.

They are collecting money for a 13 year old who was born with a cleft palate and a harelip which have to be repaired surgically.

The people around Brondkhorstspruit saw to it that each child got a small present. The youngsters seem so happy and well behaved.

We wish you the best for the New Year. With God's blessing, K.J.

SHARIA LAW: ISLAMIC law has been officially adopted in Britain, with sharia courts given powers to rule on Muslim civil cases. The government has quietly sanctioned the powers for sharia judges to rule on cases ranging from divorce and financial disputes to those involving domestic violence.

Rulings issued by a network of five sharia courts are enforceable with the full power of the judicial system, through the county courts or High Court. It has now emerged that sharia courts with these powers have been set up in London, Birmingham, Bradford and Manchester with the network's headquarters in Nuneaton, Warwickshire. Two more courts are being planned for Glasgow and Edinburgh.

Under the act, the sharia courts are classified as arbitration tribunals. The rulings of arbitration tribunals are binding in law, provided that both parties in the dispute agree to give it the power to rule on their case.

The disclosure that Muslim courts have legal powers in Britain comes seven months after Rowan Williams, the Archbishop of Canterbury, was pilloried for suggesting that the establishment of sharia in the future seems unavoidable in Britain.

Politicians and church leaders expressed concerns that this could mark the beginnings of a parallel legal system based on sharia for some British Muslims. (From The Sunday Times, September 14, 2008)

Chapter 426

ADAM'S CLOAK

The following is the story of "Adam's Cloak". It is understood by those of our people who understand parables.

Today, "Mankind" is enveloped in the "Cloak of Esau" in which deception has replaced God's Law. Esau's Cloak looks like Adam's Cloak in many respects, but behind its curtain one will find the serpent of deception.

Basics

The Bible says "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1. God made Adam in His image. The Hebrew word "Adam" means "MAN: Heb: Adam 119 - "to show blood (in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red (ruddy). Strong's Concordance."

The Bible is Adam-man's history book containing solutions to our problems and ensures our survival.

Adam

The ancient Scriptures say that because of the Serpent's deception Adam was banished from the Garden while the Serpent was banished to the shores of India.

> "The Word of God came to the serpent and said unto it ... the ruin of my creatures happened through thee ... And a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, threw it on the shore, and it landed in India." I Adam & Eve 18:7-9 (Lost Books);

Scripture tells us that there are two Gods. Our God, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob whom we call "God the WORD"; and, one who opposes the WORD who goes by many names but is here called the "Serpent". The other God is further revealed:

> "God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam ... And God said to Adam, 'Look at this devil ... and look O Adam, at him who said that he is God! Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman?" II Adam & Eve 4:1-4.

In India the Serpent is the personification of "deception". He is always found near India's Gods - especially the favorite black sex-god Sheva, and Kali, the female incarnation of Sheva who is the black goddess of death. Black Sheva can impersonate any of the world's gods. The color "black" is holy to the anti-christ.

Adam's Garments

When Adam was banished from the Garden of Eden he found himself exposed to the cruel elements. He had no clothing to protect himself, so God furnished him a garment. Following is the story of this garment from the time it was given to Adam until today.

> "The garments of skin which God made for Adam ... Noah took them and brought them to the ark ... Ham stole these garments ... Ham begat Cush, he gave him the garments ... And Cush ... gave (Nimrod) those garments ... And Nimrod became strong when he put on these garments ... and ... Nimrod strengthened the hearts of the people who went with him ... and they fought against their enemies ... and subdued them, and Nimrod placed standing officers over them ... and they were all servants to Nimrod and to his brethren. ... And Nimrod ruled over all the sons of Noah." Jasher 6:24-38

Please note that Nimrod became strong when he put on Adam's garments that had been handed down to him, and because of that, his followers willingly did his bidding.

Nimrod's Tower

There is much written today about "one world", "multiculturalism" and "universalism" as if this was something new. These are modern words for the story called the Tower of Babel built by Nimrod and his followers. The building of this Tower was made possible because of the garments worn by Nimrod.

> "And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. ... And they said, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven. ... And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. And the Lord said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language ... let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. ... Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth." Gen 11:4- 9

We have no idea what language was spoken by Nimrod and his followers in their attempt to build the Tower. It may have been one of many ancient languages; then again it may have been God's WORD that had been perverted into Nimrod's WORD - a word containing fallacies, rules and edicts that would not support a Tower that reached to heaven. Whatever it was, the result was that the Tower would not stand - and it fell to the ground when its builders could no longer understand each others' speech.

The Cloak that had protected Adam, that had saved Noah from the flood, and that had been passed down to Nimrod, looked the same but had been changed into Nimrod's Cloak. The Cloak had the appearance of Adam's Cloak but that's where the similarity ended.

Esau

Esau, the son of Isaac & Rebekah and elder twin brother of Jacob, married Judith and Adah, both Hittites. He afterwards wedded Mahalah the daughter of Ishmael. These interracial marriages were in defiance of the wishes of his parents and violated God's Laws.

"Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6[8]

Esau Steals Nimrod's Cloak

When Nimrod wore Nimrod's Cloak all who heard him believed him and became his servants. He used these deceived servants to build Babylon and the great Tower of Babel. Following is how Esau obtained this cloak from Nimrod.

Esau Steals Nimrod's Cloak

One day Nimrod went for a stroll in the cool of the evening. Two guards were with him. Esau saw Nimrod approaching. He hid himself, and waited in ambush.

> "And Nimrod ... came ... when Esau started suddenly from his lurking place, and drew his sword, and hastened and ran to Nimrod and cut off his head ... and Esau took the valuable garments of Nimrod, which Nimrod's father had bequeathed to Nimrod, and with which Nimrod prevailed over the whole land." Jasher 17:7,10

Seizing the cloak from Nimrod's lifeless body, Esau fled. Nimrod's followers followed hot on his heels. Esau arrived in the camp of Isaac, his father, frightened, weary, and despairing of his life. He demanded that his brother Jacob give his meal to him in exchange for the birthright due him as the eldest son. His birthright was of little value since he expected to be killed before the sun set. He sold his birthright but kept the cloak.

8 "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4; "They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange (Heb zûwr - racial adultery) children; Hosea 5:7; "When they had heard the law ... they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." De 23:2

Esau's Enemies

Ancient stories say;

> "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

He traveled the world's trade routes and deserts as a merchant and a conqueror; and he took wives from among all the alien peoples of the world mixing his blood with theirs which turned their descendants into "children-of-Esau".

Because of this mixture, regardless of a person's race, creed or color, if one bears the blood of Esau he is a child-of-Esau. Thus there are only two peoples on this earth - the Children-of-Esau and the Children-of-Jacob, and Esau has never forgotten that he gave his birthright to Jacob while fleeing Nimrod's avengers nor has forgiven Jacob for taking it.

And the WORD says;

> "Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41

But, God said;

> "Jacob have I chosen ... I have chosen thee ... and they that strive with thee shall perish." Isaiah 41:8-11

As for Esau - God said;

> "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." Ro 9:13

Under The Cloak Of Esau

Today the lands of Jacob are covered by the Cloak of Esau. Truth is layered with deception. We have a Communist, Republican and a Democrat party. Each is responsible for the deaths of millions of the sons of Jacob.

Esau's Cloak has given us a stranger to rule us,[9] and a black billionaire with a white wife and stablefull of white mistresses[10] whose claim to fame is that he hits a ball with a stick.

We have a government which is responsible for placing our people in Africa under the rule of Esau[11]. Because of this there are now sons of Jacob whose children are hungry[12] in that land while America pours aid to children of Esau elsewhere. We have had another president who was trained by Esau in Hollywood[13] and an anti-saxonite media which curses everyone and everything white.[14] Scripture says WE are the temple of God. The media which we allow in our homes to teach our families are the serpent of Esau.

9 "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

10 "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4; "They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange (zûwr - racial alien) children." Hosea 5:7; "When they had heard the law ... they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3

11 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

12 "If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel." I Tim 5:8

13 "No man can serve two masters." Matt 6:24

14 "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (Heb: 2114 zûwr - foreigner, strange, profane, adulterous) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51

Worse, we have false shepherds in pulpit and government who know that the WORD teaches that we are not to throw "pearls before swine".[15] But they pretend that Jacob is really Esau and Esau is Jacob - meaning that the God they worship is really a son of Esau - one of those whom God said he hated.

Conclusion

The Lawlessness that permits Esau to rule Jacob is hidden in Esau's Cloak. When the Lawlessness is at last removed from Esau's Cloak we will find Adam's Cloak, and the children of Jacob will be freed to enforce God's will on earth.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Our postal service is hopeless. We assume that the sorters are asleep.

The news these last few weeks is almost entirely of Haiti. Recalling their history is is difficult to feel very sympathetic. Most of them seem to be waiting for the world to come to their aid instead of asking for heavy machinery to move debrê and rebuild themselves.

The doctors and medical technicians that come from here were not able to do much. They first were not even allowed to go in. It is the same with our blacks. They expect whites to do everything. They wait for whites to do the unpleasant job of going into water searching for decomposing black bodies while other blacks stand on the banks and watch.

15 "He who says he knows Him, and does not keep his commandments, is a liar." I Jn 2:3-4

We had two murders here in two days. It was not a case of robbery, it was simply to kill whites. The town of Glen Austin is not far from here and there are three huge black townships that have grown up nearby which makes it easy for criminals to get away.

I think it wonderful that Germany is reinstating Sunday as a day of rest, although I do not think the merchants will be very glad. They always seem to have specials on Sundays.

F.W. deKlerk is now trying to promote the white Afrikaans language - after all the damage he has done to the country. Without a shot he gave away the country to the barbarians who have completely ruined it, and all that had been built by my people. So many whites now live in poverty and are unemployed. Those who are qualified must go to other countries for work.

One never sees any of the traitor generals and politicians who led us into this morass, or even see their names in the English newspapers.

May God keep you safe, K.J.

LETTER FROM THE LOERIES

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins,

I am so glad to finally be in the position to send you an e-mail! If it is fine with you, I will from now on send our letters of thanks, as well as all the other news concerning the Loerie Home to you by e-mail to ensure that you really receive our letters! I have just received another letter back from our local post office, dated 8 December 2009, which was addressed to you with our good wishes for Christmas as well as 2010. It was never sent to you! It never even left our Post Office! Each and every letter I try to send to you through our Postal Services seems not to reach you. I am therefore so glad to be in the position to make use of your e-mail. Hope it is fine with you.

With the new year just started, the children are back in school and with all their after-school activities and homework, we hardly touch ground but we cope very well! We were so privileged to receive another huge amount of money (R14,160.00) Fourteen Thousand One Hundred and sixty Rand) from your subscribers and will never be able to stress our gratitude for all your efforts and interest in us! 30 Beautiful, very important children need to be fed, nourished and loved and we will continue doing it with your help! You and your readers and friends enable us to do so. I will send some more news regarding our progress as soon as I receive a reply from you.

My sister, Sonja, prepared a very good slide show of the children which we would like to send to you and your daughter, Granville. (Note: My daughter, Granville, has organized a small group of Loerie supporters at the church she attends in Virginia Beach.) Sonja is visiting her daughter who is staying and working in the UK for the last six years. She will send the slide show to you from England to ensure you do receive it and because we can't trust our Postal Service!

Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins, you, your family and your friends are so dear to the Loeries that we will never be able to thank you enough! Thank you again for your generosity. May you and yours always be blessed! Regards, Betzy Jacobs, LOERIE YOUTH CENTRE.

Chapter 427

ESAU'S CLOAK

Because he listened to the Serpent, God drove Adam from the Garden of Eden. Unprepared for the harshness of the world outside the Garden, God gave Adam a cloak to protect him.

Nimrod's Cloak

Adam's Cloak contained extraordinary powers. It was handed down to his descendants. It saved Noah from the flood. It was later stolen by Ham and given to Nimrod who subverted its use and used it to deceive and rule over the children of Noah. Nimrod appointed standing officers to rule those he conquered and he deceived people into helping him build the Tower of Babel with which he intended to reach heaven and contend with God.

"And Nimrod ... came ... when Esau started suddenly from his lurking place, and drew his sword, and hastened and ran to Nimrod and cut off his head ... and Esau took the valuable garments of Nimrod, which Nimrod's father had bequeathed to Nimrod, and with which Nimrod prevailed over the whole land." Jasher 17:7,10

Esau took Nimrod's Cloak and has used it ever since to rule people's minds.

Adam-Man

God made Adam-man a priest and a king. He ordered the land to be divided so that each man would have his own kingdom to rule.

"As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5; "The land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit." Num 26:55[16]

Esau's Land

Esau knows God's Commands and uses his money power to overthrow them.

"The aristocracy of the goyim as a political force is dead ... but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land. This object will be best attained by increasing the burdens upon landed property - in loading lands with debt." Protocol #6, p.165, Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. Translated from the Russian Text by Victor E. Marsden, 1934.[17]

16 "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; ... If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession ... in the jubilee ... he shall return unto his possession." Lev 25:23, 28

Esau's Cloak

We know that "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20. Esau has possessed Nimrod's Cloak for a long time and changed it so as to capture the minds of the people of the world - including many children-of-Jacob who are being changed into Janissaries in Esau's state schools. Janissaries were Western children who had been kidnapped and trained in the Islamic religion and studies and who in time became the first wave of the advancing Islamic armies while others served in the Islamic government. They may be compared to today's liberals who have been trained to worship other gods and fight against their own people.

The Key Weapon

Knowing the WORD, Esau knows that "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10; and that "Money answereth all things." Ec 10:19. He has long used this knowledge to fight Jacob.

17 Today, few Saxons are self-sufficient on their own debt free land since "The borrower is servant to the lender." Prov 22:7

Kings

In ancient days, the merchants of Esau selected agents to rule as kings the lands in which they wished to trade. They were given money to hire armies which were used as a perpetual police force. The king, representing Esau, "... set over his subjects and people, princes, judges and rulers, as is the custom amongst kings." Jasher 7:40. It is for this reason that the WORD condemns the unrepenant rich. "How hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." Mark 10:24-25[18]

Merchants

God's Commandments forbid usury. Esau's Cloak conceals this commandment so that it is reversed and usury is now acceptable. Usury generates a perpetual river of money. Esau assigned this money to select merchants who are instructed to go about the land and buy up businesses. These businesses are then organized into "corporations".

Great corporations buy merchandise in great quantities at discount prices. This forces smaller competitors out of business. The result is that in the lands ruled by Esau, the rich become richer and the poor become poorer. In time, there are left few sons-of-Jacob who own land or own independent businesses. Most work for Esau's corporations and obey his commands so that they can continue to feed their families.

18 "Cease from thine own wisdom. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? For riches certain make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven." Prov 23:5-6

State Religion

To ensure that subjects remain loyal, kings monopolize state religions. They appoint bishops who appoint priests. Edicts are passed from kings to bishops to priests and from them to the people, and are treated as if the king's edicts were God's Word. Today, one might change names a bit and call kings "presidents" and bishops "judges". Their pronouncements are treated by most as if they were god's commandments.

In ancient days, the king was called the "God of the Land" and his edicts were called the "law of the land.' Regardless of denomination or ritual - state religions are still organized to enforce the edicts of "the king of the land".

Today

In recent years, "state-religion", which at one time had been the king's primary means of communicating with his people, has taken a backseat. Esau's corporations endowed seminaries and colleges, which gratefully placed Esau's agents on their board of directors. These new directors in turn, selected teachers, preachers and administrators like themselves and promoted Esau's interests.

Colleges, seminaries and churches became Esau's liberal spokesmen overnight. But, there was something more effective than churches and colleges.

The Media Evolves

The printing press brought with it a new age. It produced books and newspapers. These were followed by radio, TV and the internet. Esau used his vast wealth to buy up book companies, newspaper companies including small county newspapers, as well as radio and TV corporations.

Esau's primary use of these media is to form public opinion. Whatever information reaches the public first passes through Esau's Cloak and is crafted to capture people's minds. Using the media and the pulpit is vastly easier and more effective than having the government use its heavy hand to hammer its will on the public. The heavy hand is especially not needed when people are forced to work for Esau's corporations to make a living and dare not bite the hand that feeds them.

The media have another purpose. They gather and have on file voluminous information on individuals who might conceivably become a future "person of interest". It is a foolish person who considers a media reporter anything other than an intelligence agent working for Esau whose information goes straight to his master to be used as he chooses.

Double Minded

Episcopal State Religions (rule from the top down), can easily develop split personalities. Good administrators often produce good results. Bad administrators often produce evil results. Religion has the ability to cross state lines as if they were not there. A state religion can turn a man into a double-minded person as he serves two masters. "A doubled minded man is unstable in all his ways." James 1:8 . One must use care when dealing with a follower of a state religion.

Money

There are many things that can be used for money. In lands without usury, farmers trade wheat for milk, or, potatoes for labor. States have paid its employees with "scrip" and removed it from circulation as people pay to use toll roads, toll bridges, and for services such as garbage collection, etc. Scrip was used in America for more than 200 years before being replaced with bank notes.

To force people to use the bank-note usury system, tyrannical states levy taxes - especially when there are still those who own their own land. We remember the Protocols directive; "It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land. This object will be best attained by increasing the burdens upon landed property - in loading lands with debt."

Obtaining Tax Money

The Southland fought a 4-year war against invaders having overwhelming strength. To pay its soldiers and buy supplies it printed its own "scrip". When the South was conquered, Southern scrip was declared worthless and "U.S. Dollars" were demanded for taxes.

Southern Whites were deprived of the vote and blacks were enfranchised and began to rule the white population. One of the first things the black legislators did was to pass taxes on land.

Southern trade with foreign countries had been lost during the war - there were few foreign markets to which agricultural goods could be sold for dollars.

With dollars to pay land taxes virtually non-existent, landowners went to the newly-established banks to borrow dollars to pay taxes hoping that when the loans came due there would be money available to pay them.

Such was rarely the case. The loss of foreign markets, the high casualties of the war and the loss of black labor combined to put the farmland of the South on the auction block where prime-farmland selling from $300 to $800 an acre in 1858 sold for 50¢ to $1 to newly formed land companies. Like their ancestors before them in Germany, Scotland, England, and Ireland, Southerners were forced from the land to live in newly built cities where they lived in company houses, bought from company stores, and worked in cotton mills for starvation wages.

Tom Jefferson's Neighbor

Thomas Jefferson had a prosperous neighbor whose farming business amounted to more than $20,000 a year. In that day that much money could buy a China clipper ship and provide it with a cargo.

The neighbor transacted all this business and closed his year-end books with only $24, a comparatively insignificant amount. He had a choice of paying this $24 in gold coins, Lynchburg city scrip, Virginia scrip, Lynchburg tobacco notes, or notes redeemable in flour from a nearby mill. Hardly anyone used bank notes to pay bills because bank notes were the result of usury and usury was forbidden by the WORD.

Most states in America operated the same way. I have mentioned this before. Some day in the future - a state, or a group of states may wish to to throw off Esau's Cloak that is strangling them to death. All that is necessary is for them to issue their own scrip.

Conclusion

The West has recently experienced the results of banks refusing to lend money to debtors so that they can pay their debts. Borrowers, unable to pay loans, default. The result is that trillions of dollars worth of property has been transferred to the lenders.

The Law on the subject of usury is clear. "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13. This is why Esau is eager to disarm individuals who are indebted to him. If he doesn't, they may turn on the lenders.

The day is approaching when Esau's Cloak will self-destruct. When it does the sons-of-Jacob will need only follow the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of the WORD to regain the protection of the Cloak that God gave Adam.

Letter From South Africa

Dear Mr. Hoskins: It has finally come out that the state has taken most of the civil servant's pensions for themselves, leaving most of these poorly paid people destitute. Municipalities are all in the red. The small number of white taxpayers pay for everything. The blacks get everything free and and also their children get free schooling and subsidies but not white children.

Zuma and his wives #1 and #2 were royally welcomed in England by the Queen. They even slept at Buckingham palace for two nights. We are told that the ordinary people did not like it at all.

We are expecting problems with the upcoming international soccer tournament. The so-called black team is at the bottom of the list but have been known to riot well. Billions have been spent on stadiums, etc. that may be used this once and never again.

The farmers want the farm commando system back. When they were operating there was much less murder and theft.

The blacks wanted land and they insisted on taking it from white farmers. After they got the land, most of it now lies fallow and the blacks are stealing from the remaining white farmers for things they wouldn't produce themselves. Racial feelings are getting worse all the time. Wishing you only the best. K.J.

Chapter 428

ASSASSINATION And MARTYRS

Terre'Blanche Assassinated

Carefully concealed by America's "red front" media, one of South Africa's white leaders has been assassinated.

Eugene Terre'Blanche, 79, had undergone a heart operation.Two blacks entered his home and used a machete and a club to cut and beat him to death. His friends said that his body was unrecognizable.

Terre'Blanche was leader of the AWB, an organization whose objective was to separate whites into their own nation under their own rule.

President Zuma of South Africa had appointed Julius Maleuma to be his youth leader. Maleuma is accused of being responsible for the attack. He traveled the length and breadth of South Africa making anti-white speeches and singing the song "Shoot the Boer" to black youth groups. The agitation has borne fruit. Over 3,000 white Afrikaner farmers have been killed and more are being killed every week. Eugene Terre'Blanche is the latest martyr.

Andre Terre'blanch
Martyred

Betrayal

Most people have forgotten the story of white South Africa, how it was betrayed by its own leaders. The International Trade Cartel (ITC) wished to clear Whites from Africa to allow its raw materials to be seized and used by the enemies of the white man. Countries such as communist China now have its workers in Rhodesia and South Africa extracting minerals and working the land.

To facilitate the changeover, Cuba, East Germany, Russia and a number of local blacks raised an army of over 50,000 and attempted to overthrow the nationalists in Angola in Africa's Southeast. They were met and thrashed by 11,000 South Africans who beat them at every turn.

Foiled in this attempt, Great Britain and the US threatened boycotts and an invasion of South Africa if they did not turn the country over to blacks.

Nelson Mandela was the leader of the black insurrectionists and was responsible for the death of thousands of blacks who were his enemies. He was able to continue the attack on white South Africa because of the help he received from Great Britain.

> "In 1996, Nelson Mandela was asked by BBC interviewer Sue McGregor what his 1962 trip to Britain had been all about. He said he had been seeing British government ministers and officials about arms 'for the struggle'. 'I had no other business', he said." (Impact, June/July, p. 9, P.O. Box 28233, Sunnyside 0132, Rep. of SA, $30/yr. cash, add $25 for checks.)

In addition to arming black insurrectionists, the media of the ITC fomented internal revolt. They supported white South African traitors calling them "patriots".

Today's white liberal is similar to yesterday's "Janissary" of the Turks. Janissaries were white children kidnaped in Europe and raised as Mohammedans. When thoroughly indoctrinated, they were enlisted into the Turkish ruler'ss private army. Others became Turkish civil servants. This was done to reduce the constant fighting between Turkish factions which is normal. Europe considered these Janissaries the most dangerous of all Christendom's enemies.

Today, government public schools and endowed schools of higher learning furnish Esau with the same kind of well-indoctrinated servants - white graduates trained to be black-supremests. Incidentally, when the Turkish ruler considered the Janisarry's work accomplished, he had them all killed - tens of thousands of them.

Hendrick Verwoerd

Before white South Africa could be overthrown, Hendrick Verwoerd, the patriotic white leader of S. Africa had to be removed. This was done by having him stabbed to death by a parliamentary messenger in 1966. The assassin was a mulatto named Dimitri Tsafendas. He was later declared insane and committed to a mental institution. He has since been released. The death of Verwoerd opened the door for the Trojan Horse.[18]

DeKlerk

Frederik Willem de Klerk has been accused of causing the collapse of white South Africa. DeKlerk was born in Johannesburg on March 18, 1936, the son of Senator Jan deKlerk. His brother is a liberal newspaperman.

F.W. deKlerk graduated with a law degree from Potchefstroom University in 1958 and practiced law in Vereeniging in the Transvaal. In 1972, he was elected to Parliament as National Party member for Vereeniging.

In 1978, deKlerk was appointed Minister of Posts and Telecommunications and Social Welfare and Pensions by

18 All of this is recorded in the book VOLKSVARRAD. You can obtain the book by writing to Adv. P.J. Pretorious, PO Box 1456, Warmbaths 0480, S. Africa. (SA Update Feb-Mar 1998)

Prime Minister Vorster. Under Prime Minister P.W. Botha, he held a succession of ministerial posts. In 1985, he became chairman of the Minister's Council in the House of Assembly. On December 1, 1986, he became the leader of the House of Assembly.

As Minister of National Education, F.W. de Klerk was a supporter of segregated universities, and as a leader of the National Party in the Transvaal, he was not known to advocate integration of the races. In February 1989, de Klerk was elected leader of the National Party and in September 1989 he was elected State President.

DeKlerk's career prior to becoming president of South Africa appeared to be an open book except in one respect. The one indication that he was in fact a left wing liberal was that he is not known to have based his social or political stance on the Law of Saxon Israel as did the old S. African rulers. This happens when one either doesn't know God's Law or follows an opposing law system. In deKlerk's case he quickly made his disobedience to the WORD clear, that he intended to follow the law of the International Trade Cartel.

In his first speech he called for an integrated South Africa and for negotiations about sharing rule with the blacks. He lifted the ban on the ANC and released the terrorist Nelson Mandela. He brought racial separation to an end, canceled the law against racial intermarriage, and opened the way for the drafting of a new constitution for the country based on the principle of one person, one vote, which would turn the country over to black majority.

Post DeKlerk

An advisory election was held to be followed by a primary election. DeKlerk used the advisory election as an excuse to actually turn the country over to black rule.

Black rule developed as expected. The police and military were led by Janissary-whites who obeyed every order given them by their new black rulers. As whites were removed from public office, the country began the process of becoming Africanized. Whites began to be persecuted at every turn. The decision to capitulate to the demands for "one man, one vote", a decision described in May 1994 by the well-known intellectual, Paul Johnson, in the following terms:

> "South Africa under Mr. F. W. de Klerk has made a suicidal leap to universal suffrage. Within ten years the country may be the theatre of one of Africa's endless civil wars. In any case it will develop into an industrial rubble heap, beastly, bloody and bankrupt". (J.S. Marais, Leader of the HNP, 6 Jan 1999)

Today, DeKlerk is making profitable speech tours in Europe and the United States, and black S. African legislators are building palaces and buying estates in Scotland with money extorted from whites. Almost a quarter of the white population has fled abroad, a half million more have been turned out of their homes and jobs and are living in tent cities. Farms have been confiscated.

We in the American South are not in the least surprised at these events, having undergone the same treatment by the same ITC who used blacks to do their dirty work here as well.

The following is a chapter from a small unpublished manuscript sent to me in 1981 by the Southern National Party.

It confirms what is written in The Prostrate State by James S. Pike, one of the most important books written in the 19th century and the first to penetrate the media's red curtain over America.

The Black Death[19]

"In 1868 Carpetbag Rule, Black Supremacy, and "Gig (Jig) Society" took over Columbia, South Carolina - just as they did in every other Confederate state that year, as a result of the general election.[20] Within a year, the streets were filled with trash, filth, and rubble. Fine mansions were in decay; their aristocratic owners driven away, the houses now served as flophouses, wino havens and public toilets for passers-by. Gambling dens, saloons, liquor houses and whorehouses flourished. Africans jammed dance halls which had once known only cavaliers and chivalry, gentry and polite society. State universities were taken over completely by Negroes, and scholastic standards fell into nothingness. Blank arrest warrants were issued by the stack to Negro policemen, sheriffs and constables, to be served upon anyone as the situation arose. The arrestee would then be taken and tried by a Black or Carpetbag judge, before a jury of half-drunken jeering, cajoling Negroes - that is, if he did not have the bribe money to buy his release.

"Intoxicated in the glow of political victory in a mockery of an election that "legally" instituted what Southerners came to call 'the Black Plague' and the 'the Black Death,' Negroes

19 Reconstruction I + II, Andrew Grayson, Southern National Party, POB 18214, Memphis, TN 38181

20 In violation of the WORD, Blacks were given the franchise while Whites were denied the vote.

swarmed through the streets that were now theirs as an arrogant, obstreperous, and dangerous mob, assaulting whites as they encountered them, discharging their pistols at whatever targets struck their fancy, and in a thousand other ways making plain their intent to undo five thousand years of white civilization. Columbia had been Africanized, just as the government of the United States of America had intended.

"Those who would openly oppose this devolution found their homes or barns burned, their wells poisoned, their animals dead - or themselves ambushed, their homes shot up, their families slain.

"The stench of violence, vice and depravity grew so foul that the few better Negroes, unable to bear it any longer, went back to their former masters and asked to grow poor with them. Prior to black supremacy, southern negroes had been associated with gentlemen, ladies and high civilization. An African-Dixie was just more than they could stomach.

"The story was the same in every state. After the election of 1868, graft and corruption skyrocketed. School bonds, railroad funds and tax proceeds were divided and pocketed. Judgeships, congressional seats and political appointments were bought and sold. Treasury funds were paid out for imaginary roads, and to cover gambling losses. Hotels and other private business places were built with state funds, and in Georgia alone, 42 newspapers were bought by the state for Republican propaganda purposes.

"Expensive gifts went to favored "Lady friends," and paid for with state funds. Hams, oysters, liquors, baskets of delicacies, champagne by the carload, perfumes, complete wardrobes, gloves, fancy pistols, gold watches, stickpins, diamond earrings, expensive jewelry, entertainment, the remodeling of "houses," and anything else immoral men can think to buy for trashy women were bought with tax money and chalked off as "school fund appropriations," "building improvements," and other such false covers.

"Coal and wood, purchased by the state to heat asylums, went instead into the home furnaces of carpetbaggers, scalawags, and important negroes. Bonds for colored orphans were converted into cash. Billions of dollars worth of railroad bonds were floated during Reconstruction, for which hardly a mile of track was laid. Elaborate liquor stores were constructed next to state houses, or, as in the case of South Carolina, directly adjoining the Capitol Building. Most of the "urgent business" of the South Carolina Legislature was conducted across the street from the Capitol Building, in the tax-supported brothel over 'Fine's Saloon.' During legislative sessions, forty bedrooms were supplied at state expense, ostensibly as 'committee rooms.' North Carolina outdid all the other states by having a bar and a whorehouse within the Capitol Building itself.

"Upon the floors of the various congressional houses, black and white trash engaged in endless, meaningless, and often incomprehensible discussion and debate. Drunken "statesmen" lay passed out in the floors, urinating and vomiting as drunks will. Raucous laughter, shouts, swearing and obscenities spiced the air. 'Amendments,' too obscene to print, were offered on the spur of the moment, and were followed by great roars of laughter. Blackamoor 'spectators' filled the galleries, window ledges, and vacant seats 'voting' with the legislators with shouts, hoots, boos and hysterical laughter. Usually soaked with whiskey, these 'spectators' often fought with each other, chasing one another across the floor with guns drawn and knives flashing.

"Rooms just off the floors were provided for the 'consultations' attendant to bribe-taking, and legislators often bragged about the amount they received. More revealing than the fact that they could be bought, is the fact of how cheaply they were bought. The litter on the floors of Southern congressional buildings included corks, empty whiskey bottles, tobacco quids, bread crusts, rotten fruit, picked chicken bones, peanut hulls and bags, and other such items.

"And in this atmosphere these Esquires of New Africa make 'Law.'

"There were bills to disarm all whites and to arm the whole black populations with the newly invented repeating arms; bills to make Confederate Gray the garb of convicts; bills to make possession of Confederate flags an offense punishable by death; various bills to make white men remove their hats in the presence of various categories of blacks; bills to make it illegal for white men to walk on sidewalks, bills to place nighttime curfews and other restrictions on whites; bills to integrate schools and all other public institutions and places; and - unbelievably - bills to annul all marriages between whites, so that more white women would be more available; and to make any future wshite-and- white marriages illegal.

"Ancient Rome at its absolute worst had nothing on Reconstruction Dixie at its absolute blackest. Caligula did no worse in making his horse a consul than the Republicans did in making the negro a statesman."

Redemption

To provide some sort of law and order, Confederate veterans approached Gen Robert E. Lee to lead a clandestine police organization. Because of his health, Gen. Lee declined, but recommended Gen Nathan Bedford Forrest.

Under Forrest's leadership the Ku Klux Klan was organized in 1867, and quickly disbanded in 1868 because of the vicious attack by America's media. These media attacks were used by the radical Republican congress to pass additional anti-South legislation, legislation that left the South heavily in debt and in absolute destitution for decades after the war. I remember many of the children sitting with me in grade school had walked to school with bare feet through the snow.

Deprived of KKK 'atrocities' on which to pin anti-Southern legislation, federal occupation forces furnished their own bogus KKK which committed outrages to generate anti-Southern sentiment. Thus we have a federal 'false-flag' KKK being opposed by local white militias who fought quick deadly affairs. The dead quietly disappeared in nighttime burials in local cemeteries hidden from the occupation forces and the media. This local sporatic warfare continued as long as the federal occupation of the South lasted.

The original KKK 1867-1868 had a short life. It was replaced by local militas under other names. The KKK was not revived until 1915 and then primarily as a political organization. It controlled 24 statehouses with 7 million members. It faded in 1941 with the US entry into WWII. Most KKKs today have been infiltrated by the FBI and are used by the media to manipulate public opinion as before - creating anti-Southern sentiment to justify "anti-white" laws.

The use of the WORD or the lack thereof reveals the true loyalties of such organizations and its members.

The FBI Destroys The KKK

The FBI destroyed the Klan in the late '60s and early '70s using the age old art of deception. Membership dropped as much as 70%. Paranoia over infiltration reached such heights that Klan leader Robert Shelton, threatened to use polygraph and truth serum on his own members to screen out infiltrators.

In 1964, the Johnson administration directed the FBI to destroy local militias going under the KKK label. J. Edgar Hoover sent 150 agents to Mississippi alone. The feds used anonymous letters, phone calls to employers, and cooperation with the local media which ran derogatory news stories about the Klan and its members.

> "The 1965 murder of Viola Liuzzo, a white woman who marched in Selma, Alabama, played a key role in passage of the 1965 Voting Rights Act. She was shot and killed, allegedly by a man who was apparently an FBI agent, but the agency tried to pin the crime on the Ku Klux Klan." Straight Talk, p. 4, July 13, 1995.

The ground was now ready. The American public had been prepared to support foreign adventures. The mass-media had indoctrinated the population to believe that the world was either "conservative" or "liberal" - "American" or "Communist". People were one or the other. The American-conservative was good; The Communist-liberal was bad: The average Southerner could not comprehend that the Cartel really didn't care what you believed as long as you went along with Cartel policy.

Southerners took the bait. They admired Hoover's crusade against bad-liberal-communism. This gave the FBI a natural "in", and they worked this "common interest" for all it was worth. A few dollars combined with stories about such-and-such organization being a secret anti-American group was all it took to recruit a cloud of collaborators. Soon, the FBI knew more about most Klans than the Klans knew about themselves.

As a substitute for Klan members, the FBI set up the National Committee for Domestic Tranquillity, a phony organization tailored to Klan member's religious beliefs and desire to "support our boys in Vietnam". They were told that their enemies were all part of a great conspiracy of Jews, Communists and Catholics. FBI agents provacateur promoted this paranoia with one atrocity after another - all which were blamed on the Klan by a willing, cooperative press.

The FBI subjugation of the South and its Klan militia was a result of its ability to grasp the motivations, and concerns of the everyday Southerner and misdirecting them. Repeating this success today requires the same process.

The media's job is to keep the white population calm while a global war is being waged against them. Following are excerpts from an old article that I discovered in my files. Matters are much worse since this report first came out, but it illustrates the seriousness of affairs.

The Race War

A few years ago an article called "The Race War" was making the rounds. It was updated whenever new statistics became available. Nothing has basically changed: The war continues. When I first got a copy it was called "The Race War of Black Against White by Paul Sheehan of the Morning Herald. Following are excerpts:

The longest war America has ever fought is the Dirty War, and it is not over. It has lasted 30 years so far and claimed more than 25 million victims ...

The American news media do not want to talk about the Dirty War, which remains between the lines and unreported. In fact, to even suggest that such a war exists is to be discredited. So let's start suggesting ...

No matter how crime figures are massaged by those who want to acknowledge or dispute the existence of a Dirty War, there is nothing ambiguous about what the official statistics portray: for the past 30 years a large segment of black America has waged a war of violent retribution against white America. And the problem is getting worse, not better.

During the past 20 years, violent crime has increased more than four times faster than the population. Young blacks (under 18) are more violent than previous generations and are 12 times more likely to be arrested for murder than young whites.

Nearly all the following figures, which speak for themselves, have not been reported in America:

According to the latest US Department of Justice survey of crime victims, more than 6.6 million violent crimes (murder, rape, assault and robbery) are committed in the US each year, of which about 20 per cent, or 1.3 million, are inter-racial crimes.

Most victims of race crime - about 90 per cent - are white, according to the survey "Highlights From 20 Years of Surveying Crime Victims," published in 1993.

Almost 1 million white Americans were murdered, robbed, assaulted or raped by black Americans in 1992, compared with about 132,000 blacks who were murdered, robbed, assaulted or raped by whites, according to the same survey.

Blacks thus committed 7.5 times more violent inter-racial crimes than whites even though the black population is only one-seventh the size of the white population. When these figures are adjusted on a per capita basis, they reveal an extraordinary disparity: Blacks are committing more than 50 times the violent racial crimes of whites.

According to an annual report on murder by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, most inter-racial murders involve black assailants and white victims, with blacks murdering whites at 18 times the rate that whites murder blacks.

These breathtaking disparities began to emerge in the mid-1960s, when there was a sharp increase in black crime against whites, an upsurge which, not co-incidentally, corresponds exactly with the beginning of the modern civil rights movement.

Over time, the cumulative effect has been staggering. Justice Department and FBI statistics indicate that between 1964 and 1994 more than 25 million violent inter-racial crimes were committed, overwhelmingly involving black offenders and white victims, and more than 45,000 people were killed in inter-racial murders. By comparison, 58,000 Americans died in Vietnam, and 34,000 were killed in the Korean War.

When non-violent crimes (burglary, larceny, car theft and personal theft) are included, the cumulative totals become prodigious. The Bureau of Justice statistics say 27 million non-violent crimes were committed in the US in 1992, and the survey found that 31 per cent of the robberies involved black offenders and white victims (while only 2 per cent in the reverse).

When all the crime figures are calculated, it appears that black Americans have committed at least 170 million crimes against white Americans in the past 30 years. It is the great defining disaster of American life and American ideals since World War II. All these are facts, yet by simply writing this story, by assembling the facts in this way, I would be deemed a racist by the American news media. It prefers to maintain a paternalistic double standard in its coverage of black America, a lower standard. (ends quote).

The Saxon Nation Today

Today, America, like South Africa, has a black president, the result of collaboration between Esau's media and what is widely believed by many to have been a bogus election. In the words of Joseph Stalin; "Those who cast the votes decide nothing. Those who count the votes decide everything." The fact is, electronic voting machines can be set to produce the result desired. And, those who opposed the election of an alien to be their leader stated their reason:

> "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

There is no reason to say more. Those who disagree with the WORD are enemies of our God. An enemy of our God is our enemy.

France

France is being overwhelmed by aliens from Africa and the Near East. It also has a growing conservative sector. However, it has a Jewish president and a red-front media.

Germany

Germany is an occupied state whose conquerors maintain an armed presence more than half a century after WWII. The conquerors have opened the doors to mass Islamic immigration. The White birth rate has dropped to 1.5.

Great Britain

Great Britain is being overwhelmed by aliens from all over the world. London's crime rate is far greater than that of New York. While its red-front media reigns supreme, a small right wing party has made its presence known.

South Africa

White traitors turned South Africa over to blacks. Once in power, black rulers opened the doors to black immigration from the rest of Africa. Whites, once superior in numbers, are now outnumbered by blacks more than 10 to one.

However, many of the black tribes in S. Africa are hereditary enemies. The history of Africa reveals constant stife between Africa's black tribes. Perhaps that will be the salvation of the white man in South Africa.

Assassanation & Martyrs

The red-front media has created dozens of alien leaders and honored no white leader. Would-be white leaders die mysteriously in plane crashes or are hacked to death by aliens.

Blacks murdered South Africa's Andre Terre'blanch. The black ANC Youth League leader, Julius Malema, travels about the country singing "Dubula ibhunu! Dubula!

Bubula!", or "Shoot the Afrikaners! Shoot! Shoot" - and blacks do. Afrikaner martyrs are increasing rapidly.

The USA TODAY, April 23, 2010, 2A let slip the news of the assassination of the anti-communist, anti-red-front lawyer Richard Barrett, 67, by a 23-year-old black. He was stabbed, beaten and set on fire.

Barrett operated the Nationalist Movement, appeared on numerious television and radio programs against communism and anti-white civil rights laws, and was on the 1968 presidentail campaign staff of Alabama Gov George Wallace.

A recent news article told of a white principal of a black school in Washington DC who was recently beaten to death by blacks because it was thought that he was gaining too much power over blacks.

Conclusion

Today Esau rules Jacob and kills his children daily. But, it will not always be so.

As the time appointed God the WORD will speak, and

> "They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16

Aliens who insist on entering our lands may wish to re-think their decisions, and those who help them may wish to do the same.

FBI Notes

Empire

Empire: A political unit having an extensive territory or comprising a number of territories or nations and ruled by a single supreme authority. American Heritage Dictionary

In the writer's opinion, organizations such as the FBI, CIA, Homeland Security, media, state-religions, etc. are agencies created to control the peoples of states which were once sovereign but are now merged into an empire. One of the jobs of the FBI appears to be to quiet rebellious empire subjects while its armed forces are spread paper thin over the world in an ongoing effort to conquer other lands.

Following are a few notes that I have kept on the FBI over the years. By their acts ye shall know them.

FBI

FBI Arrests 9 Christian Militia April 2010: FBI arrests 9 members of Hutaree Christian Militia accusing them of plotting to kill a policeman and killing many more of his comrades when they attend the dead policeman's funeral.

FBI visits 6/19/09: On Friday, June 19, 2009, 2:10 pm, there was a knock on my office door. I opened the door to see two men standing there. One in a short sleeve shirt with badge and an automatic pistol prominently displayed; the other nicely dressed in a suit. The first person introduced himself as a Lynchburg police detective and the other introduced himself as a member of the FBI living in Lynchburg.

I asked what I could do for them and they said they wanted to question me about the recent shooting at Washington's Holocaust Museum in Washington. I told them to contact my lawyer, gave them his name, said "good-by", and went back to work. These visits started with the publication of my books on Biblical Law.

FBI Blamed OK City: "Convicted Oklahoma City bomber Terry Nichols says he and Timothy McVeigh worked under direction of FBI Agent Larry Potts and that the Feds were behind the entire criminal operation - the Clinton White House wanted to pin blame on 'domestic terrorists'". Texe Marrs, Power of Prophecy , May 2007 (Vol 2007-05)

FBI Fires Whistle Blower: FBI translator Sibel Edmonds was fired in 2002 after alleging a co-worker was spying for foreign interests, a claim the agency failed to pursue. Robert

Mueller, FBI Director, says she was dismissed for being a "whistle blower" who exposed security lapses. (Story in Investors Business Daily, A2, July 30, 2004)

The Justice Dept Inspector General said the FBI did not take seriously linguist Sibel Edmonds who reported a co-worker and her AF officer husband of possible espionage for Turkey and fired her for reporting it. (IBD, p.2, Jan 18, 2005)

FBI Destroys KKK: In 1964, the Johnson administration directed the FBI to destroy local militias going under the KKK label. J. Edgar Hoover sent 150 agents to Mississippi alone. The feds used anonymous letters, phone calls to employers, and cooperation with the local media which ran derogatory news stories about the Klan and its members.

FBI Trade Center: "The FBI not only knew in advance of the car bombing of the World Trade Center in February 1993, they furnished the ingredients for the bomb." (NY Times, Oct 28, 1993; Aid & Abet, p.8, Fall Issue 2003)

Herbert A. Philbrick: "There are more names of ministers than any other profession on the list of Communist supporters in this country." Herbert A Philbrick, former FBI agent.

FBI Misidentifies Fingerprints: The FBI apologized to Brandon Mayfield after a judge in Portland, Oregon, dismissed the case in which he was jailed as a material witness in the Madrid train bombings that killed 191 and injured 2,000. A lawyer, Mayfield's fingerprints were mistakenly tied to the terrorist attack. The FBI said that a computer error led to the misidentification of his fingerprints and that they would review their practices. (C.S.Monitor, p.20, May 26, 2004)

FBI Investigates: FBI: April, 2004 - Two FBI agents entered a neighbor's store and proceeded to question them about me. They asked if I wrote under a pseudonym? Why the covers of my books were black and white? How did they feel about me being their friend? How did they feel about my writings? etc. My friends answered each question with, "I don't know."

FBI Scam Pennsylvania: FBI: Feb 18, 2004 Washington, PA: "The FBI set up a phony Ku Klux Klan group and encouraged them to build bombs and acquire automatic weapons, according to the former FBI informant and leader of the group who was jailed when his relationship with the feds went bad. The leader recently told the Washington Observer-Reporter that he set up a phony Ku Klux Klan group in Western Pennsylvania to hurt another locally based white supremacist organization ... and that he did so under the guidance of another FBI informant, and his FBI handler." FBI In The News: FBI: The conviction of an inmate who spent 10 years in prison has been overturned because an FBI scientific expert gave false testimony and withheld evidence. Agent Michael Malone was transferred from the lab but continued to work for the FBI until his retirement in Dec 1999 after the case was brought to light. (Story in News & Advance, p.2, May 28, 2003)

FBI Probes Self: The FBI cites lost trust and will investigate itself. Allegations have surfaced that punishments are inequitable. The investigation will be led by ex-Attorney Gen. Griffin Bell and Lee Cowell, ex-FBI associate director. (Story in Investors Business Daily, p. 2, May 27, 2003)

FBI - Homeland Security: FBI has been given jurisdiction over the Homeland Security Department's "terrorism-related financial investigations". IBD, p2, May 27, 2003

FBI Witness; The AP reports that FBI explosives expert Steven Burmeister who told federal investigators that his lab colleagues had performed shoddy work in the Timothy Mcveigh case was promoted to FBI lab's chief of scientific analysis and abruptly retracted several statements before appearing as a prosecution witness at trial, a transcript shows. FBI lab director Dwight Adams said "I can state categorically that Steve Burmeister has never felt pressure to change any testimony to help the McVeigh prosecution." (Story in News & Advance, p10, May 5, 2003

FBI Recruiting; "Historically, the FBI has been perceived as being largely white and male, and we have made significant progress toward changing that perception by aggressively hiring minorities. ... To accomplish that, the FBI is actively recruiting in various ethnic minority communities ... " (Advertisement New York Times, Apr 13, 2003)

FBI Expands; "The FBI plans to open offices in Kabul, Jakarta and eight other foreign capitals as part of a decade-long overseas expansion that officials say is crucial to fight the global threat of al-Qaida and other terrorist groups." (Investors Business Daily, 12644 Beatrice St. Los Angeles, CA 90066, p. 14, Mar 31, 2003 FBI Visits Libraries "The FBI is visiting U.S. libraries, checking the reading records of people with suspected terror ties, library officials say." (Investors Business Daily) A2, 12644 Beatrice St. Los Angeles, CA 90066, June 25, 2002)

The Prince: "It has been the custom of princes, in order to be able to hold their state securely, to erect fortresses as a bridle and bit to those who have designs against them... Therefore, fortresses may or may not be useful according to the times... " The Prince, Macheveilli.

Rudolph: The FBI set up a base in Andrews, NC - "Rudolph country" and manned it with several hundred operatives. The reason - the county is 99.9% Saxon. Such a gathering of Saxons unleavened with aliens is certain to produce a center of resistance to Admiralty Law in time. The existence of the FBI base actually did produce discontent and distrust of the government. So, after several years and after a number of government agents merged into the local population, the base has been greatly downsized - seemingly.

This is an example of a mobile modern day fortress. Its downsizing and placing covert agents in the local population is the governments' public relations answer to the problem of fortresses.

"The best fortress is to be found in the love of the people, for although you may have fortresses they will not save you if you are hated by the people." The Prince, Macheveilli, p.108.

Hoskins Slandered: On February 26, 2003, I received a telephone call from a friend in Norfolk. He said that a public school had just held an assembly on "Foreign and Domestic Terrorism". The speaker was a retired FBI agent, a member of the "Society of Former FBI Special Agents". I was told that an entire section of his presentation was dedicated to Richard Kelly Hoskins. He was said too have told the students that Mr. Hoskins had been indicted and although the case did not reach court, Richard Kelly Hoskins was sentenced to life in prison.

Since I was Richard Kelly Hoskins, and was not in prison, had not been indicted, and have not been accused of terrorism by any credible authority, I called the principal to learn more. The principal's secretary took the call and asked who I was and the subject to be discussed. I told her. She said that the principal was out of the office but would return my call shortly.

Not having my call returned, I called again the next day, and the next and the next. At last, I told the secretary that if I did not hear from the principal shortly that he would have to deal with my lawyer.

Within 20 minutes the phone rang. It was the former FBI agent who had given the talk. I questioned the truthfulness of his accusations. He said that he must have gotten faulty information. He was vague about his sources.

I found this caller a personable sort. He was a Virginian and had gone to VMI where he was brother-rat with my first cousin whom he knew.

We got off on Ruby Ridge and Waco where he stated that the FBI victims were the aggressors and got what they deserved. He appeared to believe that it was unimportant that at Ruby Ridge a boy had been shot in the back, a mother holding her baby was shot in the face. What was important was that "they had broken the law". He didn't believe for one minute that Ruby Ridge was the result of a federal "frame-up". He firmly believed that the Waco Branch Davidians got what they deserved. "They shot federal agents". He was insistent that they shot first and later committed mass suicide. He instantly discounted the heat sensitive film taken from a helicopter at night showing FBI shooting down Davidians as they fled the flames.

On that note, we said good-by and hung-up.

Later inquiry revealed that this FBI agent had been head of the FBI's Norfolk Station - a responsible position. He had also held an important position in New York. I mention this to say that while several who know him say that he is sharp, he was in position to get correct information about Ruby Ridge and Waco, and about me, even after he retired. If what he told the school children came from FBI sources - the FBI sources are in need of updating. If his purpose in talking to school children was to shape their opinions, his comments did that.

Hanssen - Soviet Spy: "FBI agent, Robert P. Hanssen told his wife and a Catholic priest he had given information to the Soviets in exchange for money." News & Advance, Lynchburg, VA June 17, 2001, A-3.

FBI Bites FBI: Larry O. Potts, the commander of the 1992 FBI assault on the Weaver cabin in Idaho has charged in a letter to the Justice Department that the FBI's review is a cover-up intended to shield top officials. The Spokesman Review of May 10, 1995 says: "Commander Eugene F. Glenn charges that the FBI review blamed him for managerial lapses in the Idaho operation and sought to let off Freeh's top aide, Larry A Potts, with a mild rebuke. ... Potts helped draft the plan for the Waco assault and was the primary supervisor from Washington in the standoff with Weaver. Potts now has overall responsibility for the Oklahoma City investigation." (The Weavers sued the FBI and were awarded millions.)

Bomb In Murrah Bldg: "The U.S. government planted the bomb in the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building to create a pretext for a crackdown on the secretive militia movement. ... more than 600 ... citizens listened in rapt attention (to) ... former FBI agent Ted Gunderson and Michigan paramilitary leader Mark Koernke ... " Chicago Tribune, May 9, 1995

Treason Or Wisdom? Some Militia leaders are working with the FBI to "contain terrorism". Jim McKinzey, commander of the 51st Missouri Militia has struck a surprising partnership with the local FBI agent. They work together to identify potential terrorists. McKinzey said, "We're not enemies. We have to build bridges." Montana militia leaders have also been sitting down with FBI agents to exchange information. "We talk to them (FBI)," said John Trochmann, "because we want to be sure they know where we're coming from."

In Bloomfield, Ind., federal agents and members of at least a half dozen local militia groups met last month. "Militia members have provided information helpful in criminal investigations, John Bell, the FBI special agent-in-charge of the Indianapolis field office said. "A militia leader passed on a tip last month involving a member who had been expelled from the group." In Kansas City, FBI Agent Kinnally says that his office has fielded similar calls from the 51st Missouri Militia.

Some militia leaders consider the cooperation no less than treason. "The FBI has no interest in opening a dialogue", said

Bob Wright, commanding officer of the 1st Brigade New Mexico Militia. "They're interested in gathering intelligence. They're interested in finding some weak-minded fools to hustle." The leopard does not change his spots. Many forget that the reason for the re-emergence of militias is so that American citizens will have someone who will protect them and their families if the FBI decides to do another Waco. An easy way to determine if there has been a fair exchange of information is if the FBI has told local militia leaders which militia members are paid FBI agents provocateur. After all, that's the sort of thing the FBI does. (Story in The Detroit News, 9A, Dec. 3, 1999.)

KING Conspiracy: A jury found a widespread government conspiracy responsible for the assassination of The Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. A US House committee concluded in 1978 that Earl Ray killed King but may have had help from a small group of "racists". The jury found that government agencies were involved. The list included the FBI, CIA, and organized crime. (Story News & Advance A-3, December 12, 1999)

RKH: This communist tactic is called "The Trust", or, "False Flag" - doing the act and blaming it on your opponent. The communists killed their own people and blamed the killings on their opponents.

King had become a liability. His usefulness was over. Before his assassination he was one of the most hated people in the country. The darling of the media, he came preaching peace but left American cities burning, gripped in uncontrollable riots. The American public had turned against him. His only future use had become that of a martyr. He was executed and white "racists" were blamed. The same thing happened to Kennedy - another of the most hated people in America. When it was announced that he had been shot, the people in the brokerage office in which I worked stood and cheered. The media immediately blamed whites in Dallas. Media "re-interpreters" are paid to tell what they want you to believe.

CRIME: According to the most recent FBI crime report, the black minority (12%) is responsible for 70% of all murders. Whites are now statistically combined with Hispanics, Asiatics and other non-Black races. This was not true in 1986. The 1986 FBI report revealed that Hispanics commit 3.2 times more murders than Whites. If this ratio is still true and has not increased, the combining of Black and Hispanic murder totals reveal that they commit 90% of all murders in the U.S. To put it another way, without Blacks and Hispanics, murders in the U.S. would drop 90%. Now think! If the politicians REALLY wanted to stop the high US murder rate - what would they do? Right! They would lengthen prison terms, build bigger prisons, hire more guidance counselors, and teach higher self-esteem to the populations producing the murderers.

Skew Tests: Buried on page B8 of the New York Times of Sept 15, 1995 was a story titled "FBI Chemist Says Experts Are Pressured To Skew Tests." An FBI chemist, Frederic Whitehurst, complained about the handling of the evidence in the Trade Center case and in the 1991 trial of Walter L. Moody, convicted of mail-bomb killings. Louis J. Freeh, now the Director of the FBI, led the prosecution of the mail-bombing case. Frederic Whitehurst worked for 13 years for the FBI. He received a doctoral degree from Duke and was the FBI's top bomb-residue expert. In 1994, he was demoted after taking his complaints to his superiors.

Larry McDonald Report: "On February 11, 1976, the late Congressman Larry McDonald inserted evidence into the Congressional Record (pages E-617-619) documenting how various US terrorist groups were actually being funded and controlled by the federal government. The government secretly funded a section of the Weather Underground Organization (which was repeatedly involved in terrorist activities - including bombings, arson, and murder).

Secret Army Organization: A January 10, 1976 Associated Press report stated: "The FBI created and funded a ... group called the Secret Army Organization (S.A.O.) ... in the early 1970's the San Diego Union reports." The newspaper described the S.A.O. as a "centrally designed and externally financed infrastructure designed for terror and sabotage. ... These acts were sanctioned by the nation's most powerful and highly respected law enforcement agency: the FBI."

"The San Diego Union reported that the top SAO leader was Howard Berry Godfrey, who 'paid the expenses of the secret army, recruited new members, supplied the explosives, and picked out targets.' The newspaper reported that Godfrey was also a paid FBI informer. Godfrey testified before a grand jury in 1972, admitting that he had helped found the SAO on orders from the FBI. "While he led the SAO, Godfrey testified, he was in constant touch with his FBI supervisor, ... making daily reports on his activities."

Viola Liuzzo: "Another example of Federal-engineered terrorism was demonstrated in the 1965 murder of civil rights marcher, Viola Liuzzo. After being gunned down, allegedly by three Klansmen who were riding in a car, those three Klansmen were quickly arrested. The fourth Klansman in that car, Gary Rowe, was a paid FBI informer.

"The 7/10/95 National Review reported on a 1978 examination of the background of Gary Rowe: 'The 1978 investigation implicated' Rowe 'as an agent provocateur, and he was accused of helping plant the bomb that killed four Black girls in a Birmingham church in 1963.' The Klansmen accused in the Liuzzo case later admitted that they had been in the car, and that they had seen Rowe kill Vola Liuzzo. In 1978, an Alabama grand jury indicted Rowe for first-degree murder in the killing of Liuzzo.

"At that time, Rowe had moved to Georgia and in 1980 a Federal judge blocked extradition to Alabama, asserting that 'a Federal agent has rights that protect him when 'placed in a compromising position because of his undercover work'." The Federal judge's ruling (upheld by a Federal appeals court) 'exempted Rowe from any number of possible criminal charges in Alabama."

"In 1990, an internal FBI file came to light which acknowledged that Rowe had led attacks on Freedom Riders, clubbing them with a lead-weighted baseball bat. The FBI paid the medical bills for Rowe's own injuries and gave him a $125 bonus."

In 1979, at Greensboro, North Carolina, a combined group of Klansmen and Nazis were involved in a shoot-out with members of the Communist Workers Party, which resulted in five dead Reds. In the 1980 trial that followed, it was revealed that Bernard Butkovich, an agent for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (BATF) had infiltrated the Klan-Nazi group.

"Many witnesses from inside the Klan-Nazi group swore that on several occasions, before the shoot-out, Butkovich suggested a variety of illegal acts.' Witnesses said that the BATF agent 'suggested the murder of a rival klan leader, urged members to buy equipment to convert semi-automatic guns to fully automatic weapons, and offered to procure explosives (including hand grenades). ...(7/15/80 Washington Post) Youth Action News, PO Box 312, Alexandria, Virginia 22313, Aug 1995).

DIED: "DIED: Bobby Frank Cherry, 74, former KKK member convicted in 2002 for the deadly 1963 bombing of the 16th St Bapt Church in Birmingham, Ala; of cancer; at the Kilby Correctional Facility near Montgomery. The attack, which followed the desegregation of Birmingham's schools and for which two of Cherry's associates were also convicted, killed 4 black girls." Time, p.23, Nov 29, 2004:

TERROR: "The most bizarre bits of retaliation against the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has largely been forgotten, ... the FBI and the Klan descended into guerrilla warfare in those hot Mississippi nights. ... The Klan bombed the building. Then they bombed the rabbi's house. ... they began bombing Jewish folk in Meridian, about 80 miles away. ... said Meridian police chief Roy Gunn. And, after playing by the book for years with no results, neither did the FBI ... FBI agents used that to pay off, threaten and coerce Klan members - including the man who killed the Philadelphia civil rights workers - for information.

"In fact, the FBI had a pair of informants hire the Klan's top bombing expert, Thomas Albert Tarrants III, and one of its most notorious leaders, Danny Joe Hawkins, to bomb a Jewish leader's home the night of June 29, 1968.

"Then FBI agents and a few trusted city cops set out to do their duty - assassinate them in the act. This wasn't just entrapment. This was murder. This was war.

"Nelson, then a Los Angeles Times correspondent, broke the story in 1970. The wrath of J. Edgar Hoover followed, and the FBI director tried to wreck Nelson's career.

"Nelson is now chief of the LA Times Washington bureau. It's just a story about a few cops who broke the law to stop the nation's most notorious terrorist organization.

"Over the weekend, the media were awash in Summer's revelations about the late FBI director's secret homosexuality and the fact that he sometimes dressed as a woman for parties held in the Plaza Hotel." Terror In The Night, Jack Nelson, Simon & Schuster, p.287, $22. Hoover recruited Mafia To Fight KKK A-2 News & Daily Advance, Lynchburg, VA, June 22, 1994.

NEW YORK (AP) - Thwarted in trying to solve the 1964 disappearance of three civil rights workers in Mississippi, the FBI turned in desperation to the Mafia, the Daily News reported Tuesday.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover pitted one adversary, organized crime, against another, the Ku Klux Klan. The ploy paid off.

Gregory Scarpa Sr., a Brooklyn mobster turned FBI informant, terrorized a Klansman under suspicion in the slayings into revealing the location of the bodies, the Daily News said, citing unidentified federal law enforcement officers.

In an account marking the 30th anniversary of the case, the newspaper said Scarpa put a gun borrowed from an FBI agent into the suspect's mouth and threatened to "blow your ... brains out" if he didn't confess.

The slayings of two white New Yorkers, Andrew Goodman, 20, Michael Schwerner, 24, and a black Mississippi civil rights volunteer, James Chaney, 21, inspired at least four books and a movie, "Mississippi Burning."

FBI spokesman Paul Bresson refused to comment Tuesday on the Daily News story. Former FBI Inspector Joseph Sullivan, who led the investigation into the murders, denied Scarpa had anything to do with the case.

Of the three law enforcement sources cited by the newspaper, Sullivan said "there is no federal official who can accurately make such a statement."

Goodman, Schwerner and Chaney vanished in Neshoba County, Miss. They were helping a black voter registration drive at the start of Freedom Summer.

Their whereabouts remained a mystery for 40 days, until FBI agents, reportedly using information from the terrorized suspect, who was an appliance dealer, found their bodies Aug. 4 in an earthen dam not far from Philadelphia, Miss.

Four months later, federal agents arrested 20 men, among them the local sheriff, a deputy and Samuel Bowers Jr., an Imperial Wizard for the Klan.

In 1967, an all-white jury convicted Bowers, Deputy Cecil Price and five others of conspiracy to violate the civil rights of the three volunteers. The seven served prison terms ranging from three to 10 years. The appliance dealer wasn't charged.

Conclusion

Usurers, aliens, outlaws - followers of alien gods - have entered our lands, and corrupted our people. Our people "... were mingled among the heathen and learned their works." Ps 106:35.

We are a conquered people, but it is still God's land, and we will take it back and rule it according to the Law, and the Law says, "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31-33.

As for our own people who follow the teaching of the strangers' Gods, the Law is clear:

"If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong ... Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother ... And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you. And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot." Deu 19:16-21

Letter From S. Africa

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins: I phoned Betzy and we discussed the security at the Loeries. They have installed every security obtainable and they are connected to an armed response security company should an emergency arise. The children have been made aware of the dangerous situation, they do not venture out of the grounds and Betzy takes them to school and extramural activities. The safety gates are controlled from inside the house and are only open once the person has been verified.

After graduation, the Loeries who have parents will return to their parents if they are able to support them. Rina and Betzy keep a close eye on the parents and even the weekend parents to insure that the parents are looking after the child.

The parents are not likely to allow their children to leave the country and thus losing contact. The other concern is that they are Afrikaans speaking and would not fit into a new and strange environment which would be English speaking.

Betzy also found that white children are not allowed to leave the country as in the case of a white couple wanting to take twin girls to America but were refused by the government. With Malema our situation may change quickly and the only way left is evacuation. Malema reminds me of Dingaan, a Zulu King in the Voortrekker time, who killed unarmed men. Dingaan was both sly and cruel. In that case Maria will send a message via the computer.

After the murder of Eugene Terre Blanche, the three main right- wing groups, HNP, AWB and Verkkeners (Scouts), a young white group, will restart the commando system that will patrol the country. They have received request for training as far afield as the Cape Coast. The training will be by former army officers on how to handle situations and accurate marksmanship.

Pamphlets protesting the murders of S. African whites are being distributed in America. Several protest marches have been held in Sweden, London and Washington. There are plans to obtain radio broadcasting stations in other parts of the world as well as messages on the internet.

Sweden had the murder of Eugene on their TV for a week. Behind the worst murders, we find a black, Malema, who has close ties to the CIA. He sings an anti Boer war song at every meeting he holds which is felt to be instigating the brutal murders. He is neither Zulu or Xhosa but from a northern tribe. He is a militant youth leader of the ANC. He ignores court orders. It is felt that there is a connection between the brutal murders of the 17 year old girl whose hands were cut off and raped, and the murder of Eugene with a panga (machete) and a club. His face was unrecognizable to his brother as it was so battered.

The plan to kill Eugene was in place and opportunity presented itself as Eugene age 69 had just had an operation and was still recovering. The first investigating team was recalled. They must have found evidence that the government did not want the public to know, like the old servant who was found dead in Venters Dorp Street as she was on the way to tell Eugene of the plot.

Thousands of people far and near arrived to attend Eugene's funeral, which must have been a surprise to the English press. The funeral service was held at the Afrikaans Protestant Church which proved far too small. They had to open the side doors where tea is normally served on a Sunday after church. Some people filled the street in front of the church. Martie, Eugene's wife, discussed the funeral arrangements with the undertaker and everything went smoothly. All the neighbors pitched in to help, one used a big scraper to level the farm road, others bricked the grave out and others assisted with providing refreshments in tents. The Reverend held an hour long sermon in which he made appeal against drink, drugs and gambling. The HNP arrived in a large group and had a two full page spread in Die Afrikaner. Both their leader and deputy leader are excellent orators like Eugene. This murder has opened some eyes and is getting the Afrikaner to work together.

A Jaco Barnard-Naude writes in the Rapport newspaper on the 25 April that Malema is what any psychoanalyst would find not quite sane. I would call him a psychopath.

Not long after the other attacks a one year old baby girl was beaten so badly that she stopped breathing three times before the neighbors could get her to the nearest clinic. Her minder was beaten unconscious. They both suffered head injuries, their attackers consisted of two Mozambicans and one local who was also their leader.

A boy of 15 years who slept on a camp bed next to his mother to protect her was shot dead.

We greatly appreciate your concern for the children and will keep you informed. With our best wishes, K.J.

Chapter 430

INVINCIBLE WEAPON

Lone Rider

Many years ago, a holy man was born in a land now known as Saudi Arabia. He said that he spoke for god. Many believed him. As time passed, his following and influence grew. This brought him in conflict with the powerful King of Arabia.

To escape the hostile King's army, he took his followers east along the Silk Road until he arrived at an oasis many days travel out in the desert. He then fortified the oasis and forbade caravans to pass. This caused consternation among the powerful merchants who had invested great sums in their caravans.

Complaints reached the King of Arabia, whose job it was to protect the caravans and he sent his army to subdue these rebels. But, after the several days' ride through the desert to the fortified oasis, the King's army had only a few hours to make an assault before having to return to their base for lack of water. All efforts to dislodge the rebels failed.

After the silk-route trade had been disrupted for a year, a single camel rider rode down the Silk Route from India with the message that the King of Arabia must step down. The leader of the rebels was now to be the new King of Arabia whose job it was to protect the caravans. The rebel's name was Mohammed.

The Rider's Master

The lone rider had given Mohammed the authority to protect and in exchange take tribute from the camel-trains traversing the spice route. This income allowed Mohammed to hire soldiers for his army. With this new army he conquered the near-east, North Africa, Sicily, Southern Italy and Spain.

Who was it that dispatched the lone rider who delivered the message that appointed Mohammed ruler? Who was this shadowly figure who has the power to set up the world's kings and pull them down? Where are the armies and navies that back his power?

The Law

The followers of God the WORD have often departed from obedience to the WORD and as a result have been conquered. When conquered and serfs to another people, they learned to understand the nuances of their ancient Laws. This allowed them to speak to each other with the enemy hearing but not understanding their words. This is the "parable".

The Parable

God the WORD created Man in his own image. The word "man" is not the same as "person", "fellow", "human", etc. It has its own distinctive meaning.[21] The word "man" pertains to only one special people. Man's lineage descends from Abraham who had two sons - Jacob who was obedient and Esau who was disobedient and who mixed his blood with all the races of the world except with the descendants of Jacob. When Jacob disobeys God's WORD he is either killed or taken captive by the sons of Esau who are sworn to kill their kinsman Jacob.[22]

Today, Esau and his followers are called by a new name - "human".[23] Man and humans have different customs and gods. They do not think alike. This is the reason our ancestors were able to successfully speak in parables.

Temple Parable

Parables reveal the location of the one who ordered the camel messenger to make Mohammed King of Arabia.

> "Then the devil taketh him (Jesus) up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple." Mt 4:5

The devil speaks from the top of the temple.

> "Again, the devil ... showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, ... "And saith unto him, All these things will

21 MAN - Heb: adam - those that blush rosy, Strong's Concordance; "Son-of-man" - son of those who blush rosy.

22 The offspring of a son-of-Esau and a man is not half white and half something else - he is entirely an alien son- of- Esau.

23 HUMAN: From the Latin "hu" meaning color, and "man". Thus, "human" means "man with color" or colored man. They are different breeds.

I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me." Mt 4:9

This tells us that the forces of evil who speak from the top of the temple have power over the kingdoms of the world. Kingdoms are his to bestow on his followers. All that is required is obedience.

Another parable repeats the same thing:

"We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." Eph 6:12

The force of evil has something to offer that makes obedience to the devil attractive.

"The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10

Money Fountain

The devil has an inexhaustible fountain of money which he uses to bribe the sons-of-man. This money fountain is called Usury. Usury is a scheme to defraud borrowers of their property. The punishment for those practicing this unLawful scheme is severe;

"Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13[24]

Using Usury To Seize Land

The Law says:

"As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5

24 "Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury." Deu 23:20

The land belongs to God. He ordered it divided among his children so that each man can produce his own sustenance and wealth and be independent of others. Further:

> "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; ... If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession ... in the jubilee ... he shall return unto his possession." Lev 25:23, 28

"Love of money" allows the merchants' Usury to seize God's land that was given to our fathers. Rulers appointed by the International Merchant protect the usurers and refuse to invoke the "Jubilee" to force its return.

Taxes

When money is in short supply, taxes can be imposed on the people to force them to borrow from usurers to pay the taxes, using their land as collateral.

After the War Between The States, whites were disenfranchised and blacks were put in office to rule them.[25] One of the first things the blacks were instructed to do was to tax the land. Since there was no money to pay the taxes, the land owners went to the new banks that were springing up in every Southern town, to borrow tax money - their farms were their collateral.

Unfortunately, the markets for Southern farm products had been lost during the war and over the next thirty years millions of acres were defaulted and seized when sold at auction. This was the start of the great land corporations that own Southern land, and the reintroduction of the serf-system which was activated when displaced Southern farmers were cleared from the land and forced to move to cities and work for corporations for slave wages.

25 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

Ignoring The Law

Ignoring the WORD has repercussions. Usury soaks up the floating supply of money causing people to default their property. Men without land are unable to feed themselves and they are unable to create wealth to trade for items they don't produce.

Usury has forced on us kings under other names. Kings who obey their masters, who tax us and have taken our land. The loss of our land has caused still other problems. It affected man's ability to Lawfully marry. The Law says;

> "Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterward build thine house." Prov 24:27

In short, start your business before starting your family. This is difficult after usury has soaked up the money causing deeds to property to fall into the hands of usurers. One may work for the usurer in the usurer's own factory, but this is no longer certain. The factory owner may take the factory overseas to obtain cheaper labor. Without a job, marriage can be difficult if not impossible. Without marriage, the birthrate can fall precipitously.

> "If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... ye will be left few in number ... ye shall be plucked from off the land." Deut 58:66

War

To relieve economic depression, war must be started to jump-start the economy by forcing the people to borrow money into existence. Without war, economic depressions can go on for many years - depriving men of the opportunity to establish businesses and keeping them from marrying and raising children.

God's Laws dealing with marriage are simple and racist in the extreme:

> "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3-4; "When they had heard the law ... they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deut 23:2

When otherwise Lawful men are unable to marry because usury has made it impossible for them to support a family, it is easier for them to fall into the sin of adultery.

The rules of marriage include these:

> "(A priest) shall take a virgin of his own people to wife." Lev 21:14[26]

LAW violations can pile up one upon another because the LAW dealing with usury is not enforced in the beginning. A man cannot marry if he has no way to make a living for his family.

---

26 "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5,6; "Let the Hebrews marry... virgins... and no... harlot, whose... prostitution of her body, God will not receive... If any one has been espoused... to a virgin, and does not afterward find her so to be, let him... accuse her... if the damsel be convicted, as having been corrupted... let her be stoned, because she did not preserve her virginity till she were lawfully married." Antiquities 4:8:23

The LAW also says:

> "(Strangers) shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee." Ex 23:33

There are few in government who are not bought and paid for with the wealth provided by the usury of strangers. There are few great corporations in our land that are not owned by strangers. Most media speak for the stranger day and night and teach God's people to serve other gods. Cursing, fornication, murder, sacrilege is the daily lesson the stranger-owned media preach to the children of Jacob. Down to the smallest thing such as swearing. We are taught that swearing is such a small thing that we should pay no attention. But, the Law says;

> "But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation." Jas 5:12

TV actors constantly exclaim, "I swear.." It conditions the viewer to ignore the Law against swearing.

Once I was chosen for jury duty. The Clerk said to me "Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?"

I answered, NO!

Without blinking an eye, he continued, "Will you tell the truth?" I answered, "Yes!"

The answer, "Yes" or "No", is often sufficient to tell the lawyers what kind of juror is hearing his case.

Results

Because of lawlessness, the birthrate of our people in Europe, S. Africa, Australia and the Americas is plunging. There are too few babies being born to replace the old people who are dying. "You will become few in numbers."

Hinduism

The great merchants of India practice a religion called Hinduism. Hinduism accepts all religions as different interpretations of their one basic religion. The missionary arm of Hinduism is Buddhism. Hinduism has many traditions similar to Christianity but has no law as we understand law.

There is an offense, while not a capital crime, is critical to Hindu world trade; that is "separation". A people who insist on being separate cannot become customers of the international merchant and are therefore obstacles to be overcome. This condition was described by the Cavalry Contender.

> "The coming Buddha, Lord Maitreya, through his New Age channeler, says: 'The crime of separation must be driven from this earth. I affirm this as my purpose.' (6/96 Chr. Cons.) New Agers say that it is ok to believe in ANY god, just don't claim that YOUR god or belief is EXCLUSIVE." (Cavalry Contender, Aug 1, 1996, 1800 Sparkman Drive, Huntsville, AL 35816)

The basic difference between Hinduism and Christianity is Integration vs. Separation. The Hindu would have all become "integrationists" to facilitate international trade. The WORD forbids this. Since the Hindu has unlimited wealth to buy agents to promote integration - integration is the basic belief-system promoted by his agents.

The WORD warns again and again against the evils of integration. An integrationist is an enemy of the WORD. If an integrationist claims to be a Christian he is a Hindu-Christian and an enemy of both the WORD and his people.

Islam's Solution

In the early 1900s, most of Islam was ruled by the International Trade Cartel who installed puppet rulers and religious leaders. But, on street corners and back alleys ordinary Muslims taught the Koran. The rulers paid little attention to these upstarts since the great holy places were occupied by carefully selected religious leaders and that's where the crowds went.

But, times changed. Wars came and the upstart teachers continued to teach the Arabs and Turks the words of Mohammed. Today, Islam is mostly free from Cartel imposed rule. Most Islamic countries have even banned cartel usury banks; their families are more than twice larger than ours. Millions of Muslims have invaded Western lands bent on conquest.

Christian Solution

The solution to our problem is simple. Already we have tens of thousands of Believers who teach the LAWS of the WORD to their families and neighbors. Once our nation returns to the Law we will declare a jubilee to force a return of our property, and since God has appointed us kings and priests we will then step forward and rule and teach our kinsmen. The Law is God's invincible weapon.

"For the WORD of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword." Heb 4:12

When we speak and teach the WORD - God will keep his promise:

> "Thus sayeth the Lord, who giveth the sun ... and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars ... who divideth the sea ... If those ordinances depart ... then the seed of Israel shall also cease from being a nation before me forever ... If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all they have done, sayeth the Lord." Jer. 31:35-37

Mr. Hoskins: Richard Barrett recently had the Florida Department of Corrections lift their ban on our Identity literature. Sadly, Mr. Barrett was stabbed to death April 21, 2010 in his home in Learned, Mississippi by a 23 year old black. Mr Barret, an attorney and founder of the Nationalist Movement, published "All The Way" magazine. It was an American Nationalist magazine featuring skinheads who believed in what Mr. Barrett called - "Positive Christianity." He won many legal battles from NY to CA dealing with one's right to sdisplay the Confederate flag and to freely protest in public plus prisoner's rights to receive American Christian literature such as Hoskins Report. Dear Dick: The cell phone puts out a signal that can be traced even when turned off. Remove the battery to stop all signals. N.H.- Florida

---

Dear Mr. H.: Explain "communion". E.K. - Virginia

RKH: Communion is ritual and parable. The bread is the WORD and the wine is the Spirit. The WORD without the Spirit accomplishes nothing. The Spirit without the WORD accomplishes nothing. The two go together. The reason that grapejuice is used instead of wine is because of the following: "It is not for kings to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. Pr 31:4-5. Who are these kings and priests? "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5,6

Dear Brother Hoskins: This is truly becoming the time when His children are beginning to wake up. It's a tough battle and will become more difficult as people become racially and spiritually awake to their true heritage and birthright. The more awake the more ZOG will persecute God's chosen children. C.L. prisoner - Alabama

To Mr Hoskins: Here in prison we've managed to put together a decent Bible Study with Concordances and other supporting books. It's enlightening to see people with the drive to truly study. R.D. prisoner - California

Dear Mr. Hoskins; I'm using your books for my children's homeschool history lessons. Thanks. A.S. - Nevada

Hello Mr. Hoskins: It's been my honor and privilege to sit under your teaching. I've been in prison now a little over 10 yrs with 5 yrs remaining on my sentence and I must admit it has been a learning experience I won't soon forget. If this is what it took for me to draw near to my heavenly Father, then so be it! B.D. - prisoner - Florida

HANS SCHMIDT - 1927-2010

Hans Schmidt recemtly died of a stroke in his home in North Carolina. He had written a number of books dealing with his German homeland. As a soldier he served with the SS during WWII. He will be remembered as an historian, patriot and a soft-spoken gentleman.

VIKING'S DAUGHTER

Jessica Watson, 16, became the youngest person to sail alone around the world when she arrived back in Sydney, Australia last month. The Saxon world has heroes; Jessica is one. A true Viking's daughter.

Letter From S. Africa

Dear Mr. Hoskins; I did not realize that so many people would turn up at the Loeries ten-year celebration. Everything was very well organized. The town's people helped put up a tent and arranged the tables very tastefully. The Loeries children all had Loeries shirts and sang a few songs. Two have already been accepted at Potchefstroom University because of their good marks.

Some of the children have been Loeries since the beginning. Things got organized when Betzy and 8 children turned up at Willie Hoffman's house. Some of them slept on the ground the first night, but with help of local people they all had beds the next day and in this way they grew. Next, they obtained a small holding when the owner went to an old age home. HR readers are responsible for much of the rest.

The cities have clamped down on any news that is bad. English newspapers censor reports of attacks on Afrikaners. People see much more of what is going on from their TVs.

Will write more next time, K.J.

CHRISTIAN-HINDU: A Christian-Hindu is different from a Christian. Christians live by the Law. Hindus talk like Christians but have one law - "obey the king". In other words they can do as they like as long as it doesn't hurt another. Rep. Mark Souder, an evangelical Christian and outspoken advocate of abstinence before marriage, resigned his seat this week after admitting to an extramarital affair with one of his staff members. Capitalism originated with the operators of the spice trade and so did its religions. A Christian-Hindu is different from a Christian.

Later reports said that over 100 Romanian victims of racist attacks would be flown home later at taxpayer expense. (National Independent International News summary, #49, Winter 2009)

EXTREMISTS: Extremists seem to be gaining serious electoral support in Europe. The Freedom Party has been running an anti-Islamist and anti-immigration campaign in Holland; the hard-right Freedom party is pandering to anti-Semitism in Austria; the National Party in the Czech Republic has been calling for a "final solution" to the Gypsy problem, and in Hungary the far-right Jobbik has also been running on an anti-Gypsy campaign. (Extremists to Win EU Seats as Disillusionment Sets In" Sydney Morning Herald 6/1/09)

STOCKMARKET BREAK: Despite popular belief, the New York Stock Exchange is no longer the main venue for stock trading. FBI: For seven years, the FBI and the press considered Hatfill the lone suspect in the 2001 anthrax attacks. Hatfill drew the FBI's attention because he's worked with bioweapons, and was known to be a flag-waving anti-communist with strong political views. When the FBI's suspicions were leaked to the media, Hatfill says, he lost most of his friends and was turned down for nearly every job he applied for. The FBI followed him constantly, trying to get him to break under the pressure. "People think they are free in this country," he says. "Don't kid yourself. This is a police state. KALI: A headless body in new clothes was recently found on an altar before a Kali temple. Kali is the Indian goddess of death who was at one time widely worshiped. One of her many groups of followers was named "Thugees" or "Thugs". They traveled the roads of India in groups and befriended other travelers. When night came they would kill the merchant, bury him face down in a shallow grave, and take his goods. The "Thugs" excuse for the murder was that the victim was killed to save him from a worse fate in the future.

Chapter 431

COMING Out Of EGYPT

Esau

Esau left his family and married alien wives. His mixed-breed descendants are now spread world-wide - from the blacks of Africa; the Arabs of the mideast, the Indians and Chinese of the East, to the breeds of Mexico. Because their interests are different, they constantly fight over prey, or for an advantage.

Joseph In Egypt

Man has ancient history books relating his history including his dealing with aliens. One such book is the Bible; "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1

This book contains the parable of Joseph in Egypt. Joseph was sold as a slave into a lawless land. Quietly he obeyed the WORD when he could - which got him in trouble. But, in time, his wisdom brought him to the attention of the Pharaoh who made him a ruler. As a ruler of a land of strangers, Joseph obeyed the Pharaoh and ruled in the manner pleasing to the ruler;

> "And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoah's. And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof." Gen 47:20-21

Recap

To achieve absolute power and remove means of revolt, Pharaoh's agent deprived those under him of their land. Without land, they were unable to produce their own wealth. Without their own wealth they were forced to go to cities to work as serfs for the Pharaoh and his corporations to earn their daily bread.

This same plan was used later against the freemen of the American South. First, the catastrophe of war took their wealth. Next, their land was heavily taxed. Since their foreign markets had disappeared during the war, they were unable to sell their produce to gain tax money and were forced to sell their land to land corporations at greatly reduced prices. These economic circumstances forced them to move to cities to work for Esau's corporations to eak out a living. White America has been converted into a land of serfs dependent on Esau for their daily bread.

South Africa's land and wealth were taken from her during the Boer War. Slowly she managed to retake political sovereignty and began to repossess the wealth taken earlier from her. The aliens assassinated South Africa's Saxon leader, and used white renegades in their pay to betray the people. This returned the land and its wealth back into the hands of the wolf. White South Africa is also a nation of serfs.

Germany's wealth was taken after WWI. Soon, she found a leader, rebelled, and took it back. This brought on WWII. The alien-ruled countries allied themselves, and they sent their serfs to war to repossess German wealth for themselves. White Germany herself was pulled back into serfdom.[27]

Lesson

The parable of Joseph in Egypt teaches several things. First, Esau uses natural or contrived catastrophes to deprive people of their land. This deprives them of means of creating wealth which they can use to maintain their independence or finance revolt. This empties the countryside as people are forced to go to the cities to work for wolf-enterprises to earn their daily bread.[28]

Next, those sons of Jacob who work for Esau can be expected to conform to the rules of Esau - or lose their livelihood - even if it means denying the WORD which is their God.

Lastly, rulers who regulate the people's income by decree and taxation produce a wealthy class of favorites who almost 27 Protocol 15 - slay those who take arms to oppose our kingdom.

28 In the early '80s I visited Scotland and drove from Edinburgh down to the borders. I scarcely saw two people working the land during the entire drive.

unamously support the king of the land rather than the Laws of their own God the WORD.[29] This system also reduces the rest of the people to a condition of destitution.

Government

Our religious history tells us that when Jacob-Israel came under the rule of the Egyptians, their government of the following kind:

> "(Pharaoh) placed officers over them from amongst the children of Israel (collaborators), and over these officers he placed taskmasters from amongst his servants." Jasher 77:10

As noted earlier, the officers from the children of Israel appointed by Pharoah can be expected to be the type that will do the will of Pharoah.

Successful Revolt

The sacred books handed down to us through the ages tell how we are able to break our chains and come out of Egypt:

> "In those days the hand of Pharaoh continued to be severe against the children of Israel, and he crushed and oppressed them until the time when God sent forth his WORD and took notice of them." Jasher 71:16.

Bank In Richmond

When we were first married, my wife Ann worked in a bank in Richmond. Her job was to process real estate loans. When there were enough of them, they were packaged and sold to a life insurance company in a large northern city. These big institutions were the mortgage owners while the local banks only handled detail work. Local borrowers who thought that they had a loan at a local bank were misled. This technique is thousands of years old.

29 "His name is called The Word of God." Re 19:13

Legislature

The job of the "Taskmasters" is to manage the officers selected from the children of Israel. They supervise the newspaper writers and editors they have hired. The taskmasters then select those sons of Jacob they wish to be elected to public office.

The newspapers encourage people to go to the polls and vote. Once there the only ones they can think of to vote for are those advertised in Esau's media. In this way our taskmasters select those least obedient to Saxon Israel's Law to be masters of the children of Israel. These newly-elected politicians are rewarded with handsome salaries and benefits and are obligated to Esau who raised them from nothing to their present exalted positions. They continue their longevity in office by protecting Esau's interests.

Simple Solutions To Problems

We are told that unemployment is reaching double digits. We expect our elected politicians to help make jobs available for us. Millions of jobs can easily become available overnight by deporting the tens of millions of illegals; illegals who also cost us billions in social-services and who send billions of untaxed dollars out of the country. The subject of jobs and "illegal aliens" is on the tip of everyones' tongues. But:

How many politicians in Washington are demanding that Congress deport these illegals? Almost none. Illegals provide cheap labor for Esau's merchants. The politicians I know are more interested in supporting the interests of Esau's merchants than those of the people who voted to put them in office.

Offshore

The media-elected politicians permitted our taskmasters to off-shore American industry without protest. Even today they stoutly protect Esau's interests against the interests of their own people. American overseas industry is thriving while home and industry remain in the doldrums.

Friends & Enemies

Separating friend from foe is simple: Legislators who demand that illegals be sent home to provide jobs for us are friends. Those who DO NOT speak out about sending illegals home are our enemies. They stand guard over our taskmasters' interests.

Preachers

Most preachers are graduates of seminaries. Most seminaries receive grants from corporations and individuals who work for the taskmasters. Seminaries usually select their board of directors from large donors. These directors select seminary presidents of like-mind who in turn select seminary teachers. All teach their student preachers to protect the taskmasters' interests. These student-priests graduate and go to wealthy churches where they teach Bible stories and also teach that God's Law is done away which allows Esau to do what Esau does.In this way, most in America remain ignorant of God's solutions to the presence of the anti-Christ.

Billionaire Taskmasters

We have heard the stories about individuals who arrived penniless in our country. Each saved his nickels and dimes and now have accumulated billions of dollars. Those who believe these stories need a wake-up call. These are taskmasters arriving to take up their duties.

This is one such billionaire who owned most of the newspapers in Europe. His papers were responsible for setting up and pulling down European governments.

Then the word went out that there was trouble. No one was sure what it was. In due time the billionaire was found floating in the Atlantic.

There were a number of theories about the cause of his death but they were soon swamped with other news. It seems that this billionaire was transferring his newspaper holdings to his family and private trusts - and they weren't his to transfer. Pandemonium ensued as banks all over Europe descended on his estate demanding the return of their media that they had hired him to manage.

This is the first we knew that overnight billionaires can be administrators of "taskmasters'" wealth.

Coming Out Of Egypt

We have read that Israel was in Egyptian captivity for 400 years. We have been in America for 400 years - most of that time as slaves. The WORD says;

> "I will send my WORD and save thee and thy seed."
> II Adam & Eve 12:6. (Lost Books)

The WORD sent a leader. His name was Moses. He went to the Pharaoh whose wise men used magic tricks to capture his mind. Moses had learned their magic tricks and used them against Pharaoh's magicians. When Pharaoh was still reluctant to release Israel from bondage, God the WORD first had Moses instruct the Israelites to put blood on their door posts. Blood represents the spirit that gives strength to the WORD. God then slew the first- born of the Egyptians - both high and low. Then Pharaoh let the children of Israel go.

Today

Today, Saxon-Israel is coming out of Egypt.

They have begun studying the WORD and they are finding that the WORD that has been taught to them by today's priests is a Hindu-Christianity, and the priests themselves have been selected and trained by Pharaoh to be false priests: They are learning that the Israelites chosen to rule them are no more than jailers who represent Pharaoh's interests; and they are learning that "Hollywood" and the media are owned by Esau and exist only to capture their minds.

For the first time in years, they are able to go to the internet and not depend on Esau's media. Yes, Saxon-Israel is coming out of Egypt and in the process they see two distinct races emerge - Jacob and Esau.

In time, Pharaoh will freely release all of Jacob-Israel from captivity - when he finds that Israel's slavery only results in the death of Egypt's first born children, and the first born of all who do not have the blood of the WORD on the sides of their doors - the blood that confesses to the world the occupant's obedience to God-the-WORD.

LETTERS

BARRETT: GREETINGS: I wanted to add to your letter about the late Richard Barrett. Mr. Barrett was a wonderful American and Christian man. I am a corespondent for his magazine "All The Way" as well as a Nationalist Skinhead. Mr Barrett taught us that our most important tool in the spreading of our message was the American people themselves. He taught me to stop using old dead symbols and ideas that only turn people away, and instead focus our intellect and activities on today's issues and problems, and to be positive and productive activists. He changed my whole way of thinking. He was a great man - a righteous patriot. There is no doubt in my mind that his murder was related to Terre Blanch's in South Africa. I received a letter from Mr Barrett two days before his death saying he needed a bump up in headquarters security due to the office being set on fire, and the local police refused to investigate!

He brought up Mr. Terre Blanch's death which had just happened and he needed protection. It is also curious that his killer's story is the same as Mr Terre Blanch's killer! "Yard work money owed etc.." This is pure nonsense! Mr. Barrett would never hire a negro for yard work when he had dozens of young Skinheads around who would have been happy to help him out! Mr. Barrett's death deserves more notice than was given. The HR is the only one who mentioned it. He was a martyr and a Christian American! May he rest with Yhvh. Times are changing and we are entering a time of revolution! Just watch the news!!. P.A. - California.

TEACHING: Hello Mr. Hoskins: It's been my honor and privilege to sit under your teaching. I've been in prison now a little over 10 yrs with 5 yrs remaining on my sentence and I must admit it has been a learning experience I won't soon forget. If this is what it took for me to draw near to my heavenly Father, then so be it! B.D. - prisoner - Florida

WINE: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I disagree with your idea of no wine in churches. Our church has always served wine at communion, and it certainly hasn't hurt me." J.H. - Kentucky

RKH: Once I worked with a fellow who was an alcoholic. He accepted the Lord and went on the wagon. He was sober for a year and wanted to go back to his church. I saw nothing wrong with that. His Church had communion the Sunday he attended and served wine. With that one little taste of wine he was back being a drunkard.

As an ex-alcoholic myself, I have absolutely no sympathy or tolerance for alcohol. It has played the mischief in my family and so many others I've known through the years. For every one who claims to be a "social-drinker" I've known ten whom it has devastated. In my 20s I bragged that I was a "social drinker". By the time I was 35 I was in over my head. It is only by the grace of God that I'm alive today.

Robert E. Lee said this: "Whiskey, I like it, I always did, and this is the reason I never use it." The following are a few notes in the back of my Bible: "And the Lord spake ... Do not drink wine or strong drink ... when ye go into the tabernacle ... it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations." Lev 10:9; "And the Lord spake ... Do not drink wine or strong drink ... when ye go into the tabernacle ... it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations." 1 Tim 3:3; "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink." Habakkuk 2:15; "Woe to them that are mighty to drink wine." Isaiah 5:22; "Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish." Prov 31:4-6; "O'

Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law, and prevert the judgment of any of the afflicted. Pr 31:4-5; "Ye have not ... drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the Lord." Deu 29:6; "Be not drunk with wine, wherein lies excess." Eph 5:18; "I drank not wine to be led astray thereby." Testament of Issachar 2:7;

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

The Sunday newspapers in Afrikaans and English had entire pages about a certain Afrikaans organization that is full of spies. The handler stays in Ireland since last year, but has locals who work for him. Their job is to ferret people out who might harm the regime.

This organization poses as conservative but has as its leaders some of those who helped to put a communist government into power in S. Africa. How high is the price we have to pay when a white person dies every 12 hours and many live in the greatest poverty because a black rules over the white man? A crust of bread is all that many of our people have to survive on.

If things were bad when Jan Smuts, a servant to the money power, ruled - things are ten times worse today. The very rich blacks rule with the money they get through fraud. They are forever holding meetings served with lots of expensive liquor and food, live in expensive houses in rich suburbs with lots of guards and servants. They travel overseas trying to look important at world meetings of any kind. They swim in the nation's treasury but pay no taxes themselves.

One of the reason your readers are a blessing to the Loeries is that at one time their families did not even have a slice of bread. Your help came at just the right time. They are now happy children doing well at school. Two are in their final year and have such good marks that Potcheftroom University already has accepted them for next year's classes. An elderly man promised to pay their class and accommodation fees.

Agent Orange has appeared again on Hans' hands and they are in a terrible state, swollen and since the first time no skin on the palm of the hands. They itch and burn. One feels helpless as no-one knows what to do. A friend found a young chemist/homeopath in Pretoria and his treatment seems to help.

After the competition of the soccer matches many blacks want to strike for more money, not more work, be it nurses, teachers, or electrical workers. Their soccer made the white taxpayer bankrupt. Whites do not play soccer.

The government borrows from Goldman Sachs and will end up like Greece without a cent, while China rakes it in.

I sat last night and read an article on the Balmoral concentration camp here in South Africa where it gets very cold. 400 victims who averaged 6-years old died there and I cried.

We would like to congratulate your daughter on her engagement. May their lives be happy and we wish the rest of the family everything of the best.

The Zimbabwean involved in the assassination of Eugene Terre Blanche appeared in court on the 13th July. He got bail and was released. The case will continue in November but - no prison for him. Eugene's family and friends are shocked. Nothing keeps him from slipping over the border. Poor Clive Derby-Lewis has been in prison since the blacks took over though he killed no-one. Two sets of laws - one for whites and one for blacks. His parole hearing came and went but they will not let him go

This Mamela is in the forefront and said just after the soccer they will start a full-scale attack on Afrikaners, and so far the attacks have increased. An Afrikaner is killed every 12 hours.

People still don't realize that we are in a war. Zuma tried to keep information out of the media so as not to upset the sport. Strike after strike takes place and if the blacks are not satisfied with the results they burn whatever they can get at - be it buses, trains or a library - not that they use a library. After all, they don't need to study, they are just given a certificate. They burned a school because the road to the school was not tarred.

It is sickening to see how they shoot rhinoceroses. They kill them and cut their horns off, export them to the far East where they are made into witchcraft potions. They use Soya Sauce in everything. Money is no object and blacks are armed and game rangers are easy to buy.

About 150 cows and calves were killed just because they were owned by whites and their suffering still makes me sick. Hardened farmers also felt sick. They had hand-reared these animals. "Petty theft" said the black police. Best Wishes K.J.

DEMOCRACY: Today we BELIEVE we live under a 'democracy' because we are allowed to put a piece of paper in a box every 3-4 years. But who selects those we vote for? An elite party. At the end of the war MacDonogh tells us, "as many as 16.5 million Germans were driven from their homes." 9.3 million were expelled from the eastern portion of Germany which was made a part of Poland. ... The other 7.2 million were forced from their ancestral homes in Central Europe where they had lived for generations. ... In fact, the process was so inhumane that it amounted to one of history's great atrocities. MacDonogh reports that "some two and a quarter million would die during the expulsions." This at the lower end of such estimates, which range from 2.1 million to 6.0 million If we take only the expellees into account, Konrad Adnauer, very much a friend of the West, found himself able to say that among those expelled "six million Germans ... are dead, gone." *Emerging Truth, by Dwight D. The mountains around Hazard are not only tall, they are great long mountains. By road, sometimes you would have to drive 50 miles to reach a mountain pass and 50 miles back on the other side of the mountain to reach a patient who lived only 4 miles away. A 200 miles round trip. It was easier and quicker to saddle a horse and ride the 4 miles over the mountain than drive.

Dad had made the trip over the mountain many times and had seen only an occasional snake. One day he rode over the mountain and while visiting a patient there came a cloudburst - a real gully-washer lasting several hours. At last the rain stopped and Dad started back over the mountain. When he was halfway back he noticed snakes. Only a few at first, but then hundreds and then thousands. They were everywhere. He was afraid that they would strike his horse. Fortunately, they didn't. But that made a lasting impression on him. Those snakes had been there all the time, it just took a cloudburst to bring them into the open.

Nothing's changed. Todays cloudburst is forcing them into the open.

Saved

I was saved 28 April 1965, 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon, sitting in the green rocking chair on the front porch of my house. Not knowing what to do, I started reading my Bible and going to various churches. At last I settled on Thomas Road Baptist Church where I went for 18 years. They taught me to tithe, go to church on Sunday, and how to be a "goody two-shoes".

I'm a slow learner. After 18 years I found that my Bible reading and my church teachings didn't agree. Thomas Road taught that God's Law was done away. The Bible I was reading said "If you love me obey my commandments." To learn right from wrong at Thomas Road one had to ask the preacher.

The Bible was put together by the Roman church and there were a number of books mentioned in the Bible that weren't included in the Bible. I began searching them out and reading them. None disagreed with the Bible - they just expanded on the stories that were in the Bible. Things began to come together.

Adam & Eve

God created Adam in his own image. Seeing that Adam needed someone to help him, He created Eve. "Male and female created he them, and blessed them, and called their name adam." Gen 5:2 "By giving them both one name, he noteth the inseparable connection of man and wife." (Geneva Bible margin note)

And God said to Eve, thy desire shall be to thy husband and he shall rule over thee.

The Serpent

The serpent came to Eve and showed her the trees of the Garden of Eden which produced fruit that was good to eat. Then he showed her one certain tree - the "tree of the knowledge of good and evil" - whose fruit God had forbidden them to eat and the serpent persuaded her to eat anyway. She did and gave the fruit to Adam and he too ate.

God discovered this disobedience and banished them from the garden and He also banished the serpent and pronounced eternal enmity between man and the serpent.

Women

All this gave rise to Scripture which has come down to the present.

"O Woman, nobler to resist than men, and braver than warriors to endure." 4 Maccabees 7:22 (Adam & Eve)

"As for my people .... women rule over them." Isaiah 3:12; "I suffer not a woman to teach nor to usurp authority over the man." 1 Tim 2:12

"Women are overcome by the spirit of fornication more than men." Testament Of Reuben 2:15

A great deal has been written about these comments. In spite of their warning, women today have been made rulers, judges, teachers of men, serve on juries; are soldiers, police and CEOs of corporations who rule and hire and fire men. During this recent recession the female rate of unemployment has been much lower that that of men. There is a reason women are being placed over men. The serpent prefers dealing with women.

Beasts & Woman

After God expelled Adam and Eve from the Garden, a series of events dealing with beasts took place;

"Adam and Eve returned from the mountain ... and went down ...to the place where their corn was, but when there a multitude of beasts came all round them. It was Satan's doing ... in order to wage war against Adam through marriage." I Adam & Eve 69:9-11

This is the first mention of "beasts" breeding with man that I've run across. On the other hand, everyone is familiar with the LAW dealing with man having sexual relations with beasts:

"If a man (#120 - blush red) lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. And if a woman ... lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast." Lev 20:15-16[30]

Again The Serpent

The serpent, the symbol of deception, was responsible for man being driven from the Garden of Eden. Having deceived Eve once, the serpent again went after her again;

"When the accursed serpent saw Adam and Eve it ... made straight for Eve, and ran after her ... "

This was logical seeing that Eve was the weaker of the two; but then we read the rest of the Scripture;

"They came to .. a very high mountain, ... the Devil drew near to Adam and Eve, and made them go up to the top ... wishing, as he did, to throw them down and kill them, and to wipe off their name from the earth; so that this earth should remain to him and his hosts alone."I A&E 28:10

Fearing that the serpent of deception would destroy his creation, God separated man from the serpent in the following manner;

"Then the Word of God came to the serpent, and ... a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, and threw it on the sea shore, and it landed in India." I A&E 18:1- 9 (Lost Books)

30 "Beast" wears clothing in Jonah 3:8, "Beast", "cries mightily unto God". Johah 3:8, "Beast" has hands. Exodus 19:13, "Beast" capable of mixing with man. Jer. 31:27, "Beast" keeps the vineyard. Song of Solomon, Chap 1., Jesus called the Syro-Phonecan woman a "dog". Dogs, swine, beasts, descriptive words for the lawless hued-man.

India

The mention of India hit me like a bombshell. I had never read scripture connecting the serpent with India before. This verse is the reason many have come to believe that India is the original home of the anti-christ.

India's Gods

India has three principal gods. "Brahma" the creator. "Vishnu", the god of everyday affairs pictured as resting on a giant snake, and "Siva", the god of sex and death pictured dancing with a serpent in his hand. The serpent is the symbol of India. His female side is Kali.

KALI - GODDESS OF DEATH

The evil angel was first called a "serpent", next "Satan", later - the "Devil", and still later - "hater of all good." All refer to the original fallen angel - or serpent.

Serpent Teaches Hand Shake

Something interesting, when I was a boy I noticed that my grandfather would not shake hands with people to whom he was introduced or with those with whom he was making a business deal. There were others in Culpeper County who would not shake hands either. Many years later I learned the reason:

> "Adam ... said ... 'speak the word of God' ... And Satan said unto him 'Swear, and promise me that thou wilt receive it.' Then Adam said, 'I know not how to swear and promise.' And Satan said to him, 'Hold out thy hand, and put it inside my hand.' Then Adam held out his hand and put it into Satan's hand; 'Say, now - I will not break my promise, nor renounce my word.' And Adam swore thus." I A&E 70:11-16

Noah Takes All Into Ark

Most anti-Christ integrationists wish to destroy Adam through intermarriage with the earth's beasts. They claim that all races are descended from Noah and are therefore of one blood, and are equally "man". Jasher puts an end to this nonsense when he said that Noah took both man and beast into the ark - which is how both man and beast survived the flood - not because the beasts are descended from Noah - but because both were in the ark.

"Noah brought into the ark from all living creatures that were upon earth, so that there was none left but which Noah brought into the ark." Jasher 6:8

Thus, the WORD stands:

"If a man (Heb:adam - "man" - blush red) lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. And if a woman ... lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast." Leviticus 20:15-16

Hindu Organization

Discovering that the serpent landed on the shores of India opened new doors of study. I soon discovered the writings of British civil servants who had lived in India. As British civil servants their job was to rule India in an orderly manner. They were precise in noting things that seemed to contribute to India's perpetual disorder.

India is mid-way between east and west - the natural location of a merchant society serving both. Indian merchants would take their caravans to foreign nations and return with gold and silver. Religious temple complexes were built in India to hold and invest the mass of wealth.

A mongol army once invaded India and captured one of these temple complexes. It took the entire transport of that army weeks and weeks to remove its wealth - and this was just one temple complex of thousands.

Religion

With its wealth, India's religious leaders were the most powerful force in the land. They selected India's political leaders. Their Hindu religion was designed to rule the minds of the Indian people as well as those of their customers. This was done by making different religions seem as one. It was taught that different religions are merely different manifestations of the world-God called The Force, or Brahma. One can be an Islamic-Hindu, a Confucian-Hindu, or a Christian-Hindu and never once mention a Hindu God or even hear of them. All that is required is that the customer's religion accept "Dharma".

> "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

This acceptance is done through the teachings of Indian Dharmamatras. A Dharmamatra is a Hindu or Buddhist missionary order created by King Asoka circa 275 B.C. to spread Dharma. They select and finance kings, priests, and great merchants in puppet states and are their advisors. They operate the Cartel's civil service. A Dharmamatra spends years learning the language, religion and customs of the land to which he will be posted. Backed by unlimited amounts of money accumulated by India's merchants, he is able to influence the rulers of puppet states and their religious leaders to make them pliable to the wishes of Indian rulers.

> "In Hinduism alone one can see the strange co-existence of an atheist, an agnostic and a theist." Am I A Hindu, p.30, Ed Viswayathan, Halo Books, San Francisco 1997

Hindu Order

There is something particularly interesting about India's gods. India has 300,000,000 gods. Every village has its own distinct god. Most are goddesses and they are black:

> "God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam plainly ... And look, O Adam, at him who said of himself that he is God! Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman? II A&E 4:1- 4

This is odd considering that in general Indian women are among the most abused people in the world. The blacker they are the more abused they are.

There are other things about Hinduism that Westerners consider odd:

> "Alone among the major world religions, Buddhism does not condemn homosexuality or premarital sex. The emphasis on Buddhism is on achieving a state of enlightenment, but the religion provides only guidelines, not strict commandments, as to how individuals should strive for this. Rape and adultery are considered misconduct, but an individual is free to engage in consenting sexual acts that do not violate marital monastic commitments." (Church Policies on Gay Concerns, pp 234-239.)

Within this seeming laissez faire religion where "anything goes" there are certain strongly- held beliefs. One is the absolute necessity of the belief in racial integration. At times, this belief is expressed in strong language:

> "We need to forcefully engage in... an action that is intolerant of intolerance... It is an action that sets company, church, synagogue, mosque and organizational policy to remove from employment or membership any who practice racial, religious or other prejudice. Giving bias, bigotry and racism no quarter and treating discrimination and prejudice the way we treat harassment will send a message to all..." Jeffery B. Spence, E. Dir., Nat Conf Christ & Jews. News & Advance, p. F5, Dec 10 1995. Article says that he lives in Richmond.

Hinduism not only does not condemn sodomy and free sex, there is an obsession with sex. The Hindu god universally worshiped is Siva. Siva wears a male earring and a female earring. He has a male side and a female side. As a male god he is a sex-god. His temples have both the male and female genitalia merged together in statue form at the entrance.

The female incarnation of Siva is Kali. Kali is the black goddess of death mentioned earlier. She dances on the body of a white devil (all whites are devils) holding a severed head in one hand, a bloody sword in another, a necklace of severed heads about her neck, a belt of severed hands about her waist, and the ubiquitous Hindu serpent about her neck. Most Indians worship Siva in her female form - Black Kali - which seems odd considering Indian treatment of women.

Kaliyuga

Things come together when one learns that Hindus believe that the world passes through cycles lasting about 20,000 years called "Yugas". The one that we are in today is the Kaliyuga. It is the age of black Kali - an age of evil, stealing, murder, wars, deception and starvation. It will come to an end when life is extinguished on earth at which time a new age will be born - an age of peace, goodness and plenty.

The thing preventing the apocalypse in which all life is extinguished is the devil on which Kali stands - the white devil.

The Problem

Western civilization is being destroyed. It isn't as if this is the first time we have had this trouble. As always, the blame is misdirected. Kali's followers point us in a false direction while The WORD tells us WHO is really responsible.

There are several formulas we can use:

* "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10;

* "Money answereth all things." Ec 10:19

Also, the WORD says:

"By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:16

Let's Review

* Adam and Eve are called "man" because they are to be inseparable and act as one. Man is not to be ruled by Eve.

But today, woman is placed over man to rule countries, states, cities, and corporations and act as judges. A woman's help makes man accomplish 4 times more than he can alone. A woman ruling alone is often opinionated, rigid and destructive. Examples are given of the serpent going after Eve in order to destroy man. (The Serpent wishes to destroy man so that the earth will be his alone. * God threw the Serpent from the Garden and it landed on the shores of India.)

The War

Hindu priests control the minds of the world by the use of Dharma. "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." One may be a Hindu and be an atheist, agnostic, or theist. He may keep the rituals of his own local religion and still be a Hindu by "being nice" and not condemning other religions or races.

To teach Dharma to the world, the Hindus created a missionary priesthood called Dharmamatras. With unlimited money derived from their international usury, the Dharmamatras are able to set up kings, establish seminaries, influence religions, hire armies, buy businesses, endow charitable orders, and buy the media of the world. Their governments are ordered in the following manner:

> "(Pharaoh) placed officers over them from amongst the children of Israel (collaborators), and over these officers he placed taskmasters from amongst his servants." Jasher 77:10

Media & Pulpit

The LAW forbids monopolies. Newspapers, magazines, radio, and TV are practically all owned by corporations. These are monopolies or monopolies in the making. Who owns the corporations? No one knows. There are many billionaires who manage corporations for others - usually banks - who in turn are owned by other unknown entities. Politicians are elected with the support of donations from the wealthy and media support. Politicians represent those who put them in office.

Hari-Hara
Mixed breed god of integration.

Hollywood promotes sex and violent death. Living together without marriage is an accepted lifestyle. Miscegenation is pictured in almost every advertisement displaying Eve in the arms of a beast. Music is jungle rap. Judges and juries are black - and increasingly female.

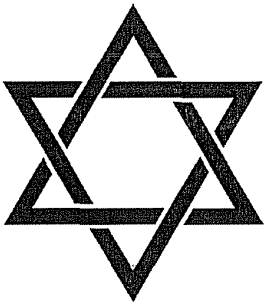
Which of the world's religions condones this?



Siva's Sign
The triangle pointing down represents the female while the triangle pointing up represents the male. Overlapping they represent the sexual act. Displayed by Hindu merchants worldwide.

Notice how today's preachers avoid reading God's Commandments? Why? They don't wish to offend the God of the land who resides in Washington. They saw that the "Indianapolis Baptist Temple" was seized and sold when they refused to collect taxes for the "God of the land". They saw Bob Jones University lose its tax exemption because it refused to allow interracial dating. They see the God of the land forbid churches to endorse political candidates. They see that God of the land denies rebels access to media riches.

"The Love of money is the root of all evil" tilts the scale. Given the choice to obey the WORD that is the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, or - obey the "God of the land" - they choose the latter. Temples that once taught the WORD are now dry deserts. Standing next to the pulpit hangs the emblem of the God of the land while the preacher teaches parables which, without God's Commandments, signify nothing.

> "In vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." Matthew 15:8-9

The God Of The World

There is still another evil God who is greater than even the "God of the land". He is the God of the world who is spoken of in Revelations.

> "The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not (the WORD)." 2 Co 4:4

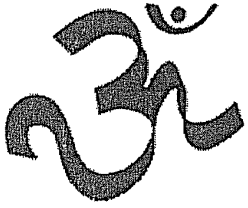
In my opinion this is the one that the WORD calls the "Devil" - the one who took Jesus to the top of the temple and offered him the kingdoms of the world because both temples and kingdoms are his to offer.

"The God of This World" says that he rules all Gods of the land. The one who makes this claim is the one who manifests himself as Brahma-Siva-Kali - God of integration, sodomy, sex, and death. When this God speaks of tolerance, it is noteworthy that only the Edicts of Asoka are allowed while every commandment of God-the- WORD, the God of Adam-man is suppressed. Black is worshiped as a holy color. Black Kali is raised on a pedestal and worshiped by her followers. Integration is proof of their support for Kaliyuga.



Hinduism's Universal Symbol

It is important that Saxons realize what their alien leaders and their integrationist hirelings have planned for them.

Haiti - 1793

Haiti was settled by whites who brought in blacks to work their plantations. Incited by white integrationist renegades the blacks revolted and massacred the whites on the Island. Many refugees came to Virginia telling stories of horror. This triggered the growth of The African Colonization Society to rid the country of blacks by sending them back to Africa.

Difagane

In South Africa, the Voortrekkers, fleeing harsh British rule, found their way into the Free State and Transvaal along about 1836. They found the country desolate and empty.

This was the period after the Difagane. The Zulus began attacking neighboring tribes. Fleeing from the Zulus, these tribes in turn again attacked their neighbors and drove them into more distant neighbors. The slaughter continued until 28 distinct tribes had annihilated each other. In the Free State and Transvaal the Voortrekkers only found burned out kraal (villages) and white skeletons scattered about.

These were the territories into which the Voortrekkers moved. The towns in Northern Transvaal carry the names of the Voortrekkers. They were the ones who laid out these towns and established civilization. Not one town in Northern Transvaal was established by blacks or by black tribes.

Gold was discovered. White farmers wouldn't work in the mines so Jewish mine owners brought workers from Europe and imported hundreds of thousands of blacks from the interior. To keep wages low the mine owners continued bringing black workers as standby help.

When the mines worked out the Jewish owners moved elsewhere and left the blacks to fend for themselves.[31]

31 "Nearly all Jewish communities show a substantial proportion of African Negroid marker genes, such as to imply a total Negroid admixture of the order of 5 to 10%." A. E. Mourant, "The Genetics of The Jews" 1978 Clarendon Press, Oxford

Decolonization

Europe has been ruled by the International Trade Cartel from the time kings were appointed to rule European trade areas. As time went on, these rulers required whites to settle in Africa to cheaply remove raw materials. Following WWII, they were then instructed to leave Africa because the cheap African raw materials almost guaranteed that Europe would become the world's foremost power - a condition not desired by the ITC.

With the whites gone, the blacks again commenced their fraticidal wars, killing millions upon millions of their own kind - wars that continue to this day.

Report From Haiti

"A weary French medical doctor, who had been practicing in Haiti for four years, said 'The poverty here has not been caused by the earthquake. It is traditional. There is no future for Haiti.'" No comment needed. Good luck to France, Germany, Spain, the US and Canada!" Impact, p.15, August/September 2010

Media Propaganda

The objective of the Kaliyuga is to remove life from earth so that a new and better age can be born. The cartel rulers have used their media to place blacks in positions of authority in business, politics and religion, in spite of the Christian law which says;

> "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

To further degrade the WORD, the ITC is changing the sex of their media judges, police, and politicians to alien females - thereby bringing the WORD into further degredation.

Tea Party

Today there is an instinctive revulsion among mankind - an instinctive will to live. The politicians, newsmedia, and priests who do not speak and teach God's Commandments are the enemy and will be first the people will blame.

If they are not blamed, if the false actors Kali has selected continue to lead, then black-Kali will continue her Kaliyuga with its suffering and chaos until man returns to God the WORD for protection and salvation - because it is written that he will return.

BRUCE CARROLL PIERCE - Bruder Schweigen - P.O.W.

Dear Brother Hoskins: Bruce Pierce of The Order died after a very short struggle with cancer. I am honored to have known him. We stood with our Bruders against the tyranny of corruption and enslavement of our Race. We fell as God's men who stood up and did what millions of others have only whispered and prayed about. For over a quarter of a century we have watched from the living grave of Amerika's prisons as things have only gotten worse. As a Primitive Christian, Bruce would say as I do that God's Will is done. That while our racial nation may be under punishment for whoring herself out to the mongrelized spirit of every social perversion, God will spare a remnant of His Race that will thrive. Nothing is over with us.

I do not mourn Bruce's passing, I mourned his imprisonment. He is now free and has joined our friends who have gone on before. David C. Tate - The Order

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins; Blacks are getting more militant by the day and with the courts and police on their side there is not much hope for law and order. They disrupt classes and white teachers are at their wit's end. At the end of the year the blacks are given a report that says that they passed, then, they sit in the university doing the same thing. But you cannot fail them.

An old age home for whites burned to the ground and the elderly, who were hardly able to help themselves, were burned to death. The fire spread in such a way it is believed that it was arson. Same with a house housing a mother, her children and two dogs. The heat was so intense that those who came to help could not get near.

In another case, a youngster of 17 heard his father struggling with burglars while the youngster was working on the computer. The only weapon he had was a steak knife and he took it and rushed in and stabbed one of the four so hard that the knife broke in the black's head. Even though they were armed they fled to a waiting car. The youngster phoned the security firm and a friend came immediately. Between them they saved their father. It is high time people fight back. Never mind what false preachers say about "love your neighbor".

Many animals behave better and are thankful for what they have.

Indians have taken over my daughter's company and one of them made her work until two in the morning and it was not even her department. The dark low-caste Indians really think they are something. The blacks and the rest love to tell us we had it good in the past but things are going to be different now.

My grandparents came through the Anglo-Boer war. They lived in the open veld. There was nowhere to hide and they had to scrape together two rations since grandpa was with the commandos until the end of the war and she had to find food for him as well as herself.

Grandma was imprisoned in a British concentration camp which was in the open veld. Grandma's sister was, too. She lost 4 children. Her father was on horseback and she and two children were on a wagon when the enemy shot at the wagon and captured them. When the war was over everything had been burned. All they had left was a few bent iron sheets which they made into a shelter. Four families stayed together. As they did not surrender their rifles they were able to get deer meat now and then.

You remember the Jewish Rand Lords. Well, they mined the entire Rand underground until it is one great underground hole. As soon as a certain sector was no longer profitable, they just abandoned it. In time the wooden poles which supported the roof rotted and water filled the mine and mixed with the cyanide which now has come to ground level and pollutes all drinking water, streams and dams, like Vaal dam. Not many years from now buildings on the surface will start collapsing. It is a huge area. East, South, West and Central Johannesburg.

Mine engineers have warned the government, that they are supposed to supervise matters, but it looks as if they don't intend doing anything.

After the Anglo Boer unemployed whites went to work for the mines - many died from mine typhus. Johannesburg was never an Afrikaans-friendly city. Most of the Jews moved there in later years and owned large properties, shops and factories. Blacks called it "the city of gold". 'Til next time, K.J.

UNFILTERED NEWS

GINGRICH: In 2009, at the age of 65, Newt Gingrich converted to Catholicism. Over the years he has supported massive government spending on educaton, technology, high-speed trains, national parks, health care, Social Security, and a host of odd pet projects including the bank bailout. Esquire, p. 109-110, Sept 2010.

Chapter 433

Your Enemy

Alexander, son of Philip of Macedonia, conquered Darius, king of the Persians and Medes. He gathered a mighty army and conquered and ruled over countries, nations and kings. After 12 years, he fell sick and died, but first he divided his empire amongst his generals who put on crowns and purple robes and each ruled his appointed land with his own decrees being the law of the land.

King Antiochus ruled the subject people of Israel harshly and taxed the people of Jerusalem so harshly that the city became an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those who were born in her; and her own children left her. And her dishonor increased.

In those days went there out of Israel wicked men who persuaded many, saying: Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen. Then certain of the people went to the king, who gave them license to do after the ordinances of the heathen. Moreover, king Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom that all should be one people, and every one should leave his laws and follow the laws that he should give them; so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king, and whosoever would not do according to the command of the king, he should die.

Then many of the people were gathered unto him, to wit, every one that forsook the law; and so they committed evils in the land. And whosoever was found with any book of the testament or if any consented to the law, the commandment was that they should be put to death.

Howbeit many in Israel were fully resolved to die that they might not profane the holy covenant.

Israel's Enemy

The enemy in this case is easy to see: it was the alien government that substituted the law of the king for the WORD. Next, there were those who accepted the alien law and joined with the strangers to become "one people". These were the integrationists and "mongrelizers" who were enemies of both the WORD and their nation.

Moses & The Levites

There are other enemies. Moses recorded the Law. The Levites were chosen to perform rituals, teach, and help enforce the WORD. Moses did not trust them and before he died it is recorded;

> "Moses commanded the Levites, which have the ark of the Covenant of the Lord, saying, Take this book of the Law, and put it in the side of the ark of the Covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee." Deut 31: 25-26

Today we search the book of the Law and find that Moses' prediction has come to pass - most Levites tell Bible stories, but do not recognize, teach or obey God's Law which makes them enemies of the Word. Today, hundreds if not thousands of them are accused of sodomizing countless children - and the Law punishing sodomy remains hidden.

Priests

The teachings of priests go directly to the control of people's minds. People are taught that obedience or disobedience to priestly teachings determine whether one will or will not enter eternal life. If one controls what a religion teaches he also can control the believer's thoughts.

In the days of the Maccabees, a conquering army appointed an agreeable Hebrew priest to be high-priest. Since the people believed that the only Law was the never changing WORD, the appointed high priest was able to speak the wishes of the nation's conqueror as if they were the word of God. To disagree was dangerous, his pronouncements were backed by the army of the invaders. The law then became whatever the high priest said it was.

The high priest was expected to obey the invaders and the people were expected to obey him. Disobedience was interpreted as sedition by the foreign invaders of Judea. It was a way of changing God's Law into a different alien law-of-the-land. The people became afraid to speak the WORD aloud - like today.

Another Priest

In the 50s, I was an organizer for Virginia's Defenders Of State Sovereignty. We were trying to save our schools from government control. It was a time when the federal government was taking over control of public schools from the states. In Little Rock, the 101st Airborne bayoneted protesting parents.

We had more than 10,000 dues paying- members and everybody who was anybody belonged. We needed a state chaplain.

In college I was taught to be an atheist. I didn't know about God's Law. The directors of the Defenders selected an Episcopal bishop to be state chaplain. He was a regular guy; congenial, and could bend an elbow with the best of them.

I remember asking him a question. "Is there anything in the Bible against racial intermarriage?" He grew thoughtful and gravely replied; "No, not a single thing."

Ten years later I got saved and started reading my Bible and taking notes. In a short time my notebook containing prohibitions against mongrelization had grown so large it was unwieldy. The bishop was either ignorant or had lied to control my mind.

> "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4; "They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange (Heb zûwr - racial adultery) children; Hosea 5:7; "When they had heard the law ... they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." De 23:2

I learned that there are different kinds of priests calling themselves "Christian". One kind teaches the Laws, statutes and Judgments of the WORD; most of the other kind use their position to teach people to "be-nice", but omit God's Law and substitute the King's "law-of-the-land" in its place. Since the merchant, the politicians, and the rich pay the big salaries, these law-of-the-land preachers work hard to serve their paymaster.

Hell

A good way to discover the identity of our enemies is to see who it is who is being denied entry into the kingdom of God.

> "How hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." Mark 10:24-25

When you thread a needle to mend your sox, the eye of the needle is the place you run the thread through. Now, picture a camel going through that same tiny hole. It is easier for a camel to go through that hole than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God. While you are at it - count the number of rich men in government and you will understand why we are having the problems we are having.

In addition to rich men, scripture adds kings and powerful ones:

> "I beheld the angels of punishment ... preparing for the kings and the powerful ones of the earth." Enoch I 52:3,5

Hell itself was also described:

"And I was led up on the Northern Side, and saw there a very terrible place, and there were all manner of tortures in that place: cruel darkness and un-illuminated gloom, ... murky fire .. and there is a fiery river ... and that whole place is everywhere fire ... and everywhere there is frost and ice, thirst and shivering ... and the angels fearful and merciless ...

"This place, O Enoch, is prepared for those who dishonor God, who on earth practice sin against nature, which is child-corruption after the sodomic fashion, magic-making, enchantments and devilish witchcrafts, and who boast of their wicked deeds, stealing, lies, calumnies, envy, rancor, fornication, murder, and who, accursed, steal the souls of men, who seeing the poor take away their goods and themselves wax rich, injuring them for other men's goods; who being able to satisfy the empty, made the hungering to die; being able to clothe, stripped the naked; and who knew not their creator ... for all these is prepared this place amongst these, for eternal inheritance." Enoch 10:1-3

The Serpent

The WORD from the beginning speaks of the serpent - meaning deception. Practitioners of deception include kings, the rich and powerful, and actors who serve them to keep people enslaved. The actor can scarce play his part without violating the Law - which teaches his audience to do the same.

Actors

Rulers have long pondered how to keep their subjects from studying and obeying the Law. Lawful subjects are a danger for a lawless ruler. In ancient days the king sent storytellers from castle to castle and court to court. People came from miles around to hear tales about their heroic king.

"There shall not be found among you anyone ... who casts a spell." Deut 18:10-11

An actor can do all things - he is above condemnation. People have been taught to worship them as gods; their income is fantastic; their homes mansions; their faces are forever before the public. The actor has the ability to become whomever he chooses to be. He is given honors, wealth and acclaim. He can make people believe that he is a genuine statesmen and can even make people believe that he is material fit to be president, Actors are sex symbols, philanthropists or space travelers. They have the attributes of gods with the ability to be reincarnated when dead.

Today's actors are teachers of sex and violence - the two attributes of Siva, the sex god, and Kali - the goddess of death.

Profession of Deception

The two professions most despised by the Romans were actors and gladiators. We know that today's actors are mostly whores and whoremongers while today's "wrestling gladiators" are mostly actors. Both are professions of deception.

In Virginia in the 18th century, an acting group attempted to land and ply their trade and were forbidden to do so. Their efforts were certain to corrupt the lawful minds of the people with make-believe replacing fact.

Magicians

When governments are tyrants the identity of the nation's true heroes is suppressed to prevent them leading revolts against the establishment. In their place are make-believe heroes - actors.

> "He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar;" I John 2:4; "A thief is better than a man accustomed to lie." Ecclesiasticus 20:25; "Liars shall have their part in the lake that burneth with fire." Rev 21:8

It is normal for those who infest the stage to be the scum of the earth, the sweepings of the charnel floor, the damned of all mankind, the shunned by all who are decent and honorable. That such beings exist is a blight on mankind. "As a man thinketh ... so is he." Pr 23:7

The "law-of-the-land" changes constantly. There are so many changes a class of professionals called "lawyers" are required to untangle the morass of conflicting ruler-edicts to keep the land from falling into utter chaos.

In effect, the ruler is the lawmaker; the ruler appoints judges to declare that his edicts are lawful. The judges instruct lawyers what the ruler wants the law to be, and the lawyers guide the general population as to the meaning of the ruler's latest law-of-the-land. They act as the ruler's priests and are called "officers of the court".

Those remaining obedient to the ancient Laws and statutes of the WORD are looked upon by lawless rulers as potential revolutionaries to his regime. It is for this reason the Ten Commandments have been removed from courthouses and prayers in classrooms and public functions are banned. For a lawyer to be a vocal associate of people of "the WORD" often determines his professional future.

I've spent years attending religious camps where hundreds came to be instructed in the Law and the WORD. In all that time I never met a judge - and only one lawyer. Judges and lawyers represent the law-of-the-land - a different god from God the WORD. It is difficult for a man to serve two masters.

Media

When I was seven years old my Dad went back to medical school to specialize in surgery. My mother and the rest of the children went back to her father's farm in Culpeper.

Culpeper had two newspapers; the "Star" and the "Exponent". The Star was bought by someone from out of town and began receiving advertising from big name companies. In time, he bought the Exponent. Now Culpeper has one paper - the Star-Exponent. The combined newspapers are now part of a newspaper chain and reads like your own local newspaper - which is probably owned by the same or another newspaper chain - all of which are probably owned by a banking chain. "Woe to them that call evil good, and good evil." Isaiah 5:20

Since then the Cartel media has expanded to include the big city newspapers and most county newspapers. It also includes book publishers, TV, Radio, and Hollywood. The Cartel media speaks the same in New York, San Francisco, London, Berlin, Moscow, Beijing, and Singapore. In the world today, there is one world view - that of the International Trade Cartel.

Little publishers, such as this one. are tolerated, and are even considered necessary, since they act as safety valves. They help let off pressure that might otherwise become explosive in time.

Reporters

I really dislike condemning an entire profession because it is certain that somewhere out there there is an honest, truthful, cartel reporter but other than the ones I knew many years ago before their papers were taken over by the Cartel, I haven't found one I trust - and I have had to deal with many reporters.

As regards the TV, Peter Jennings damned it when he said that his job was not to report the news but to "form opinions". Mr. Jennings followed the rule maker who signed his pay-checks. Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn had this to say:

> "Such as it is, the press has become the greatest power within the Western World, more powerful than the legislature, the executive and judiciary. One would like to ask; by whom has it been elected and to whom is it responsible?"

> "He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the Lord." Prov. 17:15; "Woe to them ... that justify the wicked for reward." Isaiah 5:22-23

The media speaks with one voice. This indicates single ownership or control.

> "Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof." Prov. 18:21

> "If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong ... Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother. Deut 19:16-21

Twisting Scripture

The WORD says

"And ye, my flock, the flock of my pasture, are Adam-man, and I am your God, saith the Lord God." Ez 34:31; "The LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, above all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Deut 7:6[32]

As regards to strangers dwelling in the land, the WORD says;

"They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33; "I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shall drive them out before thee." Ex 23:31.[33]

Cartel propagandists loudly proclaim that the War Between The States was fought over slavery.

The WORD says that man is never to be made a slave.

"Your relatives of the children of Israel are men, and your brothers; you shall not reduce them to slavery." Leviticus 25:44-46 (Ferrar Fenton)

If, in spite of the Law, strangers are in the land, then, the ownership of strangers as slaves is allowed. Different rules apply for the stranger.

32 (MAN - Heb: adam - those that blush rosy, Strong's Concordance; ("Son-of-man" - son of those who blushes rosy).

33 "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2; "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (Heb: 2114 zûwr - foreigner,strange, profane, adulterous) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51; "The stranger (Heb: 2111 zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." No 1:51; No 3:10; 16:40

When "adam-man" first settled America, many could afford the passage only by pledging their labor as an indentured servant for seven years.

> "If thy brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. ... thou shalt not let him go away empty: Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor." Deut 15:12-14

This Law applies to adam-man. The law dealing with strangers is different:

> "As for your men and women slaves, however, you may buy from among the nations that surround you. They shall be your slaves. You may also buy the children of the foreign residents among you, and from their families who are without who are born in your country, and they shall be your property. You may also bequeath them to your sons after you, to hold them as property forever; and they shall serve you. But your relatives of the children of Israel are men, and your brothers; you shall not reduce them to slavery." Leviticus 25:44-46 (Ferrar Fenton)

According to Scripture it is not permitted to reduce a man to slavery, but, man is allowed to own a slave who is a stranger until such time as all strangers are banished from our land and we are to live by ourselves alone.

In other words, those who say that the War Between The States was fought over slavery don't know Scripture, or, they twist Scripture to justify man going to war to kill man.

Slavery in America

British law forbade America from producing manufactured goods, and the things she did produce had to be sold to Great Britain at a price determined by them.

England profited greatly from Virginia tobacco. They demanded that all tobacco raised be sold to them at a price set by them. They processed the tobacco and re-sold it to the rest of the world at a tremendous markup. The problem was that England could not get enough tobacco.

Tobacco is labor intensive. By the time white indentured servants had become proficient tobacco farmers, it was time to release them from their 7-year indenture. To make it economically worthwhile to grow tobacco, Great Britain sold black slaves to Virginia farmers at cheap prices if they were used to raise tobacco. Tobacco production soared as did the profits for its re-sale in Europe.

All of this was done in spite of God's Law which states;

"When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all who were of foreign descent." Neh: 13:3

Virginia wanted the slave trade stopped and the slaves already here repatriated to Africa. They protested to the king.

The king profited from the slave trade and informed the Virginia Colony that the crown would take offense if Virginia made any more such protests.

When America won its independence, slave-owning Virginia took its western lands and divided them into new states under condition that black slaves were to be excluded.

Then, in obedience to God's Law, a nationwide organization was formed to buy the black slaves, train and supply them with farming equipment and set them up in their own country in Africa. The money received for the slaves was to be used to import white labor from Europe. "Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:28

Robert Finley, principal founder of the colonization society, found much support among prominent men, notably Henry Clay. Money was raised with help from the federal government when (1819) Congress appropriated $100,000 for returning blacks to Africa.[34]

Economic Monopoly

To prevent this, abolition groups were organized and financed. Their object was simple. Take the black slaves from their owners - keep them in America and add them to America's labor pool to compete against white labor, thereby keeping costs low.

The propaganda argument used was that slavery was against the WORD. It was unLawful to reduce a man to slavery. (But blacks were strangers and Lawful to own.)

Next came "radical abolition. It was designed to free the African slaves without paying for them. "Thou shall not steal." Ex 20:15; "Know ye not that .... thieves... shall (not) inherit the kingdom of God." I Cor 6:9,10

Radical abolition was designed to do two things - free black slaves before replacement could be made for them from Europe's white workers. This would bankrupt the powerful Southern plantation owners and transfer their political power to the corporation owners in the north. It also increased the labor pool which kept labor cheap.

The Brown gang was hired to incite a war. Besides outright murder, they cut off the arms of Southern sympathizers who were their prisoners. The media made Brown into a hero, which incensed the entire Southland. Otto Scott tells the story of the industrialists who financed the John Brown operation in his book "The Secret Six".

The president of the United States was a powerful railroad lawyer. Knowing that he could not get Congress to declare war on the the South, he used executive orders to call up militia to invade Virginia and other Southern states. He sent a fleet of troop ships to Charleston harbor, but a storm kept them from combining forces with Fort Sumpter. To defend themselves, South Carolina was forced to reduce Fort Sumpter before it could combine forces with the invading fleet.

This started an unLawful war in which more than half-million Saxons died.

> "Ye shall not ... fight against your brethren the children of Israel." I Kings 12:24; "Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people." Lev 19:18. "Blessed is the man who does not direct his heart with malice against any man." Enoch 44:3.

God's Priesthood

Those who brought black slaves to America performed an unLawful act. Those who refused to help return them to Africa performed an unLawful act. Those who took them without compensating their owners were thieves, and those who made war on their own people to take their land and power, deny them the vote and place blacks to rule over them as soldiers, legislators, police and juries denied the WORD and are anti-Christs.

Today, Saxon-Israel is rising - in America, Europe, Australia and South Africa. But, it is rising with no leadership and an unknown destination.

In America there are TV actors to pretend to be great patriots - but they do not quote the WORD. One held a great freedom rally in Washington and used as its model a revolutionary black named Martin Luther King. Another leader whose daughter has a bastard child talks freedom but worships the jews.

One may have Tea Parties one after another, but until Saxon-man proclaims the WORD as his God, they will remain servants to the god-of-the-land and run after the actors he has hired to lead them in circles..

That day may be close at hand. It is the opinion of many that the black clouds that hang over our people will force them to finish the job that God appointed for them in the beginning.

> "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5,6

It will not be our enemies - the king, his priests, or the great merchants or one of their actors playing Moses or George Washington that will deliver us - it will be the WORD with you and I raising the banner and doing the job that God appointed us to do.

Chapter 434

ABANDONED CHURCHES

Virginia Church History

Once, the only churches in Virginia were Episcopal Churches and they were all abandoned at the same time.

Test Act of 1673

The king had a law passed called the The Test Act of 1673.

> "The Test Act required every man appointed to an office in the army, navy or the Government, to be a member of the Church of England and to declare that he did not believe that the bread and wine of the sacrament became the actual body and blood of Christ when blessed by the priest." (TKC, p.26, Feb 2003)

The first part of the Test Act requiring Church of England membership was directed against non-conformists. If one did not have an Episcopal church membership- he could not obtain a government job. This included Anabaptists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Lutherans, Puritans, etc.

The second part was directed against Catholics who were taught that the bread and wine of the "Lord's Supper" became the actual flesh and blood of Christ. The Catholics were anathema because they followed the Vatican canon-law system which, in essence, made every Catholic a citizen of Rome and a follower of its religion, ruler, and laws... a country within a country. Of course, a Catholic didn't actually have to believe that the bread and wine turned into the actual flesh and blood of Christ - he just had to say that he did - sort of a code-word. Hospital examinations weren't available at the time to establish the actual truth or falsity of the belief.

Independence

When America was a colony of England the English law also said that one had to go to the Episcopal Church on Sunday or pay a fine. If one missed two Sundays with no acceptable excuse the fine was very heavy.

The Episcopal Church was a state church. Its head was the king who appointed its ministers. The king's edicts were read each Sunday from the pulpit and treated as part of the Christian doctrine. To avoid punishment and keep in the good graces of the Crown, Virginians attended Episcopal churches - regardless of their actual religious belief.

When America revolted, the king called his preachers and judges back home to England leaving the Episcopal Church buildings in Virginia vacant. For years these old Episcopal Churches remained vacant until they fell into ruin or were taken over by Protestant denominations which had been formerly banned. This is the first time Virginia's churches were abandoned.

Empty Churches

My oldest son lives out in Bedford County. A number of years ago he bought an old run-down tobacco farm and spent a long time turning it into an apple orchard. His biggest job was cutting and uprooting two hundred year old briar hedges that had spread every which way and which even a rabbit had difficulty getting through.

Driving out to his place, one sees a number of empty churches surrounded by old grave yards. Virginia's countryside is full of deserted country churches. The front doors are usually unlocked. You can walk in and sit on the hard wooden benches and listen to the hornets busily building their nests.

Long ago, I talked to my father about these empty churches. He said the reason the churches were empty was that the farmers who attended the churches were either killed in the war or had to sell their land at auction and move to town when they couldn't pay land-taxes levied by Virginia's occupation government and enforced by the occupation armies.

We have all heard that the victor writes the histories. It's true. The invaders justified their actions in history books and prevented us from explaining our reactions. Not many have read that these same politicians and carpetbaggers were privately called "anti-Christs" by those they conquered and lorded over.

Anti-Christs

Anti-Christs detest hearing the word "anti- Christ", especially when applied to them. In fact, I don't believe that I have ever heard an anti-Christ talk about antiChrists and what brands someone as an anti-Christ. The word "anti-Christ" has been banned for so long that many no longer know its meaning.

The definition of the word is simple and was well known to our grandfathers.

> ANTI-CHRIST: "Adversary of Christ ... Extends to any persons who deny Christ or oppose the Fundamental Doctrines of Christianity." Am Dict Of the Eng Lang. 1828

Remember that last part - "oppose the Fundamental Doctrines of Christianity." "If you love me obey my commandments". John 14:15 The reverse is; "He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings." John 14:24

Nothing could be more simple. If you obey God's Commandments you are a "Christian". If you disobey you are an "anti-Christ".

To keep from being branded an "anti-Christ", those who flagrantly break God's Commandments claim that God's Commandments have been done away. If God has no Commandments one cannot break them and become an "anti-Christ". Clever. Of course, to reach this conclusion one must step over the following:

> "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15

When one ignores the above - nothing more needs be said - he is an anti-Christ who must be dealt with.

The Occupation

After our land had been reduced to starvation and ruins, our representatives went to Washington. They were told to vote to free the slaves if they knew what was good for the Southland. They did, even though the ones who sold us the slaves did not compensate us for reclaiming them - which was "stealing" (Leviticus 23:44-46 (Ferrar Fenton).

Then we were told to vote for a Constitutional Amendment that would allow the newly freed slaves to vote - = - which meant that they could rule over us on juries, as judges, mayors, police, congressmen, senators, etc. - which constitutes further anti-Christ violation of God's Law. ("Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

This amendment to the Constitution violated the Law and was "anti-Christ", so our congressmen refused to vote for it. Because of their refusal, Southern Whites were stripped of their right to vote and Blacks were enfranchised and set to rule us. This, too, was an anti-Christ law. "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21)

The South had no money. The strangers ruling us were instructed to tax our land so as to take it from us; "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... " Num 26:53; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine." Lev 25:23. Having no tax money, the land owners borrowed from newly-established banks, and when they couldn't pay the principal and interest, the land was sold at auction to great land corporations. "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

From that time, the people of the Southland lost their ability to care for themselves from the proceeds of their own land and became serfs to the great corporations.

Memorials

Today these empty churches dot the countryside serving as memorials to the lawless conquererors who killed, robbed, and stole the land and forced a once- free people into cities to work for alien corporations for starvation wages.

New Churches

The Southland had few cities of any size before the war. The farms were mostly self-sufficient and the towns were places where one traded for the few things the farm didn't produce. After the war, the little trading centers grew rapidly with the arrival of destitute farmers from the countryside seeking work, and speculators arriving from the North building factories and barracks-like housing to make use of the cheap labor.

Cities like Roanoke grew from nothing into large railroad and manufacturing centers. Street-light poles were erected in open pastures beside yet-to-be-built city streets. A fine brick building was constructed in each block. Churches of all sizes were built - mostly by the managers of the new industries who had their names inscribed on the windows. I went to school with children from cotton hill who had walked barefoot to school in the snow.

Lynchburg Churches

Lynchburg is known as "The City of Steeples." The First Baptist Church was one of many big churches built after the War. Its main sanctuary seated 2,000, and about 1500 attended every Sunday. In addition there were two big adult Sunday school classes - one for men and the other for women. Then there were the Sunday School classes for children. There were two big children's Sunday School rooms and at least 20 small classrooms. It's a big church

Adult and children's Sunday Schools were taught by local teachers. They held classes before the main service and then all gathered in the main sanctuary for the Sunday sermon held by a preacher who was the product of a seminary.

The preacher had been chosen by the deacons who were mostly wealthy bankers, factory owners and managers newly arrived from the north to manage their Southern investments. The main service was conducted by preachers trained in these corporation-endowed seminaries. The sermons taught in the main sanctuary were different from the service taught in the Sunday Schools by local teachers.

I remember asking my Sunday School teacher questions. He went to the Bible and answered me chapter and verse. In the main sanctuary the preacher addressed the same subject, except his answers were entirely different. I asked my mother who was right? She hushed me and told me that the preacher was young and would change when he got more experience. My mother was an optimist.

Corporations

The small town of Lynchburg was once full of small businesses. This changed when Nationwide Insurance, GE, and Babcock Wilcox moved their operations to town. These were followed by other big corporations. Many Lynchburgers worked for these corporations.

The Law states that we are not to deal with strangers;

> "Thou shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:32-33

Strangers have studied our Law so as to subvert it. One way is to conceal their existence through ownership of corporations. It is practically impossible to trace corporate ownership through countless bank trust departments. The corporation which employs you might be owned by the stranger who hates you most and you would have no way of knowing it.

Regardless, most of our troubles come from strangers hidden in these corporations who use their money to buy our politicians, judges and preachers.

In Lynchburg in my lifetime, grocery stores have been absorbed into supermarkets; outlying farms have been absorbed into corporate land-companies; drugstores have been absorbed into drug-chains; media outlets have been absorbed into media chains; governments have been absorbed into the International Trade Cartel (ITC).

A young man running for state office came by my house soliciting my vote. He said all the right things and even rang the religion bell when he discovered that was my interest. He was elected.

Soon after, he was put on the board of directors of a corporation, then another, and another. He sold the modest home and moved into a much more expensive home. The local newspaper, which is owned by a newspaper corporation, supports him in each election. Corporations govern Virginia through people like this.

We are familiar with the saying; "Talk about anything but politics and religion." First Baptist Church and its Sunday Schools stopped teaching the Laws, Statutes, and Judgments and relating the injustices done to the people by anti-Christs who now own everything we once owned. Since the church stopped teaching the people about God's Law - the people had no reason to attend church and gradually stopped coming. This was true all across the Southland.

My sister still goes to First Baptist. She was one of 15 attending service last Sunday. I had the opportunity recently to go through the the First Baptist Sunday schools. The floors were deep in dust; no one had walked across the floors of the classrooms in years. That great church which once had 1,500 attending now has 15 attending service.

There are still a few well- attended Disney-World type churches operating in town. Each has a gimmick that attracts a certain crowd, but all those attending get is kindergarten ritual and parables that are told to children. So far, except for those who hold services in their homes, I haven't found one that teaches God's Commandments. The rest are being deserted. Many are being closed.

Most of Virginia's churches have forgotten God's Commandments and their people are deserting them in droves. This is the third time.

New Era

Almost everything we read or see on TV is calculated to program our minds. However, there are things that can't be hidden any longer.

We are at war with Islam because Mohammedans no longer listen to their political leaders selected by corporations to rule them. It has nothing to do with oil or politics. To force submission, the corporations have sent surrogate countries to destroy Islamic cities and kill their people. It's a win-win affair. Moslems will either settle down and accept the leaders given them, or they will form an undying hatred for the Saxon people the corporations have sent against them. After all, the destruction of the Saxon is the real objective of the ITC.

A new era is dawning in the West. Political and religious corporation puppets have opened the borders for strangers to pour in. The media are hiding the casualty statistics of this war - statistics showing that 90% of America's interracial crime victims result from attacks by strangers on Saxons.

Many of those who are abandoning the churches see the danger surrounding our nation and are learning what God requires of us. They know that a Christian could not vote for a stranger to rule over them as president - it violates the Law and is the act of an "anti-Christ".

They know that the land is to be divided and never sold.

They have learned that there are to be no strangers in the land lest we learn their ways.

It is becoming common knowledge that we are not to be taxed, and that usury is a capital crime.

They know that sodomy is another capital crime.

Logic tells us that a tea party that wins 100% will soon revert to the old ways without God's Law to guide them.

Third Abandoned Church

Today, people are leaving the churches in droves. This is the third time. Churches have lost their reason for existence. They have stopped teaching the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of Abraham;

"In vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." Matthew 15:8-9

Fourth Church

The thing that is taking the place of the Godless vacant churches are home churches teaching people to believe and teach the WORD.

Tea Party sympathizers who talk about the Constitution but still praise Martin Luther King are anti-Christ. Church, business, and political leaders who practice and promote sodomy, pedophilia and miscegenation are anti-Christ. The media which teaches our men, women and children bloodshed and immorality must be dealt with God's way. "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24

The time is approaching when the person who does not stand and proclaim his position in relation to The WORD so that all may hear - will lose our support and win God's curse.

Anti-Christs cannot support Christian Law when it will cause him to lose the support of other anti-Christs. Neither can he openly support other anti-Christ if it will cause him to lose Christian support.

People forget the power of God. If Christians had proclaimed God's WORD before the last election we would not have the president we have: "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

If anti-Christs wish to argue with God - let them. It is a difficult argument to win.

When people begin to stand up and call on God the Word to direct them - a new church age will have been born.

PABLO PICASSO

"When art ceases to be the soul-nourishment of the best minds, the artist is permitted to exploit his talents by employing all the tricks of an intellectual charlatan. Most people today can expect neither comfort nor uplifting from art. The 'spiritualised', the wealthy, the professional loafers crave only that which is devious, sensational, twisted and scandalous in modern art.

"I myself have fed these people what they desired, and I presented the critics with the most ridiculous thoughts that entered my mind. The less they understood, the greater was their admiration! And, as I played this game with them, I became famous - and very rapidly, indeed. For the painter fame means that he can sell his works and become prosperous. That is why I was feted, and that is why I am rich.

"Privately, however, I do not consider myself to be an artist ... I am just a common clown, a mountebank. I understood the time I lived in, and merely exploited the stupidity and vanity of my contemporaries ..." THE BANK OF NORTH DAKOTA by Stephen Goodson

"The current financial crisis has high- lighted the inherent flaws and weaknesses of the fractional reserve banking system. ...

"Negative growth rates and escalating unemployment have brought into sharp focus the need for central banks to convert into state banks that can then create each country's money supply free of debt and free of interest.

"An admirable example of a state bank that has served its people successfully for the past 91 years is the Bank of North Dakota in the United States ...

"Currently, 46 of the 50 US states are reported to be insolvent ... With the exception of North Dakota and Montana, all the states have a budget deficit... 49 of the 50 state have been experiencing increasing unemployment - except North Dakota, where employment levels have been rising.

"Last year North Dakota had a budget surplus of $2.2-billion. Between 2000 and 2009 its GNP grew by 56%, personal income by 43%, and salaries and wages by 34%. ...

"The bank pays over all its profits in the state, which last year exceeded $50-million. Over $330-million has been paid to the state in the past 10 years. A large portion of these funds is used to offset taxes.

"The bank provides a secondary market for real estate loans, guarantees for new business ventures, loans for farmers at an interest rate of 1% per annum, and low interest rate loans for students, of which there are over 184,00 loans outstanding ...

"North Dakota has become the most financially viable and prosperous state in the USA. (www.banknd.nd.gov/)

THE GREAT DECEPTION: The EU's leaders have built a new wall which separates Europe's politicians from all their subject peoples. The trap has snapped shut. It was somehow apt that the politician who finally let the EU get the constitution it has craved so long should have been President Vaclav Klaus, the veteran anti-communist who predicted, just before the Czech Republic joined the EU in 2004 that it would mean the end of his country as "an independent sovereign state". US WAR DEATHS: In May 2007, the Dept of Veterans Affairs, Gulf War Veterans Info System reported the following: More Gulf War veterans have died than Vietnam veterans. Total Military Gulf War deaths: 73,846 - Deaths amongst Deployed 17,847 - Deaths amongst Non-Deployed 55,999. (ww1.va.gov)

How come the government numbers of 3,777 as of 9/7/07 are so low? The answer is simple. The government does not want the 73,000 dead to be compared to the 55,000 US soldiers killed in Vietnam. What the government is doing is only counting the soldiers that die in action before they can be gotten into a helicopter or ambulance. Any soldier who is shot but gets into a helicopter before he dies is not counted. (Clive Boustred, OpEdNews)

HAITI: With thousands dead and injured, chaos reigns, with gangs of escaped prisoners and rapacious looters and murderers wielding their machetes (called 'pangas' in Africa, large, sharp dangerous knives used for slashing sugarcane). Television clips reveal the utter lawlessness prevailing -

On 17 January UN Sec-Gen Moon toured Port-au-Prince on a goodwill trip, but was threatened by mobs standing around doing nothing yelling aggressive demands: "We want food! We want shelter! We want jobs!" Not a word of thanks from the Haitians, no kindness for each other; force, theft and bullying the order of the day. Haitians themselves are doing nothing to alleviate their situation.

Slaves brought to Haiti to work in the Caribbean sugarcane fields had originally come from West and Central Africa, where even today violence, cruelty, gang warfare, drugs and the power of the witch-doctors (voodoo) prevail. GRAVES DESECRATED: Vandals defaced dozens of veterans' graves in a Washington cemetery by burning American flags and painting swastikas on the gravestones. In the Confederate cemetery in Lynchburg, hundreds of Confederate flags were replaced with Union flags. Intelligent people see these activities as miniature 9/11s, Oklahoma City, or a visit by Martin Luther King's traveling circus that resulted in strife and millions in damages. One day these perpetrators will be caught and the media will be forced to reveal their identities.

PHANTOM ENEMY

Create a phantom for your enemy to fight.
Thirty-Six Techniques Of War, #7, HR 365

Desert War

In recent years the United States, accompanied with her usual surrogates, fought two wars in the mideast. Both wars inflicted heavy casualties on an Islamic enemy while suffering virtually no casualties themselves. These wars were spoken of as "overnight affairs".

Soon after the first war, a Chinese intelligence report was leaked onto the internet. It was written by two Chinese military intelligence writers summarizing the war and its effect on future wars.

In short, the report concluded that the recent mid-east war had returned old-fashioned prop-driven planes and helicopters to the battlefield armed with sophisticated rockets which made them a new weapon that was virtually invincible.

The rocket-armed infantry soldier had also reached a new pinnacle of importance. These rocket-armed warriors have put an end to modern warfare. Gone was the former master of the battlefield - the tank, as well as low flying infantry support aircraft. Neither could outrun nor hide from the shoulder-fired rocket. Nothing could move on the battlefield within range of these rockets. Modern warfare was over. A new age had arrived.

China Sees 5 New Battlefields

As noted in HR #365, "36-Strategies", (2005 HD, $12), orientals study the 36-Strategies of war almost from the time they are born. If one strategy doesn't work, there are 35 others that may. The ideal war is described as "The greatest victory is the victory gained without battle."

With this guide these Chinese authors selected five current types of warfare which they believe contain the seeds of victory today:

1. George Soros - Economic War. This "overnight billionaire" uses his money-media monopoly to hire expert financial manipulators and politicians. Their efforts caused the collapse of the economies of a dozen or so Asian countries - doing more damage than several recent wars. Asian assets were reduced to pennies on the dollar and were then swept into Soros' coffers.

2. Bin Laden - Terror. The concern is whether or not "terrorism" in its countless forms will become the "weapon of choice" by those who have no other effective weapon. There is presently no defense against terror.

3. Escabar - Drugs. Westerners look on Escabar as a corner drug dealer. The Chinese look on Escabar and remember China's 1800s Opium Wars with the British that forced China to accept opium sales. Millions of Chinese became addicts and lay around until they died of starvation. Because of this, China believes nothing the West has to say about anything. To the oriental, drug sales are warfare.

4. Matsumoto - Aum Shinrikyo. The 2004 Council on Foreign Relations publication explained it this way:

> "Aum Shinrikyo is a doomsday cult whose teachings are based on on tenets borrowed from Hinduism and Buddhism. Its more benign attributes include yoga, meditation, and breathing exercises. But at the center of the group's belief is reverence for Shoko Asahara, Aum's founder, who teaches that the end of the world is near. Their nerve gas attack against the general population is the cult's way to hasten the apocalypse." These teachings have permeated oriental thinking and have resulted in recruits willing to become human bombs and kamikazes.

5. Kevin Mitnick - Hacker. Kevin Mitnick is the renowned computer hacker used as an example of tomorrow's hero. He played the mischief with American business computers and found no difficulty breaking into government computers. This top spot might be occupied today by the 16 year old Austrian hacker who more recently shut down the computers of eastern Europe - and in so doing largely shut down eastern Europe itself. It is entirely possible that in the wrong hands, hacking can develop to the point that civilization as we know it can be brought to a standstill.

Adam-Man

God created the world and all that is in it in six days. The last thing he created was Adam-man. The word "man" means (MAN - Heb: adam - those that blush rosy, Strong's Concordance;) ("Son-of-man" - son of those who blush rosy). The history of Adam-man is given in a book called the Bible. In the first part of the Bible it states, "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1. The Bible futher states, "And God said, Let us make man in our image ... and let them have dominion ... over all the earth." Gen 1:26

Since the Bible is the history of Adam-man, the names of the other races God created weren't "Yellow", "Brown", "Red", or "Black"; they were called simply "beasts". God created man and beasts. On the other hand, alien peoples almost universally record in their holy books that their name for Adam-man is "White-Devil".

The War

Isaac was an Adam-man. He had two sons, Jacob and Esau. Jacob was good and was loved by God. Esau was evil. God said, "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." Rom 9:13.

Esau said "I will kill my brother Jacob." From that day a state of war has existed between the descendants of Jacob and the descendants of Esau. Esau left Jacob and settled among the rest of the peoples of the world and spread his blood among them so that they too became blood kinsmen of Esau and enemies of Jacob.

Strategy

Successful Wars are largely a matter of making an opponent believe things that may cause him to make fatal mistakes. For instance, he may send agents to his enemy to attempt to persuade him that the enemy is far away when he is close. Or, persuade him that the enemy is weak when he is strong. This false information can cause one to make a wrong disposition of his forces causing his downfall. There are many variations of this theme.

Five New Battlefields

Today we are told that traditional warfare is a thing of the past and that there are five new kinds of warfare developing that may destroy us: "Financial warfare"; "Terrorism"; "Drugs"; "Kamikaze self-destruction warfare"; and "Computer hacking warfare". Some believe that the mention of these types of warfare is itself a deception and that the primary attack on Adam-man is coming from still another direction. After all, Esau revealed that his objective was to "kill my brother Jacob". The means employed are matters of indifference.

The Real War

Readers of HR are familiar with Asoka the Great, the St. Paul of Buddhism, a king known by more people than Jesus. His motto was "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

Missionary Warfare

King Asoka organized and trained a group of missionaries called Dharmamatras. They were sent throughout India, Indo-China, China, Japan, Africa, and Europe. Their job was to use the unlimited wealth provided them by India's corporations to travel to targeted countries and become part of those countries religious activities. When they had been accepted they proceeded to add Dharma to the local religion. Dharma added to the WORD nullified its prohibitions against mixing with other peoples and their Gods.

The Law

The Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob is extensive and strict about mixing with alien peoples.

> "In the beginning was the WORD, and the word was with God, and the WORD was God." John 1:1, and "The WORD was made flesh, and dwelt among us." John 1:14 (Jesus); "God created man in his own image." Gen 1:27; "When the tabernacle is to be pitched ... the stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh shall be put to death." Numbers 1:51; "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (2114 Heb: zûwr, racial aliens) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51; "Ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars." Judges 2:2; "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4; "They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange (Heb zûwr - racial adultery) children; Hosea 5:7; "When they had heard the law ... they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." Deut 23:2; "Not everyone shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Matt 7:21.

In short:

"When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3

But still, Asoka's Dhamamatras have done their job well. They have made traitors of certain men who will gladly sacrifice a half-million of their own kind to fulfill Asoka's Edicts: The following are quotes from the anti-christ David Croly (1829-1889)

"It is idle to maintain that this present (Civil) war is not a war for the negro. It is a war for the negro. Not simply for his personal rights or his physical freedom ... it is a war, if you please, of amalgamation, so called ... a war looking, as its final fruit, to the blending of the white and black ... Let it go on until ... church ... state ... society recognize ... the necessity of the fusion of the white and black." ...

"The ideal or type man of the future will blend in himself all that is passionate and emotional in the darker races, all that is imaginative and spiritual in the Asiatic races, and all that is intellectual and perceptive in the white races. He will also be composite as regards color. The purest Miscegen will be brown, with reddish cheeks, curly and waving hair, dark eyes, and a fullness and suppleness of form not now dreamed of by any individual people." Miscegenation, David Croly (1829-1889)

Legal Mixed Marriage

"By the 1920s, 38 states prohibited whites from marrying blacks, 'mulattos,' Japanese, Chinese, Indians, 'Mongolians,' 'Malays', or Filipinos" NY Times, November 26, 2007; California was the first state to permit mixed race marriages in 1948; other states followed until all states permitted it by 1967.

The Lynchburg News & Advance of Oct 24, 1998, p2. said this about Bob Jones University. "The school's ban on interracial dating or marriage prompted the Internal Revenue Service to revoke its tax exempt status in 1970, a decision upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court."

Asoka's Dharma has banished God's Law from America's government.

Major Propaganda Themes

There are two methods of eliminating man. First - war. Second, racial interbreeding. The second is preferred because it fulfills Esau's ancient rule "The greatest victory is the victory gained without battle." Racial interbreeding also removes Jacob-Israel, the one about whom God said, "He showed his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them." Ps 147:19-20

Wheat From Chaff

The unseen owners of the world's big corporations are able to dispense their trillions of dollars to elect governments, advance priests, and pass laws as they choose.

Besides the individuals who are faithful to the WORD there are priests who also remain true to the God of our fathers. These are easy to find. They are known by their words and acts. Preachers who publicly stand against the admission of aliens into our land, who are against racial intermarriage, who protest aliens ruling over us as president; is against sodomy - these are the true defenders of our Saxon nation.

Those who don't have been bought in some way by Esau. They keep their silence to win endorsement and rewards from Esau's newspapers and keep donations arriving to their campaign funds; the priests win greater and more profitable pulpits and the chosen few priests are allowed the use of Esau's media to obtain its riches. All that is required is that they help silence the WORD's Laws, Statutes and Judgments. This will do far more to destroy the Saxon West than "China's 5-New Battlefields." For it is written:

> "Our nation shall not be punished, neither can the sword prevail against them, except they sin against their God." Judith 11:10

Esau is paying Jacob's own sons to turn man against his maker. This is doomed to failure. It is written:

> "Woe to the nations that rise up against my kindred! the Lord Almighty will take vengeance of them in the day of judgment." Esther 10:17 (Apocrypha)

Dharmamatras

The great enemy of the Hindu merchant, greater than marching armies and atomic bombs, is the WORD.

If mankind can be persuaded to reject the commandments of their maker and accept the commandments of the king of the land - the demise of the WORD becomes a matter of time.

The commandments of Jesus Christ require that man reject kings, usury, sodomy, marriage with aliens, taxes, and trade with aliens. This constitutes rebellion to the international merchant and the rule of the kings and priests that Esau has placed over man.

In the beginning, Christianity was looked upon by the Romans as a different law system. Then it was looked upon as sedition and its followers were fed to the lions or crucified. This failed and the next attack consisted of a dharmamatra-devised religion to replace Christianity. It contained Christian rituals, tolerated kings, and left out the Law, and was called Marcianism and then Paulicanism.[35]

A more recent religion has been created called Judeo/Christianity. It is an oxymoron where Jews claim that Jesus was a Jew and that they are the only ones chosen of God - ignoring the following; "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15. And;

> "And ye, my flock, the flock of my pasture are men and I am your God, saith the Lord God." Ezek 34:31

Jews may be called many things, but never "man". They are a mixed breed race who run afoul this Law; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deut 23:2

Their own holy book, The Talmud contains the following; "Jesus died like a beast and was buried in a dung hill. Zohr III 282; The Lord is referred to as a "fool and a clown". (Schabbath, 104b);

They even deny that Jesus is the Christ, which is condemned by the next Law.

35 Marcian #239, HD 1994; #375.HD 2005

> "For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an anti-Christ. 2 John 7.

There are men who join the Jews and insist that Judeo/Christianity is the proper religion of mankind. Its followers deny the commandments of the WORD which damn them as anti-Christs. It is rare when you hear a politician or a priest base his argument on the Commandments of God the Word.

Conclusion

Since the Christian/Hindu teaching is obviously false, and has cursed our people, many are falling away and returning to the WORD of their fathers which teaches:

> "Thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God: The Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth." Deut 7:6; "And ye, my flock, the flock of my pasture are men and I am your God, saith the Lord God." Ezek 34:31

God the WORD created the Adamic race as his own. He created them to rule this world he created and called "good". One after the another we have discarded the false religions given us by Dhamamatras and are again adopting the WORD in whose image our God made us in the beginning.

A new world is being born.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

October brought warm weather. Unfortunately, it also brought lots of pollen and hay fever.

Locally, the blacks still strike, even those in emergency services. Black babies die in intensive care wards because the staff doesn't feed them. White clinics take them in as in some cases those who work in black clinics are driven out and the gates are locked. In Standerton, they went as far as to knock a white female dentist unconscious.

The white townspeople obtained two homes and set them up to work from. This was necessary since poor whites cannot afford to go to the expensive clinics. They all demand huge payments. Heaven knows where the money is going to come from since the government ministers spend everything they get their hands on to support their extravagant lifestyles.

Mixed schools with white and black students simply do not work. Blacks swear at whites in their own language and they all carry knives. How wise Dr. Verwoerd was to keep races apart. Each race was first taught in their own language by their own teachers. Later other languages were added.

The constant electric blackouts come from poor quality coal. The coal mines furnishing the coal belong to black owners.

A niece writes that where she lives some public roads have been closed. There was virtually no repair work and they had gotten so bad that people avoided them. It was hole after hole, some so deep that cars were badly damaged when they fell into them and had to be abandoned. They just stand there.

Included in this letter to you is an article about Clive Derby Lewis who got the death sentence. He was accused of killing Chris Hani although he knew nothing about it. Gaye his wife stood by him for 17 years and went to see him every Sunday. She saw to his health otherwise he would be dead because of prison neglect. He fell and hurt himself. The wound did not heal and turned gangrene and a place on his forehead turned into skin cancer. Gaye, his wife, got a solicitor and between the two they got him into a private clinic.

Clive is a real gentleman. He was a MP in the last white parliament. We were at their wedding and I often got books from them, like those written by Ivor Benson.

The police seized Ratte and some youngster saying that they were planning an uprising against the regime. But in my mind Constand Viljoen was the real traitor not to forget the Groenewalds. These are not peaceful times and one avoids many people.

You have mentioned the Hindu religion. They are a horrible people who sell their daughters to brothels. Here they are more cautious. They would rather marry a white man. It gives them a higher status. Strange how many dark nations hate us while getting all they can from us.

The dairy where we get our milk is run by an Afrikaner who married an English lady. They have been there for 20 years - just a few streets away from the Irene Concentration Camp Cemetery. No, they never heard of the place nor do I think they care about it.

We wish your whole family the best. K.J.

Chapter 436

MAIN STREET MURDER

A few weeks ago a student at Liberty University here in Lynchburg had a wedding reception. It was held at one of Lynchburg's downtown hotels. Her grandfather, 81 years old, traveled from Arizona to attend.

About midnight, festivities were going strong. Downtown was mostly deserted, and the grandfather grew restless and walked up to 12th and Main street to look in store windows. Along came a group of black teenagers. A couple of them proceeded to knock the old man down and stomp him to death as the rest watched.

They were apprehended by the police. When asked why they killed the old man, the leader of the teenage party said that he didn't know, that he had just told the rest of his party that he would kill the next person that his party met, and he did. This made sense to the black teenagers in his party and they didn't seem overly concerned.

Reality

Some people don't realize that races are different. Some are bigger; others are more athletic or smarter. Some are better workers. Regardless, all follow the laws of their own gods.

The God of the Saxon has a special place for his people;

> "The LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day." Deut 10:15[1]

He protected them with his WORD - the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of Abraham which were handed down from generation to generation to ensure our survival. We have been told many times that we must "Obey its Laws and live, or, disobey and die". One of the laws that God applied to all races is this;

> "All people will walk every one in the name of his god." Micah 4:5

This verse means what it says; each race will obey the will of his god regardless of the god they pretend to follow. The entire verse reads;

> "All people will walk every one in the name of his god and we will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever." Micah 4:5

---

1 "There are many nations ... all are his, and over all has he appointed spirits to rule ... but over Israel ... he alone is their ruler." Jubilees 15:23

When those blacks walked down the street in their usual loud and boisterous manner, attacked an old white man, and saw nothing particularly wrong with it, they were doing what their god permitted - as they do in Haiti and in Africa today. They were walking in the name of their god. This is why 90% of the prison population is made up of strangers. They walk in the name of their gods and in the process violate the Laws of our God, and see nothing particularly wrong with it.

Our Bible is full of stories of such occurrences.

Samaritans

The story we best remember is the story of the Samaritans.

When Israel was taken into captivity in 721 B.C. the land was left vacant. There was no one to tend to the cattle and sheep and do the farming.

A vacant land produces no wealth for its master. So, the King of Assyria brought in settlers to occupy the lands left vacant by the Israelites who had been taken into captivity. Today we would call these settlers Arab-Turks (II Ki 17:6),

These "Arab-Turks" asked the king to send them someone to teach them the religion of the departed Israelites so that they would have good luck. So, the King of Assyria commanded:

> "Carry thither one of the priest whom ye brought from thence ... and let him teach them the manner of the god of the land ... howbeit every nation made Gods of their own ... unto this day ... they fear not the Lord, neither do they after their statutes ... which the Lord commanded the children of ... Israel ... As did their fathers so do they unto this day. II Ki 17:24-41

In spite of being taught the religion of Abraham with its Laws, Statutes and Judgments, these strangers persisted in following the law of their ancient gods. This was the natural result:

> "I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria (mix-breeds); they prophesied in Baal, ... and caused my people Israel to err." Jer 23:13

This, in spite of being taught the WORD and claiming to follow the WORD, the Samaritans followed their old ways. The question now is how does one deal with strangers who claim to worship the God of Abraham? To prevent confusion, the answer was given long ago.

Israelites Return

When Judah and Benjamin came back from Babylon captivity to reoccupy Jerusalem and rebuild the temple, they were met by these Samaritans that they had been warned about. The Scriptures say:

> "Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel; Then they came to ... the chief of the fathers, and said unto them. Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assur, which brought us up thither. But ... the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel ..." Ezra 4:1-3

This is the reason that churches who follow the WORD do not allow children of Esau entry into Israel's houses of worship to this day:

"The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7, No 1:51.

Churches who admit strangers tend also to accept the folly that these strangers bring with them. By violating the WORD in such a manner they reveal themselves to have become Baal worshipers.

Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ confirmed this in his orders to his disciples:

"These 12 Jesus sent forth, and commanded them saying, Go ye not into the way of the gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not; But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6

The wisdom of these instructions is proved by the fact that Magabe of Zimbabwe and Mandella of S. Africa - were both trained in so-called Christian schools.

Good Samaritan

Of course, every stranger that accepts and is obedient to the Laws, Statutes and Judgments like the "Good Samaritan", will be blessed. If, however, this same "Good Samaritan" should come near the tabernacle, or marry an Israelite, or do business with them, he will pay the penalty prescribed by Law. While the "Good Samaritan" means to obey the WORD he will also tend to obey the law of his own god in whose image he was made.

We help strangers, but first we help our own:

"It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs." Matt 15:24. "Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and cast it unto the dogs." Mark 7:27

German WWI African Warfare

During WWI the British sent 50,000 troops to German East Africa in an attempt to subdue German resistance. The resistance was provided by a retired German Col. Von Lettow-Vorbeck who commanded 3,000 men. These 3,000 men had been sailors who had been the crew of a damaged and beached German cruiser. He was joined by a number of other German settler volunteers, and 10,000 blacks who served in many different capacities. The British were never successful in their effort to subdue the German-led resistance and it continued from 1914 until 1919 when the news of the Armistice at last reached the combatants.

In addition to the Germans and their black helpers, there was a large contingent of Arabs, each Arab having a boy helper. In time Lettow-Vorbeck learned that these boys provided sexual services for their masters, and ordered the boys sent home. When he did this, the entire Arab contingent deserted en masse reducing the German African army to half its former size.

These Arabs were by-and-large migrant traders who came mostly from Saudi-Arabia and North Africa and were of the usual trader/raider type. With a few exceptions they were much like the Arab/Turks found throughout the mideast, North Africa, Europe and America today. In spite of their various religious teachings, sodomy is solidly ingrained in their culture.

This story is mentioned since the media, Hollywood, banking and most corporate business is in the hands of the same descendants of Esau. They can slant news as they like and furnish funds to advance the political, economic, and social causes they choose. Recently, sodomy has been loosed in the US armed services, while mention of the WORD has been banned in court houses and schools. Esau has the power to do this. "By their acts ye shall know them."

Cloak Of Esau

Our ancestors often spoke in parables to prevent retribution from enemies who might take exception to their conversations.

One topic was the composition of rulers placed over them by their conquerors. The following is an example while they were captive in Egypt:

> "(Pharaoh) placed officers over them from amongst the children of Israel, and over these officers he placed taskmasters from amongst his servants." Jasher 77:10

Using the above as a guide we may assume that today's system is the same - that the political leaders of own people have been selected by Pharaoh to do Pharaoh's will. Over these he placed taskmasters from his own servants.

Pharaoh's taskmasters might be identified as Esau's multi-billionaires who seem to appear from nowhere armed with unlimited amounts of money and the unlimited power that money bestows. Also, aiding these taskmasters is Esau's media that speaks the words of Pharaoh and directs the mind of captive Israel.

Pharaoh

Who is Pharaoh? I consider Pharaoh to be the one hidden behind the Cloak Of Esau.[2] Suffice it to say that in this day and age the impenetrable Cloak might be considered the 2 HR 161 (CD 1988) and HR 300 (CD 1999) discussed the "Cloak" of Esau. $12/ea.

"Corporation". While most Corporations have stock, most stock is managed through bank trust departments and bank trust departments are often managed by other bank trust departments who may well be managed by an off-shore bank trust department.

In other words, no one knows who really owns and directs the activities of most Corporations. The ownership might be compared to the invisible Cloak of Esau spoken of in ancient days that rules the minds of men.

The best known Corporation in the West has been the king. Most kings have been put on their thrones by merchants who furnished money to hire powerful armies. With the power of the army behind him the king claims the land and levies tribute. Since kings are forbidden by God, we may expect kings to enforce the law of those who put them on their throne. Following is an example:

Frauds

History teaches us about frauds. When the Spanish re-conquered Spain they took prisoner many Muslims and Jews who had lived there almost half a millinium. Like Hyacanas before them, the Spaniards made the Jews and Muslims accept the Christian religion at which time they were then accepted as Christian Spaniards.

However, the Law says "All people will walk every one in the name of his god." Micah 4:5

In time the Spanish conquerors discovered that both the Jews and Muslims who had confessed Christ as agreed upon, still walked in the name of their true gods and practiced their own religion in private meetings. The Spanish called the Jews "Maranos" and the Muslims "Morescoes".

The Jews were expelled. Most went to Holland and Brazil and a bloody war waged against the Morescoes caused many to leave Spain for North Africa where they still worship their real god. All people will walk everyone in the name of his god."

The Media

America's media usually portrays judges, police chiefs, army officers and powerful politicians in their productions as black. This is unusual since the owners of Hollywood and the Media identify themselves as Jewish.

However, only the ignorant take this claim seriously since Jewish historians have written countless books stating that the people calling themselves Jews in reality are Khazar-Turks who converted to Judaism in the 7th century.

One way to understand the constant use of blacks as powerful figures in Jewish movie and TV productions is by using the Law:

"By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:16

We know that Hindu merchants are active in most countries of the world while pretending to worship the gods of those lands, or by acting as if they are atheists, Jewish, Christian, or something else. The pretense will not stop them from walking in the name of their true god.

A basic Hindu belief is that this is the age of Kaliyuga - the age of destruction and death. The god of the age is the powerful black god Siva who is also god of sex and death. The evil devil with which Siva contends is white. Things fall into place when one realizes that most media productions use blacks and women since most Hindu gods are black women and the theme of their productions is almost always a combination of sex and death. Also, most Hindus find no fault in sodomy and integration.

"All people will walk every one in the name of his god." Micah 4:5

God's Representative by TKC

The following comes from "TKC", Vol 13, No 3, POB 1478, Ferndale, WA 98248

"The current movement in Britain to re-write the Coronation Ceremony for Prince Charles could perpetrate a crisis of epic proportion.

"The former Bishop of Durham, Right Rev. David Jenkins, has been spearheading such a move for about three years. Dr. David Hope, Archbishop of York, number two in the Church of England hierarchy, has thrown his support towards changes that will result in a secular multifaith 'installation ceremony'

"The group of reformers wants a role for the Roman Catholic and Methodist Churches, the Chief Rabbi and a representative of Islam instead of the exclusive leadership of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

"It is proposed that the eucharist be removed from the ceremony.

"Such reforms would throw into question the establishment of the Church of England and the monarch's role as Defender of the Faith and Supreme Governor of the Church of England. The monarch is Supreme Governor by virtue of being sovereign. ...

"With a population of 60 million, only 1.4 million are members of the Church of England with 1.1 million attending church regularly (2 million at Christmas and Easter). The Roman Catholic Church has around 5.6 million members. Methodists 1/2 million. In addition there are 1.5 million Muslims, 400,000 Sikhs, 350,000 Hindus and 300,000 Jews. The Anglican Church Worldwide has 70 million members ..."

The supporters of the "Defender Of The Faith" have by such announcements shown their allegiance to other faiths and their laws.

Many have been amazed by the "Crown's" worldwide ownership of businesses and corporations. They are also amazed that they find no problem working with leaders of some of the world's great corporations whose leaders are sons' of Esau.

The sons of Jacob who desert the teachings of the WORD to follow the religious beliefs of Esau's universal Hindu religion are proof that Brahman Dharmamatras have been more successful in their missionary work than previously realized.

What is also obvious is that aliens have the law of their own god in their hearts and in time will ignore their superficial respect for the WORD and force their law on the sons of Jacob.

But, before that day comes, the WORD has told us that Jacob will raise the banner of rebellion and return their lands and their peoples to the God who made them in the beginning and whose children they are. The time is near when we shall see:

"Behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him ...
His name is called The WORD Of God." Rev 19:11,13

UNFILTERED NEWS

SLEEP: Naps make you smarter. Those who took afternoon naps fared far better on tests. Sleep seems to "reboot" the brain, clearing short term memory and making room for new information. NEWS

GHOSTS: 37% of American adults believe in ghosts. Zogby Interactive

CATHOLIC PRIESTS: Most of the 5,800 Catholic priests accused of sexual abuse in the US were never criminally charged. Consequently, most have simply disappeared back into the lay world, unsupervised by authorities and not identified on sex- offender registries. The Washington Post

SWITZERLAND: Swiss voters approved a measure to expel, with no possibility of appeal, every foreigner convicted of a felony. Nonviolent crimes, including cheating on tax forms, will lead to automatic expulsion just as surely as murder or robbery. Foreigners make up more than 20% of

Switzerland's population and more than 70% of its prison population. THE WEEK

FAT: Overweight people have a heightened sense of smell. This may be one reason why they eat too much. London Telegraph

AFGHANS: Only 8% of Afghans in two key provinces have even heard of the Sept 11 attacks. That tells you why most people there do not support the US mission or even understand why yet another group of foreign soldiers is occupying their country. The Washington Post

WEALTH: 61% of Americans "always or usually" live paycheck to paycheck, up from 43% in 2007. 43% of Americans have less than $10,000 saved for retirement. Nationalist Times p.19, Nov 2010

HINDU: Julia Roberts is a religious convert to Hinduism. She's particularly drawn to the Hindu notion of reincarnation. She says she's recalled at least one of her own past lives as a peasant revolutionary, according to Will Blythe in Elle RUSSIA: In 2006, Russia expanded the definition of extremist activity to include public slander of a government official.

TYRANNY: German lawyer Sylvia Solz, who defends victims charged by the German state for denying the Holocaust myth, was herself sentenced to three and a half years. Thus far the German state has produced no believable evidence such as mass burials permeated with gas, or, crematoriums capable of handling such numbers. Gas chambers presented as evidence, upon examination by experts, showed no residue of homicidal gas - and there has been no official paper trail by a government that traditionally counts matches and cans of beans. On the other hand, while Germany's puppet government is suppressing debate on the subject it is paying hundreds of billions in tribute.

ROYAL SLUT: According to her butler, Princess Diana was dating Dodi Fayed when the two were killed in a 1997 car crash in order to make her previous boyfriend jealous. Pakistani heart surgeon Hasnat Khan, the earlier boyfriend, had broken up with her some months previously because he would not give up his medical practice.

DR ADRIAN KRIEG: "Public approval of both the executive and legislative branches is below 30%. This situation could within the next few years create a circumstance of violent confrontation between the ruling class and the general population. On one side will be the remaining 150 million Americans; on the other side will be the mass of immigrants along with the socialists and communists. ... I am certain that elections as we know them will cease to exist within 20 years ... The European Union headquartered in Brussels does not contain a single elected official. NAFTA is the greatest economic calamity that has befallen our republic in its entire history. Before the enactment of NAFTA, America had a trade surplus of $5.7-billion annually with Mexico. HYPOCRISY: The German Foreign Ministry accuses American firms of bypassing the boycott against Iran, which has been in place since 1979, by creating 'front' companies in Dubai to carry on their business, with the US knowingly tolerating the practice. "German firms have been pushed out of the Iranian market" a high ranking source in the Foreign Ministry told Spiegel.

JUST BUSINESS: "Israeli businessmen invest in the whole world; the Israeli economy was never so successful; we have conquered our economic sovereignty. Presently we are buying out Manhattan, Poland and Hungary." The statement was from a speech by Israeli President Shimon Peres to a business circle, and published in the Hungarian Magyar Nemzet, translated from a Hebrew Maariv article (Oct 15, 2007).

SHARPEVILLE MASSACRE: Old timers remember reading about the South African "Sharpeville Massacre". Shortly before Sharpeville, nine young policemen on regular patrol searching for illegal liquor breweries were ambushed and murdered. When another police patrol entered Sharpeville the communist rioters cut the telephone lines ahead of time and attacked the police patrol. The patrol returned fire and some rioters were shot. But, this isn't the way Esau's anti-white media reported the event.

ITALY was invaded 64 years ago and is still occupied by the Americans. There are 113 American military bases in Italy. More than half a century after the close of the Korean war, US troops continue to occupy Korea, as they do Germany more than six decades after the end of WWII. IMPACT

RKH: When the American Empire annexes a state - they never leave. The American South was invaded, conquered, and occupied in 1865. Banks and newspapers were established, the country was looted and to prevent revolt bases were built for the occupation armies. These bases are still here along with many more built since. America is the iron fist of the International Trade Cartel. Once Saxon-Israel obeys the WORD and banishes usury - the evil tower will collapse from its own weight.

FRANCE: Seven hundred and thirty cars were burned and 78 policeman were injured in the riot during 2nd ballot for the French president. Twelve million aliens have settled in France during the last 20 years. Le Cri de la Chouette

AMERICA defeated the Amnesty Bill. In return for a few token measures to 'strengthen border control' designed to deceive Saxon-America, anti-Christs in the Senate intended to grant amnesty and citizenship to 12 to 20 million aliens already in the country and would have allowed 103,000,000 more aliens to enter the country and become citizens over the next 20 years. IMPACT

CHINESE riots erupted in Milan, Italy in April, re-igniting the debate on immigration. For a long time an emigration land, now it is host to 3.5 million aliens.

AUSTRIA's Minister of Defense said during a television statement that the concept of a U.S. missile shield in Poland and the Czech Republic was "a sick joke" and that "provoking Russia is total nonsense". IMPACT

ZIMBABWE: Mugabe's principal backer is "British" Nicholas van Hoogstrten, the largest foreign landowner in Zimbabwe, whose properties were never seized by Mugabe. He was the strongest supporter of Mugabe and expressed contempt for the "white Rhodesian farmers". He made regular large donations to Mugabe's Zanu-PF.

In July 2005, he became the majority shareholder in Zimbabwe's leading coal producing company, Wankie Colliery, and has a controlling stake in the National Merchant Bank.

Another white businessman whose properties were spared during the land-grab is Charles Davy, whose HHK Safaris has cornered the big-game hunting market there with 15 camps spread over 4 million acres. According to conservationists, between 10,000 and 25,000 animals are killed annually on Davy's property.

It was global plutocracy that brought white rule to an end in Rhodesia originally. "Tiny" Roland of the Lonhro Corporation was up to his neck in subverting white rule in S. Africa including Mozambique. A revealing 1989 obituary shows what lay behind the de-colonization of Sub-Saharan Africa concealed behind the facade of "majority rule". After he was elected, Mandella awarded Rowland the country's highest honour.

Rowland was one of the first businessmen to befriend the emerging black nationalist movement in Africa and disparage white rule. It was widely assumed that he owed his success to this willingness to bribe the newly elected post-colonial governments. He played a key role in brokering the Lancaster House talks of 1979, which settled the political future of Rhodesia. Leading New Zealand anti-apartheid activist John Minto lamented that with the demolition of apartheid South African's economy had been opened up to privatization and globalisation.

Other plutocrats who pursued de-colonization, so as to impose their own neo-colonialism, were the Oppenheimers. The 1979 Lancaster House negotiations for ending white rule in Rhodesia were conducted by British Foreign Minister Lord Carrington, as chief British negotiator. It made it plain that the British government did not accept the "kith and kin" outlook of white Rhodesians. (Excerpts from supplement to Restoration, New Zealand)

Henry Kissinger played a pivotal role in getting an unprincipled South African governing elite to turn its back on white Rhodesia. (Impact)

NOTE: Looking over HR, Unfiltered News, Feb 1988, I ran across the following:

US DEMANDS: "'No form of reform in South Africa would be acceptable to the United States, short of handing over to a Black government, the leader of the Opposition,' (said Dr. Andries Treurnicht' on Sept 15, 1987.) ... 'The Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs, Dr. Chester Crocker, had already stated that he was in favor of Black majority rule in South Africa.'" SA Observer, PO Box 2401, Pretoria, South Africa

It would be interesting to find out if Chester Crocker, in addition to betraying The WORD, profited monetarily from betraying our Saxon nation in South Africa.

STATE VS NATION: Spain and France will create a joint police force to go after the Basque ETA freedom-fighters. ETA is fighting for a separate homeland for ethnic Basques. Recently ETA militants killed two Spanish policemen in southern France. Basques land claims include part of northern Spain and southern France.

BILL CLINTON: Former Atlanta Mayor Andrew Young exhorted fellow African-Americans to vote for Hillary Clinton, not Barack Obama. "Bill (Clinton) is every bit as black as Barack," Young chortled. "He has probably gone out with more black women than Barack." THE WEEK, Dec 21, 2007)

Chapter 437

THE NEWS

There are no newspapers in Virginia printed by the same original interests. The oldest date is from the 1865 military occupation of Virginia when under martial law the old papers were closed, then reopened with new owners who appointed local people to act as editors and reporters.[3]

The new newspaper owners got financing when no one else in Virginia could and they used their newspapers to inform voters of the sterling qualities of the federal government and of certain people running for public office - often themselves. Not knowing most candidates running for office, voters tended to cast their vote for those persons advertised by the newspapers.

3 Before the Revolutionary War, the colonies political news was exchanged by "Committees Of Correspondence."

Letters To The Editor

Watching Lynchburg's newspapers control Lynchburg through its city council was a learning experience. The key is "name identification". As stated before, people tend to vote for those whose names they recognize.

For years the Lynchburg papers carried my letters to the editor. Then, after the national media attacked my book on "usury", my "letters to the editor" went into the trash. Since 1991, the name "Richard Kelly Hoskins" vanished. as if he had never existed.

Another Example

One election impressed me particularly. A city council election was eminent and there were two vacancies and a half-dozen candidates. About 6 months before the election letters from a certain liberal doctor began appearing in the newspaper almost every week. The letters were prominently placed so that anyone looking at the editorial page would immediately see them. The editor would comment on their "wisdom". This doctor was not known for writing letters to the newspaper or having the newspaper seek his opinion. There was also a liberal retiree from B&W who also started writing letters about this time. These two were given prominent coverage.

The election was held and these two were elected. Conservative Lynchburg had a 100% liberal city council. Lynchburg newspapers ruled Lynchburg..

Politicians & Their Papers

Some Virginians had their own newspapers. Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia's Byrd machine fame had his Winchester newspaper, and Senator Carter Glass of Lynchburg had both the morning News and the afternoon Advance.

I grew up under Glass's News & Advance newspaper regime. Locals considered the Glass newspapers "left leaning" - but they were "even handed" about most things.

I carried newspapers from the time I was nine until I was 16. When I was 17, I would go down to the newspaper and argue with Philip Scruggs the editor. He enjoyed matching wits with a youngster still wet behind the ears. He was smart and tied my arguments in knots. I would go home and think about what he said, and realize that it was just some more liberal gibberish that I hadn't heard before that said the same thing "in other words". I would then collect my arguments and go back to say what I wished I had said the first time - if I had been smart enough - and he did it to me again.

Reporters

As mentioned before, as a teen-ager I talked many times with Philip Scruggs, Editor of the Lynchburg News and when he retired, with his replacement, Jim Murdock. While in Richmond I talked many times with Jack Kilpatrick of the Richmond Times Dispatch. Back then you could do that.

However, my real experience with the news cartel and its reporters seemed to come all at once. A fellow from Tennessee named Delmar Dennis wrote an anti-South book and told the Southern newspapers that an organization called the Phineas Priesthood was after him because of his anti-Christian writings and that someone named Richard Kelly Hoskins living in Lynchburg, Virginia had written a book about the Phineas Priesthood that was threatening him.

A week later this same Dennis person denied that anyone was after him and said he told that story just to stimulate the interest of potential buyers in his new book.

In spite of his denial, Southern cartel newspapers went after a non-existent Phineas Priesthood. They kept up the witchhunt for weeks after Dennis denied the truthfulness of his report. During the entire time not a single newspaper reporter contacted me questioning the truthfulness of the story, not a single newspaper bought one of my books to verify the truth of the article, although I wrote countless letters to the offending newspapers attempting to correct their story, all to no avail.

Christian Identity

I became a Christian in 1965. Since I was a stockbroker and portfolio manager, Christian groups often invited me to speak on the subject of Christian economics.

At the time I was going to Jerry Falwell's Thomas Road Baptist Church. They taught that the LAW was done away. When one wanted to learn right from wrong he had to ask a preacher. When I argued with the preacher and quoted the Bible as my authority I was told to go and talk to a local Jewish rabbi, that Jews went by the Law and used the same Old Testament that was in my Bible. Remember, these preachers had spent years studying Scripture while I was new at the business. I believed them.

I accepted this solution to my theological questions until I ran across other Biblical writings;

> "Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also." 1 Jo 2:23; "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son." 1 Jo 2:22

Jews deny Christ which makes them "antichrist". The question then was how can a person be a Christian and an "antichrist" at the same time? Thomas Road had sent me to an antichrist to teach me the Christian WORD.

Then, I ran into still more:

> "If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever." Jer 31:36

I was a Gideon and visited most of the churches in Lynchburg and many in other parts of Virginia soliciting money to buy Bibles. The churches I visited all taught Biblical stories, practiced Christian rituals, and told everyone how to be nice, but very very few taught the Biblical Laws, Statutes and Judgments. Neither did the newspapers use them in their arguments, and neither did the politicians.

But the WORD was emphatic;

> "And he shall reign over the House of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end." Luke 1:33[4]

Old timers told me that that is why we were called "Sons-of-Isaac", "Isaac-sons" - Saxons. Just as God promised, we are still here. There are tens of thousands of us who believe the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of the WORD. Those who practice Christianity without God's Law are practicing an alien religion that is completely acceptable to the international merchant's religion called Christian-Hinduism. Hinduism has no law but that of the king and the Hindu religion accepts all religions as a part of Hinduism.

4 Jacob's name was changed to "Israel". Jesus will reign over "Israel" forever.

It was then I understood why the cartel media ignored the Law of the WORD and viciously attacked anyone who did quote the WORD. Obedience to one is disobedience to the other. Hindus and their converts going under other names served a different master who had different Laws.

The San Antonio Incident

I was a lifeguard at Virginia Beach when North Korea invaded South Korea. I quit my job at the beach and left for home right away. First thing Monday morning I stood in a line of Virginia boys volunteering into the service. I wanted to fly. So did a lot of others. Flying training facilities were packed and there was a long waiting list. To hold a place on the waiting list one had to enlist and go through basic training at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio while waiting.

After basic training there were still no openings in the flying schools so we were assigned maintenance jobs around the base to keep us busy. One day I was sweeping floors at the base newspaper when I overheard some of the writers discussing a VIP the politicians were sending to work at the paper so that he wouldn't have to go into the army. They said it was someone from Lynchburg, Virginia. My ears perked up and I asked who it was. They said it was someone named "Tommy" Glass.

"Tommy Glass"? He was no VIP! We had gone to Robert E. Lee Junior High together and were boyhood friends. I knew his family. He was just another "Glass" and Lynchburg had lots of them. Of course, once you thought about it, he was a grandson of Senator Carter Glass, co-author of the Federal Reserve Act.

Time Marches On

After the Korean War, the morning News informed Lynchburgers that Thomas Glass was the ideal candidate for Virginia's House Of Delegates. The afternoon Advance agreed. Tommy was elected hands-down. Both papers were owned by his family.

Later, when I was lobbying for the Defenders[5] I frequently met Tommy at the state capitol. He had changed. We used to be able to talk. No more. I never could pin the new "Tommy" down on matters critical to Virginia. He would vote pro-Virginia one time and as often vote the opposite way. He wasn't listening to Virginia - he was listening to another voice.

The world that I thought existed really didn't. I had believed that while Virginians might have differences we were all basically one big family and could almost always talk things through. Reality descended like an anvil. I learned that in spite of appearances some were rulers and others were ruled. Later on I learned something else - those I thought were rulers were actually ruled in turn by those above them. It took longer to learn this.

The Corporation

A few months ago HR #431 carried the story of how the Israelites in Egypt were ruled. The story was taken from Scripture that was written to teach us things we need to know to survive. Since that time I have spoken to readers who appear not to have learned the story. Let's go over it again.

5 Defender's Of State Sovereignty - the lobby fighting to keep Virginia's school system out of federal control.

> "(Pharaoh) placed officers over them (captive Israel) from amongst the children of Israel (collaborators), and over these officers he placed taskmasters from amongst his servants." Jasher 77:10

Again: Pharaoh placed officers over captive Israel selected from Israelite people. Riding herd over these officers Pharaoh placed taskmasters appointed from his own people (children of Esau). Pharaoh ruled them all from the shadows.

Today, it appears that people have forgotten their history. It is all hidden by what used to be called the "Cloak of Esau".

The thing that can conceal Esau and his operations from eyes of Isaac as if they were hidden behind an invisible cloak is the corporation!

There are only a few who know what goes on behind the cloak of a corporation. The common stock of more than 50% of most large corporations is held in trust by banks. Banks vote this stock. Who owns the large banks? Other banks! Who owns the other banks? Still other banks!! The trail becomes confusing and is lost as it bounces from one corporation to another - all hidden by the "Cloak of Esau".

Once again: Pharaoh has placed officers over captive Israel selected from their own people. Riding herd over these are officers placed as taskmasters who were selected from Pharaoh's own people. Pharaoh rules everyone from the shadows. Yesterday's Cloak of Esau is today's "corporation".

Corporation Newspapers

The Cartel has been buying up independent newspapers and adding them to their newspaper corporations. The result is that there were 3400 independent newspapers in 1950 and 300 in 2010, and most of the papers print the same carefully censored information gotten from the same sources because there is no other readily available source. In other words, news is censored before the public can read it.

The upside is that people have grown suspicious of newspaper news and are seeking other sources.

The Internet News

To compensate for the lack of truth in newspaper news, people have turned to newsletters and the internet. In the last several years, the internet has taken on a life of its own. People seek out those with kindred views - even those who live in other lands - and pass on news events in their lands to kinsmen in other lands.

A prime example is the shooting that took place in Arizona that killed five and wounded six. The media have blamed it on "anti-semitism" "right-wing rebellion", and the lack of "anti-gun laws".

None of this makes any sense when we learn from a recent story in the WEEK that Congresswoman Gifford is a Jewess. Then the Texe Marrs newletter reported that not only is Congresswoman Gifford a Jewess, but Jared Lee Loughner, the shooter, is also a Jew. Not only that, but Marrs reports that both belong to the same Synagogue. People are incensed that these tidbits have received no mention in the mainstream news.

Questions are beginning to spring up. Why has the Cartel media censored this information? What else are they keeping secret. This Jew vs Jew affair not only trashes the "rebellion" story, the "gun-control" story, and destroys media credibility, but gives rise to talk of Jews assassinating Jews - an interesting concept that leads to speculation of a possible implosion of Jewish political power - not an unreasonable assumption considering that Jews seldom get along with each other for any length of time.

Today's News & Advance

As mentioned before, Lynchburg's Glass family owned the paper (Carter Glass of Federal Reserve fame). When one of them - a holder of the controlling newspaper stock - died without enough money to pay inheritance taxes, the paper went on the block. The purchaser was a newspaper chain based in Richmond.

They took over and within days fired the old editorial writers and installed their young Janissaries.[6] Since then Lynchburg has lived under its whip. You do what is PC or "the paper will get you"! I can vouch for the truth of that statement. The Newspaper got me fired from my job because I wrote a book on the evils of "usury".[7]

As one would expect from one of Esau's publications, its feature stories carry more pictures and more copy dealing with Lynchburg's 25% minorities than with its white population. Whenever the opportunity presents, it carries articles denigrating whites. It endlessly gloats over anything that

6 JANISSARY: Kidnaped Christian children raised as muslims. Fanatically loyal to Islam. Considered the most dangerous of all Christendom's enemies. Comprised Turkish civil service and private army of Turkish rulers. Called Janissary. Considered "traitor" and "renegade" by their Western kinsmen. Today, many regard the public school as a system to re-train Saxons into Hindu-Janissaries. Any anti-white turncoat can be referred to as a Janissary

7 I was expecting something like this and went to work for myself and my wife also went to work the next day. I didn't miss a day of my studying and writing.

smacks of a Saxon downfall, retreat, or defeat; its hero is "Martin Luther King".

Martin Luther King

The paper is currently running a series of articles looking back on the Civil Rights era and glorifying those who waged war against the separation of races. Almost every day or two a front page "how we got whitey" article is published.

Martin Luther King has been made into one of Esau's heros. If the stories about this person are true, he was a plagiarist and adulterer who traveled from city to city inciting blacks to riot - riots costing millions that left cities in smoking ruins.

Lynchburg's newspaper-elected city council has named one of its main streets after this son of Esau. It has named a reading room in the local library after him, and the newspaper sings his praises almost every day as it has for years.

White Bashing

The WORD forbids strangers from living in our midst, lest we learn their ways.[8] In obedience to the WORD the "African Colonization Movement" was started by Christians to rid the land of black slaves brought here by England's slave monopoly. Thomas Jefferson was one of its main supporters. The idea was to buy the slaves, train them, supply them with necessary tools and equipment, and resettle them on their own farms in Africa.

Tens of thousands were sent back in this manner. This, however, threatened to deplete the American surplus labor pool putting upward pressure on white workers' wages. Wages are the most expensive part of manufacturing.

8 "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24

Cartel corporations used their newspapers to demonize the South which held a large pool of black labor. They paid a John Brown to commit atrocities against slave holders in Kansas to incite sectional feelings, and they chose and elected a Bolshevik corporation lawyer to be president of the United States who waged a merciless war against the South. The result was that the black labor pool was dissolved. Freeing slaves to work in the American labor pool put a damper on white workers' wages for many years.

The looting and tax sale land-grabs were the gravy motivating those who helped the process. The establishment policy - understood by everyone - was that black workers were not to be allowed to return to their homes in Africa.

In the 1920s, Marcus Garvey was the black president of the back-to-Africa African Colonization Movement which had over 2,000,000 dues paying black members in South, Central, and North America. They bought surplus Liberty ships and 50,000 blacks went to live in tents at Newports News waiting for one of these ships to take them home to Africa. When one of their ships arrived, they tried to board it. US authorities arrested Garvey and threw him in jail. The establishment will not tolerate cheap labor leaving the country. Note the 20,000,000 debt-free illegals in our midst today. Note also that no effort is being made by the corporate political puppets to repatriate them to give jobs to unemployed Saxons. Then, too, twenty million debt-free illegals can also borrow trillions of dollars into existence.

Newspapers were established in the South after the War as the carrot and stick to control the minds of the conquered. The Self- Sufficient Farm System gave way to the empire-city. Free men became wage-slaves. Reintroduced "feudalism" was called "free-enterprise".

Reintroduction Of The Balak Plan

The establishment policy of disenfranchising whites and placing them under the rule of blacks was enforced by Federal bayonets.

The next best thing to honor God's Law against having strangers in one's midst so that their ways would not be learned is to separate the races as best as can be done under the circumstances. Unknown to those putting the "separation policy" into effect was the unstated establishment policy to destroy the white race by amalgamation with strangers. Thus, the "separate but equal" policy of separation that had been agreed upon by the conquerors and the conquered was no sooner in place than the conquerors immediately went to work again to integrate the races.

One by one the separation acts fell before rulings made by judges appointed by a President chosen for election by the cartel media. The one-voice media monopoly acclimated the affected populations by trumpeting anti-Christ slogans and propaganda such as this front page headline:

"Walter Johnson Fought Jim Crow With Tennis"

The N&A tells the story of Walter Johnson, a black MD, who trained both Arthur Ashe and Althea Gibson here in Lynchburg. Lynchburg's white liberals encouraged these blacks to play with white children as became "good sportsmen". After all, tennis is just a game!

These two beat them all and later went on to win at Wimbleton. Arthur Ashe now has a statue on Monument Avenue in Richmond along with Lee, Jackson, Stuart, and

Davis. The newspaper chortled over how Johnson pulled the wool over whitey's eyes. "Ashe and Althea Gibson beat ALL the whites!" Incidentally, Ashe later died of AIDS.[9]

The WORD requires:

> "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15

Because of God's LAW Christians do not participate in sports with strangers lest the stranger should prevail causing the Saxon-Christian to violate God's LAW by allowing a stranger to rule over them. This is the reason for the traditional "no integration in sports". In Lawful nations, teams of different races do not play together. Mixed-race teams do not play with Saxons. It was a simple rule understood by all - North and South.

If strangers had not been allowed in the land, or, once here if they had been allowed to peacefully depart, the problem would not have arisen. But, the fact is that strangers were initially forced into the land by royal decree and are today kept here by bayonets. This is the situation that must be dealt with. "Racial Separation" is the attempt to deal with "what is". The attempt must still be made to prevent the amalgamation of the holy seed, "When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all who were of foreign descent." Neh: 13:3, which brings God's destruction. God said that he would destroy the nation who disobeyed his Commandments (willingly or unwillingly), and there still remain many who believe God rather than man.

9 "Their corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you." Lev 22:25

"When (Israel) departed from the way which God appointed them, they were destroyed." Judith 5:18

Results Of Separation Policy

There were two societies in Virginia, one black and one white. As a result, black-owned 5th Street business grew in Lynchburg. Blacks owned clothing stores and department stores. There were black dentists and doctors. The black schools had black teachers and black principals. There was NO disobedience and disorder in the black taught classrooms. There were black owned barbershops, feed and hardware stores. There were black owned motels, hotels, and magazines. There was a black society, a yearly black debutante dance, black newspapers. Whites asking for food service at black restaurants could only get orders "to go". They could not "sit and socialize".

Some businesses were black "monopolies". Trash collecting in Lynchburg was reserved for blacks and was paid "by the job", not the hour. It was a plum. There was a line waiting for someone to retire or die. You have never seen blacks work so fast. I was told that Lynchburg's garbage was collected in a quarter the time of any other city of comparable size. After the job was done the blacks could go home. This gave them time to take other jobs or go fishing. Whites were never given anything like that.

Certain white merchants despised this setup which deprived them of black customers. They were among the first to try to shut it down and close black 5th Street. They succeeded at last, and 5th Street is now almost completely vacant and full of empty stores. Black trade now goes to white-owned stores. Black businesses in this once flourishing black business district succumbed to competition from white merchants. This is how it was done.

Patterson's Drug Store

The LAW is:

"Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10

Blessed food is holy.[10] Lynchburg's News & Advance ran a front-page story gloating over the fall of the city's separate eating facilities and how it occurred. Their version of the story isn't how I remember it. I know something about this. I used to work the cash register at Patterson's Drug Store on Main Street when I was a youngster. Patterson's was the usual sort of drug store that along with filling prescriptions also sold tobacco and candy and had a lunch counter where businessmen and shoppers met for lunch. The blacks had the same sort of drugstore on 5th Street.

Liberal professors at Lynchburg's local colleges put some of their students up to protesting downtown Lynchburg's separate eating facilities. They got a few ignorant out-of-staters to come down with signs and picket.

Local people were incensed and when passing through the picket line would quote Bible Scripture regarding eating with strangers. The pickets got red in the face and could say nothing because when they opened their mouth they ended up arguing with God's LAW which is clear on the subject.

10 "They shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the Lord. Le 22:15. Or, suffer them to bear the iniquity of the trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the Lord do sanctify them." Le 22:16; "Withdraw from among the Gentiles and do not eat with them, and do not according to their actions, and be not their companion, for their actions are unclean and all their ways are defiled." Jubilees 22:17

They were Satan's helpers fighting God. They knew it. The establishment also knew it and rejoiced. God's LAW regarding eating with strangers was one more LAW that was being replaced by the merchant's integration law.[11]

Conclusion

Once upon a time outside of America's metropolises there were independent newspapers staffed by local people which were part of the local communities. Then came Esau's corporations and gobbled them up.

A new era arrived. The newspapers censored the news of Jacob and his God and replaced it with the news of Esau and his gods.

In the early days when I wrote my books, I accepted interviews by nice, friendly reporters representing Esau's news corporations. Many of these reporters sat in my living-room, admired the pictures of my wife and children, and asked me questions about my childhood, family, school, and writings. They then said their farewells. After that their articles would appear in newspapers that did not contain a word of our conversations. One newspaper report was almost identical to others written earlier. What happened to the voluminous notes they took, the pictures they took, and the information I gave them?

I now have an idea.

A number of years ago I attended a farm rally in the midwest. My talk was about "scrip" and how doing away with 11 Hundreds of eating establishments closed in Virginia as a result of court cases. I remember one restaurant in particular in Charlottesville that had a prime location. It did a million dollar business when a million dollars amounted to something. The owner shut it down and walked away - sacrificing a lifetime's work to be obedient to God's Commandment.

usury could help those farmers who were at that time paying the banks 15%-20% interest on their loans. The farmers were disorganized and I was disorganized and so nothing was done other having our pictures taken and being lambasted by the local news and an organization called Bnai-Brith. In those the days, the newspapers called American farmers "terrorists".

Years later the subject of "scrip" came up again and overnight a picture of me at that farm meeting and a brief of my talk appeared in print. It was on file.

Then I knew. Today's news media is Esau's intelligence gatherer.

I have little doubt that there are volumes and volumes of information resting either in local newspaper files or in central corporate newspaper files in another town or city on virtually every organization and individual whom Esau considers a potential enemy. Today's corporate news media gives every indication of being Esau's intelligence gathering network.

In contrast, there are numerous books, newsletters, and E-mail sites presenting our side of events who are now reaching tens of thousands of our people for the first time, news that does not condone abortion, taxation, miscegenation and sodomy.

> "The kingdom of heaven is like a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind (#1085 genos, from #1096 "kin", "posterity", offspring): Which, when it was full they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels (messengers) shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just." Matt 13:47-49

NEWS FROM SOUTH AFRICA

In a few Veraniging schools the teachers did not strike. About a hundred young black savages stormed these schools where tests were written and did a lot of damage plus they threatened to burn them down. Parents had to rush to the schools to get their children to safety. In old Jan Smuts day he would have called in the army and in any way necessary restored law and order, even if he needed to shoot the little savages. They want only a fake certificate, not going going to school to learn something, and in classes they seldom pay attention but constantly interrupt the teacher.

Our biggest problem stems from the Jewish Gold Mine Lords who left unprofitable mine sections without sealing them. Water got in and the horrible mixture of cyanide and water rose to the top, polluting streams, rivers, and dams. It has a reddish colour. Huge buildings in Johannesburg will collapse in time. Pollution is everywhere where a mine has spoiled the country.

In 1980, we met a sheep farmer and his wife. They urged us to come and live in the countryside. Many young people did, but things had not completely gone bad here. Trains still worked, roads had tarred surfaces and not repaired with a bucket of sand. Hospitals were "state of the art" - neat and well run - most of our doctors were well trained. Today, I am sorry we did not go, but it is too late.

Today, businesses want young well-trained whites. Even Maria is too old although she has several degrees. She is on leave sick. The woman Indian auditor makes her work on two departments till 2 in the morning. K. J.

Chapter 438

THE COMING WAR

Roman Conquest

Rome was a city of gods. Each time Rome conquered a new land they captured the god of that land, put it on a float with many wheels and pulled it through the streets of Rome.

Rome then built a temple for this newly-captured god and added it to Rome's galaxy of gods to show the world that Rome was a united empire of nations and gods. To keep order among the gods, the Emperor of Rome was himself made a god. He refereed the occasional spats between the gods.

Conquest of Jerusalem

Rome's conquest of Jerusalem was especially interesting. When the Roman armies surrounded Jerusalem, the city contained three separate groups of peoples. First there were the native born. Next were the converted sons of Esau, and last were those who had made pilgrimages to the holy city from near and far and who were now trapped in the city surrounded by the Roman army.

Provisions were in short supply. The three groups spent more time fighting each other for food than fighting the Romans, and in the process, killed more of themselves than did the Roman soldiers.

When Jerusalem was finally conquered, certain of the nobles of Jerusalem were taken as prizes and shown in the Roman victory parade.

The lack of a likeness of the Judean god presented a problem. After much discussion, it was decided to take the holy books found in the temple, put them on a dais, and use them as a substitute for the usual statue of the conquered god. After the parade, a temple was built for these books and priests were installed to care for them. The noble prisoners became slaves and put to work elsewhere.

Man

The holy writings of the Judeans were ancient. It is said that they went back almost to the beginning of the world. They had been given by their God to his people to whom it was said "His name is called the WORD of God." Rev 19:13. Or, to be more exact; "In the beginning was the WORD, and the WORD was with God and the WORD was God." John 1:1.

This is why there was no likeness of Man's God, and is also the reason that "Man" spent much of his time studying and memorizing the ancient writings. Their God was the WORD.

The WORD called the people he had made - "Adam-man"; the definition of which is the ability to blush red[12]

The holy writings said that the writings were Man's history book. "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1

These writings said that "God created (Adam) man in his own image." Gen 1:27 This being so, a man's body is not his own; "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you; and before you came forth from the womb, I sanctified you, and I ordained you." Jer. 1:5. A Man's spirit is in existence before he is born, and his body is on loan from his creator for a short number of years. Then, his spirit returns to God and the body returns to the earth from which it is made.

It is because man is made in God's image that the Scriptures say, "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5,6

Adam-man was created for a special purpose; "God said, Let us make man in our image ... and let them have dominion over ... all the earth." Gen 1:26;

Adam-man's job is to rule the earth - justly.

> "There are many nations ... all are his, and over all has he appointed spirits (gods) to rule ... but over Israel ... he alone is their ruler." Jubilees 15:23;

God the WORD gave Saxon-man one special commandment;

> "Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round you: lest the anger of the Lord thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth." Deut 6:14-15

---

12 MAN: Heb: Adam 119,120 - "to show blood(in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red (ruddy). NEW Strong's Concordance

Many times God has destroyed Adam-man when he defiled himself by following the ways of the children of Esau.

This is why God forbids strangers from entering the congregation of Israel.

> "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." Deut 23:2; "The stranger (Heb: 2111 zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." No 1:51; No 3:10; 16:40

Mixing Man with non-man produces chaos. When Jacob is obedient to his God his lands are peaceful and productive. The lands that Esau rules are full of the worship of sex and murder. If the two mix, without exception, God destroys Adam-man and waits until another group of his people prove themselves obedient. He has not forgotten his promise:

> "The LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, above all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Deut 7:6

Jesus Christ said, "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 15:24

God the WORD is a racist and Adam-man is made in His image.

Racist

The children of Esau and their followers call the children of Jacob "racist" because their God the WORD is racist. If an Adam-man is not racist, he worships Esau's gods, or, is either knowingly or unknowingly an agent of Esau - a renegade - one who will certainly bring destruction on his nation.

"If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them... I will give you peace..." Lev 26:3-9... "But if ye will not... do all these commandments... I will... bring the land into desolation..." Lev 26:14-35.

No Other Gods

We have heard that in foreign missions Christianity doesn't outlive the missionary. When the missionary leaves, the aliens return to the ways of their gods.

The reason this is so is that God the WORD made all the races in the world in the image of their gods.

"For all people will walk everyone in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of our God forever." Micah 4:5

Most all religions teach "Kindness", "compassion", "wisdom", "education", "peace" and "meditation". These are basic teachings needed to avoid chaos, and are the centerpiece of the Buddhist Hindu merchant. Attach a name to these teachings such as "Buddhist", "Muslim", "Christian" or what have you and the Hindu can pretend to be anything he wishes to be for the moment. Most listeners will take him at his word. It makes no difference what name a Buddhist chooses to call himself and his gods, all nations will conform to the law of their god.

Its natural when racial aliens come to Saxon lands they give lip service to the laws of the land - but almost immediately set up their own governments.

Who has not heard of the "Russian Mafia", the "Sicilian Mafia", "Islamic sharia" law, "Chinese Tongs", "Black Gangs", "Mexican Liberation Movements", the laws of "American Indians", as well as the laws of "Khazar Jews".

These various groups give lip service to The WORD but obey the ancient laws of their own gods and are almost as antagonistic toward each other as they are to the Saxon Nation on whom they look as a common enemy.

Merchants

The sons of Esau are the world's international merchants. They are mostly mixed breeds worshiping the "God Of This World" while calling themselves by the name of the god of the nation with whom they are doing business. In the West they often call themselves Christians, or something else relatively inoffensive, but that doesn't change for an instant who they are and the god in whose image they are made. The high crime rate and the racial composition of American prisons reveal the lawless ones.

God Of This World

"The God of This World" is a combination of all Gods - a Unitarian god. In India he is manifested as Brahma but is also manifested as other gods such as Siva - the god of "sex-integration-brotherhood and death". In countries in which he does business, he entertains his customers as inoffensive comedians and actors. They entertain on a ready stage of TVs and movies in which his actors are bleached, painted, given surgical implants to make them look like the people of the land but whose actions conform to the laws of the "God of This World" which as stated before are primarily "sex, integration, and death." With this in mind, note the plot of the next TV detective, cowboy, mystery thriller or comedy show you watch.

Kings

God forbids kings. A king can do anything he wants, and his army can make his subjects do the same. Scriptures tells us the following story:

> "The elders of Israel ... came to Samuel ... and said ... Give us a king to judge us ... And the Lord said ... they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. ... show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them. ... He will take your sons (for his army). And he will take your daughters ... And he will take your fields ... and give them to his servants. He will (tax you) and ye shall be his servants. " I Sam 8:1-20

In spite of this warning, Jacob-man, like the children of Esau, chose kings to rule them and there was chaos, suffering and anguish as the kings took their sons as soldiers, daughters for their services, land for their servants, and taxes for themselves. The WORD was what the king said it was.

Scripture tells us that on occasion Jacob-Israel wrested the office of king from the infidels:

> "So they joined their forces and smote sinful men ... So they recovered the Law out of the hand of the Gentiles and out of the hand of kings." I Macc 2:44,48

The WORD made Flesh

Into this chaotic world God "the WORD made flesh" came in the form of a man named Jesus. He taught the Commandments of God the WORD and taught that Adam-man was appointed to be a "king and priest" (Rev 1:5-6).

Jacob-Israel - living under many names - believed Jesus and the WORD quickly spread among the children of Jacob-Israel who had been taken into captivity and scattered over the world seven centuries before the birth of Christ.

The Merchant & His Rulers

When the merchant takes over a new market he surveys and marks its boundaries, and selects a king to rule for them from its native population. To this king they advance money so that he can hire an army to keep the "merchant's peace".

And, lastly, the merchant furnishes money to educate a local priesthood to teach Dharma; tolerance and love for all without regard to "race, creed, or national origin", and the universal Buddhist "kindness", "compassion", "wisdom", "education", "peace" and "meditation".

In Christian lands ruled by Buddhist merchants and their agents, Christian priests are allowed to teach the 1/3 of their Bible that deals with the individual while ignoring the 2/3s that deals with Christian government. This oversight allows alien merchants to enter markets formerly closed to them by the laws of God the WORD.

Lion Food

As noted before, Rome appropriated the gods of the lands they conquered and lived with them in comparative peace. This was not true with the captured God The WORD.

The children of Jacob-Israel living in the Roman Empire took the WORD seriously - starting with the first Commandment - "Thou shalt have no other gods before thee." This meant that sodomy, sexual license, usury, and land monopoly, among other things, were anathema and the punishments proscribed by the WORD were enforced where possible.

Rome could not tolerate this. If the 15 or so families that now owned most of Rome's land and trade were deprived of their monopolies - the Roman Empire as constituted would cease being an empire. Out of all of Rome's gods, the Christian God -The WORD - could not be reasoned with or made to tone down its Commandments. The Roman solution was to kill the rebellious Christians. Thousands were crucified or taken to the arena and fed to the lions.

When this failed, Rome pre-empted the Christian religion, kept its rituals, replaced its Commandments with its own basic religion, and called the new creation "Christianity". Its priests were installed and reading the WORD was forbidden. This new religious creation permitted caesars, monopolies, and usury to continue to exist. Rome operated the same as before, but now its old religion was practiced under a different name.

Peasant Revolts 1381

Reformers arose in England and told the people that the WORD forbade taxes, sodomy and immorality among the priesthood, and that the land was to be divided. John Wycliffe and his Lollard followers taught the WORD in England. For their audacity, they were hunted, harried and hanged. In Bohemia, Jan Huss did the same. He was burned. In Florence, Savonarola taught with success. He was arrested, tortured and executed.

England's king and nobility lived off the earnings of the peasants. Each year the king wanted just a bit more and his nobles wanted just a bit more. At last, the king passed another very small tax that broke the camel's back. The peasants could hardly feed their families and, under the leadership of Wat Tyler, 100,000 rose under their manorial militias and marched on London, hanging judges, lawyers, evil priests, and unjust manor owners on the way. The gates of London were thrown open for them and they were in the process of setting up a new government when Wat Tyler was assassinated and those loyal to the king went after the rebels hanging and killing hundreds and thousands.

Peasant Revolts 1524

In 1524, an evangelist named Martin Luther began teaching the WORD that he had long studied. He taught young apprentices who went into the countryside teaching the peasants that the land, which was the monopoly of nobles and the church, was to be taken and justly divided. There were to be no taxes or immoral priests.

The movement was surprisingly smooth. Many cities and manor lords joined in and much of the land in Southern and Central Germany was divided and a surprising number of nobles joined in. The great Zwingli approved. The great German nobles and the Church were quiet until they discovered that revenues were falling off. Upon this discovery, they balked and demanded their land returned. Martin Luther, who had been in favor of the land division, was on the horns of a dilemma. If he kept with the peasant revolt, the Catholic church would catch and burn him at the stake and his Lutheran Reformation would be finished. If he turned against the peasants, he would retain the protection of the nobles against the Catholic Church. He chose to stay with the nobles against the peasants. The nobles marshalled their armies and slaughtered over 100,000 of the peasants. From that time, the great nobles appointed their own bishops for the Lutheran Church and the peasant revolts died. The peasants returned to the land as serfs.

Conditions Today

With a few differences, conditions today are much the same as they have been in the past.

The International Merchant has played his ace "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10

He marked off boundaries of trade areas and has set up kings and nobles to rule them. He has used his kings and nobles to set up private usury banks whose rulers are hidden behind impenetrable corporate shields. He has used these banks to create trade monopolies where rulers hide their identities behind corporations.

The kings of the international trade cartel have manipulated land holdings so that they are theirs. Land that rested in hands of the same families for hundreds of years now belongs to them through usury and taxes. Great expanses lay fallow. Our men are recruits in their armies enforcing an American Empire that does not belong to America. The wealth of the corporate businesses go to corporate strangers while the businesses go to alien lands for cheap labor and increased profits. Unemployed Saxons stand waiting for the economic miracle to come again and give them jobs so they can feed their families.

Strangers walk the land and tens of millions of Esau's children wait to take the first jobs available and in due time will furnish borrowers for banks who can find no others who are debt- free.

While the WORD commands, "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21, almost the entire land violates the WORD by working for corporations, not knowing that the corporations belong to Esau.

Conclusion

In 1381, a slight tax increase set off a nationwide explosion. In 1425, obedience to the WORD's command to divide the land narrowly missed succeeding.

Today Saxon-Israel land is overrun with aliens whom the priests, politicians, and corporate managers cannot see because they are paid by them. The college educators teach from Esau's book because their college endowments come from Esau's corporations and their promotions and salary increases come from obedience to Esau.

Because these people are blind to the WORD - they are seen by their fellow Saxons as being Esau's agents.

As in the past, many of our people are unemployed. They stand having nothing to do and nothing to lose. Taxes take the last bit of money and the king either works for Esau or is a son-of-Esau. His acts prove him to be anti-Saxon.

In the midst of this dry kindling floats a spark that even now is touching here and there. The spark lights a message that for thousands of years has been called The WORD. The WORD is again calling for Saxon-man to obey the Commands of their God.

Oh yes, a great day lies ahead.

Dear Richard; Am working with a man on my house. He is a "Judeo-Christian" now, but has asked questions which show he is one of our people ready to come out of the dark. I am giving him some short articles to read. We shall see what happens. S.L. - Oregon

Richard Kelly Hoskins, Thank you for the knowledge and unity you shared with me in this Prison. I have the highest respect for your teaching, and you are the one who connected Satan with India and the Hinduism that is trying to destroy Jacob.

My sentence is finished. THANK YOU so much. I will re-establish a Subscription on the "free Side of things". I'm gonna need unity out there!

You have provided us Anglo Saxons with a Watchtower to warn us. May we all come to our senses and follow the WORD of God. Amen brother. Faithfully yours, M.B.

Dear H.R.: It's on my heart to get God's WORD to our children of today. They seem to be lost to our roots and the truth through the omnipotent, omnipresent television/radio of our perfidious media.

That's why I make it my point to send all of my HR catalogs and books home to my teen-age brothers. I know its not much due to my limited abilities here in prison, but it is a start. And its something that I'm proud of when I lay down and think about it at the end of the day. I just pray that it is manifested ten fold and then some. So, thank you again to all of my brothers & sisters at HR. You are appreciated! M.L.

HERMANN

Saxon Nation

Hermann (17 BC - AD 21) is the name of one of the greatest heroes of the Saxon Nation, but the name is seldom mentioned in lands governed by Esau. He was known as "Hermann" by Saxons and Arminius by Romans.

Esau has seen to it that a surprising number of Saxons not only don't know who Hermann is, they don't know who they are, their history, or why they are named "Saxon" or "Saxon-Israel".

We are an ancient race. In the front of our Bible is written; "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1.[13] The 13 MAN: Heb: Adam 119 - "to show blood(in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red(ruddy). Strong's Concordance

Bible contains God-given Laws called The WORD, and stories and parables of how obedience to these Laws brings peace while disobedience brings punishment and misery. Adam-man was disobedient and consequently was conquered by his enemies and was taken into captivity in 721 B.C., nearly a thousand years before Jesus was born.

Quoting TKC, according to the great author Sharon Turner this is how the Saxons got their name:

> "Sharon Turner, the most painstaking Saxon historian says: "The Saxons were a Scythian nation, and were called Saca, Sachi, Sach-sen. The migrating Scythians crossed the Araxes, passed out of Asia, and suddenly appeared in Europe in the sixth century B.C. ESDRAS in the Apocrypha tells us that the Ten Tribes left their exile and moved away across the Euphrates to a place called Arareth (City of Hill of Sareth) (II Esdras 13:39-45). To the north-west of the Black Sea is a river called Sareth to this day." (TKC, Mar 2003)

Another name given us is "God's people", or "Goths". Sharon Turner further records:

> "The names Saxon, Scythian and Goth are used interchangeably." History Of The Anglo Saxon, Sharon Turner, London, 1852.

As a young boy growing up on a farm in Culpeper County I was told that the reason we are called Anglo-Saxons is because of what is written in scripture; "They shall no more be remembered by their name." Hos 2:17; "The Lord God shall ... call his servants by another name." Isaiah 65:15; "In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7, ("sons of Isaac", "Isaacsons", "Saacsons", or "Saxons".)

The Bible is our history book. There are several ways one can arrive at the name "Saxon". Regardless of whether we are

Scottish, English, Irish, German, Scandinavian, S. African, Dutch or Australian we are one people belonging to one Saxon Nation. The reason many of us are called "Anglo-Saxons" is because many of our Saxon ancestors came from England.[14]

Rome

The Roman Empire was a gigantic trading operation. It was early taken over and governed by the Hindu merchant and his agents.

Rulers were selected for its senate and its purpose was to add neighboring lands and people to be exploited. It reduced its conquered neighbors to serfdom through taxation, and added their wealth and businesses to its own operations.

Roman Conquest

Rome maintained a highly trained professional army to police its empire whose term of enlistment was 20 years. It was the most highly trained and equipped army to be seen for centuries. It was virtually invincible. Its conquest of Greece is a typical example of how they waged war.

Roman diplomats made friends with the rulers of certain Greek city-states and became their ally against other Greek states. When their common enemy was defeated, the wealth and persons of the defeated state became the property of Rome. The defeated remnant was heavily taxed.

After the floating supply of money was transferred to Rome and the conquered lands were unable to pay the continuing heavy taxes - they were lent money at high interest by 14 Best pay attention to these old explanations. Esau's media has censored everything relating to the subject. We must learn from our fathers and teach each other.

Roman bankers to pay their taxes. In time, they were unable to repay these loans and the remaining debtors were foreclosed and became slaves as had been their neighbors earlier. Many were sent to Rome.

As time went on, the rest of the formerly friendly Greek states were also reduced to slavery, and those who fought against the Roman armies were crucified and their towns and cities burned. Rome and Romans were feared by all.

In time, a few wealthy Romans had a virtual monopoly of land and trade in lands surrounding the Mediterranean Sea. The Roman citizens were given many advantages, but as time went on, many of their poorer classes were also treated roughly, which forced them to migrate to other lands. Each newly-born child was taxed, causing Roman birthrates to drop to levels not seen until recent years. The time came when female babies were often left exposed to the elements to die to avoid the Roman head tax.

By the time of Christ, the Roman population of Rome had declined to the point where there were more people having Greek names being buried in Roman graveyards than those having Roman names. Rome was well on the way to self-destruction. Half the people living in Rome were foreign slaves and the countryside was deserted.

Gaul

Just to the north of Rome was a land we call France today. This land was settled by Goths. Disagreements between Gothic tribes gave Rome the opportunity to help one side or the other. Roman strategy was the same as it had been in Greece. She made friends with one and became its ally against their common enemy.

Roman treatment of those who dared fight against them was atrocious. Confiscations and crucifixions were common. Roman administrators, merchants and landowners quickly made an appearance and the entire land became another Roman province.

Germany

After the conquest of Gaul the northern border of the Roman Empire extended to the Rhine River. The land on the other side was Germanica. It was heavily wooded and sparsely settled.

In time the Romans launched a massive invasion of this land. The result was the capture of several small tribes and the customary imposition of high taxes and rough treatment of rebels. In addition, the Romans began to uproot the old German customs, and by so doing consolidated the tribes against them. The harsh behavior of Roman tax collectors was resented. The Romans took hostages to guarantee the good behavior of those she had conquered.

One of these hostages was named Hermann, or Arminius by the Romans. He was the son of a local German ruler. He was taken to Rome. Once there, he was given the best education in the Roman manner to make him a lasting friend of Rome when he was returned home to his own people. He was also trained in the Roman army and his skill in learning Roman tactics caused him to rise rapidly in rank.

In time, he returned to Germany as a trusted advisor to the Roman administrator, Quintilius Varus. Varus' name and deeds were well known because of his ruthlessness and crucifixion of rebels. The people in his power, or likely to fall into his power, feared his arrival.

Hermann's friendship to Rome vanished when he actually saw the outrages against his people resulting from Varus' wanton cruelty to the conquered Germans. Hermann used his visits to them as Vasus' emissary to secretly unite them against Rome.

Teutoburger Forest

Because of the vast Roman military superiority, subtafuge was necessary. When Varus returned from summer military maneuvers, he was given reports by Hermann of a local rebellion. Varus believed this report since he still looked on Hermann as his loyal vassal.

Hermann then left Varus under the pretext of drumming up Germanic militias to support the Roman campaign, but instead he led the allied Germans, who must have been waiting in the vicinity, in attacks on surrounding Roman garrisons. It is said that the total number of German warriors was ten to twelve thousand.

Varus gathered his forces which included the XVII, XVIII, and IXX legions plus six cohorts of auxiliary troops and three squadrons of cavalry. They were accompanied by a large number of camp- followers. Their numbers were said to have totaled nearly thirty thousand.

The deeper Varus' army penetrated into Germany the thicker the forest and narrower the road became, causing the Romans to abandon their usual marching combat formations. Their column, interspersed with camp-followers, stretched for nine miles. A violent storm had arisen - the day was dark and dreary and the road was narrow and muddy - which thousands of feet churned into a quagmire.

Suddenly, the Roman column was attacked along its entire length by German warriors using swords and javelins. The rain had soaked the Roman bow strings making them slack when wet, and there was no room to set up and use their heavy catapults. The heavy Roman squares considered invulnerable in open country, were virtually useless on the narrow muddy road and thick underbrush.

Hermann understood Roman tactics well and massed his men first against one weak place and then another. The Romans struggled on until nightfall when they then stopped, and as was their custom, threw up fortifications for the the night.

The next morning the Romans found themselves surrounded by their German opponents. Lack of food prevented them from staying where they were. They burned their wagon trains to lighten the column, and then attempted to break through the surrounding besiegers, which cost them heavy casualties.

They continued their march which went alongside a swamp where, unknown to the Romans, the Germans had thrown up mile after mile of earthworks just out of sight inside the woods that ran parallel to the road. Thus, unknowingly, the Romans were trapped between the hidden German field fortifications and the swamp. The Germans then stormed the Roman column and slaughtered the disintegrating Roman forces.

Varus committed suicide by falling on his sword, as did many of the leaders of his legions. It is estimated that 20,000 Roman soldiers died. German casualties were limited to five or six hundred.

Results

The remnant of the three Roman legions made a last stand on a hill in the Teutoburger Forest where they were exterminated.

The battle ended triumphant Roman expansion. The year was 9 AD. Rome was in shock. Such a thing had never happened to a Roman army before.

In 15 AD, the Romans fielded a massive army of 50,000 to 75,000 men and again attempted the subjugation of greater Germany on the north side of the Rhine. There was no way the smaller German armies could stop their advance. They burned the small German villages and slaughtered men, women and children who fell into their hands. On their march they reached the scene of the Teutoburger Wald massacre where they found heaps of bleached bones, which they buried.

At last, the Romans realized that the expense of keeping a large army supplied in the tractless forests of Germany returned little profit to Roman coffers, and they left Germany and retreated to the Gallic side of the Rhine, saving the Saxon-Germans from the contamination that was enveloping the Roman Empire. The repercussions on civilization cannot be exaggerated, for they are felt to-day in the differences between the Latin and Saxon worldview.

Final Results

Almost a thousand years before, Jacob-Israel had sinned against the WORD and had been taken captive from their lands in Judea and Samaria and from there they spread over the world. Through the intervening years many lived isolated in northern Europe - until the Romans invaders came. With Hermann to lead them, they had a leader who helped save theirs people.

Rome's Fate

The invading Romans had been undefeated and believed themselves to be invincible. In fact, they were having fewer and fewer children and the walls around Roman cities became reduced in length as the population of the cities became smaller. At the same time, the many breeds brought to Rome as slaves became the new Romans.

The merchants' religion of Hinduism concentrating on sex and death became widespread.

Gold and silver were shipped from Rome to India in exchange for expensive trade goods and Rome became poor. The time came when Rome no longer had the money to hire mercenaries for her armies and the Roman citizens didn't have the money to pay the taxes levied against them.

At the same time, the German nation across the Rhine grew larger and larger. In time, its warriors spilled across the Rhine into Gaul and poured across the land sweeping the Roman settlers and what was left of their legions before them. The captive Gallic population of France and Italy joined the Teutonic wave and Rome was swept almost bare of her mixed-breed population. The remnants of early Saxon settlers, along with the new Germanic invaders, once again resettled their lands in Britain, France and Italy.

Most important, a few years before Hermann fought the battle of the Teutoburger Forest that saved Saxon-Germany from the Romans, a prophet was born in Jerusalem, who returned the WORD to Jacob- Israel. The Saxon nation again had the WORD to lead them - the same WORD that they were bound to obey before they would be allowed to fulfill their mission that was the reason for their creation.[15]

Today

Today we find the same evils besetting us that threatened our ancestors in the lands beyond the Rhine in the days of Hermann. Having no place to hide, we face the enemy - an enemy hidden within organizations known as "corporations" who know how to force us to exchange their money for our daily bread; "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10

We also are learning the only defense against those who use this weapon; "If you love me obey my commandments." John 14:15.

When?

When will be the time for us to overthrow the children of Esau who have used our disobedience to enslave us? That answer was given long ago.

Remember the story of Barabbas, the one who Pilate freed at the request of the people instead of Jesus? The people preferred Barabbas because he and his followers had shown a warlike spirit against Rome.

This is what Barabbas replied when accused of deserting Jesus:

> "Now Barabbas spake with something of austerity ... Therefore I asked him again where he had been of late, and why he had forsaken the disciples. But he answered with still more of passion than before, "Because I am

15 Israel 8478; Heb - "he will rule as God." A symbolical name of Jacob and his posterity: -Israel. Strong's Concordance weary of these idle wanderings about Galilee, which bring forth no fruit. Not to sit on stools at the feet of a Scribe did I and my friends join ourselves to Jesus of Nazareth. Why tarrieth he so long idle? Why is his hand so backward to smite the oppressor?" But I bade him be of good cheer, for the hour was not yet come, and Jesus would know better than we the season fit for our uprising." Philochristus Chapter 13:pp24 p129

Conclusion

Nothing has changed. Esau fears the teaching of the WORD. He has banned its teaching from schools and courts. So-called Christian Churches' "Love of money" has stopped most of them from teaching its Lawful requirements. Many of Esau's prisons ban Christian literature when the teachings of other religions are allowed.

Still, I talk to you, you talk to me, and we talk to others. Every day more and more Saxons rejoin their nation and agree to turn their lives over to Jesus Christ, the WORD made flesh. Once a Saxon does this he then learns:

"If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15

In 1857, a great monument to Hermann was completed This stands on the Grotenburg mountain near Detmould in Germany. There is another such monument in the United States.

In God's own time he will send another leader who will find an army waiting to be led - a great army that each of us has helped recruit and train.

Chapter 440

SERPENT

Black vs White

English writers in the 1800s were quite interested in India's Hinduism since India was a British possession. They learned about its more popular Gods; namely Brahma, Vishnu and Siva, and noted that most Hindu Gods were black while most Hindu devils were white. The Hindus called their devils "white- devils".

HR mentioned this in past reports which brought interesting responses from certain individuals. Following is an example;

> "You are right Siva is black but you are so blind you can't see the destruction that your white race has caused since it came near to this planet. It is obvious that all people that aren't hurt by the sun's rays belong here and those that can't take it don't belong here. You are an alien race. The white race is doomed. White people cannot travel the world like before because they risk being beheaded by non whites. Your time is near!!!!! Your reign is over. and believe me there will be retribution. OM NAMAH SHIVAYA!!!!!!!"

That sort of reaction was interesting. There were others like this. These letters weren't mailed from abroad but from this country. Some were written in such a manner that I believed them to be a code that I was supposed to know. Of course, I had no idea what they were talking about and there was no way I could answer. All this stirred my curiosity.

I redoubled my efforts to discover the reason for these letters and read a number of books on the subject. I learned that not only are Hindu-Buddhist devils white, but they call all white people "white-devils". My question then was why this information is hushed by our media and education systems?

Parts Of The Game Plan

We know that "Malcolm X" called whites "White-devils". We also know that other Muslims call whites, "White-devils"; Chinese and Japanese also call whites, "White-devils"; as do Mexicans, American Indians, and Blacks - all call Whites "White-devils".

"Kali" - the Hindu God of death stands on the dead body of a "white-devil" holding a severed head in one hand, a bloody sword in another, with serpents rising up from the body of the white-devil. "White-devil" seems to be the universal name for whites in every land and every people except by Saxon-whites themselves.

Written Instructions

Educated people have heard of "The Protocols", alleged to be a Jewish plan for world conquest; also Machiavelli's "The Prince" - instructions that tell rulers how to rule their subjects; and of course, the ubiquitous "36-Steps For Making War" - used by orientals to make war against each other and the rest of the world. Since all three are just different versions of the same subject, there must be a common connection.

Discovery Of The Serpent

The WORD says; "Be ye therefore wise as serpents." Matt 10:16. How does one become wise as a serpent? It helps to know what a serpent is.

In reading other books written before or about the time of Christ, I ran across the following:

> "The Word of God came to the serpent and said unto it ... be thou dumb; and speak no more, thou and thy race, because ... the ruin of my creatures happened through thee ... And a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, threw it on the shore, and it landed in India." I Adam & Eve 18:7-9, (Lost Books)

The Serpent Arrives In India

India! This was the first time I had run across a connection between the "Garden Of Eden serpent" and the serpents of India.

I next discovered that India has 400,000,000 gods and countless sects. A guru is a teacher. He is one who studies its many religions and puts together his version. If you like the guru and his version you become his follower and in essence the guru becomes your God. After all, with so many gods no one can say that this or that guru's version is wrong. However, there is something these India gods have in common - each has a serpent about him.

Selling Hinduism

I discovered two more things. Hinduism is more of an organization system while Buddhism is a belief system that teaches people to be "nice" and "obey their rulers".

Some modern writers say that Buddhism is next to Christianity in its requirement that people be nice. If a Buddhist claims to be a "Christian" it is difficult to distinguish his version of "Christian" from true "Christianity" except when one notes that he does not speak of the Law of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. And, many Buddhist sects teach kung fu, a combat exercise.

The key Buddhist word is "tolerance". Buddhists say they tolerate other religions and many acts such as sodomy which the Christian Law forbids. Also, in lands of the Hindu there is this thing called "reincarnation". When a person dies he is immediately reborn in a higher state such as a ruler or a rich man if he has been good in this life, or, reborn in a lower state such as a bug or a beggar if he has been bad. In essence, a person rewards or punishes himself by his own acts in this life. Most acts that we consider "crimes" are looked upon by Indians as simple "misconduct". Murderers are almost never executed because they might redeem themselves by good deeds if allowed to live. It is no accident that Europe has outlawed the death penalty and the United States sentences criminals to prison who would have been put to death in earlier days.

The Serpent Of Deception That Surrounds The World

Asoka

Asoka of India is known by more people than Jesus Christ. He ruled India and made Buddhism a state- religion. When Alexander the Great conquered northern India and returned home, Asoka boasted that he had conquered the states near the Mediterranean Sea area with his Buddhist missionary effort called Dharma. He trained his missionaries for 15 years in the culture, religion, and language of a state selected for conquest, gave them limitless amounts of money to bribe its rulers, called his missionaries "dharmamatras", and sent them to lands he had selected.

Since India is the merchant's trade center between east and west - its widely scattered corporate trade centers have long collected trade profits and returned them to India, which is why many believe that India to this day contains the greatest stockpile of gold and silver in the world.

Extinction

The Hindu-Buddhist religion teaches that we are in the final stages of Kali-yuga - the 20,000 year old age of evil noted for starvation, disease, theft, murder, etc. It will end only when life on earth is extinct. The thing that has kept this age from ending is the white-devil. Every time Kali-yuga approaches the end of its 20,000 year life the white-devil interrupts the process and the evil age with its miseries continues.

When Kali removes the last of the white-devils the next "good age" will arrive. When one understands this, one understands the mind-set of the Kamikaze and the terrorist who blows himself up along with others. The worst that can happen is that by giving his life he will be reincarnated in a higher state by extinguishing life and thus helping to bring the evil "Kaliyuga" age to an end.

The Devil Serpent

Recently, there have been claims that there are no such thing as the Devil and Satan.

The WORD speaks of the, "Old serpent called the devil, and Satan." Rev 20:12; Rev 12:9;[16]

The Indian serpent is deception. The person doing the deception, or the deception itself, is called the Devil or Satan - that's what Indian gods and holy men were called in the last century by European writers - "devils". The Gods of India each has his own serpent which represents the deception that he practices. The prime enemy of these serpents and the prime target of their enmity is their ancient enemy - the "white devil".[17]

Devils Come West

For thousands of years the Children of Esau have waged war against the Children of Jacob. His primary weapon - "the serpent of deception". Esau means to destroy Jacob from the face of the earth so that a "good age" can be born and he can rule the world alone.

Esau's missionaries, his "Dharmamatras", have used education and money in western society to destroy Western people with false doctrines.

We must remember this when reading in the WORD the story of the Garden of Eden where the serpent convinced Eve that the forbidden fruit of a certain tree would make both her

16 Also known as beelzebub, lucifer, dragon; Parable names for "lawlessness vs Law; "wrong" vs right; "lie" vs truth; "deception" vs fact. Other names - fake, fraud, hoax, con, trickery, deceit, hypocrisy, "Be ye therefore wise as serpents." Mt 10:16

17 Devil: An idol, or false god. Lev 17 2 Chron 11." Am Dict Of The Eng Lang 1828 and Adam as Gods. This serpent is the first of the devils among us. Esau has many more.

Serpent Kings

For example, followers of the WORD are not allowed to have kings because they already have the WORD who is the King of Kings. (I Sam 8:1-20).

When they do have a king (by whatever name he is called) one may be assured that he was made king by use of Esau's money and is Esau's agent. With Esau's king comes Esau's state-religion. A state-religion is the opposite of a "religious state". A king can decree that his opinion is to be treated as if it were the word of God - or face the consequences.

The Parable

Esau's kings cannot exist and nurture Esau's serpents if his Saxon-Israel people follow the WORD. Therefore he imprisons or kills followers of the WORD who insist on following the WORD.

To protect themselves, followers of the WORD used parables. Jesus Christ used parables, and it is important that his followers understand them.

An example: Peter (the rock) walked on water. When he began to doubt he started to sink. He called to Jesus who lifted him out of the water and led him to safety.

Heathen look on this as a harmless fairy tale. Every year some ignorant fellow goes down to the end of Wall Street accompanied by media cameras and tries to show his faith by walking on water - and is pulled out by the coast-guard half drowned. Jesus Christ, the God who created the earth, can certainly do anything if he chooses - but the rest of mankind violate God's law of gravity when they try to walk on water.

Peter (the rock) represents the man with the WORD. He walks on water ("water" represents "peoples") without sinking into the mixed masses of the Roman world and becoming part of them. If he begins to "doubt" and starts to sink he calls on the WORD, which lifts him out of the waters (peoples) and takes him to safety. This is a parable. Romans look on it as a harmless tale while believers who understand its meaning are saved from being crucified by the Romans.

Neither do Followers of the WORD drink strong drink:

> "Ye have not ... drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the Lord." Deu 29:6

Most certainly Christian rulers are not allowed to drink strong drink.

> "It is not for rulers to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. Pr 31:4-6

One way people judge a man's fitness to lead is by watching to see if he drinks strong drink.

When partaking of the Lord's supper of bread and wine, believers know that the bread represents the WORD and the wine represents the spirit that activates the WORD. Unbelievers have no idea what is going on. Hostile kings can find no fault in the ritual.[18] 18 Which is why grape-juice is usually used to simbolize wine.

Unleavened Bread

Parables save the chosen from the agents of Esau who would destroy them if they understood what was being said.

Christians are told to eat unleavened bread at certain times. Unleavened bread is bread made without yeast - it does not rise but remains flat. The bread represents the WORD. One must not study or accept the WORD that has been contaminated with the yeast of the serpent's additions. One must study the WORD that has no additions - or yeast (leaven) added. It's a parable.

> "And Moses said unto the people ... there shall no leavened bread be eaten." Ex 13:3

The Corporate Serpent

We are not allowed to have strangers in our midst nor do business with them lest we learn their ways. "Thou shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:32-33

There was a time when it was against the law for anyone except the king to own a corporation since Esau uses corporations to conceal his presence if he can. With a corporation the king could own property and allow it to be used as Esau wished and no one was the wiser. In other words, he could break God's Law without arousing the people's ire.

As time went on, the kings who displeased Esau were replaced with different kings who made corporate ownership open to virtually everyone. Today, onlookers have no idea who controls big corporations. Most corporate stock is voted by bank trust departments. Large banks are usually owned by other banks which are owned by holding companies in this country and overseas. It is virtually impossible to trace control of large corporations.

Large corporations control most of the property and monetary wealth of the world. Media corporations in the West control Jacob's minds while other corporations provide Jacob with jobs which put food on his table. Pleasing conduct results in job advancement and increased wealth. Conduct that displeases Esau's corporations results in demotion and loss of jobs and income.

In religion, manufacturing, and politics; the sons-of-Jacob who are obedient to Esau receive promotion and advancement. Where once most were obedient to the Law of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob - the "love of money", now forces them to be obedient to Esau's lawlessness and to keep their mouths shut if they see the evil done and wish to tell others.[19]

Works Of The Serpent

Esau swore that he would kill his brother Jacob. Esau's Dharmamatras have hired serpents to spread the poison of integration causing Jacob's children to mix with people-of-the land and disappear - or to be massacred in their entirety.

For many years I belonged to the Gideons. We had a number of old-timers, some who had interesting experiences. One of them served under Gen. Pershing on the Mexican border in 1914 when the Mexican rebels carried their warfare into Texas border towns and killed white families.

He told me that on several occasions American soldiers followed the raiders back into northern Mexico. In some of the towns he passed through he saw red headed and blond headed Mexican families lying dead in the streets - men, women and children.

19 This is the reason for the NSWP plank #17 "Confiscation of foreign corporation and land monopolies."

People shouldn't wonder about what happened to the early Gothic Spaniards who settled Mexico. Those who didn't interbreed with Indians and Negro slaves as was encouraged by their Spanish religion and political leaders were massacred. Today, Mexicans who are white are largely descendants of recent immigrants. Most of the old descendants of the original sons-of-Jacob immigrants have been killed or absorbed into the mass of Esau.

Thus far, sons-of-man have disappeared from northwestern China. They have disappeared from Babylon, northern India, Israel, Egypt, Greece, Southern Italy, Sicily, North Africa, Southern Spain, most of South and Central America, most of South Africa, much of North America and Eastern Europe.

Esau Seizes American Land

Esau's media-serpent has taught Americans the nonsense that the War Between the States was fought over slavery.

The King of England, acting for his Esau merchant masters, owned the slave trade monopoly. He decreed that black slaves be sent to America to provide cheap labor to grow cheap tobacco and cotton that were required to be sold to England at rock bottom prices. He forbade us to stop the slave trade or return the blacks to Africa.

The reason for the war was land ownership. The WORD is emphatic on the subject:

> "All the earth is mine." Ex 19:5; "As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5; "Joshua divided the whole land by lots to Israel for an inheritance, as the Lord had commanded him." Jasher 90:19; "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... the land shall be divided by lot." Num 26:53- 55; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; ... If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession ... in the jubilee ... he shall return unto his possession." Lev 25:23, 28.

That should be clear enough. Then we have Karl Marx speaking for Esau:

> "Next, Karl Marx. The Protocols say, 'The aristocracy of the peoples, as a political force, is dead ... but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land ... The Controversy of Zion by Douglas Read, Noontide Press, Newport Beach, CA, 1985. p. 219

The South was devastated, conquered, and occupied. Men were stripped of the vote which was given to Blacks. "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

Under the watchful eyes of Federal troops, "Esau's agents" instructed the Black rulers to tax white land. The white owners had no money and no markets since during the war their tobacco trade had gone to Turkey and the cotton trade to India. It would take years to re-establish the trade. Revolt was unthinkable since heavily armed occupation soldiers were everywhere and our masters in Washington were eager to loot, burn and destroy what was left of the South.

The serpents of usury banks were established in every Southern town that in prior years had almost no banks. Whites went to these banks to borrow money to pay land-taxes that they had never paid before. They found that they had no way to repay the loans and their land that had often been in their families for more than 200 years was auctioned to Esau's agents for almost nothing. Former land owners took their families and moved to cities to work for starvation wages in Esau's newly built factories and millions upon millions of acres of their formerly self-sufficient-farms fell into the hands of Esau's corporations. The same thing had already happened in the North in the 1830s & '40s and finished happening in the West in the 1980s.

Conclusion

The serpent that once lived in the Garden of Eden is in the midst of us. Its deception is everywhere.

The media bans the WORD. Every program on TV has some Law violation. Most follow Siva's promotion of illicit sex, Kali's promotion of violent death, and Hari-Hari's promotion of racial-integration. This is what is being taught to Jacob's children.

So-called preachers dare not mention the Commandments of the WORD since wealthy law-violators sitting in his church may take offense and take their business and dollars to another church.

Esau's manufacturing business is gradually being sent to the lands of Esau leaving Jacob's children destitute. Esau's politician-agents refuse to deport the tens of millions of aliens in our midst who send billions of untaxed dollars back to their own countries thereby destroying Jacobs' monetary system.

Neither will Esau's politicians install 100% tariffs which will require the return or the rebuilding of our lost industry which will give our people work.

But, we are learning. The serpent is showing himself. Politicians and preachers seeking our friendship today were Esau's agents yesterday. We are expected to believe that they have changed overnight. We have learned about them: We've read, Protocol #12 - "Among the media attacking us will be our own media."

We've also read, Number #22 in Esau's "36-Ways To Fight War" which tells why Esau's media suddenly began attacking their former friends - they do so in the expectation that this will make Jacob accept them as their new friends and leaders: #22 - "Denounce friends to establish believable "'bona fides'".

We Are Learning

I know a preacher who claims to be conservative and our friend, who has been married five times, who smokes three packs of cigarettes a day, and who drinks like a fish. There are doubtless many like him.

Mark my words; I also know of hundreds of Son's-of-Jacob who sincerely know and believe the WORD. It is these who will lead us to freedom in the coming apocalypse.

We are learning to identify a serpent when we see one. The days of Esau and his friends are numbered.

NEWS FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Dick & Ann; One week before Betzy and the kids left on our trip to the coast, the Loerie-bus left them stranded once again. The Bus is old and although it has given us a lot of pleasure, we have to battle to keep it on the road.

We are now in the process of getting a 36-seater Volkswagen Bus with safety belts for all the children.

The Loeries were once again treated to a holiday at the seaside. A group of Donors in Johannesburg, sponsored them on a 10-day holiday with free lodging in a church hostel in a small town not far from Durban on the Natal Coast. They had the time of their lives. Six of our new Loeries had not seen the sea ever and you can imagine the overwhelming sight when they arrived there during the late afternoon. Betzy had a hard time getting them back into the bus with the promise that they would return to the beach as early as possible the next morning.

You remember, that with your help, we had electrical wiring installed around the Loerie-Home as well as cameras and alarm system outside the house two years ago.

Crime is thriving in South Africa and we were burgled twice. The criminals broke through the panels of our concrete wall at an exact spot where the alarm does not have a sensor light and exactly between two wiring cables. We could not believe our eyes as we were all in the house at that time! Just after we had the police notified to investigate, and the damage fixed, they attacked again and stole our brand new lawn mower, a vacuum cleaner, and six bicycles - exactly the same way. We are now up in arms. More beam lights are being installed to cover all of the outside area.

The final examination results were better than we had expected! All four seniors passed with flying colours. Jean and Sunet have been successfully enrolled at the University of Potchefstroom and they both are settled and doing fine! They are privileged to study under the care of the Trustees who have founded a special fund to support Loeries who want to improve themselves. The Trustees are monitoring their well-being.

We are unable to show our appreciation for the generous contribution your readers send each month. They supported us enormously during the previous years and we are indebted to them. Through their kindness and generosity, the Loeries have learnt about genuine, unconditional love! You will always have a special place in our hearts!

Thank You, Trustees, Personnel and Loeries.

Chapter 441

UNITING ESAU TUNNEL WARFARE

Esau's occupation government in Washington DC publicly announced that U.S. forces under their command invaded the sovereign nation of Pakistan and shot the unarmed Arab nationalist leader, Bin Ladin, along with some of his followers. They also shot and wounded one of his wives in the process.

The announcement was met with wild celebration in the United States since the same Bin Ladin is accused of masterminding the 9/11 attack on the Trade Towers in New York. It was also met first with disbelief and then with bellicose warnings by Pakistan's government against a repeat of such an operation inside its borders and that retaliatory actions would be taken if such should occur again.

Details

As is usual with operations decided upon and directed by a few persons in high places who have not thoroughly thought the matter through, the details released were contradictory.

The first jubilant announcement stated that those with Bin Ladin fought ferociously, with Bin Ladin dying with his weapon in his hand. It was then decided that this picture would please his warlike followers, so the report was changed to state that he was unarmed and died in a cowardly manner after pulling one of his wives in front of him to protect him. This picture did not sit well with Western readers who objected to shooting unarmed prisoners, "terrorist" or not, so the subject was changed entirely.

The story was turned upside down with the appearance of an old newspaper report that Bin Ladin had died in 2001 of intestinal problems. If that was so, who was the person shot by American assassination forces pretending to be the feared Bin Ladin terrorist for the last ten or so years?

One explanation to this story was that Osama was an American or Islamic look-alike agent. If American, he was used to justify the repeated invasions of Arab lands to seize their oil, bring democracy, or whatever. If Islamic, he was being used to keep alive the anti-Western bias that has been growing worldwide.

It was also claimed that the Islamic states were invaded to stop their non-usury banking systems that were competing with Western usury systems.

The next story was that it was time for the the mid-east Wars to come to an end; that they were costing too much and were becoming unpopular with the voters.

This could only be done by first disposing of the person claiming to be Bin Ladin, if in fact he was actually alive and well or, if not, disposing of his "stand-in". A testing of the DNA of the executed one would determine whether or not he was the real "Bin Ladin".

This presented a problem if the body was a "stand-in". The DNA would be nothing like that of the real Bin Ladin.

The U.S. said that neither Bin Ladin's family nor friends wanted his body, so within hours of his shooting, the body was slipped into the waters of the Mediterranean Sea at an unknown location. That settled the DNA problem. Now, no one will know for sure.

Coincidences

Disposing of evidence is nothing new to the government that rules the United States.

Remember the Towers? They were hit by planes and fell straight down in the manner of planned demolitions. Thousands of victims were never found but papers said to belong to one of those in the plane survived the crash, flames, and explosion. Government agents said that these papers told who the terrorists were and where they came from. Incidentally, private investigation revealed that most came from from our ally Saudi Arabia, and that most were still very much alive after being killed in the crashes..

Curious engineers wanted to test the debris for explosive residue to see if demolition explosives were used to bring down the building. They were kept from examining the debris which was quickly collected and disposed of.

Then there was the massacre at Waco. Newspaper articles said that telescopes detected signs hung from the windows by the besieged begged for help. Instead, tanks moved in and burned the buildings along with their occupants. The debris was carted away before it could be examined.

Then there was Oklahoma City, a repeat of the Towers. The explosion and the way the debris fell again led observers to demand to be allowed to test the debris for demolition residue, which was also refused. The debris was again disposed of. So much for verifying government statements.

More Coincidences

During WWII, the U.S. fire-bombed Japanese cities killing unknown numbers of men, women and children, defeated her armies and held war-crimes trials and executed her leaders.

Japan surrendered. But in oriental style the plan was to continue the war by other means according to the "36-Methods Of War". Japan became and remains anti-Western.

Sen Joseph McCarthy wrote two books. The second book contained a story about the fall of Chiang Kai-shek, leader of nationalist China's war against Communist takeover. The U.S. had long furnished him with supplies. McCarthy's book reveals that a U.S. supply fleet left India loaded with military supplies bound for China. These military supplies were dumped into the Indian Ocean and never reached Chiang Kai-shek. The nationalist Chinese ran out of supplies and surrendered. The nationalist soldiers were forced to place their necks on railroad tracks and trains decapitated them. China then became communist, land-owners were executed, and the country remains anti-Western.

The U.S. fought a war in Vietnam and killed 2,000,000 of her people. Vietnam became anti-Western.

The U.S. invaded Panama which became anti-Western. U.S. usury-banking has made South America anti-America.

Plans Within Plans

Following WWII, American merchant ships carrying humanitarian aid visited the lands of Islam, Africa, and the far East. I talked to a number of the merchant seamen and they told me that the peoples of the lands visited were our fast friends, that they personally were very well treated.

This was especially true during the Cold War. Most of the mid-eastern Islamic states kept their distance from the Communist Monster from the north and remained loyal to America.

American foreign policy converted the pro-American Islamic states to anti-American states by simply furnishing the Jewish military with American weapons. Hundreds of thousands of Arab men, women and children were killed by bullets, bombs and aircraft made in America. Then, to aggravate the situation, Islamic states were invaded one after another by American forces which destroyed cities and towns, killing millions of Islamic men, women and children in the process.

The Master Plan

When looked at in a dispassionate manner, what appears to be senseless indiscriminate worldwide American instigated mayhem, destruction and slaughter may be nothing of the sort. It could be the execution of a well thought out plan.

The mid-east lands of Esau are known for their perpetual civil wars, but now they are doing something that has not been done for five hundred years. They are studying and obeying the commands of their Gods and are uniting against a common enemy. From Asia to the mideast, Africa, South America, and Mexico in North America, all are coming together united by their common hatred of the White-Devil.

> "Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41

Chinese Five-Methods

HR#362 America Through Chinese Eyes listed the 5 major techniques of future war as seen by Chinese intelligence agents.

They started their summation with the first of the traditional 36 Methods of War;

> "The ultimate success is victory gained without fighting."

They listed #1 as "Economic War" such as was being waged by George Soros. The success of this war technique is that America's manufacturing has been transferred to other lands to the extent that she does not produce even the weapons of war that she is using to invade and conquer other lands - while Turk-Mongols are invading Europe by the millions to the extent that many Saxon lands have already lost the sense of identity and will be worthless to repel annexation by her quiet invaders - while those willing to fight will not have the means or weapons to do so.

Chinese intelligence then speaks of #2 "Terror" as typified by Bin Ladin. Constant "terror" makes Saxon people willing to obey their leaders and be subject to their commands.

Number 3 was listed as "Drugs". Having had drugs forced on them by European powers in the 19th century, China well knows their debilitating power. It is interesting that after all these years the US government has not been able to contain their importation and distribution.

Number 4 was listed as "Aum Shinrikyo" - the desire to end life on earth so that a new and better age can be born. At the present time, there are numerous groups worldwide working toward that end.

Number 5 was "Internet Hacking". Already Western governments are complaining that their most secret government files are being opened and closed by unauthorized persons almost at will. The implications are enormous.

In essence, in spite of her fleets of aircraft carriers and armies occupying foreign nations all over the world, Saxon America is becoming defenseless. Her industry has been stripped from her and taken to build up the lands of her enemies, and companies that remain are owned by her enemies. Her weapons of war are mostly made by foreign countries; alien agents in her government ignore every suggestion to protect the nation, her jobs and her finances; and her Christian religion now teaches almost everything forbidden by the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Tactics

As a rule I ignore visions of those who predict the future, but it is easy to see that the United States is being disarmed.. Foreigners produce a large part of its weaponry, ship it to the U.S where it is assembled. When its present arsonal is used up the foreign nations who produce these weapons will have the option to either replentish the arsonal or not. If not, the U.S. will have a problem.

Something happend many years ago still lingers in in the back of my memory. I used to walk the five miles to work before daylight, sit in my chair in the cornerroom of my office building and watch the sun come up. This one day I turned in my chair and saw the most unusual thing; storm clouds that resembled an irresistible alien army coming over the Blue Ridge mountains.

Maybe so, maybe not. Virginia has had armies sweep over her many times in the past, murdering, raping, stealing - and we're still here. Still, those storm clouds looked sinister.

One night, long ago, I remember the grownups talking next to the fireplace in the living room. They were talking about the times that invading armies had swept over the land and what our ancestors did to survive. If you could evade the first wave the chances of survival were much greater. Many hid in the woods or hiked up into the mountains. Others didn't have the chance. They went into tunnels that their grandparents had prepared for such emergencies many years before.Others have done the same.

The Vietnamese brought tunnel warfare to a science in the 20th century.. The following is excerpted from 1987, HR #151.

TUNNELS

Many years ago, brave men feared to face a Roman line of battle. Valor stood little chance against Roman skill, arms, and training.

To avoid such a meeting the defenders at the Siege of Jerusalem dug tunnels that continued beyond the walls. After the Roman battle line had marched over them, the defenders quickly dug to the surface and attacked the Romans from the rear.

European Tunnels

In the 30 Years War, Germany was devastated. Many survivors lived underground. I was told about them by WW II veterans who had visited old tunnels that connected distant German towns. Some were wide enough to drive wagons and livestock through.

American Tunnels

In Virginia during the Indian Wars many plantation owners built emergency escape tunnels.

Later, colonists, taking an active part in the Revolution, often used the old Indian Wars escape tunnels to evade the British or dug new ones.

During the Texas War for Independence certain Texas farmers escaped invading Mexicans by hiding in underground shelters.

Civilian Shelters

In most places, Federal armies were unrestrained by their military commanders. Many Southerners living in occupied areas, abandoned homes and possessions rather than chance the tender mercies of lawless soldiery. Of those who remained, many concealed themselves underground at the approach of the enemy. Quite often their shelters were simply a camouflaged icehouse or springhouse with a hidden entrance. At the alarm, the inhabitants would slip out of their homes and disappear underground until the enemy left.

Petersburg Tunnels

When I was a young man courting my wife, I took her to Petersburg to see the Confederate tunnels.

Following a friend's directions, we walked to the far corner of a wide field and discovered a small opening made by the rear wheel of a heavily laden truck crashing through a tunnel roof.

Slipping down into the dark recess we found ourselves at a tunnel junction. This junction was the reason the tunnel roof was weak at that point. Two tunnels were open and two were closed from the cave-in caused by the heavily loaded truck.

The tunnels that were open kept us busy that afternoon. Mostly, they were 5 1/2 feet high, cool and dry. In other places, they were wet. Sometimes we waded waist-deep in water following tunnels that gradually disappeared under water. The blue sky was visible through periodic air vents above our heads.

During the war Confederate military intelligence pinpointed threatened points. The tunnels allowed General Lee to move his army to threatened points unseen by Federal observation balloons and observation posts.

Until the last days of the war every Federal attack was quickly broken by General Lee moving men, unseen, rapidly, and quietly, through his Petersburg tunnels.

Vietnamese Tunnels

The Viet Cong[20], possessing slender resources, were unable to meet the technology of the West on the field of battle.

20 The Tunnels of Chu Chi, Tom Mangold & John Penycate, Random House, NY. 1985

From the beginning the VC dug underground caches for food, for defense against raiding parties, and for shelter from air attacks. In time, these caches were connected by tunnels to neighboring tunnels in their village. From there, escape tunnels were dug leading to the open countryside, often a quarter to half a mile or more away.

Standard Construction Techniques

"Protection" was the initial force motivating the building of the first tunnels. Soon, the concept of tunnels to support fighting forces became the goal.

A triangle was paced out 50 yards or more to a side. At each point of the triangle a concealed trapdoor led down. Each trapdoor entrance was in view of the other two entrances. A rifleman at one tunnel entrance could defend the other two entrances. Each combat triangle was manned by two VC. One acted as observer, and the other as the fighter.

The construction of the trapdoor was unique. It was made of two layers of planks about 3/4 inch thick laid crosswise, about 1 yard square. Watertight plastic or rubber sheeting was placed between. Every crack was filled with waterproofed material.

Trapdoors were concealed so that an enemy might actually stand on one without knowing of its existence. A great number of the tunnels were used only when combat demanded. Consequently, most times they stood deserted. Grass and foliage grew naturally. The entrances were almost impossible to detect.

Five men were required in tunnel construction. One dug, one moved dirt to the shaft. One pulled the dirt to the surface, and two disposed of the dirt elsewhere.

An initial shaft was dug 3 to 9 yards deep. Ten yards away another shaft was sunk. At the bottom of these shafts diggers tunneled toward each other by sound. When completed, the vertical excavation shafts were filled in. Other shafts were dug until the tunnel complex was completed.

Triangles were often dug two or three levels deep. Level #1 might run 30 feet or so and make a dog-leg turn. The dog-leg would act as a blast and bullet deflector, or hiding place for a defender. Behind this dog-leg would be a water proof, blast proof, and gas proof trapdoor leading down to Level #2. Level #2 would zig-zag and in time rise again to connect to Level #1 near another triangle tunnel entrance.

Larger tunnels were often 3 levels deep containing rooms with sleeping quarters, large storage bins, communication centers, arsenals, command posts, machine shops, and hospital facilities.

The VC relate stories of large 105mm howitzers being kept disassembled deep in 3rd Level rooms. They were brought to the surface at night, reassembled, fired, disassembled once more and taken below ground at daybreak. They were almost never located by Americans.

Complexes

Planners, acting as engineers, laid off the overall defensive position and assigned areas in which individuals were to dig. Each triangle was planned to cover other triangles. In time, the network of tunnel triangle complexes grew large. Some occupied many square miles.

Most combat triangles within a complex came within a foot or two underground from other triangles but did not tie in unless there was an emergency. American "Tunnel Rats", fighting the VC underground, might discover a triangle in the middle of a large complex and think it was a single isolated triangle because they could not find a way into the other tunnels.

There are countless instances of strong American battle groups sweeping over areas containing thousands of enemy soldiers deep in tunnel complexes and having to report that few if any enemy troops had been seen.

Tunnel Combat

If the Viet Cong desired to engage an enemy, they would wait until the targeted group got near the geographic center of a tunnel complex and then they would man their tunnel fighting posts. It was very easy to get into a complex. Once in, it was difficult to get out alive.

The Americans developed an elite group called the "Tunnel Rats" whose job was to enter the tunnels and fight the VC underground. They were the most successful. Underground combat by others was often disappointing.

The VC would often purposely allow Americans to see one of their fighters disappear into a tunnel. This might cause green soldiers to crowd around the newly discovered entrance. This grouping presented an opportunity for a VC observer at another tunnel entrance to explode a hidden mine electronically, sometimes wounding or killing the entire group.

A VC observer would watch a developing American attack on a newly discovered tunnel. Explosives, gas, and water inserted into the tunnel were contained to a single tunnel level by the remarkable underground trapdoors. If attackers descended into the tunnels they would usually first drop in a grenade and descend after the explosion.

The grenade explosion was the signal for a VC fighter to ascend through a trapdoor from Level #2 to Level #1 and post himself behind a tunnel zig-zag to wait for the attacker.

According to the VC, the Americans would usually approach with flashlights in hand. The defender would point his weapon around the bend of the dog-leg, fire, and disappear down into Level #2.

If the Americans retired from the tunnel with their wounded comrade, the VC would quickly re-enter the vacated tunnel and place a booby trap near the entrance used by the Americans.

If the attackers remained in the tunnel, the VC dropped down into Level #2 below the trapdoor and waited. When he heard someone above moving across the trap door he would fire through the trapdoor at the intruder and rapidly retire to the other end of the tunnel triangle and ascend to Level #1 and again wait.

When an attacker was heard below, the VC raised the trapdoor, dropped in a grenade, closed the trapdoor and placed sandbags upon it.

VC Tunnel Warfare - Summary

In Vietnam, the use of explosives, gas, and water by the French and Americans against the tunnel defenders was almost always contained to a single level by underground tunnel trapdoors.

VC defense against tunnel invaders consisted of ambush aboveground, and booby traps and a series of tunnel ambushes underground. The technology of the West was neutralized and warfare reduced to a primitive "one on one" contest with an unseen defender waiting in ambush. As is usual in such cases, the defender holds an advantage.

Conclusion

Today, the Soviet and Chinese civilian populations have been provided with massive underground shelters by their governments. In many cities and towns there are tunnel shelter entrances in every block. Chinese tunnels, paved with brick and concrete, contain clothing stores, food, sanitary facilities,[21] and escape routes that emerge miles outside the cities.[22]

America's present leftist government has shown that it has no intention of providing the same protection for the American people. Americans are defenseless in event of a nuclear attack, an organized racial war, or a combination of various kinds of warfare accompanied by an invasion by alien armies. In short, if Americans want shelter, they will have to build them themselves.

If a long-awaited drought actually comes we may expect a national food shortage. We may also expect the denizens of the large cities to pour out into the suburbs and countryside seeking the food that remains.

22 "Fighting Chance", 10 Feet to Survival", Arthur Robinson & Gary North. OISM, PO Box 1279, Cave Junction, Oregon 97523.

Judging by past actions, we may also expect the present government in Washington to aid the denizens of the cities rather than native Saxons.

It might be wise for Saxons living in the country and suburbs to again consider constructing and stocking shelters on their property with a distant exit - depending on political winds of the time.

If "the bomb" comes, if the drought and food shortages come, if lawless sons-of-Esau from the cities flood your neighborhood, if the united armies of Esau form a dark cloud to envelop the land, Americans can once more go to ground for shelter and emerge after danger has passed.

Suppose

Suppose these bad things just don't happen. Suppose, just suppose, that some sort of "Tea Party" can install politicians who refuse to accept the standard tens of thousands of dollars when appointed to the board of directors of Esau's corporations. Suppose they admit that there are tens of millions of aliens in the country and pass "alien colonization laws" to rid the land of their presence like Eisenhour did.

Suppose these politicians ban Esau's goods and force American industry to re-start their idle steel mills, build their own ships and airplanes, and revive textile plants to supply America and furnish Saxons jobs. Suppose farmland is again divided and farmed, and suppose there is a religious revival where the Saxon nation enforces the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Such things may happen.

In the meantime, let's study what our ancestors did in the past to survive and devise plans should our Saxon nation need them to survive once again.

Because, if there is a major war with Esau in America, regardless of the odds, we know how the war will end.

"And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel." Eze 39:11

LETTERS

Greetings: I have received the books you sent as well as the handouts. A tremendous amount of information is in the religious books written before and at the time of Christ. They reinforce everything written in the Bible. The handouts have brought about a great deal of conversation and searching of the Scriptures. They are wonderful works. As I've told you, I am a history buff. Thank your subscribers for making these reading/study materials available.

I have a question. The books on CD, do you have them in printed form. There are some very interesting titles that I would love to explore. CDs aren't allowed here. W.D. - prisoner Florida

RKH: Others have mentioned the same subject. Thus far both time and money have kept them from being produced in book form.

"Hi: I got my newsletter. Boy did I enjoy it. You really lay down the Law right out of the Bible. I've been looking for your literature my whole life. I read and study everyday." K. M. - prisoner - Texas

UNFILTERED NEWS

KILLED: Mobs torched several Western embassies in Tripoli this week after a NATO airstrike killed Libyan Leader Muammar al-Qaddafi's youngest son, Saif al-Arab, and three of Saif's children. Russia and China both expressed their displeasure. Maritta Tkalec in Germany's Berliner said that slaughtering Qaddafi's grandchildren is unthinkable. Those three little children were each younger than 12. The true reason for this war is now apparent: "It's not about protecting civilians, it's about taking control of an oil-rich state."

RKH: If I remember right, an American air strike killed another of Qaddafi's children a few years back.

PRESBYTERIAN SODOMITES: The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) struck down a barrier to ordaining sodomites, ratifying a proposal that removes the celibacy requirement for unmarried clergy. The change was endorsed last year by the national assembly but required approval by a majority of the denomination's 173 presbyteries. (AP, News & Advance, p.A5, May 11, 2011.

STDs: Self testing at home for STDs will soon be available for a wide variety of sexually transmitted diseases including herpes, chlamydia, and gonorrhea. London Guardian

EDUCATION: Thirty college presidents earned more than $1 million in 2008, a new analysis by the Chronicle of Higher Education reveals. Not a single college executive earned $1 million before 2004. The Washington Post.

ASSASSINATED: Bassam Salih Kubba, 60, another Iraqi puppet leader, has been assassinated. Gunmen drove by his car and opened fire and then drove back and opened fire again. Kubba was the second senior Iraqi figure to be killed recently. Izzadine Saleem, another American puppet, who headed the Iraqi Governing Council was assassinated by a car-bomb near the heavily fortified American-run Green Zone headquarters occupation authority. The American invasion intended to suppress Islamic nationalism and its "no-interest banking" has encouraged both.

TERRORISTS: The Financial Times printed a W19 lead article June 12-13, 2004 which identified "terrorists" as those who dedicate their lives to "religious terrorism."

The establishment is beginning to acknowledge that there are law systems other than universal Admiralty Law and that these law systems have followers who believe that the laws of their Gods are worth dying for. Paul Hill who shot two abortion clinic operatives was used as one of the examples.

KURDS: The animosity between Iraq's Kurds, Sunnis, and Shiites has caused some to suggest a loosely organized federation in the new Iraq with the three groups retaining most of the control over their own affairs. (The WEEK)

RKH: Peaceful separation would hamstring the standard "International Trade Cartel" (ITC) practice of causing perpetual strife to justify perpetual "peace-keeping" by their ITC installed governments.

Chapter 442

SLAVERY

Hindu Missionaries

The Hindu merchants of the world send missionaries before them to neutralize religious and political opposition so the people of their selected trade areas will accept them.

Hindu missionaries are called "Dharmamatras" and pose as members of local religions and by bribery and strategic donations influence the leaders of their potential enemies to become friendly integrationists.

Example

Christianity was a nationalist religion whose Laws hindered Roman trade. The Roman Emperor Constantine preempted Christianity and made it a state religion, a religion that forbade the reading of the Bible. He, himself, didn't accept his own creation until he was on his death bed - if he ever did..

Heaven

Most Christian churches today seldom speak of heaven. "Heaven" clashes with the international Hindu religion which doesn't have a heaven. People who die are instantly reincarnated. If the one who dies was good, he may be reborn as a rich man or a king. If bad, he may be reborn as a bug or some kind of animal. A person rewards or punishes himself in his lifetime by his own acts.

Hinduism has no law. Of course, his religion teaches one to "be nice". As stated before, if he is not nice he punishes himself when he is reborn. It is interesting to note that with the advance of international trade, Christian churches progressively abandon the Law of Moses. They are great on ritual, tradition, missions, helping others, but in typical Hindu fashion, laws are left to legislators. In fact, it is a rare Western country claiming to be Christian that executes murderers. Today, most honor sodomy.

Two Kinds Of Slavery

There are two kinds of slavery. One is forbidden while the other is permitted under certain conditions.

"Borrowing" and its resulting indebtedness is equated with bondage and slavery.

> "The borrower is servant (5650 'ebed: bondage, enslave) to the lender." Pr:22:7

When one borrows he becomes a bonded servant to another, and that tends to nullify the purpose of our creation,

"Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5,6

To prevent his creation from becoming slaves God ordered the land to be divided and never sold so that every man could create wealth and provide sustenance for himself from his own landed kingdom without becoming another's servant.

> "All the earth is mine." Ex 19:5; "As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5; "Joshua divided the whole land by lots to Israel for an inheritance, as the Lord had commanded him." Jasher 90:19; "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... the land shall be divided by lot." Num 26:53- 55; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; ... If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession ... in the jubilee ... he shall return unto his possession." Lev 25:23, 28.

Hindu agents are famous for using fragments of Scripture to prove a point that they want to make - a point that is often opposite to the true one. The listener can get himself into trouble listening to "anti-Christs" posing as Christians, and neglecting to study the Scriptures himself.

Woman in Adultery

I once attended a Bible discussion group - the subject was the woman accused of adultery. The Scripture being discussed "The man that comitteth adultery with another man's wife ... the adulterer and the adulteress shall die the death." Deut 22:22 Part of the class said that the woman should be stoned. The counter argument being used was the one where a woman accused of adultery was brought before Jesus who said, "He that is without sin cast the first stone." Then he told the woman accused of adultery to go home and sin no more.

The discussion got hot. One side argued that the Law of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob had been done away and that we were supposed to forgive and forget.

At last a little old lady in the back of the class asked a question. "Who accused the woman? Aren't witnesses required if a person is accused of a capital crime? No witnesses had come forward to accuse this woman. Jesus sent her home with the admonishment to "sin no more", it was what the LAW required.

That was the end of the discussion. This little old lady was the only one in that whole class who had searched the Scriptures and knew what she was talking about.

Work & Marriage

My oldest daughter met a young man at church, the son of a deacon. They decided to get married even though both were still in school.

The match seemed OK to me and I agreed - provided that the boy finish school and got a job so he could support a family. This last part was not part of the young man's plan. He wanted to get married NOW. His parents said that they could live with them.

I sent them to the Presbyterian minister who I assumed would teach them the Law. He advised them that he didn't see anything wrong with marriage taking place right then. This surprised me.

I then sent them to a Baptist minister for proper guidance. He agreed that it was all right to get married and said that he himself was going to school when he got married.

This was no help at all. My opinion was based on Scripture:

> "Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterward build thine house. Pr 24:27

In due time my daughter agreed with me. The boy left and met another girl and married her several weeks later, had two children, then abandoned his wife and children soon after. That could have been my daughter.

Reference

The Bible says "This is the book of the generations of Adam (man)." Gen 5:1. It contains the LAW. If man obeys the Law matters tend to go well. If he disobeys he may be conquered and ruled by the stranger. Then, he is forced to use the parables in Scripture lest he offend his alien rulers.

This is what the WORD says about strangers in the land:

> "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33; "I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shall drive them out before thee." Ex 23:3l.

The following is the Law dealing with marriage to strangers:

> "Neither shalt thou make marriages with them: thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son." Deu 7:3

Suppose for one reason or another strangers come into the land, and marriage to strangers take place? What then is the Law?

> "We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange (5237 nokri^y - foreign, non-relative, alien) wives ... therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the ... commandment of our God." Ez 10:2-3

The objective of God's Law is:

"So shall we be separated, I and all of Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth. Ex 33:16

Slavery

The conquering stranger and his hired agents often twist the Law dealing with slavery.

There are many kinds of slavery. We have discussed "borrowing". There are other kinds.

Slavery Of Man

The Law says:

"If a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from among you." Deuteronomy 24:7

However, a man may work for another for as much as seven years in payment for a service rendered, and at the end of that period he has fulfilled his contract and is released and equipped with tools of the trade he has been practicing and other necessary goods needed to become independent.[23]

23 "And if thy brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. .. thou shalt not let him go away empty: Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor." Deut 15:12-14

This is how America was largely settled in its early days. The agents of the kings of Europe drove the people from their own land and replaced them with sheep (which is why we are forbidden to have kings.). The people were forced to go to cities and work for corporations or indenture their labor for 7 years in exchange for passage and food across the Atlantic to the colonies.

Slavery Of Strangers

The Law dealing with man and with strangers is different.

> "At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release (of thy brother) ... of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release." Deut 15:1- 3

In other words, while a kinsman is released from his 7 year labor contract, a stranger can be required to serve more than seven years.

Slavery Of Strangers

The following is the part of the Scripture usually left out by those in the pay of the merchant's agents.

> "As for your men and women slaves, however, you may buy from among the nations that surround you. They shall be your slaves. You may also buy the children of the foreign residents among you, and from their families who are with out who are born in your country, and they shall be your property. You may also bequeath them to your sons after you, to hold them as property forever; and they shall serve you. But your relatives of the children of Israel are men, and your brothers; you shall not reduce them to slavery." Leviticus 25:44-46 (Ferrar Fenton)

Making slaves of the Children of Israel is forbidden.[24] In Jacob's lands ruled by Esau and his agents where strangers are permitted to live, slavery of Jacob-Israel is forbidden while the perpetual slavery of strangers is allowed.

Virginia's Slaves

The king of England had a slave monopoly obtained from France. He forced Virginians to purchase black slaves to work tobacco farms to increase the volume of tobacco that was in great demand in England. His decrees set the selling price and the purchase price and by his edicts all tobacco was sold to England.

Virginia several times petitioned the king to stop the importation of blacks because according to God's LAW strangers weren't allowed in the land. These petitions were met by threats from the Crown.

After independence, "African Colonization" was organized to buy America's slaves and return them to Africa. Money from the sale of the slaves was to be used to pay the passage for immigrants from Europe who were contracted to work the farms and replace the blacks..

This was done because the Law requires, "So shall we be separated, I and all of Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth. Ex 33:16, "Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:28

This plan was immediately opposed by Esau's agents - the radical abolitionists - replacing black labor with white labor would in no way help Northern corporations gain possession of Southern land as they had done in Europe.

24 This is nullified by usury-banking, taxes, and debt which reduces most to slavery.

Radical Abolitionists demanded that slave owners free their slaves - the strangers - and receive no payment. This was outright theft. They then went about making it happen.

The War For Land

Their puppet government launched an invasion of Charleston Harbor which brought on a sectional war. The motto was to "Save the Union". "Slavery" wasn't a propaganda theme until later.

The purpose of the War Between The States that killed 600,000 Saxons had little to do with Scripturally Lawful slavery. It had everything to do with land ownership.

The South produced tobacco and cotton. During the war the tobacco trade went to Turkey and the cotton trade went to India. After the war, Whites were disfranchised; black slaves were taken from them, enfranchised, and set to rule over their white masters. Corporations sent "carpetbaggers" to direct the blacks' voting. Union Troops built forts and occupied the Southland to keep blacks from being removed from power. Permanent garrisons were installed, which are still here. Then it happened - Black legislators enacted land taxes.

There were few workers for southern farms and no markets for their produce. There was no money to pay land taxes. Usury banks were established. In Lynchburg, on the front of some old bank buildings is inscribed "1865" - the year they were established. There were few banks in the Southland before then.

To pay the land taxes so they could keep their farms, farm owners obtained usury loans from these new banks. Few could repay the loans because of economic depression and lawlessness.

Tax sales of foreclosed land commenced. Tens of millions of acres were sold to land companies for pennies an acre and the formerly free and independent Southern farmers joined their northern brothers by leaving the land and going to cities. Lynchburg grew from 6,000 to 55,000. Richmond grew from 20,000 to almost a million; Norfolk and environs grew from 30,000 to more than a million.

If strangers or their agents rule the land, according to the LAW, the slavery of strangers is permitted. These blacks were forced on the Southland by the ruler of Great Britain. Taking these slaves without payment to their owners was stealing private property and is a violation of the LAW.

In essence, Saxons in the North, South, and West have had their lands taken from them by the international banking system depriving them of the ability to produce their own sustenance and produce wealth. Their debts have reduced them to slavery.

Conclusion

In spite of Esau's media propaganda - the War Between The States was not fought over slavery. It was fought to take land from its owners and reduce their owners to debt-slavery. Most of those who are "debt-free" work for Esau's corporations who control every word they utter.

The age of Esau is fast drawing to a close. Saxons have nowhere to go but to return to obedience of God's LAW.

Aryan, Swastika & Buddha

Esau's media often change word meanings. "Aryan" is one such word. Saxon people have an innate ability to successfully grow things. Where they reside the land flourishes. When they leave, or are forced to leave, the land falls into disuse and their formerly fruitful farms are often abandoned. Following is the meaning of the word:

> "ARYAN, ahr'yan, meaning lord of the soil ... lived originally in Central Asia ... They are also called the Indo-European and Indo-Germanic race. ... Centuries ago the Aryans became the ruling race of India ... All modern languages sprang from these people." World Book, Vol 1, p.407. W.F. Quarie & Co, Chicago, 1928.

There is another word "Swastika

> SWASTIKA: "... The swastika is one of the most ancient and widespread of all ornamental forms, appearing in both hemispheres. It is generally interpreted as a sun symbol. It occurs in Aegean and Archaic Greek pottery and in certain types of fret, found in Egypt and Greece. ..." The Ency Britanica, 14th Ed. Vol 21, P.633, 1936

Following is a letter from a subscriber.

Dear Mr. Hoskins:

Buddha: Siddhartha Gautama (Sakya Mani Buddha) A pure- blooded Aryan of the Sakya clan of Northern India (circ 555 B.C.) "Aryan" is Sanskrit (Aryan mother tongue) word meaning "of Noble Birth/Racial purity" (according to the ancient caste system):

"Swastika" is the original symbol of pure-blooded Aryan clans of N. India and means "Order out of Chaos". It is a principal symbol of Greek Solar diety Apollo - and figures into ancient Nordic/Germanic rites/mysteries as well.

Buddha had Golden-red hair, piercing blue eyes and fair skin. Modern Hinduism is a polluted and profane corruption of what was once a pure Aryan way of life placing emphasis on the superiority of the white Aryan race over the lesser and darker mongrelized species according to the caste system.

Most Hindus are descended from interbreeding between Aryans and aboriginal people of the East (New Guinea, Popua New Guinea, Indonesia, etc.) In any Great Aryan civilization Aryan miscegenation with the "untouchables" of the darker castes always results in the decay, decline and degeneracy of that civilization. Even today the Hindic and darker races jealously recognize and glorify the beauty of Aryans compared with mixed-breeds - see enclosed photo of an upper-caste Hindu of fair skin and Aryan features as opposed to a lower caste negroid Hindu next to her.

The idea that the mixed races will over-run the Earth is probably owing to fact that the Aryans have given them infusions of their bloodlines, thereby creating stronger and smarter species who yet retain their darker and degenerate ways. Hence Aryans have created their own worst enemies through miscegenation. Cain will always be jealous of his brother Abel and seek to destroy him.

Serpent

A subscriber called me from Missouri a number of times with questions regarding the Scriptures. He gathered a number of friends who have questions and arranged a conference call. I received a phone call from one of his friends who was to be included in the conference call, who informed me that my friend had been bitten by a poisonous copper-head serpent and was in the hospital. The comment was made, "In the garden of Eden the Serpent didn't go after the devil, he went after Adam and Eve." The telephone conference will still be held at a later date.

LETTERS

Hoskins; I received and read your book Vigilantes of Christendom about 6 or 7 months ago. I never responded, but feel compelled to do so now. That was one of the best comprehensive books that I have read in some time. You covered as many bases as possible in such a short work and were able to tie it all together to help people understand the problem. I have since passed it on. That should be a textbook for any serious group and I'd recommend it as required reading." H.C. - Texas

Military Public Speaking

This is a "reprint" of an article in the DeKalb County (Missouri) Record-Herald written by Charlie Stokes. Mr. Stokes is the Area Agronomy Agent / County Director MSU Extension Service.

"I wanted to give y'all some disturbing information on our wonderful president. I work with the Catch-A-Dream Foundation which provides hunting and fishing trips to children with life- threatening illnesses. This past weekend we had our annual banquet / fundraiser event in Starkville.

"As a part of our program, we had scheduled Sgt. 1st Class Greg Stube, a highly decorated U.S. Army Green Beret and inspirational speaker who was severely injured while deployed overseas and didn't have much of a chance for survival. Greg is stationed at Ft. Bragg and received permission from his commanding officer to come speak at our function.

"Everything was on go until Obama made a policy that NO U.S. SERVICEMAN CAN SPEAK AT ANY FAITH-BASED PUBLIC EVENTS ANYMORE. Needless to say, Greg had to cancel his speaking event with us. Didn't know if anyone else was aware of this new policy."

Chapter 443

WAR CYCLES/ PEACE CYCLES

In 1980 I was invited to speak at one of Willis Carto's eoncomic conferences held in Washington D.C. My subject was economic cycles that I had learned from the old timers in New York when I was training at old Francis I. DuPont. Many of its old stockbrokers had gone through the depression and had learned things that weren't in the text books that were required reading.

The subject I spoke on was the long 50 year economic cycle and the "four-year election cycle"; the result of debt, and usury, and scrip. Most of the attendees sat through my 30 minute talk and later met with me that afternoon to go deeper into the subject.

I remember that afternoon meeting. It was swelteringly hot; everyone was wet from perspiration. I would make a statement and was met with blank stares - almost no one had studied the history of money - much less knew what usury could do to a country and what it had done in years past. My talk that afternoon turned out to be 3/4 history and 1/4 economics.

At last I was so hoarse from talking that I had to stop. I promised I would write a book telling what I had learned on the subject, and the meeting broke up.

Writing War Cycles/ Peace Cycles

Writing a book is harder than it sounds. It took me five years to write and publish War Cycles / Peace Cycles.

The publishers I contacted weren't interested in handling an economics book. So, I had to learn about computers. After that I wrote the book and had 5,000 copies printed. In due time a truck backed into my driveway and unloaded five-thousand books. That's a lot of books and they had to be stored in my house. My wife had something to say about that.

Pete Peters' Camp

I received a phone call from someone named Pete Peters. He had read a copy of WC/PC and wanted me to fly out and speak on the subject at his summer camp in Colorado's Rocky Mountains.

Pete Peters was about six feet tall, trim mustache, and looked you in the eye when he spoke.

Attending were ministers who were speakers and people attending from Ireland, Australia, South Africa, Canada and all over America. Acquaintances who had known each other for ten minutes got along as if they had known each other all their lives.

The Usury Subject

My subject was "usury" - and the things that happen when you violate the Law. Most of the audience were knowledgeable about the Law dealing with the subject. But, on the subject of usury they had been taught one of two things. 1) Usury - lending money at any rate of interest was bad. 2) Usury - lending money at a high rate of interest was bad. The second explanation came from a denomination that owned usury banks.

The Book

The camp attendees took the usury argument home with them and book orders began to arrive by the case load. In fact, the usury argument lasted almost a year - at which time there seemed to be a general consensus among genuine Bible believers that any usury was bad.

But, WC/PC had stepped on toes.

Consequences

The book was published in 1985. During that time I could not get a newspaper to review the book. Neither could I get establishment churches to even mention the book.

Then in 1999, fourteen years after the first edition of WC/PC appeared, my world turned upside down. My website was canceled and the national media announced that a copy of my book had been found in the car of someone who had committed a crime. Without quoting me or my book they concluded that both I and my book were bad. (I learned later that the media had pulled this same trick on other authors whose writings they disapproved.)

The other day I ran across a review of War Cycles / Peace Cycles written by Clif Droke in 2002. Since many may have forgetten those days and the history involved in usury-banking, with his permission I am reprinting his copyrited review with the hope that it will inspire subscribers to re-read the book.

WAR CYCLES / PEACE CYCLES

Review By Clif Droke

Momentum Stategies Reporter

Richard Hoskins dropped a bomb on the literary world in 1985 with the publication of his book, "War Cycles, Peace Cycles." The book was so poignant and controversial that references to it were made in nearly every major newspaper from coast to coast at the time, and its message was vilified especially by the banking community. Efforts at first lambasting, then later suppressing this work (when it became evident that the public was intrigued by its message) were the order of the day when the book first shocked readers in the mid 1980s. Since that time the book has undergone numerous printings.

Repeated attempts by this writer at locating a copy of this seminal work came up short every time until recently. Much to my surprise and delight I discovered that another print run was made of Hoskins' classic book in 2000, the first re-publication in nearly a decade. I read every page voraciously and loved every morsel. I felt compelled to share this information with "Momentum Strategies" readers since no other book I've encountered comes close to isolating the root of our modern-day economic problems than this one, and none offer more practical and effective solutions than Hoskins.

According to Hoskins, every major war, financial panic, economic depression, and famine in recorded history can be traced to the insidious influence of usury banking. Moreover, these devastating events recur with cyclical regularity that can be charted and predicted. While natural, geo-cosmic influences may account in part for these cyclical occurrences, Hoskins maintains that they are mostly attributable to central banking influences. Starting with this premise, Hoskins takes the reader on a journey that winds its way through nearly 4,000 years of history to our present day all within the short space of 300 pages. All along the way the presence of usury banking makes its appearance.

For instance, Hoskins points out that history records the first known use of credit-or IOUs-is found in the ancient ruins of Babylon and perfected by the priests of Baal. The whole concept of usury, or of lending money with interest, invented at that time remains unchanged today.

Hoskins boils it down to lending 10 talents of money and demanding payment of 11 talents when there are only 10 talents in circulation. Usury contracts drawn up then stated that the borrower was to pay his debt in "talents" only, but the problem is and always has been that the central bank-created money supply is always finite while compound interest is theoretically infinite. Little has changed since then, Hoskins says, as today's high priests of finance are the world's central banks sitting in their temples of mammon, the modern progeny of the money-lending priests of Baal.

Hoskins refers continually to the ancient common law prohibition against usury while painting his sordid picture of the history of the effects of usury upon any given nation. He catalogs an extensive list of biblical references that strictly condemn the lending (or borrowing) of money at interest: "Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother." (Deuteronomy 23:19); "He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor." (Proverbs 28:8); "The borrower is servant to the lender." (Proverbs 22:7); "Owe no man anything but to love one another." (Romans 13:8). Had people throughout history heeded these warnings about avoiding taking on debt with interest attached to it, untold wars, revolutions, conquests, famines, and financial panics could have been averted, Hoskins contends.

One of the first consequences of a usury-based financial system, according to Hoskins, is heavy taxation. Hoskins contends that "The only thing that has kept the usury system operating through the ages is taxation." The only time heavy taxation is not needed is when there is no usury system." This is done to keep the money supply moving and to prevent severe inflations and deflations due to hoarding or over-printing.

The next consequence of having a usury system is war, says Hoskins. This is the first phase of the "War Cycle, Peace Cycle" which the book is titled after. According to Hoskins, "hot" wars are typically fought near the trough of the War/Peace Cycle and are waged only as a desperation measure to stimulate an economy suffering from the effects of deflation (a consequence of usury). They tend to have the effect of providing a short-term stimulus to the economy since new money has to be borrowed into existence in order to fight the expensive battles and industry is provided an excuse to begin operating at full capacity again. This is followed by a "peace" phase of non-aggression, completing an idealized cycle of approximately 50 years from trough to trough. Hoskins identifies his War/Peace Cycle with the 50-year "Jubilee Cycle" mentioned in the biblical book of Leviticus. Without the plague of debt with compound interest attached, there could be no "War/Peace Cycle," says Hoskins.

Another consequence of having a debt/usury-based monetary system, according to Hoskins, is a declining birth rate. When typical 6% interest rates begin compounding debt over time, due to the lack of enough money to pay the existing debts, the debt- plagued native population of a given country stops reproducing due to the heavy cost of living. This in turn leads to the influx of immigration of foreign peoples. Hoskins states that mass immigration is an absolute necessity for any usury-based system since new money must always be borrowed into existence and the money system must continue to operate at all costs.

Immigrants represent new, debt-free borrowers and bank customers. Yet another result of a usury system is the complete abolition of slavery at some point. Hoskins maintains that every instance of slavery abolition in recorded history can be traced to the influence of a banking systems which must keep the money system circulating at all costs. Hence, slaves are abolished whenever the economy begins to contract and fresh new borrowers are needed to get the wheels of commerce rolling again. Writes Hoskins, "I have never encountered a case in history where slaves were freed en masse for humanitarian reasons. First usury causes high prices (inflation), then heavy debts, a landless people, lower birth rates and declining population, and finally immigration of new peoples needed to borrow money into existence and pay taxes, or slaves are emancipated to achieve the same object." As Hoskins relates, a debt-free potential borrower is of far greater value than a heavily indebted native citizen.

Hoskins' grasp of economic history is astounding. The reader is treated to many nuggets of his wisdom and he presents amazingly simple, yet profound, solutions to modern economic problems based on his learning. Perhaps the most profound chapter in his book is the chapter entitled "Tallies & T-Bills." Hoskins takes the reader back to the year 1100 A.D. when Henry I, fourth son of William the Conqueror, ascended the throne of England. Finding the treasury empty and his needs great, he cast about for a source of income.

Having wise advisors he soon hit on a plan. The plan, with a few refinements, remained in effect for the next 726 years and is so simple and workable that it can be reinstated tomorrow. He issued "tallies."

Quoting Hoskins at length, he writes: "A tally was a stick about nine inches or so long with each of the four sides about 1 1/2 inches wide. On two of the sides, the value of the "tally" was carved into the wood. On the other two sides, the amount was printed in ink.

"The tally was then split in half lengthwise. One half remained in the treasury and the other half was given to soldiers for their pay, to farmers for wheat, to armorers for armor, and to laborers for their labor.

"At tax time, taxpayers were required to bring in one half of a tally to pay their taxes. Woe unto the man who did not have the required number of tally sticks. As a consequence, these intrinsically worthless sticks of wood were in great demand. Gold and silver coins were fine if you traveled abroad for a crusade or something, but at home if you did not have your tax-tally at tax time-you were done.

"Upon receipt of a tally the treasurer would immediately match the presented half with the half stored in the treasury. They had to tally-which is what gave it the name. Counterfeiters lost their heads! Actually, it was practically impossible to counterfeit a tally. The wood grain had to match-the notches had to match-and the ink inscriptions had to match. This could only come about if both pieces came from the same split tally stick.

"There you have it! An inexhaustible source of revenue for the government. The means were available to make tallies as long as there were trees. There was a demand as long as the government required the tallies for taxes. The system flourished as long as tax evaders and counterfeiters were punished, and they always were. For 726 years the system flourished."

Hoskins points out that government "tally" money and "usury" money cannot exist side by side. Tally-money makes usury-money look bad because it stays constant, while usury-money expands and contracts. The advent of usury-money spelled the death of the tally. The process began with the Bank of England being chartered in 1694 and continues today with the Federal Reserve banking system.

Writes Hoskins, "The government has the right to make money. It can do so whenever it chooses. In the United States the government has authorized the Treasury to create Treasury Bills. These bills are created out of thin air, but they are no less real than the wooden tallies of our ancestors. The government doesn't need to borrow money from the banks of the Federal Reserve and have debt of trillions of dollars. It can make money instead. All it has to do is MAKE "T-Bill tallies in denominations of $1, $5, $10, $20 $50, $100, and $1000. Then it can spend them for needed government services, and tax them out of circulation again. Our ancestors did it for almost three- fourths of a thousand years."

Hoskins presents a modified system of the tally system in his book as a model to help relieve beleaguered towns and municipalities during times of economic depression when no money is available in the Fed-controlled economic system. He advises the printing of localized "scrip" for use as a monetary medium for payments of goods and services and taxes. With careful planning and organization, he maintains this plan can be put into effect with only minimal costs. He documents several instances in recent history when such systems were used effectively.

He also provides excellent words of advice for the individual or family suffering under the burden of crushing debts. His advice on this subject is worth the price of the book alone.

In 1985, Hoskins' book announced that South Africa, at that time the warmest friend the U.S. had in Africa, would be turned into an enemy. This occurred one year later. The book projected that the Arab oil-producing world would be the next war target- for different economic reasons. This prediction, too, has come to pass. Massive bank consolidations were predicted, reducing the total number worldwide. Open immigration was envisioned as a practical economic necessity. Now, every locality has its immigration problems. Other things have not yet come to pass- things like widespread municipal bond failures, a massive stock market collapse, widespread famine, a crackdown on dissidents, rampant civil disobedience, a religious revival, and an invasion of America by foreign armies. Logically, these things should also come in time. If they do, America will be very, very different from what it is today.

We deeply recommend "War Cycles, Peace Cycles" to any serious student of economic history as well as to the concerned individual who wants to learn more about why things are the way they are today and what can be done to assuage our problems. No library should be without a copy. The book is available from most on-line bookstores, or by ordering directly from the publisher at Virginia Publishing Company, POB 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505. $29.

Conclusion

It appears that difficult days brought on by the practice of usury may be coming to a head. There are several countries who cannot meet their debts as they come due. This may quickly spread to other countries and affect the economies of countries worldwide.

Only recently the United States needed money in amounts that in the past were only secured by war-borrowing. This time the government by-passed the usual time-consuming war needed to get large quantities of money into circulation and proceeded to borrow more than a trillion dollars - an amount larger than the expense of any previous war. The interesting thing is that the benefits of the large borrowing only lasted for several months - and still IOUs are coming due in large denominations and there is no money with which to pay them.

The institution with which we are having to deal is the Federal Reserve Bank. In spite of its name it is a private banking system that has never been audited by the government.

The lack of money can shut down the world's business, a calamity that could cause starvation and war as nations attempt to survive by doing whatever appears to be needed.

God forbid that that day should come, but if it does the system needed to jump-start the economy is the ancient non-usury scrip/tally system. It is a system we have used for hundreds of years in the past and can be used again if needed.

There is an additional item - there has to be someone to tell governments how to create and put a script/tally system to work. That person will have to be you.

The biggest enemy of the present usury-banking system is the ancient Christian religion whose Laws are being constantly violated. Christian Law is being fought by its ancient enemy - the Hindu religion of the international trader which maintains that all religions are one.

The Hindu merchant spreads "Dharma" - "One must love everyone without regard to race, creed, or religion". This is done to neutralize separatist religions.

Hindu missionaries, "Dharmamatras" are trained for 15 years or more to learn the language, religion, and customs of the targeted country to which he will be sent. Arriving in the targeted country he blends in with the local priesthood and with his use of unlimited wealth is soon elevated to a responsible position.

Adopting the customs and rituals of the local religion, he merely adds "Dharma". Seminaries are financed and talented priests who consent to be Christian revisionists are given the media publicity needed to become public figures.

Christianity remains Christianity with its rituals and customs - the only change being that the Law is done away. Hinduism has no law. Sodomy, promiscuity, etc. is dealt with by "reincarnation". The death penalty is seldom used; a murderer may be kept in a prison until he can be retrained. There is no Law against usury.

Thus, the Hindu merchant can enter a designated country's trade area and buy and sell and not worry about his personal safety.

To oppose Hindu usury-banking one must be familiar with the Christian Law, and must be ready to present the Law when needed.

The fate of Rome awaits the land that fails this effort.

NOTE

Clif Droke interviewed me by telephone the other day. He asked interesting questions. He then posted the interview at at <http://news .goldseek.com /ClifDroke /1311255790.php> You'd be surprised at the number of orders that have come in for WC/PC as a result.

LETTERS

Mr. Hoskins: It has been a bunch of months that I've been receiving the Hoskins Report. My complaint is that they are not 40 pages each! I pass them along so all the Aryan brothers can read them. I do the same with all my books. My only requirement is that people see that it is read. I really appreciate your literature for those behind the fences. Some of these young guys come in with no sense of identity, absolutely no direction and no goals. It's encouraging to see a spark in someone's eyes as they begin to understand who they really are!." C.K. prisoner - Florida

PRAYER: Texas Gov. Rick Perry invited fellow governors to join him on Aug 6 for "a day of prayer and fasting on behalf of our troubled nation." The plan drew strong protests from advocates for the "separation of church and state". The Jewish Anti- Defamation League also condemned the event. THE WEEK

MEDIA: Six black youths attacked a lone white student and brutally beat and kicked him. He was taken away in an ambulance with blood streaming from his ears. Four of the alleged black assailants have juvenile criminal records and the 17 year old, whose conviction caused the recent protests, had two previous battery convictions. The national media are blaming the attack on whites. They said that white students incited the blacks by hanging nooses in a white-only tree at school. The Alexandria- Pineville Town Talk newspaper reported that the nooses were hung in August while the attack on the white student (who was not involved in the noose affair) came in December - five months after the noose-excuse.

In other words, it appears that the media supported "protest agenda" is merely to get lighter sentences for violent black youths. (Story in Financial Times, p.7, Sept 29-30, 2007)

POPE CAUTIONS: "Pope John Paul II told the archbishop of Canterbury that the acceptance of openly gay clergy members by many Anglicans presented 'new and serious difficulties' in relations between the two churches.'" NY Times

RKH: Anglican and Roman Churches are also commercial operations. Roman "canon law" and Anglican "canon law" are basically international Admiralty Law with religious bells and whistles thrown in. The Roman church can "warn" about Anglican openly sodomite priests while protecting its own pedophile priests. Both violate the WORD regarding sodomites and pedophiles and both operate usury banks. There is not a single organized Christian religious organization that I know of that does not accept Admiralty Law over Biblical Law. Thank goodness that in these religious organizations there are still individuals who aren't afraid to put the WORD first.

Chapter 444

TWO LAW SYSTEMS

There are two Law systems. First - there is the "Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac & Jacob".

Second - There is the Law of the "King of the Land".

Naming The Bearer Of The First Law

God's instructions are compiled in many different ancient manuscripts. Some of them were compiled in a book called the Bible. In the first part of this Bible it is stated; "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1

The identity of Adam is easy to discover simply by looking up the word "Adam" in Strong's Concordance of the Bible.

Finding the word "Adam", which is #120, you are instructed to look in the back of the concordance and find #120 in the Hebrew section. Here it says "MAN: Heb: Adam 120 - 'to show blood (in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red (ruddy).'"

"Adam-Man" is a race - the only one to "blush red". He was the last of God's creations - all other creatures and races were made before man. Each race has his own God and laws in whose image they are made.

The WORD says "In the image of God made he MAN." Gen 9:6. God the WORD created man and "God created man in His own image." Gen 1:27.

Not only are we named "man", man's descendants are naturally named "son-of-man". "Son-of-man" is used many, many times in the Scriptures. Even God's Son called Himself Son-of-man. After making man, and "son-of-man", God chose Abraham and his son Isaac from Adam-man and named Isaac's son Jacob - Israel - which means "having God's power of attorney". We also bear Isaac's name - son-of-Isaac - Isaac-son - "Sacae-son", "Saxon" and we bear Jacob's name "Israel" because God gave us the job of enforcing His Law.[26]

Not only did God create man, he gave him many names, but he gave him one Law-system to live by so that he could prosper and remain safe. Adam-Man instinctively tries to live by these laws since he was made in the image of them. If for some reason an "anti- christ" persuades man not to obey God's Law, the same Law that created him will destroy both him and the "anti-christ".

---

26 Only ignorant people identify Chinese, Indian, or blacks by the name "man". Educated people know that the name "man" is Hebrew for Adam-man., he who blushes red.

The Second Law

The second Law system is the Law of the "king of the land". The races created before man were made in the image of the law of their Gods. In the past many of these races interbred. Even Esau, Jacob's brother, became lawless and married strangers. His descendants became like the races he married - lawless. This racial integration created a hodge-podge of humanity made in the image of many different gods. The attempt to follow the different laws of these gods causes constant conflict. The descendants of Esau and those kin to him are pulled first one way and then another by the demands of the Gods of their many different racial ancestors.

The history of Esau and the races among whom he spread his blood is one of constant war, robbery, rape and mayhem. There is only one peace that controls the children of Esau - it is the iron fist of an absolute king. Troublemakers receive terrible punishment at his hand.

"Kings of the land" perceive any other king as a potential threat. The king's solution is to conquer potential enemies and rule them with the same law that he uses to rule the rest of his people. Unfortunately, while the "king of the land" is conquering subjects in one place, enemies wishing to replace him are rising up in another. Lands ruled by "kings of the land" are seldom at peace for long.

The Laws of the king of the land accept their people's traditional religious rituals, but all must obey his word and decrees. His edicts are law. He appoints judges to confirm his words and executioners to punish violators.

Trade

Recently a temple was found in southern India whose hidden vaults had long been forgotten, but when opened were found to contain bags of diamonds and gold coins worth 22 billion dollars, which is a lot of money. India has thousands of temples, and stories such as the one above are not that unusual.

This fabulous wealth is the result of India's geographic location midway between east and west. Her merchants and their agents take goods from east to west, and back to the east, exchanging goods for more gold. People who do their homework know that any who adopt a gold monetary standard are soon ruled by those having the most gold, and that is India whose merchants rule lands where they trade.

Usury

The weapon Indian merchants have long used to conquer lands is usury. One key to understanding the effectiveness of the system is understanding the following anecdote

> Usury may be compared to lending 10 units when only 10 units of the thing lent exists; and requiring repayment of 11 of those units, or forfeiture of collateral. Ezek 18:13; Deu 23:20

One can adjust the above formula as much as he likes, but history calls usury "the ultimate deception". It empties the countryside, creates both the city and super-state, and requires kings, police, taxes, hucksters, and a corrupt priesthood to protect the monopoly. Usury is a capital crime under Biblical Law. "God the Word" ordered; "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13.

Usury is the prime weapon that Esau and his agents have used through the ages to conquer and destroy nations. The end result being dusty and forgotten treasures in vaults under temples holding wealth of dead and forgotten peoples. Today, conquered countries openly practice usury in spite of God's prohibition.

Agents

God the WORD long ago gave the reason that many have fallen by the wayside; "The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10.

Having unlimited amounts of money available, India's merchants easily find agents willing to sell their honor for gold and become "anti-Christs". These agents are given virtually unlimited amounts of money with which to buy the businesses of the nations with whom they trade. Dealing with "Man" they have a problem in that Adam-Man's "God the WORD" has forbidden them to trade with strangers. "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (zûwr - racial alien), thou art snared with the words of thy mouth. Pr. 6:1; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21

To circumvent this law the stranger establishes "kings" to rule the peoples who inhabit their markets. They do this by simply giving a local agent who has a love of money still more money to use to hire his own army. Then those living in the same land must follow his commands and he becomes the God of the Land."

Man's true king is God the WORD, the King of Kings. Since we are made in His image, His Son reminded us of our status; "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5-6.

This has not changed. Each of us has been appointed a king and a priest since we are made in the image of our God, and we are told not to have any other Gods before us. God the WORD named the condition that would befall those who accepted another as king:

> "The elders of Israel ... said ... Give us a king to judge us ... And the Lord said ... the people ... have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. ... they have forsaken me ... (the king) will take your sons (for his army). And he will take your daughters ... And he will take your fields ... and give them to his servants. He will (tax you) and ye shall be his servants." I Sam 8:1-20

A king (whether called king, premier, or president) is a merchant's agent hired to manage the merchant's markets, its people and its trade. He enforces his employer's directives as the law of the land superseding all prior laws including that of God the WORD.

Corporations

Having his own king, the stranger hires agents to lend money at usury. In time, usury siphons off the floating supply of money, and the shortage of money causes borrowers to request loans in exchange for more collateral. In time this results in an avalanche of forfeited collateral. Corporations are created to handle it. Agents who love money are hired from the children of Adam-man to put a familiar face on the corporation that is actually owned by Esau.

News

To capture minds, Esau keeps himself invisible by putting on the mask of corporations. His corporations dispense advertisements to those magazines, newspapers and TV that print news that please him. Those media that displease him are denied advertisement and fall by the wayside. Media that fall by the wayside is acquired cheaply by Esau who quickly change their editorial and news policy. They then receive advertisements and become profitable again.

In media controlled by Esau, one never sees the WORD of the God of Abraham in print. The Law of The WORD is treated as if it does not exist.

Business

Kings are established by merchants to control populations. Businesses that are established by the merchant's agents under the protection of their king hire the compliant of the local populations, and discharge troublemakers. Men working for Esau either eat or starve depending on their compliance to Esau's wishes.

Religion

Jasher 29:20 says, "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." A perfect example of this "stealing of their minds" is the religion of the merchant.

Buddhism, the missionary arm of the Hindu, teaches its followers to be nice, generous, and helpful. They also teach that there is no law except the law of the King of the Land.

"Dharmamatras", the Buddhist missionary takes this interpretation of god into each land in which the merchant trades.

He finds local religious people who, in exchange for money, build an imposing religious edifice, a school, or a seminary, and are glad to make a slight adjustment to what they teach. They will teach the usual rituals of their religion; the burial and marriage rituals, the parables and how to enter heaven - and they will even permit the Dharmamatras to select certain teachers to teach in the new schools and seminaries. All they need do in exchange for the generous help they receive in building their imposing religious edifices, schools, and seminaries is to teach the stories and parables of their religion while ignoring the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and accepting the Law of the King of the Land.

Anti-Christ

Websters Dictionary of the English Language, 1828, defines "antichrist" in this manner: "Adversary of Christ ... Extends to any persons who deny Christ or oppose the Fundamental Doctrines of Christianity."

Identification

Since the greatest revolts to the rule of Kings Of The Land have come from a revival of The WORD of the God of Abraham, special emphasis is given to the Christian Religion. One must determine whether a religious gathering is in fact "Christian" or an anti-Christ Christian-Hindu gathering. Both are "nice, generous, and helpful", but, the anti-Christ also teach unconditionally "Obey in all things your masters." Col 3:22,23; "Be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates. Tit 3:1; "Submit yourself to every ordinance of man for the Lords sake." I Peter 2:4

They neglect to add that these magistrates and powers to be followed must follow Abraham's God, and that The WORD teaches that first, "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29; "If ye love me obey my commandments. John 14:15; "We know him, if we keep his commandments." 1 Jno 2:3; "Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Eccles. 3:1

We are to obey rulers only so far as they are obedient to The WORD.

Media, Politics, Religion

The fact that the Media do not print the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and instead exclusively use the Law of the King of the Land is proof that that the Media are the mouthpiece of Esau.

It is simple to determine an anti-Christ church. Simply walk into a "Christian" gathering and observe.

The WORD teaches, "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (Heb: 2114 zûwr - foreigner, strange, profane, adulterous) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51; "The stranger (Heb: 2111 zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." No 1:51; No 3:10; 16:40

This is why sons of Jacob who have been taught The WORD soon leave Hindu-Christian gatherings and form their own Christian home churches.

Politicians are known by their acts and speech. They can be made to look good or bad by media reports. Those obedient to Esau are given good publicity to ensure their election and re-election. They are also put on boards of Esau's corporations and receive generous additional pay - a great incentive to those who love money.

Politicians disobedient to Esau are ignored by their media because if politicans should become united in mind and spirit they would have the power to overthrow Esau. Esau watches political meetings and attending politicians very carefully. Even the little ones. For example:

In Pittylvania County, Virginia the Board of Supervisors pray to the Christian God before each meeting. If such acts spread nationwide it can become dangerous to Esau's master plan to exterminate Jacob ("Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41.)

When their prayer session became known, a letter was immediately sent by one of Esau's watchdog agencies asking them to stop prayers that "explicity refer to Jesus Christ", and "The government should never use its power to promote one religion over others." The Board Chairman Tim Barber replied "the board will continue its regular meetings," and, "We're not going to have a minority tell us we can't pray!" News & Advance, C4, Aug 17, 2011

Esau's policy is to amalgamate the peoples of the land. The resulting mixed-breeds will have many gods with many laws which must be managed by a God Of The Land instead of God The WORD.

Therefore, information that might alert the children of Jacob is concealed. Integration is Esau's policy. Difficulties caused by integration are suppressed.

Occasionally something slips under the door. On the tail end of England's race-riots the Investors Business Daily, a17, August 15, 2011, revealed that there were unreported hate crimes committed at the Wisconsin State Fair where mobs of blacks suddenly appeared, knocking over children, looting the Midway games and stealing prizes. They pulled whites from cars, threw them to the ground and punched and kicked them in the face. People were injured, including police.

A similar event took place at the Iowa State Fair. Organized as "beat whitey night", bands of blacks targeted white kids, fracturing skulls. Similar attacks are under investigation in Los Angeles, Chicago, Cleveland and Washington, DC where our government remains mum.

The most interesting thing, according to the IBD, is that this black on white news has been suppressed. This allows Jacob to walk into the mine-field of interracial war, unaware that a cloud of destruction is building over his head.

Another thing; 80 members of Congress recently took their yearly vacation and went on an all-expense-paid trip to one of the middle-eastern countries. We can guess which of those countries they will support on their return to Washington. Incidently, none of them that I am aware of has mentioned America's racial troubles that have resulted from integration and immigration.

Conclusion

In a Saxon-Christian society only one of two Law systems can rule; the Law of the God of Abraham, which is also the God of Isaac and his descendants - or the Law of The King of the Land which is the God of Esau.

Today, Esau rules. The anti-Christ judges and politicians he has appointed have outlawed the 10 commandments of God The WORD from courtrooms, school rooms, the army, and the media. To control the minds of the people of the land he has instituted racial integration programs, with alien announcers, alien judges and juries who are forbidden by The WORD to rule over Isaac.[27]

His media-elected-politicians refuse to deport aliens or to install tariffs to create jobs for Isaac's unemployed. This is prophesied to take place in the last days.

But -

Adam-man is stirring. Spontanious groups have organized "tea-parties" which are revolting against both of Esau's political parties. The anti-Christ churches are becoming deserted as those made in the image of the WORD leave to find their God elsewhere. Saxons are arming themselves preparing to meet the armies of Esau that the WORD says are to come. The states are beginning to pass laws on their own to deport aliens. Adam-man is already paying the penalty for allowing Esau's media to persuade them to choose a son of Esau to rule over them.

Soon, Jacob will force politicians to answer two questions;

Do you favor "racial-intermarriage?[28]

And,

Do you favor "deporting aliens?"[29]

Their answers will win the vote of Esau or will win the vote of Jacob.

The day prophesied in The WORD appears to be dawning:

---

27 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15

28 "When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3; "Children of Israel... You only have I known of all the families of the earth." Deut 7:6

29 "I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shall drive them out before thee." Ex 23:3l. "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33.

"They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16.

UNFILTERED NEWS

EMPIRE: Last year U.S. special operations forces were deployed in 75 countries, conducting kill/capture missions against terrorists, training local military and police, or conducting surveillance. This year their operations are expected to expand to 120 countries, or 60% of the world's nations. Salon.com

SWEDEN: A Swedish political party, the Sweden Democrats, which favours strict immigration control, has won 20 parliamentary seats in an election in September. The part polled best in those areas with largest number of migrants. American Renaissance.

BETRAYAL: "The Liberal Party's John Howard, Prime Minister 1995-2007, was smeared by the Left media as "racist" for the 2001 M.V.Tampa affair. Yet while promoting his biography in late 2010 on ABCTV's Q&Q programme he boasted: "I raised Asian immigration to unprecedented heights" from 95,000 per year to 140,000 post- 2001. What's going on? South Africans now understand. Since the 1994 black takeover that their last white rulers, denounced by the world's controlled media as "racist", were happily betraying the white enclave to the ANC & its EU/UN backers. A fraudulent double-game was played by their cynical System. It confounded the many & even some of the Few. The same game is being played out across the Western world. It's end game? Extermination of the White Race." Storm, #94, July 2011, POB 635 Strathpine PS 4500, Australia. Phone: 61+732058543.

BIN LADEN: It was reported that the Navy SEAL team that raided Bin Laden's compound had orders to kill, not capture him. According to a special ops officer, "There was never any question of detaining or capturing him. It wasn't a split-second decision. No one wanted detainees." The New Yorker

IMMIGRATION: Alabama's immigration law is being challenged by the Obama administration. The law makes it a crime to knowingly transport or shelter an illegal, requires schools to report them, and calls for employers to determine the status of workers.

SODOMY: Sacramento, California - Gov. Jerry Brown has signed a landmark bill adding lessons about sodomite history to social studies classes in California public schools. From Wire Reporting

BABIES: For the first time, more than half of the children younger than age 2 in the U.S. are minorities, part of a sweeping race change and a growing age divide between mostly white, older Americans. Demographers say the racial and ethnic minorities will become the U.S. majority by mid-century. Currently, non-Hispanic whites make up just fewer than half of all children 3 years old, which is the youngest age group shown in the Census Bureau's October 2009 annual survey. In 1990, more than 60% of children in that group were white. News & Advance, June 24, 2011, p.A3.

INDIA: Among S&P 500 companies, Indians hold more CEO positions than any other nationality except Americans. Time

NORWAY: Norway has been one of the European countries reluctant to take any more alien immigrants. A certain Anders Breivk supposedly set off a bomb next to a government building killing a number of people and then went to an Island where Norwegian liberals were holding a camp for their children and shot some 68 of them. Such things are unusual in Norway. The response of the Prime Minister was that he was going to make Norway even more open and tolerant. This attitude along with the use of a fertilizer bomb, that in the case of the federal building in Oklahoma, said to be not powerful enough to do the damage done, raises the suspicion of a "false flag". Thus far we have heard little or nothing of Breivk's background or family. Time will tell.

DEBT: Since 1980 the federal debt ceiling has been raised 39 times - 17 times under Ronald Reagan, four times under Bill Clinton, and seven times under George W. Bush. It's been raised three times under Barack Obama so far. The Washington Post

IRELAND: The Roman Catholic Church in Ireland is still covering up the sexual abuse of children by priests, the Irish government charged. The Irish church promised in 1996 to report all abuse cases to state authorities, but the government found that clergy in the diocese of Cloyne did nothing about complaints voiced against 19 priests between 1996 and 2009. Worse, the report found that the Vatican explicitly directed Irish bishops not to abide by the 1996 policy. The Irish government is now planning to make it a criminal offense to withhold knowledge of child abuse from authorities. THE WEEK

BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY: "The British National Party is in trouble. Poor showings at election, closure of party branches, expulsions of members are ongoing. "Members, votes, activities, councilors and funds are all hemorrhaging from the BNP", reports. Heritage & Destiny. "Party membership has dropped from about 12,000 to less than 8,000." A group of leading BNP activists and former officials met in Newcastle. The meeting was unanimous that Nick Griffin must go. IMPACT

PRIESTS: A year-long investigation by the Dallas Morning News reveals that hundreds of Roman priests accused of abusing children have been shuttled from country to country allowing them to start new lives in unsuspecting communities. (Story in CSM)

BRITISH PRISONS: "According to a British government report ... foreign-born inmates now outnumber native Britions in British prisons." (Miami Herald)

OTHER GODS - OTHER LAWS: Willem Endstra, 51, reputedly among the richest men in the Netherlands, was shot dead in Amsterdam - the victim in what police believe is a spate of underworld assassinations. This brings to 10 the number of people connected with the underworld murdered in the past 16 months." (Story Financial Times)

OFFSHORE: Businesses will step up the amount of work they send to low-cost India by 50% next year, despite the political outcry over offshore outsourcing. (Financial Times)

MBEKI OF S.AFRICA: "The question hanging over Mebeki is how far he will take 'black economic empowerment' in his second term (as president of S.A.). That's the government's way of forcing mainly white-run companies to transfer assets to blacks (many of them with ANC connections).

"As president, Mr. Mandela made a strategic decision not to ruin the economy by removing whites from their businesses. He did, however, push affirmative action in hiring. Mbeki and the ANC are more impatient ... but risk degrading the economy if they shift the racial balance in corporate boardrooms too swiftly or stuff them with cronies.

"Mbeki's tolerance of Zimbabwe's rough treatment of white farmers and crony politics is a bad sign." (Story in Christian Science Monitor)

RKH: The US government demanded black rule in S. Africa. This was done to destroy the S. African Saxon nation. After elevating blacks to government the US has done nothing to protect the white remnant they placed under black rule. They have neither tried to relocate them, protested their ill treatment, or protected their lives in any way. The obvious conclusion is that the occupation government of the US wishes the Christian S. African Saxons to die. The alien immigration flood into the US points to the same object planned for America.

SASSER WORM: Hanover, Germany: German police arrested an 18-year-old suspected of creating the Sasser computer worm - one of the Internet's devastating enemies. The boy admitted to programming the worm but it could not be confirmed if the suspect had ties to other worm programmers. Sasser infected millions of computers before it ran its course. (Story in NY Times)

RUSSIA: Alcoa of the US will buy two plants from Russian Aluminium. Financial Times.

SCRIBES/LAWYERS: Lawyers interpret and help enforce the king's Admiralty Law. Preachers interpret and help enforce the same Admiralty Law. These are the same "scribes" and "pharisees" spoken of by Scripture. Scripture says, "It is better to obey God than man." Acts 5:29; "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15

KURDS: The Turkish premier thanked Pres Bush for listing a nationalist affiliate of the Kurdistan Worker's Party "a terrorist organization". (Financial Times, p.1, Jan 30, 2004)

RKH: Cartel installed puppet governments look on nationalists within their borders as terrorists or potential terrorists.

INDIAN BIRTHRATES: "The birth rate of registered (American) Indians is twice the Canadian average: 27 births per 1,000 people in the population compared to 13 for Canada as a whole." Indian & Northern Affairs Backgrounder

RKH: "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24; "Ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you ... for I have given you the land to possess it. And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families ... But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them (shall be) pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell. Moreover it shall come to pass, I shall do unto you, as I thought to do unto them." Numbers 33:52-56

STATE: A state is a business monopoly that can be traded like any other asset. Its commercial value consists in its ability to extract and privatize the wealth of its subjects. This wealth is placed in holding companies called corporations. State-power is used to protect corporate wealth against worker discontent.

AUSTRALIA: Australia's government extorted the personal wealth of its citizens and then "privatized" this wealth to foreign interests. Vast oil-rich multi-billion dollar offshore properties were turned over to Malaysia for them to privatize. Australia is relinquishing its ancient claims on mineral-rich Antartica to the US - to be privatized in time. In recent years it transferred vast stretches of Australian natural resource-rich assets into the weak hands of its native aborigines - excluding whites - preparing them for privatization.

Chapter 445

LAST ISSUE - "RENEGADES"

This issue of the monthly Hoskins Report #445 will be the last report. The author will be 83 in October and is tired. He has wanted to stop writing for some time but hasn't known what to do about the South African orphans or the Prisoner Book Fund.

The solution is to stop writing the newsletter, but, continue to forward money to the Loeries for as long as faithful subscribers continue making donations. The Prisoner Book Ministry will also be continued as long as funds are available. Study groups have been formed in a number of prisons using books received from the fund. There are also individuals who have received money YOU instructed to use at our discretion. The author has a job so HR subscription money has not been used for his salary.

Those who want the unused portion of their subscription refunded, look at the expiration date on your HR newsletter and let us know how much is owed you..

The author doesn't like mushy stuff, but there is something that must be said; Hoskin Subscribers have always been polite, considerate and furnished information I could have gotten no other way. Thank you!

The next HR (which will remain unwritten) was to have been about the Supreme Court. Its justices are appointed by the king to enforce his edicts. The Supreme Court now contains 6 Catholics and 3 Jews. Catholics promise to obey their Canon Law. Jews are expected to follow their Talmudic Law. Today, America's law is a "mishmash" created by previous lawless kings and their supporters.

From the above, one can deduce what life will be like in the future - if the God of Jacob-Israel stands for it - which I do not believe for an instant He will.

Two more things: Esau's "communist" party has merely changed its name.

Next: "Jacob is always getting better - Esau is always getting worse. Esau prospers when he has taken another's land and wealth. When that is squandered he gets worse again."

RENEGADES

Virginia Frontier

Early Virginia settlers had difficulty with the Indians. After a few peaceful meetings, the colonists were assailed by Indian attacks which were followed by lengthy armed standoffs.

The governor was instructed by the king to make the colonists be nice, and allow the Indians free access to their settlements. With the governor's permission, they were even allowed to take precious tools and enter private homes and take food. Still, an occasional settler went missing. Sometimes the remains of their tortured bodies were found.

In spite of all, no gold mines were found, nor would the Indians do white men's work. Matters came to a head with the Indian Massacre of 1622 which killed half the colony. After that, Indians were looked on differently.

Later, the Valley of Virginia became a frontier battle zone. Roving indian war parties often forced settlers to spend nights in the local fort. Travelers were welcome if someone was present who knew them. If there wasn't - at sundown the unsponsored traveler was bound hand and foot and locked in a prison room for the night. The reason? Settler's children had been kidnaped and raised as Indians. They looked white and could pass for white. But, if allowed to stay in a fort overnight they would wait until all were asleep and would then open the gates to an Indian war party.

LESSON: In recent years people without creditable sponsors have appeared in the midst of Saxon groups. They said they believed strongly in states rights, the Constitution, Saxon Identity and the Christian way. They joined our activities and often volunteered to do the disagreeable work that is always necessary with organizations.

However, their suggestions sometimes resulted in the destruction of the entire group. They had been trained, paid, and sent by Esau. New members should always be carefully investigated.

Janissaries

Arab-Turks are a mixed race whose ancestors often had different gods and laws. These gods and their laws are in constant conflict with each other and Arab-Turks require a strong ruler to keep order.

A Turk ruler's major problem is theft and homicide as his own people constantly make war on each other. Ottoman rulers noted that captive Saxon children, when raised in the teachings of Islam, were relatively honest and made excellent administrators and soldiers.

To obtain more such dependable workers, he paid kidnapers and slave traders handsome fees to sell him European children. He obtained thousands of them. When properly trained they became the most feared of all of Islam's warriors when fighting their Christian brothers in the West.

LESSON: Today, our nation's school system has been taken over by the state and students are taught to honor and obey state policy in the same manner the Jannisaries were taught to honor Islamic law. The result is that by ignoring the WORD to exclude strangers, Esau is teaching Jacob to once again fight his own kinsmen.

To prepare the public's mind, Esau's corporations advertise in the media. Their advertisements often picture alien males with Saxon females. This is done to condition the Jacob mind to accept aliens as part of their nation in spite of the prohibitions of the WORD.

Illegals

Today Europe, America, Australia and South Africa are being flooded with strangers. Leaders who follow other gods tell us that aliens are here to do the work that whites won't do. But, the real reason is something else. All we have to do is to look at defeated and destroyed Saxon states. They rose Saxon and fell half-breeds.

We know that the prime objective of Esau is to kill his brother Jacob; "Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41. There are several ways Esau has gone about this task;

In 1941, before the U.S. entered WWII, a book titled "Germany Must Perish" by the Jewish writer Theodore N. Kaufman was widely read. Kaufman proposed the forced sterilization of the German population in order to eradicate it forever.

In January 1943, the well sknown American anthropologist and Harvard professor, Dr Ernest Hooton, wrote an article for the newspaper P.M. titled "Shall We Kill All Germans?" in which he considered the "breeding out the war strain" from the Germans. It was Hooten who first publicly suggested that the German birthrate be strictly curtailed, and that after the war a great number of foreigners be introduced into Germany so that they can "lay with German women" who will then bear some sort of docile bastards.

Today Germany is full of foreigners as the "Hooton Plan" continues in force and no peace treaty has been made with that country to conclude a war that ended more than half a century ago. It would seem that the plan of the children of Esau and their allies to eradicate Jacob continues to be implemented to the letter.

Then there is this declaration that we have all read before:

"Program For The 20th Century"

> "We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By pounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mold them to the program of the Communist party. In America, we will aim for subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the Whites, we will endeavor to instill in the Whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige the Negro will be able to intermarry with the Whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause." Israel Cohen, Communist spokesman in England, in A Racial Program for the 20th Century, Entered into Congressional Record June 7, 1957 (P. 7633). From The Canadian Intelligence Service, Flesherton, Ontario, Canada.

LESSON: Today, America is said to have perhaps 14,000,000 illegals living inside its borders, and no attempt is being made to deport them to give unemployed Saxons jobs in their own country.

Many say that this is the continuation of Esau's plan to destroy his brother Jacob using the "Hooten Plan" of Saxon's absorbing Hispanic/Negro/Indian blood vs. "repatriation of Esau". Regardless, a Saxon who takes a stand that would harm or destroy his people must be looked upon as a renegade. The day will certainly come when he will be held accountable. "If we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins." Heb 10:26

Other Incidents

In the '30s, Lynchburg had an influx of refugees who had fled the Russian Communist Revolution and its aftermath. Of the refugees who arrived in Lynchburg a number visited in our home. They were practically all Russian-Saxons. In time, I met a few Russian Slavs, but rarely.

The question I asked was; "If most of the Russian refugees I saw in Lynchburg were Saxons - were most of the 30 - 35 million who died in Esau's gulags also Saxon? I have been told that they were.

It is interesting that Soviet Communist State has supposedly collapsed, while the state still owns the land of its previous owners and the rest of the wealth of Russia has been divided and now belongs to a handful of so-called "oligarchs" - most of whom are sons of Esau.

Suppose the purpose of the Russian Communist Revolution was simply to kill as many Saxons as possible, and take their land and wealth. If that was the intent - it succeeded.

LESSON: We know that Esau seldom tells the truth. It is written "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20. When listening to Esau we should believe his acts rather than his words.

Media & The Federal Reserve

Andy Jackson, America's greatest hero of the age, complained bitterly that when he ran for president almost nothing he said was reported by the newspapers. He was forced to transmit his words by courier over wide distances in order to reach his supporters. We also know that Jackson was a determined enemy of the banking cartel - which he managed to destroy in time.

We know that over the last hundred years the media have been concentrated in corporations owned by a few people. Articles are often repeated worldwide on the same day in papers located continents apart.

The theory has been advanced that this media monopoly is the result of credit obtained from a private banking cartel known as the Federal Reserve. This organization of private banks owned by Esau was formed in 1911. In spite of attempts by many government representatives it has never been audited in its almost 100 year life.

What goes on behind its closed doors? No one knows. Theorists believe that it is possible that this Federal Reserve creates trillions of dollars in secret and uses this money for any purpose they wish. If so, this would explain how virtual beggars become overnight billionaires. It would explain how a few of these billionaires can buy the media of the world, finance revolutions, destroy countries that had limited the power of banks such as Russia, the American Southland, South Africa, Germany, Japan and China. It would also explain the assault by America and its allies on Islamic countries that ban usury. And last - but not least - the complete ownership of the political leadership of the world by either giving or withholding the gift of publicity and money

Of course this is only theory. A thorough audit of the Federal Reserve should confirm or deny its validity.

LESSON: Since "The love of money is the root of all evil", any theory that has the possibility of filling the pockets of certain people should be examined closely.

Colleges, Seminaries

Janisaries and white Indian captives were trained to hate their own people. There is a simpler way.

I went to a college near home. My teachers were the "old school". They would bring up a subject and often you were instructed to argue the side chosen by the professor. They did not pass judgement on your conclusions as long as your conclusion contained logic. In other words, you were educated as to both sides of many questions of the day. That was an education!

I left for the the Korean War. When I returned, everything was different: new buildings, a new president, and new teachers - the old teachers were gone.

There were no longer two sides of controversial questions. There was one answer and that was provided by the teacher. You gave his answer back to him or failed the course. Today's parents wonder what has happened to their children at school.

In many cases the school had been given money to expand. Esau's corporations. Trusts that provided the money were allowed to select one or more of their representatives to sit on the college's board, and perhaps recommend a few teachers to fill the new classrooms.

We see the result. We now have sons of Jacob who hate their own people. This is much simpler than opening the gates to an Indian war party or kidnaping children to be trained as Janissaries. The result is the same.

LESSON: Any grant or gift from Esau can be considered to have strings attached, and those who accept those gifts should be watched carefully.

Conclusion

In Richmond fifty years ago, nice, patriotic unknowns joined our newly organized conservative political party. One rainy day when most members stayed at home, the newcomers showed up as a bloc and voted themselves into power and never held another meeting. We never discovered who they represented. We had accepted the new members at their word and had not investigated their statements.

Virginia elected J. Lindsey Almond to be governor to fight the federal takeover of Virginia schools. He had promised to enforce Sen. Harry Byrd's "Massive Resistance". He was elected by a landslide and immediately gave in to the feds. He then complained that he was being persecuted by his fellow Virginians, and when he retired he was immediately made a federal judge.

Then there was the committee who came to my house promising money to make a movie of WC/PC. All I had to do was to sign a paper giving them exclusive rights to reprint my books. I didn't sign. I didn't know any of the people. The leader came by my house several times after and treated me like I was the most wonderful man in Virginia.

Later I was walking with my shepherd in the woods near the Black Water Creek. A man in jogging clothes ran up the path. It was the friend who had been talking to me. He saw me, smiled and slowed to a walk. As he approached me smiling, my shepherd walked out from behind a large oak and stood between us. Startled, my friend jumped back - and a sheath knife that he had been holding hidden in his hand fell to the ground. Without a word, he leaned down, scooped up the knife, and ran off. I tried to locate him later but he had moved out of town.[30]

These people, and others like them have had their day. Our people are learning to use the The LAW as a filter. Rest assured that the day will come when preachers, politicians, business men and their agents, will first hold up God the WORD to earn the right to stay in our midst.

"Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Ecclesiastes 12:12

LETTER FROM THE LOERIES

Dear Mr. Hoskins, Anne, family and friends in America,

The beloved Hantie Kwakkestijn, being so very ill, we realize she has a long road ahead to recovery and we are really concerned. The last time I went to see her and Hans, she was so brittle and I had to fight against the tears! Hans is such a wonderful and loyal support and does everything for her. They are so endearing and special to us all. If we had the means, we would have visited them more often but all we can do is pray.[31]

30 After this incident, and during and after the time the newspapers went after me and my books - except for certain sons-of-Esau who were following the orders of their masters - I have received nothing but friendly waves and smiles from Lynchburgers from that day to this.

We feel terrible for not sending letters on a regular basis, but I think you will believe me when I say I am on duty almost 24 hours per day! After dinner we have to attend to the signing of school books, writing letters to teachers concerning school affairs, helping the children with home assignments by searching for information on the internet and the only time I have to attend to my administrative duties, is when all the children are in bed.

During week-days after the children have been taken to school, the phone start ringing and this is also the time when we welcome visitors - some times they would stay until school is out to meet the children. It is heartwarming when locals or visitors make the effort to come and show interest or offer support.

After fetching the children from school we have a strict routine as it is no joke when it comes to steering 37 children, each one: unique personality, with own aspirations, thoughts and identity to clearly understand why we have to study and learn to read, speak properly and aspire. We have to help them stay focused and thus, after having our main meal, we sit down to school work and assignments.

Most afternoons some of the children are taken to extra-mural activities or sport practices and fetched at different times. The children then need our full attention and assistance especially those who really struggle to progress. They also need time to exhale and relax before bath time, dinner, Bible reading, discussing certain issues that need to be addressed, brushing teeth, then the good night hugs and kisses and off to bed! Then my administrative gets attention.

31 Until her stroke, Hantie Kwakkestijn wrote "News From South Africa" for HR for more than 20 years.

The above happens each and every week day apart from the washing, drying, and ironing, handing out clothes, keeping the rooms, bathrooms, cupboards tidy and clean!

We have a tight schedule but it is rewarding. Please forgive me for not sending news on a regular basis. We will however make an effort as you and your subscribers are so dear and special to us. Had it not been for your support, caring and trust in what we do, we would in no way be in the position we are today! Only our Heavenly Father knows how much we appreciate your ongoing support of the Loerie Children's home and we feel so very privileged!

Unfortunately, we have also been targeted by criminals, and our telephone cables have been stolen twice in one month which complicates our lives even more. This means we are cut off from all regarding the internet (thus e-mailing, sending and receiving faxes, no telephone contact, and we are always so dependent of these facilities e.g. having to phone a doctor in an emergency, etc. It is such a burden and our only Telephone Company in South Africa is also getting fed up with the repetitive replacing of cables. They now refuse to install new cables and some suburbs have not had any phones (land lines) for the past six years!

Apart from that we also have this new policy installed by many Home Insurance Companies who refuse to insure certain households because of continuous break-ins. It is so demoralizing! The criminals target certain houses as they are so aware of the fact that an insurance company will replace the stolen goods in no time. They lie in waiting for about a month and return to steal again and this keeps on and on. Thus, a company can decide whether a client is insurable or too much of a high risk and end of story! Apart from that, monthly premiums increase at such a rate and people are suffering. But enough of that!

LOERIE BUS: You have seen our new bus when we sent you a photo and we thank our Heavenly Father every day for the benefit and to be able to transport the children in safety! During most week-ends we really make an effort to raise funds through baking pancakes and selling hot dogs to customers in front of a Groceries shop in order to support the trustees and donors in paying off the loan for the bus.

LOERIE MATTERS: We now have a family consisting of 37 Loeries! We had to make some quick changes. We expanded the girls sleeping quarters by breaking through the one bedroom wall into the children's recreation room. Another wall was erected. The recreation room is now half its original size but the children still have ample space and we cope very well.

The newcomers have adapted smoothly and to see the gratitude in their eyes when we gather in the eating hall, is so heart warming just to think of a child going to sleep without even having eaten a piece of bread is really unthinkable.

We now have 21 girls in the house and 16 boys aging from 8 years to 18!

REPORT ON TWO STUDENTS: As you remember, we wrote about the two Loeries who got the chance to pursue their dreams in becoming teachers one day. The Trustees have founded an additional bursary fund during June 2010 to sponsor Loeries who aspire and excel. These two young adults jumped for the opportunity and they both are thriving and are still very happy and fully aware of the privilege of being full time students - at the only university, well known for being very conservative and Christian oriented and with the grace of God still overwhelmingly white.

TWO ARTISANS: The other 2 boys (or rather young men) Gert and Joshua are also still coping under very tough circumstances. They live in a house in Johannesburg, close to their work and have to fend for themselves by cooking, doing their own washing, ironing, cleaning, etc. They do however come to the Loerie Home whenever they get the chance. Gert is hoping to train as an electrical engineer and Joshua as a diesel mechanic.

HILDERETTE & ERIKA: Hilderette (15) and Erika (12) who lost their mommy are coping well. Knowing that Loerie Home is their home which provides for them and that they belong and feel wanted, makes it easy for them to progress.

And last - I want to thank you on behalf of all the children for your ongoing, unconditional love and support. Please feel free to contact us at any time.

We salute you as always our dear friends and GOD BLESS! THANK YOU!

Betzy and the Loeries

INTERNET NEWS

(The following was brought to my attention recently. Excerpts follow with my opinion at the end.)

Wyoming Sheriffs Put Feds In Their Place

County sheriffs in Wyoming are demanding that federal agents actually abide by the Constitution, or face arrest. Even better, a U.S. Federal District Court agreed.

The court decision was the result of a suit against the BATF and the IRS by Sheriff Mattis and other members of the Wyoming Sheriff's Association. The suit in the Wyoming federal court district sought restoration of the protections in the United States Constitution and the Wyoming Constitution.

The District Court ruled in favor of the sheriffs. They stated that Wyoming is a sovereign state and the duly elected sheriff of a county is the highest law enforcement official within a county and has law enforcement powers exceeding that of any other state or federal official.

The court confirms and asserts that the duly elected sheriff of a county is the highest law enforcement official within a county and has law enforcement powers which exceeds that of any other state or federal official.

The Bighorn County Sheriff Dave Mattis commented: "If a sheriff doesn't want the Feds in his county he has the constitutional right and power to keep them out, or ask them to leave, or retain them in custody. ...

Sheriff Mattis continued; "I hope that more sheriffs all across America will join us in protecting their citizens from the illegal activities of the IRS, EPA, BATF, FBI, or any other federal agency that is operating outside the confines of constitutional law. ..."

My Opinion Of The Above

These are interesting opinions about the power of county sheriffs and what they can and can't do in their own counties. But, somehow it doesn't ring exactly right.

It is really hard to picture your local sheriff arresting an FBI agent or some other federal employee and putting him in jail for violating a state law. That's not to say that they shouldn't have the right to do so if federal agents violate state's rights, but, a sheriff actually arresting and jailing a fed for something other than robbery or murder might lead to other things.

I went to the internet and looked up this Wyoming case to get as much information as I could and found that there was a case of the sort back in 1997. Since then there has been a similar report almost every year with what seems to be additions and embellishments.

I personally have never heard a local politician or judge speak of the right of the local sheriff to do these sorts of things. If they did, I am confident it would be general information.

In my opinion, if a group of local patriots should use the above "sheriff's power" story as an excuse to take a stand for their rights - they may find themselves in the same place that the Ruby Ridge family found themselves.

Recently another story has been making the rounds. It's about a bill to audit the Federal Reserve co-sponsered by Ron Pau l. There is such a bill, but the story presented to me was that a partial audit has already been completed and it was found that the privitely owned Federal Reserve had secretly lent out $16 trillion dollars to Wall Street banks, corporations, and banks in Europe. The figures listed who got how much and when.

I wouldn't put it beyond the Fed to do such a thing if they thought they could get away with it, but sixteen trillion dollars is a lot of mony to put into circulationwithout being noticed by the public.

The story was presented to me as "HOT NEWS" - but believable? That's something else. Others can do this sort of thing much better than I can, but all my searches only turned up one other comment mentioning $16 trillion dollars in secret loans. Wouldn't the politicians running for office love to get their teeth into something like this - especially Ron Paul - and I haven't heard a word about this from of him.

Reason

The U.S. Post Office is in dire straits because people are using the internet instead of the mail. Because of the internet we now have access to news that would have been kept secret in former years. Tea Parties spring up overnight because of this exchange of information; political candidates such as Rick Perry of Texas are exposed as having been both for and against illegals. The internet makes it hard to hide this sort of thing.

In other words, the internet, with all its faults, is an enemy of the establishment that once had a monopoly on news and could lie whenever it chose.

A suspicious mind can envision Esau having his agents deliberately planting false stories on the internet that have the ring of the truth in hopes that they will be picked up by right-wing spokesman and passed on to their readers.

The result of false information spread by right-wing spokesmen by mistake can ruin that person in the eyes of his readers. That fragmentizes the newly organizing right wing. It's a form of warfare. Watch what is said and who says it! It's necessary to win public trust.

Hantie Kwakkestijn is dead: Prisoners report converts: Saxons worldwide are awakening.

Hantie Kwakkestijn

"Letter From South Africa" by HK is no more. Hantie had a stroke which in time caused her death. How "HK" and Hoskins Report got together is interesting.

At the time of the betrayal of White South Africa, I was in touch with S. African patriots who were trying to rally White South Africans to oppose the traitors in their government. They didn't know that their country was being "reconstructed" the same as the US and Europe are being reconstructed today. Almost ALL elected officials have been selected and vouched for by Esau's media and paid for by Esau's business cartels. As the book "Volksverrad" relates - the result was that they were all traitors - all of them.

When this happened, the newsletters from White patriots relating the true events in SA stopped. The only information I could get was from two newsletters written by two highly intelligent women. One was Aida Parker and the other was Hantie Kwakkestijn. At the time there was no E-mail and the newspapers blacked out all other news from S. Africa.

Reports from these two is how I learned about the black government's anti-white economic policies and the effect that it was having on white families. I learned that there were destitute white children who were actually hungry and cold.

HR subscribers asked me what they could do to help these destitute White children. I didn't know what to tell them.

I sent $200 to Hantie K asking her to put it to work where she thought best for the white children.

Soon after, I had occasion to call Aida Paker about an article she had written in her newsletter. During our conversation she mentioned that Hantie Kwakkestijn had visited her and left $100 for her to help some children she was caring for. In other words, Hantie was doing what she had said she would do. "By their acts..."

Soon after this Aida Parker died. This left HK as my primary information source for a considerable time.

I received information about an orphanage for white children soon to be set up whose head was a former South African movie star. Hantie knew about the female star and her planned orphanage but not much more. I wrote others for information and soon received both written information and phone calls from the soon to-be head of the orphanage. Her plans were impressive.

I informed Hoskins Report subscribers of what I had learned.. In short order many thousands of dollars from subscribers came in. Just as I was getting ready to send the money I received a phone call from Hantie Kwakkestijn informing me that things just didn't look right to her, and to hold off sending any money until she could learn more.

In a few weeks, the right-wing Afrikaner newsletter Rapport reported that the former actress was soliciting money for an orphanage so that she could pay gambling debts at local casinos and had been placed under arrest by the authorities. I notified HR donors, appologized, and returned the money to the hundreds of donors - which was a job! Thanks to Hantie K, she caught the scam in time.

However, the uncovering of the movie actress's orphan's money scam gave Esau's media a field day. Articles appeared in the papers that said that the arrest proved that whites were crooks even with their own people. The result was that for a time almost all help for white orphans stopped. White children were actually standing on roadsides begging for food and sleeping in open fields in all sorts of weather.

UPDATE

Hantie told me that people were beginning to realize that Esau's media was controling their thinking and that a few local White farmers had gotten together, formed a company and had chosen an administrator to help the children. Still, there wasn't enough food, blankets or shelter because the White farmers were also being put in a bad economic condition by the black government. Still, HR subscribers wanted to help.

My solution was to send donations to the orphans by way of Hantie. She sent me a receipt when she got the money and then took the money to the orphans - who were called "Loeries". She visited and inspected the progress, got a receipt from the headmistress for the donation and sent the two receipts to me along with a report of her impressions. Her comments I passed along to HR readers.

With Hantie gone her husband is sending me the usual receipts, and because of the condition of the SA mail service, additional reports are made periodically by telephone.

Hantie Kwakkestijn will be missed. She furnished information about our kinsmen in South Africa for the HR for more than 20 years. It was Hantie's opinion, that the unselfish donations of HR subscribers to the "Loerie" orphans are the reason the orphanage exists and the reason that the children are well cared for.

As best we can, the HR subscribers obeyed the Law by taking care of our own people in need. We are certainly proud of kinsmen such as Hantie Kwakkestijn.

From The Loeries

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins

Until now we have not been able to make contact with the outside world due to the fact that our telephone cables had been stolen once again. They have now targeted our area and as soon as the cables are replaced, it gets stolen within a week. This is utterly frustrating and our hands are cut off! My internet is now running for the time being, but the telephone line is still not working!

We want to especially thank you from the depth of our hearts for the very generous contribution we received from your subscribers. You cannot imagine how it helps to keep us going! Three more children can be accommodated with your contribution!

We are filled with great sadness due to the passing away of Hantie Kwakkestijn. She was so weak and dependent during the past few months but throughout she stayed so positive and thankful to be alive and it seemed as if she was so accepting of her declining health. She was a remarkable lady and a dear friend. Hans was such an anchor and great support to her and we think he suffers a lot of pain and emptiness because of this great loss. We deeply hope that he will be able to stay strong and keep up with the good spirits. Life is so short. She will be greatly missed by us all.

On a lighter note, schools have reopened and we are already back to our daily routine and chores and the Loeries seem very positive and eager to study.

As you can imagine, we do not advertise ourselves in the media as it may put pressure on us to welcome "more children than we can accommodate." Thus we keep to ourselves and just pray for people like your friends from America and those like the Kwakkestijns that have been supporting us on a continuous basis.

This is just an up-to-date from your friends from a sad, sad country which is nothing but a second Rhodesia under Godless, corrupt dictatorship, but we have HOPE and we will stay positive and thankful!

Wishing you a long, healthy life with your family through HIS grace and a wonderful 2012 for us all.

Betzy, Trustees, Personnel and all Loeries

RKH: It was the threat of invasion by anti-christ governments of the US and Great Britain backed with the aggressive support of "anti-christ" Establishment "Christian" Churches, plus the embargo of White South African trade - that persuaded Whites to turn over their government to strangers. This is a clear violation of God's Law forbidding strangers to rule man. "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

LETTERS

Greetings Mr. Hoskins: I was saddened to hear you would not be writing HR any longer, but I understand that there comes a time when enough is enough.

Within our Patriotic Movement people want to talk and fight over petty doctrinal differences. My prayers will be answered when all these so-called "True Christians" actually unite

Does the Galley Messenger still offer prisioners the same deal for books to us that they did when we were subscribers to HR before it stopped publishing? There are several books on Scripture that would help me in my studies. In His service, L.A. - prisoner Colorado

RKH: My wife and I will order, wrap and mail books as long as donations to the Prisoner Book Fund keep coming in. Thus far, donors to the Prisoner Book Fund and the Loeries continue as loyal as ever.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: We miss the Hoskins Report. In our prison we have developed a good sized ministry. New converts are given access to the library of HR books built up over the years. Most books are dog-eared from use but serve their purpose. There are still books in your catalogue that we need. I hope you continue with the books as you have in the past. B.W. - prisoner - Florida

Dear Richard, Good luck - you will be missed! G.M, Queensland

---

Thank you for all the Great Reports. I will miss them and the letters from SA. Please forward the enclosed donation to the orphans. S.J.

RKH: To all former HR subscribers. Thank you for all the letters, phone calls and good wishes.

HR: I need newsletter #265 "Volksverraad" about SA betrayal. I need to show it to a friend. How do I get it. J.R. - Californai RKH: You can find it on "CD 1996".

Richard; I'm missing a number of your newsletters. How do I go about HR # 397 "TURKS" and #300 "Media Blitz"? - A.B. - Oregon

RKH: Both of those newsletters are included in "CD 1999" along with all the rest of the newsletters written in 1999.

When you get your CD, slip it in your computer, click on the newsletter you want, and read it like a book. It has a Table of Contents in front (just like below) and an Index in back. In the Index, click on a subject and it goes there instantly. If you have forgotten the name of the newsletter subject and the year - write me for a CD catalog that shows the year in which each newsletter was printed.

People copy a special story from a CD to give to a friend. The friend often makes copies for other friends who have similar interests, and the word continues. The CDs are $12 each and we pay the postage. A number of former subscribers have ordered every yearly CD from 1986 to 2011.

UNFILTERED NEWS

CRIME: According to The New York Times, in New York City last year 96% of all shooting victims and 90% of all murder victims were racial minorities.

PLANE SITE: Producer Dave von Kleist, produced a documentary on the 9/11 Pentagon attack. Its main quandary is the 14-foot-wide hole allegedly left by a 124-foot wide airliner. After 100 minutes one is left wondering how even a child could believe the Bush Administration's "official version" let alone begin a war based on it. A supporter wrote; "I wish we'd had someone like von Kleist at the time of Pearl Harbor! WWII would have been very different." STORM, Australia

DONATIONS

$2170.56 is in the prisoners' book fund after receipts and mailings for the month. This figure does not include checks received after month's end. If funds can be used for purposes other than books and subs, please specify.

My accountant has issued HR guidelines. Donations to the prisoner fund should be made out to Hoskins Report. They will pass through our books and the money will be spent on prisoners' orders.

Checks for "other purposes", including S.A. orphans and other needy kinsmen, must be made out to "Richard Kelly Hoskins" and on the check please write "gift". Please do not mix funds - such as gift to the "Orphans" with the remainder going to "Prisoners". I understand, you understand, but the IRS does NOT understand.

Last month $1607.84 was sent to South Africa and a receipt for the $2848.04 sent the month before was received. If you like, you can send checks or cash directly to the S. African orphans by mailing to Willie & Rina Hoffmann, Plot 4, Verster Park, Bronkhorstspruit, Posbus 120, Bronkhorstspruit 1020, S. Africa. About half of each small check sent to SA is taken by bank "service fees".

A "Loerie" is a little South African bird.

Money for the Prisoner Fund goes to the prison work. Gifts for "other purposes" go to projects that appear worthy according to the WORD. Life is uncertain, so money is rarely kept on hand for "emergencies".

MEDIA: As an example of how the media controls the mind of the public - the pictures of Trayvon Martin, the victim of a Miami shooting by a Hispanic, shows a cherubic preteen with a gentle smile. Victor Davis Hanson in NationalReview.com writes something different: "Lately, a different picture has emerged - that of a 6-foot-2 youth with gold teeth and tattoos, once suspended fromschool for marijuana possession, whose Twitter handle was "@NO-LIMIT-NIGGA."

REACTION: Strangers control almost the entire media. Still, there is the Web The public is increasingly going to the Web for their information. This is causing the public to increasingly leave the printed word for the Web. Now the Encyclopedia Britannica announced that after 244 years, it would no longer make its 32-volume print encyclopedia and focus instead on its digital business. The Saxon nation is beginning to have a choice.

MIND CONTROL: Adam-man and the serpent.

MIND CONTROL

Long before the days of Christ, religious writers recognized two opposite law systems. Nations were ruled by one of them - the other was ignored:

- "The Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob" or
- "The law of the King of the Land".

These law systems are mutually exclusive. The first system excludes the second,[1] and if the second is in power it excludes the first.

When the King of the Land rules, the Laws of the God of Abraham (The WORD) are not to be found in government, courts, schools, media, or even in its so-called "Christian" churches which teach sweet rituals and stories - but no LAW of the God of Abraham.

The transition from The WORD to the law of the King of the Land can also be violent and destructive.

A Different Way

There is a way to control people's minds without resorting to religion or force - a method having no distinct name that people can use as an excuse to brand the system as evil.

If those who teach this "invisible mind control" have access to unlimited amounts of money to pay people for their cooperation - the chance of success becomes great.[2]

Serpent

The serpent was found in The Garden of Eden. It captured the mind of Eve. Ancient books say that the God of Adam banished it from the Garden to India where it is found with the Indian gods.[3] The serpent represents evil to Adam's descendants. It represents good to the Hindu.

India

India lies midway on the the silk routes from China to the West. Indian merchants managed and financed most of the trade caravans.

India's Gods

India's god is Brahma - a combination of all the world's gods. He is also called The Force.

Brahma has two sons, Vishnu and Siva. Vishnu is white, he looks after the home, business, good fortune and the mundane affairs of people.

Siva is black. He is the god of sex and death. Siva brings pleasure and pain and is therefore the most feared and worshiped. His symbol is the linga, or male sex organ, which is prominently displayed in front of Siva temples.

His wife, Kali, is also black. She is the goddess of death. To the Hindu and their followers black is holy.

Siva has another symbol. It is composed of two triangles - one pointed up and the other pointed down. When

1 "Thou shall have no other Gods before me." Ex 20:3

2 "The love of money is the root of all evil." 1 Tit 6.;10

3 "Then ... a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, and threw it on the sea shore, and it landed in India." I Adam & Eve 18:1-9

HR Update

the two overlap they represent the male and female in sexual intercourse. This symbol is known by different names in different lands. In the West it is known as the Star of David.

Perfect Master - Preacher

India has millions of gods and at least 100,000 active religions. Most Indians have neither the knowledge nor the time to study all these religions to select a god or gods to worship.

Certain holy men make a business of studying India's countless religions. In time, they compile a combination of godly teachings and gods with whom they hope to gather followers. These teachers are called Perfect Masters.

Indians visit these Perfect Masters until they find one who satisfies them and then they give their whole allegance to this one teacher as being God on earth and they follow his every instruction.

Since the religion taught by the holy man has virtually no law. a follower discerns right from wrong by asking his teacher's opinion. This opinion makes the minister a Perfect Master - one whose word is looked upon as that of a god on earth and the only way to nirvana. There are numerous Perfect Masters in Christendom today.

Usury

From the earliest days, Indian usury bankers were prominent in the Silk Trade. This trade returned them vast amounts of money.

They obtained this mountain of money from usury - a system guaranteed to return profit. Usury is a practice simple to understand:

> If there is only $10 in the whole world, and you lend it to someone and he agrees to repay $11 - he has agreed to the impossible. The result - he forfeits his collateral.

There are many variations to disguise the practice of usury, but the result is the same - 11 for 10.

Merchants' Profits/Corporations

Usury produces an unending flood of money. This money is quickly used to buy land, businesses, trade monopolies, rulers, armies, educators and religions.

Many of these purchases grow to tremendous size and are organized into corporations. These corporations are usually managed by highly paid surrogates of the nation in which they are located. Most of the world's population work for these corporations - and - to protect their jobs become docile corporation servants.

Usury is a practice banned by The WORD. "He that hath .... given forth upon usury he shall surely die." Ezek 18:8-13 The penalty to the borrower from the usurer is also quite clear; "The borrower is slave to the lender." Pr 22:7

Followers of The WORD condemn usury that the serpent god and his servants use to conquer the world.

Buddhism Saves The Merchant

About three centuries before Christ, India had a powerful ruler named Asoka. His name is known by more people than the name Jesus.

Asoka ruled Hindu India. But the many different rulers and variations of the Hindu religion resulted in constant civil wars.

Asoka then learned of a system of mind-control that offered to bring peace to the land. It was not a religion but physical and mental exercises called Buddhism.

The first step in learning Buddhism is to learn "Yoga". Yoga students are taught to relax mind and body while humming "Mmmmm" which is the Hindi name of Brahma.

Simply, Buddhism teaches its students to relax, be nice and obey your ruler. Asoka built great temples and monasteries to train Buddhist priests, and used them as his missionaries. Since India had many races, castes and languages, each monk had to be specially trained for the area to which he was assigned. The training lasted 15 years. Each learned the dialect, history, customs and gods of the district to which he was assigned.

This teaching is called Dharma. Dharma states:

"One must not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka

Dharma teachers were called Dharmamatras.

The results were spectacular. Indians were taught to respect each others' gods as being part of the one great god Brahma. They were taught to accept next door neighbors of different races who spoke different Indian dialects and languages. For a time, peace descended on India. Most importantly, these Dharmamatras were sent to other lands. They paved the way so that Indian merchants could travel where their business took them without fear that hostile natives would kill them.

Buddhist Missions

Asoka boasted that his missionaries had spread Buddhism to the Greek world and conquered them. This was done by simply attaching Dharmamatras to the local Greek religious leaders.

Because of this, Buddhists are almost always known by the name of the local religion rather than as Buddhists.

Local religions are encouraged to keep their rituals, religious holidays, parables and merely add Dharma. This allows the foreign merchant freedom to enter, trade his goods and establish usury banking since the customers have been taught "One must not condemn another religion or race by word or deed."

Buddhist missionaries also took Dharma to China and Japan.

King Asoka posted lists of Buddhist integrationist requirements throughout his empire.[4]

Buddhist Foreign Operations

Buddhist missionaries, backed by the merchants' unlimited corporate wealth, found local religious leaders who willingly cooperate with them in every country . Often, cooperation only requires money. Other times the bribe is a donated church building, sometimes a college, a seminary or monastery.

In the political sphere there is always someone who will accept money or media publicity that enables him to become "king of the land".

Recently, His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama spoke at William & Mary College. He spoke for the need for compassion - human for human, religion for religion, nation for nation. He stated: "There is too much emphasis on secondary differences - of faith, differences of races, of color, nationality. If we look at the fundamentals, we're all the same people. No differences, no barriers."

Unknown by 95% of Virginians, Buddhists have built a large temple complete with training schools, a growing Buddhist settlement, and replicas of their gods down below Lynchburg on the James. Already, most Virginia churches no longer teach the commandments of the God of Abraham while teaching the parables, stories and rituals of Christianity - plus Dharma. Their religion has become integrationist rather than separatist. This is why China has armed guards on her borders to prevent Buddhist priests or Western religions that have become Buddhist from entering their land.

Two Religions

The sons of Isaac - Isaac-sons - Saxons, are familiar with two law systems:

First, there is the Law of the "God of Abraham":

Second, there is the law of the "king of the land".

One follows the Law of the God of Abraham, or he follows the law of the king of the land who lives on the Potomac. He has ruled that all the people are one and their gods are one.

In the lands ruled by the God of Abraham, the WORD is everywhere. In the land of the king of the land the WORD - the Law of the God of Abraham - is forbidden. It is found neither in churches, courts, schools, military, nor newspapers.

When the sons of Adam-man awake and return to the WORD - things will drastically change. The WORD says:

"They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13: 14-16

From The Loeries

Dear Mr. Hoskins, Ann, family and friends. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for yet another contribution received two weeks ago! It always happens that your readers' contributions come at a time when most needed! To us it is God sent!

As you may know, we had a visit from Johannes Verhoeff from Tasmania during August and he also stayed over to celebrate his birthday along with the Loeries. It was a pleasure to have him. The children really enjoyed all the conversations and to them it was really fun to have this visitor with the strange accent from an island so far from us, and they understood him quite clearly!

The High School children are in the middle of their examinations and we all are studying, studying and studying!

Lindie is our only matriculant (Grade 12 learner) this year and is doing very well as seen in her results. She is looking forward to her "once in a lifetime event" namely the Matric Farewell. Gert, an old Loerie, is accompanying her to the event.

Lindie has already been accepted at the PUK University which, as you remember, is a very conservative, Afrikaans based university and mostly white.

Jean and Sunet are really doing very well at the university and we are so proud as they are the first two Loeries who aspired to study full time to become teachers one day. Sunet's dream is to further her studies and we are praying for the Student Fund to grow - in order to support all Loeries who want to study one day. She and Jean enjoy their student life and study very hard. They know how fortunate they are!

Nicolene (16) who was born with a severe oral deformity including an open pallet and hare lip has been undergoing treatment to straighten her teeth. She had her first huge operation two weeks ago in which the pallet was sealed. It was a big operation and very uncomfortable for her, but not once has she complained about pain or even felt sorry for herself. She is blossoming and it is so heartwarming. Her self-esteem has blossomed since. We are so thankful for help from donors like you Americans which has made it possible. There is still a long road ahead with a few more procedures and treatments, but she is so thankful. We can just thank the Lord for being able to help this girl lead a normal life from now on – without being stared at or even joked about. During the final procedure, the doctors will also fix her lip and rebuild her face.

Endearing Jacques is still battling at school and undergoes therapy, extra classes, speech and reading lessons, but there seems to be very little progress, if any. The time has come to make a very difficult decision. We might have to put him in a school for children with learning disabilities which is not close to Loerie Home. In Bronkhorstspruit we do not have a special school for these children, which means he will have to possibly go back to his parents. It is very hard because we do not want to separate the two brothers. The big issue is that he will have to leave Loerie Home which really concerns us as his 11 year old brother Richard is also a Loerie and they should not be separated. We are really trying very hard to help him and it is very difficult for Jacques.

July and her mother bonded and they decided to give it a chance. She has not finished school yet and we pray that she does the right thing and finishes her school career. Although she regrets leaving Loerie Home, she has made space available for two more newcomers. Although we were very sad to see her going, we were very happy to welcome two little sisters, Sandra and Sune, who really had no place to live. They have adapted immediately and are so thankful.

Gert and Riaan, who have also pursued a career in Aircraft Aviation, are almost finished with their course and we are so very proud of them. Whenever they have a week-end off, they come to visit Loeries and it is heartwarming to know that Loeries will always be a part of their lives. Gert is also accompanying Lindie to her School Farewell.

Enough news for now! We actually only wanted to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for all your love and kindness and wish the Lord's blessing and grace upon you and all your dear friends who are looking after us.

Thank you once again!

Sincere wishes,

Trustees, Betzy and the Loeries

PRISONERS

Thanks to the books that readers have provided for prisoners, there are now a number of prisoner study groups throughout the country. Some of them have become well versed in Scripture. Certain of the younger prisoners adapt quickly to Biblical teachings.

PAINTING

I had a room in my house painted. The painter is an old friend. He showed me his 300 year old Scottish family Bible printed in Gaelic.

He also told me my room was the last job he and his father will be able to get until late spring. He said that today he bids on all new jobs but another bidder will bid $50 less than he and win the contract. He then brings in a team of Hispanics to do the work. White painters in Lynchburg are being forced to leave the business.

America's unemployment rate has just gone to 7.9%. This does not count those who have become discouraged and no longer are seeking work.

There are 11-20 million illegals in this country. Instead of deporting them, the Democratic/Republican party is talking about giving them amnesty so that they can stay and keep American jobs. The result, unemployment remains high, workers' wages remain low which cause corporate profits to remain high while other jobs are off-shored.

JUDGES

The WORD commands "Thou shall not have a stranger to rule over you." Deut 17:15. Notice the "alien judges" on TV, alien police captains and corporate leaders. This is done to accustom Saxons to have aliens rule them. God promised Adam-man that Lawlessness will be punished.

"If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... the Lord will make ... every sickness, and every plague ... until thou be destroyed." Deut 28:58-66.

SOUTH AFRICA

Over the past year there have been a number of news articles about black miners strikes in South Africa. An article in Bloomberg Businessweek revealed the reason. Black miners are in debt up to their necks and are paying interest as high as 80%. This makes it almost impossible to get out from under their debtload. The lenders have an arrangement with the mine owners to garnishee wages reducing many blacks to debt slaves.

In spite of the South African news blackout, stories continue to slip out. The basic story is the fear that the political and economic rivalry between the black hereditary enemies, the Xosas and Zulus, will turn violent. Some of the leaders of the ruling tribes have bought mansions in Great Britain. Making matters more difficult is the influx of blacks of other African tribes who suddenly appear by the tens of thousands and set-up camp expecting handouts and services. Taxes are paid by a gradual diminishing white population.

The farms taken from whites and given to blacks stand deserted. This has created a food shortage in a country that exported food under white rule. Anti-white laws give blacks first chance at available jobs which is causing high white unemployment. The black guerrilla war against distant white farmers continues and the number of white casualties total in the thousands.

Thanks

The writer of Hoskins Report burned out at the age of 83 after writing for 37 years. That was October 2011. During the 37 years, HR ran stories about South Africa and American prisons. Subscribers sent money directly to S. Africa and discovered that bank handling charges took up a good part of their donation. HR agreed to combine checks and send a single larger donation each month as long as donations continued. Can you believe it? Donations have grown. The Loeries Home now has 33 children! And, in my opinion, the books sent to prisoners have produced some of the best read Christian students in the country. The day is coming when America will need them.

HR On CDs

There are 25 years of Hoskins Reports on CDs. Each year costs $12. The demand for entire sets has been almost as great as demand for individual years. Establishment censorship has erased much of our history. The day will come when history will need reconstruction.

40th Year

Richard Kelly Hoskins - Editor | Hoskins Report Update - February 2014 | No. 449

JACOB & ESAU

Isaac had two sons - Jacob and Esau.

Jacob was Lawful; Esau was unLawful.

Jacob married his own kind - he was a separatist.

Esau married strange (racial alien) wives. Esau and his descendants were integrationists.

Integrationists hate separatists. The WORD says:

"And Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Gen 27:41

Esau

The children of Esau roamed the world and fought, conquered, looted and ruled many nations, and mixed their blood with them - which added masses of peoples to the mixed-breed children of Esau.

Through the ages, the children of Esau have looked on the children of Jacob through the eyes of oriental, black and white peoples who bear Esau's blood and see their enemy - the children of Jacob - whom they call "White Devils".

Worldwide, the children of Esau continuously fight each other but in an instant can become allies and unite to fulfill the words of their father Esau; "I (will) slay my brother Jacob."

Jacob

The children of Jacob look on these many different mixed-breed nations that hate them, all of whom bear the blood of Esau, and see just one people - the children of Esau - who are also called Edomites or Idumeans.

Thus, to the children of Jacob there are but TWO races in the world - the separated race of Jacob and those who are integrated with the race of Esau - the Edomites.

The Bible

The Bible is the history book of the children of Jacob and their fathers. Its history and teachings are thousands of years old. In the front of this history book it is stated:

"This is the book of the generations of Adam. ... In the likeness of God made he him; Male and female created he them ... and called their name Adam." Gen 5:1-2

Obedient children of Jacob study and understand the above scripture. Those who don't may accept the lies of Esau-Edomites and their agents causing them to accept Esau's "state of mind" and become traitors to their own God and nation.

This is why Esau works to control our minds. His speciality is to twist the words of OUR God.

Our Bible says,

"As a man thinketh ... so is he." Pr 23:7

Adam-Man

The key to unlock the scriptures is to discover the definition of the word "man".

This is easily done. Take a Strong's Concordance and look up "man" in the front. Next to the word Man is number 120. Look in the back of the Concordance for the Hebrew translation of Man #120 and you will discover that "Man" means "ADAM" in Hebrew: "to be ruddy, show blood in the face, flush or turn rosy."

There is one race that blushes red. It's the white race! ADAM-MAN; the WHITE race!

God's Name - The "WORD"

Our God has many names, but in the opinion of many the following name is the simplest:

"In the beginning was the WORD, and the WORD was with God, and the WORD was God." John 1:1

God's name is given again;

"... His name is called The WORD OF GOD." Rev 19:13.

Any religious, political, racial or economic opinion that cannot be proven by scripture must be considered a creation of Esau's neverending attempt to control our minds.

HR UPDATE

Anti-Christ

He who refuses to obey The WORD is an "Anti-Christ".

When Adam and his descendants obey the WORD, things go well. When he disobeys, things go badly.

Cain killed Able. Cain descendants were cursed as Lawless Canaanites.

Ten generations later the children of Adam committed evil. God chose Noah and his family and destroyed the rest. Noah took two of each kind into his ark in obedience to God's instructions.This includes the non-Adamic races.

Ten generations after this, God chose Abraham from the descendants of Noah.

Isaac - Isaac's-son - Isaacson - "Saxon"

Abraham had a son named Isaac. God said that Isaac's descendants would bear Isaac's name:

"In Isaac shall thy seed be called." Rom 9:7

In this manner we have "Isaac", "Isaac's-son", Isaac-son", "Saxon". Saxons bear Isaac's name which is why the word "Saxon" is seldom seen in Esau's media.

Jacob-Israel

God gave Jacob, the son of Isaac, another name:

"Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men." Gen 32:28

This new name of Jacob "Israel" has a special meaning:

"ISRAEL; Heb - 'He will rule as God.'" Strong's Concordance (Gen 32:28)

Fraud

Jacob-Israel is Adam/man. The WORD says:

"A bastard (Heb: mamzer - mixed-breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord" Deut 23:2

Today, certain mixed-breed Edomites falsely call themselves "Israel". Edomites are mixed-breeds. God's WORD is absolute - it says that "mixed-breed mongrels shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord", which makes the claim of certain of Esau's children being Israel an impossibility. ("Edom is in modern Jewry." Univ. Jewish Ency, 1925 ed. vol 5, p.41; "Jews began to call themselves Hebrews and Israelites in 1860." Ency/Judica, Vol 10, 1971)

Israel Captured & Escapes

Ancient Israel warred with themselves and separated into two parts. The northern tribes, from which we are descended, were conquered and taken into captivity by Assyria in 721 BC, nearly 1,000 years before Christ "The WORD made flesh" was born. When Assyria was distracted by a war with a neighbor, it is written;

"They took counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country where never mankind dwelt." II Esdras 13:41

The Israelites escaped from their captors and spread over Europe and elsewhere. The book of Esdras is one of the fourteen Apocrypha books censored from our KJ Bibles in 1885 to enable Edomites to blind us to our identity and steal it for themselves.

Judea Becomes Edomite

The southern two tribes of Benjamin and Judah were taken into captivity a hundred or so years later, but returned at a later date to rebuild the temple only to find the land of Judea occupied by Edomites. Then began a series of wars that continued until Judah-Israel conquered the Edomites in the south.

Josephus, Antiquities 13:9:1 says:

"John Hycanus ... subdued all the Idumeans; and permitted them to stay in that country if they would circumcise their genitals, and make use of the laws of the Jews." "... the Edomites became a section of the Jewish people." Ency/Jud Vol 6, 1991, p378

John Hycanus's integration of Edomites into Jacob-Israel was an unforgiveable sin:

"A bastard (Heb: mamzer - mixed-breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord" Deut 23:2;

The WORD forbids mixed-breed Edomites to even enter the lands of our people for the following reason:

"They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33

This Law of our God has been pounded into His Saxon-Israel people for thousands of years:

"When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3:

God's People

Israel's special place with their God has been recorded many times:

"The Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth." Deu 7:5-6

The WORD repeats this again and again:

"Oh children of Israel ... You only have I known of all families of the earth." Amos 3:1-2; "Lo, it is a people that shall dwell alone." Num 23:9; "For you did separate them from all the people of the earth to be your inheritance." I Ki 8:53

And yet again:

"There are many nations ... all are His, and over all has he appointed spirits to rule ... but over Israel ... He alone is their ruler." Jubilees 15:23

Jesus was a separatist.

Hate

Esau's media constantly accuses the Sons of Jacob-Israel of "hate". They conceal the fact that The WORD of God commands us to hate:

"Do not I hate them, O Lord that hate thee? ... I hate them with perfect hatred." Ps 139:21-22; "Love the Lord, hate evil." Ps 97:10; "The fear of the Lord is to hate evil." Pr 8:13; "Hate evil and love good." Am 5:15

And the WORD says our God himself hates:

"Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." Ro 9:13

Racists

Esau attempts to twist the minds of the Sons of Jacob by calling them "racists". Not only are the sons-of-Jacob racist, but God The WORD proclaims Himself to be a racist:

"Oh children of Israel ... you only have I known of all families of the earth" Amos 3:1,2

A "racist" is a separatist.

Jesus Christ

Jesus told his disciples:

"I am not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 15:24

When he sent his disciples to spread The WORD his orders were clear and concise:

"These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying ... go ... to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6

Saxon "liberals", whose minds have been captured, ignore their own people and send missions to Esau in spite of God saying "I am not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." The result has been that Edomites have learned our ways and use this knowledge to teach us THEIR ways.

The Enemy

The WORD warns the Sons of Jacob to beware of their Babylonian enemy:

"Thy merchants were the great men of the earth, for by their sorceries were all nations deceived." Rev 18:23

When sons of Jacob work for Edomites they are forced to share their discoveries and secrets with them. Those secrets were not given to Jacob to share:

"God is a ... revealer of secrets." Dan 2:47; "I find out knowledge of witty inventions." Pr 8:12; "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs. ... lest they ... turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6; "Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10

We share the secret inventions and soon Esau has atomic bombs and atomic energy, jet aircraft, tanks, submarines, skyscrapers, and massive armies equipped with the latest equipment given to us by our God.

Also:

The usury wealth of Esau's Babylon made his merchants the great men of the earth. This wealth also buys teachers of false gods. Billions are placed in the greedy hands of JUDAS-Israelites to build colleges and seminaries with which to teach sorceries to young Adam-men to capture their minds for Esau.

This is in full keeping with the scripture:

"Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

Esau's money trains Judas-Saxons to be his agents. This allows Esau to conquer without being seen.

Esau's wealth allows him to appoint kings of countries and generals of armies. Esau owns usury banks, giant worldwide manufacturing corporations, shipping and airline corporations, newspaper, magazine, TV and radio corporations. And, since his banks can create as much wealth as he desires whenever he wishes, he uses this wealth combined with publicity of his media corporations to select politicians, college and public school educators, and TV and radio announcers to program the minds of Jacob/Israel.

Saxon-Israel is now a captive nation - slaves of their ancient Edomite enemies - the ones who long ago vowed to destroy him.

The Enemies of God

The WORD warned us:

"Take heed that no one deceive you. For many will come in my name ... and will deceive many." Matt 24:4-5

Already there are Edomites calling themselves "Israel". They will be punished because the WORD says "Jacob have I loved but Esau have I hated."

But, there are other enemies - enemies closer to home. The WORD tells us who they are and the fate that will overtake them:

In 700 BC, the northern 10 tribes were banished from their land because they violated God's Law. God cursed those responsible. Those responsible were the Priests who failed to teach God's Law to the Israelite people. The WORD says:

"My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain (God's Law) to hill (man's teaching), they have forgotten their resting place (The WORD)." Jer 50:6; "His (the Lord's) watchmen are blind: ... they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way." Isaiah 56: 10-11

A few years later in 487 BC, the southern two tribes of Israel who had also sinned against The WORD were sent into Babylonian captivitity. They too went with a curse against the priests who had not taught God's Law.

"Awake, O sword, against my shepherd (Heb. Ra'ah; 'To tend a flock ... pastor.') ... saith the Lord of hosts: smite the shepherd ... ." Zech 13:7

Anti-Christ Pastors

There are Saxon readers who did not know the few basic things in this article. The reason they did not know is probably because their pastors did not teach them.

If a pastor does not teach the Law, if he does not teach that we are not to have Edomites in the land, that sodomites are to receive the punishment decreed by Law, that usury is a capital crime, that man is not allowed to raise his hand against man (War Between the States, WWI, WWII) - if he attempts to integrate Jacob with Esau - you have an "Anti-Christ" pastor who is teaching adultery and is helping Esau to destroy Jacob. One may even find children of Esau in their churches:

"The stranger (Heb: zwer, racial alien) that cometh nigh the tabernacle shall be put to death." Num 1:51; Num 18:7

If these things are so, it is certain that God's curse will come upon us as in days past. Our hope lies in the knowledge that our God said:

"Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." Ro 9:13; "I loved Jacob, And I hated Esau." Mal 1:2-3

When the sons of Jacob reject anti-Christ pastors and return to the teachings of God the WORD, God will deliver them from slavery and death at the hands of the sons of Esau and their Judas-Israelite servants.

LETTER FROM THE LOERIES

Dear Friends of the Loeries. What an endearing, kind-hearted people of the Lord you are! Just know that you are always in our prayers. Your footprints are embedded in our hearts!

The Loeries are doing quite well at the secondary and high schools. They also wrote their mid-year exams and we will receive their reports soon

During this holiday I also accepted two more children, aged 6 and 10, who had no place to go. They have now met all their new friends and seem very excited about their newly-found Loerie Family. We now have 39 kids.

Natasha and Hilderette, two Grade 12 students, had their first taste of being "theatre assistants" at a private hospital in Pretoria. Both of them are sure of wanting to become professional nurses and are so excited and enthusiastic about their nursing courses.

Our two Loerie students in their third year at Potchefstroom University have made us very proud again. Jean (21) has grown up to be a man now and has been selected as a member of the Student Board which is a great accomplishment. Sunet (21) again got distinctions in all her subjects during the mid-year exams and she has also been awarded "the Golden Key" to the university which means she is one of the top 15% of achievers of her university students. She has established a secure future for herself for which she truly has worked hard.

Lindie (18), our first year student at the same university, has done well during the past examination which was a first experience for her. It was a battle as most of the town where they study was left dry after water reservoirs dried up and the students had to cope without any water for almost a week.

You make a difference in these children's lives and may you be blessed for unconditional love and caring. We wish you all the health and strength you need to enrich others around you.

Sincere and warmest Loerie wishes,

Betzy and the Loerie children

(Ed: Three quarters of our destitute Saxon kinsmen remain in South Africa in spite of our rulers who gave them into the hands of African Edomites. I am 15 years past my allotted three-score and ten. When I'm gone, please find a way to help our people who need help.)

"But if any provide not for his own, and especially those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel." 1 Tim 5:8

Letters

The book your readers sent has been a real blessing. I shared it with other inmates. Enclosed is $12 of my own for prisoners who have no book money. J.J. - prisoner Virginia

---

Dear Mr. Hoskins; Please thank your readers for the books they have sent us. We now have a library that we pass around to like-minded kinsmen. While many will not listen, many others have changed their lives over the years." - E.K. - prisoner Mississippi

DONATIONS

$4736.12 is in the prisoners' book fund after receipts and mailings for the month. This figure does not include checks received after month's end. If funds can be used for purposes other than books, please specify.

My accountant has issued HR guidelines. Donations to the prisoner fund should be made out to Hoskins Report. They will pass through our books and the money will be spent on prisoners' orders.

Checks for "other purposes" including S.A. orphans and other needy kinsmen, must be made out to "Richard Kelly Hoskins" and on the check please write "gift". Please do not mix funds - such as gift to the "Orphans" with the remainder going to "Prisoners". I understand, you understand, but the IRS does NOT understand.

Last month $1935.29 was sent to South Africa and a receipt for the $1418.63 sent the month before was received. If you like, you can send checks or cash directly to the S. African orphans by mailing to Willie & Rina Hoffmann, Plot 28, Verster Park, Posbus 120, Bronkhorstspruit 1020, S. Africa. (Phone 011-27-82-873-9971) About half of each small check sent to SA is taken by bank "service fees".

A "Loerie" is a little South African bird.

Money for the Prisoner Fund goes to the prison work. Gifts for "other purposes" go to projects that appear worthy according to the WORD. Life is uncertain, so money is rarely kept on hand for "emergencies".

PRISONERS: NO FREE BOOKS. $2 IN STAMPS OR CASH DONATION FOR AS LONG AS THE PRISONER FUND LASTS. Preference will be given orders for books containing scripture, and to make the book fund last, orders for lower-priced books. RICHARD HOSKINS WILL USE HIS OWN JUDGEMENT IN FILLING REQUESTS RECEIVED. Expect slow delivery times.
